With that, he picked me up in his strong arms and carried me up to my parent's bedroom. My mom was already in bed watching TV. She looked at us and I

Even though I was prepared, I still jumped just a little when his finger first touched my sensitive clit. At this point in the evening, even the slightest touch of his finger on me was enough to send shivers down my legs and up my spine. He spread my pussy lips apart and circled his finger around the opening of my pussy, slowing entering me just a little bit to run his finger just inside of me. God it felt so good when he touched me right there!

Then he worked his finger all the way into my, like a small cock entering my pussy. He slipped a second finger in after the first one and then began to stroke them in and out of me like he was fucking me. His thumb played with my clit at the same time and I felt like I had died and gone to heaven! It only took a few moments before I came so hard that I didn't think it was going to stop.

"That's it Kelly, cum for me," he said softly.

"Oh god daddy!" was all I could say in response as he touched me in just the way he knew I loved to be touched.

While I was still feeling the aftermath of my first orgasm, he moved on top of me and without further fanfare, my father's cock entered me. No matter how many times he does it, I still feel an almost childish sense of delight whenever my dad's cock first pushes itself into his daughter's pussy. Face it, how many daughters get to experience this? For what had to be the millionth time, I realized just how lucky I was to have this type of loving relationship with my father.

My dad was on his knees and he pulled me up to meet his cock such that my hips were off the bed and resting on his upper thighs. He draped my legs over his shoulders and began to pump my pussy. I thought about how I had been fucked earlier and how little it really mattered to me other than the physical sense of pleasure it gave me. Compared to then, what I was experiencing was on a completely different level. Sure it was just another cock in me but in my mind, it was much more than that - it was my FATHER'S cock, the man who conceived me, raised me, and had given so much to me over the years. How could I NOT give myself back to him for everything he had done for me? To demonstrate my love and gratitude in such as personal matter was the greatest feeling in the world.

Well, speaking of feelings, it wasn't long before I came again, this time gripping his cock tightly with my pussy as my juices once again gushed from me. My dad just kept pumping his cock in and out of me slowly, driving himself in until the base of his shaft pressed against my pussy and then pulling out until the tip of his head was just inside me and then pressing himself back in again. Until now we had gasped and his hips jerked against me as I felt a warm glow deep in my pussy. Oh my god, my father was mating me!

"That's it daddy, cum in me. Oh daddy I can feel your cum in me, so warm inside of me."

Not to be outdone, my mother was ready to cum herself at that moment. She was rubbing herself hard and furiously fast with her eyes fixed on my pussy, watching her husband's cock as it exploded inside of her daughter.

"Oh honey, I love seeing you cum in her," she blurted out, "I love seeing you fuck our daughter and cumming in her!"

The she turned her attention to me and said, "Oh Kelly, Kelly... you're so beautiful, so hot, such a wonderful daughter."

My mother stopped talking and she cried out as her orgasm consumed her. Between her cumming and the feel of my dad's cock ejaculating inside of me I came yet again, a little smaller and less intense this time but wonderful all the same.

As we lay there later in each other's arms, the epitome of a loving and caring family, I knew deep in my heart that this was the way a family was meant to be; sharing the most intimate and loving moments together. My dad stayed in me for a long while afterwards, letting me feel him inside of me as we all kissed and finally I feel asleep.

What a perfect ending to my day!

(Jun 19) Chapter 55: Third Sex Party, Pool Time

Story codes: F-solo FF MF group exhib inc mother daughter
Me (19)
Mary - my mom (38)

So far it had been an interesting summer. Twice so far my best friend Beth had brought me to one of her private sex parties. This one had a totally different "theme" from the rest which promised to make it more interesting, not to mention that "three's a charm"!

1. To Party or Not to Party?

Until this summer, other than with my family I'd never had sex with multiple partners or been involved in any sort of group sexual activity. Well, all that changed when Beth, my "best friend forever", invited me to a crazy sex party just a few weeks after I returned home from my first year of college. If nothing else, you could definitely say it was a new experience for me!

It wasn't until I arrived that I learned that as the "new girl" I was required to be "initiated". Simply put this meant to start off the party I had to let myself be fucked by that night's host right out in front of everyone. Like I was going to object to being watched having sex! That went OK and then afterwards I had sex with several guys I'd never met before.

For me, the most erotic part of the whole experience wasn't so much the sex. The best thing was being WATCHED by a group of strangers as I was being fucked by yet another stranger. Sure, there have been numerous times in the past when my parents saw me having sex with a boyfriend (although the guy doing me typically didn't know it). That was always a turn-on for me but then they WERE my parents so it was more like I showing off for them than anything. I quickly learned that doing it in front of a bunch of strangers was an entirely new and special experience.

Given the success of the first party, a couple weeks later I agreed to go with Beth to a second one and once again I enjoyed a number of new experiences. Even so, afterwards I told Beth that I really didn't want to go to any more. Now that I'd "been there, done that", my curiosity about the sex party scene had been satiated and I was ready to go back to a more traditional sex life.

Beth was never one to give up on an idea so a few days later she called me and asked me to go to yet another party with her. When I started to remind her of our last conversation she explained that this one would be entirely different - it was going to be outdoors and included a pool. I had to admit that it sounded a bit intriguing, especially given the number of times I'd had sex in my family's hot tub with my dad and various boyfriends. There were even a few times when I did it in a lake but these circumstances promised to be unique and for me THAT was the attraction.

In the end I called Beth and told her that I would go. She responded by saying she would pick me up in the afternoon as this party was going to be during the day instead of at night like the previous ones.

Like the two parties before, I found myself debating the morning of the party as to what I should wear. It wasn't as easy a decision as people might think, even though whatever I wore didn't really matter as I wouldn't be wearing it for long. I had a large drawer full of bikinis and all of them looked good on me since I tanned on our deck in the smallest of them with the strings untied so as not to have any tan lines when I wore the others. Essentially, you could say I would laid out in the sun with just a few strips of clothes over my nipples and pussy. I didn't sunbathe in the nude usually as I still liked having a little bit of a tan line when I was undressed to show off my tan. Besides, I think it turns on guys to see tan lines as it makes them feel they are getting to see parts of me that most people never do.

After much debate I finally decided to wear my skimpiest bikini. Actually I'd never even gotten it wet as I only wore it on our deck when I was tanning. It was really just some strings that held up a few triangles of cloth over my boobs and pussy - and not much at that. Besides, based on my experiences at the previous parties I doubted that it really mattered what I wore as I didn't expect to be wearing it for long once things got started. I wore the bikini bottoms under a pair of super short cutoffs with just the bikini on top. In any case, the only ones who would see me would be people who either had or would be fucking me so really what difference did it make?

"Your little pussy feels so good Kelly," my mother whispered in my ear. "I'm always amazed at how quickly you can get so wet. And damn you're still so tight! I know your dad loves the way you grip him when he fucks you. I just can't tighten up on his cock that way anymore so I'm glad you can do it for him."

At that moment I felt my orgasm beginning to build in me. My back arched back against her and realizing what was happening, she rubbed my clit faster, bringing me to an awesome climax.

"That's it Kelly, cum for me, cum for your mother. Let me feel my daughter's pussy as she cums."

She held me tight as my orgasm swept over me like an ocean wave against the beach, pounding me relentlessly with its power. It was so wonderful to be in my mother's arms at this moment, sharing my most intimate feelings with her. As the feelings subsided she pulled her hand from my crotch and let me lick her fingers, tasting my pussy cum on them. I loved the smell and taste of my pussy, especially on my mom's fingers. I adjusted my bikini and pulled up my shorts and zipped and snapped them.

Turning to face my mom, we kissed. It was a long passionate kiss that only a mother and daughter can truly share. I have no idea how long this would have gone on as just then a horn blew and I knew Beth was waiting for me. I gave my mom one last kiss and left without another word. I looked back and she was just smiling as she watched me leave, knowing that her little girl was soon going to get fucked but confident in the knowledge I would be back home to her afterwards to tell her all about it.

3. The Party Gets Started

Beth was looking more than just a little impatient and no sooner had I jumped into her car she drove off with a squeal of tires.

"Damn girl, what's the rush?" I asked.

"Sorry, just horny I guess!" she exclaimed, laughing at her own response. Well, she wasn't the only one! I wonder what Beth would have said had I told why I was in such a good mood? As close as we were there were still some things I hadn't shared with even my best friend in all the world. I knew there were times Beth must have wondered about my relationship with my family but being she WAS such a good friend she never said anything.

We soon arrived at the house where the party was being held at. It was the end of a cul-de-sac in one of the nicer neighborhoods in town. I could see around in back where the pool must have been based on the high security fence. Now I understood how they could have such a party in the middle of a local neighborhood. We walked around the side of the house and entered through a gate where I saw a crowd was already gathered. Everyone looked to be seated at one end of the pool where several tables had also been set up for snacks and drinks.

As we chatted with some of the people I'd met at previous parties, I was pleased to learn that there was a new girl at the party. I grinned as I wondered if she had any idea what was about to happen. From the smile on her face across the way, either she didn't or she enjoyed being fucked in public. Based on what Beth told me, it was traditional NOT to tell the rookie what was going to happen as it weeded out the ones who were just there to be voyeurs and not participate. Well, I guess we would soon find out.

Finally, everyone was ready and the host got things started. One of the first things was to introduce the rookie. The smile suddenly disappeared when she was told that she had let the host fuck her in front of the rest of us before the party could start. Nope, she hadn't been told! Still, it wasn't like she was some virgin or all that innocent. Girls don't typically get invited to a party like this unless they are a bit on the slutty side to start with and she was no exception. Once the initial shock of the unexpected announcement sank in, she looked ready and raring to go.

Damn, the girl was really hot. She was wearing a string bikini which left little to imagine with a body that was the envy of every girl. Her long blonde hair had been pulled back into a pony tail which took some of the edge off and made her look a little more "girl next door". She certainly wasn't shy either! Once the host pulled out his dick she started sucking him without a moment's hesitation. Somehow I got the impression that this wasn't her first time doing something like this. After getting him good and hard (not to mention most of the other guys watching them from what I could tell), she fucking him like a catholic schoolgirl in heat. It was fairly straightforward with him doing her doggie style. What they lacked in variety was more than made up by their intensity. He came pretty quickly and sprayed it all over her back and ass as the crowd clapped dutifully. From the anxious looks I figured most of them just wanted to get the party started.

Before giving the OK to start things off, the host spoke up to say this was a special party today and he needed to take a few minutes to explain some new "rules". Having expected him to say go for it, several people had already started making their move on their neighbor and a number of sighs arose but we all sat back and listened like school kids to their teacher. In essence, the pool party rules were few and simple:

Rule #1: No swimsuits or any other articles of clothing were allowed in the pool.
Rule #2: Sex must take place either in the pool or next to it. The house was off limits as well as the changing rooms.
Rule #3: Anyone in the pool was "available", even if they were already with someone else. Anyone NOT in the pool was off limits.

The first two made sense as after all, this WAS a sex party but at the same time it was a PUBLIC sex party so if you wanted private sex you could go home and do it. The third was quite a deviation from the past though. Essentially he was saying if you got in the pool, then you had to let anyone who wanted to fuck you. I suppose it worked both ways though, so it wasn't all that bad. It's just that in the past it was usually by default you had to make yourself available whereas today it was just the opposite - you were assumed to be available just by getting in the pool.

With that the host declared that the party was now open and everyone quickly stripped down. Some were wearing swim suits under their clothes but most just got naked from the start. As for me, I decided just to strip and get it over with. Really, why bother with the bikini? Beth apparently felt the same way as she was nude even before I was. God she looked so hot! Her boobs were full D cups yet somehow managed to keep from sagging the way most big ones did. She already had her eye on a few of the guys and I knew she wasn't going to be wasting any time getting laid. Damn, the girl was ALWAYS horny!

As I laid my things off to the side, I heard a few splashes and saw that several people weren't wasting any time getting started. At least a half dozen guys were already in the pool with a couple of girls. It didn't take long before the girls were diving and sucking cocks underwater. One of the guys got out and laid next to the pool while two more held onto the sides and let themselves float up such that their cocks were sticking out of the water like periscopes, making it easier for the girls to suck them.

As I prepared to jump in myself, I thought for a moment about what was about to happen. Sex in the water wasn't new to me by any means. I'd even had sex in a crowded lake a while back. I remembered that time vividly as it was so erotic to have kids swimming just a few feet away from us as my boyfriend fucked me while I laid over a float. In addition to the lake, my dad has fucked me dozens of times in our hot tub. Of course the difference here was that I would be doing it in a pool with strangers while people I didn't even know watched us. Not that I minded! After all, wasn't that my purpose in coming?

People were already starting to have sex and I found it fascinating to watch them just go at it without any sign they cared that people were watching them. For the most part I have always enjoyed watching other people have sex although I prefer ME to be the one being watched. Well, let me clarify that by saying I mean I like to watch them in person. Watching a porn movie with paid actors having sex with whores pretending to be turned on by each other does nothing for me. About the only thing I get from watching my dad's porn movies with him is some new ideas and tips.

Watching a REAL girl enjoy the feeling of a hard cock as it violates her pussy... well that's a totally different story. When that girl is someone I know personally, like when my mother or cousin are being fucked by my father, well... what could be hotter? Today the people were strangers, of course, but it was obvious they were truly enjoying themselves and the women weren't not just prostitutes performing for a camera. The more I watched them the more worked up I got myself until more until finally I decided it was time to get some for myself.

4. Entering the Pool

As I started walking towards the pool, I noticed a few guys seated together were watching me and I smiled seductively at them. They got the message and quickly arose from their chairs and started heading my way. Before they could reach me I dived into the pool and swam to the middle where I stood and then turned to face them with the water just over my boobs. One of the guys had already stripped and he dived in after me and was soon right in front of me.

"Damn girl, you look hot!"

"Oh really?" was all I could think of to respond with. Not exactly clever but it kept things moving along.

"Yes, oh really," he laughed, "You know, I wanted to fuck you badly from the moment you walked in with your friend."

"Well, what's stopping you?"

I giggled a bit at that. It was what he most likely expected a stupid slut to do so why disappoint him? Giggling all the more, I started for the side of the pool. I'd barely reached it when I felt him grab my bare ass and immediately slip his hand between my legs from behind. His hand cupped my shaved crotch and his fingers pressed against my clit. He pressed harder and his finger worked its way inside of my pussy. Mmmmmmm, he certainly wasn't wasting any time! There are times when long foreplay is called for but at times like this it's nice to just get down and fuck. It was obvious we both were thinking the same thing.

As I faced the side of the pool he began to massage my pussy when suddenly a cock appeared in front of my face. I looked up and saw that it belonged to one of the other guys that had followed me towards the pool. Its owner was kneeling naked in front of me with his cock just inches from my face. Judging by the hardness, he must have been stroking it until now. Needless to say, I opened my mouth which signaled him to move forward and push his dick inside. Well, put a hard yummy dick in front of any girl's face and what else would you expect her to do?

I started sucking him as the first guy spread my legs apart and lifted my hips up. His hard cock pressed against my waiting pussy and my heart felt like it skipped a beat as suddenly I was overwhelmed by the need to be fucked. There is being horny, a state which typically describes me, and then there is how I felt now. It was like nothing else existed, there was nothing else that mattered. The only thing I could think about was the cock in my mouth and the need to have the one by my pussy inside of me. There was nothing emotional or loving about it, this was just basic instinct kicking in, the essential need to have sex.

My hips wiggled up against his dick as he pressed in harder. At first, my pussy resisted, trying to prevent this invader from penetrating me. The pressure continued to build as he pushed even harder and I could hear him groaning as he tried to force his way into me.

"Damn it, you're fucking tight girl!"

"What's the matter Eric, need someone to show you how?" his friend teased him as I continued sucking him.

"Fuck off Pete," he snapped back, "Shit, this bitch is tight as a virgin!"

Just then my pussy surrendered and the head of his cock bullied its way inside of me. He had so much force behind it that once he was in me his dick drove up deep inside of me until his crotch slapped into my ass, splashing water with a smacking sound.

"Oh yeah, now THAT'S more like it!" he gasped as he started to stroke in and out of me quickly. Meanwhile, I was still sucking on the stiff cock in front of me, enjoying the texture of his cock against my tongue.

"Damn, this girl knows how to suck cock," Pete said to his friend behind me. Then he reached out and grabbed my head, pulling it towards him as he shoved his dick into my mouth.

"That's it, take it all bitch," he demanded.

It's not like he had that much to take. For all his bravado, Pete didn't exactly have the biggest cock around, probably not even average when all was said and done. Taking his dick all the way into my mouth was pretty easy, so much so I could bury my head against his crotch with my mouth against the base of his cock and still breath comfortably. Frankly, in many ways this was better than trying to blow a larger cock. I had a lot more options with a smaller dick, such as being able to take it all in and keep it that way for an extended period. With most guys I was only able to deep-throat them for a few seconds before I needed to pull back and catch my breath.

"Damn Eric, look at her... this girl is awesome!"

"Oh yeah? Well you should feel what she can do with her pussy!"

It wasn't exactly easy to concentrate on them both but I did the best I could. It was actually easier to focus on the dick in my mouth more and just let Eric fuck me as he wanted. The other way around and I might end up biting Pete's cock in half! Still, regardless of how much I tried to focus on my blowjob, it's not like I could ignore the feeling of a guy's hard dick inside of me.

Looking over to the side, I saw Beth had never even made it to the pool. She was riding some guy seated in a chair, facing away from him with her feet on the concrete, rocking on a dick that was driving up into her. She looked incredibly, so much so that it was almost enough to wish I were a guy just so I could fuck her.

Just then my head was pulled back and Pete started stroking his dick in front of me. I knew what was coming next - he was going to spray cum all over my face. For a brief moment I cursed porn movies. Why is it that in every one of them the guy finishes himself off instead of letting the girl finish what she started? I could've made him cum just as well with my mouth as he was doing with his hand, probably even better.

This wasn't the time to debate finishing him off so I just opened my mouth and closed my eyes in preparation for him to cum. It was a good thing I closed my eyes as his first shot nailed my forehead and ran down into my right eye. The next shots hit me in the cheek and it felt like some was in my hair. The last few he touched his engorged dick against my tongue and left a few strands of sperm behind. I kept my tongue extended until he finished and pushed his dick back into my mouth. I grabbed onto it with my lips and sucked whatever I could from his now rapidly withering dick.

"Oh my god," he moaned as I felt him quivering as my tongue caressed his sensitive dick.

"Swallow it," he then demanded, "swallow my cum."

I took a gulp and then a second to get it all down. Then I opened my mouth and stuck out my tongue to show him that I wasn't cheating.

"Hey she did it!" Pete exclaimed, "Damn Eric, the little slut swallowed it all!"

"Well, let's see if her pussy can take it as good as her mouth," Eric responded.

I almost laughed at that one. He could dump cum gallons of cum in my pussy and I would still want more. Not many things in this world felt better than the sensation of a dick spewing sperm inside of me – and in this case it was true that more was better.

"Arghhhh," he groaned as his stroked quickened and I knew he was about to come. Sure enough, one last swing of his hips into me and he held his cock as deep inside of me as he could. When he finally let loose, the heat bloom from his first shot felt like it was way up inside of me, up in my stomach almost. Instead of actually backing out and ramming back in me with each ejaculation, he just released the pressure enough to pull out slightly and then he shoved himself back into me with a mighty lunge.

"Wow, she's letting you cum in her bare?" Pete asked, seeing Eric making all the sound and motions of man having an orgasm but at the same time seeing that his dick was still inside of me.

"Oh yeah!" was all Eric could say at this point. Finally he was spent but he left his cock in me, leaning over me and pressing up against me.

"I'll take it from here bud," I heard behind me. I was too exhausted to bother turning my head, especially since for some reason I figured it was just the guy behind me that had finished fucking me. It didn't make sense though, but my head was too foggy to think straight.

I was just catching my breath, still leaning on my elbows on the side of the pool when I was surprised to feel a cock push its way into my pussy again. Damn, he must have a fast recovery time! Something was different though, this cock felt distinctly larger, like it was stretching me out more this time. I turned my head and looked behind me and realized it was someone different. The guy had fucked me was heading off for the food tables, leaving me here with someone else who hadn't even bothered to introduce himself, or at least tell me that he was there!

"Let's move towards the shallow end," I heard him say behind me as his hands grabbed my hips and gave me some help in moving. When we got to where it leveled off, he pulled out of me and swung me around. For the first time I got a good look at him and was pleasantly surprised. Damn, he was a hunk! Dark complexion with thick black hair and a muscular body that had to be the results of hours every day in the gym.

"Up on the edge," he directed me and as if he wanted to be sure just in case I didn't hear him, he grabbed me by the waist and easily lifted me up until I was sitting on the edge of the pool with my legs and feet dangling in the water. He spread my knees apart so he could stand between my thighs. Looking down, I could see the tip of his hard dick pointed straight at my face. All thoughts of the pervious dick in me were gone as I licked my lips in anticipation of feeling this one in me again.

"Just fuck me," I said to him in a firm voice, not caring who heard me. It's not like anyone would have cared anyway. The whole pool area seemed to be one big carnal site where maybe a dozen or so couples were in various stages of sex.

At the same time I glanced around to see who was watching or doing whatever. I didn't see Beth at first. She must have finished with her first guy and moved on to someone else. Then I saw her in the pool. It was a rather surreal sight to see her with two guys. She was floating on her stomach, her hands on a guy's waist in front of her while she sucked him while another guys was holding her legs out straight while he fucked her. She seemed to be enjoying it so I let my concentration return to my situation.

"Hey hey, you want my dick bad, don't you," he chuckled, stroking his cock to tease me. "So tell me, just how bad do you really want to be fucked?"

I really wasn't in the mood to play this sort of game. I only came to this party for one reason - to get laid as many times as possible. I didn't feel like playing around like I was on a date with some guy. Reaching down, I pushed his hand away from his cock and took it in my hand instead. I pulled it towards my waiting pussy until the head was pressed against the entrance to my cunt.

"Now quit screwing around and fuck me or get lost, OK?

"Well, since you put it THAT way," he laughed as he shoved his hips forward. His cock easily slid into my freshly fucked pussy once again. God it felt so good to have a nice dick in me again! Most of the time I like to take my time and enjoy the emotional aspect of sex as well. In fact, my contention is that sex is 80% emotion and 20% physical which is why my best sexual experiences have all had some emotional involvement with them. That said, there ARE times when it's nice just to be fucked, plain and simple. Nothing special, nothing between the two of you, no responsibility even other than to yourself. Just pure, physical self-satisfaction. Sort of like masturbating but with a real dick and not a dildo. It's about as selfish as person can be, but so long as both partners want it that way it doesn't hurt to do it now and then.

As I said, it's sort of like masturbation. Sometimes I like to take my time, pamper myself, and make it last as long as possible. Then there those times when I just need to get off and I finger myself in the best way possible to make myself cum and get it over with. Bottom line, there is a time and place for about anything and this was the time for just being laid - and thankfully he didn't seem to mind helping me out!

I pulled my legs out of the water and wrapped them around him as he pressed himself in tightly between my legs, our bodies joined as his cock was buried inside of me. I must have been his first fuck of the day as he wasn't able to hold out for very long and almost TOO quickly he was ready to cum.

"You can cum in me," I managed to gasp softly as I rocked on my butt while he fucked me. I got the idea that it didn't really matte if I approved or not, he was going to do it anyway but most men I have been with seem to like to hear me say it.

I was rewarded with a groan as his back arched and he plunged his dick into me as deeply as he could reach. For the second time in less than fifteen minutes I felt the magical sensation of a sense of warmth deep within me as his hot sperm spurted from the tip of his cock into my warm and wet pussy. He emptied his sperm into me, like any male trying to mate a bitch in heat. I guess since I was on the pill you couldn't say I was in heat from a purely physical perspective, but I was definitely in heat in terms of being horny!

I stood up after he had finished cumming in me and I felt the load of cum he had given me start to drain from my pussy. It was almost like I was peeing! Feeling like I was just warming up, I was ready to go again and looked around for a likely candidate. It wasn't like there weren't plenty of possibilities!

5. A Hasty Departure

"Uhhhhh, Kelly, we need to go."

I turned to see Beth and I was shocked at her appearance. Just a few minutes ago she was looking hot and totally fuckable. Now she looked pale and her breath smelled like she had just vomited.

"Beth! Are you OK?"

"No... not at all. Damn I need to go home... NOW!"

As much as I was ready for a LOT more cock, my friend's needs came first and I could see she was not feeling well at all. I quickly grabbed my clothes, leaving my bikini bottoms off and just putting on my shorts and bikini top. Bath had already dressed and was waiting for me at the gate with her head hanging down, pale as a ghost.

On the short trip back home Beth apologized over and over for making me leave but I assured her that a friend always comes first. When we got to my house, I asked her if she needed any help getting home but she insisted that she would be OK and drove off.

Once she was out of sight, my thoughts returned to the party and I almost doubled over as my pussy suddenly had a craving for a dick so intense it was like a cramp or something had struck me. I thought of all those cocks at the party, any one of which I could have had fuck me if I wanted it. God I was so fucking horny!

I went in the house and as I passed by my parent's room I saw my mom lying in bed reading. She was nude, just as she usually was whenever she was in her bed. When she saw me she called out to me in the hallway.

"Hey girl, wasn't expecting you home so soon. So how was the party?"

"It was OK I guess."

"You don't sound as enthused as you were after the other ones. You sure everything is alright?"

I went to the doorway and quickly told her what had happened. She was concerned about Beth. After all, sometimes I think she thought of her as her second daughter. Once I assured her everything was OK, she motioned for me to come in her bedroom and take a seat on her bed.

"So, tell me about the party. Details girl, I want ALL the details!"

I sat down on the bed next to her and sighed. "You know mom, I guess I've learned something about myself. I love sex but now I realize it has always been with someone who I chose to be with, someone that I at least knew his name. Oh sure I enjoy the physical pleasures I get at these parties but I miss the intimacy. I missed what WE share."

"I think I understand Kelly. Hey, why don't you take off those clothes and stay with me for a while."

Once again, my pussy jolted me with its desires. My mom may not have a cock but still, I loved being in bed with her! As horny as I was I knew she would take care of me just like any mother would take care of her daughter's needs.

Standing up briefly, I stripped off the few clothes I was wearing and then laid down next to my mom. She put her arm around me and then kissed me gently. I could feel her warm tongue against mine, touching it and exploring my mouth. She put her leg over me and I could feel the thick bush of hair on her pussy up against my smooth leg as she pressed herself against me. She began to move her hips so as to rub her pussy on my leg while she caressed my breast and hardened nipple.

When her hand made its way to my pussy, I felt her chuckle to herself and then say, "Well at least it looks like you brought home a souvenir."

I put my arms around her and held her tightly against my nude body. We spent the rest of the afternoon in her bed making love as my mother showed her daughter what love and sex were really all about.

demanded that my aunt stop having sex with her brother-in-law. Like really, what choice did that leave my aunt BUT to divorce his sorry ass?

My cousin Kristen was only a couple of years old at the time and has no memories of her real father so in many ways my dad is the only "father" she's ever known. Growing up I'd no idea that my dad was doing my aunt although looking back I probably should've figured it out. In my own defense though, why would I have even suspected that they were doing it? My aunt is a realtor and dresses pretty sharp (some would say slutty but that's their opinion). Although we would never qualify as nudists, it's not like nudity was something we hid either, especially in places where it made sense like when in the hot tub or tanning out on the deck. So seeing my aunt running around the house in little or no clothing was just what she did, not something that would cause me to think anything else. It wasn't until I started having sex with my parents that my mom finally sat me down and informed me about the true relationships they'd shared since they were barely teenagers.

2. How I Started With My Aunt Linda

Let me just say it and get it over with... I first had sex with my aunt just over three years ago, not long after I started doing my parents. Actually, I'd done it with her before my mom "introduced" me to my aunt but at the time I didn't let on. Here's what happened...

One evening Aunt Linda stopped by to see my mom which surprised me so I just assumed that someone must have mixed up their schedules. My mom had been planning all week to get her hair done and so had just left. Even though I told her that my mom wouldn't be home for several hours, my aunt decided to hang around and so she joined me in the basement family room where I'd been watching TV.

Sitting across from my aunt I couldn't help but notice her outfit. It was a typical "Aunt Linda outfit" as my dad would have described it. She was wearing a sharp fitted jacket with a tight cami underneath. The dark jacket gave it a "business" look but the low cut, skin tight cami underneath made you wonder just what "business" she as in! The outline of her bra was clearly visible - when you're in your late 30's some things become necessities whether you like it or not. A matching skirt and heels completed the outfit. The skirt was a few inches shorter than what most women would have considered "decent" but my aunt had incredible legs and loved to show them off.

Sitting on the loveseat, Aunt Linda crossed her legs which had the effect of pulling her skirt practically up to her ass! I could see that she was wearing sheer black pantyhose, the type you don't need to wear panties underneath, which accentuated her lean legs even more. Interestingly she was wearing her hair shorter again. Oh well, after a year of shoulder-length hair I guess she was fed up with the maintenance. As always her makeup was perfectly applied and if anyone didn't know her I was sure they would have thought her to be five to ten years younger than she actually was.

As for me, it was early in the evening but with no plans to go anywhere I'd already changed into my favorite night outfit - a simple T-shirt and nothing else. The T-shirt was just long enough to cover my butt when I was standing so when I was on the couch with my legs curled up under me, it never stood a chance of covering my ass - nor was it expected to. I was home after all so who would care?

It really didn't matter what I wore, or didn't wear, around the house anyway. The only reason I was wearing anything at all was that I felt uncomfortable running around the house nude, not to mention it just seemed more proper to wear SOMETHING for a bit of protection. I felt vulnerable for some reason with nothing on at all when I was just hanging around.

We'd been watching TV for a bit when my aunt looked across the room at me and ruefully shook her head.

"You know Kelly," she remarked, "I've known you since you were born and I just can't believe how much you've grown up in just the past few years!'

Then she grinned naughtily and said in a lower voice, "I even use to change your diapers, you know. Hmmm... from what I'm seeing you obviously aren't wearing them anymore."

She laughed a bit at that which made me think about how my bare ass was hanging out pretty much in full view. The material tended to ride up on me whenever I moved around on the couch and it wouldn't have surprised me if she had even gotten a glimpse of my pussy a few times. Well, like she said she'd known me all my life so it wasn't like it was something she had never seen! Even so I tried, with a marked lack of success, to pull my T-shirt down a bit without being obvious about it. Aunt Linda wasn't fooled at my feigned shyness and she just laughed at my efforts.

"Oh Kelly," she teased, "Don't worry about it. After all, there's nothing I haven't seen before... although you DO look a lot more grown these days.'

It WAS pretty silly of me when I thought about it. Heck, Kristen and I had been playing in the hot tub naked as the day we were born with her and my parents as long as I could remember. We may not FLAUNT nudity in my home but at the same time we aren't terribly shy about it either. Like most things in life, there's a time and place for everything including nudity. While the hot tub and deck were places where it was expected that you didn't wear clothes, sitting on the couch watching TV wasn't really the proper place to be naked. I DID have to wonder a bit though as my aunt had never really made any direct remarks about me in this way before which probably explained why I instinctively reacted the way I had. Aunt Linda must have seen my hesitation in replying and tried to put me at ease.

"I'm so sorry girl," she said in a soft voice, "I hope I'm not making you uncomfortable talking this way. I just figured we could be more open these days with other.'

Then she looked at me with her eyes narrowed, as if she was studying me to figure something out. "Ummmmm, you DO know that your mom tells me all about your little escapades... don't you?'

My eyes widened at that remark which told her the answer right off without me saying a word. Damn, just how much of my private sex life had my mom been sharing with her sister these past couple of years? If my aunt knew about me, did my mom knew all the things my cousin had done! I mean, Kristen may make me look like a virgin in comparison but then she didn't care who knew either. Well, it really didn't matter to me either so long as it was limited to what I did with my boyfriends. As close as they were I still couldn't imagine my mom telling her anything about me and my dad. Yes, in retrospect it was sort of stupid of me to think that at the time it still would have been quite as a surprise!

"And yes," she chuckled, seeing my discomfort, "I know ALL about your new adventures with your parents; and it's about time is all I can say!'

Considering she had been what, twelve when her father had first done it with her, I guess from her perspective I WAS a little late getting into the game but still it wasn't like I was some naive virgin or anything. My first time was back when I was fourteen and I'd over a half dozen notches on my chastity belt already so it wasn't like I was some virtuous young maiden. Still, it DID seem a bit odd to hear your aunt make such comment. It was almost as if she was blaming me for it taking so long to let my dad do me. OK, so technically I WAS at fault and I felt guilty enough about it as it was so she didn't have to rub it in!

Aunt Linda sat up and looked me in the eyes. "You know, I'm sort of glad your mom's not home tonight. I've been hoping for a chance to talk with you privately about what you've been up to lately."

She hesitated a second as if to see if I would react or not, and then continued, "I mean, you DO know that your grandpa was doing your mom and me when we were your age, don't you?'

Actually, I DID know all about that but some things are better kept to yourself so I gave her what I hoped was look of astonishment and she grinned and laughed just a bit.

"Me and my sister, as in YOUR mom, have been close in more ways than one since junior high," she explained, not realizing my mom had told me pretty much the same story. I was curious though to hear it from her perspective.

She continued saying, "We still do it but not nearly as much as when we were teenagers, of course." Then she gave a sinister grin and asked, "So do you know what we always wanted growing up?'

THAT was certainly a wide open question and I wasn't going to touch it so I just shook my head and waited for her to tell me.

"We always wished that we had a brother to fuck us," she confessed, "Do you ever wish you had one?'

Actually, that WAS one of my fantasies although I could never decide whether I wanted an older brother who would be more mature or a younger one where I would be in the driver's seat. Either way I would've been happy. Rather than go off into a discussion about my own fantasies, though I just nodded and kept my silence which encouraged her to continue.

"Well, we may not have had a brother but your dad was the next best thing. Has your mom told you that he fucked me before he did her?" she giggled as if she was revealing something she shouldn't. "Knowing my sister though, I bet she didn't!'

Now that WAS something my mom hadn't told me. I knew she and her sister were a bit competitive but this was obviously a sore point with my mom or she would have told me. My mom distinctly told me that she was with my dad first and that my aunt had barged in later. Who was telling the truth? Somehow it wouldn't have surprised me if my aunt hadn't led the way. Just as her daughter Kristen was a lot wilder and more adventuresome than me, my aunt always seemed to be more outgoing than my mom. Maybe that's why my mom became an RN whereas my aunt is a highly successful realtor?

My aunt went on to tell me a number of other things I wasn't aware of. I had always thought my mom shared everything with me, as I did with her, but apparently there were a few gaps. I don't think it was something deliberate but rather an oversight on her part. After all, doesn't everyone remember the past with a bit of bias or spin? My dad's a lawyer and one thing he has always claimed is that the worst witness is an eye-witness. If you have more than one then you get more than one story!

The most interesting part for me was her explanation of what had happened between her and her ex-husband. I knew he had issues with her sexual preferences but again, there were some interesting twists that I hadn't been aware of. My mom had told me that she had told him about what they did with my dad and their father but she claimed that Linda's husband had been OK with it at first.

Well, according to my aunt he wasn't ever totally on-board with the issue. Her mistake was assuming that as a typical horny male, once he got involved her sister that his own lust would override any issues he had with her activities. It wasn't like she was expecting him to be a swinger or anything; if anything quite the opposite! Sex outside of marriage has always been an absolute forbidden in our family so she figured being able to fuck both her and her sister would be a positive motivator for him.

Then she revealed something that was the biggest surprise for me so far. Once they got married he refused to even discuss sex with anyone else so my mother had gone to him privately and offered herself to him, sort of an effort to break the ice, so to speak. Surprisingly, he actually went along with it but then she found out that it was only because he thought that they were going to have an affair - just a month after he had taken his marriage vows. It wasn't the sex itself that was the issue, it was the secrecy and intent that made both my mom and aunt so pissed off.

Needless to say THAT didn't happen by my mom did try to encourage him to join in my dad and basically swap sisters. She was shocked when he freaked and afterwards he wouldn't talk to my mom for the longest time. One day my aunt came home from being at my parent's house and he could smell the strong odor sex on her. It was the final straw for him and for a moment my aunt was fearful he would get violent. It was then that my aunt had to choose between him and her family. Well, that wasn't really a choice so far as she was concerned - family always comes first. A short while later she divorced him, keeping Kristen to raise on her own.

Without a father of her own Kristen and I grew up more as sisters than cousins and shared many experiences. We both lost our virginity when we were fourteen (two years apart) and we both had a great sex life although it was strictly guys for the both if us. In general, we shared most everything with each other until I started having sex with my parents at sixteen. For some reason I decided to not tell Kristen as it just seemed like it was a private thing between me and my parents. As crazy as Kristen was, I wasn't sure how she would react to incest, especially with someone she all but considered to be her own father.

Anyway, back to my aunt...

"Kelly," she said and then hesitated as if she wasn't sure whether or not she should continue. I sat there silently, hoping she would continue but wondering what was going to come out.

"Your mom told me that she and your dad have finally started having sex with you," she repeated. Again, she hesitated as if unsure she should continue but this time a look of determination came to her face and she took a deep breath before resuming.

"I was wondering, well more like hoping, that now that you know about my relationship with your parents that you might be willing to include me. After all, do you really believe that your mom forgot that I was coming over tonight?"

I looked at her and she smiled gently at me. Was she telling me the truth or just telling me what I wanted to hear so I would go along?

"Your mom and I talked about this and she thought it might be easier if she was gone when we had this little discussion.'

"Ummmmm, what do you mean by "little discussion" exactly?" I asked her.

It seemed a little suspicious to me that my mom would do such a thing without telling me. Yet when there is something you WANT to believe, it is a lot easier to believe it and I wanted to believe what she was saying was true.

Aunt Linda took a REALLY deep breath this time and then softly whispered to me, "About you and me being together. I mean having sex together.'

Wow, like THAT was not what I'd been expecting to hear when I woke up this morning! As I have mentioned already, for someone twice my age my Aunt Linda was very pretty, actually you could say she was HOT. Although having sex with her wasn't something I'd thought about before, it certainly wasn't something that turned me off when I considered it. Not quite sure how to respond, I just sat there as she moved over to sit on the couch next to me. She slowly leaned over and then gently kissed me on the lips for the first time ever.

At first it wasn't that much different than any other time she had kissed me other than instead of on the cheek it was on my lips. Her full lips pressing tightly against mine. As the pressure increased, I felt her lips part as her tongue reached out and touched my lips, which were still tight together. I felt almost like a young girl making out with her boyfriend for the first time! As if on autopilot, my lips opened and my tongue met hers just inside of my mouth and she flicked hers playfully against mine. My heart was pounding as our kiss intensified and I could feel her breath against my face as she breathed through her nose.

I'd kissed my mom like this before but other than that, never with a girl. A girl kissing her mom isn't exactly what I would call an act of lesbianism, even if it went beyond what most people would consider appropriate. This time, however, I was with an older woman and I couldn't rationalize it as a simple mother-daughter "thing'. For the first time in my life, I was kissing another woman out of lust. That's lesbianism by any definition of the word but I was loving it!

We continued to kiss passionately for a while and then I felt my aunt's start to run her hands delicately over me and then they found their way under my T-shirt. I tensed at first when she cupped my breast, hating myself for reacting that way. It was almost like the first time a boy had touched them, that sensation you get when you do something for the first time. No matter how much you enjoy it later, there is never another "first" time for anything and I knew I would remember this moment of the rest of my life.

That night you could say I got to know my Aunt in a whole new way. She quickly stripped out of her clothes, even her heels (be real - only porn stars and whores keep on their heels when they have sex!). Next thing I knew my aunt was standing in front of me in nothing but her birthday suit and god did she look hot! Over the years I'd seen her naked more times than I could ever count but somehow this was different. Before she had been naked, now she was nude. Before she had just been my aunt, now she was a potential lover. Before she had boobs and a pussy but they were just anatomy; now I couldn't wait to taste them!

At first I wasn't quite sure what to expect when she crawled between my legs and lowered her head slowly down to my pussy. What followed next can only be described as incredible! I would NEVER dare tell my mom this, but when my aunt licked my pussy it made me feel like nothing I'd ever experienced before! With my mom, it certainly felt great but it really meant more to me that it was my mom doing it to me than anything else. Aunt Linda, on the other hand, was just physically intoxicating!

By now I was so horny and wet it that a quick orgasm was inevitable and sure enough, it was only a few minutes before I felt my heartbeat begin to race and the pressure inside of me began to build. It's like when you have to go to the bathroom REALLY bad and you can't think of anything else except in this case I didn't need to piss, I needed to CUM. When my mom licked me, I would cum hard but it was as much from the overwhelming emotions that were flooding me as her technique. With my aunt, it was all about her mouth and tongue. All these years I'd known her and never had I dreamed she could make me feel this way!

I get asked many times how it feels to have an orgasm. If you haven't had one, I don't know how I could possible do it justice in words. Of course they come in varying degrees of intensity, everything from a light tingle to full blown out-of-body type experience. For me, the biggest factor is not so much what is being done to me physically, but more the emotional aspect. Who is doing me, where, and why can overcome even the lamest guys attempts. The ultimate, of course, is when the emotional high crests with the physical which was what was happening with me now with my aunt. Emotionally, knowing my own aunt, my mother's sister, was licking me and tasting me was incredible by itself. The fact she was extremely talented as well resulted in an orgasm of epic proportions - and more than one to boot before the evening was over!

After making me cum to the point of exhaustion, it was time to trade positions and now it was my turn to show off my talents to my aunt. Unfortunately, the only pussy I'd ever licked before was my mom's and of course she was happy with whatever I did. It was like bringing home a painting from first grade - she loved it no matter how awful it was. I was actually a little nervous as I nestled in between her legs and the realization of what I was about to do sunk in. God, after the fantastic job she had done on me, what if I turned out to be a disappointment for her?

Evening had transformed to night by now and the only light in the room was the flickering of the TV screen. I looked up at her as she lifted her head to see what I was doing. Our eyes met and she winked at me, probably trying to calm my nerves. I put one arm under her leg and rested the other on top of the other and then rubbed my cheek against her soft thigh. She must have just shaved as her skin was silky soft without a trace of hair or stubble.

My face was only inches from her crotch and I could see it glistening in the soft light with the wetness of her lust. I could also smell her - that distinct pussy odor a woman gets when she is horny. Guys don't seem to smell it as distinctly as girls do which makes me wonder where on the evolutionary trail something went wrong. You would have thought it would have been just the opposite to where the male of the species would be attracted by the female scent. This seems to work for other species but in humans the men seem to be a bit deficient. I can be with a group of girls and if one of us is really horny, ALL of us know it whereas the guys just stand there like nothing is going on!

Like my mom, my aunt's pussy was pretty hairy. I guess it's a generational thing. Honestly, I think a bare pussy on a woman almost forty years old is a bit like mom's trying to dress up like Britney Spears when they take their daughters to a concert. I reached for her pussy and softly caressed the coarse hair that covered it. It wasn't like a guy's pubic hair, but rather more soft and nice to touch. My fingers ran through it and I could feel the wetness of her pussy on my fingertips as I passed by her pussy hole. I pushed the hair out of the way from her slit and then with two fingers, spread her pussy apart to expose her little clit.

"That's it Kelly," she whispered down to me, "Suck my clit... Take it in your mouth.'

It was physically no different than when I licked my mom yet somehow it WAS different. Being her niece I wasn't a complete stranger yet at the same time it wasn't like I was her daughter either. This was the closest I'd ever come to doing what I would have labeled an act of lesbianism and for a moment I hesitated... but only for a moment. I reached out with my tongue and began to eat out my aunt's pussy, as my dad would say.

"Oh yes, lick it faster," she moaned. One thing I learned quickly with my aunt was that she was a lot louder than her older sister when it came to sex! When she wasn't exhorting me to lick her and eat her, she was moaning like a porn star in a cheap XXX movie!

When she came I was both excited to taste her and proud that I was able to make her feel so good. Yes indeed, my aunt was quite the trash talker and when she came it was a non-stop litany of four letter words and graphic descriptions of how she felt and what she wanted. Some people, I guess, really get off from that sort of thing. As for me I can take it or leave it - preferably the latter.

Later, when we had finished and laid there holding each other's nude warm body close, I asked her how she had gotten to be so good at licking pussy.

"Well, let's just say practice makes perfect." she said in a sly voice. I would've given anything to know just who it was she'd been practicing with but I didn't have the nerve to ask. Was it just my mom? My aunt was divorced and free to date whomever she wanted - and according to Kristen she dated quite a bit; but I'd never heard any mention of girls.

She left before my mom came home, making me promise not to say anything to my mom. I knew my mom was due home any minute so to provide an alibi for the strong odor in our family room I began to masturbate on the couch. It's not like it was a chore or anything! I was so sensitive from doing it with my aunt that I easily made myself cum before my mom returned.

When she came through the basement door (our garage is at basement level due to the typical Pittsburgh hill we live on), I saw she tried not to disturb me, probably thi21nking that to ignore me would be best when I'm in this frame of mind. I almost burst out laughing when she grabbed a can of air freshener and gave it a quick spurt. I would've had a hard time explaining why I used it otherwise!

After that night, my aunt and I got together now and then but it wasn't a frequent thing by any means. Fortunately it wasn't long before my mother "introduced" me to my aunt sexually so I didn't have to worry about keeping up the facade. A couple of times she even joined in with me and my parents but that was really rare. Mostly we just have fun at her house when Kristen wasn't around. I could only imagine what my cousin would say if she knew what I was doing with her mom!

Despite the hints of a lesbian side to her my aunt seemed especially fond of fucking my dad more than me or even my mom. It wasn't unusual for her to drop by just to be fucked by him, something she never did with me. Now that I was aware of what she and my dad were REALLY doing, Aunt Linda dropped all pretense of hiding anything and if anything, became quite blatant about it, as if to compensate for having to hide things in the years prior. Now, instead of leaving the room with a backwards glance to see if my dad was following, they would just do it in the family room, leaving my mom and I to try and watching TV in the same room.

Personally, I think she gets off from the fact we are there, watching her fuck our father and husband without any shame or remorse. My mom is really cool about it and if anything, typically just rolls her eyes and shakes her head at her younger sister's antics. I have a feeling that this was the way things had been back in high school for her with her sister trying to keep up with her exploits. On RARE occasions she would join in with them and of course, now and then I got to get in on the action as well!

3. Growing Up With My Cousin Kristen

For the next three years or so, this was the story with me and my Aunt. Actually, looking back I think I was more of a "toy" for my aunt than anything else, someone different but not at the top of her priority list. Except for a few time that I could probably count on one hand, anyone watching the two of us would think we were your typical aunt and niece, a little sluttier perhaps than average, but nothing that different.

In the meantime, her daughter Kristen and I were slowly forming a relationship that was going beyond the "normal" cousin-to-cousin bond. Really, it all began in my grandparent's hayloft one summer day when we watched each other masturbate for the first time. It wasn't like I didn't know she did it, it was just not something we had openly shared before. It also marked the first time I deliberately masturbated for the purpose of letting someone else watch me and I found the exhibitionism to be almost as erotic as what my finger was doing to me. It wasn't the first time someone had seen me - my parents had been around countless times as I grew up but I never did it for their viewing pleasure, they just happened to be in the same room.

As we got older, we would sometimes double date and even shared a few boyfriends. On rare occasions we had had sex together with one or two guys but it was strictly heterosexual. We never did anything with each other physically other than maybe a quick kiss just to tease the guys a little bit. We both knew they would have loved to see us go further and frankly, even in those brief moments when our lips touched I felt something inside that made me wonder what it would be like to get closer with my cousin. Neither of us made the first move, though, which was a bit odd looking back considering neither of us was shy about much of anything else when it came to sex.

Kristen and I shared most everything so the hardest part for me when I was with Kristen was not spilling the beans about what her awesome mom was doing with me and my parents. Kristen was a lot wilder than me in many ways, a true slut by every definition of the word, but I loved her dearly. Even so, she stuck to "normal sex" - no anal, bondage, bestial, or even lesbianism.

As for incest, Kristen never even discussed it or even joked about for that matter. I knew her mom and her were extremely close and that they had slept in the same bed since she was a baby; but I always viewed that as just as something that had developed given she was a divorced mom and she was a daughter without a father. It seems I've said this about a number of things but once again, I didn't see what perhaps to most people would have been an obvious situation.

With the lifestyle my family enjoyed, Kristen and her mom sleeping together was not something I automatically would have thought had any sexual overtones. Maybe in another family perhaps, but I totally missed it when it came to her and her mom. It seems rather ironic now to realize that at the time, we were BOTH doing her mom but neither one of us knew what the other was doing and we both thought we were keeping something about her mom secret from the other!

4. 4th of July Picnic

So much for background - I guess I could've made everything up until now a separate entry but it really helps to explain what happened on July 4th during my summer break after completing my freshman year of college.

For the big day my parents hosting a party with a number of their friends and some of my dad's business associates. Our deck is pretty big - covering an area equal to the two car garage just below it, but it was still crowded most of the day even with people drifting in and out of the house. Thankfully the weather was great which allowed most everyone to wear swimwear or at most shorts. The hot tub certainly got a workout!

During the day my cousin and I had fun flirting a bit with some of the guys but nothing happened. My other cousins were there as well, two girls and a boy all younger than Kristen and me. Rick, the oldest, was about to turn sixteen in a few days and was developing rapidly into quite the hunk. Kate was next at thirteen and while quite a pretty girl, was a spitting image of her mom, including being the biggest prude imaginable. For instance, she was the only female there under the age of thirty NOT wearing a bikini or at least a two-piece suit.

On the other hand, Tammy, who had just turned twelve about a month ago, was just starting to show the promise of things to come. It was amusing to see the older guys all trying to catch a glimpse of her little ass when they thought nobody was looking. It didn't help that Tammy already was realizing the power she had over men and did everything she could to tease them!

My Uncle Jim and Aunt Shari were there, of course, with the kids. Uncle Jim was my dad's younger brother and my mom had privately told me that she had been doing him in high school whenever my dad would start to drift towards Linda. My Aunt Shari was nothing but an overbearing bitch, always complaining to my mother about what she let me wear (which was as little as I could get away with) and even criticizing my mom for not "dressing her age'. More than a few times I caught my uncle stealing a peek at me and I actually wondered for a time if he was more than just leering at me - maybe interested in me? With my aunt around there was no chance of THAT ever happening, that was for sure. She was the type that would have castrated him as he slept if he ever strayed.

All of us kids tried to dominate the hot tub but my dad chastised us, telling us it wasn't a miniature swimming pool and to let the adults have their turn. It was the same lecture I'd heard since I was a little girl and had about the same impact on me that it always had - none! With all the people around, any temptations to do anything naughty in the tub were pretty much squelched but that's not to say I wasn't getting horny as hell as the day went by.

By early evening everyone had left except my aunts and uncle along with my cousins. Finally, we had the hot tub to ourselves while the adults hit the rest of the drinks that were left over. Kristen got in the tub next to me and seeing Rick across from us, she looked me in the eye and with a devilish grin, she tugged on the string holding my bikini together behind my neck, letting the top flop down and exposing my boobs! Somehow I had a feeling she was up to no good so it didn't shock me all that much but Rick certainly got an eyeful - and he didn't miss one second of it, keeping his eyes riveted to my chest as I quickly pulled my top back up and tied it once again.

"What's goin' on over there?" I heard my Aunt Shari call over, hearing Tammy's squeal of surprise and then the laughter of my cousin.

"Kristen untied Kelly's top!" Kate called back over, ever the little miss prissy, quick to tell on whoever was doing something bad.

"Kristen!" my Aunt Linda said loudly, "You know better, now behave!'

I couldn't quite hear the exchange that went on between my aunts after that but I could make out something about "Is that ALL you're going to say?" and something else about "harmless fun" but I could see my Aunt Shari was infuriated. She got up out of her chair and marched over to the tub, pointing a finger at her son.

"You didn't look, did you?" she said sternly.

Rick started to shake his head but little Kate sang like a canary saying, "Oh yes he did - he stared at Kelly's breasts.'

God, what girl her age called them "breasts'? I suppose she referred to a cock as a penis and her pussy as her vagina!

Aunt Shari motioned for Rick and the girls to get out of the tub and she turned back to my parents and Aunt Linda and then to her husband.

"Let's go Jim," she huffed. She stormed off, muttering something about "heathens" and "sluts" but she didn't say anything directly to my mom or aunt. Rick stood up and I almost laughed at loud when I saw the bulge in his swim trunks. Yep, he had certainly gotten an eyeful! Fortunately, his mother had already entered the house and he put a towel around his waist to hide himself from her wrath.

at that. In church she might look like the most perfectly innocent and naive little girl but I knew what was lurking behind that sexy little smile she had on at the moment!

Everyone was silent as Kristen motioned for me to get up and sit next to her. Not knowing what she had on her mind, I did the easy thing and followed her instructions. I took a position about six or eight inches away from her so she moved over closer to me until our nude bodies touched. Then, to my complete surprise, she put her hand on my wet thigh and started to slowly run her hand up and down my bare leg. Looking at our mothers and then at my dad, who had moved over closer to watch, nobody appeared to think anything was out of the ordinary and I immediately had this feeling I'd been set up for something - but what?

Kristen grinned at me as she stroked my leg and inner thigh saying softly, "You know cuz, I haven't been entirely up front with you about something.'

I looked at her with a questioning eye and then turned to my parents who were both grinning broadly as if they couldn't wait for something to happen.

"Well, they decided that now that you're back from school it's OK to share something with you," she continued.

"Ummmmm, who are "they'?" I asked.

Kristen pointed a single digit at my parents and her mom. My dad had his hands on my mom's bare shoulders and was massaging her gently as they both watched. I couldn't help but notice he had a raging hard-on which even his baggy swim trunks couldn't disguise. Her mom was leaning over, resting her elbows on her knees, watching intently as if she didn't want to miss a single thing. Seeing my dad with an erection wasn't exactly something for the evening news but usually there was a good reason for it so what was going on in his mind?

"Well, maybe it would be easier to show you," she said.

That was obviously a pre-arranged cue as no sooner did she say it than my dad stood up and dropped his trunks to the deck, stepping out of them and then kneeling on the ledge behind my mom. Yes indeed, his cock was rock hard! He moved up close behind my mom such that it draped over her shoulder and rubbed against the side of her face. Both my mom and aunt turned to look at him and I noticed my aunt wetting her lips subconsciously. My mom reached up to her shoulder and grabbed my dad's cock. Then she started to stroke him gently but keeping her eyes fixed on Kristen and me on the opposite side of the hot tub.

It was evidently Kristen's turn now and she got up and stepped out of the hot tub, water dripping from her wet nude body. She moved over to a nearby chaise

Kristen tried to laughed between the moans she was issuing nonstop at that point and said, "Yeah, you have NO idea how hard it was not to say anything when you were home. Really Kelly, I wanted SO bad to tell you but your mom said to wait.'

As my head cleared and I watched them fucking and realized what had been happening for the past nine months or so, for a moment I actually felt a little pissed off. It wasn't about the sex or him fucking her. What got me going was that my cousin had known for almost a year about me and my parents yet I had no idea about her! Once again, my poker face failed me and I must have given away my concerns.

"PLEASE don't be mad at me Kelly," Kristen begged although I could barely make out her words as my dad was really fucking her hard now, "After all, who's been fucking my mom and not telling ME?'

Well, she had me there so I guess we were even. From the sounds of it she knew everything which meant she knew what I'd been doing with her mom and in all fairness, I'd kept that a secret from her a lot longer than she had hidden what my dad was doing to her. Besides, how long can you stay mad at someone when they're being fucked by your dad just inches in front of you?

At that point my dad pulled himself out of Kristen and lifted her up by the waist. She was so small it was no problem at all for him to carry her back over to the hot tub where he set her down on a corner edge with her feet facing away from the tub. Her mom slipped back into the water and moved in behind her, allowing Kristen to lean back against her. Somehow I got the idea this wasn't the first time this rodeo had played in town!

Aunt Linda quickly moved across the tub until she was at Kristen's side. She reached an arm around her daughter and began to rub her fingers into her freshly fucked pussy. Now THAT was hot! I all but slapped myself on the forehead as I quickly caught on to the fact that they obviously hadn't been so innocent sleeping together all these years!

As my dad kneeled down on one knee, Kristen raised her feet until they were on the hot tub next to her, spreading her thin legs apart and revealing her cute pussy. Her mom held my dad's cock up to her and he leaned forward to drive it home once again.

"Oh god Uncle John, fuck me!" the little slut called out, as much for our enjoyment as my dad's if I knew her. She loved to put on a show! As he began to fuck her again, my aunt started to play with her daughter's little boobs, cupping

With my feet resting on the ledge that ran around the hot tub, I spread my legs wide apart to give my dad a good view of his daughter's hungry pussy - hungry for her daddy's hard dick! My fingers were running up and down my wet pussy, pushing inside of me and then out again to rub my clit.

"Fuck me daddy," was all I said. Kristen might have the advantage when it came to pouring out the sex talk, but if there were three words that always got my dad's full attention, those were the ones. I loved to whisper it in his ear when we were in public, seeing him tense up and the bulge that would inevitably rise between his pants. Trust me, if there was an opportunity, he never said no!

Bingo! Something in my voice and the simple words I said brought my dad back to reality and he seemed to realize who his real priority should be - ME. He sighed loudly though, as if there were still a few thoughts of sticking with Kristen but he was mine! He reached forward to kiss Kristen and then he slowly pulled himself out from her. It wasn't like he just pulled it out and left her. No, he teased her (and me) by withdrawing as slowly as he could. Inch by inch his cock reappeared, wet from her pussy. I just stared at her crotch, mesmerized by the site of his cock as if it was slowly growing from her pussy. Finally just the head was left in her and for a moment, he held still and Kristen moaned with desire.

"Oh Uncle John, put it back in me," she pleaded, "Fuck my cunt with your fucking dick!'

For a moment I feared my dad would change his mind and just shove himself back in her again. My heart almost burst when he made the final move and his cock flopped out of her and her turned to face me. Yes!! My dad DID love me more than her. I don't know how I could have possibly ever doubted him.

As he stood in front of me, his hard stick standing out parallel to the deck, pointed at me like a missile ready to fire, I leaned over to lick her pussy juices from his cock. I'd never eaten Kristen's pussy so this was the first taste of her cunt for me and I loved it! God she tasted so sweet! Considering her pussy was about twenty years younger than any other I'd ever tasted other than my own, it was interesting to compare the difference in generations. As I have said many times before, such comparisons are never easy due to the many elements involved. Overall, I would say emotionally I got more from licking my mom and aunt whereas for pure flavor and taste, Kristen's pussy won hands-down!

With his cock in my mouth, my dad started to fuck my mouth but I knew he wasn't looking for a BJ. No, if I knew my dad he had only one thing on his mind - he

"Yeah, I just wish Kristen had a father of her own," my aunt mused, "It's so hot to see John with Kelly. I mean, I LOVE seeing Kristen with him but it's not the same, you know?'

"I know, I know... there's something about seeing my daughter with him that's so...," my mom hesitated, as if not able to find the right words to express herself

"Fucking hot?" my aunt helped out.

My mom laughed, "Yeah, I guess you could put it that way. I was looking for something a little less crude I guess!'

"C'mon John, what's taking so long?" my aunt teased.

My dad just ignored her as he began to stroke even faster and deeper into me. I knew that this meant he was about to cum so I rubbed myself faster to meet up with him.

"I want you to watch me cum in Kristen," my dad said, trying to catch his breath.

At first it was like a knife had plunged into my hearts but then I guess it shouldn't have surprised me. This was the first time I'd seen him fuck her so I should have expected that he would want to finish in her if for no other reason than to show off a bit for me.

As for me, I was so close to cumming myself that I couldn't utter a word which he took that as permission from me and pulled out. My pussy felt so empty, as if something was missing from it and I guess you could say something was! Dad quickly moved over to Kristen who looked positively thrilled and triumphant at the prospect of what was about to happen.

No sooner had he started stroking in and out of her than I shuddered as my own orgasm gripped me and my empty pussy exploded. God how I wished at that moment that he was still in me; but at least I could see him stroking in and out of my cousin. Still, it took every bit of concentration to keep watching them as my own orgasm continued to roll over me like a Mac truck blindsiding me going sixty miles-per-hour!

"Oh god, almost there... I'm gonna cum!" my dad cried out.

"Give it to me Uncle John," my little slut of cousin begged. Like me, I knew she loved being fucked and even more to have the guy stay inside and fill her with sperm. Who could blame her - it was one of the greatest feelings in the world!

Watching my dad fuck Kristen, I realized that I'd never seen my dad fuck another girl my age before, only my mom and aunt. My parents believed strongly in

(Aug 27) Chapter 57: Fourth Sex Party, Gangbanged

Story codes: MF group F-Solo exhib inc father daughter
John - my dad (39)

While I can't say that Beth's private sex parties were the best thing that had ever happened to me, they ARE always interesting. As long as they offer something new and exciting, I figure why not keep going? This one was unique in that it included my first true "gang-bang". OK, so it was not the type of thing that will ever make it to my top ten list of things I like to do, but then it was definitely something to remember!

1. Making Up My Mind

Until this summer, other than with my family I've never had sex with more than two people or otherwise been involved in any sort of group sexual activity. That changed dramatically when Beth, my best friend from high school, invited me to a sex party a few weeks after getting home from college. I later went to a second party where I experienced being fucked in new ways and finally went to a third party featuring a pool where I had sex in a swimming pool in front of people for the first time.

In my opinion, doing three parties in a relatively short time was quite an accomplishment for a novice like me. After the pool party I assumed that would be the end of these type of sex parties. While they were all extremely interesting and pleasurable experiences. it was not the sort of lifestyle I wanted in the long run.

Probably the best thing I can say about going to the parties is that I learned a lot about myself from them. For instance, I've always enjoyed people looking at me and I especially like it when someone watches me having sex. Still, until these parties it always just by people I knew - my friends and close family members.

It surprised me a bit to find just how hot it made me when total strangers watched me being fucked. I don't mean the intimate, erotic feeling I get when my mom watches my dad fuck me. Rather, this was just pure lust creating a sexual turn-on for me knowing that I'm able to make people horny just be watching me having sex. Seeing the look in their eyes that tells me they wish that they were the one doing me makes me feel super sexy and, I have to admit, even a bit proud of myself. It's quite an ego booster!

The last week I was home before leaving for school when Beth called me to say there was another party being planned for that Friday night and asked me if I'd be interested in going with her. My first response was to decline. She tried to talk me into it but I stood my ground and finally she gave up although I felt like she was a little perturbed with me.

After she hung up I found myself thinking it over some more, questioning whether or not I'd made the right decision. Even though I hadn't planned to go to another one of these parties, at least this summer, maybe this would serve as an opportunity to end my summer break with a bang - literally. After each of the previous parties, when I got home I always felt like I'd held back a bit, not really letting myself loose. Maybe I needed to just let myself go and see what experiences I get as a result. I debated it back and forth until finally I took a deep breath and called Beth back to tell her I would go. She was thrilled at my change of heart and so we arranged a time for her to pick me up.

Over the next few days as I waited for Friday to arrive I must've changed my mind back and forth a dozen times at least. One moment I was chastising myself for giving in to Beth and the next I was feeling horny as heck as I wondered what would happen to me. Well, you can guess which side of the fence I was on for most of the time. God, I must have masturbated at least four or five times every day before the party. Although my dad normally didn't say much when I masturbated at night watching TV with him, I guess you could say it caught his eye when I was doing it during the Thursday evening news instead of when some hot guy was on the screen.

"Damn girl, what's gotten into you tonight?" I remember him asking me after I did it for the second time that night.

What I wanted to say was it was more like what I WISHED had gotten into me as I fantasized about the upcoming party. I'd already told my mom about it but I guess she hadn't bothered passing on the information to my dad. Once he knew the situation, he just laughed at my silliness and mostly ignored me afterwards although I noticed him glancing my way now and then.

Laying back on the couch I couldn't stop thinking about what might happen at the next party. Beth hadn't given me any hints but then she never did. She didn't even warn me before the first one that I would have to undergo an initiation where the party host for the evening fucked me in front of everyone to get things started. What would happen this time?

Damn my pussy was hot and wet! It felt so good to masturbate! Maybe that's why I did it two or three times a day, LOL. Heck, sometimes I even did it right after having sex. It didn't matter whether or not he had made me cum, I just wanted more. For me, masturbation isn't a substitute for sex, it's compliments sex by adding yet another layer of pleasure to the experience.

I couldn't wait for Friday night!

2. My Dad Gets Horny

Friday morning came early but with an alarm clock as loud as mine, it didn't matter. The only thing was my alarm clock doesn't have a snooze button on it. In fact, it didn't have any buttons on it at all. When I reached out for it after it woke me up, I could feel the thick hair between my fingers and it's musky odor filled my nose. My eyes were still shut but there was no mistaking what was pressing against my face - an erect dick.

"Mmmmmmm, good morning daddy," I cooed without even opening my sleepy eyes. Like, who else would have his erection in my face at this time of day?

Keeping my eyes tightly shut, I opened my mouth and was rewarded with the unique feel of a cock sliding over my lips and onto my tongue. It was so warm and the smooth skin was pulled tightly over his erect shaft. There was often a moment when he would first put his cock in my mouth that the enormity of what was happening to me would sometimes strike me. This wasn't just any old cock I was sucking, as if it was just some guy I was going out with and it was just part of the unwritten agreement for me to suck his dick in return for him paying for the evening.

No, this was something special, something unique. This was my FATHER's dick that I felt against my tongue. It made me feel special knowing he was sharing it with me. I wanted to be sure to suck him as good as I could, partly to repay the trust and respect he was demonstrating to me, partly to show off a little too I guess.

"Damn, I couldn't hardly sleep last night thinking about you being screwed by all these guys tonight," he gasped as I started to suck on his dick like a large popsicle. "What I wouldn't give to see it for myself, I just know you're going you look so fucking hot."

Since his cock was already rock hard when I took it into my mouth, there was no need to work on arousing him. He pushed it in about halfway and then I twisted my head around on it, letting my tongue slide along the length of it and then tickling the tip of the head with my tongue. I loved running my tongue around the base of his cock's head, feeling the ridge where his cock head ended and his hard shaft continued. Sometimes I was rewarded with a shudder when my tongue worked it was around it, then running up where the ridge split and on up to the tip of his dick again.

"That's it Kelly... suck it... suck your daddy's cock."

A warm tremor went through me as he continued to talk to me. I loved it when he said things like that, like "suck your daddy's cock" or "be a good daughter to me". Despite what some people might think, there was really nothing kinky between us, nothing at all. Even in our most wildest moments he never crossed the line to where I was anything but his daughter. My dad never wanted me to pretend to be his mistress, or anyone else for that matter, nor did I have any desire to. Personally, that would have been just too weird for me. Naturally, as his daughter, he had a right to expect me to please him but still, I couldn't imagine pretending to be a mistress or someone else with my own father. I was his daughter and that was all I needed to be.

"Oh god, I've got to have you," he moaned as his cock somehow seemed to stiffen even more due to my efforts.

I knew what he wanted; it WAS sort of obvious after all. I rolled back and twisted so I was laying on my back with my knees back up to my chest and my feet off the bed. Grabbing my knees with my hands, I pulled back and at the same time spread them apart such that my horny pussy was exposed nicely for my dad to see.

"Well, what are you waiting for daddy? Don't you want to fuck your daughter this morning?" I teased him.

Of course I knew that was EXACTLY what he wanted to do but no matter how many times he told me, it was never enough. It goes without saying that it made me feel good for my parents to tell me they loved me and were proud of me. Heck, most parents say that to their kids. What made me feel extra special was my dad's honesty. Really, how many dads are honest and open enough to tell their daughter what they REALLY want - to fuck her? So many men have told me they secretly want to have sex with their daughters but they never tell them. It was literally was music to my ears to hear him tell me how badly he wanted me sexually because it was a sign of the respect he had for me.

My dad grinned down at me as he slowly stroked his cock while he stood there and stared at me. I saw his eyes moving as they roamed over every inch of my body, lingering on my boobs and especially between my legs where my pussy beckoned. My mom once told me that he admitted to her that he loving the fact that I shaved it clean like I was his little girl again. Given how wet it felt, I imagined it must be glistening now in the dim light.

"God you're so pretty," he whispered, barely loud enough for me to hear. Then he grinned naughtily and added, "and you're such a slut as well... but I love you all the more for it."

He moved up to the edge of the bed where my pussy was waiting impatiently for him. It would have been frustrating enough in any case to see a guy's hard dick so close to me without it being in me, but when that dick was my dad's, it was almost unbearable.

"Fuck me daddy," I whispered seductively to him. I knew he loved me to say that to him but the emotions behind it were real. God, I wanted him in me so bad at this moment it almost hurt. The only thought on my mind at this moment was how it would feel to have my dad fucking me.

"Oh baby, I will. You know I want to soooooo bad."

He was just an inch or so away from my cunt now and with those words he pressed the head of his cock up against the wet threshold of my pussy hole. My heart skipped a beat as I felt it trying to burrow into me. Without any conscious thought on my part, my hips thrust upward, trying to help him enter me. I was so wet by now that he slid away from my pussy hole, his cock running up my pussy slit, rubbing against my sensitive clit before returning back down to my wet and warm pussy hole.

This time he held it in place as he leaned forward and again I felt the pressure again against my pussy. I watched as the tip quickly disappeared in me, stretching out my pussy hole and sending shivers through my legs and lower body. Yes! He was putting incestuous his dick in me! However, when the full thickness of his head tried to violate my tight pussy, at first his cock actually seemed to bend a bit from the pressure of trying to force it into me.

"Put it in me daddy... please put it in me," I begged him.

It wasn't some sort of act on my part to arouse him, not at all. I really DID want him in me and with just the tip of hid dick in me my pussy was practically crying out for him to push more of it into me.

"Ohhhhhhhhh," he moaned as he pressed hard against my pussy.

One more push and the head suddenly disappeared in me, quickly followed by the remainder of his stiff shaft until his crotch met mine. All I could see at the base of my pussy was the thick thatch of pubic hair that normally surrounded his cock but now just tickled my cunt. His cock was nowhere to be seen but from the incredible feelings I was having inside of me, I knew exactly where it was.

"Oh yeah, I love seeing my cock in you, feeling you grip it with your pussy," he groaned, "I can never get enough of it... seeing my cock in my daughter's hot cunt."

In my own way, I understood how he felt. It was like each time he fucked me it was for the first time. There was never a time with my dad where I had that "been there - done that" feeling I get sometimes when I have sex repeatedly with the same guy. My dad could fuck me three times a day and it would never get old for me.

My dad reached down and grabbed my ankles, lifting my legs up and onto his shoulders. As he leaned forward, it caused my hips to rotate up and back, allowing him to push himself even deeper into me. With his dick now all the way in me as far as it would go, he rotated his hips, making his thick pubic hair rub me and tickle my sensitive pussy area.

As he stroked himself in and out of me, his shaft rubbed against the inner walls of my pussy, sending waves of the most incredible sensations imaginable through me. I looked down between my legs and marveled at the sight of my father's incestuous cock as it appeared and then disappeared once again inside his daughter's welcoming pussy.

After a while, my dad reached under my ass and simultaneously pushed me back and turned me until he was kneeling on the bed with my head on my pillow. His dick never dropped out of me the entire time and once I was in position, he dropped my legs to the side of him. I reached out for him as he lowered himself down to me, holding himself up on his elbows so as not to crush me under his weight. I could feel his chest hair against my boobs, pressing against them and squeezing them against his chest. With his face just inches above mine, he looked at me with a mixture of love and lust.

"Such a beautiful, wonderful daughter," he murmured softly as he reached down to kiss me. "God I love you so much, I love doing this with you."

I opened my mouth and his tongue entered, reaching out to meet mine. We kissed passionately for the longest time as his hard dick throbbed with his rapid heartbeat inside of my swollen pussy. Now and then he would thrust himself into me a bit more and then relax and slowly let it slide out as he kissed me and stroked my hair with his hands, running his fingers though it and spreading it out on the pillow around me.

"I love you so much daddy," I whispered to him as our lips parted to let us catch our breath. "I'm all yours daddy."

"I love you too Kelly," he responded in a soft, deep voice, almost shaking with his desire for me.

This may sound bad but it wasn't enough just to know he loved me. I wanted him to NEED me as well, to feel an unbelievable desire to have me in the most intimate manner a father can be with his daughter. Deep down I wanted him to crave me not just because I was his daughter, but as a woman as well. I wanted him to desire my body, to be turned on by me, to get hard just thinking of me. So many men have told me they want to fuck me that it doesn't mean a lot to me but when my DAD says he does, now THAT means something.

"Oh daddy, I love you to fuck me," I gushed, like a little girl pleased with her father for bringing her home a doll she had always wanted.

In this case, there WAS a present I wanted but it wasn't what most fathers gave their little girls. The present I wanted was MUCH more intimate, much more personal, something only my father could give me - his sperm.

"Cum in me daddy... please cum in me now," I begged him.

Although I knew he loved to hear me ask him to do that, it wasn't just for him. I really did want him to release himself in me just as bad, if not more, than he did. It was a confirmation of sorts of his love and respect for me, feeling him give me the most personal and private gift he possibly could. Anything else he have me could theoretically come from anyone else; but only he could cum in me and give me his seed.

"Yes baby... oh my god yes," he panted as his stroked quickened and his cock was pumping in and out of me like a piston on a speeding train.

"Ohhhhhhhhh Kelly... I'm cumming!" he announced although I didn't need his words to know it.

The way he suddenly stopped pumping me and held himself still in me. Then I felt his hips jerk suddenly and a warmth emerged deep inside of me. I tried to imagine how it must look in the warm wet darkness of my pussy for his sperm to suddenly erupt from the tip of his cock and surge outward into me.

Over and over he pumped his cum into me, grunting each time and thrusting himself into me with each one. Looking up at him, his eyes were tightly shut and his face was red as he panted from his exertions. Watching him, I felt such a joy in me as I could see how much he was enjoying doing what he was doing to me. Really, what could be better than to know I was responsible for making my father feel this good?

Finally he finished and he dropped onto his elbows again, almost pushing me down into the bed from the weight of his body. His head dropped into the pillow next to mine and I could hear his heavy breathing as he gasped to regain his breath. His hot breath blew against my shoulder and I hugged him tightly to me as best I could, not wanting to ever let go of him

As we laid there, almost motionless except for an occasional, almost involuntary thrust of his hips, I tried to imagine the load of sperm that he had left in me just a few seconds before. To be perfectly clear, the thought of bearing a child with him was the very last thing I would ever want to think about. Actually, that would be more than just weird, it would be sick in my book. At the same time, the concept of having my dad "mate" me was incredibly erotic. Had he worn a condom or pulled out of me when he came, the experience would have been completely different, almost cheapened in a way. When he came inside of me it was the culmination of all we had done to that point.

It's been said many times that all good thing must end and this morning it was no different. I could actually feel him shrinking inside of me, withdrawing from my pussy as his dick shortened inside of me. Finally he pulled it the remaining way out and stood up naked next to me.

My legs remained spread apart and I could feel his cum draining from me as it ran down my ass. "Mmmmmmm, hopefully that will help you remember me when all those horny guys are fucking you tonight."

"Oh daddy!" I replied, trying to sound exasperated with him but not quite pulling it off. He just laughed at my fake frown and leaned over to kiss me on the forehead before turning away to head out of my room. He crossed the hall and went into the bathroom, leaving me in bed with the sweet memories of his cock in me.

3. Still Horny After My Dad

Turning over on my side, my pussy was literally tingling from having just been fucked. I hadn't cum yet and so I reached between my thighs and found my wet and sticky pussy with my fingers. His sperm was dripping from me and I spread it around my bare pussy, coating it with a thin layer of my dad's cum. When my fingertips ran over my sensitive clit, I thought I was going to jump out of bed from the shock it sent through every inch of my body.

As I played with myself, I dreamed yet again of my dad fucking me. In my fantasy we were at tonight's party where he was pretending to be just another guy at the party. It wasn't until he was fucking me and about to cum that he confessed as to who he really was. Of course, everyone was shocked but at the same turn turned as they watched this horny father fucking his own daughter like a cheap whore. Sure, lots of guys fantasize and talk about screwing their daughter, but how many actually go through with it?

Sometime my orgasm arrive like a Mack truck, practically bowling me over with the sudden intensity and overwhelming impact. Today was one of the more rare versions, more like a glass being filled slowly until I finally it overflowed.

I could feel it rising in me, raising me high and higher with each touch of my finger until finally I was at the point of overflowing. It was like I was glowing inside, like every pore of my skin was sweating nothing but the most pleasurable sensations imaginable. Everything else went away, the sound of my dad in the bathroom, the street noise outside, even my own bedroom see me to fade away as I was carried off into my own little world where only my orgasm could take me.

The trick to maintaining an orgasm right on the edge is manipulating your pussy correctly. The intensity and frequency has to vary as the sensations of my orgasm ebbed and flowed. My pussy cum gushed from me, flowing down my ass and surely making a fine mess of my sheets. Using both hands, I kept at least two fingers in me at all times, pretending that they were my dad's dick in me, while I played with my clit with the other hand. I was so wet and sloppy it sounded like I was taking a bath, or at least one just between my legs.

Finally I just wore out, becoming too exhausted to continue. Reluctantly, I slowed down and allowed my orgasm to slowly dwindle. Something like this didn't just come to an end like a guy when he cums. This was more like a fire that slowly dies down until the embers continue to glow through the night. So it was with my pussy. Sure, the intensity of the orgasm was now gone, but I knew the general feeling of pleasure and lust would continue for hours afterwards. When I am in this state, all I had to do was rub up against a pole or a table leg and it would spark a quick revival between my legs.

My dad dressed and left for work without another word to me as I laid in bed and just enjoyed the aftermath of the morning so far. It was still early so I dropped off to sleep for a while longer and was shocked when I opened my eyes and saw it was after 10:00 AM! Then I remembered that today my mom was working days so with both parents gone there was nobody to get me out of bed.

I didn't have any plans for the day so I just cleaned up and threw on a t-shirt. It didn't quite cover my ass but since I wasn't leaving the house it didn't really matter. It was better than running around in the nude, something that just never appealed to me. Nobody could ever call me a nudist, that was for sure.

As evening approached I started to get ready for the party. One nice thing about going to a party that is all about sex, you don't have to worry a whole lot about what to wear. I decided to keep the t-shirt and just added a tight pair of jeans. As the t-shirt was made from thin white cotton, without a bra my boobs were basically showing though as if I had nothing on at all. The jeans were cut so low that when I sat down the crack of my ass clearly showed. All that was left was to put on a pair of white sneakers and I was ready to go. My parents hadn't returned home so for once I left without a sendoff from my dad or mom like I usually did in the past before such a party. I guess my dad's "wakeup call" would just have to do.

4. The Party Gets Started with an Initiation

Without much else to do, I waited on the front porch until Beth arrived. I got in her car and she drove over to the house where this party was being held. We didn't really say a whole lot on the trip over for one reason or another. Maybe we were both too horny to talk?

Now that I was almost a "veteran" at these parties, I recognized some of the people there this time. Even so, more than half of them at least were new to me. Technically this was not a "swingers" party where couples came and then mixed with other couples. The hosts DID try to maintain equal numbers of men and women but supposedly everyone there was single - which meant not only no married folks but no "partners" either. Beth told me the rule came about when issues arose between partners in the past.

Swinger parties always are made to sound hot in porn movies and such but apparently in reality they can become a bit contentious at times when someone learns that sharing your partner isn't always as erotic as it sounds - especially when the person your partner is with seems to be satisfying them better than you can!

Like the previous parties, the agenda included opening by presenting the girl or guy who was attending for the first time. Apparently the reason most people wanted to "host" a party was that "reward" for being a host, other than having to clean up afterwards, was that he /she got to fuck the new girl/guy at the start of the party right out in front of the entire group. The interesting part was that the person was never told about this "initiation" process ahead of time so half the fun was just seeing their reaction when they were informed of their "duties".

Seeing the new girl taking a seat (Beth pointed her out to me which is the only reason I knew she was new), it reminded me of my first party. Back then I wasn't all that sure I wanted to be there in the first place and so my expectations were that I would just to sit back and watch until I felt comfortable to join in - if I ever got to that point.

With those thoughts in mind, you can imagine the shock it was to me to learn that I was expected to let a total stranger fuck me in front of a roomful of strangers! Looking back, I have to admit that it was the best thing that they could have done because it forced me to get involved right from the start. Think of it like facing a cold swimming pool - better to jump in and get it over with than slowly try to work your way in.

Beth told me that the girl tonight had just turned eighteen the week before. Maybe so, but to me she didn't look a day over sixteen. She reminded me of my cousin Kristen whom everyone swears is two to three years younger than she actually is. In fact, she even looked a bit like my cousin with the same straight blonde hair and petite body. It surprised me a bit that they allowed her in as previously I had been told they only let in people over twenty one to be sure there were no issues with drinking and such. Like me, she had come with a girlfriend and something told me from the way they sat next to each other that they were more than just friends. What was best, though, was the looks she was getting from the guys in the room. It was like a cute bunny had been set down onside s circle of starving wolves!

Everyone finally arrived and the host got everyone in the living room to get things started. I kept my eyes on the new girl, not wanting to miss the look in her face when she heard the news. Well, I wasn't disappointed! The host introduced Katie while it seemed everyone on the room was holding their breath except her. She seemed to sense that something was out of place but before she knew it, the host had unzipped his pants and pulled out his already stiffening cock. As he held it up to her mouth, he informed her of the rules and how she was expected to "service" him, starting with sucking his dick

Katie looked totally shocked and flushed with embarrassment for a moment. Her first instinct was to pull back and she looked over at her girlfriend with a questioning look. Her friend just grinned and apologized to her for not warning her. The girl looked around and saw everyone staring at her with not a sound in the room. Then she took a better look at the dick in front of her and her eyes widened when she realized how well-endowed the guy was. Personally, I wouldn't have minded trading places with her about now. Damn, that dick looked good!

Finally, she shrugged her shoulders and reached out to hold his cock. It was soon apparent this was not her first BJ. Katie stroked him for a few minutes, allowing his dick to harden into a long thick shaft. Looking around once again, she grinned at us as if to say the joke was on us. Apparently she felt she was getting the better end of this deal! Katie then took a deep breath and took him in her mouth and started sucking him off.

Once she got down to business with his cock, her girlfriend joined in with her (just as most others did when they brought someone and the same as Beth had done with me). Her friend opened Katie's blouse and unsnapped her small bra so she could suck on her little breasts (size A at most). Then she unzipped and took off Katie's shorts and cotton panties while all the while Katie never let that awesome dick out of her mouth.

Once Katie was nude, the host took his cock from her mouth and pushed her back to the edge of a couch where she put her feet up on the cushions to make her pussy more accessible. Her girlfriend grabbed his dick and guided it to her bare pussy, rubbing it against her clit and up and down her slit to moisten things. We all watched anxiously as he slowly entered her and began to stroked his dick in and out of her slowly. He looked around and gave a thumbs-up to the guys, practically gloating that he was able to be the first to fuck this little darling. One thing that sort of surprised me was that he hadn't put on a condom but she didn't seem to care.

The rest of us were horny and wanting to get started as we egged him on to finish and he did his best to help out with our needs. He fucked Katie hard and fast until eventually he pulled out and stroked himself until he shot his cum all over her boobs. It was like it was more a show for us than anything else, like he was starring in some porn movie. Her girlfriend then licked most of the cum off of her and then it was time for the rest of us to get started.

5. I Pick Out My First Guy

At the previous parties I had waited for a guy to approach me the first time. Tonight I was determined that I was going to be the aggressor. The guy next to me was one of the oldest guys I'd seen at one of these, looking to be in his mid to late 30's at least. He may have been a little old but he was in excellent shape - a key criteria to be invited here by the way.

Once the host announced that the initiation was complete, before my "target" had a chance to do anything I quickly dropped to the floor and pushed his legs apart. I looked up at him and he looked down at me with a big smile. Well, if he had half a brain he should know what I wanted and indeed, he SHOULD be smiling.

"Hi, mind if I suck your dick?" I said with a naughty grin, licking my lips that were dry with anticipation.

It felt a little funny to come right out and say that to a guy I had never even seen before in my life, but at the same time it was a major turn-on. I take pride in being known for being a bit of a slut, well maybe MORE than just a bit, but this was acting more like some cheap whore than a real slut. I just wasn't doing it for the money!

Whether it was just unexpected or he was shy, he just stared at me and didn't respond but then he didn't do anything to stop me either. I quickly undid his belt and zipper and then pulled down his pants and underwear, sliding off his shoes and socks in the process. Fortunately, he had a decent cock hiding underneath it all and it thrilled me to see that unlike so many younger guys, he didn't shave. I love a cock to be surrounded by thick pubic hair, feeling it tickle my cheeks as I rub my face into his smelly crotch. Taking a man completely in my mouth was even better when my face was buried in his hair when I got down to the base of his cock. I love the odor a hairy cock has compared to a shaved one as well; the hair seemed to capture a more musky smell which reminds me my face is in his crotch and that I am sucking his dick and not kissing his mouth.

"Mmmmmmm, nice dick," I complimented him. It wasn't just an empty one either - he really did have a nice looking dick.

When I took his cock in my hand, he was still pretty soft although I could feel it already beginning to harden and grow. Leaning forward, I opened my mouth and just before I took him in my mouth, the thought of my dad's dick suddenly burst into my head. What a difference the circumstances make when it comes to sex. When my dad's cock was in my mouth I thought about how good it tasted of course, but it was also such an emotional time for me.

The dick in front of me looked and felt good, and I was sure I was going to have a good time sucking it. Yet somehow something was missing when I compared it to my BJ for my dad this morning. Then I wanted him to be proud of me, to enjoy what his daughter was doing for him. Now it was all about me, to be perfectly blunt. I wasn't about to suck this cock for his benefit, it was for mine!

I emerged from the time warp where all these thoughts were taking place in what could only have been a few seconds. Not about to waste any more time, I quickly took him in my mouth. One reason I was in a bit of a hurry, besides just being horny, was that I love to feel a man growing while he was in my mouth. No matter how many times it happens, I still find it fascinating the way a man's dick can grow the way it does. Beyond that, it just made me feel really sexy and hot knowing that it was little ol' me that was the reason it was becoming erect. I could only imagine the nasty thoughts that must have been running through his head concerning me.

The more I sucked him, the more it grow longer and thicker until it practically filled my mouth. I ran my tongue around the head as it rested inside of my mouth on my tongue. Once he was finally good and stiff, I let him drop from my mouth and I started to run my tongue up and down his long hard shaft. It was fun to tease him as I ran my tongue around the area at the base of his cock head. Several times I felt his body shiver and shudder as I hit a sensitive spot.

I then took his head back in my mouth and began to move up and down his shaft. Each time I took just a little bit more of him in and then let him out until just the tip of his head was between my lips. Eventually I reached the base of his shaft so he was completely in my mouth. I held him at this point and just wiggled my head around to move him inside of my mouth. He gasped and pushed my head down tight into his crotch, wanting me to keep him deep inside my mouth which I was happy to do for him. As I did I was undressing myself until I was naked between his legs. I looked up at him and he winked at me.

"Damn girl, you've got an incredible mouth," he gasped.

It may make me sound a bit egotistical, but he wasn't the first one to ever tell that and I felt very comfortable when a guy asked for a BJ since I knew I really could blow him better than most girls.

At this point I let him loose and said, "OK, sit back. If you thought I had a great mouth, wait until you feel my pussy grabbing your cock."

Then I straddled his legs and looked down at his rock-hard cock as it was pressed against my pussy and lower belly. Once again I was reminded of my time with my dad this morning and once again I marveled at the differences between the two situations. This morning I was giving myself to my dad, offering him my body in any way he wanted to please him. Of course, I knew he would want to fuck me so it was a pretty safe bet, but still, you never know. Tonight I just wanted a warm hard dick in me to make me feel good!

With both of us in position, I lifted myself up and reached down to guide his cock into me. whether it was him or my dad, that initial sensation of a dick penetrating me was still a show-stopper in my book. When his cock head had barely just penetrated my hungry pussy, I held myself in that position, rotating my hips in a circular motion around his cock. As I did, I slowly lowered myself down onto him, effectively corkscrewing myself onto his dick. I tried to take him in as slowly as I could, feeling him gradually entering me deeper and deeper. When he was all the way in I lifted even my legs off the floor so my weight caused me to push my pussy down as tightly as possible into his crotch.

"Mmmmmmm, fuck me!" I gasped as his dick felt wonderful in me.

His hands cupped my ass, squeezing one butt cheek with each hand as he helped me to move up and down on his cock. I bounced up and down on his cock, feeling him driving deep into my pussy.

"Fuck, I'm gonna cum!" he gasped, his first words since we started.

I got off his lap, feeling his cock slip out of me and even bump my ass as I did. Kneeling again in front of him, I quickly took him in my mouth, stroking his hard cock quickly with my hand as I sucked just the head.

"God that feels so fucking good... oh shit here I cum!" he groaned.

Sure enough, I got my first load of cum for the night. As it spurted into my mouth I tried to swallow as much of it down as possible and stood up in front of him.

"Thanks for fucking me!" I said mischievously, as if I was a Girl Scout selling cookies, thanking a customer for another box.

He was about to say something but I had already moved on. I was on a mission to be fucked by as much as possible tonight so once he had cum he was essentially useless to me - or last for another thirty minutes I would have under other circumstances.

6. A Few Quick Blowjobs

Eventually I found myself in the dining room where several guys were watching three girls eating each other out. I was still naked and I could feel some cum starting to drip from me but under the circumstances, it guess it just made me fit in. I stepped up to the guys and brushed my hair back, trying to look sexy for them.

"So, you guys just watching or would you like to have your dicks sucked?" I teased.

Not surprisingly they all agreed that they would rather me suck them off so I was sucking one while stroking the other two. Periodically I would switch between them as I tried to pay all of them about the same amount of attention. I knew I was being fairly successful from the way they all stiffened at the same time, becoming rock hard in my mouth and hands. They must have been pretty horny already from watching the show as it didn't take long for me to make each one cum, taking them in my mouth and then moving to the next one so that I was sucking him while my mouth still had the previous guy's cum in it.

After the first guy came, once I started to suck the next one I would spit the cum from the previous one onto his cock, making it slippery and tasty for me - which really seemed to turn them on. After the third one had cum I stood up and gave them all a quick smile and bounced off to find another cock.

My goal initially had been to suck the cock of every guy there before the night was over and I worked my way through the various couples and groups to achieve that, twice in some cases. With some, it was just a few strokes in my mouth and for others I gave a full blowjob. Why go halfway? If I was going to do this then why not push myself to see how wanton and slutty I could really be.

I think most girls wonder at times how deviant and naughty they could be if they just let themselves completely go for one night. For most girls, that opportunity never came. Well, for me, tonight was just that opportunity and I didn't want to look back later and regret not doing it while I could. At the moment I felt more like a whore than a slut and it actually excited me, in some ways it didn't even seem real but more like a dream.

7. Fucked in the Kitchen

Lacking any sort of plan, I wandered into the kitchen and sat down on the counter top with my legs spread open and waited like a Venus fly trap for the first guy to come by. He looked at me and smiled. I noticed his dick looked wet and was just hanging there, as if he had just fucked someone. Under the circumstances, the odds of that were actually pretty good!

I was about to say something to him when another guy came in, looking in the refrigerator for something to drink. He pulled out a beer and opened it before turning to me and smiling as he took a drink. Like the other guy, he was naked (for that matter, I don't think anyone was wearing anything by now) and my eyes couldn't help but drift down to check him out. He had a cute ass and nice looking cock. He was also quite short compared to the other guys, just a couple inches at most more than me. The two guys high-fived and I assumed they must have been together with one or more girls before or something like that. I couldn't keep my eyes off his cock though as my tongue subconsciously ran over my lips in anticipation.

"See something you like little girl?"

My head quickly popped up and I looked at him with a mixture of curiosity and exasperation. "Little girl" indeed! But then, I WAS seeing something I liked.

"Maybe..., you got something to give me?" I teased him back.

Well, he wasn't shy as it turned out. He grabbed his cock in his hand (I noticed his hand covered about half the length of it) and flopped it in front of me, like he was dangling bait in front of a fish or something.

"You know it babe. Why don't you try sucking this? I guarantee you'll like it more than just staring at it."

"Oh really? And what's makes you so sure I want to suck it?"

He laughed and shook his head at me.

"Hmmmmmm, could it be the way you kept staring at it ever since I walked in? Or... maybe it's the way you keep licking those lips as you stare at it?

Maybe I should have been embarrassed but I wasn't. After all, it's not like I was in church or something like that. If there was ever a situation where I could be forgiven for enjoying the sight of a nice dick, this was certainly it!

"Well, I've got a better idea... why don't you just fuck me and get it over with?"

Now THAT brought a grin to his face. Guys may love their cocks sucked but I've never had one turn down fucking me instead.

I stayed on the counter top with my bare ass on the cool surface. I hoped someone cleaned it off after the party! As it turned out, it wasn't anything cute or special, just an old fashioned pussy fucking. I leaned back on my hands as I spent the whole time just watching his cock moving in and out of me like a piston on a steam locomotive. It was sort of fascinating, almost surreal, in the way I felt disconnected from the entire thing. It was almost like I was watching someone else. There was no emotion, nothing between us, just two people getting off. What a contrast from this morning where the fucking was almost secondary to the feeling I had for my dad as he entered me!

He was stroking his hard dick in and out of my cunt as if he was masturbating except he using my pussy instead of his hand. As for me, I played with my clit and in my own way I was masturbating as well, except that instead of having to imagine a nice cock inside of me there was a real one in me instead. When he finally came he spurted it all over my stomach and pussy, leaving a messy trail of cum on the counter top as well. When he was done, he simply walked away without even saying a word!

Feeling more than a bit used, I stood up and went to the kitchen sink to wash myself off. Although I say I felt "used", at the same time I was probably guilty of using him. What made it really funny was I actually enjoyed it for what it was, two people essentially masturbating by using the other to help get themselves off. Even though I hadn't cum myself, I still enjoyed it and I felt pretty good at the moment.

8. Gangbanged in the Living Room

I walked through the living room to find my clothes I had left behind when I passed by two couples fucking on the floor. The two girls were side by side on their backs and the guys were next to each other as they fucked the girls. I paused for a while to watch when I felt a hand on my ass. I looked next to me and there was the first guy who I had fucked earlier. He looked down at the girls and then back at me.

"Well, you just wanna watch or what?"

I looked at him as if I didn't understand.

"You know, get down next to them....do what they're doing."

Well, I was there so why not go for it one more time? I reached over and tugged playfully on his dick.

"You know, if you want to fuck me again, all you have to do is ask."

He laughed softly and then looked down to where I was still holding his cock in my hand.

"Alright then, I want to fuck you again. There, is that what you wanted?"

Note to all men - even if she turns you down, every girl loves to hear a guy tell her that he wants to fuck her. It's really quite a compliment to be told you turn him on such that he wants you in that way, even if he doesn't really care about you as a person. Of course, most girls will act as if they are aghast and offended, but between their legs it's usually a different story!

I tugged a little more on his cock and grinned.

"Well, since you put it so nicely..."

Keeping my eyes fixed on his, I laid down next to one of the girls, close enough to feel her sweating nude body against mine. As for my guy, he didn't waste any time and immediately followed me down to the floor (having his dick still in my clutches probably was a factor as well). I bent my knees such that my feet were flat on the floor and spread my legs apart like some whore offering herself to be fucked. Really, what was the point in trying to pretend otherwise? We both knew he was going to fuck me so why bother with any games?

Kneeling between my legs, he put his hands under my ass and then lifted and pulled me towards him such that my ass was resting just above the floor on his thighs. Pushing my hand away from his dick, he grabbed himself and pushed the head of his dick against the opening of my pussy. After what I'd been through so far, he didn't meet much resistance, to say the least, and easily slid the length of his dick into me until our crotches met. In fact, he slid so quickly into me it took me a second to realize he was even in me! But there was no mistaking that warm feeling in me when a man's hard cock is filling my pussy.

Without a word he began fucking me, much the same as the other two guys were fucking their girls. I glanced over to see that the girl next to me was watching me and we smiled at each other. She was being banged pretty hard by some guy and a cute little grunt came out each time he slammed into her.

As the three of us girls were being fucked, I couldn't help but think of how different it had been with my dad this morning. Sure it felt good to have a hard dick stroking in and out of me, I would never complain about THAT. There was just something about being one of three girls laying side by side getting drilled by three guys, none of us knowing the other was, that sort of took away any sense of intimacy or emotional attachment (a huge understatement at that). It was almost mechanical, not much different than if the three of us had been masturbating with a dildo. Granted, a real dick trumped a dildo every time, no matter who it was attached to, but that's not my point.

My thoughts had drifted only for a moment when the girl spoke up.

"Hey, you guys want to swap around?" she called out.

I probably don't need to say the guys certainly didn't mind and frankly, one cock was as good as another in this situation so I didn't protest. Each guy pulled out of the girl he was fucking and moved to a different girl so I was now being fucked by a different guy. If I'd closed my eyes I would've thought my original guy had just pulled out and then put himself back in as the next guy did just about the same as the first. Nothing creative, just a rhythmic stoking in and out of me. I couldn't feel any difference in their cocks but then unless it was a sizable change I wouldn't have known anyway.

After a while they switched again and by that time some of the other guys who had come in to watch started to replace the original guys. It wasn't just the guys who wanted to join in; a couple more girls took their place and soon six us were lying next to each other like a fucking assembly line.

Before it was over I must have been fucked for well over an hour straight. There were twelve guys at the party and so far as I know, every one of them had fucked me at least once. A couple of them came in me but most of them pulled out and came in my mouth, giving me even more cum in my belly. It never failed that by the time the guy had moved up to my face to unload in my mouth, another guy was already pushing his hard cock into my soaking wet pussy so my pussy was never empty for very long the entire time. The other girls were doing their share of guys until finally we ran out of hard guys and I was able to lie back and catch my breath.

As I laid there I could only imagine the mess I must look like. I could feel cum all over my face from guys missing my mouth and my pussy was actually a bit sore! Not so much it really hurt but enough to remind me that it had been fucked pretty hard for quite a while. My hair was all over the place and I could only hope it didn't have too much cum in it either. My pussy was swollen and I could feel the cum draining from me. God only knew how much was in me - and that didn't include what felt like a quart that I had swallowed.

"Hey girl, you gonna just lay there or what?"

I opened my eyes and focused to see Beth leaning over me. She was still nude but looked great. She must have been observing us all although I found it hard to believe she hadn't joined in.

"Damn Kelly, I didn't know you were such a slut!" she exclaimed playfully. "To bad we didn't have more guys, eh?"

I reached up and tried to slap her but the grin on my face told her I was just goofing around. Beth knew full well before today that her best friend was a slut, just as I knew she was. After all, what other kind of girl would go to this type of party?

I summoned the strength to get up and we both went to the bathroom to clean me up. Eventually I found my clothes and we both waved goodbye to everyone. With college starting in again soon, something told me it would be a long time before I ever saw any of them again, if ever.

9. Back Home Again

As Beth drive me home, I reflect on the evening Tonight had certainly been different from the previous parties, almost as if it was a conclusion to a Chapter in my life. This time I was leaving in a better mood as I had come to realize that parties such as this were not about relationships or people being concerned about the feelings of others. Rather, it was merely a means to satisfy one's sexual desires and fantasies.

Well, tonight I had certainly acted out some of my most wildest fantasies - being gangbanged; and while it had been an "experience" to say the least, I really felt no desire to do it again.

When I got home my parents were still out so I went upstairs, undressed, showered again and flopped onto my bed. Suddenly I was overcome with exhaustion and as I laid there the realization of just what I had done that evening began to sink in. I couldn't believe how many cocks I had sucked and fucked!

Eventually I fell asleep with my hand firmly between my legs. My pussy still sensitive after an evening of total sexual pleasure. You know, in a way the entire evening was like a massive masturbation session where instead of using my imagination I had the real thing but at the moment I didn't care, just as I did after doing myself I laid there and thought about how I'd enjoyed the results.

The next morning I think I had been dreaming of a hard cock in my pussy when I opened my sleepy eyes to find that my dad had climbed into bed behind me and somehow had managed to bury his cock deep into my pussy without waking me! This was a rare victory for him as usually I would wake up the moment he started to penetrate me. I'm not sure who loved it more, him or me, as the thought of him sneaking in and gently parting my pussy lips and slipping himself slowly into me made me really hot.

As he slowly stroked himself in and out of my welcoming pussy, he quietly told me that they had gotten in late last night and found me sound asleep. Now he wanted to know ALL about my party. He seemed especially curious as to how many guys I had fucked and sucked. As I described the evening he stroked himself in and out of me faster, getting himself more excited as I told him about how I had really let myself go and fucked as many guys as I could.

Finally I felt my dad's hard body push against my back and ass then he jerked as my his cock exploded in his daughter's pussy, spraying his hot cum deep into my wet pussy. He must have been really turned on after hearing about my exploits as he just kept cumming and cumming until finally he jerked hard one last time and let his cock slip out of me, glistening with a mixture of my pussy juice and his cum.

As we lay there together, his incestuous dick throbbing in my pussy like a beating heart. A feeling of total satisfaction filled me to overflowing. Damn, in the past twelve hours I had been fucked numerous times by a dozen guys, sucked most of them at least once, , and now I had a pussy full of my daddy's cum. Still tired, I feel asleep in my dad's strong arms, feeling his cock as he kept it inside of me, keeping us joined together. I awoke a few hours later to find myself alone in my bed but still feeling that warm sensation between my legs.

Mmmmmmm, not a bad way to spend your last Friday night before leaving for college!

(Aug 31) Chapter 58: 2004 Summer Break Review

Mary - my mom (38)
Kristen - cousin (17)

I guess the traditional thing to do at the end of summer is to write about what you did. Well, I had a great summer this year so here are some of the highlights. I have written individual stories about some of these events if you want more details! This is not the usual "What I Did This Past Summer" essay but I bet I would have gotten an A+ in school if I had handed it in to some of my teachers!

1. My Personal Life

Gosh, I can't even begin to add up the hours I spent out on our deck working on my suntan, reading and writing. The hot tub got quite a workout too. Our family has never worn anything in the hot tub and I don't see any need to when I'm alone either. Man, those jets can work wonders when they are directed at the right places! The deck is on top of our garage making it pretty private so I was able to tan in a skimpy thong without anyone being able to see me.

Let's see... lots of shopping and going out with friends made up the majority of my social life. We usually went to a local restaurant for a snack or something in the evenings and sometimes caught a movie afterwards. Even without a car, I'm not totally dependent on my friends and parents to get me around. Pittsburgh has these great student passes that allowed me access to all the area mass transit buses and trains so I got around pretty well on my own, even without a car.

2. Babysitting

Since my parents pay my college tuition and fees, plus a pretty nice allowance, I don't have to worry about holding down a job while at school which makes it much easier to get my studies done and keep up my grades. Alas, during the summer they expect me to do something on my own for spending money even though if I ask my dad he always helps me out – he can be such a push over if you ask him the right way!

Having no desire to be a waitress or work in the mall, I mostly baby-sit. Don't laugh, the pay is great (and in cash) and the hours aren't so bad. Most people in my neighborhood are pretty well off and are willing to pay $8-10 an hour for a college girl to watch their kids. They feel more secure with me than leaving their kids with some flaky fourteen year-old barely out of grade school.

As I get paid in cash that means no taxes which makes the pay a LOT better than what my friends make waitressing and clerking, plus they have to deal with crazy customers and perverted bosses! I get to handle small kids who generally like me (with a few notable exceptions). They usually go to bed early, leaving me with half the night to myself.

Then there are also the "side benefits" of being able to check out the house where I usually find "interesting" clothes and such, especially in the master bedroom. OK parents, don't worry, I would never even consider doing anything stupid while your kid is in my care! No boyfriends or anything like that are allowed over when I sit. Indeed, I take the responsibilities of the job very seriously and recognize that the parents have entrusted their most precious things in their loves with me. I would never do anything whatsoever to violate that trust!

3. Sex Parties

One of my closest girlfriends introduced me to the wild world of sex parties this summer. I only attended four of these during course of the summer but they were a totally new and exhilarating experience for me. Having sex with multiple people in one night was something I'd never done before. Added to the thrill was the fact that I hadn't met any of them before and suddenly I was naked and fucking them – and in front of all the others to boot. This is when I learned that I am tremendously turned on by having people watch me having sex. I've always liked my mom watching my dad fuck me and I also love watching him fucking my mom and aunt but this was something totally different. These people were total strangers and here they were just a few feet away seeing a guy, whose name I usually didn't even know, fucking the daylights out of me!

Although not something I really want to do every night, the few times that I went I left feeling incredible. In the first three I had sex with several guys but one at a time. In the final one I let loose and was gangbanged by a dozen guys in a row, each fucking me and then letting me suck them as they came.

4. My Dad

My dad and I started a new morning tradition this summer. To start his day out on a positive note he would come to my room each morning and either fuck me or do whatever else he felt like that morning. Sometimes he would not to wake me right away and see what he could get away with without waking me. There were even a couple of times when I was so tired that I didn't wake until he was already completely in me! It's really an incredible sensation to wake up and feel something in your pussy and then realize it's your own dad.

Sometimes he just masturbated as he watched me sleeping and then would cum on me. Depending on where he came I might have woke up and sucked him but typically I would wake up later to find his cum dried on me. letting me know that he'd been there earlier and enjoyed seeing me sleeping nude in front of him. I think I will miss my mornings with my Dad more than anything else while I am away at school!

Story codes: MF oral inc father daughter
John - my dad (39)

Going away to school has its pros and cons. Like most people, one of the biggest concerns I have about leaving home is missing my parents. Of course, I had something I'll be missing that most girl's don't - my dad's dick!

1. Thoughts of Leaving Home

I guess you could call me a "daddy's girl". Over the past few years I've had a number of other guys but there is one who is I want to be with the most - my dad. I may have lost count of the number of cocks I've sucked but there is one I'll never forget - my dad's. It's been more than three years since we first did it, but it still seems like each time is new for me. I love being his daughter, pleasing him in ways no other girl can. As independent as I am in most every other aspect of my life, submitting to my father's needs and desires is an honor, not a chore.

Just to be clear, there's nothing kinky between me and my dad. I never pretend to be his lover or do anything to suggest I am taking my place with my mom or that he is somehow cheating when he fucks me. Indeed, my mom, an incest daughter herself, fully supports me. I am my father's daughter and he is my dad and we always maintain that relationship. As his daughter it is my obligation to please him but that doesn't make me his slave or my Dom or anything weird. I compare it to biblical submission where it is giving myself to him out of love and honor, not anything forced o required.

So hopefully with that set straight...

Although I was excited about going back to school for my sophomore year, it also meant leaving home again and thus leaving my parents. Of all the things I knew I would miss being away from school, not being with my parents was definitely going to be the most difficult to deal with. It wasn't that I was going to miss the sex itself, although getting laid at my conservative Christian university wasn't the easiest thing in the world by any means. It was that I would miss making my dad happy.

I would never say that my dad has to fuck me to show he loves me, but sex is one way of showing me in the most intimate manner just how much he loved me and yes, how much he desires me. It feel good when other men look at me with lust but that's not anything special. To have your own father give you that look in his eyes, knowing how he is feeling about you and how he desires you, now THAT is special.

2. My Dad Fucks Me In the School Parking Lot

Last week my parents brought me back to the campus to start school again. After staying in the area for almost a week, they planned to leave the Sunday before Labor Day. By now I was all moved in and I'd walked with them out to their car in the crowded parking lot to say goodbye. First I gave my mom her goodbye kiss and then I kissed my dad. He held me and hugged me tight and I could feel his entire body pressed against mine - and I mean his entire body. He was obviously quite aroused judging from the bulge that was pressing against me! There were people walking by so we couldn't get too carried with our kiss.

"Damn Kelly, I am going to miss our mornings together. I miss you so bad already. God I want you."

"I can tell daddy," I said with a bit of a giggle.

"Oh Mom," I sighed, giving her a pleading look, "I can't let daddy leave in this condition, do you mind waiting just a little bit longer before you guys leave?"

My mom had also been keeping an eye on her husband and she just laughed at my request. "Oh yes Kelly, I noticed his condition too although I suspect it's not just concern over him though that has you going you. Sheesh, you're SUCH a little slut - can't you go even ONE day without getting laid?"

Then she sighed rather melodramatically and continue, "Alright, the two of you get in the back seat but you better hurry up. I'll sit up front and keep an eye out - and on you two as well. Deal?"

Of course we both agreed so my dad and I quickly climbed into the back seat and shut the door before anyone noticed. My dad drives a big SUV so there was plenty of room in back. I laid back on the leather seat as he kneeled on the floor. We both hurried as best we could to get out of our jeans. Of course I wasn't wearing his cock, making it impossible for him to move inside of me for a few moments. I looked into my dad's eyes and just moaned as I wrapped my arms and legs around him.

Just as I was beginning to get over the peak of my orgasm I felt his cock surge into me and then I could feel him exploding inside of me. A hot blast of cum suddenly filled my pussy and I felt like a fire had been lit inside of me. My orgasm started upwards again, but this time I was still feeling the effects of the first one so the second one was even harder, even more incredible. I groaned with pleasure, unable to say anything else as the rest of the world disappeared and I was somewhere alone in the universe with my dad fucking me.

"Ohhhhhhhh Daddy! Nobody can make me cum like you can. I love being your slut, your personal whore. Damn I feel so good right now. Let me suck your cock so I can taste us on it."

My dad slipped out of my soaking wet pussy and he straddled my chest so his cock was right in front of my face. I dangled himself into my mouth and I closed my lips around him. Then he pumped himself in and out of my mouth like he was fucking it. Mmmmmmm, I loved how he tasted with a mixture of his cum and my pussy cum on cock which I enjoyed the taste of all by itself.

Another group of parents walked past the truck just then and got into the car next to us. Imagine if they had turned and looked in what they would have seen – my dad's ass as he let me suck his cock and my wide open pussy as my legs were still spread apart and I know my pussy had to be soaking wet and open from his cock being in me. I can just imagine the look on their faces seeing a student being fucked by her father while her mother was watching from the front seat, fingering herself as she enjoyed the sight of her husband fucking her daughter.

My mother finally had to remind everyone of the time and that I was suppose to have been coming right back to the dorm room to help my new roomie. My dad sighed and he drew his cock from my mouth. We both got dressed and then he kissed me like a teenager in the back seat of his parent's car. This was not the usual peck I watched the other dads giving their daughters when they left; this was a kiss of unbridled passion and animal lust We kissed as a father and daughter who deeply loved one another, who would do anything for the other. We eventually had to part and we got out of the fan.

Just then another groups of students and parents walked by. Seeing the two of us getting out from the back seat and both of us obviously flushed, I wonder if they had any idea what we'd just done. I suppose even if the thought crossed their minds they would've never believed that anyone would actually do it. After all, who would dare to fuck in the school parking lot on a busy day like this. Most of all, would they even dare to think my DAD was the one who had fucked me back there?

I waved goodbye as my parents drove away. I walked back to my dorm room and my new life for the next nine months. What a great way to start though, walking through campus feeling my dad's cum as it drained from my pussy. It would be a while before dad fucked me again but at least I had this memory!

(Sep 18) Chapter 60: Together With Brenda and Her Married Brother Again

Story codes: FF MF MFF oral inc brother sister
Me (19)
Brenda - Freshman roomie (19)
David - Brenda's brother (27)

Last year when I was a freshman in college my roommate turned out not only to be cute but bisexual as well. Needless to say, we had some great times with one another. Brenda lived in a nearby town but her parents wanted her to spend her first year in the dorm so she could adjust to college life easier and have her own "college" experience. I doubt they had in mind the type of experiences she had with me!

1. A Brief History of Brenda and Her Brother

I knew beforehand that my choice of a conservative Christian school would have it's good and bad points. It was a great school where I knew I'd get an excellent education. As a devout Christian I liked the general atmosphere and the attitudes of the students and faculty. On the other hand, BECAUSE it was a strict Christian school I knew my lifestyle from high school would have to change quite a bit from everything to my wardrobe to how I acted in class. Still, I THOUGHT I was ready. Boy was I wrong!

When you're accustomed to having sex several times a week at the bare minimum, it's not easy going cold turkey at a school like mine. To make a long story short, I was "saved" when it turned out that my roomie was bisexual and became the first girl I had sex with (I don't count my mom and aunt).

One night about three weeks before our freshman year was over, Brenda invited me to her house for dinner. As things turned out, David and his wife were also there along with their two bratty kids. Was it just a coincidence that Brenda invited me over the same night as her brother's family was visiting? Something told me it wasn't.

After dinner Brenda and I were sitting out on the back porch watching David and his dad working on the lawn tractor. Brenda noticed I had my eye on David and we talked about how hot her brother was. Brenda even admitted that she had fantasized about being with him many times while they were growing up but never had the courage to actually do anything.

I told Brenda that I could easily understand why she had those dreams and that I would love to have him as well. At first she seemed shocked but then saw that I was serious and soon we were devising a plan which would satisfy both of our dreams.

Later that night Brenda and I went to the family room where David was watching TV alone. Well, to make a long story very short, we made our intentions clear and he was more than happy to go along. Well, David ended up fucking both of us that night and we all loved it. Doing Brenda's brother in front of her while his bitchy wife was sleeping just a few rooms down the hall was really hot but the best part was seeing Brenda riding her brother's cock for the very first time. I'd never seen a real brother and sister fuck before so I was incredibly turned on seeing my best friend taking her brother's cock in her. The best part was when he came in her, flooding his sister's pussy with his incestuous AND adulterous cum. Two for one!

Being it was so close to the end of the school year, I never had another chance to be at Brenda's house while David was there. Brenda told me that he never mentioned that night to her but he certainly seemed less inhibited when it came to looking at her with lust in his eyes.

2. At the Lake

After a great summer I was back in school but with a new roomie since Brenda was living at home this year. Karen was great but I knew I would never have the close bond with her that I enjoyed with Brenda. First, she wasn't bisexual. In fact snot only was she against pre-marital sex, she didn't even believe in masturbation, claiming it was no different than actually doing it. Talk about a change in roomies front one year to the next!

I'd been back for just a few weeks when Brenda stopped me between classes and invited me to be with her family for the weekend. She said to be ready Saturday morning and to bring my swim suit. Her parents have a pool and with fall fast approaching there wouldn't be much chance to use it much longer. After a brief internal debate, I packed what I refer to as my tanning bikini – a cute yellow thong which left very little to the imagination. Brenda's house was out of town a bit and rather private so I wasn't worried about being seen by anybody.

You can imagine what a hard time I had falling asleep Friday night; it had been months since I was with Brenda and although we'd seen each other around campus since school started, I couldn't wait to be with her in more private circumstances! Karen was sound asleep so I laid on my back in bed and put my hand inside my shorts. As I rubbed myself I imagined it was Brenda's hand moving under my waistband, tracing her slender fingers downward until they slipped past my pussy and then down my smooth inner thighs. I shivered involuntarily as my fingers teased me, moving up and down my sensitive thighs and just barely running up my pussy slit.

My hand cupped my crotch; I was so warm by now thinking of being in bed with her again. My middle finger pressed between my lips and found the wet opening to my pussy. God it felt so good to circle my finger around it and then dip it just inside and then up to my clit, wetting it with my pussy juices. A tingle passed through my entire body as I ran my fingers around my clit, rubbing it and pressing on it.

For the next twenty minutes or so I silently masturbated in my bed, rubbing my breasts and playing with my pussy. God, I missed having Brenda in my room so badly! Finally I made myself cum so hard it was all I could do to keep from crying out loud and waking Karen. I laid on my back until I fell asleep, my hand between my legs, feeling the special warmth I get inside of me after a great orgasm. It was a feeling that I love so much and can NEVER get enough.

Saturday morning I woke up bright and early and got dressed. Karen was still in bed and watched as I pulled out a short pair of cutoffs and a tube top that she hadn't seen me in before. I was sure she also noticed that this was ALL I was putting on - no panties and no bra. Seeing the sour expression on her face, I was curious as to whether she would say something but surprisingly she just smiled playfully.

"Well Kelly, looks like you're planning to have an... interesting weekend."

I just gave her a coy grin saying, "Oh I'm was sure I will!" I grabbed my backpack with my overnight stuff and went outside to wait.

In a few minutes Brenda's parents pulled up in their SUV with Brenda in the back seat. To my surprise, they were towing a boat trailer with a nice looking ski boat! I had no idea they even had a boat but I love water skiing. Brenda jumped out and gave me a big hug. She felt soooooo good to be in my arms again! She explained that her parents had just bought the boat this summer and she wanted to surprise me. We got in the backseat and chatted away as the lake was about an hour away.

There was a big queue at the boat ramp so Brenda and I decided to head over to the rest rooms to change. There was nobody else there so I just dropped my shorts out in the middle of the changing area and stripped off my tube top. Brenda looked at me standing in front of her all but naked as could be in just my sneakers and let out a low wolf whistle as a big grin came to her face.

"Hey Kelly, looking good. Been while since I've seen you like this. Wow, you must have worked all summer on that tan! Damn girl, I think your boobs have even grown a bit more."

"Thanks Brenda, well if anyone should know about my boobs I guess you would! Remember how small I was last year at this time!"

Brenda laughed and indeed, I remembered how I looked when we first met. After thinking I was to be cursed with an A cup, this past year my boobs had finally blossomed to where they were now almost a true C cup. Who knows, maybe it was all of the stimulation they got from Brenda!

I looked at Brenda who was also nude by now, getting ready to put on her bikini and for a brief moment I had some naughty thoughts about doing her right then but just as I was about to say something some older women came in and we hurriedly dressed.

As I pulled out my bikini it dawned on me that the bikini I'd brought was intended to be worn at her house by a private pool, not running around in public at a state park. Oh well, it's not like Brenda hadn't seen more of me and her parents were used to seeing the two of us running around all but naked at their house so I figured what the heck and put it on. Besides, it was all I had with me.

Brenda was also putting on a pretty skimpy outfit but at least her butt was half covered. That's not to say her large boobs weren't all but spilling out of a top that looked at least a size too small. She looked at me in mine and her eyes widened a bit. I smiled and twirled around in front of her.

"So Brenda, what do you think of my new bikini?"

Brenda laughed. "Well, it certainly doesn't leave anything to the imagination, does it? Personally I love it, but it's not what I think about it but rather what HE does."

I gave her a quizzical look and she pointed outside. I looked out the door and saw her brother David walking up to the boat from where he'd parked his car.

"My dad still needs help with the boat motor and David seems to be the only one that understands it. I'm sure he will be happy to see you, especially in that totally indecent bikini! God, do you remember the last time we were with him?"

Yeah, like I was EVER going to forget taking part in THAT!

"Oh god Brenda, how could I ever forget! It was incredible!"

I felt a tingle in me as I recalled how good it felt when David fucked us both that day. My pussy certainly remembered me how wonderful his large cock felt, violating it and then cumming deep inside of it, filling me with his adulterous cum. I couldn't help but take a good look at his crotch so see if there was any evidence of that thick cock through the baggy swim suit he was wearing. There wasn't much to see but it didn't take much work for my nasty mind to imagine reaching inside and pulling his large cock out so I could kneel down in front of him suck it. The heck with who was watching!

We both wrapped our beach towels around our waists and went back to the boat. David saw us coming and when he recognized me he smiled – well he better! As we approached the boat Brenda and I dropped the towels and I wanted to grin as David couldn't help but stare. My bikini bottom was mostly strings which basically exposed my entire ass with a small triangle in front that was just enough to cover my shaved pussy. My bikini top covered my nipples but not a whole lot more so for all practical purposes I was as close to being nude in public as I could get, maybe a little bit more but who was going to complain?

"Hey Kelly, didn't know you'd be here today. Good to see you again. Wow, you're certainly looking good!"

"Thanks David, you're not looking too badly yourself. Been behaving lately?"

David just gave me a grin and a wink. I wanted to jump him right then and there but with everyone around it wouldn't have been exactly socially acceptable.

It seemed like hours but we finally got though the line to the boat ramp where Brenda's dad and David got the boat in and running. The guys ran it over to a dock where Brenda and I were waiting and we jumped in. To my disappointment David got out and bid us all goodbye. Turned out that he'd just come out to help his dad. At least he and his family would be at the house when we got back for a cookout so it wasn't a total loss but I was hoping to give him more of a look at me in my bikini. From the way he looked at me, especially my ass, I got the distinct feeling he was wishing he'd arranged to stay with us for the day!

For the next hour or so we had a great time out on the lake. While a klutz in most athletic endeavors, I'm a pretty good water skier and Brenda was learning to be as well. Her parents didn't ski but instead seemed perfectly content to have a good time watching us and just being out on the lake together in their new boat.

For me the best part of the day was when I got on the skis, seeing the guys' heads turn as I zipped by. With the ski vest on you couldn't see my top but my practically bare ass was certainly out there in full view. Unless you looked close, from a distance it probably looked like I wasn't wearing anything on my bottom!

We took a break at noon and had a nice picnic. Then we hit the lake again for a few more hours. In addition to water skiing we also had fun with a big tube. The only problem with the tube was that the water kept pushing my bikini top off my nipples but I was on my stomach so it wasn't like I was flashing anyone - much. Later in the afternoon we decided to call it a day. As much as I loved being out on the lake I was pretty tired and we'd all had a great time.

3. Showering With Brenda

We got back to Brenda's house in one piece and while her father and brother put the boat away, Brenda and I went in to take a shower and get dressed again. I got in the shower first and it wasn't long before I felt Brenda's bare arms around me as she entered the shower stall behind me. It felt so wonderful to once again feel my roomie's wet naked body pressed against me as she softly kissed the back of my neck and ears. Her arms wrapped around me and her hands cupped my breasts, squeezing them and toying with my nipples. Standing there in the warm spray, silently enjoying her attention, I could feel her smooth stomach and crotch pressing against my ass, pushing against me as if she was trying to fuck me like a guy.

"Mmmmmmm Kelly... it's been quite a while. I've been dreaming all week about holding you like this!"

"Oh Brenda, I missed you so badly this summer."

I turned and put my arms around her neck and hugged her. Her breasts were pressed against mine and I could feel the water flowing between us as her nipples teased mine. We kissed and her tongue flashed into my mouth. I could feel the passion in her kiss but I also sensed the raw lust she had for me as she ground her wide hips into me as we kissed. Her hands cupped my wet ass and she pulled me tightly up against her. Oh my god, I was in heaven!

Brenda moved down to my breasts and started to suck on my nipples. A soft moan escaped from me and Brenda looked up at me with a look that I knew meant for me to be quiet! Easier said than done - I couldn't help it. From plenty of past experience Brenda knew exactly how to kiss me, how to suck me, how to touch me. After sleeping together for an entire school year we each knew the other's body almost as well as our own. There was NO part of me she hadn't explored and I knew her intimately as well. Her hand moved between my legs and I felt her fingers entering me, exploring me and caressing me. It felt absolutely incredible! She used her palm to rub my clit while she used her fingers to fuck me. I was so horny that it only took a short while before I could feel an orgasm building in me.

"That's it Brenda, fuck me! Make me cum! God I want to cum all over your hand. Oh fuck me, fuck me!"

Brenda was too busy sucking my boobs and hard nipples to answer. My whole body was on fire and my knees felt suddenly weak as my orgasm consumed me. It was like a wave of pure pleasure was passing through me, following by another and then yet another. I gasped as I pulled her head tightly against me.

"I'm cumming Brenda, oh god you make me cum so hard! Don't stop, keep fucking me! Fuck me, fuck me."

Her fingers were flying in and out of me. She bit down on my nipples and the pain was absorbed into my orgasm which just kept building until finally I let out cry that must have been heard outside the bathroom but at that point I didn't care. Al I could think about was Brenda fucking me, making me feel so incredibly good. Finally it subsided enough for me to breathe again. Brenda stood up and kissed me.

"You owe me one girl- a BIG one and I intend to collect on that debt tonight so you'd better be ready!"

We got out of the shower and dried off using the large bath towels her mom kept stocked. I looked in the mirror and saw how flush I was after my orgasm.

Brenda giggled. "Gee Kelly, you might have to wait a few minutes before going out. Between that high pitched squeal and now that flushed face, people are going to wonder what we've been doing in here. Gosh, they might think we did something naughty."

She giggled again and winked at me as she wrapped a towel around her. I grabbed a dry towel as well and we both left for her bedroom to get dressed. My legs still felt weak from our little escapade in the shower but somehow I was able to walk to her room. As I put on my shorts and tube top Brenda gave me a look-over.

"Mmmmmmm, you look pretty hot in that Kelly. By the way, did you see the way David was looking at us before, especially you? I've got a feeling he's been thinking about a LOT that time the three of us got together. What do you think, ready to go after him again? I know I certainly am. Who knew my best fuck would be by my brother?"

Considering Beth was for all practical purposes a lesbian, I doubted she'd had many others to compare to but knowing how special it was for my dad to fuck me I imagined it had to be somewhat the same to have your brother fuck you.

"Yeah but his wife and kids are here which is a bummer. Besides, why haven't you fucked him since then anyway?"

Brenda sighed as her shoulders slouched. "Well, I have a feeling they may be gone for a while from what his wife was saying. Just leave it up to me and be ready. Oh, as for not having screwed him again, I think we need you to be with us to help get over the taboo issues. You don't mind do you?"

I just laughed at that. After all, she knew full well that I was always ready for a good fucking! Adding to my anticipation was the memories of our last time together and how great he'd fucked me. To do it with my best friend's brother, her married brother at that, was so incredibly erotic! I was getting super horny and I could feel my pussy getting wet just thinking about it!

During dinner I noticed that David kept looking over at me. He was so hot and good looking, I never understood how he had married such a bitch. I guess it was the way his wife treated everyone that made me feel especially good to fuck her husband, even if she didn't know about it. Normally I would've never have considered fucking a married man and having his wife find out but in this case I almost wished she would walk in and catch us just so she could see how much her husband loved fucking us more than her. It would serve her right but I knew it would never happen so in the meantime when she would act all bitchy at least I got the satisfaction of looking her in the eye and know that I could satisfy her husband better sexually than she ever dreamed.

After dinner, I couldn't believe our luck. David's wife said she wanted to take kids to some festival that was running in town for some rides. It was only about five minutes away and she said she would be back in an hour or so but what an opportunity! I watched as David kissed her goodbye and told her that he loved her. I thought to myself how much I wanted to fuck him and wondered if she ever had any idea that the guy who had just told her that he loved her may well be fucking his own sister and her best friend in a matter of minutes!

As David and his wife were saying their goodbyes, Brenda came up to me and whispered in my ear for me to come into her room. She closed the door behind us and started to undress.

"C'mon Kelly, strip and let's get going before David gets here. I want him to catch us having sex when he comes in!"

Well, she didn't have to ask me twice and it only took a few seconds to get naked and in her bed with her. We wasted no time in getting started and were soon kissing with our hands exploring each other. I loved the feel of Brenda's body. She was about my size and we fit together like two peas in a pod. We intertwined our tanned legs such that our pussies were pressed against the other's leg and we each moved our hips just enough to rub up against the other. It wasn't long before the door opened and in walked David.

"Damn girls, you certainly didn't waste any time! You weren't kidding Brenda when you said you had a nice surprise waiting for me."

I turned around so I was on top of Brenda with my pussy in her face and hers was right under my face. I was facing David who was standing at the foot of the bed. Brenda was licking my pussy and sucking my clit. I could feel her tongue exploring into my pussy, flickering around the entrance and then reaching inside of me.

David moved up closer and pulled down his shorts. Out popped his wonderful cock, just starting to show signs of becoming aroused. I licked my lips and reached my head forward. I licked the length of it and then took it into my mouth. It was still soft and I loved the feel of it in my mouth. I took it all in my mouth and buried my face in his hairy crotch. I rubbed my cheeks against his curly pubic hair, sucking on him the whole time.

He smelled so musky and strong; I love the way a man smells when he's sexually excited. I sucked on his married cock like a popsicle as I felt him swelling and hardening. It always fascinates me to watch and feel a man harden, especially when I'm the reason for him to get that way. I feel so sexy knowing that a man can change that way just because of me.

When he was fully erect I took him all the way in and then twisted my head and let him out. Then I sucked on the head, twirling my tongue around it. I felt David shiver when I licked the back of his cock. As I sucked him I fondled his balls, careful not to squeeze them too hard.

David was getting more and more aroused and he held my head in place while he moved his hips to fuck my face. He was ramming his cock into my mouth now, like my mouth was a pussy to be fucked. His cock was so big that each time he would hit the back of my throat, almost gagging me. It was OK though, I'd learned long ago by sucking my dad how to take a big cock all the way in, allowing it to go partially down my throat. Once I learned to control my gag reflex it was easy from there. Guys love it when I deep throat them and I love sucking cock almost as much as being fucked!

At this point I had Brenda licking my pussy and David fucking my mouth while I was playing with Brenda's pussy using my fingers. David was so hard now and I could still feel him getting bigger with every stroke. I let him slide from my mouth and looked up at him.

"Fuck her now David, fuck your little sister, fuck her good like her brother should!"

I grabbed David's cock and positioned him at the entrance to Brenda's wet pussy that I'd been playing with until then. I watched intently as he pushed forward, seeing his big cock disappearing inside of her swollen pussy. It was such a turn-on for me to watch him fucking her, to see a brother's cock in his sister's pussy.

I just wished his bitchy wife was here to witness it, to see her loving husband screwing his own sister, ramming his cock in and out of her, fucking her harder than he ever did his own wife, enjoying it more than he had ever enjoyed fucking his wife.

Brenda was still eating my pussy although I noticed it was becoming less intense as David fucked her harder.

"That's it David, fuck her. Tell me how it feels to be in your sister's hot little pussy."

"Oh Kelly, it feels great. She has such a tight pussy! I want to fuck her every time I see her. Ohhhhhhhhh it feels so damn good!"

I toyed with Brenda's clit while her brother fucked her faster and harder. She was moaning loudly now. I knew the signs - Brenda was about to cum and I knew when she did it was impossible to miss. She was no longer eating my pussy but was gasping as she thrust her hips towards him when he pushed into her. I felt like I was on a bucking bronco as she came. She started calling out to her brother, begging him to fuck her more.

"Damn David, I'm cumming! Fuck me, fuck your little sister. Fuck me like a whore you bastard!"

"That's right girl, You're nothing but a little slut and I'm fucking you like you deserve. Now cum you little bitch!"

I watched as Brenda came and saw her pussy gushing. Brenda was the type that just poured when she came, she had wet many a sheet when we were roomies! Finally she gave one more lunge and just laid there. David stopped and the two of them were still, both enjoying the feeling of his pulsing cock inside of her. David pulled out of Brenda and I knew it was finally my turn so I reversed myself such that I was standing at the foot of the bed. I leaned over to lick Brenda's pussy which also gave David full access to my pussy and he quickly took advantage of the opportunity. I felt his hand spreading my pussy lips apart as his cock pressed up against me.

"OK Kelly, now it's your turn. You love to tease, don't you? Well now I'm going to fuck you like you need to be fucked - hard and fast."

Enough of the talk... God I wanted him inside me so bad! I pushed back against him and felt his cock penetrate me as he shoved his cock into me. I could feel his cock sliding inside of me, filling my pussy with his hot dick. He felt so warm and big in me, I just loved being fucked by him!

I sucked Brenda's pussy as David fucked me. He was ramming himself into me so hard that all I really had to do was stick out my tongue and let his pounding move me up and down her pussy crack. I put two fingers inside of her pussy. Damn, she was still so hot and swollen from the fucking she had gotten from David!

Meanwhile I could feel David slamming into me, pounding against my ass as he tried to get farther inside of me. I could feel his balls slapping me as he fucked me like I hadn't been fucked in a long time - hard and fast. I rocked back and forth in time with him, pushing myself against him as he entered me and leaning forward as he left. It had been several weeks since I'd been fucked by my dad and I was so hot and horny; it felt so wonderful to have a man in me again. He kept fucking me for what seemed to be ages but finally he wanted to move on.

"Sorry Kelly, I need to fuck that little sister of mine again."

I hated feeling him slip out of me but I moved out of his way, allowing him to move forward. He grabbed Brenda's hips and pulled her towards him. As she slid forward on the bed his cock easily slid into her wide open and soaking wet pussy. David grabbed her ass to pull her tightly to him, driving himself as deeply into her as he could.

"Damn sis, I love fucking you so much. To think that my best fuck has been down the hall all these years!"

"Oh fuck me David! Fuck your little sister hard. Fuck me you bastard, harder, fuck me!"

I sat back on the bed, playing with myself as I enjoyed watching the brother and sister as they fucked each other like she was nothing but a whore. David was clearly loving it all but Brenda was really getting into it. Her hips gyrated underneath him and through it all she never stopped telling him to fuck her. I loved listening to her as she told her brother what to do, telling him how to fuck his sister better.

I stood up and announced that it was my turn to be fucked again. They both laughed and I told David to sit back on the bed. He did and his cock was standing straight up, waiting for me. I straddled him and lowered myself down to his cock. I reach between my legs and rubbed his head against my clit. Mmmmmmm it felt good to have his smooth head pressing against me!

Finally I put him in me and lowered myself all the way down until I was sitting in his lap. I ground my hips into him as I tried to get every last piece of him in me. I moved my hips around in circles and I could feel his cock rubbing against me inside. Brenda kneeled to the side and kissed David while she fondled my boobs. I started to bounce on his cock, letting myself rise up until he was just barely in me and then just dropping down hard onto him, feeling my ass bounce off his thighs as I drove him inside of me as far as he could reach. I had one arm around Brenda as she kissed David and the other was playing with either my boob or rubbing my clit.

When I finally came it was like an explosion and a flood of pussy cum drained from me and down around his cock. Brenda was just playing with me now as David was getting ready to cum. His hips were thrusting upwards to match me as he fucked me with everything he had. Faster and faster he went until he started to grunt.

"Damn, I'm cumming Kelly! I'm going to fill your pussy with me."

David was indeed cumming and best of all he was cumming inside of me. I could feel the heat from his bursts in me as one load after another of his hot cum exploded from him deep inside of me. Finally he gave one last thrust and he held himself in me. I could feel it throbbing in me and looked down to see his cum draining from my pussy. I reached down to gather some with my finger and tasted it. The mixture of my pussy and his cum tasted soooooo good!

"Oh god Kelly, that was incredible! You're an incredible fuck!"

I was too exhausted to speak but Brenda piped in with a big grin on her face. "Well David, what do you think? Are we just a couple of little college sluts or what? Don't you wish your wife would be a whore to you like we were?"

"Oh god yes Brenda. You two REALLY are something else. I never knew what a slut my own sister could be and Kelly, well you're just a little teenage whore the way you fuck a married man like me! I've never even fucked my own wife this way!"

I knew what he meant and was thrilled to think we could turn him on that much. As he was answering I laid back and spread my legs. Brenda moved in and licked his cum from my pussy and then kissed me. The mixture of his cum, my pussy and her mouth was intoxicating. I wanted all she could give me it tasted so wonderful. David was just watching, admiring his sister as she kissed me and licked me. As we laid in each other's arms David got dressed and left the room quietly.

Brenda looked at me. "We need to go out and socialize with my parents for a while. But remember, you still owe me from this morning and I intend to collect!"

We visited with his parents for a while, talking about school and things that happened around town. In the meantime David's wife came back with the kids and I smiled as I watched him kiss her hello. Even though I was pretty sure he'd washed up, I wondered if she couldn't get at little taste of pussy in his kiss. If so, she never let on, maybe having his sister's pussy in his mouth was more than she could even imagine. In any case, it was so wild to watch them, remembering how his mouth was on our pussy's just a few minutes earlier and here he was kissing his wife!

Finally David and his family left and it was late enough for us to go to bed, or at least go to the bedroom. We said goodnight to her parents and shut the door behind us.

Turning to Brenda I told her not to get undressed yet - I wanted to do it. Looking at her I wanted nothing more than to have sex with her for the rest of the night! I held her in my arms and kissed her again. I don't think I could ever get tired of kissing a girl. There were many night in our dorm room the previous year that we would just cuddle up in bed. We would just kiss and play with each other's hair, running our fingers along the other's nude body, feeling her warm and smooth skin against mine.

If I wasn't still so horny I could have just done that this night but I knew we both had other plans so I reached down and undressed her. I liked to do this instead of her doing it herself. I loved to unbutton her blouse and slip it off of her shoulders. Unsnapping her shorts and unzipping them seemed so intimate. I would grab them on each side and slowing drop them to her ankles, feeling her legs against my hands as I did. As they came off her sweet red-haired pussy became visible and I knew in a few moments it would be mine to touch and lick. Finally she stood there in front of me, nude and absolutely stunningly gorgeous.

I stripped my own clothes in seconds and took her hand. I led her to the bed where we laid down next to each other. Her head was on my breast and I ran my fingers through her hair. Brenda sighed reached down to my crotch. She cupped my pussy in her hands and just held me, not playing or exploring but just feeling the warmth of me in her hands. Just knowing her hand was there was enough for me, the feeling of her holding me was so sensuous.

We spent what seemed like hours in that bed, two good friends trying their best to please the other. I knew just where to touch her, where to kiss her, where to even bite her. Each of us came several times until finally we just fell asleep in each other's arms.

I woke up in the morning to find a special treat - Brenda's mouth on my pussy. What an incredible wake-up call! I just laid there and enjoyed it, my hands on my breasts as I toyed with them and caressed them gently. Brenda's tongue circled my clit as I arched my hips involuntarily towards her mouth. She watched me as she licked my cunt and I could feel yet another orgasm rising within me. I gushed in her face as I came. God! How many times had I cum in the past 24 hours?

Brenda moved up and kissed me, her face covered with my pussy cum. She smiled at me.

"Well Kelly, I certainly miss having you as a roomie."

"Me too Brenda, Karen is a sweetie but she will never be to me what you were. I feel so alone at night without you in bed with me."

We got up, showered and got dressed. Brenda's mom had breakfast waiting and she asked how our night went. We both giggled a bit and her mother seemed to take it that we just had a "typical" girl's night together. I wondered how she would have reacted had she known the truth about her daughter and me. Even more so, I wished I could see the expression on her face if she had caught her son fucking her only daughter!

4. Back at the Dorm

Brenda and her dad took me home and when I got back to my room Karen was there.

"So did you have a good time Kelly?"

"Fantastic Karen." I told her about the boat and the things we did, naturally leaving out the sexual parts.

I wondered if she suspected anything? Somehow I thought she could feel there was more to my relationship to Brenda than just a past roomie. At the same time Karen was so straight it could be that the thought never even entered her mind!

In any case, I just dropped into my bed and laid back, thinking about the great weekend I had! Now when could I get her brother to fuck us again?

(Oct 02) Chapter 61: Parent's Weekend at College

Story codes: MF inc oral inc father daughter
Me (19)
John - my dad (39)

Parent's weekend can be a pain for some people but for me, it was a chance to be back together with my dad although I doubt it was going to be in a way my school would have approved.

1. Waiting For My Parents

It was the first weekend in October, also known as "Parent's Weekend" at my university. A lot of my friends dreaded this weekend and it was easy to understand why. Rooms had to be cleaned, you had to introduce them to your professors, boring dinners with the president where you had to listen to him drone on with yet another speech which inevitably concluded with a plea for more money, and so on.

For me it was different. In fact it was a weekend I'd been looking forward to for over a month, ever since the last time my parents were here to drop me off so I could start my sophomore year. Sheesh, how many times had I masturbated lately remembering how my dad had fucked me in the back of his SUV just before they left - right in the middle of the school parking lot at that. We were suppose to be saying goodbye but when he kissed me we both knew we needed it one more time, that we had to have one another again, even if for just a few minutes. So right smack in the middle of a school parking lot, with parents and their kids all around, my own father was having sex with me in the back seat while my mother watched and played with herself. Like, what could be more erotic? After THAT goodbye, do I need to say that I was looking forward to our next hello!

My dorm is normally closed to most visitors - and men at all times but on this night it was open to visitors. My roomie's parents were the first to arrive. Oh my god, they were the ultimate baby boomer ex-yuppies! He was some kind of financial wizard and must have been extremely successful since it appeared they had more money than they knew what to do with. They were very sweet and nice to me which I appreciated.

2. My Dad Fucks Me in My Dorm Room

My roomie Karen and her parents were about to leave for dinner in Columbus at some fancy restaurant when my parents finally showed up. I was so happy to see them! I gave my mom a big hug and then my dad got one too as he gave me a cute peck on the cheek. I introduced them to Karen's parents and we all exchanged small talk for the appropriate amount of time so as not to be rude and then they left.

My dad smiled and turned to me. "Hey Kelly, how's my little girl doing? Miss us?"

I closed the door to my room and as I turned I gave him a sexy smile and my best "I want to fuck you" look. Personally, I think I pull it off pretty good. At least I get the results I want most of the time.

"Hmmmmmm, why don't you just let me show you?"

I went up to him and he put his arms around me and we kissed. Not the little father-daughter peck on the cheek he gave me in front of Karen's family but this time a long, passionate, tongue swapping, wet messy kiss that lasted for several minutes. My arms were around his neck and soon his hands were grabbing at my ass through my thin skirt, each hand squeezing one of my firm butt cheeks. Oh yeah, I loved the way it felt to have his hands grabbing my ass again.

Our lips parted and I smiled at him as without a word my hands went straight to his belt buckle. I'm not sure my Dad really was expecting to go any further right in the middle of a girl's dorm as he looked around to mom with a questioning look. My mom just grinned and shook her head slowly as if she couldn't believe her eyes but at the same time she sat down on Karen's bed, obviously intending to watch us.

"Oh for goodness sakes Kelly, still your daddy's little slut, aren't you? I can't believe you two can't at least wait 'til we get back to the hotel. Oh well then, you better get going and for goodness sakes hurry up before someone wants to know why the door is shut!"

I grinned as I knew she was just teasing. Sometimes I think she enjoyed watching us as much as my dad enjoyed doing me. By now I had his belt undone and was working on his zipper. Reaching down into his boxers I could feel his thick pubic hair with my fingers. My fingers ran through it, twisting it and twirling it. Then I

Anyway... Here I was sucking my dad's cock right there in the middle of my dorm room while my mom watched. I really loved her to watch me suck my dad, seeing her husband fuck someone else and their only daughter at that. From the way she was licking her lips and rubbing herself under her skirt, she was obviously enjoying it as much as we were.

"Fuck her John," my mother whispered huskily, "Fuck our little girl. Show me how much you missed her. Fuck our Kelly, fuck her... for me."

I wanted her to see better so I moved over to Karen's bed next to where my mom was sitting. As I leaned forward and rested my hands on the bed, my ass stuck up in the air and I wiggled it as an invitation to my dad - like he really needed one. My dad came up behind me and pulled up my skirt. Karen would have died had she known I wasn't wearing any panties but she wasn't here and I knew it turned my dad on. My pussy was already soaking wet from the anticipation of having his cock in it.

"Damn Kelly, your pussy's incredible! Now spread those perfect tan legs so your daddy can fuck you right."

My bare ass was only inches from my mother's face now. She was evidently anxious as well and I wanted her to have a close-up view when my dad entered me. The temptation was too great for her and so she grabbed my dad's cock and guided it to her daughter's waiting pussy, looking up at my dad as she did.

"There you go John. Now stop fooling around and do her you horny bastard!"

"Well, if you insist dear," my dad replied with a laugh, as if the only reason he was doing it was to please her.

With that my dad pressed himself forward and I could feel his cock splitting my pussy apart, violating me as he entered me. I moaned softly as I felt his incestuous cock head inside of me.

"Oh daddy, deeper! Fuck me deeper... Fuck me daddy... Make me yours."

I kept begging him to fuck me over and over again as my dad pushed himself farther and farther into me. His cock was rubbing against the walls of my pussy as inch by inch he disappeared inside of me. Just like every time he had fucked me before, I was hit with a feeling of amazement and disbelief that my very own father's cock was actually filling my pussy. Only a father as loving and wonderful as mine could do this to his only daughter with such passion, pure lust and desire.

"That's it John," my mother said in a rasping whisper, "I love seeing your cock as it moves into her. God it makes me so hot seeing you do her like this!"

Finally he stopped banging me and as a loud gasp escaped he let his cock slip out of me. Even though I hated the sense of loss when he was out of me, I fell to the bed exhausted but feeling wonderful. As I laid there in total bliss, I felt a hand between my legs and looked back to see my mom as she scooped up some of his cum that was draining from me and then tasted it.

"Mmmmmmm, I love the taste of your cum mixed with Kelly's pussy juices. She has such a sweet tasting pussy!"

She reached down several times more, touching me just enough to make me tingle with the anticipation of what I knew was to come later. Nobody knew how to touch me and lick me the way my mother could! Although few and far between, the times that I am alone with her are some of the most erotic and intimate sexual encounters I think I will ever have in my life.

As much as I loved fucking my dad, in my heart I will always be closest to my mom, close in a way that only a mother and her only daughter can be, close in way I can't even really describe properly because nothing I can put into words can come close to expressing how I feel when we are alone together in that way. Again, It's why I don't write about those times because there is no way I could ever express my feelings and desires properly. Anything I wrote would just be an empty shell of the actual experience.

Unfortunately we WERE in my dorm room and we couldn't keep the door closed for too long before someone started wondering what was going on. We all straightened ourselves up and I opened the door a crack to keep the RA happy. We hung around a little while to let the flushness drain from our faces a bit. It would've been hard to explain to my RA why we all looked like we'd just had sex - especially since we just did! I was also concerned that our room now smelled strongly of my pussy and I hoped that it cleared up before Karen and her parents returned. I sprayed some air freshener and just hoped for the best.

We left to get some dinner and then off to their hotel where I knew an evening of more fun awaited. We could take our time more and be more creative in the hotel room but I didn't regret for a moment what happened in my dorm room. I was so happy that all my planning and hopes had come true - my dad actually fucked me right in the middle of the girl's dorm! I also knew that every time I saw Karen go to bed I would think of my dad fucking me on her bed while my mom sat next to me and watched. Not a bad image to have in your mind, especially since Karen was incredibly hot! I saw the look my dad gave her and even though I know he would never do anything with her, he must've been thinking about me and her, especially given the relationship I had with my roomie Brenda the previous year! Too bad she was a virgin and a conservative one at that.

Note: I decided just to write about the first events of parent's weekend. Just to let you know, we did spend the next two nights in their hotel room. My mom joined in the first night and the second night dad actually fucked her more than me. Even though I would have loved to have his attention, it was good to watch them and see my two loving parents showing me just how much they loved each other.

Saturday we went to a few of the events at the campus but that afternoon my dad dropped my mom and I off while he went back to watch a football game. My mom and I had the next four hours to ourselves and all I will say it was the best four hours of the entire weekend for me in terms of getting myself on track again emotionally and spiritually. My mother is an incredible woman and somehow seems to know exactly what I need, not just sexually but personally and emotionally.

By the time the weekend as over though my dad had fucked me enough times to tide me over for a while. We didn't do it in the dorm room again or even on campus although when we were saying goodbye it was really tempting to jump him in the back seat again! There were simply too many people around this time and we knew that no matter how much fun it would be that it was not worth being caught. I think we got a few odd looks when I kissed each of them on the mouth, not to mention quite a bit longer than most daughters kiss their parents but I can live with that.

FYI...I noticed on Saturday that Karen had more air freshener out and she gave me a really funny look as she was spraying it! I think she really wanted to ask me something but either she was afraid to ask or perhaps more afraid of what my answer would be!

(Nov 12) Chapter 62: My First Frat Party

Story codes: MF FF group exhib oral
Me (19)
Karen - sophomore roomie (19)
Tammy - girlfriend (19)
Mary Beth - girlfriend (20)

My university doesn't support fraternities or sororities. After I accepted an invitation to a frat party at another school, it's not hard to understand why!

1. The Debate

When you attend college at a private Christian college in a small town in the middle of rural Ohio, wild parties are not exactly a part of the social life. That's not to say all the girls are nuns! In fact, I've several friends that are quite conservative on campus but once away from school they can get pretty freaky. Sometimes when we're out for pizza or just hanging around together they like to talk about their little adventures. I've never told any of them about my experiences so they like to think they're exposing me to the "real world". Truth be known, I think that I could've taught most of them quite a bit!

One thing they discussed that caught my interest were the frat parties at the OSU campus in Columbus. I'd been to a few sexually-oriented parties during the past summer but those were actually quite disciplined and managed. Nobody got drunk or overly obnoxious and the since the only intent in going was to have sex, the entire atmosphere was different.

From what my friends described, the frat parties were as different as night and day from my own experiences. Just as my best friend Beth nagged me back home about going to parties with her, my friends at school had been asking me to go with them almost since school started. Two of the most insistent were Mary Beth and Tammy. They were always together and not a week went by it seemed that they weren't off partying somewhere. Actually, in watching them closely, I couldn't help but wonder just how close they really were. Although such "deviant lifestyles" were strictly against the "rules" at my school, I had a sneaky suspicion that they were a little more than just friends.

As I debated whether or not to accept their invitation, I asked several people whether they thought I should go, including a couple of guys I chatted on-line with. Without exception, all of them warned me NOT to go, saying they were just drunkfests and that all the guys wanted was to molest the girls - and not always nicely at that.

Based on their advice I found excuses not to go to the parties although it seemed when my friend's came back they always claimed to have had a great time. They never said exactly WHAT happened though and I found my curiosity level raising, especially when one time I saw Tammy's hand planted firmly on Mary Beth's cute ass when they thought nobody was watching!

Finally I decided the heck with it, why not go? So the next time they invited me I surprised them and accepted. It was still a couple of weeks away from Thanksgiving and almost six weeks since Parent's Weekend when I last had sex with my dad so you can imagine how horny I was!

2. My Roomie Karen

The evening of the party I showered and stood stark naked in the middle of my dorm room trying to decide what to wear. It was an important decision because whatever I wore would tell a lot about me - not to mention my expectations and intentions.

The more I thought about the party the more I could feel the itch in my pussy getting started. Closing my eyes, my hands seemed to have a mind of their own as they started to wander over my boobs and then down to my crotch. God I wanted to be fucked! No... it was more like I NEEDED to be fucked. Since I'd lost my virginity when I was fourteen, I'd never gone more than a week or two without sex so going six weeks was becoming unbearable.

Just then Karen, my straight-laced virgin roomie, came in the room unexpectedly and saw what I was doing. Her mouth dropped open as she stood there staring at me like I was some sort of alien.

"Kelly!" she exclaimed, "What in the world are you doing?"

Unlike my roomie from last year who I slept with and even had sex (with her AND her married brother), Karen was a total prude. She was always going on about "saving herself for marriage" and was the first girl I'd ever met who said she didn't masturbate - and actually didn't. (I know, lots of girls say they don't but we know they really do.) Karen was a gorgeous blonde - homecoming queen, head cheerleader, blah blah blah so it seemed a shame to waste all that beautiful youth but it was her choice and I respected her for it, even if I didn't understand her.

The only real problem I had with Karen was that she was totally up-tight over nudity and just about anything sexual in nature. For instance, I'd been sleeping nude since I was twelve. It had nothing to do with sex, I simply enjoyed sleeping that way. Our first night together I didn't even think about it as I stripped down and started to get into bed. Well, I thought Karen was going to have a stroke! She didn't say anything but I could tell she was really upset and at first I didn't even realize why. Seeing her staring at me I soon figured it out. We had to live together for the school year so I didn't want to get off on the wrong foot with her. As a result, I've been wearing shorts and a t-shirt to bed. It seems a bit strange to go to college and have to be more conservative than you are at home!

So anyway, seeing Karen's shock at what must have looked like her roomie was masturbating in the middle of the room (which WAS what was happening), I pretended I'd just undressed and was scratching an itch (which I guess you could say was true!) and quickly reached in my dresser drawer to get some clothes.

Rummaged through my things I found a pair of white cotton panties and a bra which I thought looked so schoolgirlish. Then I picked out some really tight jeans - the ones I call my "weight check jeans" because if I gain so much as a pound I can't get them on. To finish it off I pulled out a tight belly tank top with spaghetti straps that didn't cover my bra straps and exposed about three inches of my tummy. All in all I thought it was a great outfit to go tease a few college boys!

Karen was keeping a close eye on me the whole time. So far in school I'd always dressed fairly conservatively - it was the dress code so I didn't have much of a choice, so putting on a semi-slutty outfit like this one was something new to her.

"Oh my goodness Kelly," she said with her hand to her face, "Are you really going to go out in public wearing THAT?"

As much as I tried not to, I couldn't help but giggle just a bit. I really didn't want to annoy her but she sounded so incredibly innocent and naive at that moment.

"Don't worry Karen, I'm a big girl and I can take care of myself."

Karen didn't seem to know what to say so she just gathered up her stuff and headed out to the lounge in a huff. When I'd finished dressing I headed out to meet with the girls, wearing a coat that hid my top so none of the RA's would see what I was wearing. Tammy and Mary Beth were waiting impatiently for me in the lobby and we were off!

3. The Party Gets Started

Tammy drove and Mary Beth was in the front seat so I jumped in back. During the hour or so it took to get to the frat house we chatted about school and traded gossip. It was fun to talk to some girls away from campus that weren't all stressed out over trying to appear so prim and proper. Now I love my school and most of the people there, but so many girls were putting on such acts that it just gets tiresome at times. If there was one thing that I took notice of, it was that Mary Beth and Tammy didn't talk about any of the guys - just the girls. Hmmmmmm!

When we arrived it was already after 10:00 PM. The first thing I noticed was this was unlike any party I'd ever been! Oh sure, I'd been to plenty with alcohol and music but this was up another notch for sure. It seemed like EVERYONE was drunk or at least working on it. The music was blaring so loud I was surprised the cops weren't already there.

Most of the people there were guys and most of them looked like typical college dorks. Obviously the majority were there with fantasies of finding a drunk girl who would make their every masturbation dream come true. It was just as obvious that they'd be going home alone as usual with a hangover. I mean really, what girl wouldn't be turned-on by a drunk idiot with acne slobbering over her with beer breath while they try to grope her? Yeah right.

There was probably a dozen or so girls hanging around. A few looked like little prudes trying to prove to their friends that they were partiers but it was clear they were in way over their heads. At the other end of the spectrum were the standard college whores. They were practically throwing themselves at the guys, boobs popping out and hands all over them. Compared to them, I was dressed downright conservative! It seemed sort of ridiculous actually. Some of them were already topless and a few were flashing their asses and pussies to the delight of the dorks.

The rest of the girls were like the three of us - decent to good looking, dressed a bit provocative, willing to keep an open mind should something positive come up (pun intended!) but there primarily to have fun teasing the guys. At least that was my intention at the moment.

From the moment we arrived the guys kept trying to give us drinks in obvious hopes to get us drunk so we would do god only knows what for them. Tammy and Mary Beth evidently liked beer so they took a cup each. Personally I hate beer and never have been a big drinker period so I scrounged around and found some cans of Diet Coke in the kitchen. I'd heard enough horror stories about girls being drugged at these parties from spiked drinks so I felt more secure drinking from something that was sealed when I got it.

For the first hour or so we just hung around and watched the "activities". Guys were chugging beers and having them poured into their mouths with funnels. Some of the girls were dancing and guys were trying to hit on them constantly. Needless to say we weren't immune to such attacks ourselves. Like, I've never had many guys grabbing my ass before - they were positively shameless! I really didn't mind it all that much so I just smiled at them and moved on. Eventually I had to use the restroom so I told Tammy I'd be right back.

When I finally found it the bathroom was a disaster! Fortunately I was pleasantly surprised to find that it had a working lock which I double-checked it to make sure nobody could come in while I was in there. The place was disgusting with used condoms on the floor and, well, I didn't want to even think about what was all over the sink. Thank goodness the toilet still flushed and I did the best I could not to touch anything.

When I left the bathroom I evidently made a wrong turn and ended up where the bedrooms were. I heard some sounds coming from one of them and I peeked in one to see what was happening. It was crazy! There was a guy and a girl both naked in bed who were fucking each other while a crowd of people stood around watching. Several people were taking pictures and one guy even had a video camera! The two of them were going at it like they were really enjoying it - as they probably were. Now I love an audience when I have sex as much as anyone but the cameras and video recorder were not something I would've wanted if I were in her shoes, especially with the way this stuff tends to get on the Internet these days.

4. Tammy & Mary Beth Put On a Show

Eventually I found my way back to the living room where I saw Tammy and Mary Beth on the couch sitting next to each other. They had their arms around each other and were kissing! I wasn't really surprised as I suspected they were a couple, nonetheless it was still hot to see two of my classmates going at it.

I mingled with the gathering crowd and watched along with everyone else as they began started to put on a bit of a show. The drunk guys in the crowd – which meant almost all of them, kept yelling for them to strip and do nasty things to each other but they just ignored them and went along at their own pace. They controlled the show and from the smiles they flashed to the people in the audience now and then they knew exactly what they were doing. I was curious as to how far they would go and it didn't take long to find out...

First let me say that both girls had fantastic figures with Tammy having the larger breasts but both of them were very well endowed. They each had long brown hair which they wore straight down to the middle of their backs. Mary Beth had a darker complexion, almost olive compared to Tammy's lighter skin tone such that the two of them looked hot together. They were both taller than me by a couple of inches with most of the extra height apparently in their incredibly long legs. Each had tight low cut jeans on with Mary Beth wearing a tight strapless tube top and Tammy in a thin cotton tank top. Not exactly 'regulation" back at school, that was for sure.

Mary Beth seemed to be taking the lead. She and Tammy were kissing each other like two lovers, licking and tonguing erotically. They were obviously more than just two girls kissing, for fun; there had to be something between them that went beyond a typical friendship. Mary Beth began to run her hands over Tammy's tank top, circling her fingers around her nipples which were poking through the thin material and then cupping them in her hands. Tammy responded by running hands over Mary Beth's bare shoulders and then around her face and through her hair. Eventually her hands moved down to Mary Beth's breasts and both girls were fondling each other through their clothes.

Mary Beth then moved her hands down along Tammy's torso, teasing her and tickling her until finally she reached her jeans and then her crotch. She took her finger and pressed in against where Tammy's pussy was hiding and began to rub her through her jeans. Tammy stayed on Mary Beth's boobs, massaging them and playing with her nipples. Tammy pushed down the material until Mary Beth's beautiful breasts were exposed. A few whistles came from the crowd as everyone appreciated how full and firm they were – without any silicone I might add! Her dark and large nipples were very hard at the moment thanks to Tammy's attention. Tammy's small hand could barely hold one as she cupped them and toyed with them.

Mary Beth was still working on Tammy's pussy but evidently decided what was good for her was also good for Tammy and she reached up to pull Tammy's tank top upward to show off her breasts. The whistle and shouts came again as Tammy's boobs popped out, even bigger than Mary Beth's had been. Tammy laid back in the couch then as Mary Beth started to kiss her neck and then moved down to her nipples, sucking them like a baby on a bottle. Tammy moaned and arched her back upward as Mary Beth kissed and sucked on her sensitive boobs.

Mary Beth's hand moved back down and this time stopped at Tammy's jeans where she unsnapped and then unzipped them while she kept sucking Tammy's boob. Tammy reached down and helped pull off her pants, revealing a sexy red thong which barely covered anything. Mary Beth rubbed her through the thong as she alternated her mouth between Tammy's breasts. Finally she slipped the front of the thong over to reveal Tammy's pussy. Tammy was shaved for the most part with just an inch-wide stripe of trimmed pubic hair running up the center of her crotch for about two to three inches.

Mary Beth cupped her crotch in the palm of her hand and rubbed her with her entire hand. Tammy moved one of her hands to her own breasts and started to play with it as Mary Beth licked the other. As Mary Beth rubbed Tammy her middle finger began to press down more and work its way between her pussy lips until her clit was exposed and she began to run her finger around it. Tammy moaned again and began to move her hips upward against Mary Beth's hand. Mary Beth's fingers moved around her pussy, spreading her pussy lips apart as she pushed one finger inside of Tammy. She pushed it all the way in and then began to stroke in and out of her like she was fucking her with her finger. Tammy was obviously liking it as she began to buck her hips up and down in time with Mary Beth's finger motion.

Mary Beth moved her mouth slowly from Tammy's boobs down to her stomach where she licked and kissed her belly button briefly before continuing down to between her legs. She went past Tammy's pussy and kissed and licked the inside of Tammy's upper thighs, working her way ever slow back to her pussy where her finger was still fucking Tammy. Finally her tongue met Tammy's clit and Tammy let out a load groan as Mary Beth's tongue flickered over it. Then Mary Beth licked her whole pussy crack, lapping it like a dog, running her mouth up and down Tammy's wet pussy.

Tammy was holding both of her breast now with her hands and moaning more and more as Mary Beth attacked her smoldering pussy. If I was any judge I would've said Tammy was about to have an orgasm and sure enough, in a few more minutes it looked like that was the case. Tammy grabbed Mary Beth's head with her hands and held her head tightly to her pussy. He eyes were closed and she kept moaning continuously. Suddenly her back arched up higher than ever before.

"Oh god I'm cumming... Don't stop!!!!" she cried. Her hips started to buck into Mary Beth's mouth and she kept moaning over and over. "Fuck me Mary Beth, oh yeah fuck the shit out me!"

Tammy's orgasm lasted for several minutes as Mary Beth kept her right on the edge. Finally Tammy collapsed back in other couch, breathing heavily from the exertion. The room was eerily quiet as everyone was mesmerized by Tammy's performance. It didn't take long though for the buzz to start anew though. Mary Beth got up from and took off her clothes. Her face was still wet from Tammy's pussy but she made no effort to wipe any of it off. When she was naked she straddled Tammy who was still laying back on the couch, feeling the aftershocks of her orgasm. Tammy moved up until her pussy was in Tammy's face. Tammy smiled and started to lick Mary Beth as Mary Beth moved her hips around Tammy's face. Mary Beth rubbed her breast as she rode Tammy's face. Tammy's legs were still spread open and you could see her open pussy which was still wet from her orgasm.

After a while Mary Beth turned around and leaned over as the two of them assumed a hot 69 position. Mary Beth's ass was poking upward and I thought what a shame it wasn't getting more attention!

5. I Join In With Tammy & Mary Beth

As I stood there watching them I could feel myself getting warmer and it wasn't the room temperature that was doing it. As I watched I cupped one of my boobs in my hand and started to rub it without even thinking about it. The two of the looked so hot and I was reminded of all the times I watched my mom and aunt in this position - only these girls were twenty years younger!

As always it felt good to rub myself and my nipples were getting harder. I was lost in a big crowd so I reached down and undid my jeans, lowering the zipper an inch or so to loosen them up. The jeans were so tight that there was no chance of them falling down. With so many people pushed up tight against me, nobody could see me very easily so I let the spaghetti strap on my right shoulder fall to my arm so just my bra strap was showing. The tank top was so tight it didn't really need the strap anyway. I let the bottom ride up to expose more of my flat belly. It felt really hot to be in the middle of a crowd and half-undress myself! Everyone's eyes were stilled riveted on my friends as they stayed in their 69 position on the couch.

I was getting more turned on by the minute and finally couldn't take it anymore. I've always loved be watched so I figured what better opportunity! I moved out from the crowd up to the girls. Mary Beth looked up at me and smiled.

"Mind if I join in?" I asked with a seductive smile.

Mary Beth stopped licking Tammy long enough to say, "Oh my god Kelly, we thought you would never ask! Come on girl, take it off!"

Smiling seductively, I slipped off my tank top but left on my bra. I started to run my hands over Tammy, caressing her and fondling her ass. She was so smooth and warm! Tammy was looking up at me and smiled when she saw me playing with Mary Beth's ass. I started to lick her smooth butt and moved onto the couch to face her ass. I bent over more and started to lick her pussy along with Tammy, feeling my tongue alongside hers as we played with Mary Beth's wet pussy. I had one hand one each of her buttocks and was squeezing and toying with them. God she had an incredible ass!

As I was working on Mary Beth, I felt someone behind me undoing my bra and someone else pulling my panties and pants off. I glanced around and there were several guys with huge smiles on their face. They all laughed and said they were just trying to help! Oh well, I didn't really mind since I knew I was going to be naked sooner or later. The end result was that I was now nude along with my friends in front of twenty or more people. The three of us got down on the floor and went into a triangle with each of us licking a pussy. I could almost feel the stares of the crowd as they watched us licking each other.

6. Choosing a Dick

Someone yelled out, asking who wanted to be fucked first. Mary Beth just laughed and answered for us. "Sorry guys, just girls for the two of us." Then she pointed at me, "Now Kelly is a different story but you'll have to convince her you're sponge-worthy!"

I couldn't believe she said that! Basically she just invited them to fuck me! It really wasn't a problem as I was so horny by then I wanted it anyway but still, it felt strange being volunteered like that. Oh well, a hard cock was just the thing I really needed about then so I wasn't going to complain if one appeared. Everyone started to cheer and yell, urging me to fuck someone. I stood up in front of them, naked and my face covered with pussy juice. It felt so wild to stand there like that, totally nude and having all those guys looking at me, each of them dying to fuck me.

"Well, who wants to fuck me?" I called out. Naturally everyone raised their hands so I just laughed. "If you really do then show me your cock so I can pick out the best one."

Normally cock size and look wasn't a big thing for me but tonight was different. If I was going to be fucked in front of all these people then at least I was going to have a big cock for my trouble. Six guys came forward and started to unzip their pants. Well, they weren't going to get off that easy!

"Not so fast!" I scolded them, "I want nudity, total depravity. Strip it all off if you want to be in the running."

A couple of guys weren't too sure about it and moved back leaving four guys. Sure enough, they stripped and in just seconds I had four naked guys standing in front of me, their limp cocks hanging down waiting for me. I'd figured that anyone willing to strip in front of everyone would be built pretty well and they didn't disappoint me. All four were hunks - athletic looking and all had nice looking cocks. I paced back and forth in front of them.

"Wow, this is a tough decision. I guess I'll just have to sample the selection in order to make a choice!"

I knelt in front of the first guy and took his cock in my mouth. Now I hadn't had a cock in my mouth for almost two months and damn, it tasted so good! I sucked on it for a few minutes and it quickly hardened. I could've sucked it a lot longer but there were more to try. Moving to the next two, each of them also had great tasting cocks and I was loving the taste of them. So far I would have said the first three were better than average in terms of size and taste and any one of them would have been OK with me so I was wondering how I was going to choose just one.

When I got to Number Four, he was still soft and so I easily took him all in my mouth. I love the feel of a soft cock when I start sucking a guy, then have it harden in my mouth as I get him off. There is just something about knowing that I can have that kind of effect on a guy that makes me feel so hot and sexy inside. Well, he started to harden quickly and I was amazed and thrilled - my God he was getting huge! I'd never seen a cock grow that much before! I looked up and he was smiling, obviously he knew what he was packing and he realized I was loving it.

7. Fucked By a HUGE Dick In Front of Everyone

I stood up and grabbed his still growing cock with my hand. I told the others I was sorry but this guy was the one for me and I led him over to the couch using his cock like a leash. He started to tell me his name and such but I just put my finger to his mouth and told him to be quiet. Honestly I did not want to know his name. I had no intention of ever seeing him again and the less I knew about him personally the better. Besides, being fucked by a total stranger was so erotic and when you add on top of it an audience, well I was so horny I could barely stand it!

He sat down on the couch and I laid to the side of him facing outward to the group that was watching. I positioned myself over his crotch and went back to work on what was now the biggest cock I'd ever sucked. It was maybe twice as thick as any cock I'd ever had but it was the overall length that was incredible. To think that I thought one guys was big once when I used two hands on him but this guy needed a third!

I went down on him and with each stroke into my mouth I tried to take more of him in me. Just getting him into my mouth was a feat as I had to open so wide to allow him in. By the time I felt the big head tickle the back of my throat I still had several inches to go! There was no stopping now so I decided to go for it and pushed my head down farther onto him. For a moment I thought I would gag but then as his cock went down my throat the reaction went away and it was like I was swallowing his cock.

My face finally bottomed out against the base of his cock and his thick hair covered my face. I turned my head from side to side around his cock, twisting him in my mouth and throat. I could hear him groaning and the crowd was cheering me on. I raised my head and let him slowly come out of my mouth until my lips barely held onto the head. I licked the tip of his cock with my tongue as I help him with my lips, making his cock quiver. Then I went down on him again, once again taking all him in my mouth. I didn't feel the gagging sensation this time so I began to move up and down his cock, feeling his cock sliding up and down my throat. It must have felt like he was fucking my pussy with his cock squeezing its way into my throat!

As I deep-throated his cock I used my free hand to play with his balls, gently fondling them and running my fingers through the thick hair the surrounded them. He had a thick bush of pubic hair which was not trimmed in the least. His whole crotch had a deep and strong odor to it, the odor of a man, an odor I loved to smell later on my hands after I'd touched a man. I loved smelling it on another woman, knowing it meant she'd recently been with a man, at least touching him and probably more. My mother could always smell it on me when I came home from a date and she would take my hands to her face and breathe in the musky odor as she imagined what I'd been doing with the boy I was dating. Of course I filled her in on all the details later.

I looked down on the floor where Mary Beth and Tammy were still having fun. They were sitting down facing each other, the legs intertwined and pussies grinding together. They were each playing with themselves and they looked so hot! Someone handed Tammy a long double dildo and told her to have a good time. Mary Beth smiled as Tammy thanked him and they went to work on it. The dildo was about eighteen inches long and somehow they had virtually all of it in between the two of them. From the looks on their faces they were enjoying it immensely!

I saw Tammy look up to me just as I had this huge cock down my throat as far as it would go. She pointed to me and Mary Beth turned to watch. He mouth dropped open as she watched me slowly let his cock out of my mouth, letting her see his huge cock appear inch by inch and realize that I had managed to take him all in my mouth.

In the meantime my guy was getting off from the blowjob I was giving him but I wanted to make sure he fucked me before he came. I've been fucked by a lot of cocks and I've always said that size doesn't matter BUT in this case the size of his cock was all I could think about! There was no way I was going to miss finding out how it felt to have such a huge cock inside of me so I stopped sucking him and got up off the couch.

Straddling him on my knees, I squatted down to meet up with his waiting cock. My pussy was soaking wet from playing with myself before so I assumed there would be no problem with him getting in me but when his massive hard head first began to force its way into me I almost screamed. It felt like I was being split apart! I held myself there for a while, letting the initial pain turn to pleasure as my pussy responded to the touch of his cock.

With my pussy tingling I once again started to lower myself down onto him and inch by incredible inch his big cock slowly disappeared inside of me. As he entered me I leaned forward towards him to be sure everyone was getting a good view of his cock as it violated my little pussy. God he was huge! I could feel him filling my pussy like no other man ever had ever even come close to doing. It seemed I would never reach the end of it as I kept going lower and lower and his cock filled me up even more.

Just as I was wondering if I could take any more I felt my bare ass hit his lap and his pubic hair tickled my butt. At first I literally sat down on his lap, letting the weight of my body push down and press him into me. Then I wiggled my hips to grind him into me even farther, trying to take every bit of him in as far as I could. I just couldn't help but continue to be amazed at how big he was! I raised myself up again and slowly allowed him to come out of me until just his head was inside. The sensations inside of me were overwhelming as his head hit all the pleasure points in that sensitive region just inside my pussy.

Then I started to rise up and down on him, letting his cock fuck me. I loved being in control like this where I could determine the speed and the depth that his cock went in and out of me. Sometimes I went slow and others it was as fast as I could go. I enjoyed slamming down on him hard, literally letting myself drop down onto his lap to drive his cock deep inside of me and feeling my ass bounce on his crotch and hips.

Finally I just rested, sitting on his cock and letting his suck my boobs. I looked down and could see the base of his cock against my pussy. I could barely see his shaft but it almost scared me to see how wide he was and how much he spread my pussy apart. It looked like I was sitting on a small tree trunk!

Eventually I got off of him and I got on my knees facing the back of the couch with my ass up and waiting for him. He spread my butt cheeks apart and fingered my wet pussy for a few minutes. The he held his cock and directed it once again into my waiting pussy, Even though my pussy was stretched out a bit from the first time he was in me, it was still a shock to feel such a monster cock entering me.

This time he as controlling things so I had to take it as he gave it to me and he wasn't nearly as patient as I'd been. As soon as his head was into me he rammed himself forward, thrusting into me as deep and as far as he could. God, I thought my eyes were going to pop out! It was like all of a sudden my pussy just swelled up and was filled with this giant hot organ that reached way up into me. I could feel his cock in my pussy touching where no other cock had gone before.

His friends were cheering him on, telling him to fuck me harder and faster. Well, he listened to them and I got the fucking of my life. He would pull out of me until he just cleared my pussy and then slam himself all the way to the hilt in one fast thrust. Over and over he fucked me like that, just beating my pussy with his massive cock. It should've hurt but instead I was getting ready for an unbelievable orgasm. He grabbed my hair and pulled it back like he was riding a horse.

I moaned from the wonderful pleasure of his cock fucking me and started to rock in time with his thrusts, meeting him as he banged into me and helping to pull away as he withdrew. It must have been during a time like this that someone coined the phrase "banging" for fucking because we would ram into each other and my body would shudder from the impact.

Then I felt it, that incredible and unbelievable sensation I feel when my body is about to reach an orgasm. My pussy may have been the focal point up until now but suddenly my entire body was awash with pleasure and lust. I gasped and groaned as wave after wave of pleasure broke over me like waves on a surfer beach. I cried out to him, not carrying what anyone saw or heard. "Oh hell yes, fuck me. God I'm cumming... Fuck me harder!"

Frankly, I don't know how anyone could fuck me harder than he was right then but he tried. I was almost knocked off my hands and knees as he rammed into me even harder than before, literally lifting my up with his cock in my pussy as he slammed into me. I could feel myself entering what I call my "pleasure zone", a state of mind I only have during sex when I reach that magical moment called an orgasm. When I am there I forget who I am and where I am. All I can think about it the feeling inside of me, bursting from me making me tingle from head to toe. My pussy gushed with cum and it washed over his massive cock and dripped to the floor.

This was what I lived for, why I loved sex so much. I could bring myself to a milder version by masturbating or being licked by someone else but the best was always when I was being fucked, when a man's cock was inside of me, when I am physically joined with another person, sharing my body with him, being one with him for that brief moment of lust and pleasure. At this moment I knew I was experiencing one of the best I'd ever felt and I moaned loudly as I floated through my very own personal sexual pleasure zone.

Unbelievable he SYILL didn't cum so when my orgasm finally died down to a manageable level he flipped me over and entered me once again. Although I love being on top and getting fucked like a dog, being on my back with him between my legs is my favorite position for watching a man fuck me. I couldn't take my eyes off my crotch as I had this incredible view of his giant cock moving in and out of my tight teenage pussy.

He was stroking as fast as he could now and I knew he was about to cum. Usually my favorite place for a man to cum was in me and with his cock so far inside already I knew it would have been a massive load that he would release deep in my pussy. Today though was different as we had an audience and I wanted to tease them and turn them on by sucking him to a climax and swallowing his cum for them all to watch.

"Cum in my mouth, let everyone see your cum," I pleaded like some college slut.

He didn't answer but apparently heard me as he pulled out of me and moved back a bit, just enough for me to slide down and kneel in front of him like I was worshiping at the altar of his dick. Without a second's hesitation I sucked that wonderful cock and I could feel it swelling just a bit more as he was about to shoot his load all over me.

I opened my mouth wide as he stroked his cock a few inches in front of my face. He leaned his head back and groaned as he finally came, shooting a huge load of cum into my mouth. He was still a ways away from my mouth so even though he hit it with the opening salvo, the next few were not as accurate and splattered all over my face. He kept cumming and cumming, shooting load after load onto either my tongue or face. I could taste his cum on my tongue and wanted all I could get. Some of it dripped down my chin and fell onto my boobs.

After he had finished I stood up with my face covered with his cum and stuck out my tongue for him to see his cum on it. Then I swallowed what cum I had in my mouth and opened my mouth again to show him that it was all gone. Then I kneeled down again and sucked his cock, drawing every drop of cum from him I could get as he slowly softened in my mouth. I used his cock to wipe the cum on my face into my mouth and swallowed every bit I could get.

As I finished him off I noticed everyone was cheering. Mary Beth and Tammy were on the floor clapping along with them. I laid back on the couch as the guy got himself dressed. All his friends were patting him on the back and congratulating him on how he had fucked me. I can't say he didn't deserve the accolades as he had indeed fucked me better than ninety percent of the men who'd ever fucked me.

8. The End of the Party

Tammy came over to me and kissed me. Then she licked the remaining cum from my face.

"Hey, I thought you didn't like men?" I asked with a grin.

Tammy laughed saying, "That's right, I DON'T like guys but I never said I didn't like their cum!"

Mary Beth was licking my pussy now. I could just imagine how I must taste now after cumming so hard with his cock in me. After getting a good sample she also sat next to me and the three of us just laid back in each other's arms, forgetting about the crowd and just thinking about each other. A few guys and even a couple of girls tried to get something going but we just shook our heads and said we had enough for the time being.

After a while I picked my tank top off the floor and put it back on. My jeans and underwear were on a chair so I just left them there for the moment. I walked into the kitchen to get another can of Diet Coke. The guys in there just stared at me as I went around them completely bare-assed and with nipples as hard as rock poking through my thin tank top. I just smiled at them, knowing that they were all dreaming of fucking me like that guy had just done.

It made me feel horny to imagine them all in a few hours back in their rooms, masturbating as they remembered how they had watched me being fucked so good in front of them. I was sure when they came in their hands that they would be fantasizing that their cocks were in me instead. I felt so incredibly sexy at the thought of being the object of their desire, an unattainable object since I would never let such dorks touch me but a nice fantasy nonetheless.

As I made my way back to the living room I ran into the guy who had just fucked me. He had a huge grin and thanked me for the incredible sex. He asked if I wanted to get together again sometime and I just shook my head and gave him a kiss. His hand started to wander to my pussy so I pushed it away and told him that playtime was over. He looked disappointed but I hoped he realized that for me it was all about the sex, not him.

On the way home the three of us sat in the front seat of the car together with me in the middle - no back seat this time! Tammy was the first to speak up. "Damn Kelly, we never knew you were such a naughty little slut.! What happened to little miss innocent and conservative?"

I laughed a bit and playfully grabbed her boob. "Trust me, you have NO idea who I am away from school. "

Mary Beth's eyebrows raised a bit at that one. "Oh really Kelly," she said in a curious tone.

I think she wanted to follow up on that one, someone sensing that there was a lot more than just tales of fucking boyfriends but for now she let it go. "You've done a great job of hiding it although frankly there were a couple of times I wondered about you and Brenda. She use to look at you in a certain way that wasn't exactly platonic!"

"Well," I replied, "Hopefully we can have lots more fun like we did tonight. I just have to be sure nothing gets around school because I really do want to graduate from here!"

Tammy replied to that one. "Don't worry Kelly, I know that Mary Beth and I probably say too much at school but we'll keep quiet about you. Only one thing though - you have to join us more often - and we don't mean at parties either."

Well, this was fine with me. Unlike me, they had been able to get into one of the school apartments this year. They shared it with four other girls but it still beat the daylights out of living in the dorm.

9. The Morning After

When I got back Karen was sound asleep. I undressed and took a shower. I knew I smelled heavily of sex and I didn't want Karen to get any more ideas about me than she already had. Although it was late and I was exhausted, I couldn't get to sleep at first. As I laid in bed my pussy tingled as I recalled all that had happened in the past few hours. I finally fell asleep with my hand between my legs, dreaming of a wonderful cock and the cheers of the crowd as he fucked me with it.

The next morning I woke up and the sun was brightly shining telling me I had slept in far later than usual. It was a Saturday so I didn't care. Karen must have already gone out so I was alone in my room. I started to get out of bed but as I moved I felt this sensation between my legs and I knew I was not going to get out of bed without first taking care of the lust that had built up in me since coming to bed.

I started to masturbate and I was able to make myself cum literally in a few minutes I was so horny. It was nothing like the massive orgasm I experienced the night before but it did the trick for the moment. I'd just finished doing myself when the door opened and in walked Karen.

"Have a good time last night Kelly?" she asked, "You got in REALLY late. Ummmmm, are you OK? You look a bit flushed."

By now I knew Karen well enough to realize she was not being nosy or anything but that she was really concerned about me. All the same, I knew I could never tell her what I'd done the night before as her sensibilities would have been shaken to the core! I think in some small way she sensed we were different in our views on sex, more than even what little we'd discussed at times. She knew I wasn't a virgin like she was but I never told her about the majority of my relationships and certainly nothing about sex with my parents and girlfriends.

As for being flushed, Karen didn't masturbate and although I wondered if she had any idea what she was missing, I still didn't make a big deal about it and certainly never let her see me doing it.

"I'm fine Karen. We all sat around for a long time and forgot about the time. How was your night?"

With that we started talking about "normal" things and I was left to reminisce about that events of the last evening. I was thrilled to have two new friends that I could have "fun" with from now on. I had a feeling I would be seeing a lot more of Tammy and Mary Beth in the future!

white panties. Karen had a spectacular figure and it was hard to believe that she was still a virgin.

I smiled at the view of her panties. God, she must have had a hundred pairs of them, every one of them exactly the same. Maybe there was a sale at Sam's Club. They reminded me of the ones I use to wear when I was six years old. The only time she wasn't wearing them was when she took them off just before her shower and then they were back on as soon as she had dried herself off.

Looking at Karen, I recalled my freshman days with my previous roomie Brenda. Rather than waking up all alone as I had this morning, back then I would wake up with her warm naked body pressed tightly against mine in the tiny twin bed we shared. Brenda had been the first girl I'd had sex with so she would always have a special place in my heart. Yes, technically she wasn't my first lesbian experience but I don't count sex with your mom and aunt as my "first" time.

Sighing softly, I found myself wishing that I could do the same with Karen right now. My horny mind somehow twisted everything together until I was fantasizing about my dad fucking me in my bed as Karen slept until finally Karen woke up and watched us, getting turned on until finally her resolve broke down. In my fantasy she begged my dad to take her virginity as I kissed her breasts and fondled her, guiding my dad's erection into her virgin pussy.

As the fantasy deepened my hand slipped between my legs and I started fingering myself with two fingers while I used the palm of my hand to rub up against my clit. God I couldn't believe how I was! Image after image, each naughtier than the one before, flashed through my mind as I masturbated harder and harder.

A low moan left my lips as I vividly recalled the very first time my dad fucked me, remembering how unbelievable it felt to have my father's cock splitting my pussy apart and forcing its way inside of me. Of course he wasn't my first by any means - THAT ship had sailed years earlier, but it was SO special all the same. Then dreams of my first blow job back when I was fourteen danced through my mind; memories of me kneeling in that dark movie theater tasting a sixteen year-old boy's cock for the very first time. Mmmmmmm, it was my first mouthful of cum and I could almost taste it again and the unique feeling as it pooled on my tongue.

My slippery fingers were now deep inside of me, as far in as I could reach, rubbing against the walls of my pussy and stimulating me in such a mind-boggling way. It was all I could do not to cry out and wake Karen so I could plead with her to join me in bed and we could fuck each other. Then there were visions of watching my aunt and cousin in bed together, loving each other as only a mother and daughter can, licking each other's pussy in a 69 and then cumming together in a frenzy of lust and desire.

Oh yeah, I felt myself cumming as the room disappeared in a blur of sexual haze. My eyes lost their focus as waves of pure pleasure rolled through me like monster breakers on a surfer beach. I felt almost stunned by the first wave as my back arched while I pressed my hand tightly against my crotch and clit. God, if only my dad were here now, cumming in me as I rode this train of sexual decadence, oblivious to anything else but the indescribable feelings emanating from my pussy and spreading all over my body. Goose bumps arose all over me as my very toes tingled.

Finally after what seemed hours but what could only have been minutes, I relaxed and just laid back in my bed. Aftershocks from my orgasm periodically bubbled up and gave me yet another twinge. Taking my wet hand from my pussy, I brought it to my mouth and tasted myself by first licking my fingers and then sucking on them one by one. Damn I tasted so good, especially as I'd just cum.

As I sucked on my musky-sweet smelling fingers I saw that Karen was starting to wake up. She quickly pulled her nightshirt down and gave me a look as if to see if I'd noticed how high it had ridden up. Needless to say I pretended to be all innocent so she gathered her stuff for the bathroom and disappeared without a word. It left me alone to finally get out of bed and try to get all these sexual fantasies purged from my mind long enough to dress and get to class.

2. Starting Out on the Road

Classes never seemed to last so long as they did that day but finally I found myself waiting in the dorm lounge, watching out the windows for them to arrive. Right on time a big black Lexus SUV pulled up and I recognized my dad in the driver's seat. My heart racing, I ran out to greet them as the doors opened and my parents got out to greet me. I hugged them both and we got back in as my dad grabbed my suitcase from the lounge and put it in back.

I got in the back seat and surprise, surprise - who was there but Kristen! What a pleasant surprise is was to see my favorite cousin. Kristen was seventeen and a senior in high school. Her mom had divorced when she was young and since then the two of them spent most of their time at our house making her more of a sister to me me like a lovely princess though, and he was always a gentleman to me. After all the jerks I've known I have to admit there was something nice to say for that. What was most fascinating about him to me was that he was the first guy I'd ever dated that I did NOT have some form of sex with during the first date - let alone three weeks into the relationship. Heck, wasn't it almost obligatory these days to at least blow a guy on the first date?

3. Kristen Starts to Play

As she listened to me Kristen scooted over next to me and then reached over to put her hand on my leg. I hadn't had time to change after class so I was still wearing my school outfit meaning my skirt hung well below my knees. That didn't deter Kristen as she simply pulled it up until it was up to my waist, exposing my panties. Typically I didn't wear them but this morning I'd been so horny and wet that I figured I'd better wear some so I wouldn't leave a wet mark on my skirt while sitting in class.

I looked over at her and she smiled at me and gave me a wink. I continued on with my story as she moved her hand up along my smooth inner thigh and then finally slowly worked her way to my crotch until the side of her hand was pressing against my pussy through my thin panties. Looking down and seeing her hand between my legs made me feel even hornier than I was after describing my recent extracurricular activities at school.

"Gosh Kelly, you mean you're dating a guy without having sex with him? I hope this doesn't mean you're turning into some sort of prude now Kelly," Kristen teased, "I thought college was where people let themselves loose, not get more conservative! Do I have to make any changes in my plans for this weekend?"

I spread my legs even wider apart to give her easier access to me and reached over to kiss her. When our mouths met she immediately pressed her hand tighter against my crotch as I felt the passion in her lips. Our tongues played and she sucked on my mouth, licking and kissing me. Kissing Kristen was more like kissing a boy for me than the way I felt kissing my parents. There was more lust and desire for sex than love and passion as her warm lips met mine. That's not to say I didn't love kissing her, just that it was different for me.

"Well cuz," I asked as we parted briefly, "I hope THAT answers your question."

"Mmmmmmm," Kristen murmured, "Exactly the answer I was hoping for."

touched my bare pussy. I was already a bit wet from the excitement and her previous touches and she started to rub my clit with her index finger.

"Oh god Kristen," I moaned, "I missed you so much!! Damn I dreamed so many times of feeling you against me like this!"

I reached around her and ran my fingers down the crack of her smooth ass until I parted her damp pussy lips. She was wet with excitement and my finger easily slid into her warm hole. Her body stiffened as I pressed my middle finger deeper into her tiny wet pussy.

Evidently my mom had appointed herself as director of our little show. As she watched she started telling us what she wanted us to do. "That's it girls, you two look so beautiful together, what do you think John... have you ever seen such a gorgeous pair of sexy girls before?"

My dad stole a peek at us through the mirror. "Damn Mary, I can't wait to get home now!" he laughed.

"OK Kelly, turn around. Let's see if you two can remember how to 69," my mom instructed me.

Rather than be annoyed at her interference, I was only too happy to follow her instructions. Needless to say I didn't need any reminders on what to do as I laid on my back while Kristen turned around and positioned her pretty pussy over my face. I could smell her sexuality and couldn't wait to drink from the source of that strong odor.

Suddenly I felt her tongue on my bare pussy and I wanted to jump right off the seat. Kristen wasn't wasting any time and had immediately started to lick little circles around my clit. I reached up and took one of her buttocks in each of my hands, pulling her down to my waiting face and tongue. My tongue reached out and licked her slit as she lowered herself into position over my face. She pressed her fuzzy pussy against me, swiveling her hips to tickle my face. My tongue reached in and found her clit and I felt her jump as my tongue flickered over it. Then I took her clit between my teeth, gently pulling it and sucking it. Damn her pussy tasted so sweet, I wanted to lick her forever!

I pressed my legs together so lightly hold Kristen's head between my legs. She reached around and spread my pussy lips apart with her hands, exposing my pussy hole for her to find with her talented tongue. I ran my hands all her, touching every part of her soft body that I could reach, trying to concentrate on licking her pussy even as she was doing so well making mine sing.

I heard Kristen moaning even as she licked me as she began to push her pussy against my mouth rhythmically, as if a cock was fucking her instead of my tongue. I knew what this meant from many a past experience with her - Kristen was about to cum. The thought of that was the last thing I needed as well and I could feel my orgasm building in me and exploding just as hers did. Our bodies tensed and we buried our faces in each other's pussies, pulling each other tighter into our mouths as each of us felt an incredible rush of pleasure surge through our bodies. It wasn't often that we were able to bring ourselves to this point together and I loved sharing my orgasm with hers.

Kristen stopped licking me and then started up again in a different spot, keeping me right at the precipice, right at the very edge, for what seemed eternity. I could feel the warmth of my face, all flushed from the hot blood racing through me. I noticed that even Kristen's cute ass had goose bumps so I knew she must be feeling pretty good about now also.

Between tasting Kristen's young pussy as she came and the rush of my own orgasm as her tongue continued to play with me I'd totally lost track of my parents but they definitely hadn't lost interest in us.

Somehow I was able to hear my mom's voice encouraging us as she said, "That's it girls, don't stop. You both look so beautiful and sexy. Oh John, isn't it wonderful to see them back together again?"

Kristen let my dad's thick cock slip from her mouth and she smiled up at him as she licked her lips. My dad took his finger out of her ass and she sat back against the door, her thin legs spread wide apart obscenely and her hand tight on her pussy to keep herself on her sexual high. She stayed there as my dad got ready to fucked me, watching me as I prepared to accept my dad as she masturbated. I knew she would cum at least another couple of times based on all the times over the years I'd watched her!

I leaned back and looked into my dad's eyes. What I saw made me terribly excited. He eyes were penetrating into me, looking into me with a gaze that expressed his pure lust for me at that moment. I knew then that nothing was going to stop what was going to happen next, that nobody could say anything that would change his intentions or actions. Yes, my dad was going to fuck me and there wasn't a damn thing I could do or say about it anymore.

Of course none of that was a problem as it's not like I didn't WANT him to do me! I loved moments like this when we were just about to fuck. It was times like this that I cherished; when I knew I'd driven my dad to the edge, to the point where he no longer viewed me as his little girl or his only daughter. He looked at me now as a sexy, vivacious woman that he simply wanted so badly to have sex with that he could think of nothing else but putting his cock in my pussy.

I'd never in all the time we had been having sex tried to stop him once he reached this point. Sometimes it scared me just a little bit when I realized deep inside that even if I did ask him to stop that he wouldn't, that he couldn't stop, that he had an almost animal need inside of him to fuck me. Was this the look a woman saw in the eyes of a rapist, when she knew that nothing in the world could save her from her fate?

None of that really mattered as I wanted him to fuck me just as bad as he did. There was nobody else in my life that I loved to be fucked more by then my dad. Indeed, I loved it that he wanted me this badly, that I could please him so much by giving myself to him, by giving my body to my father to do whatever he wanted. All this went through my mind in what seemed to be a split second as I realized it was time for my father to fuck me.

I straddled his lap and pressed my boobs into his face. He sucked my nipples and an almost electric shock ran through my chest. He grabbed me by the hips and slowly pressed me down onto his cock as I held him with one hand and guided him into my swollen waiting pussy. It was almost two months since he'd last fucked me

"Oh my god, daddy," I groaned, "I love being fucked by you. I want so bad to make you happy."

My dad couldn't even respond, he just grabbed me by the waist and pushed me down harder on his cock, trying to get every last bit of him into me. I could feel his fingers on my ass, squeezing me as he lifted his hips up to meet me.

I raised myself up until he was barely inside of me and then slowly dropped down again. God he felt so big in me! When he came out of me my cunt felt so empty, so hungry. I moved faster and faster, to the point where once I was up on his cock I would just drop down onto his lap, driving his cock into me fast and hard.

"That's it Kelly," suddenly my mom said, "Fuck that cock. Fuck your dad for me, show me what a naughty daughter you are."

My mom was getting really hot watching us and she pulling down her jeans so she could better help herself out. My mom didn't shave and only trimmed the edges of her pussy enough to be presentable in a bikini. I loved seeing her thick bush of pubic hair. While she shaved it enough not to stick out of the edges of her bikini, it still helped to form a nice bulge in her bikini bottoms which was sexy (to me at least).

My mom was rubbing herself furiously as she watched her husband and daughter having furious sex like two animals. Having watched her many times before, I knew she could take care of her needs quite nicely and it wasn't long before she proved me right, cumming hard in the front seat of the SUV.

Kristen was watching my mom as well and finally she must have decided there was a better opportunity than just doing herself. She moved up to the front seat and got on the passenger side floor where she started licking my mom's hairy pussy. My mother grabbed her by the head, pulling her tighter into her crotch, moaning loudly as Kristen brought her to another orgasm almost immediately.

In the meantime my dad picked me up and put me on the seat next to him. He turned me around and I knew what he wanted so I got on my knees on the seat and faced the back of the truck with my ass and sopping wet pussy facing him. My horny father held his swollen cock and directed it to my pussy where it easily slid in and quickly pushed it in all the way to the hilt until I felt his hairy crotch pressing against my ass. He grabbed me by the hips and pushed/pulled me in time with his thrusts, driving me hard against him and then out as far as he could without completely leaving my pussy. I could hear his body slapping against my ass as he literally banged me.

"Yes daddy," I cried out," Fuck me hard, make me cum. Fuck me!"

And cum I did, unbelievably hard. I shuddered uncontrollably as waves of passion ran through me and I arched my head back as I moaned louder and louder with ecstasy.

"Oh god daddy... I'm cumming," I groaned.

Nothing in the world compares to that moment when an orgasm consumes me. I want to have that feeling as often as possible, I NEED to have it as often as possible. Whether that makes me addicted to sex, a nymphomaniac or whatever doesn't matter to me. All I know is I love it and especially when my dad brings me to it.

Well, daddy was ready to cum as well and I wanted him to cum in me soooooo badly. I'd been dreaming of his cock shooting his hot cum into me for weeks when I played with myself in bed at night and now it was about to really happen!

"Cum daddy," I begged him, "Cum in me now. Fuck your little girl. Mate me daddy!"

My dad's head arched back and a load groan escaped from him as he thrust himself deep into me and I felt his cock spasm inside of my cunt. Suddenly I felt a warmth blooming inside of me and I knew he was cumming in me. I loved the feel of his cum as he spurted load after load of it into me. Each time driving his cock as deep as he could into me.

"Oh God," he whispered hoarsely, "Oh my God!"

He had finally released his last shot of cum and he fell over onto me, driving me into the seat. I could feel his cock throbbing inside of me still as the feeling of heat from his cum died away.

"Damn Kelly," he whispered into my ear, "Have I ever told you that you're one hell of a fine fuck?"

I grinned. Of course had, dozens of times! I wiggled my ass enough to make his cock move around inside of me. He jerked as the motion of my pussy against his sensitive cock generated a final spasm of cum into me.

Finally my father withdrew himself from me and sat on the seat beside me. I sat in his lap, his still hard cock pressing against my butt. I put my arms around him and kissed him, a long passionate kiss putting all the love and emotion I had into it. I loved my daddy so much and I was so happy to be able to satisfy him this way.

"I love you daddy," I whispered to him softly.

"I love you too baby," he replied. "I could never ask for anything more from a daughter than what you give me. You are so beautiful, so sexy. Do you feel good?"

I could gather up a few personal things along with an outfit for the next day and then we all drove back to their house in her car.

"Well, it's finally girl's night out again," she said as she ordered out pizza, "Damn, how long's it been now anyway?

It wasn't until she mentioned it that I did some thinking an indeed, it HAD been a long time. It seemed when I was little that Kristen and I would have sleepovers all the time at each other's houses. Back then I didn't think twice when my aunt would tag along and have a sleepover of her own with my parents. Of course today it would have raised eyebrows when they all spent the night in the same bed but back then it was just one of those thing old people did and I didn't give it a second thought.

Then Aunt Linda smiled at me and her daughter saying, "What do you say we get out of these damn clothes and into something more comfy?"

Giggling like we were all little girls again, we headed upstairs to their bedroom to change. Kristen and her mom had been sleeping together since she was divorced many years before so it was the only bedroom with anything much in it. The spare bedroom was typically filled with whatever they didn't feel like putting away at the time and even had I wanted to sleep in there it would have taken a while to clear off the bed.

We all quickly stripped out of our clothes and for a moment the three of us were standing there naked in the middle of room. Damn, the sexual tension was so thick you could almost see it like a fog and I had a feeling that all it would've was just one word from any one of us and we could've spent the rest of the night without leaving the bedroom. As it was, we all knew that eventually that would happen anyway so why not take the opportunity to spend some time together first dressed in our favorite nightwear.

I'd grabbed my usual evening outfit before leaving the house - one of my dad's fresh dress shirts from his closet. Most nights I would pick one out for the evening (I never wore anything to bed) and even though he pretended to protest that I was wearing all his best shirts, I knew he really loved seeing me in them and probably thought about it on me the next time he wore it.

Kristen had selected a t-shirt from one of her high school sales that she liked to wear. It was old and faded, not to mention she'd outgrown it years ago. Even when she was standing up and tugged the hem down it only covered half her bare ass. Most of the time it rode up and left her totally exposed - not that any of us minded (especially my dad when she wore it at our house).

My aunt decided to be a little more stylish. She went to her "special" drawer and like a magician pulling the proverbial rabbit from his hat, she brought out a white sheer lace nightie sans panties. No surprise there as knowing the two of them I doubted there were many pairs of panties in the entire house other than some decorative ones for when they were worn to be seen.

After we finished changing I was a bit surprised when my aunt opened a bottle of wine while Kristen and I settled down on the living room floor in front of the TV. None of us were really big alcohol drinkers but I would sometimes have a small glass of wine with my parents. Believe it or not, I've never been drunk in my entire life which also means I've never experienced a hangover, not something I exactly have on my bucket list.

Just then the doorbell rang - pizza boy! We'd forgotten all about him and looking at ourselves we all laughed, joking about which of us should answer the door. Somewhere along the line I couldn't help but shake my head a bit at the obvious cliche - three half-naked horny women ordering out pizza. Sounded like something straight from a poorly-written porn movie. All we had to do now was tempt him inside and then tease him until he couldn't resist fucking all three of us.

Yeah right, like THAT was going to happen in real life!

Although I'm sure he would've loved seeing my aunt or cousin, we all agreed that I'd better pay him since I was the only one not displaying some portion of the female sexual anatomy. Like I said, this was NOT a porn movie and we really DID order pizza with the intention of eating the pizza - not the delivery boy.

Leaving the two of them on the floor, I got up and grabbed the cash from the table that my aunt had laid out after she ordered and answered the door. To my surprise, pizza "boy" was actually a girl - and a hot one at that! She looked about sixteen or seventeen with a cute ponytail poking out the back of her pizza cap. Her winter jacket hid her figure but she just had that naughty attitude that told you there was probably something worth seeing underneath.

For a moment we stood there, taking in each other and assessing the situation. Finally she smiled and she handed me the pizza. I gave her the money and told her to keep the change. The smile never left her face and I winked at her as I turned away with the pizza and shut the door with my foot behind me. In my mind I filed it away as a possibility for a future adventure, imagining seducing the pizza GIRL!

Kristen got up and joined me as we took a seat next to each other on the couch while my Aunt plopped down on a large beanbag pillow on the floor in front of us. We quickly disposed of the pizza along with a full glass of wine each, giggling and laughing as we made up stories about what we could have done had we invited pizza girl inside. Trust me, none of the "payment" schemes involved cash.

2. Watching Kristen's Home Videos

As we cleaned up the pizza crumbs my aunt went over to a cabinet where they kept their video collection.

"Hey Kelly," my aunt, said as she turned to face us, "Want to watch a DVD your dad helped me make? He took a bunch of home videos of your cousin here and transferred them to the DVD. He got quite creative for an old goat."

"Sure!" I said. Hmmmmmm, now THIS sounded promising!

From the way she sat upright and her ears perked almost like my Yorkie's did when she was alerted, Kristen evidently wasn't aware of any such DVD.

"Mom!" she exclaimed, "You never showed this to me! There better not be anything embarrassing like those baby pictures he did that one time."

"I know sweetie," her mom assured her, "I just got it back from him a couple of days ago and haven't seen it yet myself. I just thought I would save it for when Kelly was back home since it would just be a few days. I'm sure it won't be a lot different from the others he's done of you so don't worry."

She was referring to the DVD "collector editions", as my dad like to call them. He'd bought some video editing program and now was constantly playing with the huge collection of videos he'd taken of us over the years since I was a little girl. Of course he hadn't captured EVEYY important moment for obvious reasons as he'd been the only there with us and he hadn't been exactly in a position to be filming. Still, it would have been nice to have captured such milestone moments as the first time we had sex and other times like that.

Aunt Linda put in the DVD and settled back in her big pillow. Kristen snuggled up next to me and I could feel the softness of her small breasts pressing against me. We'd always been snugglers, even back as little girls.

All I can say is that the DVD was awesome! It lasted about forty-five minutes and was basically a biography of Kristen's life, with a special emphasis on her growing sexuality. After all, my dad was the one who put it together so what would you expect?

Aunt Linda turned to look at us but I noticed her hand never left her crotch. "I wanted to surprise you Kristen. I showed this to Kelly's parents and you wouldn't believe how hot we all got watching you and Brian. Besides, you really don't mind - do you?"

Kristen giggled a bit. She was such a slut I knew what the answer was. "Of course not mom! Why didn't you just tell me? I would have loved being fucked by him knowing you were watching in the closet."

"I wanted to shoot it without you knowing," Aunt Linda answered. "I think it made it more natural than it would've been if you knew you were being taped."

Well, regardless of whether she knew or not, the entire scene was fantastic! Kristen was so petite, not even a hundred pounds, and the guy fucking her looked like a football player! Damn, Kristen was good! She grabbed the guy's huge cock and took it all - both in her mouth and her pussy. When he came it was like a horse - he pulled out and shot his cum all over her, splattering her boobs, face and hair. It was more cum than three guys would normally have and she wiped it off of her and licked it from her fingers.

God, I had to cum again at that point. Seeing my cousin with all that cum all over her and the way she was grinning was more than enough. I moaned and felt the sweet feeling of my orgasm ripple through me. I knew Kristen and Aunt Linda were watching me again, diddling themselves all the more seeing me make myself cum. My face and upper body felt so hot - I must have been flushed beet red from the feeling of it. My pussy gushed and soaked my dad's shirt which was still under me. God it felt so good!

Just when I thought I couldn't be surprised again, the next scene took my breath away - and Kristen's.

"Oh my god mom!" she gasped, "You didn't.... You taped us?"

It was easy to understand why she was shocked. It was one thing for her to DO it, but to film Kristen fucking a boy that looked like one she was babysitting was beyond erotic, it was insane!

"Is that..." I started to ask but Kristen cut in before I got it out.

"Yes... that's Billy the Pervert... god I can't believe this."

Talk about filling in the missing puzzle piece. Billy the pervert as she called him was the boy next door who loved to watch us as we walked in and out of the house. No wonder he stared at us and didn't seem to care that we noticed. Heck, he'd fucked my cousin!"

Aunt Linda opened her legs as Kristen buried her face in her pussy, her mom's thick pubic hair softly caressing her face. I kneeled in the bed and straddled her face, my hands holding onto the headboard of the bed. Aunt Linda's tongue was so long – longer than any other boy or girl I had known. She extended her tongue into my pussy hole and it felt like a little cock inside of me but it moved in ways no hard cock could ever dream of.

I'm very sensitive just inside of my pussy hole and I love it when a guy takes the time to let the head of his penetrating cock pause and stimulate me there. It was only a matter of minutes before my next orgasm was consuming me and I poured pussy cum onto my aunt's face. Kristen heard my cries of pleasure and paused briefly from her ministrations on her mom's pussy.

"Damn Kelly," she laughed, "Nothing like not wasting any time. Go girl!"

I humped my aunt's face like I was mounted on a cock, moving my hips up and down to rub my soaking wet pussy across her mouth and nose. I could hear my aunt lapping it up, licking up as much of me as she could. Her hands had been grabbing my butt the whole time and she squeezed my ass cheeks as I came, pulling me tighter to her face. I laid back down to the side of my aunt and caressed her hair and face. Her eyes were closed and she was moaning harder as her daughter licked her faster, tugging in her clit with her teeth.

"That's it Kristen," she groaned, "You're such a wonderful daughter! Make your mom cum."

My aunt's hips began to buck like a bronco as Kristen worked to keep her tongue in her mom's cunt. Aunt Linda's orgasm caused her to cry out loudly – I hoped that the neighbors were accustomed to hearing her cry out like this and didn't call the police thinking she was being raped or tortured! Damn but she was LOUD! In all the times I'd been with her sexually, I'd never known her to cry out like this.

"Fuck me!"

It was the most intense and longest orgasm I had ever seen my aunt have. In fact, nothing before even came close. I wanted some of her pussy cum so I moved down to join Kristen. The odor of my aunt's crotch was intense – full of sex and sweat. Kristen moved aside to let me in and I tasted her cum filled pussy. God it tasted so good!

I ran my tongue up and down her slit, rubbing over her incredibly sensitive clit each time and feeling her shudder with each touch. She was still cumming!! Her loud shouts had died down to a continuous series of moans and occasional exhortations to keep licking her, to keep her orgasm going.

Meanwhile, I felt someone pushing my legs apart and I opened them up to allow Kristen to eat my pussy while I continued eating her mom's. I couldn't help but jump when her lips grabbed my clit and then her tongue flickered over me, driving me up to yet another orgasm. As her mom came down from her incredible orgasm, I felt myself building to yet another and soon I was writhing with the wonderful sensations Kristen was responsible for giving me.

Kristen was masturbating again and I could see that she was cumming with me. I looked up and saw my aunt was watching her niece and daughter cumming again, this time with my head still planted between her legs, enjoying the feel and scent of her beautiful pussy.

When we were ready to move again, Kristen and I laid back in her mom's arms, our legs over her as we relaxed next to her, our heads resting against her ample boobs. My pussy was throbbing. The only thing that could possibly have made the moment better would have been to have a cock in me.

No matter how much I loved being with a girl, there was still something about the feel of a hard cock nestled inside my pussy to make me feel complete. When a guy was buried deep in me we were joined physically in a way no two girls can be, our bodies were connected in a way only a boy and girl can share.

I loved being with girls and never felt as emotionally satisfied with a guy as a girl could make me but when it came to sexual completeness, only a guy and his hard cock could do that for me. But as my aunt had said earlier, tonight was girls' night and somehow having a guy would just not have been right, no matter how much I was craving a cock at the moment.

Tonight was just me, my aunt and my cousin and I really couldn't ask for anything more. So many times I had laid in my dorm room bed dreaming of a night like this. I knew when I got back to school I would be masturbating a lot and that this night would be on my mind more than few times.

It was then that I remembered the camera! In all the emotion and lust I had forgotten completely about it. I smiled inwardly as I thought about how hot it was going to be to watch it later. I bet my dad was going to masturbate right then and there the first time he saw it! Well, so long as he let me have his cum when he did I wouldn't mind!

younger " as if Kristen needed any help in that department. Her driver's license might say she was seventeen but I think most people assumed she was a couple years younger when they first met her.

Today instead of heading to the mall, one of our favorite place for fun, we decided to visit my Dad's law office. With the holidays I knew there wouldn't be many people in so we figured it was too great of an opportunity to pass up. The best part was we knew that teasing would just be the beginning...

As we dressed up in our school girl outfits I picked up my panties and looked over at Kristen. She just smiled and shook her head so I put them back in the drawer. When we were done I took a good look at my cousin. God she looked so hot! For a moment I thought maybe we should just stay home and spend the afternoon in my room but then I thought of my dad and what I had planned for him. Needless to say I decided against staying home!

Bouncing down the stairs, my mother was waiting for us at the bottom as if she knew something was up. It was that eerie second sense that all mothers seem to be endowed with.

"And just where do the two of you sluts think you're going dressed like that!" she said, pretending to be stern with us, "Let me see under those skirts."

Kristen and I just grinned and giggled like the little school girls we were dressed up as. I was the one to answer mom's first question.

"Oh mom, we were just going to say hi to dad at the office."

Then we both turned around and raised our skirts, showing my mom our bare asses, then turning around to let her have a look at our shaved pussies. It was all in good fun and my mom couldn't help but laugh.

"Damn, girls!" mom exclaimed, then laughing she said, "You're gonna both be arrested for indecent exposure before you ever get there!"

Well, we had a plan for that. The weather was lousy so we wore long coats to hide our outfits. We would be riding the "T" (a small train) to get downtown and I had a funny feeling that the passengers would have been very interested in our outfits, especially since almost everyone riding the week is male.

2. Entering My Dad's Office

In any case, we got to his office building without any fanfare and checked in with the receptionist at the building entrance. She knew me of course but it was the first time Kristen had been there. She gave us visitor badges and we headed for the elevators. There was one waiting and empty so we quickly claimed it. As we were the only ones in the elevator I reached for Kristen and kissed her.

"Hey Kelly, do you think there's a camera in here watching us?" Kristen asked.

I smiled as I licked her neck and reached my hand under her skit. "I hope so," I replied, "Let's give the security dude something to remember."

Kristen leaned back in the corner of the elevator and opened her coat. I lifted her short skirt to expose her bare pussy. My hand reached between her thighs and I felt the warmth of her hot little pussy on my hand. I was pleased to find she was already wet, probably from spending the whole trip downtown dreaming about what we would soon be doing. Well, who was I to say anything" I was in the same condition for the same reason! I pressed up against her and felt my boobs pressing against hers. My nipples were already so hard that the feel of hers sent tingles all through me.

As we kissed I felt so horny thinking about some poor security guard watching us. I wondered if he was touching himself as he watched two teenagers kissing and feeling each other up in the "privacy" of the elevator! Well, I hope he had it all on video tape because his buddies would never believe him otherwise.

Once we got to his floor we first headed for the girls restroom to straighten ourselves out. We took off our coats, put on some last minute makeup, and brushed out each other's hair and then put the ponytails back in. I looked Kristen over and smiled. My dad was going to flip when he saw us! Putting our coats back on, we left the restroom and went down the hall to the suite where his firm was located.

After going through the double mahogany doors we stopped and said hello to Margerie, his personal secretary. There was an executive secretary as well who "ran" the office but fortunately she wasn't in today since she was a bit of a bitch, at least is far as I was concerned. I'd known Margerie since I was a little girl as she was the only secretary my dad had ever had since he started there. Dad said she was a great secretary and it didn't hurt she had the figure of a Playboy playmate which fooled many a pervert who didn't know the razor sharp mind she liked to pretend she didn't have. I knew my dad didn't mess around with other woman but I could not have really blamed him for losing his self-control with Margerie!

So anyway, she looked the two of us over with a critical eye and I knew she instantly figured out what was going on. My dad always said that nothing got by her and this time was no exception. Fortunately, another reason my dad loved Margerie was her discretion. This wasn't my first trip to Dad's office and it would've been impossible to hide what we did from her. As a result she was the only person outside our family that had even a notion of an idea that my dad was fucking his daughter but fortunately to paraphrase the Las Vegas ads, what happened in my dad's office stayed in my dad's office. Normally this applied to business deals but I knew from past experience that Margerie would never even mention today the next time I saw her.

Margerie buzzed my dad and told him we were here. He came out of his office with a look of surprise on his face as I hadn't told him that we would be coming in. A pleased expression quickly replaced it though, especially when he saw Kristen was with me. He told Margerie that he would be "busy" for the next hour or so and to not interrupt him for anything. With Margerie that meant only a SWAT team would make its way into my dad's office for the next hour and even they had better come in prepared!

3. Kristen Gets Things Started

My dad held the door to his office open for us and once we were in he closed it behind us, making sure it was securely locked. He took a seat on the couch in his office while Kristen and I moved next to each other's with our backs to the big windows that gave my dad's office a terrific view of the city. We looked at each other and then in unison we dropped our coats to reveal our outfits.

"Well Daddy," I said in my best little girl voice, "School's in session and we're ready for our lesson."

My dad may have been a father and uncle, but he was still a man so he couldn't help but stare at us. Our skirts were so short they really didn't do much to hide anything. Without our panties just any time we moved he got a glimpse of either our ass or pussy. The white shirts we wore were a couple of sizes too small, making them stretch so tight that I thought the few buttons we left done would burst if I took a deep breath. The material was so thin and light the brown outlines of our

Below me Kristen was working on my dad's pants, unbuckling first his belt and then unbuttoning the slacks. He raised himself up to help her slip them off and then he was sitting on the couch bare-assed, his hardened cock standing free and unencumbered for the two of us to look at and admire. No matter how many times I saw it I always felt a chill down my spine the first time he would reveal it to me, knowing it was ready and waiting to violate me. I knew it wanted penetrate me and eventually cum in me and I would tingle with the anticipation of it. No other cock can make me feel quite this way. After all, this cock was unique - it was my father's. This was the cock that had fucked my mom twenty years ago and now was ready to fuck the results - me.

Kristen took it in her tiny hand, barely able to get her hand around it when it was this big and swollen. She slowly stroked him, running her fingers up and down his magnificent shaft. I knew she was thinking of how deep it had been in her before and how badly she wanted to feel it in her that way again.

As the waves of sensual pleasure began to dampen in me and my orgasm faded I wanted more, I wanted my dad to fuck me. What I really wanted was for my dad to fuck me for the whole city to watch! I got off the couch and took his hand, pulling on it to signal him to get up with me. He looked at me curiously, not certain what I wanted.

"Come on daddy, get up," I pleaded, "I want you to fuck me by the window."

I could tell my dad wasn't quite sure about this but in the end, lust won him over and he let me pull him over to the huge window that overlooked the city and the surrounding buildings. I faced the window, leaning towards it while putting my hands against it. I spread my legs for him and looked over my shoulder, licking my lips seductively as he approached me.

My dad can take a hint and he came to me from behind, bending his knees so he could enter me from behind. His cock head pushed against my pussy hole and met little resistance. With a quick thrust he rammed himself into me, literally lifting me off the floor as his cock filled me and his crotch smacked my ass. Over and over he rammed himself into me. Each time pulling out until he was barely in me and then slamming himself deep inside of me again.

"Fuck her Uncle John!" I heard Kristen cheering my dad on and turned my head to see her laying back on the middle of his desk, her bare ass on his desktop calendar, leaking her pussy juices onto it.

looked across the street at the office windows or playing with myself as I watched Kristen being fucked by my dad.

"Damn I'm going to cum!" my dad cried out.

He was in me at the time and he pulled out of me, standing there as the two of us knelt before him. Our backs were to the windows as we took turns sucking his throbbing dick, each hoping to get the first shot of his cum.

"Oh my god," he said through gritted teeth, "Here it comes! Take this you little sluts!"

Suddenly I watched as his cock swelled noticeably and a stream of cum came shooting out. The first load hit me in the mouth and face, dripping down my cheek obscenely. Kristen pulled his cock toward her and was able to get the next load and the one after in her mouth, the cum pooling on her tongue.

My dad came several more times, this time on our beasts and I could feel it dripping down my belly as I tasted his salty cum in my mouth. God I loved the taste of my dad's cum! It was hard to believe it was the same cum that he left in my mom and which resulted in me being born. Boy, talk about the circle of life!

I looked out the window, unable to see into the dark offices across the street. I wondered if someone was cheering now for my dad as he came on us. In a voyeuristic way I hoped so. I imagined us as the topic of discussion for some time at some office full of horny old men!

I took my dad's expended cock in my mouth and sucked him gently. I felt him jump when my tongue touched a sensitive spot. As he slowly shrunk I could feel him softening in my mouth. Mmmmmmm it always felt good to have a guy's cock in my mouth when it shrank down after fucking me, knowing I had taken everything it had, that I had fulfilled the sexual desire that created it in the first place.

As the animal in my dad retreated and the loving father re-emerged, he looked around and then out the window, suddenly he realizing the potential for someone having seen us.

"My god!" he exclaimed as he looked out, "What if someone saw me fucking you""

"Don't worry daddy," I said, "I'm sure whoever did enjoyed the show and won't do anything to prevent it from happening again someday."

My dad just shook his head and then looked at his watch. "Oh great," he said, "I have a major client due here in five minutes. Come on girls, get dressed before I have to explain why my teenage daughter and niece are running around nude in my office!"

Kristen and I both giggled. I was already imagining the possibilities of how we could provide some extra "services" for my dad's client and knowing Kristen's perverted outlook on life I am sure similar thoughts were running through her head as well! But in reality we knew we had to get going so we quickly dressed. After all, how long can it take to zip a skirt and button a blouse?

I saw her hair was a mess and I figured mine was no better so I grabbed a brush out of my purse and did a quick once-over for each of us. There was nothing we could do about the flushed faces and glow I knew each of us had from the wonderful fucking we both had gotten.

My dad buzzed Margerie and asked her to bring in the papers for the incoming client. It was no surprise when she entered the office almost before he could hang up the phone with the file. She quickly pulled out a can of air freshener and sprayed the room liberally. I wondered why she did that when I suddenly imagined how the room must smell of our sex after an hour of non-stop fucking. Leave it to Margerie to come in prepared! She looked at Kristen and me and then to my surprise gave us a smile and a wink. She was really incredible!

When we left his office the clients were in the waiting room. A couple of balding old guys in their fifties, they looked at us a bit strange but we just giggled like airhead schoolgirls.

The trip back went by quickly and before I knew it we were at my house. We went bouncing into the house and our mothers were there in the kitchen having coffee together. We told them what we had done, with all the details. They were both turned on and my aunt said maybe they and my mom needed to do something like that for my dad someday. Now that would be something to see, my mom and her sister pretending to be schoolgirls for my dad to fuck at work.

Hmmmmmm, Margerie would really get a kick out of that one I'm sure!

(Nov 27) Chapter 66: First Time With My Best Friend Beth

Story codes: FF MF F-solo oral
Me (19)
John - my dad (40)

Beth has been my very best friend since we were little girls. Along the way we've shared some incredible experiences but when it came to sex, we weren't much different than most girls know. We talked about our boyfriends and what we did with them, sometimes maybe even playing with ourselves as we did, but there was never anything more than that. Last summer she introduced me to something new - sex parties. Still, while we both watched each other, we never did anything together. Was it time for best friends to cross that final boundary? Then there was my dad...

1. Best Friends Forever

OK, so my mom was right yet again, even though I hadn't believed her at the time. Still, I was amazed that after just a year and a half after I graduated from high school just how many of my old relationships had faded away. So many of the girls I'd been so concerned about in high school were now insignificant in my current life. I realized then that what my mom had told me back then was true; that I shouldn't be so concerned about everyone's opinions of me in high school. She correctly predicted that my real friends for life would develop in college and in my life afterwards and that only the most special of friends from my high school days would remain.

Beth was one of those special friends. We'd grown up together and I can't even remember when we were NOT friends. Like any two best friends, Beth and I shared our most intimate secrets, desires and gossip. She was one of the first I told about losing my virginity (the day after I told my mom) and I got a call from her just hours after she gave up hers. She was the first girl I masturbated with although I have to admit that SHE was the one to instigate it. There were even a few double dates where we would trade off boyfriends. Through it all, though, we never played with each other or even kissed. It was like something unwritten between us that our relationship was perfect the way it was so why screw it up?

Beth and I may be great friends, but that doesn't mean we are alike. Indeed, people who know us both are sometimes amazed that we can stand being in the same room with each other! I was the flat chested young teenager while she seemed to go from a training bra to a C cup overnight. Beth was a little more "rounded" in places than I was but by no means could you call her fat. If anything, it just seemed to enhance those boobs which were now solidly in the D cup category. I was a little more reserved than her at parties, preferring guys more one-on-one whereas she was the ultimate party girl, always telling me about her latest gangbang or whatever.

This past summer it was Beth who introduced me to the world of sex parties. Although we didn't do anything with each other at them (aside from a minor episode at the first party), there were times I looked at her ass barely hidden in a pair of tight jeans or her firm 36D breasts outlined in a tight tank top and wonder what it would be like to be with her. It's not like I didn't like girls... I just loved guys more. Well, maybe not so much "guys" as what they carried around between their legs!

Aside from my mother and her sister, until I went to college I hadn't had sex with a girl, not even a kiss except maybe during a Truth or Dare game. To me, what I shared at home with my family was different than being with a girl outside our family so being with another girl would be a major step as it would establish me as being bi-sexual and I honestly wasn't sure that I really was. I enjoyed being with my mom so I knew it was not a matter of being turned off by girls. It was just that I loved boys and being fucked by them and let's face it, a girl with a vibrating plastic dildo is NOT the same as a horny boy with a hard cock!

For whatever reason I always assumed that if I ever actually did have a lesbian relationship that Beth would be my first. Somehow the right circumstances never arose and eventually it turned out to be Brenda, my freshman roomie, that broke the girl-on-girl ice for me. After that, although boys were still at the top of my sexual appetite, girls were now on the menu! As it turned out, it was my cousin Kristen who was my second girl. Yeah, she was technically family but not in the same way as my mom or aunt. If anything, she was more like a sister.

It was the Saturday of my Thanksgiving break when Beth picked me up for lunch. We went to a local Eat 'n Park restaurant near the mall where a lot of kids hung out and I caught up on all the latest local gossip. Beth attended college downtown so she still lived with her parents which helped her to stay in the local "loop". As always, she knew who was seeing who, who was pregnant, who broke up, who was cheating and so forth. As we finished our lunch I asked her if she had time to stop by my house for a while. Beth said it was OK and so we returned to my place.

The weather had been cold and raining until then but was finally breaking so we kept our jackets on and went out on the deck where we sat by the table. Beth brought up the subject of the sex parties she had taken me to this past summer. I learned that she had been to a number of them since then, usually two or three a month. Although it was too late to do anything this weekend, she was curious as to if I would be interested in going to one when I was home for Christmas break. I actually wasn't too sure as after the last one I'd decided not to attend any more. Sure I enjoyed them physically, there was no denying that, but at the same time I prefer more intimacy when it comes to sex. Not a real boyfriend or that type of relationship, but at least I wanted to know his name!

Emotionally the whole sex party atmosphere left me a bit empty. I remember sitting home afterwards, my pussy still throbbing from an evening of fucking, feeling pretty darn good but wondering just whose cock had been in me - or in some cases how many? I can't say that line of thinking was a huge turn-on for me. We joked about the very first party where as part of my "initiation" I had to let the party host screw me in front of everyone else to start off the party. I was initially quite nervous since I'd never had sex in front of a crowd of strangers before so Beth had helped him out a bit to calm my nerves. Beth grinned as she recalled that day...

"Oh my god Kelly," she said with a laugh, "That was so incredible! The look on your face when you found out about the initiation... priceless!"

"No kidding! Nothing like finding out at the last second that you have to let a total stranger fuck you in front of twenty people you've never seen before!"

"Oh but you've got to admit it girl, you WERE turned on by it. Everybody was talking about it later, they couldn't believe it was your first time doing it with an audience. I know it made me hotter than hell to see what a slut you really were. I never knew you had it in you girl!"

I tried to not smile too broadly and just nodded, "OK, so I was hot for it. It was just that at the time I didn't know what to say. Hell, I didn't even know his name and the next thing I knew I was sucking his cock in the middle of the room!"

Beth leaned back in her chair as I noticed her face was becoming a bit flushed. I had a feeling talking about this was starting to get her more than just a bit horny!

"Well, the way he slid right into you though, it was obvious you were soaking wet." Beth closed her eyes for a moment as if to recall the moment. "I was so incredibly turned on seeing him fuck you. After all the years we have talked about our boyfriends and sex lives, seeing your pussy with his cock in it was more than I could take. I guess I never had thought about it before but I had never seen you fucked before! God I was soooooo turned on!!"

I looked at her with an inquisitive eye, "Oh? Turned on, eh? And here I thought you only came over to suck my boobs because you wanted to help me get over my nervousness!"

Beth grinned like a fox. "Sure, that was main reason but you know, I've always wanted to do that and it just seemed like the perfect opportunity."

Wow, I was flabbergasted. Beth had NEVER even mentioned sex between us in the past and here she was talking about wanting to suck my boobs "You're kidding Beth? Why didn't you ever say anything before?"

"Kelly, In all the years we've been friends you never once mentioned being attracted to girls. I just figured you were only into guys, that's all. Even at the parties you never did anything with the girls there, even though most of them would have died to be with you - including me!"

I looked at Beth closely. "So tell me Beth, are you bi? I KNOW you like guys but what about girls?"

Beth giggled at the question. "I've been with a lot of girls from school and at the parties. Honestly, these days I spend more of my time with girls than guys."

I held Beth's hand. "Well Beth, there is something you should know about me then." So I told Beth about my roomie during my freshman year. Brenda was my first girl other than my mom and aunt who I had sex with. It started at her house while she was taking pictures of me and we ended up sleeping together for the rest of the year.

The ultimate moment was when we had sex with her married older brother for the first time and then again this fall. I'd never seen a real brother and sister having sex before and it made me a bit jealous that I didn't have a brother myself! Beth was mesmerized by what she heard, literally staring at me in disbelief.

"Damn Kelly, I can't believe that after everything we did this past summer that you never told me about Brenda!" Beth just shook her head but was smiling at the same time.

"I wanted to... I just didn't want to jeopardize our friendship."

Beth leaned over in her chair and took my hand in hers. "And what about now? How do you feel now?"

I looked at Beth and she was so beautiful smiling at me as we held hands. I hesitated for a few seconds. I knew what I wanted - I wanted to be with Beth. I just didn't know how to say it to my best friend. Beth solved my dilemma for me, not saying another word but instead reaching forward and kissing me on the lips. Just a brief kiss but I tingled afterwards, feeling like a little girl getting her first kiss all over again.

Beth put her head next to mine, her mouth next to my ear. In a husky voice she whispered softly in my ear, "I want you Kelly... I want to fuck you."

We both stood and held each other tightly, pressing our bodies tightly against one another. I kissed her again, this time with more passion, more intimacy, more love for my closest friend in all the world. My tongue explored her open mouth as I gripped her ass in my hands, feeling her firm butt in my hands as I squeezed it tightly.

"God I want you Beth," I whispered back to her in my sexiest voice, "I want you in every way."

Beth moaned softly, closing her eyes as she hugged me and tightened her ass under my grip. Even though it was chilly and cloudy, the hot tub still looked like the perfect place to continue our new relationship.

"C'mon Beth, let's get in the hot tub," I whispered in her ear.

2. Me and Beth in the Hot Tub

I didn't have to say anything more as the two of us quickly undressed, leaving our clothes in a pile on the patio table. The air felt even colder against our naked bodies and we hurried to get into the hot water. I was the first in and watched as Beth lowered her beautiful nude body into the water which covered her shaved pussy and eventually her full breasts. God she had a figure to die for!

I felt Beth's hand on my thigh as she positioned herself next to me. I turned to her and met her lips as we kissed like two lovers seeing each other for the first time after a long separation. In a way that is almost what we were. We had known each other for so many years and shared so much that it seemed only natural that we finally share our bodies with each other.

As we kissed Beth turned and straddled me, sitting in my lap with her arms around my neck, still locked in a kiss with me that I never wanted to end. I felt her wet bare ass on my lap and pulled her tightly against me, feeling our bodies coming together. Her breasts pressed against mine, our nipples rubbed which sent shivers up my back as she wiggled just enough to move her nipples back and forth against mine.

Finally we released our kiss and I licked and nibbled on her neck. As I did she straightened up, allowing me to kiss further down to her shoulders and then eventually to her breasts. I licked each one, running my tongue past the nipple and feeling her tense each time. Then I took her right nipple in my mouth and sucked it hard like a baby would, pulling it into my mouth.

"Ohhhhhhhhh Kellyyyyyyyy." Beth moaned softly, "I love that... You have no idea how many times I have dreamed of you doing that."

I let go of her tight ass and pushed her gently onto her back as I got off the seat and moved the two of us across the hot tub. She laid back against the opposite side, her arms stretched out to each side as I cupped her butt in my hands again. I submerged my head until I reached her crotch, placing my mouth on her pussy and began to lick and suck on her clit. Running out of air, I lifted her up until her pussy was clear of the water and continued to eat her pussy like a kid with a new candy bar.

As my tongue run up and down her pussy slit I looked up at her. Beth's head was back, her back arched pushing her breasts out of the water, softly moaning with pleasure. God she tasted so good! I pushed my face tightly between her legs as I pushed my tongue into her as far as I could reach with it. My nose was pressing against her clit as my tongue fucked her pussy. I took her clit between my teeth and gently tugged on it, alternating between biting softly on it and sucking on it.

Beth was bucking like a bronco, driving her cunt harder against my face and mouth. I could taste her pussy as she came. She pulled my head tighter into her with one hand, using the other to hold herself out of the hot water. As her orgasm died down I let her drop down into the water and moved up to kiss her. She eagerly kissed me, licking her cum juices off of my face, I kept on hand on her throbbing pussy and she moved one of her to mine.

We kissed in the corner of the hot tub while we each played with the others pussy. I loved being touched by a girl so much more than a guy. Beth knew just how to make me feel incredible, touching me softly at times and then thrusting several fingers up into me at others, it didn't take longer before I was cumming and as I did she had her second orgasm as well.

Both of us were panting and moaning like two bitches in heat, rubbing the others pussy and driving us each to a massive orgasm. I felt so good, my skin tingled from my feet to my head as it seemed my orgasm would never end. Finally it seemed too much, that I couldn't take any more without going absolutely crazy and I started to push away. Beth would have none of it and she pulled me to her as she continued to cum herself. I wanted to scream with pleasure as my head exploded. It was like my body was on fire, I was totally oblivious to everything else, unable to see or hear anything other than the feeling of her hand.

Even the most massive orgasm has to end eventually and so did mine after what seemed an eternity of bliss. I fell against Beth, holding her tightly against me with my head next to hers, "God Beth," I panted, "That was incredible!"

Beth hugged me tighter, "Not so bad yourself sweetie."

I was about to reply when a voice behind me joined in. "Well, if you want my opinion you were both fantastic!"

3. My Dad Joins Us

` What the hell? I turned around and there were my parents, standing at the edge of the hot tub with one arm around each other. My dad was doing the talking and from the familiar bulge in his pants I knew he had been watching a while.

"Sorry to intrude girls," my dad continued, "we just got back and couldn't help but hear the two of you out here and thought we would see what was going on. Damn you girls are hot!"

Beth saw them and I could feel her tense under me. "Kelly?" she asked, "Is there something I should know here?"

My mom looked at me and then at my dad, her lips pursed slightly and knew she was not entirely happy with the direction things were going. Nobody outside of our family knew about our incestual relationships and I could tell she was trying to warn me and my dad not to say anything to Beth about it, regardless of how horny the two of us were. I understood my mom's concerns but Beth my best friend, the one person I trusted with everything else in my life. Still, I tempered my desires but I still couldn't let such an opportunity escape entirely

"It's OK Beth." I assured her, "My parents know about everything I have ever done, even the parties you took me to this past summer."

Beth relaxed noticeably as I continued. "Don't be shy, I have been nude here in the hot tub with my parents since I can remember so it's not like this is something new for me."

Looking back at my parents, I said, "Speaking of which, why don't the two of you join us?

My dad looked interested and his cock was VERY interested but Mom shook her head, "The weather is really lousy today hun. Maybe another time. C'mon John, let's go in and leave these two alone."

My mom started to turn away but my dad held her arm, keeping her from going. He locked eyes with my mom for a long moment as I recognized the look on his face - that look of lust and sexual desire I knew so well having seen it whenever he really wanted me. It was almost telepathic as she seemed to understand. Some sort of non-verbal agreement must have been reached as my mom nodded and they let go of each other. She gave my dad a kiss, told him she loved him, then turned and went into the house leaving my dad with us. He looked at us and smiled.

"Alright, this is great. Face it girls, what man wouldn't love to join two beautiful women in a hot tub, especially after watching the two of you go at it."

My dad started taking off his clothes, adding them to our pile on the table. Beth stared at him at first, then looked at me, and then back at him as his pants and underwear came off. I could see her eyes as she saw that his cock was already rigid and standing out from his crotch like a flag pole.

As he walked back across to the deck, his cock pointing the way, I gave Beth a hug, "Well Beth, what do you think of my dad?"

Beth stammered for a second, "Damn Kelly, I can't believe your dad is doing this. I mean - he has an erection!"

My dad stepped into the tub and slowly lowered himself into the water. His erect cock dipped under the surface and out of sight - for the moment at least. He leaned back and allowed his feet to slip out from under him so his body stretched out across the hot tub. Putting his arms to his sides, he twisted himself so his hips and waist rose up out of the water. His cock appeared once again like a periscope and I noticed that Beth's eyes never left it as she subconsciously licked her lips.

4. Beth Blows My Dad

As for me... well, I was feeling pretty horny too as my dad's dick looked soooooo delicious. Like, it took all my willpower not to move over and take it in my mouth. I'd never told Beth about my full relationship with my dad and after seeing my mom's reaction I knew I couldn't have him right then. Still, that didn't mean I couldn't encourage Beth!

"So tell me Beth, what do you think of my dad's cock Beth?" I whispered to her.

Beth just nodded, as horny as she was from the orgasms she had just had, I knew she wasn't thinking straight and the fact he was my dad already seemed to have disappeared from her thoughts. My best friend was horny for a cock and now there was one just inches away from her, practically taunting her. I knew she wanted to suck it badly regardless of who it belonged to! Not that I blamed her. Heck, I would have been feeling the same way in her shoes. There's just something about a stiff cock that just makes you want to run up and suck on it!

"Go ahead Beth, suck it." I encouraged her, "C'mon... I want to watch you suck my dad's cock."

It wasn't like Beth needed a tremendous amount of encouragement. Heck, when it came to sex in front of others, she was even more of a slut than I was! After all the sex parties she had been to and the dozens of cocks she'd sucked and fucked, my dad's hard cock wasn't anything extraordinary in and of itself. The difference here that was making her horny as hell was that the guy she wanted to be fucked by was her best friend's dad! To make it even hotter, his daughter was the one encouraging her!

Even though Beth knew nothing of what my father and I really did, she had to realize now that we were extremely open with each other - more than she'd ever dreamed. It was one thing to know your friend uses the hot tub nude with her dad, quite another to know he gets sexually aroused in the process. I was turned on as hell by the whole situation and from the hungry look on her face I knew she was too.

Beth moved over and put one arm over my dad's stomach and the other under his ass. He helped by arching his back to keep his cock up and out of the water. She held his wet cock in her hand and then leaned over him as she started to give my dad a blow job he'd never forget. I knew from watching her this past summer that Beth was pretty damn good when it came to blowjobs and it made me incredibly horny watching her work my dad's cock. I moved over to the other side of my dad so I could watch her up close and personal as she took his cock in her mouth and licked it.

"Damn Beth," I said to her, "You're such a slut! I can't believe you're sucking my dad's cock - and right here in front of me at that!"

Beth just smiled as best she could with an erect penis filling her mouth. I could tell that my dad was loving it. He had not been sucked by a girl outside our family since he married my mom so the experience of a fresh mouth and tongue on his cock must have been overwhelming him with lust and gratification. It didn't hurt a bit either that Beth was a one hot teenage brunette who could have easily been a porn star if she wanted to be!

I watched as my dad moaned and groaned as Beth licked up and down his shaft with her long tongue. She kept her one hand under him to help hold him out of the water while her free hand either stroked his shaft or played with his balls. Now and then she would take him all in, pushing her face deep into his wet crotch and moving her head around his engorged dick. I knew from my own experience that my dad loved this and sure enough, he let out a loud gasp each time she did it.

"My god Beth," he whispered hoarsely, "You are so damn good! ...Suck me more."

Beth need no encouragement as she was more than willing. Any hesitation she may have had about sucking my dad in front of me were gone now. She was now officially in what I thought if as "whore mode" now, giving my dad the best blow job she knew how. She didn't even seem to remember I was watching! Then I saw her reaching below my dad's balls and suddenly my dad let out such a groan.

"Oh Beth!" he exclaimed, "That feels soooooo good! Deeper."

Wide-eyed, I watched as I realized what she was doing. Beth had her finger up my dad's asshole! My mom and I were not into anal action at all although I experimented now and then on myself with my own finger in the bath. I never knew that my dad was even interested in anal sex it as he never mentioned it nor tried anything with us. Well, based on his reaction from Beth's penetration, obviously he liked it!

I kept my eye on her hand as she moved her finger in and out, fucking his asshole with her finger. Between her talented mouth and now her dirty finger, I knew my dad was not going to be able to hold out forever and I had other plans for him that hadn't been fulfilled yet.

5. My Dad Fucks Beth

I moved up to his head and whispered into his ear loud enough for Beth to hear, "Fuck her Daddy, fuck the little bitch... Look at her daddy - she wants it, she wants you to fuck her. Show me how you can shove you cock in her slutty pussy."

Of course Beth could hear me and she didn't wait for my dad to respond. She was so horny I knew she needed to be fucked and fucked hard. Beth leaned over the edge of the hot tub, letting her cute ass poke upwards for my dad to grab which he promptly did with both hands. He grabbed her butt cheeks and pressed them apart, exposing her wet pussy.

I grabbed his rock-hard cock and steered it towards Beth's waiting pussy. Rubbing his fat cock against her swollen pussy lips, I slowly worked it into her. Damn it made me so horny seeing him violate my best friend! Once the head was inside, my dad took over, driving himself into her with a hard shove that forced her into the edge of the hot tub.

"Oh god!!!" Beth cried out as my dad pushed his cock all the way into her, "that feels soooooo good!!!! Fuck me dammit, fuck me hard!"

"That's it daddy," I added in, "Fuck the little whore... fuck her for me."

My dad was humping her hard and fast. He had his hands on her hips, pushing and pulling her in rhythm with his cock as it thrust in and out of her pussy. Beth's boobs bounced back and forth beneath her, swinging like pendulums as she rocked back and forth.

I still could hardly believe what I was watching. For the first time since their marriage over twenty years ago, my dad's cock was inside a woman who was not related to his wife.

Suddenly it was if something hit me in the stomach. I'd been so horny and caught up in the moment that I hadn't really given a lot of serious thought as to what was happening. My dad was fucking her! He was fucking my best friend! Then I felt sick and thought I was going to vomit so I turned away. They were going at it when I looked back I once again saw my dad with his cock in this girl who was not in our family.

What did this mean? Was he committing adultery? My parents had always stressed how important marriage was and how adultery was the worst sin that could be committed against your partner yet here he was, fucking my best friend! It had all happened so fast... I didn't know what to do and I felt more conflicted than I ever had in my life. Actually, it should have been ME he was fucking, not Beth. I was his daughter and so I should be the one whose pussy his cock was inside of, not this girl. Oh god, what had I done?

Distressed, I looked up to my second floor bedroom window which overlooked the deck and my eyes widened as I saw my mom looking down us! My dad noticed me looking up and he turned his head towards the window and also saw my mom. They both smiled at each other and I saw my mother mouthing to my dad, "I love you."

It couldn't have been more plain to me then as that simple expression of their love, given at a moment when she was watching her husband with another woman for the first time, told me it was alright. I knew we would have to discuss this more later but at least I knew she was watching and was OK with what he was doing. After all, if it was OK with my mom, then what right did I have to criticize?

My stomach stopped churning and I looked back at my dad and Beth again. I glanced one last time up at my mom and then watched as my dad continued to fuck my best friend. The tingle in my pussy returned and now I was able to enjoy what I was watching again. I still felt a little bit jealous though as my pussy was crying out for his cock and there was nothing I could do about it now.

As for my dad, he had his full attention on the tight pussy surrounding his cock. He was literally pounding Beth, driving himself into her so hard that I thought she would be thrown from the hot tub. After a while my dad pulled his cock out of Beth and flipped her over, pushing her back against the wall of the hot tub and lifted her hips up to meet up again with his swollen cock. Her pussy was just under the water line as he slid into her easily and he started fucking her again. Water splashed between the two of them each time his groin met up with hers but neither of them cared one bit.

Finally my dad started to groan and I knew he was ready to cum again. My dad pulled himself out of Beth and she lowered herself under the water until just her head was above it and he shoved his cock into her mouth just in time as his body jerked over and over again, spraying his cum into her mouth. Some of it began to leak out past her lips which were trying to seal around his throbbing cock. I saw her swallowing his cum as fast as she could, enjoying the taste of his hot cum. My dad looked to be simply overcome with lust and desire as he let loose load after load into her mouth.

"That's it you filthy little slut," he groaned, "Take my cum! Swallow it all!"

After he had finished I moved over to Beth. "Kiss me Beth... Let me taste my dad's cum."

Beth looked at me for a second and at first she had a funny look on her face, like she couldn't believe I was serious. Then she smiled which inadvertently allowed some of his cum dribble down her chin. She leaned over and we kissed, sharing my dad's sticky cum between us. God he tasted so good on her tongue! For all Beth knew, this was the first time I'd tasted my dad's cum so she was undoubtedly feeling pretty hot about that herself. If she only knew how many gallons I'd swallowed over the past three years!

My dad was still standing next to us, his softening cock hanging close to Beth's face. After we kissed for a while she turned and sucked him more. She was able to draw a few more drops of cum from him and immediately shared them with me again.

Some of my dad's cum must have been on my face because when Beth looked at me she just licked her lips, saying, "God Kelly, you look so hot with your dad's cum on your cheek."

She shook her head and giggled, "Wow, I can't believe I just let your father fuck me, and in front of you. Damn, I just fucked a guy in front of his daughter!"

"Well, I loved every moment," I assured her. "You know, if anyone was going to fuck my dad for me I would want it to be you."

Meanwhile my dad got out of the hot tub and stood there dripping wet, smiling as he looked at the two of us together. "I'll leave you two alone," he said. "Looks like you still have some unfinished business!"

6. The Aftermath

My dad picked up his clothes and went into the house. Beth turned back to me and we just lay together there in the tub for a while longer, kissing and fondling each other softly. Eventually we seemed to reach a mutual feeling that it was time to finish and we silently got out of the tub and dressed. After our clothes were on we hugged again and kissed. I don't think I'd ever felt so close to her as I did right then. She had no idea that we shared a common bond now, we'd both been fucked by my dad. I knew that someday I would tell her everything but now wasn't the right time.

Beth led the way into the house as she prepared to go home. On her way through the kitchen she passed by my dad who kissed her, grabbing her ass briefly and giving it a squeeze. "Now don't be a stranger Beth," he said to her softly, "I may want you again some time."

Beth smiled at him and headed for the front door. Just as she got into the entryway, my mother came down the stairs and stood next to her. I could see from the look on Beth's face that she wasn't sure what to say or do. After all, she had just fucked my mom's husband and she hadn't seen her watching and giving her approval.

My mom took her hand and gave her a hug. "Don't worry Beth," she assured her, "My husband doesn't fuck anyone without my permission. I just hope you enjoyed him as much as I enjoyed watching the two of you."

Beth's eyes widened a bit and then she smiled, looking visibly relieved. My mom kissed her briefly on the mouth and Beth went down the stairs to her car a big smile on her face.

Later that night the three of us were watching TV in the family room when my mom turned to my dad and asked, "Well John, so how did it feel to fuck another girl?"

My dad grinned and sat up in his chair to answer, "Oh god Mary, it was simply incredible. Kelly's friend is quite a little dynamo. Hell, you watched the whole thing so you saw how good she was!"

My mom got out of her chair and walked over to my dad. Dropping her robe, she revealed she was wearing nothing underneath as she stood naked next to him. She may have been 38 but she still had the body of a girl ten years younger.

"So tell me John, does this body still turn you on now after fucking three teenagers in the past three days?"

My dad gave her a wicked grin and glanced over at me as well. "Damn Mary, you know the answer to that one. Just in case though, get that sexy body over here and let me show you."

My mom and dad fucked in the family room while I watched them and some TV. They rarely fucked in front of me like that and I think in a way they were assuring me that even though he had done something that I never would have dreamed he would by screwing Beth, nothing had changed between them. I was left wondering what this meant for the future? Was this a one-time thing or now that a forbidden line had been crossed was there no going back.

Hmmmmmm, lots to think about!

(Nov 29) Chapter 67: Thanksgiving Vacation Diary

Story codes: MF Mf FF F-solo oral inc father daughter uncle niece
Me (19)
  John - my dad (40)
  Kristen - cousin (17)
  Beth - BFF (19)

This year I was looking forward to the Thanksgiving break more than I ever had in the past. Now that it is over I can't believe it really happened. Everything I dreamed of came true plus more. I plan to write more detailed stories about some of the experiences I had but for now here is a quick overview. All I can say is that it certainly wasn't a boring holiday!

1. Tuesday 11/23/04

My parents picked me up after my last class and I had a pleasant surprise - my seventeen year-old cousin Kristen was with them. We chatted and gossiped while my dad weaved through the country roads leading away from school. Once we got on the expressway she and I got more serious, playing with each other under the watchful eyes of my parents.

My dad was paying more attention to the rear-view mirror and its view of the back seat than he was the road! After several near- misses my mom made him stop at a rest area so he could join us. Dad didn't disagree for a second and as soon as we parked at the fare end of the rest area he jumped in the back seat with us. We had some quality father-daughter time right there while Kristen and mom looked on and played with themselves.

When we finally got home we dropped Kristen off at her house where I imagine her mother was anxiously waiting to hear about the trip home. I was sure that the two of them had a great night after that! After unpacking we were all exhausted so we went straight to bed and I ended up sleeping with my parents for the first time in ages. With my parents' warm naked bodies pressing on each side of me, I felt incredibly secure and loved as we cuddled and fell asleep in each other's arms.

2. Wednesday 11/24/04

My dad had to go to work but he had not forgotten the morning tradition we had established during the past summer. Basically, each morning he would come to my room where I was sleeping and fuck me before he left for work. Sometimes I just blew him and once in a while he didn't even wake me but just masturbated and came on me, leaving a sticky mess on me to remind me when I woke up of what he had done. Regardless of the outcome, it was a great way to start the day for both of us and I missed it terribly when I was at school.

This morning though was a little bit different as I was already in bed with him. When I woke up I immediately recognized the wonderful sensation of his hard cock buried deep inside of my wet pussy. I smiled as I wondered how long he had been fondling me even before he started fucking me. The thought of his large hands running all over my unconscious body, exploring me and reaching inside of me made me incredibly horny - as if I wasn't already with his rock hard dick inside of me! I saw my mother was watching, her hand between her lovely legs. Knowing how much she loved seeing her husband fucking their daughter, I had a feeling she had been watching from the start.

I was on my side and my dad had lifted my upper leg over his and was screwing me from behind, giving my mom a great view of his cock slipping in and out of my shaved pussy. My dad came pretty quick, as he usually did in the morning when his goal was to fuck me but still get to work on time! After depositing his load in me, he pulled out and gave me and my mom a kiss goodbye. After he left to shower and wash up my mom moved down to lick his cum that was draining out of my pussy. She and I then spent the rest of the morning in bed together, sharing an intimacy that only a mother and daughter can experience.

We went out for lunch and then spent the rest of the afternoon shopping. While we were out I got a phone call from my aunt inviting me over to their place after supper to spend the night. I could not refuse so I walked over after supper and we spent the evening and night together.

3. Thursday 11/25/04

I don't know if I could have taken another day as intense as Wednesday so perhaps it was good that we spent Thanksgiving at my older uncle's home. My aunt drove us over so I had not seen my parents that day until we got there. My dad was horny for me since we had missed out morning session so I sucked his cock in the upstairs bathroom. I could tell he was really turned-on listening to his family as they went by with no idea that his daughter was taking a load of his cum in her mouth.

When we were done I pulled Kristen aside and told her. She laughed and said I was just teasing her, that we would not take such a chance with all the family around. Well, I kissed her and her eyes widened when she tasted my dad's cum in my mouth. She gave me a wicked smile and I knew she was thinking the rest of the day about how she could get some herself.

My dad was the middle of three brothers, each two years apart. The older brother has two daughters in their twenties (one was just married this past spring). The youngest one has two teenagers - a boy (sixteen) and girl (twelve). My dad is the only one who indulges in incest although both of my uncles certainly qualify as dirty old men! Kristen and I had a great time teasing them and from the way they looked at Kristen and me I would bet that all three brothers share the same supercharged sex drive! I can't help but wonder if our Christmas get-together couldn't be a bit more interesting...

4. Friday 11/26/04

Mmmmmmm, another morning fuck with dad - this time in my bed. Dad woke me by pressing his hard cock against my lips, pushing himself into my mouth. There's nothing quite like waking up with your father's cock in your mouth!

When he was done with me he took a shower so I started chatting with someone who had tried messaging me. After my dad I was so horny, sitting at my computer still sweaty and naked with my pussy leaking dad's cum on the chair. The guy I was chatting with wanted to masturbate on his cam for me and it was exactly what I needed at the moment. I came so hard fingering myself while I watched him. I have several guys who like to do this for me and I am amazed at how big their cocks are.

5. Saturday 11/27/04

I was awakened by sound of moaning and as I pushed aside the morning cobwebs I realized they were coming from Kristen. My dad had evidently come in earlier and decided to fuck her while I slept next to them. I looked next to me and felt Kristen's warm smooth body moving against me. Kristen was on her side with my dad behind her. She had one leg draped over me and her boobs were pressing against me. My dad was fucking her from behind, his cock buried in her tiny pussy. Damn his cock looked so yummy as U watched it moving in and out of her in a slow rhythmic motion. Her pussy was soaking wet and his cock glistened with the wetness of her pussy juices each time he withdrew from her.

Kristen saw that I was awake and smiled at me. "Morning Kelly! You were so tired this morning I was beginning to think your dad was going to cum in me before you woke up sleepy-head!"

Well, he could have Kristen when I was back in school so I laid on my back and spread my legs apart, rubbing my pussy to get it ready. My dad smiled - he knew what I wanted. He apologized to Kristen and got on top of me, sliding his rigid cock in me without even touching it or me. Normally I like it slow at first but Dad was pretty horny and got right into it, banging me hard from the start. It wasn't long before I felt him swelling and he groaned as he pumped me full of cum. Kristen sucked him afterwards a bit and got some for herself.

My best friend Beth picked me up for lunch. Beth was the one who introduced me to the sex parties this past summer. Although we had never been together in a sexual way away from the parties, I still remembered her licking me during the first party when she stepped in to help me to get over my nervousness of being fucked in front of everyone.

While we were out I asked if she was interested in coming back to my house and trying out the hot tub. The weather was lousy but the water still felt good. Things got heated between us for the first time and I found myself telling her about my me and my family. She looked shocked at first and I was concerned I had made a huge mistake but once the concept sunk in she asked a ton of questions and seemed to be really turned on by it. Her parents were older and not the least bit sexy. Beth told me that if she had a dad like mine she would probably have done what I did. She said I was so lucky to have parents like mine. Now that she knew the truth about me and my dad she admitted that the thought of fucking an older man it turned her on much more than she would have ever expected.

My dad had not fucked anyone outside his family since he married my mom twenty years before. Beth was my best friend and if there was anyone I thought my dad should be with for the first time it was her. The question was how to do it?

We were still in the hot tub when my parents got home. Seeing us nude and in each other's arms, they knew what we had been up to. I saw from the bulge that my dad was getting turned on - what man wouldn't be? I invited them in but my mother said the weather was too lousy for her. My dad looked at my mom for a long moment and then agreed to join us. There must have been some sort of non- verbal agreement between my parents because my dad stripped right there and joined us. It was a bit awkward at first but before long we were all over each other.

Beth actually was the one to cross the line by going underwater to suck my dad's cock. He quickly lifted up his hips to get her head out of the water and after that there was no stopping him. First my dad fucked me and then I watched as for the first time my dad fucked a girl from outside our family. I noticed my mom was watching out my second floor bedroom window the whole time so it wasn't like he was cheating on her.

That night my mom and dad fucked in the family room while I watched them and some TV. They rarely fucked in front of me like that and I think in a way they were assuring me that even though he had done something that I never would have dreamed he would by screwing Beth, nothing had changed between them. I was left wondering what this meant for the future? Was this afternoon a one-time fling or now that an invisible line had been crossed was there no going back? I found myself questioning my own rules about not fucking married men. Hmmmmmm, lots to think about.

6. Sunday 11/28/04

My last morning with Dad, damn I am going to miss this when I get back to school. Since he didn't have to go to work we spent more time together than usual making it more intimate. It was nice since I knew this was probably the last time we would be together like this for a few weeks.

As usual, Kristen and my aunt stopped by and we all went to church together. Kristen and both wore skirts just a little bit too short and out tops a bit too tight for church but felt justified since we wore bras and panties. Our moms looked at us together and just shook their heads. Once seated we crossed our legs and I knew everything but my ass was showing. More than a few husbands took a second look as they were seated, more than one getting a nasty look from their wives who then looked at us like we were dirty little sluts - exactly what we hoped for! I wondered how many of those husbands masturbated after church, fantasizing about fucking us in the back pew? Hopefully all of them!

After church we went out to eat and my parents dropped off my aunt and cousin. It was hard saying goodbye but I knew I would be seeing them in a few weeks again. We stopped by at home to pick up my stuff and headed back to school. The three hour trip through PA, WVa and OH was quiet, I think we were all thinking about the events of the past few days and wishing we had more time together. When we got to school I just gave each of my parents a long kiss and waved goodbye. Somehow it just didn't seem to be the right time for anything more.

In all though it was a fantastic holiday - my best Thanksgiving ever. In a few weeks finals would be over and I will be home for over three weeks for Christmas vacation. I can only imagine what that will be like this year!

(Dec 14) Chapter 68: My Cousin Kristi's Boyfriend

Story codes: mF mf FF Ff inc mother daughter
Me (19)
   Brian - Kristen's boyfriend (16)
   Mary - my mom (38)
   Aunt Linda (36)
   Kristen - cousin (17)

When it came to boys, Kristi liked them young and best of all, she didn’t mind sharing them with her older cousin - or her mom for that matter!

1. Kristi and Her Boyfriend

Of all my relatives. I’m closest to my mom’s younger sister and her only daughter, Kristi. My Aunt Linda and mom have been playing together since their early teens and have shared my dad going back to when they both dated him in high school. It was only a few weeks after I started having sex with my parents that Aunt Linda joined in as well. She had gotten a divorce early in her marriage, just a couple of years after Kristi was born. Given how close the two sisters were, she and my now seventeen year-old cousin spent most of their time at our house. It was almost like having a second mom and a sister instead of an aunt and a cousin! Brian was Kristi’s current boyfriend; or should I say, “boy-toy”. In general Kristi seems to have only one use for boys - sex. Even then, she never seems to be able to get enough of it. When I was in high school I got laid by my fair share of boys and I blew more than I can count. Even though the boys knew what a slut I could be, I was for the most part able to maintain a pretty good reputation with the public in general and particularly at church. I always figured that it would help me in the future if people thought of me as being more on the conservative side.

Well, Kristi didn't seem give a hoot that everyone in town knew she was the senior class “girl most likely to get laid”. In fact, she seemed to be quite proud of her well-deserved reputation as a teenage slut. Brian was a junior at her high school.

undid my jeans and she reached down into them, her fingers hunting and then slipping inside my wet pussy.

“Oh god yes mom,” I panted, “I can feel him in me, filling me with his enormous cock!”

My mom was fucking me with her fingers and rubbing my clit with her thumb. Her hand was buried in my jeans which had started to slip down my from my ass.

“That’s it Kelly,” my mom whispered in my ear, licking around it as she did, “I know you want him. Tell me how you want him to fuck you tonight.”

My eyes were still closed as I stood there enjoying the feel of her fingers in me and her kisses on my neck and shoulders. I imagined it was Brian in me instead, that it was his monstrous cock pushing in me instead of her fingers.

I was cumming at that point and my mom knew it. She could feel my pussy clamping down on her fingers, the warm gush of my cum flooding her hand as my orgasm peaked. I was switching between thoughts of fucking Brian and my mother’s hand on me. Both were more than enough by themselves to keep me cumming and together was even better! As the feelings in me slowly ebbed I turned around to face my mom. I reached out and hugged her, as much to keep from falling down as anything else!

My mom licked my cum from her fingers. “Mmmmmmm, damn Kelly, I hope he is as good as your dreams because you certainly came awful fast!”

She ran her tongue between her fingers to get every bit she could. “Oh I love the taste of your sweet pussy!”

I looked into her eyes, she was so beautiful and radiant. “Oh mom, I love you so much!” I finally was able to blurt out, tears of happiness coming to my eyes.

We kissed for the longest time then, holding each other tightly. She kept one hand on my bare ass, squeezing it as our tongues explored. I slipped one hand under her blouse, holding her firm breast in my hand, feeling her hardened nipple between my fingers. She felt so wonderful! When finally separated I pulled my jeans back up and fastened them again.

My mom went to the door, picked up her robe, and then turned around. “Well, have fun tonight Kelly. I want to hear ALL about it tomorrow though!”

I smiled and blew her a kiss. Mom had always loved me to tell her everything I had done when I came home from a date. I remember the night after I lost my

“Yes Kristi!,” my aunt cried out, “That feels soooooo fucking good! Mmmmmmm, kiss my pussy you naughty tramp!”

Kristi let out a loud moan herself and I watched her hips start moving in a swivel motion as she revolved around her mom’s mouth and tongue. She had her entire hand inside my aunt’s pussy, hand fucking her mom for all she was worth! No wonder Aunt Linda was going nuts!

“That’s it - fuck me Kristi!... Suck my clit harder!”

My aunt was cumming now. She cried out with an animal howl but Kristi never stopped sucking and fucking her. By now I couldn't just watch so I opened my jeans and started playing with myself. Between the sight of the them and the touch of my hand it was only minutes before I came. A soft moan escaped from me. I tried to stop it but it was too late. Both Kristi and Aunt Linda looked up and saw me there in the doorway, one hand in my pants and the other reaching under my tank top to caress my sensitive boob. I was in the middle of my orgasm and there was no stopping me now. I just smiled at them and let them think whatever they wanted as I felt the tingling of my orgasm slowly died. I felt my pussy throbbing as I tried to catch my breath and smile at them.

“Hey Kelly,” called out my Aunt Linda, “Guess you caught us getting ready for tonight! Well, from the looks of it you’re pretty horny yourself tonight!”

Now THAT was a possibility, something to keep in mind for the future for sure! I pulled up my pants and arranged my shirt. “Glad to see the two of you are in a hot mood tonight. I have a feeling it should be a lot of fun. Are you staying Aunt Linda?”

“Of course,” she replied with s sexy grin, “I wouldn’t miss this evening for the world!”

Kristi looked at the clock and gasped slightly, “Oh my god, he’s due here any second!”

I motioned for them to stay in bed. “Why don't the two of you just pick up where you left off and let me greet Brian?”

Kristi and her mom looked at each other and then both grinned. They were so horny now it didn't take much to get them going again and sure enough, they were back at it again, sucking and feeling each other. I smiled and went down the stairs just as the doorbell rang. I hurried down, knowing it could only be one person!.

4. I Get Brian First

Sure enough, Brian was at the door. He looked at me with a bit of an inquisitive eye and asked me if Kristi was home.

“Hmmm, you must be Brian,” I said as if I didn’t already know. “Come on in, Kristi’s a little busy right now but she said for you to make yourself comfortable in the living room.”

Brian came in, wearing a tight pair of jeans and flannel shirt. On any other guy it would have been an unremarkable outfit but for some reason it looked sexy as hell on him with his muscled arms and great looks. The jeans were tight enough to show he had a hell of a tight bum on him! He wasn’t that tall, maybe 5-9 or so, but he was solid as a rock. Best of all, I couldn't help but notice he had a really nice bulge in his jeans. Hmmmmmm, unless he was stuffing it with a sock, there was a lot of potential down there!

Brian gave me the once over, not trying at all to hide the fact that he was imagining what I looked like without my clothes! I wasn’t exactly dressed to kill but my jeans were snug enough to show off my ass nicely and the blouse I was wearing was tight enough that there was no mystery as to whether or not I was wearing a bra underneath (which of course I wasn't).

Brian stepped inside in and started towards the living room. On the way he passed by the stairs leading to the bedrooms. I saw him glance up and then he paused for a second. Just at that moment we both heard something from upstairs, a sharp cry that lasted just a second. Brian looked at me, obviously assuming I knew what was going on up there.

Looked at Brian, I gave him a sly smile as I glanced upstairs and asked, “Hmmmmmm, now THAT sounded interesting. Want to see what’s going on up there?”

Brian’s eyes opened a bit wider but I could tell he was more than just a bit interested. He bit his lower lip and seemed unsure how to answer me. Being he’d just met me and had no idea what I was like, I could understand his reluctance to say anything too incriminating. I took his hand and started up the stairs, tugging him along.

I put my finger to my lips and whispered to him, “Now be quiet!”

I moved up the stairs gingerly, still holding his hand. We got to the top landing and the sounds from the bedroom were much easier to hear now. I could clearly hear my aunt now. “Oh Kristi!" she moaned, “Don’t stop... my god that feels so good!”

Looking at Brian it was all I could do to keep from bursting out laughing. His face had that deer in the headlights look. I had to remind myself that he was only sixteen and I doubt he had ever witnessed a mother and her daughter having sex together before. I winked at him and whispered in his ear.

“Go on Brian... take a peek. Have you ever seen a mother and daughter doing it before?”

Brian licked his lips which were suddenly parched. He just shook his head and peeked around the door with me. Despite his best efforts to be “cool”, I could just hear him take a quick intake of air when he saw what was happening on the bed. My Aunt Linda was laying on her back, her head propped up by the pillows at the head of the bed. Her bare legs were spread wide and she was holding one of her boobs in each hand as she moaned with pleasure. The source of her intense pleasure was her daughter, laying on her side between her legs, with her cute blonde head buried in her mom’s crotch.

My aunt kept a substantial bush of hair on her pussy which she trimmed just enough to be decent in her bikini. Kristi’s face was covered with it as her tongue lapped up her mother’s cum. Kristi also had one hand between her own legs, rubbing herself as she licked her mom’s cunt. The whole scene was extremely erotic! Kristi is very petite and looks several years younger than her seventeen years so seeing her with her 36 year-old mom was unbelievably hot.

I think Brian would have stayed the rest of the night to watch them if I’d let him. Well, I had other plans for him so I tugged on his shirt to pull him away from the doorway. I motioned with my hand to follow me and we crept back down the stairs to the living room. Brian sat at the end of the couch and I joined him, sitting as close to him as I could with my legs tucked under me.

Brian still had this look of wonder and amazement. What was even more interesting was the bulge in his pants was now threatening to burst the seams from his zipper! Watching his girlfriend having sex with his mother was evidently something that turned him on as much as it did me. He took a deep breath and let it out slowly before turning to me.

“So tell me Kelly, how long have they been they were doing that?” he asked. “Kristi has never mentioned a word to me about incest with her mother!”

“Oh? And just what do you mean by getting warmed up?” He tried to act surprised but I knew he had already been thinking about it.

Keeping my hand on his crotch, I used my other to put his hand on my boob. “Is this enough of a hint for you?”

Well, Brian was not wall flower and he was about as horny as a sixteen year old boy can stand being. His hand squeezed my boob and he turned to kiss me. It wasn’t the most sensual kiss I ever had. Face it, he was still a sixteen year-old teenage boy who most likely saw kissing as being nice but still just a requirement to get in a girl’s pants. We traded tongues and he pushed me onto my back on the couch. He immediately started to unbutton my blouse and in seconds was fondling my bare boobs. God my nipples were hard and sensitive! He moved down to start kissing and sucking my breasts, pulling on my nipples

I had my arms free so I put my hands on the back of his head and pulled him tightly to my bosom. As he sucked them his hand quickly moved to my crotch where he cupped me in his string hand and pressed his fingers against my pussy. My clit was already swollen and the feel of his fingers pressing against it made me gasp aloud. I whispered to him in a voice husky with desire.

I knew that if there was one thing that could turn on a boy it was to have a girl beg him to fuck her. Brian was no exception. He unbuttoned my jeans and unzipped them. They were really tight and he was having a hard time getting them off of me so I reached down and helped him to slide them off of me. I still had my blouse on but it was completely unbuttoned putting my small boobs in plain view for him.

As I laid on the couch with nothing on but my open blouse, Brian stood up and rapidly took of his clothes, dumping them in a pile by the couch. He wore jockey underwear - no wonder his cock was so bound up! As he pulled them off his hard cock flopped free at last and I stared at his extraordinary cock. It was huge! I could only imagine how jealous the guys in the locker room where when he showered. Best of all it was thick. I am not hung up about cock length but give me a fat one any day! I practically drooled at the thought of it fucking me.

Brian was nude now and he moved over to my where head was turned to look at him. He held his hard cock in his hand, slowly stroking it for me, teasing me as he held it by my face. “Suck me!” he commanded, “Let me fuck you mouth!”

I reached out and grabbed it, my hand barely fitting around it. I ran my tongue around the enormous head, running under the ledge where his hard shaft joined.

Brian groaned as I ran the tip of my tongue down the full length of his shaft. He must have been at least ten inches long! I did this several times, wetting his hard cock with my tongue. I took just the head into my mouth, sucking on it like a popsicle, running my tongue across it inside of my mouth.

Brian groaned louder, grabbing my head and pushing me into him. I would take a little bit more of him in and then pulling back until just the head remained in my mouth. Each time I would go just a fraction farther, each time taking more of that fat cock in my mouth.

Until then I'd never had a cock yet that I couldn't take all the way thanks to a lot of practice with my dad. Calling upon all my skill and experience, I was able to overcome the gag reflex now and let his cock slip down my throat. Brian groaned and I was reminded of my dad saying he loved it when I took him down my throat because it was like fucking a pussy as my throat gripped his cock.

Although I felt confident, I couldn't help but wonder just a little bit how I was ever going to take Brian all the way in! I worked at it slowly, taking a little bit more each time. I began to feel his cock at the back of my throat. It was so thick though I wasn't sure I could swallow it.

For a moment I thought I was going to gag again but then I felt it slip in and I knew I had it then. Brian pushed hard on my head, forcing himself into me further until all of him was in my mouth and throat. My face was buried in his crotch and I could smell the musk odor of him thick and strong now. I began to stoke him, fucking him with my mouth, allowing him to slip from my mouth and then letting him drive into my mouth like a hot pussy. Brian was in heaven!

"Oh my god Kelly!" he cried out, "This is amazing! Nobody's ever been able to take me all the way in before. You're fucking incredible!"

He was thrusting himself hard into my face now, pushing his cock into my mouth as far as he could each time. Faster and faster he went as I felt him suddenly swell and I knew he was about to cum.

"Damn I'm cumming already!" he exclaimed, "Take my cum in your mouth you little whore!"

To avoid choking I let most of him out of my mouth so just the head and part of his shaft was inside. My hands were on his tight ass and I could feel his strong muscles contract as he began to shoot his hot cum into my waiting mouth. He must have had one hell of a load waiting because it seemed it would never stop. I couldn't swallow it fast enough with his cock filling most of my mouth so it began to drip from the corners of my mouth and down my chin, then falling to form pools of cum on the couch.

As he finished releasing himself into me he stopped his thrusts into me and just held my head against him, pushing his cock back into my throat, I held him there as long as I could before finally I had to breath so I took my mouth off of him and stroked him with my hand. It was covered in a gooey mixture of my spit and his cum and my hand slid up and down his still hard shaft like it was greased.

I looked up at him and smiled. As I did I could feel his cum still dripping from my chin so I used the head of his cock lick a squeegee to scoop it into my mouth. I noticed that as I stroked him some cum was still emerging from his cock which I licked off slowly and deliberately, letting him see the cum first on my tongue and then I would close my mouth and swallow it, savoring the flavor and texture.

Despite cumming as hard as he did, Brian was still hard as a rock, ready to go again! I lifted my upper leg to show him a good view of my bare pussy while I continued to stroke him.

Brian grinned at me, grabbed me by the hips and spun me so I was sitting on the couch. He wrapped his arms around my legs and lifted me up until my pussy was up against his engorged cock. I reached up and spread my pussy lips apart with one hand while I guided his big cock to my waiting pussy hole. He pushed forward and it was like he was splitting me in two! I watched as his huge head disappeared into me.

God it was incredible! He kept pressing forward and inch by inch my pussy swallowed him, eagerly accepting him inside. I felt like I was being stuffed! I had never been filled so completely, never had a cock move so deep into me as he was then. I was in sexual heaven when his crotch was finally tight up against mine. Looking at us it amazed to me to know that all that meat was in me now, filling my pussy.

Brian was fucking me hard now, lifting me up off the couch to pull my pussy to him as he stood there thrusting himself into me over and over again. He was like a sex machine! After a while he pulled out of me and put my legs down. I looked at him, wondering what he was going to do to me next.

I was only too happy to do what he said. I was ready to do just about anything to get his cock back in me again! I was still on the couch and I turned over and leaned on the back of the couch. Brian pushed my legs apart, spreading my pussy apart. I lifted my ass up to give him an eyeful. Then he took his hands and grabbed my ass, spreading me even further apart as he moved forward, allowing his thick cock to press up against my gaping pussy. I pushed backwards, trying to get him into me.

"Mmmmmmm, so the little slut wants my cock, eh?" He teased me.

I couldn't stand it, I wanted him in me soooooo badly I was ready to scream. Somehow I kept my voice to reasonable level as I begged him to fuck me.

"Fuck me Brian! Damn I want your cock in me. Oh god Brian, please fuck me!"

I could feel the pressure as he began to push it into me.

"Here you go you fucking nympho," he said as I could feel his head in me and then more and more of his shaft, "I'm really going to fuck you now, fuck you like you've never been fucked before!"

Suddenly he gave a tremendous thrust and simply rammed every inch of his huge cock into me. I thought I would explode! I gasped as he pulled it out completely and then slammed forward, nailing my open pussy dead on with his cock and ramming in me to the hilt as hard as he could. Each time I was slammed into the couch as he pushed himself against my ass as hard as he could, driving his swollen cock somehow even deeper into me each time.

I'd never been ravaged this way, never had my pussy been fucked so hard! I felt an intense wave of raw pleasure explode inside of me and consume me like a ball of fire. My god was I having an intense orgasm! I felt myself gushing cum all over his damn cock as it violated me over and over again. I thought for a moment I would faint from the intensity of it, barely able to breathe. A huge moan escaped from me as I lifted my head back and closed my eyes, focusing on the feelings that were coursing up and down my body like waves of pure sex.

"That's it," he encouraged me, "Cum for me, keep cumming!"

I was happy to oblige! It seemed my orgasm was never going to end but eventually it dies down to a tolerable level. I was panting, trying to catch my breath. Brian was still fucking me from behind, faster and fast as he was getting to cum himself. He started to pull out but I reached back and grabbed him, holding him in me.

“No Brian, cum inside of me this time. I want to feel you explode deep inside of me!”

I felt his cock swelling and realized he was about to cum so I let go of it, hoping he would do as I asked. Well, I wasn't to be disappointed. As soon as I released him Brian slammed it back into me, pushing it in me. Just as he had penetrated me completely, I felt him jerk and suddenly a bloom of heat swelled inside of me as he pumped another load of cum. I could feel his cock swelling up in me each time before he let another burst of cum loose in me. I came again as he finished, not nearly as hard this time but still leaving me with goose bumps and a tingling sensation.

Both of us were breathing hard at this point, too hard to even say anything. Brian held my ass and stayed in me afterwards, letting me feel him throbbing inside of me. I have no idea how long we would have stayed that way, coupled together while feeling the aftershocks of our orgasms. I never will know the answer to that as all of a sudden I heard a squeal of delight. We both looked over and there was Kristi and her mom, both still nude, standing at the entrance to the room! They each had a huge grin on their face and Kristi was literally hopping up and down with excitement.

I laid back and she pulled my jeans off. She kneeled on the floor and I laid there with my legs handing off the edge of the bed, spreading them as I offered myself to my mom. I was still more than just a bit sensitive after the great fucking Brian had given me so when her tongue touched me I jumped and moaned. Damn my mom knew exactly how to lick me! I mean, I love the why my dad licks me but when it comes right down to it, nobody had ever come even close to making me feel the way my mom can when it comes to eating my pussy.

My mom looked up for just a moment, telling me, “Oh yes, I love your cunt when it’s dirty from sex. Mmmmmmm, I can still taste his cum on you.”

I was cumming again in minutes, consumed with the flood of emotions created by my mom’s incredible tongue on me. I cried out as she wiggled her long tongue inside of me, driving me even deeper into my orgasm. I lifted my head and looked down at her. My mom was beautiful and seeing her head between my legs, her mouth and nose pressed tightly against my bare pussy, was so erotic. She finally lifted up and moved onto my bead so she could kiss me. Tasting myself on her mouth was such a turn-on for me! I loved the taste of my pussy anyway and combined with the sweet kisses of my mom, I was in heaven.

It had been an incredible evening. I laid back in bed exhausted. My mom laid next to me, running her fingers up and down me, playing with my hair at times, and teasing my pussy with a light brush of her fingers.

I closed my eyes and relaxed, falling asleep feeling secure in my mother’s arms, knowing I was loved as much as any daughter could be loved by her mom.

(Dec 17) Chapter 69: My Best Friend Beth and My Dad Do It Again

Story codes: MF Ff oral anal
Me (19)
John - my dad (40)
Beth - BFF (19)
Kristen - my cousin (17)

I was shocked when my dad fucked my best friend. Beth was the only girl outside our family that he'd even done since marrying my mom over twenty years ago! Well, I guess if once was OK then why not a second time?

1. My Dad and Beth - A Brief Recap

It was Christmas Break and I was home from college during my sophomore year. I was nineteen and studying to be a teacher but for the next few weeks school was the last thing on my mind.

During the past summer break my best friend Beth convinced me to join her at some "special" parties, parties which had only one purpose - sex. I love new experiences and willing to try most anything once so by the time the summer was over I'd gone to a total of four of these "sex parties". Each one had a different theme and I was left with memories I can guarantee that I'll never forget! For instance, to my surprise I learned at the outset of the first one that I had to be "initiated" meaning I had to let that evening's host fuck me in front of everyone else. By the time the night was over I eventually fucked three to four guys in one-on-one situations.

Not only was the sex good, but I also learned something about myself in the process - I absolutely LOVE having people watch me having sex! Still, anonymous sex with strangers isn't all it's cracked up to be in my opinion. It's sort of nice to go home and at least know the name of the guy whose dick you'd just let cum in you. So after the third one I was ready to call it quits but Beth talked me into one last one just before I headed back to school.

At the fourth party I decided I would do something I had never done before - gang-bang a dozen guys! Words cannot describe how incredibly turned-on I was seeing them lining up knowing that they were ALL going to have sex with me before it was over! The way it worked was one guy would fuck me until he was ready to cum and then he would quickly rip off his condom so I would suck him until he came in my mouth while the next in line started fucking me. It definitely qualified as an "experience" and while I don't regret doing it, once was enough! Beth continue to be a regular at these parties after and she was always telling me about her latest escapades whenever I called her from school.

Speaking of my best friend... over Thanksgiving break Beth and I had had our very first true lesbian experience together. We'd been best friends for most of our lives and each of us shared most aspects of our sexual histories (the only thing I never told her was my incestual relationships with my family). Even with all this somehow we just never went the next step in our relationship.

As great as it was to finally have Beth as a sex partner, what REALLY turned me on was what happened afterwards. My parents came home and found us together in the hot tub. Then to my total and complete surprise my dad asked my mom if he could join us! In short, he ended up fucking Beth with me watching while my mom observed from my second floor bedroom window.

Having my dad fuck a girl he wasn't related to, at least through marriage, was a totally new experience for not just me, but my parents as well. My parents both preached the sins of adultery to me as I grew up and they took it quite seriously. Since they were married neither of them had sex with anyone other than me, my aunt or her sister. My dad had it easier in that he at least had other women but my mom hadn't hardly been with another man for over twenty years! I knew there had been a few times early on with my dad's younger brother but that never seemed to happen anymore that I could remember at least. Indeed, my mom has told me a number of times that she can't wait until I get married so she can fuck my husband!

As I mentioned, both of my parents subscribe totally to the concept that sex outside a family is adultery and thus a sin - period. Even if it's "OK" with the other spouse they taught me that it was a sin. Having heard that all my life, I was worried that my dad had done the one thing my parents had stressed was the worst sin a person could commit against their spouse.

However, when I discussed it later with my mom she told me that since Beth had been my best friend for so long, she considered her a virtual daughter which is why she felt it was OK for my dad to have sex with her. While that made me feel better, the only downside was that I wanted him to fuck me along with her but THAT would violate a cardinal rule that we never revealed our family sex life to ANYONE, not even my closest friend.

2. Putting My Plan in Motion

After I returned home for Christmas vacation, Beth pleaded with me to go to another sex party with her. Although the summer ones had been fun, it just wasn't a scene that I was anxious to get involved in. Then one day she made me an offer I couldn't refuse. At the previous parties we couldn't take my cousin Kristen because she was only seventeen even though that is the consent age. Apparently my performance at the last party had been enough such that Beth was able to convince them to let Kristen join in just so she could persuade me to come back again. Well, Beth certainly knew my weaknesses! I mean, how could I refuse to go when my favorite cousin would be there?

The night of the party finally came. My mom was at the hospital taking care of some sort of scheduling problem and my dad was downstairs in the family room watching TV. Friday night was Sci-Fi channel night for him so I knew he would be glued to the TV all evening. It was almost like watching Pavlov's dog when Amanda Tapping came on the screen and his hand instantly went to his dick that would shoot up at the first sight of her. Heck, just the quick shot in the opening credits was enough to get him started.

Kristen and I were upstairs in my bedroom getting ready when we heard Beth arrive in her car. I went down to meet her down at the door. She was certainly dressed for the occasion! A tight black skirt seemed to be glued to her thighs. The material was so thin it was blatantly obvious there were no panties hiding underneath. The skirt was barely long enough to cover her ample ass and there was no way she could bend over or even sit without displaying most everything. On top she had a sheer white cotton belly shirt that revealed her pierced belly button and like the skirt, was molded to her torso which outlined her large breasts as the material strained to stretch around them. A pair of high black heels finished the ensemble. She stood there in the hallway looking like the sluttiest whore I'd ever seen and I wanted to jump her right then and there!

"Damn Beth, that is the hottest outfit I've ever seen you wear!" I exclaimed.

Beth smiled at me seductively. "Thanks Kelly. Hmmm, either you're plan on going in nothing but a towel or you're not ready yet!"

Indeed, all I had was a small towel wrapped around me as Kristen and I had just finished taking a shower. What I didn't tell Beth was that I had deliberately not gotten ready in time as I had other plans before we left for the party.

"Hey Beth, remember last Thanksgiving and the time we had with my dad in the hot tub?"

Beth rolled her eyes saying, "Oh my god Kelly, how could I ever forget? Every time I drive by or see your dad I can think of nothing else. That was an incredible night! I never knew your dad was such a good lover! I still can't believe you and your mom watched though; now THAT was what mad it crazy."

I just smiled, dying to tell her that I certainly knew all about what she was talking about. After all, she may have fucked him once but he'd done me well over a hundred times over the past few years (I gave up counting long ago!) I bit my tongue though and didn't say anything. My hope was that someday my parents would bring Beth into our family circle but I knew the odds were stacked heavily against it. Oh well, my plan for tonight was almost as good...

I giggled a bit and said, "You know Beth, my dad is downstairs all alone watching TV in nothing but his boxer shorts. Why don't you go down there and show him your outfit? Do you think you can turn him on enough to make him do you again?"

Beth gave me an exasperated look. "Give me a break Kelly! I tell you what, why don't you watch and I'll show you how it's done girl!"

I told her to hold on for a second and I ran upstairs to get Kristen. She was still in her towel as well, doing her hair as I explained to her what was about to happen.

Needless to say she was all for the idea of watching Beth seduce my dad so the two of us went back down to where Beth was already rubbing her breasts softly, getting herself worked up over the thought of my dad waiting downstairs and what she had planned for him.

3. Beth "Seduces" My Dad

The three of us went down to the basement where my dad was kicked back in his favorite LazyBoy chair. He looked at us and I could tell he as wondering what was going on with Beth dressed like a street hooker and Kristen and I wore nothing but bath towels.

"What's going on girls?" he asked. Then he took a long gaze at Beth and said, "Holy cow Beth, planning on earning some spending money tonight on the streets?"

We all laughed and I explained to my dad about the party later that evening and how the three of us would be going. He knew all about my previous parties (all about them) and he raised his eyebrows a bit when he heard Kristen was going. I think that it was more out of surprise than anything since he knew that she had not been invited to the earlier ones. I mean, it's not like the little tramp was a virgin or anything!

"Ok, so you're heading out to a wild party tonight," he said. "So what's the story now?"

Beth answered by moving up alongside his chair and stroking his hair. "I have been thinking about our time in the hot tub Mr. Wells. Frankly, I have been dying for another fucking by you ever since!" Then Beth glanced over at me and Kristen and said to my dad, "An audience always makes it better so I brought one down with me. You don't mind, do you?"

For once I knew my dad had been caught off-guard. Fucking Beth with my mom watching was one thing, but to do it again without her knowing first was clearly causing a conflict for him. Sensing his hesitation, Beth raised the ante by lifting her skirt up a bit. Sure enough - no panties. She put one knee up on the chair arm and started to rub between her legs. Damn she was hot!

"C'mon Mr. Wells. Your wife was fine with you fucking me last time so she won't mind it again." She licked her lips slowly and looked down at his crotch. My dad was wearing his typical evening wear, just some old boxer shorts, and even Kristen and I could see that it was obvious from the tent that was forming that he was getting really turned on!

"Oh the hell with it," he finally blurted out, "Get your sexy cunt over here and sit on my cock!"

My dad pulled his boxer shorts off and his rigid cock was ready for action. I felt myself flush as I dreamed of having it for me. Kristen was also watching intently and I could feel her hand on my thigh, working its way upward. My pussy tingled with anticipation and I jumped just a bit when her hand reached its destination. Kristen just rubbed me slowly as we watched Beth doing her thing. She hiked her skirt up until her ass and pussy were completely out in the open and then climbed in the chair while it was still laid back. Straddling my dad, she rocked her hips to rub her pussy against his hard cock. As she did, she peeled her top upwards and over her boobs, leaving it on in a bunch above them. So now even though she still had all of her clothes on, she was as good as naked for my dad - nice outfit!

My dad put his hands on her hips and lifted her upwards. "Enough teasing you little whore, I want to fuck that wet pussy."

Beth reached down and held his cock against her pussy hole. She lowered herself down on him, forcing his cock to violate her pussy and worm its way inside of her. I heard her gasp as she took him in and then a load moan as she reached his crotch and sat on him, his cock fully penetrating her cunt. My dad was enjoying it just as much.

"God you are so wet and tight!" he moaned, "I love watching my cock disappear into you, filling your hot pussy. Oh damn Beth, fuck my cock!"

I watched as Beth started to bounce on his cock, raising herself up and then just dropping down on him. I could hear her sweet ass slapping down on his lap each time. Sometimes she would rise up and tease his cock, letting just the head remain inside and swiveling her hips around it. She had one hand playing with her clit and the other on her breast.

Speaking of clits, Kristen had focused on mine and was doing a fantastic job of touching mine in just the right way, driving me into ecstasy and then slowing down to let me regain my composure just long enough to enjoy the thrill of the next time she brought me almost to an orgasm. Each time I got a little closer until finally I came, squeezing down on the finger she had in me and gushing over it. I put my own hand down to keep myself going so she licked my cum off of her fingers. For a few minutes I even forgot about Beth and my dad as I arched my back and leaned my head back to enjoy the tremendous waves of sheer pleasure running through me. I looked at Kristen sucking on her fingers and grinning at me. Mmmmmmm, I had to have her!

I pulled Kristen down to the floor and got on top of her in a 69, lowering my pussy to her mouth. As we licked each other I kept a close watch on what Beth was doing to my dad. She was pounding his cock now and her hand was moving wildly on her pussy as I saw her enjoying her first orgasm of the night. Beth was a moaner when she came and she was so loud I thought the neighbors might even hear her! My dad was humping under her, driving his cock into her whenever she dropped down on him. After she came he said something to her and though I couldn't make out what it was it wasn't long before I found out. She dismounted and the two of them climbed out of his chair and moved to the floor next to where Kristen and I were enjoying each other.

4. My Dad Fucks Beth in the Ass

Beth got down on her hands and knees next to Kristen and my dad came in behind her. Beth's ass was right next to my head and I got to have great view of my dad lining up his swollen cock with her asshole. Wow! I had never seen my dad do anything anal before, probably because neither my mom or I were into it. Apparently dear old dad was though and now he finally had a girl who was willing to take him in her asshole. His cock was still wet from her pussy and my dad reached into her pussy to get more wetness to lubricate her asshole. He smeared her all over her asshole and grabbed his cock to guide it into her.

It was hard to concentrate with Kristen sucking my cunt but I watched his fat head press against her clean little asshole. He was pushing pretty hard now and using his hands to spread her ass cheeks wide apart. He asshole resisted and then finally his cock broke through and his fat head slipped into her tight asshole. Beth groaned loudly and pushed back against him. My dad kept pushing and with each surge was able to force his way in a little further until finally his pubic hair was ticking her ass and then he was completely in her.

I was still licking Kristen's pussy and sucking on her clit until it was her turn to cum. I felt her hips rising against my face and suddenly a gush of cum came and wet my face. Mmmmmmm she tasted so damn good! I loved the smell of her bare pussy too. It wasn't as strong as my mom's or her mother's and had a sweet aftertaste that I enjoyed afterwards. She was also shaved whereas my mom and aunt just trimmed theirs enough to look decent in their bikinis (which they both looked GREAT in). I found the same with hairy guys in that they always seemed to have stronger crotch odor than people who shaved. Not that I minded it as sometimes I found that especially with guys I loved the strong smell of a horny crotch after a workout. Kristen's pussy matched her perfectly - tender and sweet.

My dad was fucking Beth's asshole harder now and it looked so tight around his cock! Personally I'd never had anything up my asshole except my own finger. I tried it first once when I was taking a bath and then again in the shower, each time being well lubricated. At first I didn't care for it, it seemed like I was taking a dump when I brought my finger out of me. Gradually though I grew accustomed to it and started to relax enough to enjoy it. Since then I have often fingered my asshole when I masturbate but nobody else has ever had penetrated that barrier. From the way Beth was obviously enjoying it, maybe I needed to give that some more consideration!

My dad was stroking faster and faster and together with the hard look of concentration on his face he I knew from plenty of past experience he was about to cum and I was wondering what he would do when he did. Would he cum in her ass or pull out and spray his hot cum all aver her? Well, I found out a few seconds later as my dad shoved his hips forward extra hard, driving his cock even deep into her as he pulled her hips into him.

"Oh shit I'm cumming!" he cried out. "Feel it in your ass? God you're such a fucking whore!"

Damn, he was indeed cumming in her asshole! I had to take my mouth from Kristen long enough to watch as my dad convulsed and pumped his sperm deep into her ass. Beth was obviously feeling it filling her as well.

"Oh Mr. Wells, cum in my ass!" she cried out, "Oh god I can feel it in me! Keep pumping it in me - more damn it!"

My dad could usually produce a pretty good load, especially if he hadn't fucked anyone that day yet, so I knew he was filling her up pretty good since we had not fucked since early in the morning. Finally his payload was delivered but he held himself still inside of her for a while. Then he pulled out of her and almost immediately a flow of cum started to drain from her ass.

Then I got my biggest surprise - my dad leaned over and started to lick his cum from her asshole! My god, I had never seen he do anything like that before! In fact, I had never seen him eat his own cum ever before let alone lick it out of a girl's asshole. Beth squirmed and the feel of him licking her asshole was the final straw to initiate another orgasm for her. My dad shoved two fingers not her pussy as she started to cum and stroked her like he was fucking her.

Beth did her moaning thing again - how the neighbors didn't hear was beyond me. This one seemed to be more intense than her first and my dad kept licking her asshole while he finger fucked her pussy. Kristen and I got up and sat next to each other on the floor, holding each other and kissing. I loved to kiss her when she was covered in my pussy juices and I know she felt the same about mine. My dad finished cleaning up Beth's asshole and sat back, a huge grin on his face. Bath turned around and stood up, straightening her outfit.

Well Kelly," my dad said turning to me, "What do you think?

I laughed out loud. "Damn dad, I never knew you liked assholes so much! That was incredibly hot! Does mom know about your fetish"?

"I use to do a lot of anal with other girls before I married your mom," he said in reply. "I knew neither of the two sisters liked it so ever since the wedding I have kept that desire TO myself." Then he looked over at Beth, straightening out her top and skirt. "Hmmm, looks like Beth goes for it though." Beth gave him a sheepish smile and he shook his head at her saying, "Don't even try to tell me that I was your first. That asshole has been fucked before!"

Beth just gave him a devilish grin and then looked at the clock in the family room. "Shit! You two better get ready, The party starts in an hour!"

5. Final Moments

Kristen and I gathered out robes and hustled upstairs to finish dressing. Beth stayed down with my dad and eventually came up to my room about fifteen minutes later when we were about ready to go. I asked her what she had been doing and she just gave me a devilish grin and shook her head. Well, I guess I will just have to use my imagination for now and see if I can sweet talk my dad into telling me another time. All I know is that she was licking her lips a lot!

We finally left to go to the party. Beth was driving and I noticed her skirt was so short she was actually sitting bare ass on the seat! It was going to be interesting when she got out because I was willing to bet some of my dad's cum was still seeping out of her! I thought again about my dad fucking her and my pussy was still tingling as I replayed the scene in my mind. It was going to be interesting to see what my mom had to say about our little escapade tonight! I hope she liked it because I wanted to have Beth over again sometime. All I have to do now is convince my parents to let me tell her about our little family secret so I can get fucked too!

(Dec 18) Chapter 70: Party Time with Best Friend Beth and Cousin Kristen

Story codes: MF Mf FF Ff group oral exhib inc uncle niece

Me (19)
John - my dad (40)
Beth - BFF (19)
Kristen - cousin (17)

My best friend had taken me to a number of parties before but this was the first time my slut of a cousin would be coming with us... or should I say "cumming" with us?

1. A Little Background

It was the Christmas season and I was home from college for my sophomore year Winter Break. I was nineteen and studying to be a teacher but for the next few weeks it was time to take a break from the books and just relax.

During the past summer break my best friend Beth convinced me to join her at some "special" parties, parties which had only one real purpose - sex. While I love new experiences and am willing to try most anything at least once, these were most definitely something like I'd never done before.

By the time the summer was over I'd gone to a total of four of these parties. Each one had a different theme and I ended the summer with memories I guarantee will never be forgotten! For example, to my complete and utter surprise I learned at the outset of the first one that I had to be "initiated". This was just an thinly disguised excuse for the host for that evening to get first dibs when it came to fucking the new girl. What made it interesting was he did it in front of everyone else!

At the first three parties by the time the night was over I eventually fucked three to four guys in one-on-one situations. In the process I learned something about myself that I may have suspected but was certainly now confirmed - I absolutely get off having people watch me having sex!

Yes, I was definitely making it to this party!

2. My Dad Fucks Kristen Before the Party

Party night eventually arrived and Kristen was at my house waiting for Beth to pick us up. She was certainly dressed for the occasion - a skin tight strapless black dress than looked like it had been spray-painted on her. It was so short her ass showed when she sat down and crossed her legs and the top barely covered her small boobs causing her to constantly have to tug up on it to keep it from falling down and letting her boobs spill out. There was no way she could be wearing anything underneath it.

The two of us were sitting downstairs in the family room watching TV when my dad came in from the garage. He was just getting home from work with his suit jacket over his arm and carrying his briefcase, bulging as usual with work to do that evening. My dad may make a lot of money compared to most guys but he certainly worked hard for it!

"Hey girls, going out tonight?" he greeted us.

Well duh! Seeing how we were dressed THAT was pretty obvious. Like I said, Kristen was in her oversized tube top while I was wearing jeans and a sheer white cami. I didn't think it mattered much what I wore since it probably wouldn't be on for long so unlike Kristen I went for comfort over slutty.

"Like my dress Uncle John?" Kristen asked demurely, standing up and turning around for him to see. She didn't bother pulling it back down so it BARELY covered her ass, showing off her bare legs nicely.

"Ohhhhhh, so THAT's what you call it," my dad laughed, "Well, it certainly doesn't leave much to the imagination, that's for sure. So what's the occasion?"

I explained to him where we were going and he just shook his head at us. Well, he WAS my dad and I guess all fathers can be a bit protective of their daughters. "Kelly, I thought you weren't going to those anymore. Didn't you do like ten guys last time?"

"Twelve," I corrected him, grinning proudly.

"Ten, twelve, whatever," he mumbled. I smiled at his response - was my dad a little jealous? I wondered how he would feel later tonight sitting home alone knowing his daughter was out fucking her brains out while he was left home alone to watch porn movies and jack off until my mom returned from her shift at the hospital.

"Dang it Kristen, what are you doing?" I lamented, "You know we're late. Besides, Beth is right upstairs. What if she decides to come down here and sees you two going at it?"

Kristen wasn't in any condition to answer coherently as she was panting and moaning like the super slut she was. My dad turned and raised his eyebrows while he shrugged his shoulders as if to say it wasn't his "fault". I also noticed he didn't miss a beat either.

"You know Kristen, in the next few hours you can have all the cock you can handle, couldn't you have waited just a few more minutes?"

"Now don't blame her Kelly," my dad replied for her, "It was my fault, I asked her. You know I can't resist her cute little ass."

Well, it figured that my dad was the instigator although I was just as sure that Kristen hadn't put up any resistance. She was the type that lived for the moment so in her sex-warped mind if a hard cock was available NOW, why wait for another one later?

"Well, can you at least hurry it up. We're late and it's Kristen's FIRST party."

My dad had that expression he gets when the light bulb goes on over his head. From my experiences he knew what the first night for someone meant - even if Kristen didn't. Even so I knew full well that once he got started fucking you that there was no saying stop until he came. Now that he was fucking Kristen it would've been useless to even say another word until he came so I just sat down on the couch to watch the show.

Watching them fuck, I was struck by the notion that in a way all my dad was doing was masturbating except that instead of his hand he was using Kristen's tight pussy. He was rushing so much that it had become just a classic slam, bam, thank you ma'am fucking where all he cared about was getting off. Well, I guess it was better than jerking off alone.

My dad was soon stroking hard and fast, his breath labored and a loud groan escaping now and then as he continued to fuck my little cousin. Kristen wasn't saying a word, just staying bent over the wash machine as she let her uncle do whatever he wanted to her. It may not have been the most "sensitive" fucking she'd ever gotten but then again it WAS a hard dick inside of her and that was NEVER bad.

"Oh yeah, I love your tight little pussy," my dad groaned as he rammed his crotch into her little ass especially hard, driving her hard into the washing machine.

The he pulled out of her and stroked his dick a few times before shooting cum all over her bare ass.

"Geeze dad, did you really have to make such a mess?" I chastised him as I quickly grabbed a towel from the laundry my mom had done earlier in the day. I wiped his cum from Kristen's ass before it got all over anything else. Looking at my dad's dick I saw it was already starting to dwindle down.

"Well, I hope you feel better now," I sighed pretending to be upset with him.

"What do you think?" he teased me, "I'd say the evidence is pretty clear."

Kristen pulled her dress down just over her butt and gave my uncle one of her classic naughty looks. She looked so incredibly young and innocent, it was hard to imagine that he had really just fucked her! It was harder still to imagine she was even old enough to have sex, let alone be seventeen and already the most sought-after slut in school.

"Come on girl, we HAVE to get going. Beth must be wondering what's going on down here," I said, grabbing her hand and pulling her towards the stairs. I looked back at my dad who was pulling up his underwear and pants.

"And as for YOU, I'll tell you all about it when I get home and if you're good, maybe more."

My dad just grinned and blew a kiss as the three of us headed up the stairs. He knew it didn't matter if he was good or not, when it came to me what he wanted is what he got. How could I ever say NO to him anyway? As fast as it may have been, he still should be happy for a little while until he built up another load so by the time got home.

3. Kristen's Initiation

Back upstairs I opened the basement door to find Beth about to come down the stairs. Whew, THAT was close! She was discreet enough not to ask why it had taken me so long and I didn't volunteer anything so we just headed out the front door together. The three of us piled into Beth's car, me and Beth in front with Kristen in the back. Beth tore off in the direction of the party, flaunting the speed limit looking to make up for lost time. She glanced at Kristen in the rear view mirror and grinned.

"Hey girl, you ready to get fucked GOOD tonight?"

It was all I could do to keep from snickering. I wondered what Beth Would've said if she knew Kristen's pussy was already dripping with cum - and from her uncle's dick at that!

"Ohhhhhh, I think I can handle it," Kristen answered, somehow managing to keep a straight face. God, she was SUCH a filthy slut! True, I may have had a reputation of my own when I was in high school but the key difference between us was that she was open about hers to the point you could say she flaunted it. I guess since she wasn't worried about getting a job at the school later there was no reason to try and put on a front for the public's benefit. It certainly made her popular with the boys although the wives at church and many a girl at school would have likely been happy to get rid of her when they saw how their husbands and boyfriends looked at her. I wondered if they realized that all their demonstrations of disgust and envy just encouraged her to flirt and tease all the more?

When we finally arrived all of the other participants were already there. It was huge stone house with a gigantic living room and formal dining room not to mention a monster-sized kitchen. Because it was against the "rules" to sneak off by yourself with anyone to a bedroom, I knew all the action was going to be in these rooms so I looked around to get the lay of the land.

While I knew some of the people didn't care for the "no privacy" thing, personally I liked the rule. First of all I simply felt safer having sex with a stranger when other people were around. I also learned early on at my first party that I get incredibly turned on when I have an audience. Finally, it's just fun watching other people to see what they do and perhaps discover some new ideas to try for myself later on.

One other thing I liked and that was that while there was some beer and wine available, hard liquor was generally avoided and even those who did drink alcohol tended to minimize their consumption. As always I stuck to my Diet Coke. The refrigerator was full of various flavors but that was all I usually drank so long as it was available.

Beth introduced Kristen to Bill, the host of tonight's little get together. Bill gave Kristen a hug and a kiss on the cheek and welcomed her. He always took the time to take in a good long look at her, lingering on her tight little ass that was barely concealed. Kristen smiled but I knew she had no idea why the rest of us around her were smiling as well. We all knew something Kristen didn't, at least not yet. Let's just

It was interesting to watch as I'd never seen Kristen in action before with anyone other than my father. With him she was always the teenage niece and he was her uncle and no matter how carried away they got that relationship was always there. Like he did occasionally with me, there were times my dad would get so hot and horny that his lust for her would overcome him to where he fucked her more like a whore than his niece but even then she was submissive to him, still treating him like her uncle regardless of his attitude.

The little girl I was watching now was someone entirely different though. As she sucked him to a full erection and then fucked him in numerous positions right there in front of everyone, it was like she didn't seem to even notice all the people watching. I was seeing a sensual side to my cousin I'd never witnessed before. Damn! No wonder every guy in school wanted to fuck her (and a lot of them had).

When Bill's cock was deep inside of Kristen she looked absolutely radiant, thrusting her hips into him, wrapping her smooth legs around him. She twisted her hips, grinding into him and whatever else it took to have as much of him in her as she could possibly get. Even when switching positions she tried to keep him in her, swiveling around on him or letting him pick her up (she only weighs about ninety pounds or so). Everyone was watching intently as well, fascinating at the sight of this teenager who didn't look a day over fifteen.

To be honest I was a bit jealous for a number of reasons. When I had my initiation I was tentative at first, not really sure if I wanted to be watched by a bunch of strangers while having sex with yet another stranger. As it turned out, I eventually got into it but I'd never put on a show quite the way Kristen was now. In addition, I'd never seen this side of her before nor had she ever really spoken directly of it. Sure I knew she fucked a LOT of guys, and from what I heard she had quite the reputation at school, but this was still a bit of a surprise for me.

Bill eventually couldn't hold back any longer and when he came Kristen swallowed every drop. When he was finished they both stood up, out of breath and sweaty from their exertions. Kristen came over to me, licking her lips a bit to get the last bit of his cum off of them.

"Well cousin, how did I do?" she asked, grinning but then she gave me a stern look and added, "Oh and thanks for warning about the initiation! So, any more little surprises for me tonight?"

Beth and I both laughed. I explained that all the girls here had been through the same thing and that at least from now on she would get the fun of watching any new girls dealing with the situation. I got this feeling she wouldn't have minded being "initiated" every night!

4. Threesome With Beth & Kristen

With the initiation ceremony over it was now time for everyone else to pair up (or more) and have some fun. Beth and Kristen (who never bothered to get dressed again) merged into the crowd leaving me alone on the couch, or so I thought. Suddenly a huge cock was hanging in my face. I looked up and an awesomely handsome guy was standing naked in front of me, all eight inches of his dick dangling in my face. Damn, I couldn't hardly remember the last time I'd been treated to such a beast!

Despite his extraordinary dick size I wasn't going to act like some frigid college girl so I immediately took him in my mouth and started to blow him since that was obviously what he was expecting. I suppose that this was why these parties appealed to me. Here I was minding my own business and then suddenly without warning I'm sucking the cock of some guy I'd never met and so far hadn't even spoken a word to. The odds were that when we were done doing whatever it was we would end up doing that I still wouldn't know his name and it was highly likely that we still Wouldn't have exchanged a single word. There was just something about this type of sex that made me shiver. He eventually fucked me but despite his size it was nothing to write home about. I enjoyed it of course - I can't think of any time I have NOT enjoyed a dick in me. The only reason it gave me any thrill was the way it was just raw sex - no emotions, no ties, just sex for its own sake pure and simple.

After that I walked around and spent most of the night just watching other people. As the night went on I was reminded as to why I hadn't wanted to come to another of these parties. Yes, I LOVE sex but there was something missing here. After being fucked once anonymously doing another guy would have had the same emotional impact as me masturbating. Essentially that was what I was doing here except instead of using my imagination I was using someone else's body to get off. Several guys approached me but I politely turned them all down. It was then that I knew for sure that this was the last party like this I would ever attend.

As the evening got longer I had a great idea of how I could bring this chapter of my sexual life to a wonderful close. Why not wrap up things with a threesome, in particular Beth, Kristen and I? I found Beth watching a couple guys on the couch going a 69, not exactly my cup of tea but hey, if they like it then more power to them. I grabbed her and pulled her over to the side.

"Where's Kristen?"

Beth shook her head so I explained what I wanted to do. Beth's eyes lit up like Christmas lights and the two of us started to look around for Kristen. It wasn't long before I found her in the kitchen. Surprise, surprise, she was going it at still.

Kristen was bent over sucking one guy sitting on the kitchen table while another guy was fucking her pussy from behind. Well, she certainly looked to be enjoying the party! Beth was soon beside me and the two of us watched my cousin at work. She was only half the size (and age it looked) of either the guys she was with but there was no doubt who was running the show. Kristen was giving what looked to be a great blowjob while at the same time was bucking her ass against the guy fucking her.

Neither Beth or I wanted to disturb her so we grabbed something to drink and sat in a couple of chairs to watch (along with about half of the rest of the party crowd it seemed). Finally both guys came, one in her mouth and the other all over her tiny little ass. After making a show of swallowing it all down she looked around and saw Beth and me for the first time. She still had cum dripping from her face but she grinned like a pig in mud. Waving goodbye to her last conquests, she walked over to us, wiping the cum on her chin on her finger and then licking it off. She looked like the sluttiest little seventeen year-old in the world!

"Damn Kristen," I teased her, "I would say it looks like you're having a hell of a good time tonight!"

Kristen gave us both a hug. "I can't believe this! I think those were the last two."

I looked at her with wide eyes. I'd heard her yet I couldn't believe what I was hearing!

"Oh come on Kristen," I chided her, "There's no way you fucked all the guys already! We've only been here a couple of hours!"

Kristen just grinned, some cum was still on her teeth and gums. "Well, check it out. You'll see this isn't a single guy here who hasn't fucked me tonight! Don't waste your time though, I guarantee it!

"Well little cousin, then I guess there's only one thing left to do."

She looked at me with narrowing eyes as if I was going off the deep end.

"Time for Beth and me to have you for ourselves," I said seductively.

Kristen was suddenly smiling again. "Wow, that sounds great Kelly! Where?"

Hmmm, THAT was a good question. People were everywhere and it seemed that they were fucking everywhere as well. Then I looked at the kitchen table again. It looked like some Amish furniture, the type you can do darn near anything to and it doesn't flinch. I pointed to it for Beth and Kristen and they immediately understood. The three of us climbed aboard the table. The three of us were already nude so we went right at it, starting with a three-way pussy-licking. As Beth had never been with Kristen, her head was between Kristen's thighs. I was licking Beth's cunt while Kristen was ministering to mine.

All three of us had been fucking guys to one extent or another all night so I was sure all of us tasted like Beth did to me - a mixture of pussy cum and sperm and the musky smell of sweat and sex. I had only had tasted Beth once before so I was enjoying the opportunity to suck on the clit of my best friend. Kristen was doing a great job on me and it wasn't long before I felt that familiar glow that I always did before I orgasmed. Sure enough, her tongue traced around my clit one more time and I came hard, tensing up and arching my back while trying to still lick Beth. God I loved this moment, the moment when my body became a fountain of pleasure!

After a while we traded around so now I had Beth between my legs and I was licking a more familiar pussy. While we switched I noticed we had gained an audience. Several guys and girls were taking ringside seats to watch the three of us. I really wasn't paying much attention to them when suddenly I felt something that changed our plans. Someone was trying to fuck me!

5. Threesome Becomes an Orgy

I turned my head around and there was some guy trying to push his cock into my pussy from behind. My ass was near the edge of the table and he was built pretty well so he was able to reach my pussy since I had my legs spread to make it easier for Beth. I turned my head back to Kristen and damn if another guy wasn't moving in to fuck her. His cock was already starting to disappear into her when I felt my guy's cock moving into me. If Beth was worried about being left out, she didn't have to because a third guy was moving in on her as well. Our little three-some has changed into the three of us being fucked on the table top.

Kristen and I already had cocks in us so we shifted ourselves until we were side-by-side. Beth motioned for the guy taking aim on her crotch to move to the other side of the table and next thing I knew I was laying there in the center with Beth on one side of me and Kristen on the other. All three of us had a guy fucking us I could feel their naked bodies pressed against mine, moving back and forth as their guy was fucking them. I had never fucked the guy who was pumping me at the moment and I had to admit he wasn't doing a bad job. He felt very thick and even after all the fucking I had already done that night he was still stretching me out to fit in.

Now if every party went like this I might feel differently about them. When else does a girl get a chance to be fucked with her best friend and favorite cousin laying at her sides, the two of them being drilled at the same time? About the only thing that could have made it more special would have been if my dad could see me now. Knowing my dad, it would have been fun for him to watch although I can't imagine trying to explain to the group why he wanted to watch his daughter being screwed by some strange guys.

This wasn't the first party for the guys, either, and they eagerly took advantage of the situation, trading off between the three of us every now and then. At first it was all missionary but then the three of us stood side by side and leaned over the table in unison, exposing our well fucked pussies to everyone as the guys took us from behind.

It was Beth who came up with the idea. Looking back over her shoulder at the three guys, she grinned and nodded her head towards Kristen, who was now in the center position.

"Hey guys, what do you say you all cum on her?"

I hate to admit this but my first reaction was sort of "WHAT?" I mean, I wanted my guy to cum in me and who was she was to volunteer me giving THAT up? But my jealousy passed quickly when I saw the joy on Kristen's face and the look of happiness when I nodded my approval as well.

"Go for it girl," I encouraged her.

The guy fucking Kristen pulled out long enough for her to twist around after which he grabbed her by the waist and lifted her up to sit on the table. She had her feet on the table with her legs spread open like some whore as he resumed fucking her bare pussy until finally he was ready.

"Where of you want it?" he asked her.

Now had he asked ME, the answer was simple. Why bother fucking me if you're not going to cum in me? Kristen didn't have a reputation for being a cum slut for nothing, though.

"All over my boobs!" she answered between pants.

It was just in time as he wasn't holding back any longer. He pulled his dick out of her and with only two strokes he as shooting a great load of sperm all over her boobs and belly. The cum even pooled in her belly button. A little had made it onto each of her little boobs and was already starting to drip down towards her belly.

My pussy suddenly felt empty as the guy who was fucking me was obviously determined to have her next. Sure enough, he practically pushed the first guy aside in his eagerness to fuck Kristen again. She certainly didn't seem to mind, now THAT was for sure. I just stayed where I was, fingering myself a little as I felt torn between the empty feeling in my pussy and the erotic image next to me as I watched my little cousin getting ready for the next load of cum.

It wasn't a long wait as he repeated the performance of the first guy, adding his spray to the that of the first. Kristen just stayed motionless, leaning back on her hands as she waited for the next guy. Beth moaned as her guy pulled out and I felt sorry for her as I knew how empty she must be feeling at that moment. She moved over to me and we put an arm around each other as we stood up and watched my cousin getting her third load of cum. This guy had a little more pressure built up as his first couple of loads made it to her face and hair. Kristen didn't even flinch!

With three loads of cum on her Kristen was beaming like a bride on her wedding day. God that girl loved cum all over her! Personally, it was just a sticky mess so far as I was concerned but she really seemed to get off from it. She sat up which caused it to run down her body but she caught it with her hands and started to spread it all over her like some sort of body lotion. Within a few minutes she had a complete coating of cum all over her from her waist to her forehead. Even her ears had cum on them! Everyone watched in fascination at the show she was putting on for us.

6. Wrapping Things Up For the Night

Eventually the crowd dispersed and I noticed a couple people getting dressed while some of the diehards went back at it in the living room. No doubt a few of them would be doing this all night but that wasn't my thing. Beth was one of those that probably stayed the night when I wasn't there but she knew how I felt about it and as my best friend she respected my feelings and never pushed me to stay.

"I take it that you're ready to go?" she asked me.

I looked at her and smiled gently. "Sorry... do you mind?"

Beth just shook her head and then she looked at me saying, "You know, for someone who loves sex as much as you do I've never figured out why you always want to leave so early."

What could I say? It was complicated and I'm not even sure I can explain it completely. There's just something impersonal about sex in these type of situations that turns me off. Once I get some of the horniness out of my system it just doesn't turn me on to stay around and fuck a few more guys. I know they don't care anything about me except to fuck me. Some people might question what the difference is between that and me going out with some stranger for dinner and sex.

Well, even in those situations at least I feel a little connection to the guy even if it IS for only one night. It's not like he picks me up, fucks me in the car, and then drops me back home again without saying a word. Parties are about like that.

As I got dressed, Beth informed Kristen of the news. She looked disappointed and for a moment I debated seeing if she could stay and go home with someone else. I'd promised her mom I would watch out for her and without being there so I couldn't very well uphold that promise and so I ditched the idea. She could come another time as I'm sure they wouldn't mind now that they had gotten to know her.

Kristen grabbed her dress and pulled it up and over her cum-covered torso. I couldn't believe she wasn't even washing it off!

"Uh Kristen, they DO have a shower here you know," I gentled prodded her.

Kristen just grinned, that glow still all over her face. "I know," she said in sing-song voice, "I wanted my mom to see. I don't think she would believe me otherwise."

Well, I'd been come ON and IN by a lot of guys but I'd never gone home with it still on me to show off to my mom! At least not intentionally. I was really close to my mother but Kristen and her mom had something special between them. My mom and I have discussed it and personally, I think it's a result of growing up without a husband and father. It's like they have to share everything together, even boyfriends. This was the first time, though, that I knew her to bring home a coating of cum to show off to her mother like some school kid bringing home a paper with a star on it from the teacher.

Beth was a bit shocked as well, probably even more so given the fact she wasn't as close to her parents as Kristen and I were. "God, if I ever went home looking and smelling like THAT..." she whispered almost more to herself, her voice trailing off as even the very thought of it was more than she could imagine.

Kristen seemed quite proud of herself as we said out goodbyes and headed home. Beth dropped Kristen off and as we watched her head up the steps into her house, Beth shook her head in amazement. "Now THAT is what I call one hell of a slut!"

I laughed at her tone of voice and answered, "Hey, I always thought I was the one you thought was the slut. And oh by the way, what about YOU?"

"Well Kelly, I hate to be the one to tell you this, but your cousin puts us BOTH to shame!"

We both laughed and for the rest of the short trip to my house, we commented on my cousin's sexual appetite and complete lack of morals. It wasn't like we were talking behind her back, she would've certainly agreed with us, I'm sure.

Pulling up to my house, I looked at Beth and from the look on her face, I knew she wasn't finished for the night. "Heading back, aren't you?"

Beth smiled and shrugged saying, "Well, you know how it is."

Indeed I did! What Beth didn't know was that my night wasn't over yet either. After all, I had promised my dad something when I got home and I knew he would be holding me to my word. I kissed her goodnight and headed for the front door, my pussy tingling as I wondered what was waiting for me inside. I couldn't wait to tell me dad about Kristen's little show. My only concern was he might try to do his own reenactment.

Oh well, isn't that what a good daughter does - make her daddy happy. If so I was going to be a VERY good daughter tonight!

Finally I opened my eyes and looked at the clock - 6:00 AM. Well, that was late enough for me so I jumped out of bed, threw on a robe and went straight to my parent's room. They were under the covers so I pulled them off and felt a bit of a thrill run through me as I saw them both naked in bed, my mom laying against my dad with one leg and arm draped over him. She was holding his cock in her hand as she often did at night when they slept, sort of like a security blanket I guess you could say.

They stirred for a moment but didn't wake up so I carefully got in the bed with them and gently moved my mom's hand from his cock. Leaning over, I took him in my mouth and started to softly suck him. It didn't take long for him to respond and I could feel his warm cock getting thicker and longer in my mouth. I love feeling when a man's cock is in my mouth and getting excited thanks to the attention I was giving to it. Barely three minutes or so after I started he was rock hard, quivering in my mouth. I looked up and saw my mom was awake now, silently watching as her daughter sucked her husband's growing cock. She smiled at me and pulled herself closer to my dad so her boobs were pressed tighter against him.

With my dad's cock fully erect I could no longer easily take him all in my mouth in the awkward position I was in so I got on my knees to the side of him which let me take him straight into my mouth. I slowly went down on him again until I felt his cock head pressing against the back of my throat. I relaxed my throat and dropped my head down on him more, pushing him further into my mouth. For a brief moment I felt my gag reflex kick in but I forced myself to ignore it and just let his cock press further inward.

I felt the head of his cock entering my throat, filling it completely. Just a little bit more and then my face was pressing against his crotch, my lips wrapped around the base of his cock with his pubic hair on my face, I heard a groan as I rotated my head slowly around his throbbing cock.

I needed some air so I raised my head to let his cock slide from my mouth. As I did I turned my head and I saw his eyes were open and he was watching me with a huge smile on his face.

Well John," my mother whispered to him, "it looks like our girl is trying to tell you something. Merry Christmas!"

A big grin came to my face as I ran my tongue around the head of his cock. As much as I wanted to get downstairs, I wasn't ready to let him go quite yet. I took the bottom half in my hand and started stroking him while I worked on his head. I love cock heads especially. The skin is always so warm and soft plus the ridge around it feels good under my tongue and lips. Running my tongue around it and playing with the little slit at the end is incredibly erotic for me.

I kept stroking him with my hand as I played with his head even more. Then I moved my hand to his balls, gently caressing them and playing with them as I took his cock back into my mouth again. I worked on taking more of him into my mouth with each stroke until once again I reached that point where he filled my mouth.

"Take it all Kelly," I heard my mother saying, "Take your father's cock in ALL the way."

With that she leaned upward and they kissed but I knew their eyes were glued on me. My mom had admitted to me privately in the past that I was a better cocksucker than she was although she would never say that in front of anyone else. It's not like most of my relatives don't already know that I'm the only one in the family that can take my dad's whole cock in my mouth.

I knew he loved it when I did so once again I let him slide down my throat. As I reached the base of his dick I could smell his strong odor. His pubic hair brushed against my cheeks, felling coarse and wiry. My nose was pressed to his crotch and the smell was overpowering, a sensual mixture of musky sex and morning sweat. His cock was even harder than before, if that was possible, and I loved the feel of him sliding down my throat. I held him that way as long as I could until finally I needed to breath. As I slowly let him out of my mouth I felt him shudder and heard him moan with pleasure.

My mom was running her hands over his chest, playing with his chest hairs. They were kissing as they both watched me working his wonderful cock. I knew he was getting into it as his hips began to gently thrust in time with my strokes on him. I felt his hand on my head and his fingers ran through my hair. Well, my dad knew by now what really turned me on and playing with my hair was one of those things at the top of my list! I was already turned on of course but I could feel the wetness inside of me growing as my lust for my dad grew inside of me. God I loved to suck his cock!

Normally I would not have been able to pass up fucking him but it was Christmas morning after all and I had a feeling it wouldn't be all that long anyway before he was fucking his daughter if past experience was to be trusted. For now I would be happy just to taste his cum so I started to work even harder on him. His Sure enough, in back of her recliner was a box, and not a very big one at that! I brought it out and sat down on the floor in front of them. The wrapper was quickly removed and I opened it up with anticipation growing, especially between my legs! There wasn't much in there but what I saw was soooooo cool! I lifted out a black silk bra and matching panties, so sheer as to be virtually invisible. The material felt so incredibly soft and smooth and it was so light that it was like I wasn't holding anything at all. Mmmmmmm, even though I normally hated bras and panties, I loved these!

Also in the box were a pair of sexy spiked heels. They must have been almost four inches tall and had just a thin ankle strap to hold them on. Then a thought occurred to me, what did he want me to do with them? Well, it was like he was reading my mind.

"I know you love me calling you a slut but we both know it's just for fun," my dad said. "Well, here's your chance to really be one. Go get dressed and come on back and give your dear old dad a lap dance we'll all never forget!"

3. A Lap Dance For My Dad

I just giggled and ran into the bathroom with my new present. It took only a few seconds to drop my robe and put on the bra and panties. I looked in the mirror and couldn't believe how good they made me look! I had a pale black ghost of a bra over my already hard nipples which were clearly visible through the material. The silk brushed against them as I bent over to pull up the panties and a shiver ran through me as my nipples poked even further out. I put on the heels and had to balance myself for a second - I hardly ever wore heels this tall. From inside the bathroom I could hear a CD my mom had started with some sexy music for me to dance to when I showed off my new present to my dad.

I opened the bathroom door and there was my mom with the video camera out as well as our new digital camera. Well, I was going to make sure it was worth watching later! My dad was still sitting in the center of the couch. He was still wearing his robe but it was obvious his cock was ready again for me! I stepped out of the bathroom and stood there, my hands on my hips and a sexy smile on my face as I faced them.

"WOW!" my dad exclaimed, "Damn you look incredible!" I have to admit that like it when my dad looks at me with such lust in his heart, seeing me as more than just his daughter but also as an object to be desired and used. Right at that moment it was even more than that. I slowly walked you to him, hands to my sides and my hips moving to the music. Actually, with those heels I wasn't going anywhere fast!

When I got in front of him I put one foot up on the couch next to his thigh, giving him a good view of my hungry pussy, barely hidden by the transparent panties. My mom was circling around the couch with the camera, catching everything as I put my hand between my legs and slowly rubbed myself through the thin panties. My dad's eyes were fixed on my crotch as I moved my hand up and down my pussy. I saw his tongue licking his lips several times as he stared at my hand that was between my legs.

I slipped my hand inside my panties and rubbed my finger inside my pussy slit. Damn I was so wet!!! I took my hand out and raised my wet fingers to my mouth, my pussy juices glistening off of them in the soft light. I licked them and smiled as I enjoyed the flavor of myself. I moved closer to him and straddled his legs. I reached out with my hand to him and beckoned.

"Well sir," I said as if a dancer in a club, "Would you like a lap dance? It's free but I expect a tip at the end if you like it."

My dad just smiled and reach out his hand to take mine. I used his hand to support me and I stepped up onto the couch. He put his hands on the backs of my thighs and helped to steady me. Standing like that my crotch was at eye level and he was certainly taking in an eyeful. I was getting into the rhythm of the music and moved slowly and seductively to the melody. I pushed my hips out and used the wall behind the couch to steady myself as I actually rubbed his face with my panties. I was already wet and I knew he could smell my pussy and know how excited I was. He grabbed at my panties with his teeth and held onto the material, pulling it to one side and exposing my bare pussy. I reached down and held them over, letting him lick me as I ground my pussy into his face. Mmmmmmm it felt good!

I closed my eyes and just swayed to the music, swiveling my hips against his face and enjoying his tongue on me. My dad was blessed with a long tongue and he damn well knew how to use it. Mom always told me how much she loved to be eaten by him ever since she and her sister were teenagers doing it in her bedroom. She has always claimed that he is the only guy who can eat her pussy as well as a girl and I can say that so far in my experience she is right!

Most guys just don't have the patience or even apparently the knowledge to know how to properly eat a pussy but somewhere along the way my dad figured it out and I was just happy to be one of the beneficiaries. My clit was going nuts as he first teased and then assaulted it with his mouth and tongue. It didn't take long before I was heading off into the stratosphere with my first orgasm.

"Oh daddy!" I moaned, "that feels soooooo good! Make me cum daddy, do me good."

My mom had the camera trained on me now as I shoved my soaking wet pussy into his face, rubbing it so his nose was hitting my clit and his tongue was fucking my pussy. Damn it felt incredible to cum this way! I thought about how hot it was going to be to watch this later using the DVD player on our wide screen TV! Admittedly I was playing to the camera a bit but when I have an orgasm, it doesn't take any acting on my part to show how damn good it makes me feel.

Orgasms are like drugs to me - I think if I could love in a continuous state of orgasm I would be truly happy. Even when I have sex I still feed the desire, no make the NEED to masturbate every day at least once or twice. Can you actually be addicted to sex? That's the best way I can describe it for me when I feel the need to bring myself to an orgasm.

When I was able to concentrate again I teased my dad the way a slutty lap dancer would, at least the way I thought one would since I had never actually been in a strip club. I kept my bra on and rubbed my boobs against his face through the transparent material. I played with myself as I moved slowly to the music, shoving a finger up my pussy and then licking the juices off of it in front of him. I massaged my boobs through my bra. The material was so thin it felt almost like it wasn't there.

My nipples were so hard and sensitive I could barely touch them without squirming. I never tired of playing with my breasts. Since I was a little girl and they first started to bud I was fascinated by them. Feeling and seeing them grow as I got older, I loved the way the boys would look at them, trying not to stare but I knew. I would lay in bed or even when driving the car and just run my hands and fingers over them, tracing light circles around my nipples and around the fullness of my boobs. I never cared much for them being treated roughly though. Soft and gentle was the key to satisfying my breasts!

At some point while I was dancing for my dad, he'd slipped his cock our from his robe and started stroking it. Now if a guy wants to turn me on, there is one sure fire way - masturbate for me. So many guys are hung up about letting a girl watch them. Hell, they do it every day so why not let me watch? The key for me is not that they are masturbating, but rather WHY they are masturbating. I can watch porn hairy body. Who would want to be intimate with a mom that no longer takes care of her body, looks like hell and probably hasn't douched her pussy in years? My parents have always taken care of themselves and as a result, I find them as sexy as most of the younger people I've had sex with over the years.

I sat on one side of my dad, my mom on the other and we both had one hand on his cock like it was a baseball bat. They kissed and I took that cue to be the first to suck his rock-hard dick so I laid out on the couch and began to slowly suck him. My mom played with my hair as I licked him and sucked him, running my tongue along his shaft and holding the head inside my mouth as I tickled him with my tongue.

When I'm determined, there aren't many men I can't get to cum in five minutes or less! However, since I LOVE sucking cock, normally I try to take my time rather than rushing to make him cum. I love to feel a man harden in my mouth as I excite him and get him horny. Then I love to lick it, stroke it in and out of my mouth, taste the salty precum and then the gooey cum, smell the musky odor of a male crotch. Mmmmmmm, all of these are what make sucking cock one of my favorite hobbies. Learning to deep-throat took some work and determination but my dad didn't mind my "practice" sessions and since then I've only had one cock that I wasn't able to take all the way in and it was huge!

In this case I certainly didn't want my dad to cum yet so I worked on his cock such that he enjoyed it but when he would start getting to the edge I would back off and let him calm down before going at it again. My mom eventually came down to get her share of him so we switched places and she sucked him while I kissed my dad. I enjoyed kissing him but it was my mom that I really got into. Kissing my mom was like I imagine kissing a lover would be, sensual and emotional, fully committed to each other.

Since it was MY Christmas present that started this all, I figured it wasn't unreasonable of me to expect to be fucked first. My mom's mouth eventually grew tired sucking him and when she backed away I stood in front of my dad waiting to be fucked. My dad took the cue and scooted up on the couch until I could sit down on him, facing away from him with my ass there for him to enjoy. Keeping one eye on my mom, I lowered myself down carefully. His cock was wet from my mother's mouth plus my pussy was practically dripping from the whole experience up until now so he slid easily into me. My mom had already gotten the video camera out so she

5. My Dad Fucks My Mom But Cums in Me

Finally mom put down the camera and came over to us. "My turn oh dearest daughter," she said with a bit of a laugh. "Don't you think it's time I got to fuck my own husband? Now quit being so selfish and let me have his cock!"

Reluctantly I stood up and felt that sudden empty feeling I got whenever his cock came out of my pussy. My pussy practically cried out for him, begging to have him back but my mom wasted no time in jumping him. Instead of standing and facing away as I had, she straddled him on the couch and let him suck her boobs as he fucked her. My mom had fantastic breast, I never quite understand what happened to the gene pool when it came to me! They were still a firm 38C with almost no sag at all. Her nipples were much larger than mine but just as sensitive. After over 25 years of having them, my dad still loved to play with them and suck them.

I picked up the camera and shot some video. I don't have much of them together since it so rare that we do a 3some so I was looking to make a memory. I knew my cousin Kristen would love to see this as well! Naturally I couldn't leave my pussy alone for very long so I played with myself as my mom had when she was in my position at the end of the couch. It wasn't long before both my mom and I were getting off, each of us cumming together and moaning to one another.

My dad was starting to look ready to cum and I was feeling selfish this morning so I did something I hardly ever did, I asked for him to cum in me instead of my mom. I was on my hands and knees on the couch with my ass waving suggestively at them both when my mom rolled her eyes at my dad and got off of him.

My dad quickly got on the coach and came up behind me as my mother sat on the couch arm ahead of me with her legs spread wide open. Well, I knew what she wanted! I put my head to her pussy and immediately I was able to smell the mixture of her wet pussy and my father's musky crotch. Even better was the taste of her wet pussy as I licked her and tasted her pussy. In the meantime my father was lining up for another shot at my cunt. I felt the head against me and he lunged forward, driving himself deep inside of me with one fluid motion. He was ready to cum and I knew it would be only a few strokes before the main event occurred. Sure enough, less than a minute later he was gasping as he was starting to cum.

(Feb 05) Chapter 72: My First Bachelor Party

Story codes: MMF F-solo orgy exhib adultery
Me (19)

When you're nineteen and horny, sometimes you do things that later seem crazy. Such was the case with me during my second semester as a college sophomore. Fortunately, it all turned out well in the end. Actually, I don't know who had the better time, me or the groom. What's even crazier is I got paid for doing what I would've gladly done for free!

1. Horny at School

During the first semester of my sophomore year in college I was playing it pretty much by the stringent rules imposed by my Christian-based university. Students (and faculty) were required to abstain from personal misconduct, including sexual promiscuity, as well as refrain from engaging in "inappropriate" forms of entertainment including pornography and other forms of "promiscuous" behavior. The rationale was it built character and promoted unity, peace, and the general lifestyles of the community.

While I didn't HAVE to follow the Lifestyle Guidelines, as they were euphemistically named, it was made equally clear that I also didn't HAVE to attend this particular school. I didn't complain about the rules as I knew full well what they were when I chose the school. It's just now and then I would get a bit "frustrated" living by them, to put it mildly. As anyone who knows me will testify, when I get frustrated I tend to do things that I might never even consider otherwise - not one of my better personality traits.

To understand my frustration, realize that I lost my virginity when I was only fourteen and in the years leading to this time I'd had one-on-on sex with over a dozen guys and several women, including my parents, an aunt and a younger cousin (a girl). Actually, my sexual "headcount" was well over fifty guys if you included the ones who did me at parties but I don't view those the same as the guys I was more personal with. Heck, I never even knew the names of most of the party guys! Of course, none of those numbers include blowjobs as I gave up long ago trying to keep count of them. What would be the point anyone? It's not like a blowjob is sex, at least not technically or morally.

Oh, and in case you're wondering how I know all these numbers... I keep a detailed diary!

Given my innate love of sex, people ask me why I chose such a restrictive school with all its rigid rules which seemed to contradict my lifestyle to that point. All I can say is that as strong as the cravings are within me to sex, my personal convictions as a practicing Christian are even stronger. While I understand that there are self-righteous people who disagree with me, I don't see any conflict whatsoever between my attitudes toward sex and my Christian beliefs. God gave me a sexual nature and so long as I use his gift in a responsible manner then I should rejoice in it and use it just as everyone should do with their own particular gifts.

One last word on the subject... Believe it or not and contrary to popular opinion, there is more to college than wild parties and sex. When I was looking at schools I knew that I wanted one that would provide me with a quality education that would prepare me for the teaching career I've always dreamed of since I was a little girl. Why waste four years of your life (not to mention the cost) just to hang a piece of paper on the wall and have nothing else to show for it but some vague memories of wild parties?

In the end I chose a school based on its outstanding teaching curriculum plus it promised to address my spiritual needs in ways which no public school ever could. I DO have to admit that even though I THOUTGHT that I understood that following the rules would be difficult, I really wasn't prepared for the reality when it struck me. In the back of my mind I guess I just assumed that God would provide for my sexual needs one way or another, even if it meant having to masturbate three times a day... or more!

Well, THAT all sounded well and good when I was a naive high school senior trying to choose a college. Once I got there, though, I realized how much more difficult it was going to be to suppress my sexual needs, a LOT harder than what I'd ever anticipated. Thank goodness I was lucky enough to have Brenda as a roomie as I'm not sure I would've made it through my freshman year without her! The odds of getting matched up with a pretty bi girl for a roomie at a Christian university had to be astronomical - which only proves that God DOES provide, for our needs, just as I'd prayed for before then.

Over time I worked things out in terms of dealing with my sexual needs with the end result being what I believed was an acceptable compromise. While at school I tried my best to behave in accordance with the rules, at least publicly (what I did with my roomie when the door was closed was another matter).

Away from school I followed my own convictions and personal sense of morality that were instilled in me by my parents. As an example, take my relationship with my freshman roomie Brenda. She and I bonded from the moment we met and over time forged an intense sexual relationship. We were never "lovers", we just enjoyed each physically and even when we were no longer roomies, we remained good friends and got together now and then for a bit of fun. We ALWAYS kept our "activities" behind our closed dorm door or away from school property which was easy since her parents lived only ten miles away from the campus.

One thing WAS exactly as I'd expected... other than being with Brenda my sexual activities while at school were limited to masturbation, LOTS and LOTS of masturbation. Except for one encounter with Brenda's older brother, the only real sex I had during my freshman year came when I was back home - where I made up for lost time!

It was during the second semester of my freshman year that something totally unexpected happened which would change my life forever. My cousin dared me to try chatting on-line on an adult-oriented web site called Adult Friend-Finder. This was actually more risky than it might sound as the school monitored all web activities but I quickly got hooked chatting with total strangers about sex in a totally open way. Even back home I couldn't discuss my incestual experiences and secret fantasies with any of my friends and now all of a sudden I had the entire world to talk to about it! Once I learned to ignore the perverts and came to terms with the realization that 90% of the so-called "girls" and "couples" were actually guys pretending to be someone else, I found that it was actually quite a bit of fun.

From the start, I only chatted for fun and as a means to relieve my sexual tensions. I NEVER had any intention or desire to meet anyone but it seemed that most of the people who contacted me pestered me relentlessly to either meet me or send them nude photos of me. Equally frustrating were all the people who bombarded me with requests to be naked on a web cam and/or call them for phone sex. People just couldn't seem to understand that I only wanted to chat. All I wanted was an outlet to express myself and let out my frustrations. I WAS pleasantly surprised at the incredible number of responses I got from both guys and girls, especially the way they were claimed to be turned by me even in the limited way I interacted with them.

My sophomore year turned out to be as totally different from my freshman year as it could be. Brenda lived at home as the on-campus living costs were too high for her parents to afford another year in the dorm. As luck would have it, I lost the lottery for an on-campus apartment so I ended up living in the dorms again. As if all that wasn't enough, I was paired with a new roomie who was definitely NOT bi! Karen was a virgin who was saving herself for marriage. She believed that masturbation was a form of sex and thus not to be done prior to marriage. I was floored when she first told me that. I can respect her desire to stay a virgin for her husband but how can anyone go through life without masturbating? Oh well, Karen was living proof that there are actually some real people who can do it!

Living with Karen might not have been so bad had she been fat and ugly, but she was a stunning brunette. To make it even worse, as frigid as she might have been inside she was an awful tease who enjoyed showing herself off. Behind her back (and sometimes to her face) guys called her a cock teaser. Karen even had me take pictures of her when she dressed up in hot clothes and skimpy bikinis to send back home to her boyfriend. Brenda invited us to her home several times and I will never forget the first time I saw Karen in her sexy black bikini! I don't know which of us wanted her more - Brenda or me!

It took a while to learn to live with Karen but I eventually adapted. Nudity was yet another issue that we didn't see eye to eye. For me, being nude was no big deal although I should qualify that by saying I don't believe in prancing around naked showing yourself off for no good reason. I started sleeping in the nude back when I was turned twelve. At first it was to mimic my parents but once I got used to it, wearing anything to bed seemed terribly constrictive.

As for Karen, she slept in panties and a t-shirt, usually without covers no matter how cold it was. She must have had a furnace roaring in her, maybe that's how she burned up all her pent-up sexual needs! Anyway, even though she didn't exactly wear a whole lot to bed, she was horrified when I stripped down and got in bed nude our first night together. We argued about it and she actually threatened to turn me in for being "promiscuous" so I compromised by wearing a nightshirt without panties. It wasn't exactly the best way to start out our school year together but we got over it. She was OK so long as I wore at least something to bed!

One good thing about Karen, once she fell asleep it would have taken Armageddon to wake her before morning so I spent many a night enjoying the view across the room, dreaming about what I would love to do in bed with her. At times I would get so horny I would think about going over to her and running my hands over her long smooth legs until I touched her virgin hairy pussy. God I would have loved to be the first to lick it! Somehow I managed to keep myself under control but I also knew that unless I did something to satisfy my increasingly intense sexual cravings that sooner or later I would do something I would probably regret.

The end result of all this was by the second semester I was chronically hornier than I'd ever been in my life! Although I linked up with Brenda a few times and had some fun during weekend visits by my parents, I got to the point where at times I wanted to scream from the pain of the horrible pressure of my pent-up sexual needs.

Once before Thanksgiving, I was so overwhelmed I actually agreed to go to a frat party in Columbus with a couple of other girls who also flaunted the rules away from campus. It DID help so far as satisfying my immediate needs. I found it to be incredibly exciting and erotic to be fucked right in the middle of the living room with so many strangers watching. Still, drunken parties are not really my thing so I never went to another one. If it taught me anything, though, it was that I was capable of doing most anything if I let myself get too frustrated and horny.

taking on some sort of an escorting job was NOT something a "good" girls did. It wasn't like I was considering becoming anything like the web whores that tease and sell themselves on the Internet on poorly disguised "escort" or "massage" web sites. What I was thinking about was actually working for a respectable and legitimate escorting agency.

After checking out several agencies in the greater Columbus area, I eventually decided to give one a try. The company claimed to do background checks on all of their clients and offer only the ones that they thought were best for me based on my desired client profile which for me was basically "older married guys from out of state". The clients paid the agency directly so I wouldn't have to fool with money which addressed one of my biggest worries - being arrested as a prostitute. Of course, I could keep any "tips" but that was strictly between me and the client. In any case it wasn't the money I was interested in so the financial arrangements weren't a big deal for me.

The manager explained to me that as an escort I would be expected to be friendly and outgoing which might including enduring some minor groping. However, sex was definitely NOT part of the package as sold. Anything involving sex for money was left completely up to me which was really no different than any other date I might go on. Of course, I doubted that fooled anyone. Really, why else would someone pay $250 or more just to have dinner with a young college girl? And THAT didn't include the cost of dinner!

The agency promised to send a prepaid cab to pick me up and take me back home. The driver would even stay in the area in case I needed to leave quickly for some reason. Once I made up my mind I signed all the consent forms and even a few tax forms. I couldn't help but note that it seemed a bit ironic that after all these years, my first official "job", at least one that took taxes out of my pay, was being an escort! Not quite like most kids who started at McDonalds or waiting tables.

In addition to the single escort "assignments", I also signed up for bachelor parties as they sounded like a lot of fun from the way the manager described them to me. After all, If there's one thing I love during sex, it's an audience, so these parties sounded like a perfect match for me. As with the escorting gigs, sex was NOT considered part of the package although I was strongly encourage to make "side" arrangements with the clients. It was also hinted that girls who didn't "satisfy" their customers weren't given new assignments. All this was fine with me as sex was the whole reason I was doing this in the first place!

3. My First Assignment

Within days of signing up I got an e-mail saying that there was a bachelor party assignment opportunity that I might be interested in. The e-mail said it was scheduled for the upcoming Saturday night with a location that put it far enough away that I didn't have to worry about someone being there that might know me. As I read the e-mail, my stomach suddenly felt a bit queasy. It was one thing to fantasize about showing off at a party full of strange men but now my fantasy was about to change to reality! After the initial jitters had calmed down I made my decision and sent in my reply, accepting the assignment.

For the rest of the week all I could think about was the upcoming bachelor party. I'd never done anything even remotely like this before and I even found myself getting wet in class just thinking about it. Sure I'd performed sex in front of others at the parties my best friend Beth took me to; but then everyone was doing it and I definitely wasn't the only girl.

This time it would be just me being put literally on display in front of a bunch of lecherous horny men. The party description said to expect ten to twelve guys including the groom. Of course I'd be expected to strip and thus probably be nude most of the time, but I wondered if anything else would happen? Would they expect me to play with myself in front of them? Would I suck any of their cocks, maybe even get fucked? Would I do it with just one or all of them? Would I have sex with the groom just hours before he said his wedding vows to his loving fiance? Now THAT idea really turned me on. God it would be so hot to have him do me just hours before he said his wedding vows! The possibilities were endless and I masturbated every chance I had that week while I dreamed of all that might happen.

Saturday evening FINALLY arrived! I told Karen that I'd be going out with some friends to a party and that I'd probably be pretty late getting back. Karen gave me an odd look but didn't say anything as she turned away and just shrugged her shoulders. We were getting along great by now but as you might imagine, sex was NOT a subject we discussed, at least not in any detail. Somehow I had the feeling she knew that there was a lot I wasn't telling her about myself, but she seemed to be more comfortable simply not knowing. Our version of "don't ask, don't tell" worked and I'd say we were good friends, not exactly a close relationship but a friendly one.

Sometimes I couldn't help but wonder what she would say if she knew the real truth. Could someone like her even IMAGINE my life back home?

Karen probably suspected I had a boyfriend that was fucking me away from school but she was discreet enough to ignore it. One of the dirty little secrets that nobody talked about was that a lot of the girls at my school went out with guys from town or other schools just for sex. Actually, I'd considered the possibility myself but it seemed to much of a pain to have to go through the dating ritual just to MAYBE get fucked.

I wondered if Karen would have been so lenient if she knew that instead of fooling around in the back seat of some guy's car there was a pretty good possibility I was going to be gang-banged by ten or more guys before the night was over? I would've bet quite a bit THAT scenario never even entered her pretty little head!

4. Arriving at the Party

The taxi picked me up at 8:00 PM and it took less than an hour to get to the house where the party was being held. It was your typical suburban two-story white colonial in one of those new developments that seem to cropping up everywhere. While not a mansion by any stretch of the imagination, whoever lived there was not exactly on welfare either which made me feel more secure than I would've been if I was being dropped off in some bad part of town.

Under my winter coat I was wearing loose jeans and a baggy sweatshirt, along with a bag containing my outfit and some personal stuff. Anyone seeing me would never have thought I was a stripper on her way to her first assignment. Drawing a deep breath, I got out of the taxi, went up the concrete and stone steps and then paused for just a minute before ringing the lit doorbell.

A series of gongs played when I pushed the round button and before they ended a good-looking guy with his shirt hanging out and a half-empty Budweiser bottle in his hand answered the door. Obviously the party was already underway! At first he just looked at me shivering in the cold with a big grin on his face. It was the same sort of look a starving linebacker might have eyeing a porterhouse steak after a long workout. Without taking his lecherous eyes off of me he turned his head to the side and gave a shout.

"Hey Bill! Your stripper's here!"

Well, THAT was already a first for me and it was all I could do to bite my tongue and not burst out laughing. Never before had anyone described me as a "stripper", not even my dad when I would show off a new outfit for him that he'd picked out for me. Almost immediately another guy with bit too much stomach and slightly receding dark hair appeared and opened the door for me with a broad smile.

"Hi! I'm Bill, the best man and you must be Kelly. Damn girl, you look even finer than I'd imagined and trust me, I have one hell of an imagination!"

Well, I guess it was meant as a compliment. Stepping inside, immediately every eye in the house was looking my way. If I learned nothing else that night, now I know how a lonely sheep feels when surrounded by a pack of starving wolves!

So far as I was concerned I was just a typical nineteen year-old college girl with lots of friends and a loving family out to have some fun for the evening. It was immediately obvious that what they saw was completely different. My guess was they looked at me and all they saw was a slutty young girl who was supposed to entertain them - and hopefully put out. Well, I really couldn't complain. After all, it was probably a more accurate description of me at this moment.

Bill quickly led me to a bedroom down the hallway and closed the door behind us. "Just ignore those guys, they're idiots. You can change in here," he said gently, maybe recognizing the nervousness in my demeanor. "Don't worry, just take your time and let me know when you're ready."

Bill was so being sweet to me that for a moment I forgot that he was also the one guy who had hired me to strip and get naked, not to mention maybe even suck his dick... or more. He wasn't a friend, he was my client, one who might be nice now but would be expecting me to live up to my part of the bargain.

What surprised me the most was how nervous I was, to the point that I was actually shaking a little. I didn't trust my voice not to betray how I was feeling so I didn't say anything and just turned to put my bag on the bed. Bill opened the door to leave when he paused and turned back to me.

"You know Kelly, I've always fantasized about meeting a girl like you and I can't tell you how many times I've jerked off wishing I was fucking someone as beautiful as you. Now here you are, alone in a bedroom with me; young, beautiful, sexy as hell and about to strip and god only knows what else. It's like a dream come true for me..."

He hesitated then and I could tell that he wanted to say more but he seemed to have lost his nerve. Actually, I was caught a bit off-guard by his being so open with me about his feelings but then again, I knew that he didn't see me as Kelly, he saw me as a whore who. I suppose it was something like being a bartenders, someone guys think they can open up to and say things they would never tell another girl. Maybe it was the idea that he would never see me again, maybe he thought I was such a slut that such talk was every day for me. In any case, I looked him in the eyes and suddenly it dawned on me what he really wanted.

"Bill, are you married?"

Bill's eyes widened for a moment and at first I thought maybe he had really lost his nerve but then he nodded his head. "Yeah but trust me, she's NOTHING like you. Damn, I've never even been in the same room alone with a girl like you before!"

This was starting to be a bit on the surreal side so far as I was concerned. I'd assumed the entire night would be rather impersonal, to the point where I might not even know anyone's name. Now here I was already, listening to a guy's marital issues and fantasies, NOT what I'd expected at all but I went along with it. In an almost voyeuristic way, I was interested to see where it would lead if I egged him on a bit more.

"So tell me Bill, what do you want from me? Do you want to see me strip, maybe even get naked? Would you like me to suck your dick? Do you want to fuck me tonight?"

Bingo on the last one. Bill's face flushed and I knew I had him pegged. While he obviously wanted to do just that, I could tell he had not anticipated that I would be so blunt about it. Well, what was the point in being coy, especially in this situation? I mean, it's not like I wasn't looking forward to it as well! I used my hand to throw my hair back in what I hoped was a sexy move and licked my lips slowly before I continued.

"You know Bill, you can have me if you really want to. All you have to do is ask. You can have me right now."

As soon as the words came out I wanted to take them back. God, what was I doing? All I really meant was to tease him, not seduce him into fucking him, at least not yet. Being fucked by a group of guys was one thing but doing it one- on-one was NOT what I'd prepared myself for although I wouldn't turn it down.

Bill just stared at me with that look all guys get when they seem to be seeing straight through my clothes. He was also a bit drunk and with that look of lust I knew from experience he really wanted to fuck me bad. Bill was breathing harder and he had a monstrous erection that looked like it would burst through his jeans at any there would be no stopping until I came and I had a suspicion that there would be enough sex coming my way this night without having to do myself beforehand.

I went over to my bag and took out my outfit I had brought with me, laying each piece out on the bed. It wasn't like there was that much to it, just a sexy black lace bra and matching panties. My father had given them to me this past Christmas and I figured if they turned these guys as much as they did my dad, I was home free!

I had added a tight white satin shirt that showed every bit of the black bra under it along with a really short plaid schoolgirl-style dress that completely failed in its efforts to cover my tight ass. Some white knee socks and a pair of sneakers finished off the ensemble. I pulled my hair back into a single ponytail and looked at myself in a full-length mirror on the back of the bedroom door. The image in front of me was that of a young innocent schoolgirl, maybe sixteen or seventeen but certainly not nineteen going on twenty. I bounced on my toes just a little making my boobs and ponytail bounce with the motion. Mmmmmmm, this was going to be fun after all!

A dash of perfume on my neck, boobs, ass and pussy and I was ready to go. Funny but I wasn't at all nervous anymore. I was getting hornier by the minute as the idea of showing off my body in front of ten even hornier guys was getting closer and closer to reality.

5. Getting Things Started

Taking in a long deep breath, I went to the bedroom door and opened it just enough to take a peek outside. It seemed like everyone was sitting in the living room, beers in hand and laughing at what was undoubtedly a witty and intelligent joke (not!) while some porn movie was playing silently on the big screen TV.

Opening the door all the way, I stepped out into the hallway, assuming the sexiest pose I could muster. A silence like a tomb suddenly came over them and all I could hear was the obnoxious disco music. Just as quickly everyone was talking again with some of them wolf whistling and howling.

With a smile on my face, I slowly walked out and take my place in the center of the living room. Now this was EXACTLY what I had dreamed of - being admired by a bunch of horny guys. My heart was beating fast as I knew that I was the total center of their attention. Mmmmmmm, every guy in the room wanted me and I felt about as sexy as I'd ever been in my life.

To get things started I slowly danced as seductively as possible all around the room. For the moment, I wasn't show anything more than what they could already see, sometime bending over just enough to show off my cute ass and then leaning over to let one of the look down my shirt to see my bra and boobs.

Everyone was cheering and calling for me to strip but I deliberately ignored them and just teased them all the more. While I danced I didn't let anyone touch me, pushing them away whenever they got too close or their hands tried to grope me. It felt incredible - I'd never done anything like this before in my life! Oh sure I danced in this same set of bra and panties for my dad after he'd given them to me but that situation was nothing like this!

Personally, I could have gone on like this longer, basking in their adoration of me but there was more I wanted to do and I could tell that they wanted it as well judging from the looks on their faces and the rising tents in their pants.

Being it WAS a bachelor party, I knew that there was someone who deserved extra attention so I eventually worked my over to the groom's chair. Tom (at least that's what everyone called him) was the lucky groom and I could tell that he'd been drinking a bit - not TOO much but just enough to be relaxed and let his inhibitions down.

There was a picture of Tom and his cute fiance on the table next to him. Had he put it there to remind him of her to help keep him in line or was it some twisted joke by his friends to remind him of who he would be cheating on that night? Of course, I was hoping that the second scenario was the case. All week I'd fantasized about fucking the groom with his fiance "watching" and her picture wasn't too far off from my fantasy. Maybe it was bad of me but my dream was that after tonight he would remember me when he was with his new bride as they got together in their wedding bed for the first time!

Standing in front of Tom, I put one leg up on the chair next to him, letting my short skirt ride up to expose my panties. He was getting a great view of my crotch and shaved pussy through the sheer material and he stared at it like it was the first time he'd seen one. Rubbing myself through the thin black fabric, I pumped my hips up and down like I was being fucked by some invisible lover. God, I felt so hot already and I was just getting started.

Taking his hand, I held it to my breast, letting him feel me through my shirt and bra. At first he tried to resist so I leaned over and whispered in his ear, "C'mon

Tom, this is your last chance to have a girl like me. I'm all yours - you can do anything you want with me - anything."

Tom's eyes widened and he looked at me like I was some demon angel tempting him for his soul. Actually his reaction was exactly what I'd hoped for and so I smiled and whispered to him, "Don't forget Tom - ANYTHING you want". His hand stayed on me after that and I wasn't faking it when I shivered as he squeezed my boob.

"Gooooo Tom!" someone cried out. Tom got a little more confident and he put both hands on me, one on each boob. Then someone whined, "Come on Tom, share the fucking whore with the rest of us!"

It was tempting to ignore the pig but then, I guess he couldn't be blamed for calling me what I was. For the umpteenth time I felt a moment of hesitation as I realized I was crossing a line I never thought I would. I LOVED being known as a slut back home, it made me feel good about myself knowing guys thought I was that sexy. Being a whore, though, was an entirely different matter. God, was I really ready to add "prostitute" to my "resume"? In the end, I rationalized that they had really just paid me to strip and dance and that since getting laid was left up to me, that meant I wasn't a "real" whore.

I turned around and smiled seductively at the group and then started dancing for them again. As I made my way around the room, I got closer to each guy until finally I was getting close enough for them to start groping me and feeling me up. Interestingly, most of them went straight for my boobs, which I would have considered the least of my assets.

There were a couple, though, who were more ambitious and grabbed my ass. One even got so bold as to go for my pussy but I playfully pushed him away as I wasn't ready to give up that prize quite yet. Each time I circled around I let them touch me for just a little bit longer.

My pussy tingled as I could tell from the bulging cocks trying to burst from their crotches that they all wanted to fuck me. Damn, I bet they didn't have any idea that I was just as turned on, perhaps even more, by all this teasing and that I wanted them to fuck me just as badly as they did.

The next time I made my way to Tom I spun around and sat in his lap, grinding my ass which allowed me to feel his hard cock through his pants against me. He wrapped his arms around me, grabbing each of my boobs with his hands. I unbuttoned my shirt and he reached inside to hold them through my bra. He squeezed them, sending chills though me as I looked around the room at all the eyes staring at us. My bra was the type that unsnapped from the front, perfect for this type of occasion, and I had it undone before he realized what was happening. The cups fell away from my breasts and suddenly he was holding my bare boobs in his hands. I kept my shirt and unsnapped bra on as I continued to grind my ass into him as he played with my perky boobs.

Having given Tom a good feel I walked over to Bill and leaned over as I wiggled my newly freed boobs for him. Bill licked his lips as he stared at my exposed chest. I gave him a sexy grin saying, "C'mon Bill, I've been watching you all night. Aren't these what you've been wanting? Go on... touch them."

6. More Than Just a Show

Well, it didn't take any more encouragement as Bill pulled me to him and I mounted his chair like a lap dancer. My bare boobs were in front of his face and he leaned forward to taste them. He latched onto my nipple, sucking me like a newborn baby on its mother. God it felt SO good!

"That's it Bill," I whispered to him, "Do it... Show me what you wanted to do to me in the bedroom. Show me what you want to do to your daughter."

It was a shot in the dark, referring to his daughter who looked to be all of maybe twelve or thirteen in the family portrait in their room. I didn't know how old the picture was, maybe she was older now, even sexier then she looked in the portrait. Did he really have any such feelings about her? I had no idea at the time but judging from the look in his face, I now knew he most certainly did. Was it the beer or maybe just the general atmosphere that loosened him up, but regardless of the reason he attacked my boobs with renewed vigor and I knew I'd hit the mark. Yep, good ol' Bill had at least fantasized about his daughter! I wondered if he had done anything more than fantasize but I didn't have time to dwell on it as other things competed for my attention.

Bill's hands had been holding my ankles as I danced in front of him. After my comment about his daughter, I felt them moving up my legs until he was feeling my bare thighs. He didn't stop there as the rest of the group cheered him to go higher and he didn't disappoint them as he reached between my legs and finally cupped my damp pussy with the palm of his hand. I swiveled my hips around his hand, leaving no doubt that he was more than welcome to keep going. His fingers moved aside the fabric of my panties and I felt them exploring my wet pussy, looking for its magical entrance. It didn't take him long to find it and as wet as I was his finger easily slid up into my waiting cunt. It seemed everyone was cheering him on and I certainly didn't mind, hell it felt damn good! He started to finger fuck me, running his finger in and out of me like a small cock. I moaned and pulled my head back, making sure everyone could see how much I was loving it.

I let Bill play with me for a while longer after which I eased myself off the chair and moved away from him. He tasted his finger with an exaggerated motion and smiled at me. I winked back at him and went back to making the rounds again. This time everyone was a lot more aggressive now that the door had been opened. Forget about my boobs, every one of them went straight for my pussy! Some of them were gentle with me while others were a bit too rough and I had to scold them for being naughty. If they got too bad my ultimate "punishment" was to leave them prematurely and move to the next guy.

Once everyone had groped me a few times I went back to center of the room and started to strip everything off. Slowly I removed each article of clothing until finally I was standing there naked in the middle of all of them. I really hadn't rehearsed anything but a thought came to me then and I decided to put on a bit of a show for them. I laid on my back in the middle of the room and spread my legs wide apart. Reaching between my legs with one hand, I began to masturbate for them while I played with my boobs with my other hand. I watched them as I masturbated, getting as turned on by the looks on their faces as I was by my own hand.

It was then I noticed that Bill had pulled out a video camera and was taping me. A feeling of panic came over me for a few seconds and I wondered what I should do. Magically a dildo appeared and was handed to me. It was pretty large but looked to be just what my pussy wanted so I started fucking myself with it to the delight of my onlookers.

My first orgasm was quick to start after which I just ignored the camera and let my orgasm sweep through me. Someone called out, "Damn, she's cumming!" and sure enough I was. My initial fears of being taped having sex with these guys by someone whom I had no idea what his plans were regarding the tape disappeared as my orgasm grew. I didn't care anymore if Bill was taping me, all I wanted at that moment was to enjoy the waves of sheer pleasure that were running up and down my body.

For the next few minutes I closed my eyes and forgot all about the guys watching me, about being in a strange house, about the camera that was recording everything I was doing. It was just me and that wonderful high I get whenever I cum, better than any drug could be since it was natural and a part of who I was. In my mind, the dildo became a real cock, fucking me and cumming in me, driving me wild as my pussy clamped down on it.

As my orgasm faded the real world came slowly back in focus. I opened my eyes and saw everyone just staring at me, some with their mouths open after watching the spectacle on the floor in front of them. I finally got up on my feet again and danced once in front of them except this time I was totally nude. I felt like the sexiest girl in the world the way they were all fixated on me and I smiled as a couple of the guys got carried away and unzipped their jeans to let their hard cocks out. Each time one did and started stroking himself I would stand in front of him and give him an up close and personal show. I knew I must have been doing a pretty good job for them to get carried away to the point they would start masturbating in front of their friends. Even Bill had his cock out, stroking himself with one hand while running the video recorder with the other.

7. Doing the Groom

Eventually they all had their cocks out except the one I wanted the most - Tom the Groom. As the groom about to be married, I suppose he felt that it would be inappropriate to do any more than he had already done with me. Touching my boobs was one thing but fucking me was another thing entirely! Well, in my horny mind that just made Tom all the more of a challenge.

I slowly walked up to him and sat in his lap with my arm around his neck. Tom didn't seem to know what to do now that a pretty naked girl was perched on his lap! Well, judging by the lump under my ass I was sure he knew what he WANTED to do - which may not have been what he thought he SHOULD do. All Tom needed was a little bit more encouragement so I took his hand and put it on my bare thigh such that it was just inches from my pussy. I put both arms around his neck, twisting so my naked boobs were pushing against his chest. Looking into his eyes I smiled and asked, "What's the matter Tom, why aren't you playing with yourself like everyone else? Don't I turn you on?"

Tom finally put his other arm around me, keeping his hand resting on my bare upper leg. "Oh god girl, you know better than that!" he exclaimed. His face had a look of confusion and panic. He was obviously torn between his sworn love to his fiance and his lust for me. "Damn I'm sorry but I just can't do anything like that the night before I get married, you know? Jesus, I swore to Nancy just this afternoon that I wouldn't do anything like this tonight."

I licked his cheek with my tongue and whispered in his ear, "Remember Tom, tonight I'm not real, I'm just a figment of your imagination, one you can do anything with that you want - and yes, I mean ANYTHING. After tonight I'll be gone forever and your sweet Nancy will never know. Really, what she doesn't know won't hurt her!"

"Oh... my... god...," he moaned as I wiggled my ass such that it ground even more on his cock. He didn't say anything more but I knew he was weakening so I kept up the pressure. An incredible thrill ran through me as I realized from the lack of resistance that he was close to deciding that I was worth cheating on his new wife just hours before their wedding. Time to strike while the iron was hot!

Standing up, I spread his legs apart which allowed me to kneel down in front of him. Reaching forward, I quickly unbuckled his pants and unzipped him. His hands kept trying to weakly push me away but it was not a very convincing performance. It was at this moment I absolutely knew that I had him - he was going to be mine tonight! Bill had moved over to tape everything as I pulled Tom's pants and underwear off and it wasn't long before Tom's stiff cock was on display for everyone, including the camera, to see.

I was pleased to see that Tom didn't shave his pubic hair and I couldn't wait to bury my face in his thick bush. Looking around one last time to make sure everyone's eyes were fixed on me, I felt an incredible rush of excitement at the thought of being completely nude in front of all of them and having them watch me as I got ready to give Tom the blowjob of his life. I turned back and looked up at Tom with a sexy smile saying, "I'm going to give you a blow job like your precious Nancy's never given you before - and never will."

Although Tom had long ago given up trying to resist, he still appeared to be unsure about what was going to happen if I kept going in this direction. Thus I was surprised when he mumbled, "Hell that should be easy, she won't blow me anyway."

Wow! Talk about music to a girl's ears! Now more than ever I really wanted to suck him. The poor guy was about to marry a bitch who didn't like to suck cock! Well, my goal now was to make him miserable for life once he learned how good a blowjob could be! With renewed determination I went to work on his delicious hard dick. He was actually pretty large compared to most guys I've sucked and no matter what he might be saying about being faithful and all; there was no hiding what he wanted! Men will anything but cocks don't lie. I licked just the tip of his smooth head at first , brushing my hair out the way so Bill could get a good view with his video camera, not to mention the audience that had gone silent once I started. Even the disco music was off as nobody wanted to break away and change the CD.

Once I was sure everyone was watching, I started giving Tom the best blowjob I knew how. I licked him, kissed him, and sucked him using every trick in my arsenal. He was pretty drunk which is the only reason he didn't cum in the first five minutes although I was careful to always back off just as I felt him starting to go over the edge. Now and then his precum would seep out and I licked it off of him, savoring the salty flavor.

What really seemed to turn everyone on the most was when I would deep throat him, taking his dick completely into my mouth. Tom was at least eight or nine inches long erect and I had to take him down my throat in order to get him all in my mouth. I would slowly ease him in, relaxing my throat until he was down far enough that the gag reflex passed. Finally my face was tight against his groin, his cock down my throat and his smelly pubic hair pressed tightly against my face. The heavy musk of his crotch almost overwhelmed me as I held him this way for as long as I could hold my breath. The first time I did it I heard a number of the guys talking to each other and I knew they were impressed by my efforts. Tom certainly was! Whatever reservations he may have had were ancient history as he leaned back and enjoyed the best and possibly the last blowjob he would ever have assuming he stayed true to the frigid bitch he was about to marry.

Bill was standing to the side now and I could see his cock was still sticking out from his pants and he was stroking it hard as he filmed Tom getting a blowjob. I noted for the not so distant future that his cock was huge - almost as big as Tom's! I spread my legs apart as I kneeled in front of Tom, letting everyone have a good look at my wet cunt. I started playing with myself with my free hand as I sucked Tom even harder and faster. Tom was at the point where he was close to cumming so I stroked his cock with my hand and let him out of my mouth while I looked up at him. "Well Tom," I said in a seductive voice, "How am I doing?"

Tom rolled his eyes and groaned, "Oh my God, I never knew a blowjob could feel this good!"

I stood up while keeping my hand wrapped around Tom's stiff and wet cock. Turning around to face the guys, I spread my legs and leaned over. Then, loud enough for everyone to hear me, I turned my head to him and said, "Fuck me Tom, I want you to fuck my pussy!"

Everyone heard what I said and the guys started to cheer and hoot, urging Tom to fuck me. Actually it was more like, "Fuck the bitch!" and "Give it to her Tom!" but I didn't mind because that was exactly what I wanted at that moment.

Tom was still in a daze from my blowjob but he still hesitated. I can't even describe the sensuous feelings I was having knowing that tonight I was sexy enough to make him want to do exactly what he had promised his young fiance just hours ago that he wouldn't. It thrilled me to know that for the rest of his life, whenever he was with his wife what he was about to do would always be in the back of his mind whenever his wife asked him if he had been faithful to her.

It was such an incredible feeling to have this much power over anyone, to know he craved me so much he was willing to do literally anything to have me, regardless of the potential consequences. So what if he didn't crave ME so much as my body, this was good enough for me!

As for me, I had entered my own sexual fantasy world where all reasoning and inhibitions were cast aside. It was rare for me to get this carried away to the point where I'm willing to do just about anything for my own sexual gratification. Even so, time seemed to stand still for just a moment was my mind cleared and I realized what I was doing. My god, could I really be doing this? Here I was naked in front of a bunch of horny guys getting ready to fuck some poor bastard who truly wanted to be faithful to his new wife but had succumbed to me while his best man was recording the entire show. God, what kind of bitch was I to want to do something like this? Evidently one hell of a horny bitch as all I wanted at that moment was his cock in me.

Yet as horny as I was, for another brief instant I questioned myself yet again, wondering if this was something I really should be doing. How would I feel tomorrow when it was all over? How would Tom feel the next time he saw his young bride, knowing what he'd done the night before they were married? When he made love to her on their wedding night, would he be thinking of me sucking his cock, wishing his new bride would do the same and feeling frustrated when she wouldn't?

Then, just as rapidly as it came, the moment was gone and time was restored. The hoots and indecent comments from the guys were back and I was stroking Tom's cock while at the same time massaging my pussy, getting it ready for his inaugural entry. That weird moment when time stood had now disappeared as lust and desire returned. There was no turning back now, Tom was going to fuck me in front of all his friends and that was that. Nothing was going to stop me now from getting what I wanted. I wanted to be fucked and damn it if I wasn't going to be!

Bill was urging Tom to fuck me right along with the others and finally Tom stood up and spread my ass apart to get a better view of me. I put my hands on my knees as I leaned over, presenting my hungry pussy to him. He took his cock in his hand and I felt him pressing it up against my ass and then lowering it down to find the opening to my pussy.

As soaking wet as I was, and with his cock was still wet from my mouth, he slid fairly easily into me. Usually I prefer a man to enter me slowly, taking his time to fill me gradually with his cock and letting me experience the feel of each and every inch of his hard cock as it violates my pussy for the first time. Well, Tom was simply too horny for that kind of discipline and he just rammed himself into me as hard and fast as he could.

I gasped as all nine inches of him suddenly filled my pussy, splitting me apart like he was going to rip me in two. He didn't stay still but immediately began to pump himself in and out of me. I could feel and hear him as he rammed deep into me, making a loud slapping sound as he banged hard against my ass. I moaned loudly as he fucked me harder and harder.

"Oh fuck me Tom! Fuck me!" I cried out. What was great was that I wasn't having to fake a thing. I really DID want him to fuck me more and I couldn't stop crying out for it! God it felt so damn good to have a cock in me again! It didn't really matter whose it was, just that it was real and hard and in me deep.

Everyone cheered as I kept crying out for him to fuck me harder. We were in the middle of the room now, Tom with his pants at his ankles and his shirt still on slamming his huge cock into my nude schoolgirl body as his friends watched in amazement. I doubted that any of them could quite believe what they were seeing. They had all known that Bill had arranged for a stripper to tease them but did any of them really expect that the groom, good ol' Tom who was getting married shortly to his high school sweetheart, would be fucking a whore right in the middle of the living room right in front of them all – and letting them film it as well?

Tom's cock swelled in me even more and his pace was quickening so I knew he was about to cum. Ordinarily I would've let him cum inside of me as nothing beat the feeling of a man's cock when it explodes in me, shooting hot loads of cum deep inside of my pussy. However, I still wanted to put on a great show for everyone and I knew that guys love watching girls take it in the mouth. I stepped forward which caused him to involuntarily pull out of me. Damn, my pussy felt so empty all of a sudden that I almost said the heck with it and took him back in me. Instead, I stuck to the game plan and turned around to kneel in front of him.

Tom's cock was reacting in a predictable manner and when I knew he was ready to explode I turned and said, "OK Bill, make sure you don't miss this!" I sucked Tom's cock for a few more seconds and then switched to stroking him with my hand as I held his swollen head a couple of inches away from my open mouth. A few more strokes and he surged, releasing a huge load of warm cum straight from the end of his cock directly into my mouth. Bulls-eye! I could feel the warm cum hit the back of my throat and gather on my outstretched tongue as Tom groaned and came again and yet again. He was jerking so badly that I was having trouble aiming his shots so a few of them missed my mouth and landed on my cheek and breasts. Mmmmmmm, he tasted so fucking good! One of the few negative things about masturbating was that you didn't get to taste a guy's sperm at the end!

I kept stroking him even after he stopped cumming, trying to draw every drop from his balls that I could milk from his wonderful dick. I looked up at Bill's camera, opened my mouth and stuck out my tongue so he could document forever Tom's cum that was covering it. Then I used Tom's cock like a squeegee to wipe the cum that was on my cheek into my mouth and then used my fingers to scoop the cum from my boobs.

When I put his cock back in my mouth and sucked the last few drops from him I could feel him shudder as my tongue ran around his now hypersensitive dick. His cock slowly softened in my mouth and finally he stepped back and sank into his chair with a look of exhaustion. Tom glanced over at the photo next to him and shook his head, as if he couldn't believe what he had just done. Then I couldn't help but smile wickedly as I heard him talking to himself saying, "Oh my god, oh my god," he mused, "Shit, what if Nancy finds out?"

It made me feel so sensual and naughty to hear him worrying about his fiance finding out that he'd just fucked me. It was absolutely the best thank-you he could have given me as I knew now he'd never forget me or what he'd just done to me. No matter what, there was no way he could say that he hadn't enjoyed doing me!

8. The Best Man is Next

I put my hands on my bare hips and turned to face the guys. It still felt a little weird to have nine guys watching me while stroking their stiff cocks in their hands, practically licking their chops with anticipation. A few of them looked like they were feeling a little awkward as they touching themselves in front of the others but since all of them were doing it I guess that helped them to overcome their shyness.

I bit my lower lip as I looked at them and my pussy tingled with anticipation of its own as I knew that before long it would be welcoming every one of those hard cocks that was willing to fuck it. Finally I couldn't wait any longer to get started so with my hands still on my hips I said, "Well, are you guys just going to stand there stroking yourselves or is somebody going to fuck me?"

Even after all the groping I had allowed them to do before, plus what I'd just done with Tom, they still didn't seem to know for sure until this point whether or not they would be able to fuck me themselves. I watched impatiently as they looked at each other, waiting for someone to kick things off.

Well, I should've known who would be the first "volunteer". Bill suddenly got this look of determination on his face as he dropped his pants, followed by his underwear, and sat down in a chair, calling me over to him. His erect cock was standing up all by itself, emerging from his bushy pubic hair like a missile ready to launch.

"OK Kelly, if you want to be fucked so bad then get over here and sit on my cock," he called out to me, practically daring me to let him fuck me. Well, I could deal with that type of dare!

As I approached him, Bill handed the video camera off to one of the guys, threatening him with something like "cutting off his balls" he missed anything! At first I just stood in front of him and caressed my exposed boobs while he watched anxiously.

"Ok Bill," I whispered in a husky voice, "You wanna fuck me so bad... then fuck me." There really wasn't anything else I needed to say. Bill was sitting in a big overstuffed chair with plenty of room in it so I climbed up and kneeled over him, his cock positioned under my wet pussy and my boobs right in front of his face. I reached between my legs to hold his cock and guide it into me as I started to lower myself down on it.

"Watch it Bill," I said seductively. Yeah right, as if I had to encourage him! "I want you to watch your cock enter my tight young pussy."

My pussy was still swollen from the fucking Tom had just given it and extremely sensitive so I couldn't help but gasp out loud as the tip of Bill's dick started to spread my slippery pussy lips apart, finding its way inside of me. God he felt so good in me! I have had cocks bigger than his but he was a definite keeper. My pussy practically screamed with pleasure as he violated me.

It's amazing how many thoughts can run through your mind in the short few moments it takes for a cock to make its way all the way into your pussy. I thought of his wife and what she would think if she could see her husband now, his manhood that was supposed to be hers slowly disappearing into a slutty teenager's pussy. Then I had a vision of his cock sliding into his daughter instead of mine.

My thoughts returned to real life when I felt his pubic hair tickle my ass as I lowered myself all the way onto him until finally I was sitting on his lap with his hard cock completely hidden from sight. I sat motionless for just a bit to relish the feeling of him in me. My pussy felt full with him in me making me feel satisfied for just a brief moment. Bill also seemed to be enjoying the moment. His head was pulled back and a huge smile was on his face.

"Ohhhhhhhhh, you've no idea how many times I've jerked off thinking about a moment like this one," he groaned softly, just loud enough for me to hear. "God you're so fucking tight. I never dreamed a girl could be this tight!"

With that we got down to more serious business as I bounced on his cock and he fucked me. He had been stroking himself while Tom fucked me so I knew it wasn't going to take much to get him off. Actually, I really didn't want to stretch things out anyway. My goal now was purely to be fucked as hard and often as I could while I had this unique opportunity. After over a month of nothing inside it but my fingers, my pussy was in dire need of a good fucking and tonight was the opportunity make up for lost time.

"Fuck me Bill, cum in me," I told him. "Imagine your wife was here watching us, seeing how much hotter I can make you than she ever could."

"Damn you Kelly," he groaned, "My wife's pussy NEVER felt like this!"

"Well I bet your daughter's would be even tighter," I teased him.

"Damn, you're such a fucking tease," he panted, "Oh my god, here it cums girl."

I sat down hard on him to drive him as deeply into me as I could and just then I felt the first burst of hot cum explode inside of me. He must have been really loaded because he just kept cumming and cumming in me. Each time I felt that sunburst of heat inside of me I imagined his cock deep inside of me, his adulterous sperm spraying from the tip of his dick into my starving pussy. When he finally finished sat down on him and ground my ass into his lap, swiveling around to move his dick in me, stirring his sperm inside of me. Finally I got off and stood up. When his cock popped out of me it was like a dam had broken, releasing a gush of cum which drained from my pussy, dripping on my thighs and down to the floor.

"Now don't forget me next time you fuck your wife!" I taunted Bill, giving him wink as I turned my attention to the rest of the guys. Bill was immediately out of my mind as I looked to see who was going to be next to fuck me. Two down, eight to go…

9. The Rest of The Guys Do Me

For the next hour or so I just let myself go, pretty much allowing myself to be nothing more than a submissive whore, or should I say their sex genie, granting the wishes of the rest of them one by one. Lying in the middle of the floor, I let them to do pretty much whatever they wanted (except anal which a couple of them tried but I wasn't about to go there). Before it was over, I was pretty sure all of them had fucked me at least once and there was a couple of them I knew were in me at least three times or more although they didn't cum each time.

One reason I'm pretty sure they all fucked me was I think they wanted everyone to participate so they were all equally guilty in case someone was tempted to spilled the beans afterwards. What surprised me more than anything was how many of the guys had wedding rings on at a "bachelor" party! Well, I guess the only guy who HAD to be a bachelor was the groom. Actually, it thrilled me when I saw the rings on their fingers when they fucked me, knowing what they represented.

In addition to the adultery aspect, I wondered if any of them had daughters at home that they might be looking at a little differently after fucking me! Even Tom returned for another shot at my pussy. Evidently any remorse he might have been having had faded quickly once he saw everyone else fucking me.

At times I had two or more cocks working me – one in my mouth, one in my pussy and one or two in my hands. I lost count how many times I came myself and there's no way I'll ever know just how many loads of cum were sprayed on me, pumped in my pussy or shot in my mouth. All I DO know is that I was literally bathed in cum by the time they were done with me.

My pussy go to be so full of sperm that when the next cock entered me I could hear the squishing sound of the cum being pushed out of me. By the time the last guy was finishing himself off inside of me, I was almost afraid to stand up, not knowing how much cum was going to gush from my heavily fucked pussy!

It was fitting that the last guy to fuck me was Tom, back for yet another crack at my pussy. He must have figured that having crossed the line he may as well go all the way! The rest of them collapsed on the furniture or floor, leaving me alone on my back waiting for Tom to finish things off.

Taking advantage of me being on my back, this time Tom fucked me in the missionary position. My legs were exhausted so I just laid back with my legs apart, letting him do all the work. Despite all the fucking my pussy had just been given, his big cock was still a pleasure to have in me.

I don't know where he managed to get it from, but eventually he had one last load of cum for me and this time he stayed in me instead of pulling out as he had done the previous two times. After he came he just stayed in me, holding himself up on his elbows as we both savored the moment.

"Remember this tomorrow night in your wedding bed," I whispered up to him as he panted from his exertions. "Remember how tight my pussy feels on your dick, how good it felt to cum in me."

Maybe I was going over the top but I couldn't stop myself. He didn't respond but the increased pressure as he tried to drive his spent cock just a little further into me told me all I needed to know. Finally he was so soft he was almost out of me anyway so he pulled out of and to the floor next to me, sweating like crazy with his eyes closed.

I smiled as I looked at Tom's now flaccid dick, glistening in the light with the mixture of our cum covering it. It was hard to believe that it had actually been INSIDE of me three times in the past couple of hours and I tried to imagine how it must have looked inside of me that last time as he shot his sperm into me.

10. Winding Down

Looking around, half the guys seemed to be asleep (or passed out) and the rest of them were barely awake so it seemed things were finally over by default. I got up and staggered a bit as I tried to regain my balance enough to walk back to the bedroom. God, my legs felt like I'd just run a marathon! I could feel some of their cum dripping out of me, leaving wet spots on the hardwood floor like I was marking a trail to the bedroom.

There was a full-length mirror in the bedroom. Oh my god, when I looked at the mirror I barely recognized the girl I saw in it. My hair, as I suspected, was a total wreck and there were large traces of rapidly drying cum all over it making it stick together in clumps. Damn, I knew they had cum a lot but even so, I couldn't believe how much cum was actually on me. It seemed to cover my entire face and most of my upper body, not to mention what was filling my pussy.

Looking around, I didn't see a towel so I lifted the bedcover and used it to wipe myself off. A grin came to my face as I imagined Bill trying to explain THAT stain to his wife tomorrow! My face and chest were still brightly flushed and my mouth felt slimy not to mention the distinct aftertaste of cock and cum.

Slowly It began to sink in me as I stood there just what I'd done this evening. Sure I'd fucked more than my fair share of guys in my life but it was usually part of some type of relationship, even if just a physical one. Although I'd fucked a number of guys at several of Beth's sex parties, in those cases it was different as everyone was there to do it and I wasn't the only girl.

There was also the slight technicality that nobody had ever paid me to be fucked at any of those parties!

I've always taken a sort of perverse pride in having a well-earned reputation for being a slut but after all my internal debates I knew there is only one description for me tonight - whore. Sure my father playfully called me a whore at times but it was just his way of teasing me and I always knew he respected me. Tonight I'd given my body over to a group of horny men who didn't give a damn about Kelly, the nineteen year-old college student. How would my parents feel if they ever found out that I'd allowed myself to be used like some impersonal sex toy, allowing a dozen men to use my body for their own sexual gratification and lewd pleasure without any concern whatsoever about my well- being or feelings?

For just a brief moment I also felt a sense of guilt as I realized I'd deliberately fucked what seemed to be a very decent man who most likely had never wanted to be with anyone but his soon-to-be wife. Now for the rest of his life he would have to live with what he did with me tonight.

Then on second thought, I didn't feel so guilty and instead felt a sense of pride in myself. After all, it wasn't every girl who was sexy enough to convince a guy to cheat on his fiance less than twenty-four hours before their marriage! Besides, it wasn't like I'd stuck a gun to his head and demanded he fuck me. Tom was the one who made the final decision and all he had to do was say no and nothing more would have happened. No, it wasn't MY fault at all he would always have this on his conscience.

With these thoughts going through my head I pulled on my jeans and drew my sweatshirt back over my head. Then I saw a clock on the dresser - 3:30AM! Damn, I'd been out there for hours! I was about to leave when there was a single knock on the door. I opened it and my dear sweet Bill was there. He didn't say a word but just handed me a sealed envelope. It was pretty thick and from the size and shape I knew instantly what was in it. Well, now I was officially a whore - I'd just been paid for allowing men to fuck me!

"Just something the guys wanted to give you," he finally said. "Damn, you were incredible this evening Kelly. I know you're dressed and it's getting late but could I possibly fuck you again? I'd give anything to do you on our bed! I'll pay you if that's what you want."

For a brief moment I considered letting him do me again. The idea of doing him in his own bed where he slept and made love to his wife was tempting, to say the least. Looking at his crotch (he hadn't bothered to put his pants on so his new erection was pretty obvious), he seemed to be more than ready to go again but I decided it was just too late and I needed to get home. God, I was so tired I could barely stand, not that I think Bill would have cared one way or the other so long as my pussy was available. Without saying anything I stepped through the door and slipped past him.

With that I quickly made my way to the front door and outside. The chilly winter air hit me like a slap in the face and I ran back to the taxi which was patiently waiting for me. The driver didn't say a word to me the entire way back and I even fell asleep on the way home.

Back at my dorm, fortunately I didn't meet anyone on my way down the hall, God only knows what they would have said looking at me like this at almost five in the morning! I tried to enter our room as quietly as possible but the damn door always creaked loudly and tonight was no exception. The only light in the room was a small nightlight we used but I could make out Karen as she sat up groggily in her bed. She was rubbing her eyes and her voice was husky from sleep.

"That you Kelly? My goodness you're late tonight. Everything OK?"

"No problem Karen, I talk to you in the morning. G'nite!"

Karen laid back down as I went by our beds to make my way to the bathroom. Odds were she wouldn't even remember waking up when morning came. Then Karen stirred again and wrinkled her nose saying, "My goodness Kelly, what's that smell?"

Well, I knew what it was but Karen, a certified virgin, didn't recognize the musky smell of sex that I knew I must have reeked of. She wasn't really awake so I just ignored her and sure enough she laid back down and fell back asleep. Hopefully when morning arrived she would have forgotten that I smelled like a whore who had just been fucked by ten guys!

In the bathroom I looked in the mirror and was glad that I hadn't met anyone on my way back home. Wow, I really looked like a tramp, especially my hair which had far more cum in it than I'd thought when I was in the more dimly lit bedroom. By now it was completely dried and I couldn't wait to take a shower. I must have spent half an hour under a hot stream of water trying to remove my unwanted trophies. I lathered and rinsed my hair three times before it felt clean again. There was dried cum all over me and every time I thought I was clean I found yet another spot on me.

Finally I felt like a real person again and threw on a t-shirt. I hid my outfit in a bag that I kept under my bed and flopped into my bed.

What a night! It was almost 6:00 AM and I would have to get up in a couple hours for church which promised to be an effort. I thought once again about the things I had when I was back in Bill's bedroom. Overall I had really enjoyed the evening. Being the center of attention at the party was thrilling and showing myself off to the guys and seeing how excited just the sight of my body made them was incredibly erotic.

Suddenly I remembered the envelope and reached under the bed to get it out of my bag. I opened it up and was shocked - it was full of twenties and even a few hundreds. By the time I counted it all up it was $840! Hmmmmmm, maybe being a whore wasn't so bad after all. It was just a joke on myself as I knew I wasn't ready to become a prostitute but there were other possibilities including more parties such as this, not to mention I still was waiting for my first escort assignment.

I quickly fell asleep feeling much better about myself and with a resolve to take on these new ventures as soon as possible.

(Feb 19) Chapter 73: First Escort Job, Greg Dreams of His Daughter

Story codes: MF oral adultery
Greg - client (44)

Oh my God, I was SO nervous! What the hell was I thinking anyway? I must have been crazy to do such a thing. Did I really think I could be an escort without being a whore?

1. Joining an Escort Agency

Ever since I gave up my virginity almost six years ago I've had sex with a lot of guys in a wide range of situations. As varied as they may have seemed at first glance, until recently there was one thing that they all had in common. Either I knew who my partner were or at least someone I knew also knew who he was. In all that time I'd never gone out alone with some stranger just to have sex. When it comes right down to it, it wasn't so much that I didn't want to or was afraid of it, the opportunity just never came around.

Going to a strict religious school where any form of sexually-related conduct was forbidden had proven harder than I'd expected when I signed up. My freshman year turned out to be not so bad once I discovered that my roomie was bisexual. Unfortunately her parents decided to save some money so she was living at home our sophomore year leaving me with nice, but very virginal, new roomie.

Although there were some times during Thanksgiving and Christmas breaks when I was lucky enough to go home and enjoy myself, there were only a few other times that I was able to have sex with someone. Needless to say having been accustomed to having sex on an almost daily basis it was not easy for me to accept this sexless situation. When I was horny it didn't matter that I "knew what I was getting into." It's easy to think you can do something but sometimes putting it into practice can be a lot tougher.

In a recent diary entry about my first bachelor party I explained a lot more about all of this so I won't repeat everything here. Bottom line is I got to the point where I had to do something about the insatiable cravings growing within me or die of horniness. Well, maybe I wouldn't have physically died but it would've been a welcome respite!

What I DID do was to apply for a position at an escort agency and it wasn't long before I was the entertainment at my first bachelor party. I can't tell you how nervous I was before it started but it turned out to be an incredible experience! Having a room filled with horny men all staring at me with pure lust in their eyes and raging hard-ons was one of the most erotic things I've ever experienced!

Since I first noticed it happening as I was growing up, I've always loved it when I saw men looking at me like they want me, when they openly show signs that they desire my body and are willing to do just about anything just to see me naked let alone touch me - or do more. To have a whole roomful of them all at one time, and then to be fucked by each one in front of the others regardless of their age or marital status, was enough to make me cum over and over again.

After the complete success of that night, I was ready for more and tonight was going to be another first for me - being an escort for a total stranger.

One of the first things I learned was that there are some pretty strict rules if you're going to be in the escort business, at least if you're part of one of the legitimate agencies that's not serving as a front to a prostitution ring. First and foremost, such agencies do NOT sell or promote sex. They only arrange for a man to hire the services of a girl for a date - be it dinner, a movie, show, or business affair. Supposedly they check out the guys to be sure they're not felons or wanted by any police agencies or listed on any sex-offender lists. The main point again being that they are a legitimate service and not a pimping agency. If a guy just wants a hooker then he can cruise High Street in Columbus and take his chances.

Payment terms were something new for me as well. At my agency the client paid the agency directly for the evening so I never had to deal with cash or credit cards. This also had the added benefit of provided me with protection against prostitution charges as I wasn't handling money. I was paid by check twice a month just like any other job, paying taxes and all!

The agency also provided for my transportation each way in the form of a taxi that picked me up at school, dropped me off at the arranged location, and then was always available on a moment's notice to take me back whenever I called.

Of course, all that was said with a wink and a smile. During my indoctrination I was warned that most men would ask if I was available for additional "services". You can probably guess what such services consist of. The agency's official policy was that anything I arranged with a client AFTER the date was entirely my business AND my responsibility. It was up to me to establish what, if any, "tip" I wanted if I decided to go beyond the standard "date" rules.

Even though I knew this all up front, I still couldn't help but wonder just how it would all go in actual practice. One thing that made me feel better was that I was able to have a say regarding the guys I would meet. When I filled out my profile I limited myself from the start to only married men over forty, preferable with a family, and they had to be from out of state.

Yes, there was a method to my madness. Older guys had always treated me well. I figured married men would be more discreet and less likely to have STDs. As for being from out of state, I hoped that would keep them from any expectations that they might meet with me again afterwards.

Finally, I also set a strict rule that only one date per guy - no repeats. Unlike most of the whores I met at the training class who were plainly in it for the money, I was doing this for fun and so I wanted variety over quantity. Plus, I didn't want there to be any chance that someone would think we were starting to form any type of "relationship".

2. Getting Ready

The agency must have had a lot of guys applying because despite my tight restrictions it wasn't long before I was getting numerous e-mails from the agency regarding potential clients. One guy caught my eye right away. He looked pretty handsome and had written a clever and entertaining introduction. He was from Chicago but what caught my eye was that he'd always been married to the same woman and even had two daughters, the oldest who was my age. He seemed to be the right one to start with so I replied to the e-mail and soon received a confirmation for the upcoming Friday.

For the rest of the week all I could think about was my upcoming "date". I had been on blind dates before and I knew most guys expected to have sex so that wasn't the issue. The difference here was that nobody had ever paid me to go on a date with them which put everything in a while new light. On a blind date, if I didn't like the guy I didn't even have to leave my house with him. In this case I was being paid to at least have dinner with the guy, no matter who he turned out to be.

I had never been this nervous before a date before! The night before I could barely sleep wondering what else he would want to do beside just have dinner. At the same time I was getting hornier each day wondering the same thing. The fact that I had no idea what he might want to do with me was exciting. Would he want just a hand job in the restaurant? A blowjob in the car? Would he take me to his hotel room? Would he want it rough or gentle? What if he was into something kinky? The possibilities were endless and I masturbated several times a day thinking of a different scenario each time.

Friday classes for me were over by noon this semester making it easy for me to get ready in plenty of time. The biggest decision was the same I faced before any date - what to wear. I toyed with the idea of going for the traditional schoolgirl look but decided on something with more sophistication. In the back of my closet was a nice slit black dress I'd bought for a dance once with my cousin which showed off my figure nicely without being TOO slutty. Although it caught a few close looks from the chaperones but they let me get back. It would be perfect!

Looking through my lingerie, I selected a sexy black thong that rode high on my hips such that when I crossed my legs and let the slit in the dress do its thing you might be tempted to wonder if I was wearing anything under it. A strapless Wonder Bra provided a bit of enhancement to my less than optimal cleavage. Finally, a pair of stiletto high heels with thin straps finished it off which also helped to firm up and show off my legs to their best advantage.

I spent the afternoon trying to add some body to my hair which, as usual, valiantly resisted all attempts at putting any body into it. This time I finally won the battle although I still envied those girls with the naturally bouncy full hair! I knew if things got a bit exciting tonight that it would go flat again but by then I figured he wouldn't be looking at my hair anymore, if he ever did in the first place. It wouldn't be the first date where I came home wondering if the guy even knew what color my hair was!

I've never been big on makeup except during a terrible bout with acne when I was fifteen that fortunately lasted only for a few months. Looking in my mirror I saw a "girl next door" face and wondered whether he wanted that or someone more sophisticated. I compromised with a bit of foundation, some eyeliner and lipstick. Nothing too bright or wild but enough to add some color.

Finally the package was all together. I had my hair in place, makeup ready, and dressed to kill. Now all I had to do was wait for the taxi.

While I was waiting my roomie was back from dinner. Karen looked at me and I could imagine the line of questions she wanted to ask me. I wasn't dressed like a slut but at the same time, it certainly wasn't an outfit I'd ever think about wearing to chapel. In the end she just smiled sweetly and asked, "Ummmmm, got a date?"

It was all I could do to keep from laughing out loud. Actually, this was one time I could tell her the truth about my plans for the evening. Well, at least it would be true so far as what I told her.

"Yeah, going out for dinner tonight in Columbus," I answered coyly.

"Must be somewhere fancy. Anyplace I know?" she asked.

"Someplace downtown, can't remember the name," I replied, which was technically the truth once again. You can't remember something you never knew in the first place.

That seemed to satisfy her and she went about to her business. Karen was a virgin through and through. The girl didn't even masturbate! Even so, she was great looking and knew it. She might not have sex but she knew how to tease and flirt with the best of them. She went out on a lot of dates and wasn't afraid to dress to the hilt. I always felt sorry for the guys though. Seeing her in some of her wilder outfits they must have thought they'd hit the jackpot. I could've told them not to get their hopes up. Karen was totally brainwashed in that she had to save herself for marriage and no guy had a chance of breaking through that barrier!

It was a few minutes before eight so I went out to the lobby and saw that a taxi was just pulling up. I figured it must be mine so I went out and sure enough it was. The driver already had instructions on where to take me so I just got in and rode quietly for the next hour or so, getting more nervous and more horny with each passing minute.

3. Dinner

The taxi pulled up to the curb of a fancy Italian restaurant in the Arena district of Columbus. I quickly got out and went inside where I gave the hostess my name. Amazingly she seemed to know who I was and immediately directed me to a table where a man was already sitting.

Seeing me coming the guy rose to his feet and smiled at me. My heart beat rose a few notches as I looked him over quickly. He was dressed in an expensive suit with an off-white shirt and brilliant blue tie. Although I knew from his profile that he was forty four, he still had a full head of hair which was graying at the temples but that only lent an air of sophistication. He looked to be about six feet tall and obviously worked out from the trim build and just the way he carried himself. He was handsome in a classic manner, standard white protestant male. Clean shaven, he had a pleasant smile without showing too much teeth. He tried to act nonchalant but I saw his eyes giving me the once over quickly.

So far, so good! As I approached he extended his hand and gently shook my hand. Nothing too firm as if I was a business pal but perfect for a lady to hold.

"Good evening... Kelly I presume?" he said, "I'm Greg. It's a pleasure to finally meet you."

I smiled sweetly as he helped me off with my coat. The hostess took it and left, but not before I saw her smile a bit and shake her head just enough to signal that she knew what was going on. Oh well, I didn't know her anyway so who cares? Greg pulled out my chair for me to sit in. Wow, I actually felt like a schoolgirl on a first date, not really sure what to say. Greg seemed to sense my awkwardness and he carried most of the conversation at the start. After some small talk about the weather and school, he reached across and put his hand on mine.

"Just to put your mind at ease, Kelly" he said, "I'm happily married and I even have a daughter your age. Actually I just became a grandpa last month when my older son and his wife had a little girl. I've never dated anyone like this before so trust me, I'm more nervous than you are!"

The part about his son hadn't been in the profile which raised a small alarm within me. What else had he left out? Still, I laughed a little at that and immediately blushed as it made me sound like a teenager giggling at some boyfriend's remarks. Greg smiled and held my hand.

"You really are cute you know. Do you mind if I ask if you do this sort of thing a lot?"

Suddenly I felt so young for some reason. He was so much older and mature than me that is was almost intimidating. Sure I'd been with older men before on dates before, including my father, but Greg was like right out of a Victorian romance novel! I shook my head and although I meant to speak, my reply came out more as a hoarse whisper.

"No, I've actually never done anything this before."

That seemed to break the ice. I think we were both relieved to find that we each were "virgins" at this game so it wasn't like we felt we needed to measure up to a past history of liaisons. From there we talked about ourselves and our families. I was surprised at how much Greg shared about his wife and kids. He obviously loved them very much and adored his daughters. He even showed me a picture of them from his wallet!

Greg then asked me why I was doing this tonight and I tried to explain to him my need for something new and different while at school. Much to my chagrin, he chuckled at that although he explained it was because he thought that I'd certainly gone overboard in my quest!

When I asked him the same question he got quiet for a moment and I wondered if I'd broken some code of conduct for escorts such as, "Never ask the client why he is doing this."

Greg looked me straight in the eye and said, "To be perfectly honest, I turned forty four last month and I started to think about the fact that I'm not getting any younger. I see my kids growing up and now my oldest daughters isn't even a teenager anymore. I remember what it was like to be with a young women, to feel the excitement of the chase, the thrill of the unknown and I want to feel that again in me. My wife Claire is wonderful and has always been a great partner, friend and lover. I'd never want to hurt her in any way but the thrill is gone and I need to feel that again, if only for one last time before it's too late. Sorry... I hope this doesn't make me sound like some kind of a jerk to you."

Actually, it endeared me to him somewhat. After all the guys I'd met and chatted with that complained about their wives and wanted to cheat on them, Greg was a bit different. I also knew what he wanted for the evening and that I was the perfect girl for him.

The thing is, what he SAID that he wanted and what I knew that he did, even if just subconsciously, may not necessarily be the same. The secret was in the way he described his family and his love for them. I knew that he was feeling a bit guilty about his wife and that he loved his older daughter Mandy. I had a feeling that there was something about Mandy that I could exploit to make this a memorable evening for both of us and still let him go home to Claire with a faithful heart, if not a faithful cock.

Greg ordered dinner for both of us and I was thankful when he asked for something rather light. First, I wasn't very hungry with my stomach in knots all night and next, although I loved Italian food, it's a pain to eat without making a mess. He started to order wine but then remembered my age and smiled to himself as he put aside the wine list. I just drank some ice water with lemon although for a second I was afraid he might order me a glass of milk!

We somehow made it through dinner and I had a small lemon sorbet for desert. So far we'd kept the discussion away from anything other than ourselves and dinner so I had no idea what his plans were for the rest of the evening. So far he'd not made any move on me other than to hold my hand across the table! Sooner or later we would have to address the elephant in the room and as inexperienced as I was, I didn't know if it was up to me or him to break the ice.

In the end I figured I was obligated for dinner and nothing more so it was up to him of wanted anything else. After he paid the check - cash I noticed, I started to feel nervous again as I waited for him to say something. It wasn't long before he did...

"Kelly, you've been an absolute dream to be with tonight," he started out. "I just want you to know that dinner has been everything I could have hoped for and if you feel you should go home now I would completely understand."

I was a bit touched at his sincerity. I'd hoped for a pleasant evening of course but deep down I had this fear that it would end up being dinner with some ugly lecherous guy trying to grope me from the minute I sat down and then expecting me to fuck him all night. If it wasn't for the fact that I knew he was paying for me to be there, I could have been at a pleasant dinner with a new boyfriend given the way things had gone so far. To be honest, I WANTED to be with him. If anything, taking money from him would ruin the atmosphere that had been created, cheapen it in a way I didn't want to happen.

"Oh no Greg," I answered, "I have no desire to go home yet. This has been a wonderful evening and I appreciate everything so far. I'm not ready for it to end quite yet - if that's what you want I mean."

Well, if he couldn't pick up on that hint then he would have to be a lot less perceptive than I thought! Greg didn't fail me though. He stood up and took my hand, helping me to my feet. He smiled and softly said to me, "Then if it's OK with you Kelly I would love you to join me in a more... intimate setting shall we say."

I reached up and kissed him on the cheek, settling back on my heels with a shy grin on my face. For goodness sake here I was a slut being paid to go out with this guy yet somehow I was feeling more like a princess on a date! He called for my coat and we left for the parking lot where he had a nice rental car to take us to his hotel. On the trip back we just talked about the city. Neither of us was really familiar with Columbus so it was like a tourist ride for both of us.

Once again I was surprised in that Greg was a total gentleman, never once trying anything so far as touching me or feeling me. Even on regular dates it wasn't unusual for me to give head once we got in his car and here I was being paid and yet not doing anything!

4. The Hotel

Upon our arrival at the hotel, Greg dropped the car off with the valet and we entered through the main lobby. No sneaking in the back door or otherwise trying to hide; instead Greg offered me his arm and we entered like two lovers returning from an evening out on the town. Even so, I imagine we got more than a couple of looks given the age difference between us. The guys most likely were wishing they were Greg while the women probably considered me as slut - or worse and Greg as some dirty old man! No matter, we got into the elevator and went to his floor and then to the room without hardly a word between us.

Standing outside his room while he got his pass key out, I felt a tingle through me as the realization of what was about to happen slowly sank in. I was about to cross a boundary that I never had thought I would. It was impossible now to say I was just being a slut when he was paying for sex. Then again, I guess technically he hadn't paid me anything - yet at least.

Suddenly I felt the weight of the truth on my shoulders, like someone had dropped a truck on me. No matter how I had tried to avoid it until now, the fact was that I was most likely about to be paid to give sex to a man who, no matter how nice he might seem to be, ultimately wanted me only for my body. Now if THAT didn't make me a whore, something I'd always HATED to be called, then what did?

I didn't have any more time to contemplate it as he held the door open for me to enter. I looked at the threshold and once again I thought about how if I stepped over it there was a label I would have to wear forever afterwards - whore. Was I really willing to go through life knowing I'd prostituted myself, even if only once?

In a way it was like giving up my virginity again in that once done there was no way to ever go back to the way things were before. No matter who knew or didn't know about tonight, deep inside I'd always know what I really was - a girl who had been willing to sell her most precious asset - herself.

Taking a deep breath, I stepped over the threshold and it was done. When I entered the room it was like the burden dropped from my shoulders. With that one simple step forward I accepted my fate and new role. Now that my decision had been made it was just a matter of going through with it. On the way over in his car, I'd been rehearsing this moment in my mind so I would be ready but now everything blanked out and I couldn't remember any of the clever things I'd thought of saying right now.

Greg was staring at me now but hesitating as if he was unsure what his next move should be. I took charge as a good whore would, stepping back and falling back on the bed, letting my dress ride up such that most of my legs were exposed. I gave him my best sultry look and then started the game...

"You know Greg, I bet you would love to see Mandy laying here like this, wouldn't you?"

Greg's eyes widened as he replied, "What do you mean? She's my daughter for god's sake. Why are you talking about her now?"

I smiled wider saying, "You can't fool me Greg. I could tell how much you love her from the way you looked when you talked about her. Wouldn't you love to have a chance to show her just how much you really want her?"

Greg was looking confused. I was making an assumption that he actually had those feelings for his daughter and from his reaction I was pretty confident I had read him right. Still, at the same time he was struggling with years of repressed feelings and upbringing.

Finally he rolled his eyes and sighed, "God forgive me but yes, I would. But I could NEVER do something like this with her... no matter what."

"I understand... so let me be her tonight Greg," I offered softly, "Let me be Mandy tonight. Forget who I really am and put her face in your mind when you look at me. "

"Huh? What do you mean?"

"Here's what I want you to do Greg... I want you to leave the room for a few minutes. I'll get in bed like I was her asleep at home in her bedroom. Then you come in and do with me all the things you've always wished you could do with Mandy."

Greg hesitated so I pushed just a little but more, knowing he was close to the edge. "You know the feelings you get when you see her sleeping at night. You know what you've secretly wished for when you see her in her bikini. You know how jealous you feel when she comes home and you know she's been fucked by some young kid from school. This is your chance to act out all those feelings and fantasies you been forced to keep inside of you all these years. Let me be Mandy tonight Greg."

Greg smiled finally and shook his head. "God you really are something Kelly. How did you know I felt about her that way?"

I just shook my head, not willing to go there. "It doesn't really matter, does it? What's important is tonight you can fuck Mandy. You have your little girl for your very own once and for all. Let me be Mandy tonight for you."

Greg's cheeked puffed out as he let out a deep breath. Then he seemed to make up his mind as he turned and left the room without another word. Once the door was closed I quickly stripped down to nothing and went in my purse to bring out a the sheerest and tiniest nightie I owned, slipping it on and then following it with the matching panties. Looking in the mirror I could see the flimsy outfit hid absolutely nothing but that was the whole point!

Looking at the gaudy comforter on the bed with disgust, I pulled it off of the bed and tossed it in a corner. There was no way was I letting it touch me after some of the shows I had seen on TV about hotel room hygiene! At least the sheets had supposedly been washed since the last people had stayed in the room.

With that I snuggled under the blanket and pretended to be sleeping just as the door unlocked. Greg was back. I kept my eyes shut as I heard him entering the room and latching the door securely behind him. Hopefully he hadn't transformed into some ax murderer! I could hear his breathing grow heavier as he moved towards the bed, seeing me in bed with my dress laid out over the small sofa. I could hear him whispering to himself, talking himself into doing what I had urged him to do.

"Oh Mandy," he whispered in a louder tone, his voice husky with lust.

A chill of anticipation ran through me as I wondered what he was thinking right then. Had he ever been in a similar situation as this before? Had he ever ventured into his daughter's room and seen her sleeping like this, wanting so bad to pull down the covers but knowing he never could? Looking at me now, was he seeing the escort he'd hired or was he visualizing his cute daughter instead?

The covers were now moving on my legs as he lifted them to see my lower body. I kept my eyes tightly closed, pretending to be sound asleep and totally unaware of what he was doing. The cool room air chilled my exposed legs as the covers were pulled completely off of them until I was lying there with nothing covering me but a flimsy nightie and panties.

I was laying on my back with one leg straight and the other bent upwards to allow my pussy to be seen more easily. Greg's breathing was getting heavier as he must have been standing there staring at my all but nude body. Then I felt his fingers softly running over the skin of my lower leg, lightly touching me from my ankle up to my knee. Slowly they worked their way upward, first on the top of my upper thighs and then ever so slowly moving down between my legs. I could feel goose bumps rising as the soft flesh of my inner leg responded to his caresses. The fingers gradually gave way to his hand until his entire palm was softly massaging my inner legs, first one and then the other and then back again. God it was making me soooooo horny!

Finally in the middle of one of his motions he made a sudden detour and softly ran his finger across the thin panties that were barely covering my shaved pussy. I moaned softly as if dreaming in my sleep, moving my hips ever so slightly in response to his touch. Encouraged by my subtle response, his finger began to rub me through my panties. When he hit my swelling clit I jumped just a little to signal to him that I liked it there. Fortunately he could take a hint and he lingered in my more sensitive spots. I could feel my pussy getting wet and I knew my panties must showing some dampness by now.

Greg pulled my panties over to one side, exposing my smooth pussy. I shaved every day to keep it looking clean and smooth like it did ten years before and I knew he must have been turned on to see me look like a little girl down there. His exploring finger started at the top of my pussy and worked its way down, teasing my clit and then spreading me apart until his fingertip was running little circles around the opening to my cunt.

I was soaking wet by now and he would spread my wetness around, even moving up to my clit and wetting it with my pussy cum. Suddenly it plunged into me and I involuntarily gasped as the pleasure it produced rippled through me. He hesitated for a second, afraid to "wake" me and then pushed it all the way into me. God this was so sensual and erotic!

While Greg was fingering my pussy with one hand, I could hear him fumbling with his pants with the other. His belt buckle came undone and then I heard his zipper lowering. With a loud thump his pants hit the floor and I knew he had to be standing with his cock exposed right next to me. It was so tempting to open my eyes to see his erect dick but I kept them closed, pretending to still be asleep.

With his other hand he pulled up my nightie to expose my bare boobs and then I felt the tip of his cock rubbing against my nipples. He was still fingering me as his cock moved in circles around my breast, teasing my hardened nipples and then running around the soft flesh again. Once again I wanted SO badly to open my eyes and watch but I kept up the facade of not having a clue what he was doing.

After playing with my boobs his finger came out of my pussy and the wet digit began to take play with my nipples as well. His cock started to rub against my cheek then and finally I felt the head rub against my lips. Well, enough was enough when it came to the comatose routine so I parted my lips just enough to allow his dick to enter.

As his cock slid into my mouth I finally opened my eyes and looked up at him. Pushing him out with my tongue and lips, I smiled and whispered huskily, "Oh daddy, I've always wanted you to do this!" and then took him back in my mouth and started sucking him in earnest.

"Oh my god Mandy!" he exclaimed, "I've been wanting you to suck me for soooooo long!"

All I could do was give him an "Mmmmmmm" in response but he knew I liked it. I saw he still had his dress shirt on but as I kept sucking him he stripped that off as well. Now he was stark naked next to the bed while I still had my nightie and panties on. Reaching down, the panties were soon no longer an issue. Totally nude now, I spread my legs wide and began to play with myself as he fucked my mouth, pushing himself in it deeper and deeper with each stroke as he continued to swell and lengthen.

Mmmmmmm, I could smell his musky crotch, a rich mixture of sex and sweat creating an odor I loved to breath in from a man. He must have never trimmed his pubic hair because he had a huge bush which tickled my face as he pushed his cock down my throat, almost gagging me as it penetrated deeper and deeper. God he tasted so good!

I imagined him fucking Claire his wife and wondered how he must have tasted after she came all over his nice cock. I sucked him like a daughter should suck her father - good and deep with no resistance or hesitation. I grabbed his cock finally and stroked him as I released it from my mouth.

"Mmmmmmm daddy," I said, licking my lips, "I love your hard cock!"

"That's it Mandy," he said, "be a good girl and suck daddy's cock some more."

"Oh yes daddy," I answered, "I would do ANYTHING for you. Anything..."

I sucked on his cock some more as he continued to stand by the bedside, rubbing his hands all over me as I enjoyed the wonderful flavor of his manhood. He had grown tremendously now, at least twice as long as he had started and so much thicker. I ran my tongue around the head of his cock, tracing circles around the lip and sucking on just the tip. A few times he would push it in to the hilt, until I could feel it pushing down my throat actually. Well, I hadn't sucked well over a hundred cocks not to know how to handle such a thing so I was able to take him without any problems and he loved it!

"Oh fuck Mandy, you're soooooo good!" he cried out, "Take me all in your mouth, bury your head in my crotch."

Well, I was more than happy to comply and I could feel the base of his cock against my lips as his cock went down my throat again, cutting off my air so it was only a matter of time before I had to pull away and breathe again.

I let him drop again from my lips and looked him straight in the eye saying, "Fuck me daddy. Fuck your little girl like a whore. Make me your bitch. Do what you know you want to do to me!"

That's all it took with him in the twisted state of mind he was in now. Without another word Greg grabbed me by the waist and flipped me over. Then he twisted me in the bed until my lower body fell off and I was kneeling in the floor with my upper body on the sheets. I knew what he wanted and so I spread my legs apart for him.

God I wanted him to fuck me so bad! It had been ages since I felt a warm cock inside of me and I would have done anything at that moment just to get him to fuck me. I could feel his now fully hardened cock pressing against my pussy from behind, ready to enter me with another push.

"Forgive me Mandy," he said in a strangely strangled voice, "please forgive me," and with that he pushed and I felt his cock spread my pussy apart until it felt like I would split in half. He pushed just the head into me and then held himself there, moving it around just enough for me to feel him there.

"Oh daddy, it's OK," I moaned, "I have always dreamed of this. I want you to know every inch of me."

"Oh yes Mandy," he gasped, "I have wanted you like this for so long, so many years."

"Fuck me daddy!" I cried out loud, "Fuck me now!"

I pushed back against him as he drove himself all the way into me with one sudden motion. God he felt so big in me! Suddenly my pussy went from empty to full as that sensation I loved so well overcame me - my orgasm. My cunt clamped down on him, holding him so he couldn't pull out. I could feel my cum gushing over his organ, pouring from me in a creamy flood.

Greg realized what was happening and he grabbed my hips to pull himself even deeper into me. I could feel his crotch pressing against my ass and his thick wiry pubic hair brushing against my bare butt. My whole body shook as wave after wave of pure pleasure poured through me. God I hadn't cum like this in ages!

As it died down slowly my pussy released him and he began to stroke himself in and out of me. He did it slowly at first and gradually built up speed until he was smashing into my ass and driving me into the bed with each thrust. After fucking me like this for eternity he pulled himself from me and lifted me back on the bed again. Spreading my legs wide, he began to lick my pussy, burying his face in my crotch.

"Yes daddy!" I said whispering again, "Eat your daughter's pussy. It wants her daddy soooooo bad!"

Greg's face was tight against my cunt so he never replied but I could feel his tongue working magic on my clit. It didn't take long before I was ready to cum again!

"Oh my god daddy! You're making me cum! Taste your girl's cum now!!!!" and with that I came as once again the world disappeared into a haze of pleasure and lust.

This one was even better than the first as his tongue ran circles around my clit and then his teeth gently tugged on it. I thought it would go on forever and hoped it would but eventually it died down and I came back to earth.

"Yes daddy, that was soooooo good!" I said softly, "Now I want to be one with you again. Join yourself with me and make us one body. Show me how much you love me daddy!"

"Yes Mandy, anything you want," he answered in a soft, fatherly voice, "Daddy will take care of you."

As he said this he was moving up and kissed me, his face wet with my cum. I loved the way he tasted and we kissed passionately as he lined up his cock to violate me once again. He drove himself deep into me and I arched my hips up to let him drill me even deeper.

We started fucking hard then, bouncing on the bed like we would break it. He held himself above me with his arms and pumped himself in and out of me like a machine, like some form of nasty fucking machine. I felt him swelling and knew he was about to cum.

"Cum in me daddy!" I cried, "mate your daughter!"

"Oh my god!" he shouted, "I'm cumming you little bitch! Take my cum!!"

Indeed he was! I could feel stream after stream of his hot sperm being pumped into me as he came and came. God he had a lot of cum built up in him! I could feel it dripping down my pussy and onto my ass as it overflowed my cunt. Before the last time he quickly pulled out and while he was still cumming, held his cock over my open mouth to leave the last couple of shots in my mouth. Mmmmmmm he tasted so good.

I took his cock in my mouth and sucked the remaining drops from him. He quickly softened and I knew at his age that would be the only orgasm for him for a while so I gently sucked him and didn't even try to get him hard again. His cum was even more bitter than most but I still loved it as I swallowed down whatever I could get. Finally he collapsed in the bed next to me on his back and I leaned over him to suck on his sensitive cock some more. I laid down between his legs, facing him so I could look at him with his cock in my mouth. He started to stroke my hair as I held his softened cock in my mouth, licking it softly as I did.

"Oh god that was great Mandy," he whispered, making me wonder if he was actually thinking of me as her now!

I held his cock in my hand as I laid my head down on his crotch, his sweaty pubic hair forming a pillow for me. God he smelled so strong now of sex and sweat! It was almost overwhelming and I loved knowing I undoubtedly smelled of it as well.

"Thank you Kelly," he said, returning to reality, "This has been an experience I'll never forget. You've done something for me I never dreamed would happen, let me know what it would be like to fuck my little girl."

He reached to the side of the bed where his jacket was and pulled out an envelope. He smiled and gave it to me after which he laid his head back and fell asleep, exhausted from the incredible sex we had just had. It was open and I looked inside to see several hundred dollar bills tucked away.

For a moment I hesitated. Despite my feelings when I first entered the room, so far I really wasn't a whore since he had not paid me. Accepting this envelope though would seal THAT deal. Oh well, what the hell, why not? Whether or not I took the money wouldn't change what had just happened so why not take it and enjoy some shopping with it? I slipped the envelope in my purse and quickly dressed.

Just as I was about to leave I thought of something naughty. I reached in my purse and pulled out the nightie. The panties were soaked with my pussy and the nightie itself smelled of sex. I laid it out on the bed next to the snoring Greg and smiled. I hoped he enjoyed them later!

I called the taxi with my cell phone and it wasn't long before he showed up at the lobby entrance. I never said a word to him on the ride home as he already knew my address. As I rode in the back seat I put my hand between my legs and felt my still warm pussy, remembering how good I had just been fucked. Greg's cum was still in me and I could feel it draining from me as I sat upright. I had some tissues in my purse and wiped it off of me to keep from staining my dress and put the damp tissues back in my purse.

Arriving back at the dorm it was after 3 AM now and fortunately the lounge area was deserted. I could just imagine how I looked! I quietly entered my room and was relieved to see Karen was sound asleep. One thing about that girl, once she was asleep the world could end and she wouldn't wake up. I made use of this little trait many a night when I masturbated! I quietly hung up my dress, and ran down to the showers for a quick wash down. There is nothing a girl can smell on another girl more than sex and I did not want Karen getting a whiff of the pungent odor I knew I must reek of at the moment. Returning to my room I dressed for bed and laid down.

I was exhausted but it still took almost an hour before I finally fell asleep. It had been a wonderful evening, far better than I had ever dared to dream it would be. Maybe this escort business wasn't going to be so bad after all!

(Feb 25) Chapter 74: Second Escort Job, John Talks to His Wife

John - client (45)

This time I wasn't so much nervous as excited and anxious to get on with it. This time I THOUGHT that I knew what I was getting myself in to. Well, as it turned out, I was totally wrong but fortunately everything still worked out. When a guy is on the phone telling his wife he loves her at the same time he's fucking you, can it get any better than that?

Note (not from Kelly): The original text alternated between calling the client John and Mike. I've changed all "Mike" instances to "John" to be consistent with the other stories mentioning this event.

1. Becoming an Escort

I've always been a very sexual person and was fortunate to have been raised in an open and loving family environment which nurtured that side of me and allowed me to explore in a caring and secure environment. Once I had sex for the first time with my boyfriend at the age of fourteen, there was no stopping me and since then I have been with a number of men (and women) in a number of widely varying settings.

As a result I've grown accustomed to my daily (or more often) "fix" where my deepest and most innermost cravings can now be only satisfied through an orgasm - including the process in getting one. If I don't have a partner available (and often even when I do), masturbation is an alternative but no matter how hot it gets, doing yourself can never replace the real thing.

Going to college was a challenge for me in many of the same ways it is for most kids. In addition, more so than most kids my age I had the pressure of having to go without sex for extended periods of time. If it had not turned out that my first roomie was bi, I am not sure how I would have made it through my freshman year.

Brenda was a lifesaver for me and she is still one of my closest friends. My sophomore year was quite a different story however. Although I was more mature in terms of leaving home and dealing with the college environment, my new roomie was just the opposite of Brenda when it come to her sexuality.

When I first saw Karen I thought maybe I would be lucky again. She was dressed in jeans and a halter that were at the bleeding edge of the school dress code and was an absolute fox. I quickly found out though that while she was a delicious tease and knew exactly what she had going for her, Karen was determined to be a virgin when she got married. Worse, at least for me, she defined virginity in a VERY broad manner. Karen believed that ANY form of sex was wrong before marriage - even masturbation and fondling!

Karen's views on clothing walked a fine line. Nudity was a total no-no but revealing shorts, miniskirts, halters, even a string bikini were OK. A few meager pieces of cloth were sufficient so long as they covered her pussy and nipples. I was shocked out first night when I went to go to bed and she was upset because I was nude. I didn't want to start off the year on the wrong foot with her so even though it had been nine years since I wore clothes to bed (other than when I was visiting someone) I spent my entire sophomore year sleeping in shorts and T-shirts.

I dealt with the situation for the first semester as best I could, mainly through a LOT of masturbating. After a holiday break at home, I returned to school "recharged" and then looked around my dorm room only to be struck me squarely between the eyes with the realization that another semester of secretive masturbation was facing me and my heart sank at the prospect. Now don't get me wrong - I LOVE to masturbate but girls like me needs more!

In desperation I found myself calling a few escort agencies in Columbus and selected the one that seemed the most professional and discriminating. I figured if they were that way when choosing their girls then hopefully they would be with the guys as well. The agency checked out potential clients to be sure they were not felons, wanted criminals or known sex offenders. Although the agency does not officially sell or promote sex, let's face - a guy doesn't pay $1,000 or more just for pleasant conversation.

I was warned that the men would assume that I was also available for additional "services" which were negotiated that evening between me and him. The agency's policy was that anything I arranged with him was entirely my business and responsibility. The guy paid the agency for the evening so I never had to deal with money which also provided protection against prostitution charges. It was up to me to establish what "tip" I got if I decided to go beyond the standard "date. The agency also provided transportation each way in the form of a taxi that picked me up at the school, dropped me off at the arranged location, and then was available to take me back no matter I called. I got a paycheck twice a month just like any other job, taxes deducted and all!

My first "job" was a bachelor party which turned out to be one of the most exciting events of my life to date. I can hardly express the thrill I got seeing ten guys lusting over me the way they did. It was a tremendous ego booster I can tell you that much for sure. I wound up doing more than just stripping - a LOT more.

When it came to the single escort duties I limited myself to married men over forty, preferable with a family and from out of state. My past experience with older guys was that they generally treated me better than the young ones. As for being married, I figured that would ensure they were discreet. I wanted them to be from out of state in hopes that would prevent them from trying to contact me afterwards. Finally, I also set a strict rule that only one date per guy - no repeats under any circumstances. I was doing this for fun and I wanted variety. Plus, I didn't want there to be even a remote chance that someone would think we would be forming any type of "relationship".

Greg was my first escort. He had looked handsome in his profile picture and had written a clever and entertaining introduction. He was from Chicago but what caught my eye was that he had always been married to the same woman. After days of anticipation we met and it turned out to be a fun and sexual evening. It turned out that he had a daughter my age and a hidden desire to have sex with her. Morally he could never do that in real life so I became his "daughter" for the evening. It was the first time I had played out someone's fantasy in such an intense and erotic fashion which is probably why I reached orgasm several times during the course of the evening. The success of that night was enough to convince me to continue on with my escort career.

2. Getting Ready for My Second Client

So anyway, given all this I was once again in a taxi, heading to the east side and a rendezvous with my next client. According to his profile, John was 45 and had been married to his wife for ten years yet he had four children, three by previous marriages (it didn't say just how just how many marriages!) and a fifteen year-old boy with his current wife. Doing the math with this guy was next to impossible! I figured they must have had a child out of wedlock or maybe even while he was married to someone else.

Any way you looked at it, he wasn't the poster child for marital stability, that was for sure! What drew me to him and agree to meet was the profile introduction that he had written. As you might guess, I like a guy who is literate and can express himself. I also have a low tolerance for men who beat around the bush (no pun intended) and can't (or won't) express their true feelings. Well, John's profile description was certainly not vague. I copied it here to help out all the guys who want to know what I look for in a guy!

"Hello!

My name is John and I'm a 45 year-old father of four currently living in the St. Louis suburbs. At 6 feet and 220 pounds I may not be as I was when in my college prime but I still wear a 36 inch belt with the original holes. All the curly hair I was born with is still hanging in there and I was blessed by my parents with their Irish heritage and looks. I'm a professional with a PhD in political science so I would like to think that I am not totally stupid although some of my past wives might have a different opinion. Speaking of past marriages, three of my children are from them and as wonderful as they are it is a relief for them to all be out of school and out on their own. My fourth was a product of my union with Dana, my lovely wife of ten years and counting. He's fifteen now and quite the lady's man - a chip off the old block if you don't mind me saying that. What I mean is the old man knows how to treat a woman and can't get enough of them as you may have guessed from the lasting power of my earlier marriages. Dana should know me better than to expect me to be a faithful husband disdaining all others. After all, she was one of my "other women" which including bearing my son during my previous marriage. I guess she must be either totally in love with me or just naive because she truly believes I am so infatuated with her that I stopped my womanizing when we got married. Thankfully she still doesn't know I did her sister during our wedding reception (and not for the first OR last time)! Bless her heart, I love her dearly and hope to spend the rest of my life with her but hey, some things are just in the genes.

So why would any sane woman want to spend an evening with someone like me? Quite simply, you know exactly what you're getting - no games or pretenses. I can promise an evening you won't soon forget, no matter what your background or experience. I travel extensively around the world and when my evenings are free I enjoy spending them with women of all shapes, sizes and cultures so don't worry that you may not be my "type". I grew up in a generation that taught men to respect all woman and to be a gentleman meaning I will always show consideration for you. As for being a gentleman, well let's just say I promise to behave myself in public. Do you really want me to otherwise?

So let's hit the town and see what happens. Nothing premeditated; dinner at a comedy club? A rousing round of competitive miniature gold? An intense evening of political debate over a remarkable Chablis? Hey, I'm game for most anything so see you soon!"

Quite the profile isn't it? Well, there are a lot of folks on some of the adult websites I've looked at could take some lessons. Once I read this in the profile my agency sent me I was instantly hooked - he sounded like just the type of guy I signed up for in the first place. Face it, I wasn't looking for a boyfriend or a lover. All I wanted was to have some fun and get laid and John sounded like just the ticket.

I accepted the appointment and the agency hooked us up through their brand new e-mail system which maintained both of our privacies. We exchanged a couple of messages and he offered to take me out to a GameWorks club in a fancy mall on the east side of Columbus. I checked it out on the Internet and found it to be advertised as "the ultimate destination for a total entertainment experience where guests can eat, drink, party and play." I had never even heard of it let alone been there but when I mentioned it to some of my friends they all said it was a great place so I accepted and we were set.

Riding in the back seat of the cab, I pulled out a mirror from my purse and gave myself a once-over. I was dressed totally different from my first escorting job. Instead of a killer evening dress and an all-afternoon fight trying to make my hair do SOMETHING, I was wearing a pair of tight jeans and a peasant girl style sleeveless halter top. The jeans were a size (or two) too small making them a challenge to get on but by sucking in my stomach and clenching my butt I was able to finally zip them up and button them. It was worth the effort when I saw how they form-fitted my ass as if they had been painted on. Well, no panties with these babies on, that was for sure! Hopefully I wouldn't have to use the little girls room too often either.

I didn't want to wear anything that had to be tucked in plus the halter showed off my flat stomach which I starved myself to keep so why not let people see it! I had chosen what was normally the unthinkable and wore a strapless bra under my halter. With the peasant-style halter the way it was it didn't matter if I wore one in terms of showing off since I could have leaned completely across a table and not showed anything. Instead I was thinking of what might happen later and hoped that the bra would make the act of undressing a bit more sensual and erotic. Bras may be a pain in the ass (at least for those of us who don't need them to keep our boobs off our laps) but they are always a sure-fire way to turn on guys! This one was not exactly from Victoria Secret but rather straight of the JC Penny winter catalog juniors section. Again, I was thinking ahead and hoping it would give me more of that "little girl" appeal to this older man.

To finish things off I wore a pair of white sneakers with white anklets. I decided to go sans jewelry, not even a watch. Instead of spending hours trying to put some life in my useless hair, I just pulled it back into a pony tail and let it go at that. Minimal makeup – just enough blush to give some color to my cheeks, a bit of shadow to deepen my eyes, and some light lipstick to make my lips look moist. I pulled my trusty old bottle of Charlie from my purse and freshened myself up just as we pulled into the parking garage.

The taxi stopped at the entrance inside the garage and I signed the slip for the driver. He gave me his card and said to call him when I was done and let him know where I was. I smiled a bit at that, obviously he knew this was not to be my final destination tonight! This must have been a pretty good gig for him. Since the agency didn't know when I would be finished, he was on call the entire night so I wouldn't have to wait for someone to be located to pick me up just in case I needed to leave quickly. Hey, the agency was paying for it!

I entered the mall, went up the steps and walked past a comedy club – a pace I would love to go sometime if I could, and saw the GameWorks on the other side of the hallway. I had a red ribbon tied to my purse as we had arranged so when I approached the entrance a gentleman stepped forward and greeted me.

3. Playing Games With John

"Hi!! You must be Kelly. Wow! You look even better in person than you do on your profile. I'm John, your date for the evening."

Well, that was a pleasant if not overwhelming introduction. He took my hand and shook it warmly, looking me in the eye and smiling. The one thing I noticed most was he did NOT do. Most guys never get to my eyes; they start at my legs, move up to my waist and then work their way to my boobs and either stop there or go back down again. John actually looked at ME, as if he was truly interested in Kelly and not just her body. Hmmmmmm, this was interesting and I felt a bit unnerved actually.

To be honest, over the years I have learned to deal with the stares and ogling eyes and actually have grown to appreciate them as a testimony to my sexuality. In that moment I realized that I actually EXPECTED to be objectified and so when this stranger didn't follow the routine I was thrown off balance for a second. Usually at this point all I had to do was wiggle my hips a bit or let my boobs bounce and I knew he was hooked. John was going to be interesting, that much I could tell already.

We chatted for a brief moment about the usual stuff - my trip down, the weather and how we were both doing (both doing well of course). Then John lead me to the entrance where he had already purchased passes for the evening. He helped fasten mine around my wrist and just that easy we were in.

The first thing that struck me was the noise! The place was playing loud music and there were games of all types making random sounds while flashing colored lights. Although it was only 8:00, the place was already packed and I noticed most of the crowd was on the younger side making John one of the older-looking men there. I didn't mind, he was even more handsome than his profile picture and the self-depreciating comment in his profile about his weight didn't do him justice. He was in better shape than half the young guys and looked much more self-assured and mature. I felt comfortable by his side and felt sort of proud actually to be seen as his date.

For the next hour we moved through the place trying out the various games. It was wild and the simulation games proved to be my favorites. I loved the racecar races and we competed against each other over and over. He was the perfect date in that while I beat him every time, I was never sure if he let me or not. As we worked our way around he would first hold me by the waist or put his arm around my shoulder. I noticed though that it didn't take long for his hands to begin to wander and soon instead of resting on my hips I felt one holding my ass. When I didn't resist it emboldened him to start squeezing it. I looked up at him and smiled sweetly.

"Hmmmmmm, so you like my ass John?" I said in a teasing voice.

"You know damn well I do you little tease," he replied with a chuckle. "In fact, I think you know EXACTLY what you've been doing every step of the way so far tonight."

I gave him an innocent pout saying, "Now what do you mean by that John?"

John reached down lower, cupped my ass cheek in his hand, and lifted me up to the point where he was actually bringing me up onto my toes.

"Now won't get me wrong but I didn't fall off the turnip truck yesterday and you're not the first escort I've been with. I have to say though that you've got the 'naive school girl' routine down to an art form and I love it." He paused and looked deep into my eyes. His grip on my ass loosened and his tone softened. "I AM curious about one thing about you though. When do I get to see the real Kelly?"

I kept looking at him with the same innocent look and he slapped my butt as he said in a more forceful voice, "I know you understood me. You intrigue me and trust me, that hasn't happened for me with anyone for a long time. I want the REAL Kelly. What is it you want? I mean really want and no more games, OK?"

I had no clue what to say. For a moment I thought I might cry. I knew what I wanted but how could I tell him? I was the escort and he was the client. Why couldn't he just play along and fuck me? If I wanted a date there were a lot of guys who would take me out at school and I frequently went out with a number of friends. Only problem was the damn Lifestyle Guidelines at school that expressly forbade sex. People who have never attended a school like mine have no idea the pressure that is applied to follow these rules and the result was while I had a good time, I never got to even so much as give a blowjob. There was only one reason I was here tonight and it wasn't the money. I just wanted sex - was that too much to ask?

John brushed the back of his fingers against my cheek. "Now now, don't get all emotional on me. Let's be honest, we're not here tonight to play video games. I think you want exactly what I do so why don't we leave and go do it?"

Thank goodness, enough of the charade and down to business. As he said this his hand was working my ass again, squeezing it and lifting up on it. I glanced around to see if anyone was seeing what he was doing to me but so far he had me positioned in a corner such that his groping hand was hidden from view.

Actually I liked what he was doing - no, I should say that I loved it. My entire ass has always been a major erotic zone for me and I love it when anyone plays with it, even myself. His hand was big enough to cup my entire butt cheek in it and his grip on me felt fantastic! Despite what he had said, it was time to get back into the game so I reached down do his crotch and pressed my palm against him and was pleased to feel the hardness behind his pants. I flashed a foxy smile...

"Well John," I answered by in the sexiest voice I had in my arsenal, "it sounds like you know what you want so why not just do it - or should I say, do me?"

John laughed and started to lead me out. "That's my girl," he chuckled, "Damn, I can't believe we wasted away an entire hour here!"

John led me by the ass to the parking garage, never taking his hand off me the entire way despite the looks of more than a few people in the crowd. He opened the door of a large white SUV that he had rented judging by the sticker with the bar code in the back window. Only thing was, he didn't open the door to the passenger side but rather the one to the back seat! I gave him with a questioning look and he just smiled saying, "I'm in no hurry to get to the hotel, are you?"

What the hell, why not? I got in and slid over to the opposite side of the rear bench seat as he climbed in and shut the door behind us. The windows were tinted heavily so with the lights in the garage I could see outside like it was daytime but I knew from when we approached the truck that it was almost impossible to see inside with the glare of the lights. The mall was crowded this time of night and he had parked on the main isle leading to the entrance so there was a constant stream of people walking by. I turned to John to see him facing me and already unbuckling his jeans. I didn't say or do anything but just kind of looked at him with a "Aren't you forgetting something?" expression. John looked puzzled for a second and then laughed.

"Oh yeah, I know. Don't worry," he said with a wink, "I know the fee was just for the date. Trust me, I am a great tipper - provided the service is good."

I was glad he took the hint so easily. So far in my limited escorting "career" I had not had to "negotiate" a tip. With my first escort client we didn't even discuss it but he was good enough to leave me something anyway. Tonight I was glad John at least claimed he was generous and would take care of it. I realized I should have established a price but now I would just have to wait and see how it turned out. I silently vowed that next time I would be better prepared and not leave it to chance.

With that little matter out of the way he quickly dropped his pants to his ankles along with a pair of black silk boxer shorts. He sat his bare and hairy ass on the cool leather seats and put one leg up on the seat in between us so I had a good look at his crotch with a rapidly growing cock. He had a nice bush of pubic hair which he had trimmed down to less than an inch in length. I love hairy cocks so this was a minor disappointment.

The good part was he was BIG and getting bigger by the second it seemed. Not the porn star ten inch big but I figured it was at least eight inches and thick as well what was even more important to me. Amazingly for his age it didn't have a blemish on it and the head was nice and pink. It had a bit of an upward curve to it and from the looks of it, was going to be hard as a rock and stiff as a board rather than remaining a bit flexible the way a lot of larger cocks did. My eyes were glued to it and I could feel my pussy warming as my tongue ran over my lips in anticipation of feeling it between them. It looked like the perfect cock and I wanted it!

"So you just going to sit there or are you going to suck my dick?" he said as if it was the most natural thing in the world to jump into a truck in the middle of a crowded parking garage and start having oral sex. "Damn girl, you look like you are starving for some cock!"

He was right, I WAS starving for some cock and the hungry look on my face must have betrayed me. Well, it wouldn't be the first time I had sucked cock in an SUV in the middle of a crowd (hint - my dad owns an SUV) so why not? I sank down on my knees on the carpeting and put my hands on his thighs. He grabbed me by the back of my head and pulled my face into his crotch. The first thing I noticed was his male odor - that heavy musky scent men get when they are horny and sweaty. After all the running around the past hour he was really strong and I drew in a deep breath to savor it.

With one hand I took his cock by the base and started to rub it against my cheeks, nose and lips. I enjoyed the feeling of the velvety soft skin of the head against my face. Then I licked just the tip of it, running my tongue in small circles around the opening and then in wider circles as I worked around it. Finally I was licking under the ridge if the head and he was already groaning with pleasure. It was feeling so large and stiff in my hand with my fingers wrapped around the base. I started licking the shaft, working my way up and down it like a large popsicle, first on one side, the bottom and then the top side before working around it again.

John's hands were still on my head, gently pulling me into him, harder if it seemed to him that I was trying to pull away which was totally unnecessary since there was no way I was going to do anything like that now. Trust me, the last thing I wanted to do was stop! With his cock glistening in the dim light from my saliva, I took the fat head in my mouth and sucked on it as hard as I could.

"Oh my god Kelly," John groaned, "that's incredible! Take it all in"

I released my hold on his head with a bit of a loud slurping sound. I could hear people walking right by the SUV, just a couple of feet away from where I was giving head. Kids were laughing and carrying on and I wondered what their parents would say if they knew what was going on inside the SUV they were walking by. I ignored his request to take him all in, at least for the moment. I was going to tease him, make him beg for me to take him in and so I took about another inch of him in my mouth, ran my tongue around it and then let it out again up to the head which I kept in my mouth. Down again I went, this time just a little bit farther, again licking him and twisting my head to increase the sensations I wanted him to experience.

I did this over and over, diving down on him and the slowly letting him back out again, each time going down a little bit farther, taking more of his hot throbbing cock into my mouth. Finally I felt it pushing against the back of my throat and I saw I still have another inch or so to go. Time for some of my specialty – the deep throat blowjob.

The next time down when I felt him pressing in the back of my throat I pushed my head down into him, driving his cock down my throat. My first natural reaction was to gag but I had long ago learned to relax and let it continue to push down my throat without throwing up (there had been a few embarrassing moments early on believe me!). I felt it filling my throat and kept pushing my head down into it until my mouth met the base of his crotch. I wiggled my head to try and drive him in even deeper and he started to really moan out loud. His hands were pulling my head down hard onto his cock as he said those words I had been waiting to hear, him pleading with me to take every bit of him in my throat.

"OH FUCK that feels so good!" he exclaimed, "You're so small I never would have though you could take it all. Suck it bitch, suck it all. God damn it all you're an incredible whore!"

I still had to breathe so I pulled my head upwards. I was getting lightheaded and afraid I might pass out by the time was I finally was able to take a breath. After that I worked my magic on his cock, alternating between violent sucking to gentle caresses with my lips and tongue as I did one of my most favorite things in all the world – sucking cock.

He must have been really horny because I had been at it for only a few minutes before I started feeling the telltale signs of his impending orgasm. His hips were instinctively thrusting upwards to help drive his cock in my mouth and his breathing was getting fast and heavy. Best of all, I could feel it swelling even more as it began to prepare to discharge its load of cum.

"Don't stop now!" John cried out, "Fuck it I'm cumming!!!"

And so he did – gallons of it or at least that's what it felt like on the receiving end. I had his head in my mouth and I could feel the bitter salty taste of his creamy cum as he jerked and his cock spewed its first load of sperm into my waiting mouth. Again and again he came, each time he cried out and I felt his hips rise up to push it farther in me. I couldn't keep it all in my mouth so some of it started to leak out side of my mouth and I could feel it running down my chin and dripping onto the seat. One last spasm and he was though.

I was ready to keep sucking him until he was hard again but he had other plans in mind. John pulled up his pants and got out of the SUV, walking around and then getting back in again into the driver's seat. I was still fully dressed but my face was a mess and I was not anxious to get out and have all those people see me with cum dripping off my flushed face. Not that it wouldn't have been a turn on to see the shock in their faces but some prissy mom might call security. I wormed my way up to the front passenger seat and found a box of tissues in the glove box which I used to wipe the cum off of me.

John looked over at me with a shit-eating grin on his face. "Damn girl, that was a fantastic start! Now let's get going back to my room so I can take care of you as well." I just smiled and it was only a few blocks until he reached the Hilton hotel where he must have been registered.

4. Getting Down to Business

We walked to his room, his hand on my ass the entire way of course. He had an executive room which meant it was larger than the typical room with a king-sized bed and a full-sized couch in addition to the usual chair and desk. I noticed there was a bottle of wine in the ice bucket and he caught me looking at it.

"I know you're under 21 but I figured it would be OK in the privacy of our room," he said.

I started to tell him that I never drank on dates; actually I never drank at all except for a rare glass of wine at dinner with my parents. Then I stopped and figured I would just sip it to make him happy. The LAST thing I wanted was to get drunk and to be perfectly honest, I didn't want him to be either. He quickly popped the cork and filled two glasses. I was pleased he that he fill mine only about a third of the way. I took a sip and found it to be not bad, rather sweet but with a nice flavor. I am really not a wine person so I don't know how to describe it in the proper terms but it was good.

We were sitting on the couch by then, our wine glasses on the table in front of us and it was almost like an innocent high school date in somebody's living room. I knew that it was soon to become far less innocent though and John picked it up as if he could read my thoughts.

"Strip for me Kelly," he demanded, "Nice and slow. I'm sure you know how."

Well, I certainly did so I stood up and gingerly stepped onto the table so I was looking down at him on the couch. He turned on the radio which he must have already tuned to a rock station and music filled the room. I began to sway in front of him in time to the music, gently moving back and forth on my heels, twisting and rotating my ass for him as seductively as I could. My outfit really wasn't the best for this though. My jeans were so tight that taking them off was really something I needed to be laying down in bed. I unsnapped them and slowly drew the zipper down, letting the flaps open up. As tight as they were though they were going nowhere so I had to push them down hard to get them off my ass.

It wasn't exactly the most erotic stripping I ever did as it was hard work to get them off but eventually they were down to my ankles. I slipped out of my shoes so I could take them off the rest of the way and then I kicked them over to him as he sat back and watched with a grin on his face. Without any panties on that left me bare-assed with just my halter and bra on. I smiled as he took my jeans and held the crotch up to his nose and took in a deep breath. With all I had done this evening already I imagined they smelled pretty strongly of my pussy and the smile on his face confirmed it.

With my bare butt and pussy now exposed, I put my shoes back on and danced slowly in front of him, playing with myself and wiggling my ass for him. I was pleased when he took off his own jeans and underwear, sitting bare-ass on the couch and stroking himself as he watched me put on a show for him. I turned around and bent over until I could grab my heels. I saw him upside down between my legs and smiled as I saw he was staring at my bald pussy.

Gradually I worked off my halter top until I was wearing nothing but my bra and heels. I was glad for once to be wearing a bra. As I pulled off my halter I knew he was expecting to see my boobs and when my bra appeared I could see his eyes rolling and I knew I was successful in teasing him further. I didn't want to be too bad though and before long the bra joined my other clothes in the pile next to him, leaving me in just my heels as I moved to the music just a couple of feet in front of him.

It wasn't long before he was no longer able to control himself. He reached up and picked me up off the table and carried me over to the bed. I couldn't help but breath a slight sigh of relief when he pulled back the comforter and opened the sheets. I had seen too many TV shows with black lights that showed what was on those comforters and my skin crawl whenever I laid on one ever after. He literally dropped my in the bed on my back and I laid there spread-eagle for him. He pulled off his shirt and now he was totally nude so I could see his body for the first time. Damn he wasn't bad for an older guy! He and the weight room must have known each other pretty well as he had firm muscles and no beer gut whatsoever.

His big cock was fully erect by now and it was pointing straight out from him, parallel with the floor. I licked my lips in anticipation of feeling it in me and I hoped that I wouldn't have to wait long for my hunger to be satisfied. John spread my legs wide apart and shoved a pillow under my ass, raising my pussy a few inches from the bed. I still had my heels on but he didn't touch them. John took my legs and raised them up until my feet were on each side of his head, my lower legs resting on his shoulders. He took his cock in his hand and guided it to my wet pussy, rubbing my pussy for a while first before entering me. His head split open my lips as I closed my eyes and waited for him to violate me.

John would have none of that though. "Don't close your eyes Kelly, I want you to see me fuck you."

I did as he demanded, bunching the pillow under my head so I could keep an eye on my pussy where he was now beginning to push himself into me. I had been waiting all week for this and he didn't disappointment me. I thought I was going to split in half as his fat cock head forced its way into me. I was more sensitive in the first inch or so of my pussy than I was anywhere else inside of it so I loved it when he stopped with just his cock head in me and started to move it around. Damn that felt good!

Eventually he pressed himself further into me until the base of his cock was pressed tightly against my pussy. I was thinking of how wonderful it felt when suddenly a cell phone starting ringing. My first thought was who the hell could be calling me but it was his instead. The sound it made when it rang was one of those custom alert sounds he must have downloaded from the Internet and I could hear him swear something under his breath.

"Ignore it John," I begged him, "Don't stop fucking me!"

"Can't sweetie," he explained, "that's the wife's special ring and I'm supposed to be all alone in my room doing some business homework."

I figured he would just pull out of me and leave me lying there all hot and bothered while he got his wife off the phone as quickly as possible. Well, needless to say I was a more than just a bit surprised at what happened next! John kept his cock in me as he stretched for his pants on the floor and pulled out his phone. He flipped it open and the next thing I knew he was talking to his wife while he was still fucking me! It was absolutely surreal! I listened as he told her how much he loved her and missed her, how lonely he was sitting in an empty hotel room.

I would have given anything for a speaker phone and once again it was if he was reading my thoughts. Instead of holding the phone and trying to fuck me at the same time, he changed the phone to speakerphone mode and set it on the nightstand next to the bed. Next thing I knew I was listening to the both of them as they started discussing what they would do when he got back. John looked at me with a grin and put his finger to his lips as he humped me. Well duh! Obviously now would NOT be a good time for a loud moan and a passionate cry of, "Fuck me John!".

The more he talked to his wife the more erotic it became for me. John was telling her how lonely he was and how there was nothing for him to do while in reality he was fucking the daylights out of an escort girl! She told him that she loved him and missed him and he passionately told her how much he loved her as well while at the same time pressing his cock in me as firmly as he could. It was an incredibly sensual experience for me to actually witness and be a part of his blatant betrayal of her loving trust in him that it set off a nice orgasm in me. I had to restrain myself to keep it from being too big of one but it was still an orgasm and that can never be a bad thing to have.

John must have felt my wet pussy squeezing his cock and together with the look of joy that must have been on my face he knew I was cumming and a hug smile came to his face. Every guy loves his ego to be stroked almost as much as his cock and nothing does the job like thinking he is making a girl cum. Well, I was more than happy to accommodate them!

Even though we couldn't say anything we communicated by hand signals or in some cases John simply grabbed me and placed me how he wanted me. With the speakerphone he had both hands free and we fucked in a number of positions. Once he made an attempt to go for my ass but I pulled away and gave me a stern look and he got the message - no anal with this girl! He look disappointed for just a second but when I sat on his cock and bounced on it like I was trying to drive him through the bed he soon forgot about it.

They must have been talking for half an hour by the time John was ready to cum. The distraction of having to carry on a conversation with his wife as if nothing was going on must have kept him from getting aroused enough to do it before then or else he had tremendous self-control because I had been giving his cock my all. Not that I was complaining of course! Maybe I should find a way for other guys to talk to their wives if this was a good way to keep them going this long!

They were talking about some work that needed to be done on the house and whether or not she should take care of it before he came home when a groan escaped from him. His wife asked if he was OK and he told her his back was hurting him again when in reality he was about to cum in me!

He barely had time to blurt out for her to hang on for a second while he got some Tylenol when his orgasm began. He wasn't going to give it to me in my pussy though but instead he pulled out quickly and started shooting it all over me. I had cum over my stomach, boobs and even a bit on my face as he pumped his hips and milked his erupting cock with his hand to drive it out as far as he could shoot it. Considering he had just cum earlier I was impressed at how quickly his body had reproduced so much in such a short time. I used my fingers to spread it out over me like it as hand cream and soon my boobs and stomach had a sheen of cum covering them.

John moved up the bed and straddled my chest, letting his cock hang down so I could suck it. He shuddered when I first took his cock in my mouth, still hyper-sensitive after his orgasm. I tasted his cum and licked his shrinking cock when his wife called out asking him when he was coming home. Well, I knew when he was cumming! They closed out their conversation as I continued to suck on him. When she said goodbye it was all I could do to keep from calling out to her, to tell her how good her husband's cock had felt in my pussy and how much I enjoyed the flavor of his cum. John hung up and looked down at me with a big grin on his face.

"Now THAT is how I wish every conversation with her went," he chuckled. "I would talk to her every night if I had you sucking my cock at the same time."

I smiled as best as I could with my mouth full of cum and cock. I would have kept sucking him all night if he wanted me to, I loved a cock in my mouth, hard or soft as I figured a soft cock was just a few licks away from being a hard one.

To my surprise though, John was evidently done for the night. That was the only thing about older guys, they certainly didn't have the stamina of the young guys! But in a way it was for the best as it was late and by the time I got home it would be well after midnight. I had to take a shower though with all the cum spread out over me. It was starting to dry and I knew from past experience that it would itch like hell once it had.

John laid back in the bed, enjoying the afterglow of sex while I jumped in the shower and rinsed his cum off of me. I scrubbed my pussy and was tempted to stay a little longer in the shower to play but I figured I had plenty of time for that when I was home. I dried myself off, got dressed and gave John a kiss on the cheek to wake him. poor guy, he looked soooooo tired!

"Thanks Kelly," he said, "You're a sweetheart. Hand me my wallet from my pants babe."

I picked his pants up off the floor and pulled out his wallet. He took it and counted out five bills and handed them to me - they were hundreds! My eyes widened as he handed them to me.

"So ahead and take it girl," he said, "Hell you earned it. I just write it off as an entertainment expense anyway." I took the money from him and stuffed it in my purse. I started to leave when he called out to me. "Hey Kelly, I'll be back in town next week. Any chance I can see you then?"

The last thing I was going to do was meet him again but I didn't want to say that while I was with him in his hotel room. So far he had been a sweet guy but I had no idea what he might do if I refused him. I figured it didn't matter what I said since he would have to go through the agency anyway. They knew that I never met guys twice so it would be up to them to break the news to him. Since he had no idea who I really was or where I lived so all I had to do was get out that door and everything would be OK.

"Give my agency a call John," I replied, "If I'm available I am sure they can make the arrangements."

Technically this was the truth but what I didn't tell him was that I would never be "available" for him again. I walked out of the room and felt like a million bucks as I went down to the lobby. I called my taxi and he was there waiting for me in just a few minutes. He explained that he assumed that we would be at this hotel since it was the nicest one around and asked me if I had a good time. I just told him yes and left it at that. Last thing I needed was a nosy cab driver!

In less than an hour later he was dropping me off at my dorm. Once again I signed the voucher and this time I gave him a $20 tip. He looked at me and I smiled, telling him that it had been a good night and left him with that to think about.

Back in my dorm room I was surprised to find Karen was still awake reading a book. I couldn't remember the last time she was still up this late unless she had been out for a date and I knew she hadn't one planned for tonight. I was especially happy now that I had taken the time to shower before leaving the hotel. It would have been hard to explain the strong scent of sex that I am sure I would have reeked of otherwise!

I had now been out on two escorts and I classified them both as smashing successes. I couldn't wait until morning so I could call my parents and tell them about my evening. Dad always got so horny any time I told him about one of my dates and this one should really get him going. Well, I bet mom was going to be happy tomorrow night thanks to me!

(Feb 26) Chapter 75: Third Escort Job, Bill Does Me in Public

Story codes: MF oral exhib adultery
Me (19)
Bill - client (38)

One thing I learned quick about escorting - every time is different. Not that I'm complaining! Bill had a fantasy about having sex in public which his wife wouldn't fulfill so he turned to someone who didn't mind at all - me!

1. My Escorting Resume

In my diary entries about my first bachelor party and two escorting jobs I explained in detail how and why I got into the escort business. Briefly, I attend a very strict religious university and during the second semester of my sophomore year I was becoming depressed from the lack of sex to the point where it was beginning to affect my schoolwork. Given the small size of the community and the nature of our campus, doing anyone at school to the extent I needed it was not an option so I looked into a few escorting agencies to see what they had to offer.

Eventually I signed up with the one that seemed to be the best and soon started out my new "career" with a crazy bachelor party and then moved into personal escorting (alright, maybe a fancy name for being a whore but I wasn't streetwalking). The first two time with "customers" went so well that I would have done them for free to be honest. I had established a rather narrow profile with my agency of men I was willing to escort which limited my opportunities quite a bit but nothing I can't live without. I only wanted to fuck married men around forty or older, preferable from out of state with a family.

Now I am sure you're wondering why I wanted someone like this instead of some young stud who could fuck my brains out all night. If I was at a party maybe that would be who I would be drawn to. In this case I was escorting so I wanted to be more careful. My experiences with older guys have shown me that they generally appreciate me more and treat me better than the young guys who just want another notch in their belt.

As for wanting them to be married, I hoped that this would help to ensure discretion on their part plus it turns me on something fierce knowing a man wants me bad enough to risk his marriage just to have me for a few hours. The out of state requirement is so they won't try contacting me afterwards even though they have no idea who I really am other than what I tell them.

Finally, I also established a strict rule of only one date per guy - no repeats under any circumstances. I was only doing this for fun and I wanted variety. I also didn't want there to be even a remote chance that some poor guy would think I actually cared about him and think we were forming any type of "relationship".

My first "job" was a bachelor party which turned out to be one of the most exciting events of my life. It's hard to express the thrill I got from having ten guys horny lusting for me, all of them wanting me in the worst way, including the groom. Well I can tell you that it was a tremendous ego booster! I wound up doing more than just stripping - a LOT more.

Greg was my first escort. He had looked handsome in his profile picture and had written a clever and entertaining introduction. He was from Chicago but what caught my eye was that he had always been married to the same woman, like my dad. It turned out that he even had a daughter my age and a hidden desire to have sex with her so I became his "daughter" for the evening. The success of that night was enough to convince me to continue on with my escort career.

My second escort was John who was 45. He had been married to his wife for ten years yet had four children, three by previous marriages and a fifteen year old boy with his current wife (not a typo, the son was fifteen and John had been married ten years after having been divorced for one year - you do the math). He wasn't the poster child for marital stability, that was for sure! What drew me to him and agree to meet was his witty profile.

John met me at a GameWorks after which we went to his room in a nearby Hilton. What made it really hot for me though was he talked to his wife on the phone almost the entire time he fucked me and she never had a clue what her husband was doing. I came so hard when he told her how much he missed and loved her when at the same time his cock was filling my cunt with cum!

2. Client #3

My current escort was supposed to be another married 38 year-old man named Bill. In Bill's profile he said that his wife was totally shy about sex while deep down he had always harbored a fantasy about public sex, one which he knew she would never fulfill for him. This was his first escort experience and all he wanted was to live out his fantasy. He claimed that he really loved his wife Betty and had a great family but until he lived out this fantasy his life would never be complete. The agency contacted me when they got his account, realizing it was right up my alley and I immediately agreed to take him. He sounded perfect, at least on paper...

Saturday afternoon I started to prepare by picking out an outfit to wear. Knowing what he wanted to do I figured I had better wear something accessible and easy to get on and off so tight jeans were definitely out! In a way I was reminded of my high school days when I would make out with guys in their cars. If I knew I was going to fool around I made sure to wear something that was easy to work with in the cramped quarters. Tonight could very well be much like those days so I knew exactly what I wanted to wear - a slutty skirt and loose blouse.

I picked out a short denim skirt which left little to the imagination together with a sleeveless blouse which I left unbuttoned and simply tied up to make it into a halter top. I had a nice set of black strap heels with three-inch heels that showed off my legs and ass nicely. I toyed with the idea of not wearing any panties but ended up choosing a white satin thong. They were a bit cheap but if things went as I planned I wouldn't be wearing them back home so why give up an expensive pair?

Looking in the mirror I debated my makeup. Usually I wear only the minimum and go for the innocent young teen look. I debated whether Bill would rather go for the subtle look and then shock people when they realized what we were doing or if he would want to show me off to other people letting them think I was a just whore out with him for the night. Somehow I thought he would be the type to want a trophy girl that he could show off and make the other guys jealous so I decided to go for the slutty whore look. Some dark eye shadow with more heavy blush than normal gave me the sultry look I wanted. I let my hair hang down to frame my face and doused myself with perfume.

Thankfully my roomie was out for the weekend visiting her parents. If Karen had walked in and seen my like this I think she would have turned me in to the morality goons at school! As it was when it was time to go out to the taxi I took advantage of the cold weather to put on a long coat which helped me get through the dorm lobby without drawing attention.

3. Dinner With Bill

After a 45 minute ride the taxi dropped me off at the pre-arranged meeting place - a Japanese steak house on the north side of the city. During the trip I tried to figure out why he had chosen this location as it seemed rather unusual for such a date. Although I had never been to this particular restaurant I knew the type and there wasn't a great deal of privacy. There was a fine line between playing around in public and getting arrested for indecency!

When I got out of the taxi I looked around and saw a guy approaching me and waving to me. I had a general idea of what Bill looked like from his profile but it was immediately obvious that if this was him then someone had been embellishing things a bit - more than just a bit actually. My guess was the "real" Bill was about ten years older and forty pounds heavier than the guy described in the profile. He wasn't ugly but certainly no spring chicken and not 38 by any means!

"Kelly?" he inquired with a broad smile as he approached. Well, how many other twenty year-old girls got dropped off here by taxi? Odds were good I was who he was waiting for! I just stood there and stared at him without saying a word. Frankly, I was waiting for an explanation and wanted him to know right off the bat that I wasn't pleased with the deception.

His face sort of drooped and I could tell that he was getting the message loud and clear. "Sorry, I guess you're upset with me. Look... if you want to call this off I understand."

I turned up the side of my mouth to try and give a decision-making look. "C'mon; let's go inside where it's warm so we can talk."

He opened the door for me like a gentleman should and we entered the lobby area where he checked on his dinner reservation and found we had about a twenty minute wait. The place was packed and I was pleased to notice that I was getting some pretty good looks from most of the guys there - especially a few of the husbands.

I wanted to laugh when I saw one harried wife trying to corral three little brats when she must have caught her straying husband staring at my ass because she gave him a stiff elbow in the side. She whispered something in his ear and he quickly turned away. Then she looked back over at me with a clear "stay away from my husband" look which thrilled me more than she could have imagined. I really wasn't interested in her husband but now I would have loved to catch him on the way to the restroom, just to prove I could have him if I wanted. Oh well, let her have him.

Bill didn't want to just stand around so we went over to the bar area and were lucky to catch a couple just leaving so we grabbed their seats at a small table to wait. A waitress stopped by and I asked for a Diet Coke while he ordered a Japanese beer. He turned from the waitress when she left and finally we had a moment to ourselves. Bill started to talk to me with a sheepish look on his face.

"OK, so I used a picture of me when I was younger and I lied about my age and a few personal things. Bottom line, are we still on for tonight?" he asked.

This was great! I really didn't mind the way he looked but now I was in control of the situation from the very start so I was going to milk it for all I could. I sipped my drink and replied, "Well, what else have you lied about? You said this was your first time but is this something you do regularly? Damn, are you even married? Tell me, how do I trust anything you say now?"

He sort of grimaced and I couldn't help but wonder if I had gone a bit too far with the bitchy tone. After all, he WAS a paying client and if he dropped me then I could be held responsible for his fee and I couldn't afford that! Besides, technically I was not under any obligation to have sex with him. My agency made no agreements regarding anything other than dinner and a night on the town. Anything beyond that was totally between the client and me. If I was in this just for the money I would have probably resigned myself to dinner and called it a night. In my case however I was here because I wanted the sex just as much if not more than he did. To go home with an empty pussy would kill me!

"Sorry," I said in a more conciliatory tone, "That was mean of me. Why don't you promise to just tell me the truth from now on and let's try starting over again."

Bill looked relieved but based on the results of my previous escorts I knew there was one more matter to settle before we went any further. Better to get it over now than to worry about it later.

"Umm, Bill, about tonight," I said softly, "You realize you only paid the agency for me to have dinner with you, right? If you would like to tip me though I'm sure you'll be happy with everything."

Fortunately Bill appeared to have been expecting this because he nodded and reached into his coat pocket to draw out an envelope which he gave me. I sneaked a look inside and saw five crisp $100 dollar bills. I folded it in half and then slipped it into my purse. Well, the deal was struck and it was up to me deliver so I looked up and smiled at him.

"Why thank you Bill, I appreciate this very much. Mmmmmmm, you're a generous man."

We chatted about everyday things, the weather and other small talk until the hostess came to say our table was ready. She led us to a large table at the very back of the room where six other people were seated, directing Bill and me to the empty chairs on one side. Next to us around the corner was an older couple that looked to be in their sixties while the remaining seats were taken up by a family with two kids that looked to be ten and twelve or so plus one cute boy in a high chair.

I was pleased to see that both husbands were taking a good long look at me as I sat down. I almost giggled as for the second time already that night a wife elbowed her husband and whispered something in his ear. It was the older couple and he quickly stopped looking my way but I had a feeling he would be stealing a glimpse whenever he could.

Bill looked proud as a peacock although the truth of the matter was the others must have realized I was a hired date - I mean why else would I be with him, especially dressed the way I was? With me hanging on to his arm and his hand on my ass as we approached the table I don't think anyone thought I was his daughter, that was for sure!

My parents have always enjoyed Japanese steakhouses so I was familiar with the routine. I ordered shrimp and chicken while Bill asked for filet mignon and shrimp. Knowing that Bill hadn't tipped me to be a good socializer I decided to do my best to give him his money's worth. The waitress brought out hot towels to clean up with and I used mine to pat down my neck and chest, closing my eyes and breathing out as I reached just a little lower than necessary into my blouse. My blouse spread apart as a result and I left it that way as I handed back my towel to the waitress. Bill looked over at me but his eyes were fixed on my breasts, not my eyes. I knew he was getting a good eyeful of my boobs and I hoped he liked what he saw.

Meanwhile the soup came and while we were bending over to eat it I slipped my left hand over to Bill's lap and pressed firmly down on his crotch. Bill must have had some thoughts already going through his mind because he definitely had an erection going on! I looked at him and smiled as my hand slowly kneaded his crotch. Bill's face turned a bit red and I knew it wasn't from the hot soup!

When the salad came out I kept my hand on him, massaging his cock through his thin dress pants. Everyone else was eating and not paying much attention to us but I knew Bill must have felt like all eyes were on him. The cute little waitress had to have noticed what I was doing from her vantage point but she was discreet and just gave me a demur smile when she picked up my bowl and plate. Well, Bill hadn't seen nothin' yet as they say and I had to admit that I was getting turned on a bit myself as I felt his cock hardening in my hand, right there with all the people around us!

The chef eventually arrived with a tray containing our food and he checked to make sure he had why everyone had ordered. As he started cooking the meal and people's attention was fixed on the show he was giving us, I got bolder with Bill, unzipping his pants slowly with my fingers. It wasn't very easy and at one point he had to bring his hand under the table to cinch up his pants so I could pull the zipper down more easily. He was sitting up close to the table so nobody could see what was going on below his waist but it was still a thrill knowing that other people were sitting right here next to us as I reached into his open zipper and felt his cotton underwear which was all that was now between me and his cock.

Soon my hand made its way past this final barrier I felt the warmth and smoothness of his shaft and I held onto it like a firm sausage. I milked his cock, using mostly my wrist while trying not to move my arm too much so people wouldn't wonder what was going on. As I ate my meal, I never let go of Bill's cock the whole time. The waitress came by several times to refill drinks and I knew she saw what was going on but she was as discreet as ever and never missed a beat. The next time she came by she placed an extra napkin next to me. I looked up at her and she smiled. I had a good idea why she thought I would be needing an extra napkin!

Without a lot of motion on my part I wasn't sure if I could get Bill to cum but I underestimated his horniness. Before we had finished our main courses I could feel his cock swelling even more and he was having a noticeably harder time concentrating on his eating. Suddenly he came and I could feel his hot cum squirting all over my hand. He shot several big loads and my hand was covered with his slimy semen. Mission accomplished, I brought my hand back into my lap and used the extra napkin to wipe the cum from my hand. I folded it carefully so the cum filled portion wasn't showing and placed it on the edge of the table. The waitress must have been right behind me as almost immediately she picked it and looked at me with just a hint more of a smile than before. There was something about the look she gave me that I couldn't quite place but then the chef finished everyone started clapping. He had put on a good performance but in a way I thought they should have been clapping for me in recognition of the great hand job I had just given Bill!

Bill used the distraction to slip his cock back into his shorts and zip up his pants. He had deflating rapidly and the bulge in his pants wouldn't be noticeable for much longer. The rest of the meal would give him plenty of time to recuperate. At least I hoped so as I didn't plan for this being the only time he came tonight!

Amazingly nobody else seemed to have a clue what was going on at our end of the table. The couple next to us had been ignoring us since the wife poked her husband for staring at me. The parents were too preoccupied with their kids. As for the kids, they were much too young to even suspect what I had been doing maybe someday when they got older it might dawn on them what that girl in the restaurant was really doing! The soft drinks were having an effect on me and I had to pee so I whispered to Bill that I needed to visit the little girl's room. I excused myself and headed to the restrooms.

The women's restroom was empty when I walked in so I quickly peed and went to the sink to wash my hands. Looking in the mirror, I touched up my makeup and combed my hair just a bit. I was about to leave when the door opened and who should walk in but our waitress! I saw she had something in her hand and to my surprise it was a wadded up napkin and in an instant I knew which one it was.

She was short, even for me and must have weighed less than eighty pounds dripping wet. She looked so young and I wondered if she was even 18 yet. I said hello just to be friendly but she didn't say a word. She gave me a sexy smile and unfolded the napkin, showing me the cum-soaked portion where I had wiped Bill's sperm off my hands onto it. Then to my total shock she put the wet spot up to her face and started rubbing her face with it, smearing his cum enough to visibly wet her cheeks with it! God she looked hot!

I just stood there, watching this tiny girl looking incredibly erotic with her now cum-smeared face. For one of the few times in my life I knew what it felt like to have another person in control of a sexual situation with me as I just stood there frozen, not knowing what to do next. Fortunately she was in charge and she stepped forward to kiss me. I felt her wet cheeks against mine, knowing it was Bill's cum that I was feeling. I started to lick her face, lapping the cum from her. I licked it all off, savoring the flavor of his cum while enjoying the smooth soft skin of her face against my tongue.

As it turned out, that was all we did. She took a towel from the sink and dried her face off. Then she smiled at me and turned, leaving the room without ever having said a single word! I just stood there, my pussy throbbing from the pure sexuality of the moment. It was almost too much and I stood there for a moment wondering if it had really happened to if somehow I had drifted off and just imagined the whole thing. Three other women barged in just then and broke my concentration. I quickly left and returned to our table.

Everyone else had gone and Bill asked if I was alright since I had been gone for over ten minutes. I reassured him that I was perfectly fine and he started to say something about our missing waitress when she suddenly appeared with his credit card receipt. She didn't look at me and acted as if nothing had happened! I couldn't help but wonder who she was and what we might have done under different circumstances as she was most certainly an extremely sensual girl! Bill signed the credit card invoice and I told him to leave a good tip for the waitress! If he only know why!

4. After Dinner Sex

We left the restaurant and made our way across the parking lot to his car. The lights in the lot were poor and with it being dark I knew it would be difficult for anyone to see us inside the darkened car. As he started to put in the keys to start the engine I turned in the passenger seat to face him.

"Bill, I'm not ready to leave yet. Do you want to fuck me right here?"

Bill looked around at all the people in the lot and I couldn't help but think it was a bit funny. He had probably fantasized many times about having sex in public, imagining all the grandiose performances he would make but now that that he was faced with the real thing he wasn't so confident. Well, needless to say I had no such inhibitions so it was now up to me to get things rolling. As I lifted my skirt I smiled at myself thinking that nobody could ever accuse me of being shy! I deftly pulled my thong down and around my ankles and handed it to him.

"Here, a souvenir for you." I said with a grin. "Now don't you dare go washing them!"

Bill held them up to his nose, taking in a big whiff from the crotch area which was still damp from my time spent in the women's restroom. I have to admit that as much as I enjoy tasting my own pussy and licking others, I have really never understood the fascination with smelling underwear. I recognize that such an interest exists and make use of it such as I did in this case but even so, what's the big deal? It's like sniffing a napkin after someone wipes their mouth so you can smell the steak they just ate. Without the meat, what good is the smell? Oh well, Bill sure seemed to appreciate my thong.

"Oh my god you smell so good!" he murmured.

Well, why don't you get a taste of the real thing?" I said seductively as I turned in the seat and spread my legs apart for him to give him an unobstructed view of my warm pussy.

"OH GOD!" he exclaimed, "You have no fucking idea how much your cunt looks just like the way I had dreamed it would."

I smiled and replied back, "Then get down and start licking if you want it so bad. C'mon, let me know if it tastes as good as it looks."

I knew from years of experience that I did taste just as good as I looked and Bill certainly didn't need any more encouragement. He leaned over the center console to put his head between my open legs. His tongue touched me and I felt myself involuntarily jump as it nailed my clit. He couldn't see anything and with the windows closed you couldn't hear much of what was going on but I could see a woman getting into the car next to us. She was about to get in the passenger side of her car when she noticed something going on in the car next to her. The windows had a slight fog to them but I am sure she could see what was happening from the way her eyes opened wide as saucers and her mouth dropped open. I was about to say something to Bill when she quickly turned away and slammed the door behind her as she rushed to get into the car. Bill heard the car start and pull away and he started to lift his head from my crotch.

"Don't worry," I reassured him, pushing his head back into my crotch, "They are leaving. Besides, she only saw a little."

Bill looked up at me with his own eyes wide open this time. I laughed at this response saying, "Well, you wanted public sex so now you should be happy. She'll probably talk all week about seeing two people having oral sex in a parking lot."

I reached behind me and lowered the passenger seat back. It was electric and laid almost flat when it was all the way back. I lifted his head up and scooted myself around until I was lying flat on my back. I looked over at him and gave him the universal "come hither" motion with my index finger.

"Get over here Bill and fuck me," I said as I teased him by pulling my skirt all the way up and playing with my pussy. "Hmmmmmm, I bet Betty never made you an offer like that!"

"Fuck no!" he exclaimed, "she won't even do it unless we are in the bedroom with the door closed and lights out. But what is someone pulls in next to us?"

He unbuckled his pants and it was hilarious watching him struggle to pull them off in the confines of the car. As for worrying about someone pulling in next to us, I was more worried that someone would NOT!

"Well, do you want to fuck me or not?" I demanded.

He nodded like a loyal puppy dog.

"Then get your ass on top of me and get going! Fuck me dammit, I need a cock in me."

My language was getting a bit nastier as I was starting to better understand Bill. He wanted to do all these nasty things but he didn't have the nerve to initiate anything. I started to wonder if the real problem at home was with him, not his wife.

A tingle ran through me as I realized what a dominant position I was in. How far would he go if I pushed him?

Bill had his pants off now and was bare ass with his shirt and black socks still on. It was about as unsexy a sight as I had ever seen and my pussy was not responding the way it needed to. Under the circumstances I was just going to have to concentrate on his cock, not his body. I have found over the years that I can suck about any cock so long as the guys is clean - and pretty much have! Even though I would have sucked him, normally I would never have allowed someone like Bill to fuck me but what could I say, he had paid me and now I had to deliver. Hopefully once he started fucking me it would be better. Mmmmmmm, nothing makes me forget the rest of the world like the feel of a cock penetrating my pussy!

Bill finally managed to work his way over and get on top of me. I could feel his stiff cock pressing on my lower stomach just below my belly button. I reached down to grab it and tried to direct it to my pussy hole.

"C'mon Bill, stick it in me. Fuck me like you've never fucked your wife."

Bill was struggling too much to keep his balance to say much but he understood what I wanted. He maneuvered himself into place and I could feel the head of his hard cock pushing my lips apart, trying to violate me. I lifted my hips upward and he pushed down to meet me and my legs felt like they were going to split in half as his cock spread my pussy apart. Fortunately my pussy wasn't as discriminating as I was and it was wet enough for him to enter me easily.

God it felt incredible! The feel of a cock as it first penetrates me is always wonderful, a sensation I will never grow tired of. All thoughts about how he looked or dressed immediately cleared from my mind and all I could think about was this warm hard monster that was invading my body, trying to force its way into my tight pussy.

"Deeper Bill," I begged, "Fuck me deeper."

Bill gasped as his hips swung to drive his dick deeper in my hole. I could feel myself being filled with his cock until finally his crotch met mine, signaling that he was in me all the way.

Finally he broke his silence saying "Oh my god Kelly, your cunt is so fucking tight! Damn I've forgotten how tight a young pussy feels!"

By now the windows were fogged up totally and I heard more than saw the car pull in next to us. It must have been a family because I heard a mom yelling at some kids to be careful in the parking lot. It was almost surreal to have this old guy fucking me with them just a few feet away. They must not have been able to see anything because I didn't hear any comments. Bill was too involved with fucking me like a teenage boy in heat to even notice!

I put my feet up on the dash as he pressed forward with his feet pushing against the floor of the car. It was just a good old-fashioned fucking, driving himself in and out of me rhythmically. It was almost like I was a plastic doll for him to masturbate with more than anything else and my mind started to wander. I found myself wondering who the real culprit was at his home when it came to their sexual problems. Bill wasn't exactly the most imaginative guy to fuck me, that's for sure! Oh well, I figured I may was well make the best of it. After all, I WAS being fucked so there had to be something good about it!

"Oh yea Bill, fuck me... fuck me harder Bill... Oh that feels so good Bill," I cried out, trying to encourage him so he would cum and get this over with.

I played with my clit as he banged me, trying to work myself into an orgasm so I wouldn't have to fake one. On the one hand I wished he would cum but on the other it gave me the time I needed to make myself cum first and I felt myself filled with the tingling sensation that always precedes an orgasm. Sure enough, my pussy gushed cum over his cock as it felt like an explosion between my legs which rapidly surged all through me from the tips of my toes to the last hair on my head.

"Oh god...," I moaned, not having to fake anything this time as I felt the sensual feelings cascade through me.

My pussy latched onto his cock and he grunted as he tried to keep fucking me even though my cunt was gripping him tightly.

"Yea baby, cum for me," he said, "Oh fuck, now I'm cumming too!"

I was still in the middle of my first orgasm when I felt him push himself up into me as far as he could and then explode, releasing a ball of heat deep inside of me. My orgasm had been dwindling but the feeling of him shooting his hot sperm deep inside of me turned it around in its tracks and I was back at the summit again.

"Cum in me Bill, give it all to me," I whispered hoarsely. "Fill me with your cum!"

A final thrust ended the series of cum shots and he collapsed onto me, his arms barely holding his full weight off of me. My pussy was so sensitive I could feel his cock throbbing in me, slowly getting smaller. Every few moments he would sort of jerk spasmodically and his cock would move in me, sending another little burst of pleasure through me.

Bill was breathing heavily and for a moment I wondered if he was going to have a heart attack while he was on top of me. Fortunately we dodged that bullet and finally he got off and I felt the last remaining bit of his cock pull out from me. He somehow made his way back into the driver's seat and once again I was treated to a comedy show as he struggled to get dressed. As for me, I just laid there on my back rubbing my pussy slowly with one finger, making little circles around my swollen clit, sending shivers through me as my clit begged for more attention.

"Oh fuck Kelly, that was incredible!" he gasped, exhausted not only from fucking me but also from his efforts to get dressed in such close quarters. "Kelly, thank you so much for an incredible evening!"

At first I thought he was just joking. We had only been together a couple of hours so far and it sounded like he was calling it a night! Well, I wasn't going to argue or try to dissuade him. Although the night wasn't a total bust I wasn't anxious to stretch it out any longer than necessary. I had thought that when we were done that maybe he would want to have sex in a few more public places. I'd expected that we would go to the mall where I could show off for some young teenagers while he watched. One of my ideas was to go to a dressing room at Sears and have him fuck me there. I knew from experience that there were lots of places I could flash him and some even where I could suck him without people being able to see us very easily but with that hint of danger always present making it fun.

Oh well, if he was happy then I was too so I pulled out my cell phone and dialed my taxi. The driver sounded surprised I was done so early and said it would take him a few minutes to get back. I played with myself some more for Bill to watch as I waited for my cab. It dawned on me that other than stripping off my panties I had not even had to get undressed. In fact, my halter had not even been untied and he had never once touched my boobs. I guess Bill was not a tit man!

We didn't say anything for the next few minutes and then my taxi showed up. I reached over and kissed him on the cheeks – we had not even kissed once the entire night! I have heard that hookers don't like to kiss and so I guess he figured that since I was a whore that he shouldn't kiss me. I don't really consider myself a whore although tonight I had indeed sold my body and fucked someone I wouldn't have except that he had paid me. I only took his money because he expected to pay me.

"Goodnight Bill," I said with a smile. "I hope I did better than Betty."

"Goodnight to you Kelly," he replied. "I'll never forget you... You're everything Betty is not! God I wish I had married a girl like you!"

With that I pulled down my skirt over my bare ass and got out of the car and into the waiting taxi. The driver knew where to take me so he immediately took off and left Bill behind in his car. I imagined I must have smelled pretty heavily with our sex but the driver didn't notice or else he was very discrete.

On the way home I found that I was now horny as hell. Even thought I had orgasmed with Bill, it was really more my doing than his and I really needed more to satisfy the sexual urges that had been building up in me. I looked up and the driver was concentrating on the busy highway so I lifted my skirt and started to masturbate in the back seat. The driver was black and I had never had a black man before so for the rest of the way home I fingered my pussy imagining him fucking me in the back seat of his cab. I came several times during the 45 minute ride home, the last being just as we made the turn into the campus.

Pulling up in front of my dorm, he opened the door for me and I got out, still quite flushed from my back seat activities. He was cool though and just smiled at me, never making any indication of what he had to know I was doing all the way home although he HAD to have heard me moaning and his cab smelled strongly of pussy cum.

Back in my empty room, I quickly undressed and plopped in bed. With Karen out for the weekend I wasn't going to bother with pajamas or anything so I was able to sleep nude for the first time in ages. Even with all the masturbating on the way home I still wanted some more so I spent another hour or so doing myself, thinking of the evening I had just experienced. Looking back it may not have been one of my wildest dates but it was OK overall.

I learned one thing though – always check out the guy before you meet with him to be sure he is really what he appears to be!

(Mar 12) Chapter 76: Fourth Escort Job, Guilty Husband Adultery

Story codes: MF oral adultery
Dan - client (44)

So far I my short escorting career, the guys had all been looking for something they weren't getting at home and as a result, didn't feel bad about having to get it elsewhere. Dan loved his wife but he was desperate to have sex the way he'd always dreamed about it. It made for an interesting combination of lust and guilt.

1. My Life as A Professional Escort

With three escort jobs under my belt (or should I say under my skirt?) I was excited to try another "client".

I attend a pretty strict religious university with strict guidelines on "acceptable" lifestyles which expressly forbid any form of sexual activities or "lewd" behavior. Now I love my school and don't regret for a minute choosing it but there are limits to what a girl can do! I try to behave on campus though which forces me to seek other outlets for my sexual needs so decided to try working for an escort service.

So far I have only done one party and been out with three guys. When escorting, I insist on only married men over forty, preferable with a family and even better if they live out of state. The reason for this is simply that my past experiences with older men has shown them to generally treat me better than the young ones. As for being married, I figure this ensures a bit more discretion for most guys. I want them to be from out of state in hopes it will prevent them from trying to contact me afterwards.

Finally, I also set a strict rule that only one evening per guy - no repeats under any circumstances. I am doing this just for fun and sexual gratification and so I want variety. Plus, I don't want there to be even a remote chance that someone would think we were forming any type of "relationship".

My first "job" was a bachelor party which turned out to be one of the most exciting events of my life to date. I can't even begin to truly express the thrill I got from seeing ten horny guys lusting for me the way they did and I'm not afraid to admit it was a tremendous ego booster. Before the night was over I wound up doing more than just stripping - a LOT more.

Greg was my first escort. He had looked handsome in his profile picture and had written a clever and entertaining introduction. He was from Chicago but what caught my eye was that he had always been married to the same woman. It turned out that he also had a daughter my age and a hidden desire to have sex with her so I became his "daughter" for the evening. The success of that night was enough to convince me to continue on with my escort career.

My second escort as another married guy. John was 45 and had been married to his wife for ten years yet he had four children, three by previous marriages and a fifteen year old boy with his current wife. He wasn't the poster child for marital stability, that was for sure! What drew me to him and agree to meet was the profile introduction that he had written. He took me out to a GameWorks club in a fancy mall. Afterwards we went to his room in a nearby hotel. What made it really hot for me was he talked to his wife on the phone while he fucked me and she never had a clue what her husband was doing while he told her how much he missed and loved her.

My third and most recent escort was another married 38 year-old man - Bill. Bill had a wife who was totally shy about sex while he had thing for exhibitionism so he wanted to fuck me in public instead of a hotel room. That sounds exciting but in reality it wasn't the wildest night by any means as Bill turned out to be about ten years older and not extremely gifted in the having sex department.

I gave him a hand job in a Japanese steak house restaurant and then let him fuck me in his car outside in the parking lot. People were coming and going and even though they couldn't clearly see what was happening with the windows fogged up, I imagine they knew WHY the windows were that way! To my disappointment he couldn't do it again that night so it ended early, a hazard of doing older guys I was finding out.

According to the profile I was given, my next job was going to be with Dan, a 44 year-old husband with two boys in their late teens, both in college. According to his write-up he had always been faithful to his wife but lately his sons had been bringing home some hot teenage girls and it was driving him crazy. He knew he could never have them so he was looking for someone who could help him live out the fantasies he was having about his son's girlfriends. Well, I knew I could help him out with that!

The instructions I had in my e-mail from the agency were to go to the hotel lobby on Saturday night at 8:00 PM and wait for him. I assumed that meant we would go from there to wherever he wanted to have dinner or maybe even see a show. It was a fancy hotel so I decided to dress a little more classy than normal for me. In the end I chose a long black dress which was slit to my upper thigh on one side and dipped low in front to show lots of cleavage. It had spaghetti straps which barely kept it from falling down and off of me and I marveled that they had never broken in the past.

I tried valiantly to put some wave into my stubborn hair and kept the makeup to a respectable level as I didn't want to look like a streetwalker. My black stiletto heels matched my dress and I wore a cute little black thong underneath to tease him with later.

My roomie was out with some friends fortunately so I didn't have to worry about her seeing me dressed up this way. I had a long coat which hid my outfit as I waited for the taxi to show up. The heels were in a bag I carried so even though a few of my friends saw me they had no idea what I was getting ready to do. I smiled to myself as I imagined how their jaws would drop if they had any idea I what I was doing to be doing tonight.

Our school conduct codes are strict enough to outlaw even the dress I had on and I could imagine trying to explain to the disciplinary committee why I was having sex with a married stranger - and getting paid for it at that! It would probably be the biggest scandal in years if not the school's history - an escort working from the school apartments! For me though I wasn't being a whore. I wanted sex and frankly would have done the guy tonight for free except that wasn't how it worked and since he was willing to pay, why not let him? Now if I was paying for college on my back then THAT would have been a different story!

2. Dinner and Dancing

The taxi dropped me off at the hotel lobby. A porter opened the door for me and offered his hand to help me out. With the longer dress it actually helped so I thanked him for his good manners. Going into the hotel lobby I looked around but I didn't see anyone who matched the photo I had seen nor did anyone approach me.

I stood around for a few minutes probably looking a bit lost and then said the heck with it to myself and found a seat in the lobby. I crossed my legs as I sat down exposing a good part of my upper leg and was pleased to see a number of heads turning to eye me - and not all of them male! Hmmm, if nothing else I bet I could have found a replacement for Dan pretty easily if he didn't show up and soon!

I looked at my watch for what seemed to be the 100th time when someone behind me asked, "Hello, are you Kelly? My name is Dan."

I turned to see a handsome guy standing next to me, offering me his hand. Unlike my last escort job, this guy not only matched his profile, I think it didn't do him justice! He looked to be about six feet tall, maybe 170 pounds or so with thick curly brown hair and piercing green eyes. His complexion was a little darker and fro his accent I guessed he had some eastern European family history. He wore what looked to be quite an expensive suit with a light blue button-down shirt and thin silk tie.

I was pleased to see he was cleanly shaven even though it was later in the evening and he smelled fresh rather than sweaty after a long day. He had a pleasing smile and a sparkle to his eye that made me want to melt when I looked into them. My goodness, what was he doing with an escort? He probably could have had any girl in the place- married or not!

I must have been staring or acting stupid because he laughed softly at me and then said in a deep voice, "I'm terribly sorry to be late, I had a phone call I just couldn't ignore. May I join you?"

I stood and took his hand. We exchanged pleasantries and then he asked if I would like to have dinner in the hotel main restaurant. I knew it was pretty classy and VERY expensive so who was I to turn it down? He offered me his arm and we walked over to the hostess station. Evidently Dan had been here before as he was greeted by name and we were taken right in even though it appeared to be quite a waiting line to get in.

We were seated at a secluded corner table and I noticed that Dan sat across the table from me and not next to me the way most guys did that had ulterior motives, especially when they were expecting me to put out. The table was set elegantly with a tall white candle and a white linen tablecloth with crystal shakers and silver dinnerware. The waiter came by with the wine list but Dan already knew what he wanted and ordered something that sounded French and expensive.

Being only twenty, I wasn't sure if I should speak up but the waiter just looked at me and then at Dan and smiled. There wasn't a doubt in my mind that he knew I was underage but who was he to say anything if some guy was dining with a girl young enough to be his daughter and wanted her to have a glass of wine. I has no doubt that he also knew that by doing so he was locking in one hell of a tip!

Normally I don't drink on dates and only have an occasional glass of wine with my parents at supper. I was accustomed to good wine as my dad was not one to buy anything cheap but I had to admit whatever Dan chose was the best wine that I had ever tasted. Even so, I was careful to just sip it as the last thing I wanted was to get drunk tonight!

Dan asked me if I preferred fish, meat or fowl. I told him that I liked seafood best and he asked if I minded if he ordered for the two of us. This was cool! I felt like I was out on some wonderful date and not just an escort being given a token meal before being hauled off to some hotel room to be fucked as soon as the mandatory pleasantries had been made.

The dinner was outstanding. Like the wine, it was one of the best I had ever had consisting of several courses with salad, soup, dinner and dessert. If I had eaten everything I would have been stuffed so full I would have never been able to walk out on my own power so I just sampled a little bit of everything. We took our time and the entire meal ended up taking over two hours. During the meal we discussed a variety of topics, even religion and politics, the traditional taboo subjects for escorts!

Dan was obviously extremely intelligent and very well educated. With most guys I play the dumb brunette to make them feel superior but with Dan I was able to carry on a decent conversation and I was actually a little embarrassed in that he seemed so much more sophisticated than me. What was even more interesting was that at no time did he ask me any personal questions though even though he told me all about his wife and family as if I were a close friend. It was a bit odd to hear him talk about them knowing that the reason we were here, whether we talked about it or not, was for him to cheat on them!

Eventually the meal ended and while we were waiting for the check I excused myself to go to the lady's room. I made sure I washed up well afterwards and checked myself out in the mirror. So far this was not what I had expected but then what else was new. None of my previous escort jobs had gone as I had predicted they would so why should this one?

So far though I had to admit this one was going pretty well. I even wondered if Dan was planning to have sex with me in the first place. After all, the agency legally was only charging for the time I spent at dinner with him, not any "extracurricular activities". Hmmmmmm, perhaps that was all he wanted.

I honestly would have a been disappointed if that turned out to be the case. I didn't take all these risks to be an escort just to have free dinners, no matter how pleasant the company. What I wanted was sex, pure and simple so I needed to find out what Dan's plans were. When I left the toilet Dan was waiting for me. He smiled and offered his arm to me again.

"Would you like to dance?" he asked. "They have a wonderful band next door in the lounge that plays some fantastic oldies."

Wow! Now I was really confused and wondered if maybe I had drunk more wine than I thought. Maybe he DID want to just spend a pleasant evening with someone and not have sex. It was almost like he was TOO nice! I agreed and he led me in where we took a seat and the waiter served him a drink and me a diet coke. It wasn't that I was afraid of the under-21 thing, I simply couldn't have handled any more alcohol at the time.

We went out for a couple of slow dances and once again he was the perfect gentleman. His hand stayed on my back and never once wandered down to my ass or anywhere even more private. Now I was getting downright intrigued. Frankly, this was new territory for me. It seems like every guy I have ever dated had wanted to fuck me even though most of them never got past second base. I'm used to dancing and having to constantly fend off the ol' "wandering hand". Heck, even my dad liked to give my ass a squeeze when we danced! After the second dance the band took an intermission and it was quiet enough to talk without having to raise our voices for all to hear.

"I've had a wonderful evening Kelly," he said to me, "you're a classy girl and I appreciate your company this evening."

It seemed my mind was flooded with a million thoughts and feelings at the same time. Maybe he WAS going to just have a nice evening with me. On the one hand I felt complimented by what he said while on the other hand I wondered if there was something about me that turned him off sexually. Why else wasn't he making a move on me? God, I had NEVER been turned by a guy before, not even when I was barely a teenager and especially not when I was dressed to kill!

I didn't really know what to say since he was the one paying for my time. I didn't want to make an offer to him and then suddenly it flashed through my mind that maybe he was an undercover cop waiting for me to proposition him so he could arrest me on prostitution charges! I felt goose bumps suddenly as a chill ran through me. Even though I knew technically I was engaging in prostitution, to me that wasn't what I was doing and I had never really considered the possibility that I could be arrested.

My heart began to pound as my overly active imagination had me picturing myself in filthy jail cell filled with whores waiting for my parents to come bail me out. God, this could be terrible! We both sat there with this pregnant pause getting bigger by the moment.

Finally he seemed to take a deep breath and he asked in a soft voice, "Kelly, would you like to come to my room with me?"

3. Guilty Sex

YES! He wanted to fuck me! I had been just about to lose hope but now all was good again. I tried to hold back my excitement – and my relief. At that moment I would have gone to his room even if I wasn't escorting. Normally this would be where I reminded him that I needed a "tip" to go anywhere with him but with Dan I knew I didn't need to say anything. As classy as he was I was sure he understand the rules and I wasn't going to spoil the moment by unnecessary negotiating.

"I would love to Dan," I replied with a sexy smile on my face.

Dan had a look of relief come over him as if a sudden load had been lifted from his shoulders. I almost smiled since what did he think I was going to do, say no? Wasn't the point of going out with an escort instead of hitting the bar scene so you knew you had a sure thing going? I kept my composure though and tried to look as seductive as I could for him. Then it struck me, maybe he had the same worries that I had and thought I might have been an undercover cop looking to book a john! I giggled to myself a bit at the thought of how maybe both of us had been worried about the other.

Dan stood up and helped me from my chair and led me out of the restaurant to the elevators. He had to put his key in a special slot to get to his floor which told me we weren't going to just any old hotel room. On the way up we stood there silently, like two strangers almost, waiting for our floors. He didn't even have his hand on me!

The elevator went to the top floor and from the spacing of the room doors I figured he must have booked a suite and sure enough, that's what it turned out to be. It was bigger than my school apartment with a huge bedroom, large living area and small kitchen. There was even a big hot tub set in a room off from the bedroom! The room overlooked the shopping area which was not exactly the New York Skyline but it was still pretty. The living area had a big screen TV and an oversized plush couch which caught my eye immediately. I slipped off my heels and flopped down on the couch on my back with my dress gathered under me. I laid on my side on one elbow with my ankles crossed. The tall slit in my dress let him have a view of most of my topmost leg and of course I didn't bother doing anything to rearrange it.

I was hoping Dan would sit by me but he took up residence in an armchair facing the couch. He crossed his legs, put his hands on the arms of the chair, and just looked at me as if he was uncertain what to do next.

"Wow, nice place you have here Dan," I said in a cheerful voice, trying to put him at ease.

Dan smiled slightly, just the corners of his mouth raising. He looked like he wanted to say something so I just kept quiet and let him compose himself. In a soft voice he started telling me more intimate details about his wife than he had during dinner. They had been married now for over twenty years and while she had never really been wild in bed, it was satisfactory for him at first. However, over the years it became less and less until now it was something they did maybe a few times a year and even then it was just boring for him. She was a virgin when they married and was raised thinking sex was something a woman was expected to do for her husband but that was about it. It was missionary only, no oral ever.

They both had gained some weight over the years but while for him it just filled out his frame bit, she had almost doubled in size since their marriage. He said he still loved her but just wasn't turned on when he saw the bulges of fat and her sagging breasts. He was always afraid to even look at other woman because she was so insanely jealous although on trips out of town he went to strip clubs and then back to his hotel to masturbate, dreaming of being with a girl like the ones he saw there. He had considered going to a whore in the past but concerns over disease was the biggest deterrent plus he wasn't sure if he could pay for sex. Finally one of his friends in a similar situation had confided to him about how he had gone out with an escort from an agency and what a great time he had. Sure they were technically whores but it wasn't like you were going to a brothel or picking up a streetwalker.

At this point my ears perked up a bit. Hmmmmmm, so he considered me a whore? I've always proudly worn the label of "slut" but "whore" seemed so degrading. I liked the phrase "escort" and it may be semantics but to me there's quite a difference. I could still refuse to have sex with him tonight and there was nothing he could say since he only booked an evening with me, not sex. Sure I might be paid but the agency had paid me to have dinner with him so out contract had been fulfilled. If I decided to have sex with Dan tonight it would be because I wanted to whether he tipped me or not.

I wasn't in this for the money, I wanted the experience and the thrill! I guess if he considered me a whore I would just have to live with it though although if I got the chance I was going to educate him on the subject better. I think Dan was ready to give me his full confessional but honestly I wasn't here to be his analyst so I finally cut him off.

"So tell me then Dan, do I turn you on?" I murmured as I stretched out on the couch which let the dress fall off my legs.

"Oh my god yes Kelly, you look incredible in that dress!" he responded with a smile.

I looked at him and wrinkled my nose. "I don't think my being a whore is what bothers you, is it? You're worried about your wife and what she would think, aren't you?"

He started in on how he had never cheated on her and always been faithful to her even if he did fantasize about being with other women when he was in bed with her. He started to say how he wasn't sure if could go through with this but I was horny and just having dinner wasn't my game plan for the evening!

"Dan, your wife deserves to be cheated on for not keeping herself desirable for you," I started out, "You have needs that she should fulfill. She's being unfaithful to you actually so don't worry about her. Think about yourself, think about your needs, your desires, your dreams and fantasies. Let me satisfy them, let me be your dream girl for just one night."

He licked his lips and I knew he wanted me, it was just getting him to go over the edge and make the first move. I lifted my bare leg up and put my foot on my knee, letting my dress slide down until my entire leg was showing. I pulled it up higher to reveal my thong which was pulled tightly to my pussy making my pussy lips appear clearly outlined in the thin material. I started to rub myself through the thong, pressing on my clit and reaching down between my legs. I closed my eyes and rolled on my back. I lifted my inside leg up onto the top of the couch and pulled my thong to one side with one hand while I started to play with myself with the other.

I heard him take a deep breath when I inserted one finger inside of me and moaned softy as I felt the wetness inside. For the next fifteen minutes or so I masturbated on the couch as if I was home alone on my bed or in the family room with my parents. I kept my eyes shut and never even looked over to where Dan was sitting. I wondered what he would have thought though if he knew what I was dreaming about as I laid there with my hands between my legs? At least I kept my wits about me enough not to say, "Oh daddy!" when I came!

After my first orgasm I was now as hot and horny as ever! I wanted to cum again but not with my fingers this time. I opened my eyes and looked over at Dan. He was shifting in his chair but there was no mistaking the bulge in his dress pants! I got up off of the couch and pulled my dress up and over my head leaving me standing there barefooted wearing nothing but my thong. I cupped my breasts and lifted them up and squeezed them, feeling my hard nipples between my fingers.

I walked over to Dan and gently pushed his legs apart so I could kneel down on the floor in front of him. Without saying a word I slowly unbuckled his belt, unzipped his pants, and spread the flaps open. He was wearing boxers, thank goodness, and I was able to easily reach in through them to find his warm hard cock waiting for me. Dan's hands were still on the arms of the chair and he wasn't moving an inch yet as I ran the tips of my polished fingernails up and down his hard shaft.

Dan dick wasn't very big, maybe six inches at most, but his cock head was larger than average in comparison to the rest of his dick. Even though he had obviously showered and used cologne, I smell his crotch odor as it slowly made its way from his open pants and I breathed in deeply to savor the musky aroma. I looked up at him and smiled. We were both still silent as statues as I kept my eyes locked on his while I lowered my head to his crotch where I took his sooth cock gently in my mouth.

I started to softly suck on the head while playing my tongue around it. It occurred to me then that my mouth was the first one to ever hold his cock as his wife wouldn't suck him! I encircled the base of his cock between my thumb and forefinger, holding it upright so I could suck him easily. Mmmmmmm he tasted so good! My wet tongue run up and down his shaft, going from the very base where it met his crotch to the tip where the hole was. Then I licked my lips and ran them up and down his shaft, using my tongue to tickle him as I moved up and down.

Dan's dick was nice and wet now so I started some serious sucking. I bobbed my head up and down on him, taking more of him in with each stroke and then burying my face in his thick pubic hair as I took all of him in my mouth. His cock was surrounded by one of the thickest bushes of curly stiff hair I had ever had the pleasure to bury my face in. My face was pressed against his crotch and I sucked his entire cock until he finally couldn't take it anymore and had to say something to break out silence.

"Oh... my... god," he groaned, saying it over and over again and then finally, "That is just soooooo incredible. God that feels soooooo good!"

I let him loose just long enough to ask, "So how does it feel to have your cock sucked for the first time?"

"Ohhhhhh, better than I dreamed," he moaned, "Always wanted this... always dreamed of it... god please don't stop... that's it - just like that!!!!"

I was working him with every trick in my considerable arsenal. My hands were on his thighs as my head weaved and bobbed around his dick, twisting around his cock and slurping my tongue against it. I reached under him and cradled his hairy balls in my hand and gently rolled them with my fingers as I sucked him. His hands finally left the damn chair and he ran his fingers through my hair, sending chills down my spine!

I took him all the way in my mouth and he groaned out load and pushed my head firmly down onto him as if trying to keep me from letting him out of my mouth. I needed some air though and pushed up against him just in time to keep from gagging but I went down on him again and gently gripped the base of his cock with my teeth, teasing him as I rotated my head around his dick. I had enough experience with cocks in my mouth to realize that he was about to cum but I didn't want him to. Somehow I didn't take Dan for the multiple orgasm type and I had more plans for him than just a blowjob!

I stopped sucking him and started to pull his pants down. He lifted himself up enough to let me get them off. He was a little overweight as he had admitted before but his ass was still pretty firm. It didn't matter anyway as his cock still worked and that was all I really cared about. I pulled his pants and boxers down to his ankles but left the rest of his clothes on. I turned around and pulled my thong down to my ankles without bending my knees so he got a great view of my ass and pussy from the rear. Stepping out of the thong I reached between my legs for his cock. I sat down on his lap as I guided his cock to my soaking wet pussy. As small as he was he easily slid into me and I felt my bare bottom meet his hairy lap.

Speaking of small (and forgive me for the tangent), does size really matter? As far as I am concerned it is not nearly as important as guys seem to think. I like a fat cock to fuck me but a smaller one to suck so the average guy probably is best overall. Big cocks look great on porn films I guess but have you ever tried to swallow one? I like to feel more than the equivalent of a finger in me so a fat cock definitely feels better but in the end I can cum regardless of what size he is and I have found size has nothing to do with how much cum he gives me (the more the better!).

For me the only problem with a smaller dick like Dan's is that it limits some of the things I can do with him while we fuck. Sometimes I loved to bounce on a guy's lap while he fucks me but with Dan it more of a rocking motion because every time we got too carried away he would slip out of me and I would have to get myself started all over again. Every time we changed positions he popped out and we had to get him back in again whereas a longer guy can stay in me the whole time.

A last comment is that I find it interesting that except for the obvious huge cock, sift size is not a good indicator of the erected length. I have had several guys that initially disappointed me but then almost doubled in size or more after they got going so I have learned not to judge a guy when he is soft or in the water ("shrinkage" as they say in Seinfeld!).

We had made it to the bedroom and he was fucking me in the traditional missionary style when the phone next to the bed rang. A panicked look came to his face.

"Oh my god, that has to be my wife," he whispered as if she could hear him. "I'm sorry, I HAVE to answer it or she will know something is going on."

At first I thought he was going to keep fucking me while he spoke to her which would have been super erotic so far as I was concerned. But to my disappointment he pulled out of me and sat on the side of the bed. He was naked by now and I listened to him talking to his wife as he faced away from me. I slowly played with myself as I listened to him tell her about his day and how bored he was tonight. It was hard to keep from laughing when he said he loved her and missed her. Here he was fucking a girl half his age and telling his wife he loved her. Well if my future husband ever did this to me I know what I would do to the bastard! Oh well, if Dan wanted me more than his wife then who was I to complain? I really did believe what I had told him earlier in that it was her fault as much as his for not keeping herself desirable for him.

Dan finally hung up and turned to me with a look of guilt on his face. I also noticed his erection had shriveled like someone had thrown cold water on it. I had a bad feeling he was about to throw in the towel but I wanted him to cum for me first, all the more if anything since listening to him tell his wife how much he missed her and wanted her. I knew it was all a lie and I wanted to make him finally do what he had always dreamed of doing and cheat on her in the final and most intimate way possible - by giving me the sperm he should be saving for her. I wanted him to cum in me so that for the rest of his life, even if he never cheated again. he would always know he had once mated with another woman and thus broken his vows and betrayed his wife in the most blasphemous way possible!

"Uh, Kelly...," he started out but I cut him off.

"Fuck me Dan," I said in a demanding voice.

No more submissive Kelly! I was taking control and getting what I wanted from him, taking something from him he could never get back. I wanted to prove to myself that I could make him do what he was now having second doubts about, that I could seduce him with my body and make him lust for me so bad he would forget his vows to his wife and want only me, even if only for the moment.

"Fuck me dammit," I repeated as I grabbed his cock and started to stroke it. "You know you want me... you know you want to fuck my young pussy... you know you want me more than your fat wife."

He closed his eyes and sighed and I knew I had him! I pushed him onto his back with his legs hanging over the edge of the bed still and straddled his waist.

"Does your wife fuck you like this?" I said seductively as I took his suddenly hard cock in my hand and guided it to my hungry pussy. "Does she let you treat her like a whore?"

Dan's eyes were still closed but he was hard as a rock so I knew he wanted me. He groaned over and over as I fucked his cock. "Ohhhhhhhhh... god help me, I'm so sorry Susan... oh yes I want to fuck you!"

He hadn't told me her name before and even on the phone he had not called her my name so this was the first time I knew his wife's name. I always ask guys I chat with for the names of their wife and kids. It seems so much more personal and erotic to use their names when we chat rather than just saying "your wife" or "your son". I love it when a guy uses his wife's name when he tells me how much he would over to fuck me and cheat on her or when he uses his daughter's name as he describes how he would like to make incestual love with her.

"That's it Dan," I encouraged him, "Tell me what you want, tell me how much more you want me more than Susan."

He moaned as I ground my ass into his crotch in a circular motion, rubbing his cock all around inside my pussy. "This is soooooo wrong... God I want to fuck you... feels so damn good!"

I got up and let him slip out of me. Moving to the center of the bed I got in my hands and knees with my ass facing him. I spread my legs to give him a good view of my asshole and freshly fucked cunt. He finally smiled and came in behind me holding his wet cock.

"Shit I've always wanted to fuck a girl this way," he whispered as he pushed up against me from behind.

Well, a few seconds later his wish came true as he fucked me doggie style. His hands grabbed me by the hips and he pulled and pushed me to match his thrusts and I could feel as well as hear his body slapping up against my ass as he rammed his cock into me. He fucked me this way for a while and then flipped me over on my back again. He put his hands under me and grabbed my butt to lift me up off the bed. My legs were over his shoulders as he lifted my ass up to his cock as he knelt before me. Somehow he bent his stiff cock over enough to get it in me and I could feel its warmth deep inside my stomach.

"Take it girl... fuck you and your teasing," he said, his lust obviously now overriding any anxieties he may have had before. 'I'm going to cum all over you... show you what a fucking whore you are... dirty little slut!"

Well, that wasn't what I had hoped for exactly but at least he was now into it again! Suddenly he dropped me to the bed and started stoking his cock. Almost instantly he spewed a huge shot of cum that hit me in the face! I wasn't ready for anything that far and fortunately it didn't hit me in the eyes. The next couple of shots made it to my boobs and the rest was on my stomach as he leaned over me and pumped the cum from his cock.

Then Dan suddenly leaned over and shoved himself back into me and released the last couple of loads inside me! They weren't much in terms of volume but it was the thought that counts as they say! I took my hand and wiped the cum on my face into my mouth and then stuck out my tongue so he could see his cum on it before swallowing it down. He was down on his elbows trying to keep from crushing me as his cock twitched in my pussy.

Finally, Dan couldn't hold himself up and he rolled over in the bed and laid on his back, his cock glistening with our cum. I looked down at me and saw I was an absolute mess! I was covered in cum! He must not have cum for the past week from the load he had unleashed on me not to mention what he had deposited inside of me.

His eyes were closed and for a moment I thought he was going to go to sleep but he started to main softly as he caught his breath. I figured that was about all I was going to get from him but there was no way I could get dressed like this! I quickly ran out to get my clothes and then back into the bathroom where I turned on the shower. Stepping under the hot stream, his cum seemed to congeal on me but with some soap and a wash cloth I was soon clean again. My hands began to wander over myself as the warmth of the water struck my boobs and drained between my legs.

I had been so intent on getting him to fuck me that I had not cum and I needed it - badly! I leaned against the shower stall wall and masturbated until finally I felt the surge beginning in me that I craved. IU thought about him talking to his wife, how I had seduced him into cheating on her even when he wasn't sure he wanted to. I came hard as I imagined her walking in the bedroom and seeing her loyal husband drilling a girl half her age, fucking her in ways she would never do for him, doing things to him she would never consent to.

Finally I turned off the eater and sat down on the toilet set, my legs unsteady from the emotion and electricity of my orgasm. Finally my head cleared enough to stand and I put on my dress, leaving my damp thong on the sink for him as a remembrance of the girl he deceived his wife for. I put on my sneakers since I didn't trust myself balancing on my stilettos and went back into the bedroom.

To my surprise, Dan was not in the bedroom and I found him in the living room with a hotel robe wrapped around him and the phone to his ear. He was facing away from me but I could hear him talking.

"No, everything's OK honey, I just wanted to call you and tell you I love you... Yeah, I miss you too baby... No really, I'm OK. Nothing's wrong so stop worrying."

Damn! He must have been on one hell of a serious guilt trip. My coat and purse were on the table next to door and I saw a stack of hundred dollar bills next to my purse. I drew in a deep breath as I counted out ten bills!! Well, if this was how he was managing his guilt who was I to argue! Based on the way my stuff was laid out by the door and his position in the room I had a feeling he wasn't looking for anything from me so I quietly let myself out and went down to the elevator.

I called the taxi on my cell phone while I waited for the car to arrive. He was supposed to be nearby so hopefully by the time I got down it would be waiting for me. Just as the elevator doors were about to close a guy jumped in with me. I could tell in an instant he was drunk - he smelled like a brewery. His clothes were a mess and his ties was undone. I pressed against the wall opposite him as he leered at me. I had a long coat on and there was nothing he could see of my dress or anything but I think at that moment all it mattered to him was that I was female!

My heart was pounding and I was about to reach for the alarm button when it looked like he was going to make a move but fortunately the car stopped and an elderly couple joined us. They stood between us and I say her nose wrinkle at the disgusting example of human being in the corner. We finally reached the first floor and I quickly made my way to the lobby where the taxi driver was waiting for me. The drunk was behind me but he turned away as the driver escorted me out to his cab. I thanked him for being so prompt and inside I was even more thankful as I had no idea what might have happened if he hadn't been there.

He didn't say another word to me the entire way home. He dropped me off at the dorm and I quickly made my way back to my room. My roomie was sleeping when I got in but evidently not very soundly as she woke up when I shut the door.

"Wow Kelly, out late tonight aren't you?" she asked.

I was really happy now I had taken the time to shower. I could imagine what she would have said if she had smelled his sex on me! We exchanged some small talk and soon she was asleep again. I undressed and laid in bed, contemplating the night I had just experienced. All in all it was definitely an evening to remember.

I would have loved to be able to be invisible and watch Dan meeting his wife when he got home! It would be interesting to know if this caused him to go out and cheat on her more or if he was so guilty after the first time he never could work up the courage again. Secretly I was hoping for the latter. It made me feel so hot and naughty to think I would always be his fantasy girl, the only girl he had ever fucked besides his wife, the girl who did all the things he wanted, the sexiest girl he had ever known!

3. Playing Around at Church On Easter

Easter came and as always we went to church as a family. My mother and I both had pretty new dresses to wear as was traditional for our family. I loved the colors that are in this year - bright pastels made with light, loose cotton. Since it was for Easter, the skirt length was longer than I usually wear - almost three quarters to my knees making it about six to nine inches longer than most of mine. It was bright orange with a lightweight patterned blouse that stayed outside my skirt like a men's shirt and hugged my figure like a wet t- shirt. Anywhere else I would've loved to wear it without a bra but it was so sheer my mother warned me that unless I wanted to get a talking to by the pastor that I had better wear at least one of my smaller bras so I picked one out that was barely more than two cups with thin straps to hold it on.

I debated on the panties or thong question and finally compromised and just left them both home. I often went to church without panties although usually it was when I wore a full-length dress or pants. I would have to be careful today but the skirt was long enough for me to cross my legs and still hide most of my ass, at least enough that nobody would know I was bare-ass unless I flashed them.

I loved greeting the parents of my youth group kids and shaking the dad's hand. Most of them could not resist the opportunity to look down my blouse and I wondered what they would think if they knew there was nothing under my skirt? Whereas I am sure the dad's would have loved it, the moms would have hated me! Well, if those same mom's knew about the fantasies I harbored about their kids, then they would have REALLY hated me!

Our entire family took up almost an entire pew when we came together like this. I think that it is pretty cool to be together as a family like this now and then. I sat next to my dad who had my mom on his other side.

On my other side I was pleased to find my cute cousin Rick. He was all dressed up in his Easter suit, looking totally uncomfortable in the buttoned-up shirt and tie. He looked quite handsome in it although I much preferred the Speedo swimsuit he wore when they came over to visit and we all piled in the hot tub together. When my parents and I are in the tub alone we never wear swim suits so when Rick was in there I wished that we could convince the rest of the family to do the same! His tight Speedo outlined his sixteen year-old cock nicely and my dad would elbow me at times when he caught me staring too long at it. Now in church his suit pants hid his best asset so I caught myself thinking about how I would have loved nothing more than to unzip those suit pants and explore inside!

My pussy tingled a bit as I imagined sitting on his cock during the sermon - it certainly would have been a lot more enjoyable! I crossed my legs such that my bare thigh next to him was exposed as much as possible. I glanced at him to see if he noticed but if he did he was doing a great job of hiding it. I subconsciously rubbed my legs together just enough to stimulate my swelling clit and I could feel myself growing wet as I thought about how it would be to lean over and suck him right there in the middle of church.

Tammy was sitting next to him and I could imagine her reaction watching her older cousin blowing her brother right next to her! One thing that would make me hornier than watching my dad fucking her would have been to see Rick doing her. I always wished I had a brother to fuck me and I wondered if Tammy ever realized what an opportunity she was wasting!

As the service was ending and we started to get up to leave, I glanced down the pew and notice my Uncle Jim quickly averting his eyes. Hmmm, it looked like good ol' Uncle Jim had been checking me out. I pretended not to have noticed anything and as I got up I let my skirt hike up a bit and stay there a few seconds before I pulled it back down. Nothing showed but it was pretty close to a flash and if I have learned anything about teasing guys it is that sometimes "close" counts more than actually showing something.

I don't know if he or Rick noticed but my father certainly did! My dad whispered in my ear, "Kelly, behave you little slut!" I looked up at him and gave him a naughty grin. He just shook his head and motioned for me to get moving down the pew. We all got in our cars to head back to my Uncle Jim and Aunt Shari's house for dinner. I got in the back seat of our SUV and my father spent the entire twenty minute trip teasing me about Rick and Tammy.

"I see you still have the hots for your cousins Kelly," he taunted me, "You know you have a much better chance with your Uncle Jim than you do with them. I assume you know that he was checking you out the entire service!"

I heaved an exaggerated sigh and replied, "Oh Daddy! You WOULD notice!"

He laughed at that and called back, "Oh yea, like you didn't. So what was that bit with flashing him at the end of the service?" Well, he had me there. My mom jumped in then and asked him what he was talking about and after he told her, in greatly exaggerated detail, she looked back at me and tried to act like a mother scolding her child.

"Now Kelly, you know better. I can't believe you flirted with your own uncle, and in church at that." She looked at me and then at my skirt and I could see the gears meshing in her head. "Speaking of knowing better," she said, "just what do you have under that skirt anyway?"

I lifted up my skirt to show her my bare pussy and then pulled it back down again and giggled like a school girl. My mother just shook her head in mock disbelief and said, "It's bad enough for you to go to church that way in a short skirt but tell me you brought a pair of something with to wear at your relative's house."

I shook my head vigorously like a little kid saying no to her parents. My mom poked my dad saying, "Well, she's YOUR daughter. Aren't you going to say anything?"

My dad laughed again saying, "OK... Now Kelly, are you going to behave yourself this afternoon or are you going to tease your uncles while we watch?"

"Daddy!" I pouted, "I can't believe you even asked!"

Actually this would not be the first time I had teased my two uncles. My dad's brothers had the same sex drive he had, they just weren't lucky enough to marry a woman like my mom who had a sister like my aunt. They had both been casting a wandering eye my way since I was twelve or so – at least that's when I first noticed. On our boat or in our hot tub they were always glancing at my ass or boobs, especially when I wore one of my skimpier bikinis. I do have to say that they never even came close to doing anything more than steal a glance down my top or to watch my ass when they thought I wasn't noticing. They didn't know anything about my relationship with my dad and I am sure they assumed that it was no different than what they had with their daughters. I also was positive that they did not have a clue about the naughty desires for their daughters that their brother had been telling me!

"You whore!" she exclaimed softly, "Did you go to church with no panties under that short skirt? Damn girl, I'm impressed!"

I just moaned softly in response as her fingers worked their way into my cunt. I could feel her little fingers exploring me, reaching inside of me.

"Damn you're wet! What got you so turned on in there?" Kristen asked.

I explained to her my fantasy and when I finished she moved to the front of me and started playing again with my pussy. I got up on the sink top and spread my legs apart for her. She gave me a sly grin, knowing exactly what I wanted from her and obviously more than happy to do it. She leaned over and started to lick my cunt, running her warm tongue up and down my slit, pausing to give my clit some extra attention. God she knew how to lick a pussy! As she worked on me I held my boobs and rubbed them together, closing my eyes to concentrate on her tongue reaching into my pussy.

"Oh fuck Kristen, that feels soooooo damn good! Make me cum... Make me cum HARD!"

I held her head tight against my crotch. She grabbed my clit with her teeth, pulling on it gently and then using her tongue on it. That was the final straw as I came even harder than I dared dream. I moaned as my orgasm enveloped me, drowning out everything except her wonderful mouth on me.

"Shhhhhh!" Kristen hissed, "Do you want everyone in the house to know what we're doing?"

We kissed and I could taste myself on her lips. Feeling a little better now I got up and arranged my skirt and checked my hair in the mirror. Kristen wiped her face off on a towel but I noticed she didn't wash her hands or face. Her mother was going to kill her if she smelled my cunt on her!

All set, we opened the bathroom door to go back and there was my Uncle Jim, waiting to use the bathroom. Kristen and I looked at each other and giggled.

My uncle gave us a strange look saying, "Why is it that girls can't use the bathroom alone? Just what do you do in there behind closed doors?"

We all laughed but at the same time I couldn't help but notice the tone of his voice. It certainly didn't sound like he was really joking - I think he really DID want to know what had just happened. Did he hear us? I know a few time I had moaned louder than I should have but could he hear anything out in the hallway? If he did he played it pretty close to the vest as he went in and shut the door behind him.

5. My Uncle Gets an Eyeful

Back in the living room we were about to sit down again when Aunt Shari came in and announced dinner was ready. We all gathered in the family room together and I noticed my Uncle Jim made it a point to sit directly across from where Kristen and I were sitting together. My dad was next to me and then my mom.

My Aunt Linda took a chair next to Kristen and everyone else pretty much sat together by family as well. My Uncle Jim, as head of the hosting household, said grace and the food was ready to go. The food was great but I caught my Uncle several times staring at me, or should I say my boobs. He always averted his eyes but it was too late - busted!

After dinner we were allowed to change clothes into something more comfortable for the day. I had brought with some shorts and a halter. The weather was a bit warmer than usual and I was going to take advantage of it. Kate and Tammy shared a bedroom so Kristen and I joined them to change. I took off my dress and stood there nude gathering my clothes as Kate quickly noticed my missing panties.

"Kelly!" she exclaimed softly, "Did you go to church without any panties?"

Kristen broke out laughing. "Oh Kate, she never wears any, didn't you know that?"

Kate's eyes got even wider and she blurted out, "No wonder mom says you are such a slut." As soon as she said it she put her hands to her mouth, embarrassed by what she had said. "Oh Kelly, I didn't mean to say that!"

I couldn't help but laugh a bit at her discomfort and I reassured her saying, "No problem, best compliment I've had all day! Don't knock it until you've tried it girl."

"Yea but what happens if someone catches you?" she asked.

I smiled wickedly and said, "Well, you just have to make sure nobody does. Besides, that's what makes it so much fun - the risk of getting caught. Anyway, there are a few boys I wouldn't mind if they saw me anyway!"

Kate just looked even more confused and we continued dressing. I noticed that Tammy had been watching and listening the whole time and never said a word. I could have sworn she had been staring at my bare butt when I wasn't watching but it may have been just wishful thinking on my part. Soon we were all dressed and it was back downstairs for some family "quality time", otherwise known as "boring time". I wondered if perhaps there wasn't something to make it a little more spicy this time around?

Our parents were all in the living room now as all us girls entered and found a place on the floor to sit. I noticed Rick had changed as well into some tight shorts which showed his hard ass nicely. A tight tank top displayed a great body that was proof of his athletic activities. He may have been only sixteen but he looked a heck of a lot older today for sure.

I sat on the floor across from my dad and uncles. Folding my legs Indian style under me, I could feel my shorts pull up tight into my crotch. These weren't my naughtiest pair of shorts by any means but they were short enough that when I sat like this my ass was just about to spill out. There was no bra of course under my halter and I could feel my sensitive nipples rub against the fabric as I stretched to sit down.

I knew without looking they were poking through the fabric. If I needed any more proof, I noticed that my Aunt Julie took a long look at me when I came in and then just shook her, making comments to her sister Shari which after Kate's earlier comment I was sure had something to do with their niece being a brazen slut. That's ok as I wasn't seeking their approval. Heck, I wanted my uncles to notice me and I doubted they were going to object no matter what I wore!

It wasn't long before I was bored stiff so I whispered to the girls about going outside and we all got up to leave. I made sure when I did that I was bending way over as I stood, stretching my shorts tight to show off my ass as much as possible. I quickly looked over and sure enough if Uncle Jim wasn't staring right at my ass! He caught me looking at him and his eyes quickly looked away but I felt a tingle as I thought about what he might have been thinking about his niece. We all went out to their back yard where we sprawled out on the lawn furniture even though it was a bit cool out.

We spent the next couple of hours just talking mostly about my cousins' boyfriends at school. With both of my younger cousins being virgins and Kristen and I being anything but, it was interesting to listen to them giggle about how the guys looked at them and now and then even making coy remarks about catching them with erections or even better, touching themselves when they didn't know anyone was watching. I felt like I had gone back to being a twelve year old!

Many times when Kate or Tammy would make a suggestive remark and then giggle, Kristen would look over her shoulder at me and just smile knowingly. I could just imagine what they would say of the two of us started telling stories about our experiences. Even better, if we told them what the two of us did together. Thinking even more about it, I bet Kate would just die of embarrassment if I told her I fucked my dad every day and that I had dreams of doing her dad as well!

Speaking of the devil, Uncle Jim came out to check on how we were doing. I was laying on the lounge chair on my stomach at the time and I lifted myself up so my halter hung down. I knew there was no way he could help but a great view of my boobs down my shirt but to my complete surprise, instead of just glancing and then looking away like he usually did when my dad was around, this time he looked straight down my halter and took in the full view for several seconds before looking up to my eyes and smiling at me. Then he went back in the house leaving us alone again.

Kristen was the first to react saying, "Wow Kelly, you sure gave Uncle Jim an eyeful!"

Tammy and Kate were both looking a bit shocked to say the least and Tammy was the first to recover. "Oh... my... God!" she gasped, "I can't believe my dad did that! If mom had seen him looking down her shirt she would have killed him!"

I tossed my hair and acted as the all-knowing older cousin. "You see Tammy, ALL men are the same, they can't resist a pair of tits - even if they belong to their niece. You'll find out soon enough how much control you can have over guys just by flashing them enough to make them think they MIGHT see more."

Kate responded, "But that was my DAD and you're my cousin! He shouldn't be looking at you that way."

"Oh don't worry about it Kate," I said putting my arm around her shoulder, "You're dad's a guy just like any other. He couldn't resist his most basic instincts. Besides, I like teasing guys and making them do things they normally wouldn't. You should do it more - it can be a lot of fun. Kristen and I do it at the mall all the time."

Kate and Tammy moved up closer as Kristen and I began to share stories about our adventures at the mall, pool and other public places. There were a few time I saw Kate turn red when we got a bit too detailed but Tammy was hanging on to every word. I wouldn't be surprised if Kate was a virgin when she got married but something told me Tammy was going to be pretty popular in the not too distance future, and I don't mean for just her glowing personality!

It wasn't much longer before my Aunt Linda came out and told Kristen it was time to go and that my parents were packing up as well. Back in the house everyone was crowded in the entryway saying goodbye and giving hugs. I gave each of my uncles and aunts a hug but when I got to Uncle Jim I gave him an extra hard hug, making sure my boobs pressed against him and I let my hip ride into his crotch just a bit. It wasn't enough to draw attention but I am sure he felt it. As I backed away he gave me a strange look, as if he was trying to decide just what my intentions were. I just smiled and gave him a wink, hoping to plant a seed for the future.

On the way back home we talked about the afternoon and my mom turned around in her seat to ask me a question. "So what's with that hug you gave Uncle Jim there at the end? Looked like more than just an uncle-niece thing going on there?"

My dad's ear perked up at this and he said, "Oh? So tell me Kelly, is there something I should know about my brother?"

I was silent for a second trying to decide what to say. I hadn't realized that I had been that blatant about my little signal to Uncle Jim but my mother is pretty good at licking up my little signals by now. I guess my pause gave my emotions away to my mom again.

"Don't worry, she laughed, "I am sure nobody else caught that little move you made in his crotch. I just know you well enough to look for it. What surprised me though was his reaction. I know he has peeked at you in the past but all men do that. This was the first time I got any hint he might be interested in more."

The rest of the way home we discussed my uncle and the possibilities. My dad, of course, was worried that he might learn about our relationship but I assured him I would never give that away to anybody. I think my dad was actually turned on to consider what it would be like to have his brother fucking me while not knowing that he knew all about it.

It will probably be a while until I see my Uncle Jim again so until then I will just have to fantasize about what may be. I would love to have him fuck me in Tammy's bed, leaving our cum behind on her sheets and pillows for her to smell and feel later. Somehow I have to figure out a way to get her to open up more. Today was a good start and who knows where the future may lead!

(Apr 02) Chapter 78: Second Bachelor Party

Story codes: MMF F-solo group oral exhib adultery

Just goes to prove that smaller doesn't necessarily mean less. This party was more intimate than my first one but no less fun!

1. Getting Ready to Do It Again

It was time for my second bachelor party and by now I was starting to feel comfortable as an escort and entertainer. With one bachelor party and four escorting jobs under my belt (or skirt to be more correct) I was starting to feel like a pro ("pro" as in expertise, I'm NOT a whore!).

At my first bachelor party I had been scared stiff to start out although by the end of the night everything turned out great. Each time I went out as an escort it just kept getting better and I was looking forward to my fifth "client".

People ask me why I got into the escort business; well it was pretty simple actually. I was accustomed to getting laid practically on a daily basis at home, and I found that going to a Christian college with very strict rules about personal behavior was a lot more difficult than I had anticipated and when you get horny enough you do things that you might not otherwise do!

Actually, my freshman year turned out not to be so hard since my roomie was my first lesbian experience outside my family. My sophomore year was a lot harder though because rooming with a sexy but virginal roomie left me practically dying with sexual frustration. Admittedly working an escort may have been a bit unorthodox to say the least, but it has turned out to be exactly the remedy I needed. Each date was a new experience, totally different than the one before, and each provided me with some truly awesome sex.

At first I was worried that somehow this would be crossing the line between being a slut (which I am rather proud to be called) and turning tricks as a whore or prostitute (which is NOT something I would be proud to be called). What helped me rationalize it all was I knew the guys were legally only paying for dinner, not sex, and that if we had it then it was up to me to make that decision. A whore, on the other hand, just takes anyone's money and does what the client pays her to do. I could you could say that to me, being an escort was like being a slut – with benefits!

As I said earlier, tonight was going to be bachelor party number two for me. According to the service there would be only six guys this time so I knew it would be a little different than my first one which had almost twice as many horny men. I still get wet whenever I remember the first one where I had a room full of stiff guys all staring at me with nothing but lust in their eyes and raging hard-ons between their legs making it one of the most erotic experiences I have ever had. Some girls find it unnerving to be looked at as merely an object for sex and not as a real person but I find it incredibly erotic and naughty. I've always loved it when men want me just because of what they see, when all they desire is to touch and feel my body and are more than willing to do almost anything just to see it, let alone do anything more.

Now if it turns me on to have ONE man look at me that way, imagine what it is like to have a whole roomful of guys staring at me. Then to be fucked by each of them while the others watched, regardless of their age or marital status, is enough to make me wet and cum over and over again just thinking about it.

As with all my escorting assignments, this one started out as an e-mail from my agency providing me with the details of the party including an introduction written by the guy paying for the girl. I receive at least two or three of these virtually every day but usually they don't fit the type of party I want to do. Sometimes they were too close to me, others were too far away, or sometimes just the introductory letter scared me away. I figured if a guy couldn't or wouldn't take the time to write something coherent and interesting then odds were it wasn't going to get any better when we met. Finally an interesting invitation came through that caught my eye. It was rather short but to the point:

My brother is getting married to the woman of my dreams, the bastard! To make it worse I'm his best man so now it is my duty to arrange his bachelor party. Actually he's my best friend as well and one of us had to lose when it came to her. While I wish the two of them all the best, it's my sworn duty to ensure that before he rides off into the sunset of marital bliss he enjoys one last night of hedonistic pleasures. The two of us will be joined by four of his closest friends for an evening with a beautiful and sexy girl willing to be open minded, comical, but most of all downright slutty for an evening none of us will ever forget - including her. I have sworn that this will NOT be my father's bachelor party!

There was something about that last sentence that caught my eye and made me laugh. I think everyone thinks of a bachelor party as a bunch of randy guys getting drunk while a stripper or two cavorts about teasing them and lord only knows what else. Actually, that essentially describes my first bachelor party so I was curious what this guy had in mind that was going to make his party different. Well, there was only one way to find out...

Until now all of my clients had been from the Columbus area so when I expressed interest and learned the actual address of the party I was a bit surprised to see it was in the opposite direction - northwest of my university. It was still in a pretty big city and although I go there regularly to shop I had never been to the specific area where the party was being held. It didn't really matter, I guess, since the agency would send a taxi to take me there and bring me back home as well.

After I'd accepted the assignment I struggled for the next few days trying to figure out what to wear. Because the guy had been so adamant that this was going to be something different I wanted to be different as well so the "typical" stripper costume was out. Besides, I had done the catholic schoolgirl thing at the last party and I didn't want to do a repeat already with just my second party.

Then suddenly inspiration struck and I knew exactly what to wear. The girls at every bachelor party I had ever seen on TV or movies showed up all slutty looking and there was no doubt what they were there for. Why not show up as the stereotypical naive "girl next door"? I picked out a nice pair of jeans that were tight but still allowed me to breath, unlike most of my other ones!.

For my top I went to my old reliable pink blouse that I wear everywhere but in this case I added something it had never touched before - a bra. In this case it wasn't anything from Victoria's Secret, just a plain white bra straight from the JC Penny catalog.

The same applied to my panties - another useless piece of clothing under normal circumstances so far as I was concerned. I dug out a pair of plain white cotton panties that were still sealed in the package. I had almost thrown them away a little while before because I figured I would never wear them but fortunately I had hung onto them as they were perfect for this situation! Some low cut socks and pink sneakers finished off the outfit.

Of course, to REALLY set the stage I needed to not just dress the part but LOOK the part as well so I grabbed a rubber band and pulled my hair back into a ponytail. I put on just a little makeup to cover a few blemishes and such but nothing that stood out. Some light red lip gloss and my face was done! A touch of Charlie perfume (a preference I inherited from my mom) on my neck and a dash of Johnson's baby powder between my boobs and bra and I was set! I smiled as I looked into the mirror as I saw the perfect virginal girl standing there, looking so innocent and naive! Boy would anyone thinking THAT be totally wrong!

2. The Taxi Ride

I packed some makeup and a hair brush into a small bag and I was set to go. The taxi, as always, was right on time. The driver never said a word the entire time leaving me to sit in the back seat thinking about the evening to come. I leaned back against the corner of the seat behind the driver so he couldn't see me very well and closed my eyes as I wondered what I would be doing in just another hour or so. My hand subconsciously started to rub myself between my legs as I imagined cocks I had never seen before surrounding me such that no matter where I looked there was another one waiting for me, reaching out wanting me to suck it or let him stuff it inside of my cunt.

In my dream it was like I was swimming in a sea of cocks as I reached down to unbuckle my belt and unsnap my jeans. In the silence of the cab it was amazing how loud the sound of a zipper being pulled down can be! The driver must have heard because when I opened my eyes I glanced up to see him peering in the rear view mirror. Our eyes met briefly in the mirror and then he quickly looked forward again, acting as if nothing was going on behind him.

I slumped down in the seat more to make it easier to slip off my panties and jeans. The plastic seat felt cool against my bare bottom as I dropped the jeans to the floor, putting one leg up on the seat while I kept the other on the car floor. My hand cupped my crotch as I wondered what the driver was thinking of the rustling sounds coming from behind him. I had no doubt that he knew exactly what my plans were for the evening so most likely he wasn't too surprised that I was masturbating in the back seat as after all, I was one of "those" girls. I really didn't mind the designation so if that is what he was thinking then it was fine with me. If anything, it was time to convince him even more of what kind of girl I was!

My hand rubbed my bare crotch and I slowly began to work my middle finger down between my pussy lips. I pushed one fingertip in to my pussy hole and wetted the tip, drawing it back out to lubricate my throbbing clit. I did this several times until my entire pussy was slick and wet with my pussy juices.

Mmmmmmm, it felt good to run my fingers up and down my slit, touching my clit ever so briefly and then pressing my finger back into my hole to get it wet again. My dream of being surrounded by cocks resumed and my mouth was moving silently as I imaged sucking each one of one of them in turn while the rest stroked themselves as they waited for me to attend to them. Each one was ready to cum by the time they got into my mouth so it didn't take much to get them to shoot their entire load either in my mouth or over my face and boobs.

I pushed my finger in deeper as I imagined another line forming except in this case it was to fuck me. One after another they would press between my legs and position their cock in front of my cunt and then ram themselves deep inside of me. I was still sucking cocks so it became a race to see who could cum first - the guy I was sucking or the one fucking me. I love it when a man cums and in my dream I was being covered in it!

The more I dreamed the faster I rubbed my clit and the closer I came to my orgasm until finally the dam burst! I couldn't help but moan softly as my hips lifted up off the car seat and I felt the fire emerging to overwhelm me with the purest form of pleasure imaginable. There is nothing subtle about an orgasm - it hits you like a ton of bricks and there's no question whether you have had one or not (at least so far as the girl knows) - guys never seem to have a clue which is why it is so easy to fake orgasms for them. Girls know though - trust me on that one. I have never had a girl successfully fake an orgasm for me!

My fingers were covered in my pussy cum and I dipped them into my mouth and licked everything that I could off. God I loved the taste of my pussy! From the very first time that I ever touched myself I couldn't resist licking my fingers afterwards and I loved it from the very first time. I guess it is sort of like sperm - some girls love it and some absolutely abhor the very mention of tasting it, let alone swallowing a load of it. Well, count me in the "love it" camp, that's for sure. To be honest though, I 'm not so sure it is the actual cum I love so much or how I get it!

I would have loved to have gone for a second time but we were getting into civilization again and I knew we would be at the party soon so I reluctantly pulled my fingers away. I laid back again for a few minutes to let the aftershocks of my orgasms settle down and I could feel my pussy throbbing. The feelings weren't going away very quickly which meant I must have been horny as hell!

The taxi slowed when we reached the address which turned out to be a simple ranch farm house out in the country a bit. There was a barn and some other buildings and I could see some cows out behind the barn. We drove up the long gravel driveway and came to a stop at the front entrance.

The driver handed me his voucher which I signed and then he gave me his card for me to call when I was finished. I told him I had absolutely no idea when I would be done and he just smiled and said to take my time, he was paid by the hour. He also told me he would be at the small cafe we had passed just down the road a bit and to call if I ran into any trouble. I wasn't sure what he exactly meant but he certainly looked like the type that could take care of himself - and ME if necessary.

3. Pre-Party Warm-up

As soon as we pulled up a guy came out from the house to greet me. He looked to be in his early 20's and had an athletic build I could identify even from a distance. Up close I could see a classic handsome face with a smile to melt your heart and eyes that sparkled with enthusiasm. Hmmmmmm, so far so good! He introduced himself as Bob, the best man who had arranged for the party tonight. He said none of the others were here yet and to come in and make myself comfortable.

Going into the house he explained it was his parents' farm and that he lived with them still. It turned out my guess was pretty close - he was actually 22. His parents were visiting his uncle at his farm in Michigan and wouldn't be back for a few days which left the place all to him - perfect for a party!! He led me to the living room and offered me a seat on the couch. He took up station in a chair across from it, sitting down and looking me over like a prize animal at a fair.

"Damn, you look so sweet! Kelly isn't it?" he asked.

That was all any of my clients were told, just a first name and nothing else. He had no idea where I had come from or even if Kelly was my real name. I just nodded and kept quiet, waiting for him fill me in on what his plans were. Before he told me that it seemed he had other concerns that needed to be addressed first.

"So, how old are you REALLY?" he asked.

I told him I was twenty but he looked at me rather skeptically and said, "Hmmmmmm, I'd like to take your word for it but do you have a driver's license to prove that? You look a little younger than that if you ask me."

He quickly smiled and held up his hand to say, "Now that's not a BAD thing, you look great."

Well, there was no way I was going to let anyone to go through my things and find out who I really was so I wasn't carrying any identification, let something like a driver's license.

When I shook my head and explained to him that the service had verified my age, he looked at me again and said, "Well, I just hope you're telling the truth. God help me, I don't want any problems with an underage girl. We just want to have some fun tonight and not get thrown in jail!"

I must have looked a bit exasperated - at least I certainly FELT that way.

"OK," he laughed, "Sorry, just had to be sure. So anyway... I'm sure you're wondering what the story is for tonight so let me lay it out for you...

Bob then explained his plans for the evening. For a city girl like me it was definitely unusual to say the least. To put it simply, I had never even been IN a barn before let alone strip and fuck in one. Bob looked me over yet again and grinned, saying I was dressed perfect for the part - sexy young farm girl putting out in the hayloft like every farm boy's wet dream. Well, it certainly was going to be a different experience for me if nothing else and after all, that's why I was doing this in the first place.

I only charged because people expected it. Little did they know I would have PAID to do this! Bob didn't want the other guys to see me beforehand so he asked me to stay in the guest bedroom. I didn't mind so he led me down the hall and opened one of the doors for me and led me in. It was exactly how I would have pictured it - queen-sized bed with a quilted cover and matching pillow shams, old pine chest of drawers and side table, and even a small bathroom just for the guest staying there. Bob asked if it was OK and I nodded so he left, closing the door behind him.

All alone now, I looked the room over more closely, looking at the pictures of their family over the years. It seemed rather surreal, almost as if I was invading their privacy by being here for the nasty reason I was. Under the circumstances I wasn't in the least bit tired but with nothing else to do I sat on the edge of the bed and listened as cars began to pull up into the driveway - or more correctly, trucks by the sound of them.

Several pulled up and I heard guys entering the house, laughing and joking. It was hard to make out exactly what they were saying but it wasn't hard to tell they were all in a party mood. Eventually I guessed the groom showed up because everyone cheered and the general noise level rose. It was driving me crazy to be in here, like I was being hidden away to be presented as some sort of prize. Actually, I guess that was exactly what they were expecting when I thought about it. The door suddenly opened and Bob quickly came in and closed the door behind him.

"OK, here's the deal Kelly," he said in a business like tone suddenly. "I'm going to take you out to the barn where you'll hide in the hayloft. I've got a screen set up and a projector where we'll be watching some porn flicks. John doesn't know you're here so he won't be expecting anything. At some point, I don't know when yet but I'll figure it out, when everyone is having a good time I'll call you out and then it's up to you."

"So what do you want me to do?" I asked him. It was all I could do to keep from grinning as it felt like I was a waitress taking an order except in this case, I was the menu!

Bob hesitated, as if he was a little embarrassed. He looked down at the floor and said, "Well, the agency DID say that you were one of their 'special' girls."

I moved up closer to him and gave him a nasty grin. "Yeah, you could say that I guess. So let's get to the point - OK? Just tell me Bob, do you wanna fuck me or not?"

I heard Bob suck in a breath when I said that and he actually blushed just a bit! Somehow I doubted that any girl had ever been quite so direct with him before. "Well..., " he said in a low voice, "That WAS sort of what I was hoping you would do."

"Well of course I will... but there is just one condition," I said in a low voice to him as I put my hand on his crotch. I could feel his cock stiffening through his jeans as it responded to my touch. "ALL of you have to fuck me or NONE of you can."

Bob's eyes widened at that, "You're kidding... even John?"

I nodded and he grimaced just a little bit, "God damn it all, Julie would kill him if she ever found out! Not to mention Bill and Jeff's wives. Are you sure you can't just let a few of us do you while the others watch?"

I rubbed him through his jeans and smiled up at him. "Nope! I guess if you really want to fuck me then you'll just have to convince them."

Bob chuckled and took my hand from his crotch saying, "Well, if you're as hot as I think you are, a few beers and those ol' farm boys will agree to anything you want I'm sure. C'mon, let me take you out there before someone sees you."

Bob led me out from the bedroom and down the hallway in the opposite direction from where quite a noisy party seemed to be going on. We moved quickly across the lawn to the barn and went in through a wooden side door. I had never been in a barn in my entire life other than at a zoo and the first thing I noticed was the overwhelming smell. There was the odor of animals that stunk badly but there was also a sweet aroma of hay that tempered it to a tolerable level. A wooden ladder led up to a second floor and that was where Bob was headed.

He motioned for me to go first and as I climbed I realized why - he was right behind looking up at my ass! Oh well, I certainly didn't mind if he looked and soon I reached the top and there was a huge area partially filled with hay bales but most of it was empty. A makeshift screen had been erected by holding a white sheet against the wall with a projection video machine on a small table in the center pointed at it. A few bales had been set out for seats and I guessed that this was where Bob was planning to show his porn flicks. A couple of large coolers were also there and I imagined there was enough alcohol in them to drown a small army.

"Over here Kelly," Bob called, bringing my attention back to him.

He was standing over by a large pile of hay bales and motioning for me to come over to him. I did as he said and saw he had piled them up to create a hiding place for me. He even had a couple of beers set out for me!

"We'll be out in a little while," he said, "I thought you might like a little something to loosen up."

I thanked him but told him I didn't drink. He looked surprised and apologized for not having anything else. Bob promised to bring me out some water later when he returned so I just sat down on the bale and he left me to return to the party. It felt strange to be sitting there all alone. It was quiet and dim with just a little light coming through a window near the top of the barn. Fortunately it was warm for this time of year and the barn was even warmer than it was outside so although I was cool, it was tolerable.

4. The Party Begins

About fifteen minutes or so went by before I heard them coming out. They were all laughing and joking, teasing Bob about the movies and warning him they had better be good. The floor shook a bit as they clambered up the ladder and immediately hit the coolers for more beers. A bottle of water suddenly appeared around the corner and dropped at my feet. I opened it and took a big swig as my mouth was dry from the hay dust. The first video started and I immediately could tell it wasn't the type of porn my dad liked to watch. At least his had a little class to them!

I peeked though some bales and I could clearly make out what was on the screen. There was no story line or plot, it was just one scene after another of guys fucking girls. They seemed to be loving it but it just turned me off. There was nothing sexy to me to see some whore being fucked by anywhere from one to a dozen guys, just lying there letting them fuck her in every hole - and I mean EVERY hole in her body.

This only lasted about fifteen minutes when the next series started and I gasped as I realized it was women being fucked by various animals. There was a couple of dogs and one girl even sucked off a horse! It was interesting - I never realized how much cum a horse could deliver! Sexy though? Well, not for me but they sure seemed to love it. From their reactions I started to wonder if the guys even needed me! Then Bob got up and made an announcement.

"OK guys - quiet for a minute!" he shouted in order to be heard over the hooting and hollering." The noise level dropped considerably and he continued. "Why watch movies when the real thing's available?" he asked, spurring them on. THAT certainly got their attention as suddenly it got quiet as a church.

"We all know that tomorrow it's John's turn to give up the good life and join the ranks of the sexually frustrated. Well, I didn't want him to spend his last night just watching porn and jerking off."

Everyone started laughing at that with a few jokes such as, "Ahhhhhh, let him beat off in peace!" thrown in. Bob laughed and cut them off. "Now John, don't say your brother never did anything for you because I have the best bachelor party present ever... Come on out Kelly!"

I slipped around the pile of hay and everyone turned to stare at me. They started to cheer and clap, it was crazy how drunk they looked to be already and I tried to keep smiling even though I was starting to wonder if this was such a good idea. Well, I figured there was no turning back so onward I went until I was standing in front of them.

"Damn Bob, you just pick her up from school or what?" one of the guys said loudly, taking a drink from his beer bottle. He was in the center and from the looks of things I guessed he must have been the groom. It was time for me to take over before things got out of hand.

"What's the matter John?" I said in a teasing voice, "She got you neutered already? I thought this was supposed to be a party!"

Everyone roared with laughter at that, teasing John about being married already, telling him to "go for it", whatever "it" was but I had a pretty good idea! I slowly walked around the six of them and had to admit it wasn't a bad group of guys. They all looked to be in their twenties and sure enough a couple of them had wedding rings on which told me either they didn't know I was going to be there or they didn't know what my plans were! It was funny how married men would usually take off their rings before cheating on their wives, as if somehow that made it OK. The mark the band left made it so obvious they may as well have been wearing the ring but I guess it soothed their conscious.

As for me, I preferred them to keep the ring on as it reminded me of the woman they were betraying. As I walked by each one I would stop in front of him and touch him slightly, maybe on the top of the head, a touch to the thigh, nothing directly sexual, just a little tease.

As I made my way through them I slowly unbuttoned my blouse, one button every couple of guys until by the time I was around it was all but undone. Back in the middle again I slowly pulled the shirt tails out of my jeans and undid the final button, letting it hang loose on me so my bra was clearly visible to them. I twirled around which caused my shirt to fly open. With my back to them I allowed the shirt to drop off my shoulders and then slowly to the floor.

I crossed my arms over my boobs, like a little girl would if her brother walked into her room when she was dressing, and turned to face them again with an innocent look. Then I motioned for John to come to me and I took his hands and put them on the clasp between my boobs.

"Hey, she wants you to take her bra off!", one of the guys yelled as if John needed to be told that.

Oh well, he was obviously drunk so I guess he had an excuse for being an idiot! John turned his head to them and then back to me and with a leer he fumbled with my bra. It was only two little clasps but he took forever to figure them out. I was about to help him when it sprung open and my boobs literally popped out from their constraints.

"Oh yeah, look at those tits!" someone yelled.

"Are they real?" came another voice.

Well, if I HAD paid for these boobs then somebody owed me a refund but that didn't matter, I knew what the intent was - he wanted John to feel me up. John didn't really need any encouragement as he put one hand on each boob and squeezed them tight - almost too tight but I didn't say anything.

"They're real alright," he confirmed to them.

He evidently wasn't satisfied completely because he didn't take his hands off of me. I finally had to pull his hands away - it was like they were glued on!. All the while I kept smiling at him as if he was the sexiest guy in the world.

"Now now, you were just supposed to see if they were real or not," I teased.

I backed away a bit and moved over to the side and sat on a hay bale. "Anyone else feel a need to check them out?" I asked mischievously. Needless to say, the remaining five all felt the need to verify it for themselves and each one in turn reached down and grabbed my boobs. As they finished I pushed away someone trying for seconds and they all teased him for being an idiot - their words, not mine!

They didn't sit down though; instead they surrounded me in a circle and watched as I played with my boobs for them. To be honest, I liked it better when I did it instead of the groping they had just done. I reached behind and pulled the wrap out of my pony tail and let my hair hang free. It was time to shed the innocent school girl look and become the slut they wanted. One hand drifted between my legs and I started to rub myself through my jeans.

"Take 'em off!" they started chanting.

I made them wait though, not giving in to them TOO easily. It felt good rubbing myself and with my jeans as tight as they were it was almost like they weren't even there. I looked around me and smiled.

"Anybody want to help me undress?" I asked in an innocent voice.

Needless to say I had six volunteers immediately and finally it was Bob that won out the shoving contest. He kneeled down between my legs and his hands reached for my belt which he easily undid. He unsnapped my jeans and when he tried to reach for the zipper I slapped his hand.

"I can do that!" I admonished him as I leaned back and slowly unzipped my jeans.

By spreading the top of my jeans apart, I allowed them to see my white cotton panties underneath. I wasn't ready to show them my pussy quite yet so I reached under my panties with my hand and pushed my fingers down inside between my legs until they touched my wet pussy. God I was already soaked! My finger rode over my clit and I moaned softly as it responded to the attention. There was dead silence as I masturbated underneath my panties, letting their imaginations run wild as to what my pussy looked like with my finger in it. After a bit I pulled my hand out and held it up.

"Anybody want to taste my fingers?" I asked coyly.

Again a shuffle ensued and this time it was someone different who muscled his way to the front of the line. I put my finger in his mouth and felt his tongue touch it and then I pulled it back out again. He looked around, smacking his lips and nodding his approval of the vintage to everyone. I started to pull my jeans down but then I looked at where I was sitting and stopped.

"Hey, I need something to sit on here if you want me to take off my jeans," I said to them.

They looked everywhere but there wasn't a blanket or anything for me to sit on and I wasn't about to set my bare bottom on that scratchy hay bale. Bob saved the day, stripping his shirt off and offering it to me. I wasn't sure what I was more interested in - the shirt or his muscular chest! I stood up and he spread it out underneath me. Before I sat back down again I pulled my jeans down to my ankles, leaving me with just my panties on. The jeans were too tight to get over my sneakers so I leaned back on my hands and lifted my legs up until they were horizontal. Wiggling my feet, I called out, "Hey! A little help here!"

The closest two guys stepped forward, each grabbing one of my sneakers and untying them. They slipped them off and I kicked off my jeans so now it was just my panties and socks. The panties would be going soon but looking at the dirty wood floor I had no plans of taking off my socks! I sat to one side and lifted one leg up on the bale leaving the other on the floor which had the effect of exposing my crotch more to them which I hid with my hand.

"So what do you say guys - shaved, trimmed or hairy?" I asked them with a seductive smile. "Whoever's the first to guess right gets a reward."

They all started to shout and argue but Bob was the first yell out, "Totally shaved!" and I pointed at him and nodded my head. "So... what's my reward?" he asked, rubbing his hands together with glee.

I motioned for him to kneel in front of me and the I pulled my panties to the side which provided him with an up close and personal look at my smooth pussy. I used one hand to spread my pussy lips apart and then I pushed one finger on my other hand into me. Bob just stared, not even blinking as he watched my every move. I started playing with myself again as he ogled my pussy like he had never seen one before. The rest of them were crowding in now, trying to get a better view. I laid on my back on the bale and lifted my legs up to me and pulled my panties off. I tossed them to John who grabbed them with a grin.

Then I let each leg fall to the floor on opposite sides of the hay bale, spreading my legs wide apart. I was nude now, well as good as nude since I still had my socks on. I felt so sexy being completely exposed and having all these guys looking at me thinking god only knows what filthy thoughts about me. I have always loved to be watched when I masturbate and having six guys at one time made it all the better. I used one hand to rub my boobs while the other fondled my pussy. I closed my eyes and concentrated on what I was doing. It felt so good that I almost forgot what I was there for!

5. Earning My Tips

I could have just laid there and played for the night but I remembered what I was being paid for and so I sat up and looked around seductively at them, sucking my finger with my pussy juice all over it.

I pretended to whine and pout. "Oh my God, I can't believe I'm here nude, surrounded by six horny guys, all wet and ready to go, and not one of you has asked me to suck his cock yet!"

From their reactions, I don't think they were expecting this! It was one thing to have a stripper at a bachelor party, heck it is almost mandatory! However, except for Bob this was the first time they knew I might be willing to go a step further with them than just stripping for them. Bob, having the advantage of arranging for my services and knowing what was coming, was the first to react and step forward. I sat up and leaned forward towards him as he stood in front of me.

"Well, do you expect me to do all the work?" I teased him, "C'mon, whip that bad boy out for me."

Bob looked around at the other guys and shrugged his shoulders. He unzipped his jeans and pulled his cock out though the opening. He was already starting to get an erection and the head looked scrumptious. He moved forward enough for me to open my mouth and take him in. My hands were on my knees as I reached out with my tongue and touched the very tip of his cock. Then I opened wide and slowly took him in, inch by inch until my face met his jeans and pressed into his crotch. He was only about six inches long so it wasn't difficult to get him all in and I sat there like that, sucking on his cock like I was trying to pull it off of him. I pulled back to get a breath and then I started bobbing my head, still with my hands on my knees. He got into the motion and swung his hips in sync with me, fucking my mouth with his cock.

"Whoa!" someone yelled out followed by a "God damn! Look at her take his cock!"

I didn't want him to cum yet so now that I had demonstrated the most basic of blow job skills, I leaned back and let his cock flop out of my mouth. Looking around, I wiped the spit off my mouth with the back of my hand and grinned.

"Well, is nobody else interested in a blowjob?" I asked.

It was all I could do not to laugh out loud at the speed of which two more cocks appeared! I had to admire the two married guys, they both hung back and resisted temptation, so far anyway. I also was irked that my primary target, the groom, was also a member of the hold-outs. In the meantime, I let the other two fuck my mouth just as Bob had, again making sure I stopped before they came. I wanted them horny enough to want to fuck me and I knew from the stiffness of each cock that they were certainly turned on!

I was feeling pretty horny myself by now and I'm not sure who wanted them to fuck me more, them or me! My pussy was aching with all these hard cocks surrounding me and none of them in me yet. I grinned at them and stood on the bale of hay, slowly dancing for them, letting them watch me as I danced seductively in the nude for them. When I faced John, I crouched down and played with my pussy as I pointed at him with my other hand.

"C'mon John, you know you want me," I said. Then I turned and looked around at the rest of them and grinned. "So wadda ya say boys, am I gonna get fucked tonight or not?"

John's eyes widened and between the alcohol, the porn and the show so far I could see he was on the verge of saying yes but not quite there yet.

"Last chance John," I teased, "I know you want me."

"Go for it John!" I heard and looked to see it was Bob.

He still had his cock out and was stroking it. God he must have been ridiculously horny! I looked at Bob and raised by eyebrows. He looked frustrated, I knew he wanted to fuck me badly and it must have been killing him that the rest of them weren't cooperating!

"C'mon guys, she told me before we started it was all or nothing. Damn, how can you guys turn this down?" he whined.

From the expression on his face and the hand on his belt I figured Bill was about to do it but Jeff and John were still resisting. I can't remember any time when I offered myself to a guy that I had been turned down and I was damned if tonight was going to be the first time so I went up to Jeff and pressed my nude body against him, my hand between us pressing against his cock.

"You know, I'm not use to guys turning me down Jeff," I said in a low voice to him, "What's the matter? Don't you want to fuck me?"

"Oh god!" Jeff moaned, looking around for support but not finding any sympathy, "Monica would kill me if she found out."

I reached down with both hands and unzipped his jeans. He still had his hands to his sides but he didn't stop me either. I unbuckled his belt and unsnapped his jeans and pulled the flaps apart. He was wearing jockey underwear which was always a pain but I reached my hand inside and held his cock.

"You have to stop," he protested weakly.

Despite what he was saying he wasn't stopping me so I pulled the front of his underwear down to expose his dick which already practically bursting out on its own. It flopped out and I quickly took it in my mouth before he could say another word and pushed my head down until my face met the base of his cock. His cock was pretty small so although it just pushed against the back of my throat I was able to easily swallow all of him.

"Oh my god!" he gasped and he put his hands on my head and pulled me tight into his crotch. I started sucking on him and knew he was mine! "Hey Jeff, bet Monica never sucked you like that!" someone called out.

I looked up at him and our eyes met as I held the head of his cock in my mouth and swirled my tongue around the bottom edge of it. He shuddered and I saw him roll his eyes, shake his head and wordlessly mouth, "Noooooo!" to whoever had asked the question. Admittedly I love sucking just about any cock but it is always best when I knew the guy I was blowing was getting something better than his girlfriend or wife gave him.

I sucked him for several minutes and from the way he was breathing and pulling on my head I knew he was about to cum so I let him flop out of my mouth and I held his wet cock in my hand. I looked up at him and smiled. "Now that wasn't so bad, was it?

"Damn you can suck a cock!" Jeff exclaimed. He tried to pull my head back into his crotch but I resisted and moved away from him.

"Now, wow??," I teased him, "If you want more you'll have to wait."

Jeff looked disappointed but I knew whatever morals he had about cheating on his wife were long forgotten now. He wanted me and that was what I wanted. Now it was time for the groom. John was sitting on a bale and had been watching everything so despite anything he might say, the bulge in his pants betrayed his true thoughts. I pushed his legs apart and sat on one of his legs, my legs in between his, and put my arm around his neck. My boobs pressed up against him and he looked down at them and then away as if trying to pretend he hadn't looked. He had both hands flat on the bale still which meant I had some work to do but I was up to the challenge! I unbuttoned one of his shirt buttons and reached my hand inside, rubbing my palm against his chest.

"C'mon John, this could be your last chance you know," I whispered in his ear, kissing his neck lightly and running my hand down lower until I was pushing against his belt and jeans. "I really want to suck your cock."

The truth was, I DID want to suck his cock. I loved it when I took a guy's dick in my mouth and heard him gasp as I drove him nuts with my mouth. Feeling him grow in my mouth, knowing there was nothing he could do to stop it from reacting to what I was doing even if he wanted to, made me feel sexy as hell. Every cock was shaped just a little different from the others, every guy reacted differently, every guy tasted just a little bit unique so I never got tired of sucking new cocks. I have never found a guy who didn't want his cock sucked and it gave me a true sense of control over them as I knew they would do almost anything to get me to do it. If anyone was being submissive during a BJ, it was the guy, not me!

"Do it," he whispered hoarsely.

"Tell me what you want John," I teased him. I knew that I had him now and it was fun to make him beg a little bit first.

"Fuck it! Just suck my cock you little whore!" he burst out suddenly and everyone laughed and teased him for the way he had tried unsuccessfully to hold out.

He unbuckled his belt and unlike Jeff, was wearing grey boxers which were nice and baggy and easy to access. His cock was pushing upward and he opened up the fly and it poked out. I licked my lips in anticipation as it was rock hard and had a huge head! My favorite part of a cock is the head. I love the way it is all swollen and smooth. It feels food against my tongue as I run it along the bottom of the ridge that circles it. Plus, when I get fucked the head is larger than the rest of the shaft and so if a guy puts himself just enough in me to where his head just disappears, that actually creates more sensation in me than having him all the way in me! Having a guy bury himself completely in me is more a mental turn-on than physical. For the best orgasm, wiggling his head just inside my pussy hole does it for me every time!

Unlike the other guys, I took John's cock in my hand first and stroked him gently to start. My hand barely fit around the shaft and I ran my thumb around the head when my hand was high on his shaft.

"You like that," I said with a naughty grin.

"Quit teasing me and suck it!"

I got off his leg and squatted between his legs. I didn't want to kneel on the dirty rough floor so I put my arms on top of his legs, one on each side of me, and while he held his cock out for me I reached forward and took the head in my mouth until my lips were just over the ridge. My tongue flickered along the tip of his cock, digging gently into the opening at the top. He let go of it and I took more of him in. John easily had the biggest cock of the bunch and my mouth had to stretch to fit him in. Keeping my right arm on his leg to help me keep my balance, I reached down and started playing with myself as I remained down with my knees bent in front of him. I pressed my finger into me slightly and imagined it was his cock forcing its way inside of me.

Even though I hadn't sucked the last guy's cock, I couldn't take it anymore. I HAD to get fucked and soon or my pussy was going to explode. As much as I loved sucking cocks, there came a time when priorities had to be established and right now, getting a cock inside of me was number one on my list, and number two and three for that matter. I stood up between his legs, holding his cock in my hand. I kept his cock in my hand as I turned around so that my ass was facing him and I could look out at all the guys watching us. Looking over my shoulder, I caught him staring at my ass.

"Ready to fuck me big guy?" I said, as much for the rest to hear as him.

"Are you sure you can handle me slut?"

I just laughed at that and holding his cock, I lowered myself down until I felt the head of it pressing against the outer part of my wet pussy. I didn't waste any more time. Not only was I dying for a cock but I had five more to go after all. I sat down and he violated my cunt, his cock pushing itself up into me until I was sitting down flat on his lap. I looked down and I could see his cock buried in my pussy and it looked simply incredible as it spread me apart and then disappeared inside of me. I've always loved seeing a man inside of me while at the same time feeling his cock filling me up inside. I started to bounce on his cock, leaning forward to draw him out of me and then sitting back down on his lap again to push him back inside of me.

"Mmmmmmm, fuck me John!" I cried out, as much for the others actually as for John.

The others yelled out their encouragement and I noticed a few of them were stroking themselves. I knew once things got started for real that the final inhibitions would drop and as usual when it came to predicting men's reactions to sex, I was right on the money! I smiled as I thought to myself how soooooo utterly predictable men are! It was like when they got had all the blood rushed from their brain and every action was controlled by their dick! It felt great to finally have a cock in me and even better knowing that this same cock had been promised to someone. Well, he wasn't married yet and I hoped that when he was saying his vows he would remember fucking me for even just a moment as he stared into his bride's eyes. Imagine what she would have said if she knew at the same time he was pledging his life to her he was remembering fucking me!

I heard him groaning louder and from the additional swelling of his cock I knew he was getting ready to cum so I got off his lap and squatted in front of him once again. I held his cock a few inches from my mouth and stroked the bottom part quickly while I sucked on the head. John groaned loudly as suddenly I felt the first stream of cum shoot from the end of his cock like a cannon. I quickly pulled him out and in my haste misdirected his next shot a bit such that about half of it hit me in the chin while the rest went on my outstretched tongue. The extra bitter taste reminding me of the only negative thing about the night so far. They had been drinking heavily and when that happens, it seems something happens to their cum and it tastes like crap. Normally I LOVE the taste of cum and could drink a glass for dinner if it could be bottled. In this case I let the rest spray all over my face and chest. Actually it seems most guys get off more from that anyway so it wasn't like I got any complaints. I spit out the cum that was in my mouth and tried not to grimace from the nasty aftertaste. I looked up at him and then around at the other so they could see the cum covering my face.

Now that John had served his purpose I didn't have any more use for him so I left him and grabbed Bob's shirt from where I had been sitting and used it to wipe my face and chest off. He didn't complain about his brother's cum all over his shirt and frankly it wouldn't have mattered to me if he had. I returned to the center of the group, freshly fucked and ready for more... a LOT more. I slowly turned in a circle, pointing my finger at each one of them.

6. Doing Them All

"OK now, everyone who wants to fuck Kelly, strip your pants off now!" I said in a dominating voice.

Looking at them I realized that I was now in total control of the situation. I knew that they would do anything I asked them at this point and I knew exactly what I wanted from each of them - their hard cock cumming inside of me. Bob's pants practically flew off while the others came down a bit more slowly. Jeff was the last to pull his off but even he finally just grunted and soon I was surrounded by five guys nude from the waist down as John had already done me so he was just sitting back and enjoying the show. Hmmm, it was almost like my dream back in the taxi!

Well, one down five to go. I did the two single guys next, neither of them exactly memorable but satisfactory... typical for young single guys it seems these days. If they were about ten years younger at least I would have had the thrill of being nailed by a young horny teenager; or if they were older I would have enjoyed being their "daughter" or "mistress" but with most single twentysomethings, sex was like vanilla ice cream, boring and plain. Both of them even screwed me exactly the same way. Each only wanted to do doggie style which was OK with me but the one thing I really didn't care for was that they both pulled out of me just before they came and sprayed their cum all over my butt, back, and even a little in my hair. Why guys get a thrill out of that when I would love to have them cum deep inside my pussy is beyond me. Each time I used Bob's shirt to clean as much as I could off of me and the poor thing was becoming soaked with cum.

With the groom and the two single guys out of the way, that left Bob and the two married guys. Bob wanted me badly but I was saving him for the finale so Jeff was my next target. I had sucked him before and I knew as much as he had protested he enjoyed every minute of it and wanted more of me. I moved over to where he was sitting and I quickly straddled him. The hay poked into my knees but I quickly forgot about it. He started to lean backwards but I grabbed him by the shoulders and pulled him up. His cock was like a flagpole below me and with my cunt as wet and used as it was he slipped easily inside of me. His hands grabbed my ass as I pumped his cock in and out of me. It took quite a while for him to cum turning it into an exhausting workout for me.

It was interesting how with some guys, getting drunk made them cum faster while for most, it seemed to make them more immune to orgasm. Bill fell into the latter category and it took maybe ten or fifteen minutes before he finally came and I was glad as I wasn't sure how much longer I could go on! He tried to lift me off of him so he could cum on me but I wouldn't let him. I sat down firmly on his cock and literally forced him to cum inside of me. He was the first to leave his sperm in me and not only did I love the feeling it gave me when he pumped it into me, I was just getting tired of having to wipe myself off after each time!

That left Bill and I noticed while I was with Jeff that he had been fidgeting with his wedding ring while watching him screw me. At first I was a bit concerned he might back out but the erection he was sporting betrayed his true desires. One good thing about men, it's easy to know what they are thinking because they can't control their dicks! I spread Bob's shirt on the floor and laid down with my back against it. I could feel the wetness of the other guys' cum in it but it was better than laying on the dirty floor directly.

I put my knees up by planting my feet close to me and then spread my legs apart, motioning with both hands for Bill to get down and fuck me. He started to hesitate but the others clapped him on the back and teased him until finally he appeared to give in and so he got down on the floor with me. He held his hard cock in his hand and leaned over me, supporting himself with one hand to the side of me while he held his stiff cock in the other. His face was just above mine and he looked me in the eyes.

"I want you to know I have never made love to anyone else since I married my wife," he whispered to me.

"Don't worry then, I don't want you to make love to me, fuck me!"

"God, I can't believe I'm doing this..."

"Just fuck me Bill? You know you want to or you wouldn't be on top of me now so just do it."

"Shit? You're quite the manipulative little bitch, aren't you?" he muttered but that didn't stop him from directing his cock against the opening to my pussy. "Oh what the hell, you're just a whore anyway."

At that point I didn't care what he called me so long as he put his dick in me so I didn't respond to his slur. If it appeased his conscience to distance himself from what he was doing by rationalizing it as just sex with a whore then that was fine with me. I had been fucked four time by now yet I was hornier than I as before the first.

"Why don't you just fuck me then? Don't treat me like your prissy wife? fuck me like you've always wanted to fuck a girl."

"C'mon Bill, fuck her!" I heard someone cry out, probably John from the sound of it.

I grabbed Bill's cock from his hand and literally pulled him down to my waiting pussy. I positioned him right at the entrance to my hole and lifted my hips upward. I felt his cock slide easily into me thanks to the lubrication of Jeff's cum that was dripping out of me. I have found that some men don't care about "sloppy seconds" while others were positively paranoid about it. Personally, I think it's a homophobic thing about having their cum in contact with another man. Whatever the reason, at least it didn't seem to bother Bill one bit. I had picked the missionary position for him because for me it was the most intimate way to be fucked and wince Bill had the most trepidations about cheating on his wife, I wanted him to be the most intimate when he fucked me.

Bill pushed his cock about half-way in me and then he stiffened and started to pull out of me. I wrapped my legs around him as best I could and pulled him into me.

"It's too late to back out now Bill? You're in me now so do it."

Bill just groaned and it was like he snapped, like whatever was holding him back just let loose completely and he suddenly started pumping me like a wild man, slamming his crotch into me making me gasp for air each time.

"That's it Bill! Mmmmmmm, you like fucking me more than her, don't you?" I asked him as he just kept slammed his cock in and out of me.

"You wanna be fucked? Well I'll show you how to get fucked you little tramp," he growled at me.

Again, it was if he had to make me dirty, a tramp, a whore, anything to rationalize fucking me without "cheating" on his wife. It didn't matter to me, adultery was adultery no matter what excuses you used and whenever Bill was making love to his wife in the future he would never be able to erase me from his mind. For me, he was just another jerk of a husband cheating on his wife but for him, I would always be the girl he first cheated with.

"Cum in me!" I begged him as I felt his strokes getting faster and faster, his breathing betraying the onset of his orgasm.

He didn't say anything but his actions spoke louder than any words could have. Suddenly he groaned and I felt a warmth blooming inside of me as one load after another of his sperm shot into me. He didn't stay around once he had cum and pulled out immediately leaving me gasping with his cum dribbling out of my cunt.

"Mmmmmmm, that wasn't so bad now was it Bill?" I said, smiling up at him as I felt his cum dripping down my ass from where it was draining out of my pussy.

Bill stood up and looked around as his cock started to droop. "Ok fellas, not one word to anyone... hear me?"

Everyone just joked and patted him on the back. Somehow I had a feeling it wouldn't be long before Bill had some explaining to do! That left Bob, my dear Bob who had been dying to get in my pants since he first saw me. By now I was starting to feel a bit tired and my legs were definitely feeling like I had just run a mile but my pussy still wasn't satisfied and Bob was available so what came next was pretty obvious. I stood on top of one of the bales and motioned for him to come to me. A big grin was on his face as he moved closer and when he was within reach I grabbed his staff and pulled him towards me. He bent his knees to allow me to guide it under me and I held the tip of his head against my pussy. He straightened up and in the process drove his cock up into me.

For a moment I felt like an old whore given the way he slipped so easily into me but I guess there was nothing to apologize for after having just been fucked by five guys in the last hour! I leaned forward and he put his arms around me and lifted me up and off the bale. I wrapped my legs around him and he held me up, impaled on his cock like a marshmallow on a stick. My arms were tight around his neck as I held on for dear life while he had his hands under my ass, raising me up and down to fuck me. He was so strong he made it seem effortless! I guess after lifting all those bales of hay I must have been pretty easy pick up and fuck this way.

I had no idea how long he could support me this way but as it turned out he had been stroking himself for so long, dreaming all night of fucking me, that he couldn't hold out for very long. I felt him jerk as he moaned and again the inside of my cunt felt like someone had released a warm enema in me as his sperm spurt out of his cock and filled my already cum-drenched pussy. After a few more he held me motionless, as if he was trying to let the memory of me riding his cock burn itself into his brain, never to be forgotten Finally he bent his knees until my feet could touch the bale again and then he bent a little more to let his cock slip out of me. My pussy tingled and a little cum started to drip out of me and slide down the inside of my leg.

I looked around at the six of them, each of them now having fucked me and it was interesting to see the reactions on their faces in the aftermath. Bob was obviously ecstatic while Bill was definitely having a case of sexual remorse. Frankly it really didn't matter to me how any of them felt, I was feeling great and ready for a second round! It WAS a party to honor John so I went up to him and stood in front of him. Reaching between my legs, I scooped up some of the sperm and pussy cum that was dripping from me and I put it into my mouth, smiling at him in a naughty way.

"Ready for more?" I asked, standing on one leg with the other behind me and my finger to my lips.

I could only imagine how I looked by now. The innocent and naive schoolgirl had definitely left the building! My hair felt like it was a wreck and I could only guess how much cum had missed the mark and was now congealing in it. Even though I had wiped most of the cum from me, it still left a film on me and I could feel the stiff dried cum all over me. My pussy held a mixture of my cum and sperm. I had cum several times, nothing very big at any one time but enough to keep me sexually at my peak and even now I wanted more. Unfortunately, as I've heard it said, beer creates the desire but takes away the performance and it was certainly a truism tonight. I couldn't believe it... here I was offering myself to them to be fucked as much as they wanted and not one of them could get it up again! I imagine there would be some jokes and teasing about it later on but all I knew was that I wasn't getting any more cock tonight. Bummer!!

Feeling better but somehow not satisfied, I gathered my stuff and left them to pass out, which is what it looked like they would be doing any moment now. I slipped on my shoes and carried my clothes down the ladder and walked nude back to the house. The air was getting pretty cold by now, even more so considering how hot I was at the time, and so I hurried back. When I got back to the guest bedroom I looked in the mirror. God, I really did look a wreck! I couldn't go back to school this way so I figured what the heck and took a shower in the guest bathroom. My hair was a complete disaster! There is nothing worse to get out of your hair than dried and caked on cum and I had a lot more of it than I had realized.

I felt a thousand percent better though afterwards and there was even a small blow drier under sink so I could dry my hair. I called the taxi driver and while I waited for him I put on my clothes and went to wait by the door. He was there in a matter of minutes, something nice to know if I had needed him, and he opened the door for me to get in the back seat.

"Everything OK?" he asked.

He was trying hard to be nice to me and I appreciated his concern. I assured him I was doing fine and the drive back to school was quiet and uneventful. The only problem I had was by the time we got back all that cum and sperm had drained and it looked like I had peed in my pants! I held my bag in front of me as I sneaked into my dorm room. Fortunately my roomie was dead asleep and didn't hear me come in. I slipped out of my clothes and threw on a t-shirt as my roomie hated it when I slept nude, and lay back in bed.

It must have been an hour or more before my mind slowed down enough to finally allow me to fall asleep. I certainly slept sound that night, the way only a girl who has been soundly fucked can sleep! The last thoughts that I remember were wondering if I would ever get the chance to do another party like this again.

Hmmm, now I wonder who had told him THAT? It was true, I couldn't deny it, but I hadn’t told him myself because I was afraid he might think I was crossing some sort of line by taking money for sex. It wasn't the money anyway that I was interested in, it was the fun and excitement that got me off. Still, it WS technically prostitution and I didn't want to get in an argument with him over it.

He continued on, “...and so I wondered if you'd like to do something like that for some new clients I'll be having in town this week."

Whoa! That one came out of the blue for sure. The first semester of my sophomore year had been rough for me. I missed my freshman roomie terribly. Not that my new one was all that bad, it's just she was bi and didn't even like to masturbate. My frustrations built to the point where I decided at the start of the 2nd semester to find something to satisfy my needs without getting into trouble with my school.

After checking out various options I signed up with an escort service in Columbus and over the next few months did a couple of bachelor parties and a few private escorting gigs. Because I was doing it for sex rather than money, I tended to be pretty picky about the guys I went out with. It put me a little at odds with my agency, as they would have had me out every night like a street hooker if they could, but I stuck to my principles. The last thing I was looking for was any sort of trouble or personal relationships so I restricted my clients to older guys (late thirties and forties) who were married, preferably with children.

It was fun at first as I fulfilled their sexual fantasies. This was especially true for the guys who had daughters my age that let me be their surrogate daughter for the evening. My favorite evening was helping them live out the naughtiest fantasies they kept hidden away with regards to their own daughters.

Of course, as I mentioned before I told my parents all about my new "job" as I had never kept anything from them before and didn't want to start now. Needless to say they were a bit concerned at first but when they understood the security precautions my agency had in place and the limited number of engagements I accepted they were OK with it. From what I was hearing on the phone now, apparently my father was more than OK with it – he even wanted to hire me!

We talked for the next ten to fifteen minutes about the situation he was in. Apparently he’d had several guys in town all the past week for what represented a major coup for my dad's firm. They had been going out every night and proved themselves to be a bit over the top in more than just their business dealings. The three of them ranged were all different ages; my dad guessed 25, 35 and 50. The older two were married but according to my dad he never would have known from the way they all caroused around town. They'd hit a different strip joint every night and Saturday was to be their last evening before heading home. My dad said they hinted broadly that the account was his but the things could always change depending on how Saturday night went. It was obvious they weren't interested in being just spectators at a club; they wanted to be part of the action.

Ever the lawyer, my dad was wary of going out and hiring some hookers off the street only to end up getting busted for solicitation. Besides, he'd never done such a thing in the past because he would never cheat on my mom in the first place. It didn't matter that she probably wouldn't have cared about the sex itself, it was the principle that he and mom had lived by ever since they got married. My dad took his wedding vows seriously and he'd never been with a woman outside our family since the day he married my mom; well, other than my best friend Beth who was practically a member of the family anyway so that didn't count.

As he considered the options he looked at a photo of me he kept on his desk top and remembered what I was doing now with the bachelor parties and escorts and realized he had his answer right there in front of him the whole time. So he called me and asked me if I'd be interested in combining the two – first go out for a nice dinner and then back to a downtown hotel suite for some "personal" entertainment. As he concluded, I simply couldn't believe what I was hearing – my dad was asking me to fuck a few of his clients! Was he just pulling my leg or was he being serious?

"So it would be just me then?" I asked.

It wasn't like that bothered me as it wouldn't be the first time I'd taken on three guys by myself but it was still not the norm for me. I'd done as many as twelve at a bachelor party but somehow three guys in a hotel suite seemed more challenging than a dozen in a living room.

My dad hesitated for a second, then said, "Well, what about Kristi? Do you think your slutty cousin would be interested in joining in?"

I was glad we weren't on a video phone then as I covered my mouth to keep from Laughing out loud. Would Kristi be interested in getting fucked? Hell, he may as well ask if the sun was going to come up in the east tomorrow! My little slut of a cousin may have been two years younger than me being just over a week from her eighteenth birthday, but she'd been fucked by at least twice as many guys as me.

"Actually the party's right by you in Pittsburgh," I replied, "It would be sort of a cross between an escort and a bachelor party. We would go out for dinner and then put on a private show for them back at their hotel suite."

"Hmmm, and how many guys are you looking at?" she asked in a matter-of-fact tone, almost like we were discussing a typical dinner reservation.

"Four total."

"How old?"

"I think they range from mid-twenties to maybe fifty." I said holding my breath. "I know Kristi, too old for you but hey, think of how much fun you'll have."

"I suppose," she sighed, "Anyone we know?"

"All three are from out of town," I answered and then hesitated for a second before continuing, "plus my dad."

"Wow!!" she exclaimed, "You're kidding! That sounds soooooo cool! So, just how did this come about?"

I explained the situation with my dad's clients and how he didn't want to hire hookers because he wanted to be able to join in but didn't want to cheat on my mom.

"So let me get this straight," Kristi said, "your father wants us to fuck three guys we've never met in front of him and then he is going to fuck us both in front of them - and they will have no idea who we really are?"

"Well, that about sums it up." I said with a hint of laughter in my voice.

"Oh my god that is SOOOO hot!" she said and I knew we were on for the weekend! We talked another thirty minutes or so about what to wear and how we would act with them. I was fingering myself the whole time and came furiously not long after I hung up the phone. God, I couldn't wait for the weekend to come!!

3. Dad Couldn’t Wait

That Friday I woke up and the first thing that I thought of was that today was the day! I was so incredibly horny I literally had no choice but to masturbate right there in bed even before going to the bathroom. Why I bothered with classes I don't know as all I could think about all day was being picked up by my dad at the end of the day and what we would be doing later in the evening. It was so bad that half-way through one of my classes- Literature of the Modern World, I had to excuse myself to go to the girl's room and do myself yet again!

Fortunately Fridays are an easy day for me and I was through with class by 11AM and so just before noon I was in the lobby with my backpack, impatiently waiting for my dad. It wasn’t too long before the big familiar SUV pulled up and I ran out to greet him. I quickly opened the passenger door and jumped in, grinning broadly at him. We exchanged hellos and he quickly pulled away and drove off campus. A few blocks from school he pulled over into a small grocery store parking lot and parked away from the other cars. He turned to me with a big smile on his face.

"Hey baby, good to see you. Damn... you’re looking hot today!"

I smiled in appreciation and scooted across the seat to be next to him. Dad put his arm around me and pulled me close to him, leaning down to kiss me. Our lips met and a tingle went through my entire body as we kissed passionately, a month of pent-up lust spilling out. His hand moved down to my blouse and he unbuttoned it enough to slip his hand inside and cup my breast. Of course I wasn't wearing a bra – I knew my dad well enough by now. He gently squeezed me and it was like a dose of pleasure was injected directly into my bloodstream and it quickly flowed throughout my body, raising goose bumps as it went

"Oh daddy... I missed you so much," I whispered huskily to him.

"Damn, I can’t wait... I want you now," he groaned in reply. I looked at him and his face had that look on it I rarely saw and my heart skipped a beat as I recognized the pure lust and desire that was there. I knew he wanted me the same way a hungry lion wants a gazelle. In my heart I knew there was no denying his needs at this point. Yes, my dad was going to fuck me now and it really didn't matter what I said or did at this point. It wasn't like it really mattered as to this day I’d never refused my father when he came for me and I had no plans to do so today. Still, sometimes I wondered what would happen if I ever DID try to deny him at a moment like this.

It was all just silly thoughts because as much as he wanted me, it's not like I didn't want him just as badly. Oh yeah... I wanted to feel him touching me all over, feel his large hands roaming all over every inch of me and exploring me EVERYWHERE. Most of all though, I wanted him to fuck me. God I wanted my dad to fuck me! My pussy was begging for his cock! I could feel it between my legs, growing hotter and getting wetter by the second. I didn't care anymore where we were or how he did it, just so his hard dick made its way somehow into my waiting pussy. I pressed myself against him and laid my hand on his crotch, feeling the firm lump his hard cock had created there.

"Fuck me daddy," I begged him, "Fuck your little girl now. God I need your cock soooooo bad."

I laid back on the seat and unbuttoned my jeans, lowering the zipper for him. Dad grabbed them by the waist and pulled them down and off of me, leaving me with nothing on but my unbuttoned blouse which was soon off of me as well. I felt like such a dirty slut, laying naked in the front seat of my dad's SUV right in the middle of a busy parking lot, spreading my legs apart for him to fuck me.

Dad wasn't wasting any time either. This was not going to be one of those intimate times with lots of cuddling and foreplay, building to a beautiful climax. No, this was going to be a good old fashioned screwing where both people just want to satisfy their own physical desires and needs. I always loved fucking my dad but it was times like these that really got me hot and horny. He wasn't treating me like his daughter anymore, but rather like some skank of a whore he had just picked up off the street and now he wanted to satisfy himself with her. I imagine that most men just fantasize about having such raw, animal-like sex with a girl.

The best part for my dad was that he knew he was NOT fucking some whore who was just doing it for the money. He knew that I loved him fucking me this way and that he could do absolutely anything he wanted to me and I would not protest because I trusted him totally and without reservation. From the passionate look on his face, I knew all he wanted to do at this moment was to satisfy that instinctive desire for sex, to leave his seed in a fertile young girl.

My dad was on his knees facing me as I lay on the seat with his cock sticking out from his jeans. I watched with anticipation as he unbuckled his belt and undid his jeans, dropping them and his boxers down below his ass so his cock was freed. My tongue ran over my lips as I stared at his erect dick, standing straight up with a pronounced curve. His crotch was full of hair - he never even trimmed it because he knows I love it as long as he can grow it.

I could already smell his sex, the odor emanating from a mixture of lust and sweat between his legs. I wanted to dive on it and take him all in my mouth, feeling that long curly pubic hair brushing against my face as I filled my mouth and throat with his cock and breathed in his male scent.

There was no time, though, for oral sex today. My dad wanted one thing and one thing only - to fuck me. There was something about knowing his desires that made me feel wonderful deep down inside. I loved my father so very much and was so thankful for all the wonderful he had done for me so far in my life. Being able to show him my gratitude by giving him the most intimate and personal gift I possessed – my body, was such a blessing.

At this moment I knew without any doubt whatsoever that my father NEEDED me and it made me feel like the luckiest girl in the world to be able to give him what he craved so badly. I felt proud that nobody, not even my mother, could give him what I was offering him – his only daughter.

My dad leaned over me, supporting himself on his hands on each side of me as he positioned his cock up against my wet pussy. Instinctively I raised my hips to try to bring him into me as I felt his large head pressing against the opening to my starving pussy. He reached back with one hand and grabbed his cock so he could rub it up and down my wet slit, teasing me at my pussy hole and then rubbing himself against my swollen clit sending shock waves through me each time. Then with his cock once again at my pussy entrance, he pushed into me and I felt his cock head splitting me open and then entering inside of me.

My dad held himself in me, letting his cock throb in the hypersensitive regions just inside of my pussy. God it felt so good! I gasped as suddenly my orgasm came and I arched my head back as I moaned softly. My pussy contracted and squeezed him so hard I almost pushed him out of my pussy but he grunted and pushed himself further into me.

"Damn Kelly," he whispered, "You must have been really horny to cum this fast!"

I wanted to just let the incredible surges run through me but I summoned the strength for a quick answer saying, "Oh god yes daddy, fuck me more."

My orgasm started to wane and then suddenly he rammed himself into me to the hilt and once again I was on cloud nine as I felt my cunt fill with his swollen dick.

"God, I missed your tight pussy so much!" he exclaimed as he ground his hairy crotch against my bald pussy. It felt like a brush caressing my pussy with his cock in the middle of it, drilling me so deep it felt like he was in my belly. "God you're so beautiful... such a wonderful daughter... such a fucking slut!

He was pounding me like he was trying to drive me through the seat. The truck had to be moving around from all the fucking and I wondered of anyone in the parking lot had noticed. I didn't care, if anything I hoped someone would see us. Imagine their shock at seeing an older man fucking a girl young enough to be his daughter right in the middle of a parking lot – except in this case I WAS his daughter!

He was going as fast as he could now when suddenly he pushed into me and held himself still. I could feel his cock swelling and I knew what was about to come.

"Oh daddy, cum in me. Fill me with your hot cum!" I begged him.

"Fuck!!!" he cried out as I felt his rigid cock explode inside of me, spewing his hot incestuous fluid deep inside his daughter’s more than willing pussy.

I loved this moment, the completion of the sexual circle as the same cock that fucked my mother and ejected the sperm in other that created me was now inside of my cunt, doing the same to his offspring. Just the thought of it would have been as enough to make me horny any other time. Of course, now it just added to the pleasure of the moment.

"Take it you fucking slut, take all of it in you," he demanded as he erupted again and yet again.

Each time I felt that bloom of heat in me and the feel of hot liquid in my gut as he shot his cum into me over and over again. Finally he just held himself in me, pushing gently into me as he closed his eyes and squeezed out the last bit of cum into me.

Wow, he’d shot me so full of cum I could feel it draining out of me and dripping down my ass. Despite the tremendous fucking he’d just given me, my dad started moving his cock slowly in and out of me again. The change in pace from the hard fucking he was giving me to this gentle stroking was all the more erotic as I felt my ass sliding on the leather seats now slick with cum. This wasn't the first time by any means our cum had covered these seats and I was thankful that he had chosen leather instead of cloth.

"That feels wonderful daddy, please don't stop," I whispered softly to him. "Make me cum again daddy, I want to cum, I want to cum for YOU."

My pussy began to throb and I felt it heat up like a hot coal had dropped into it. Oh god I was cumming again. It was different this time though than the first, more of the slow cooker version instead of the broiler type I had experienced when we started. My body felt like it was getting hotter and hotter until I thought I was going to burn up. Suddenly it was like a spring let loose and this surge of emotion ran through me, making me gasp loudly as my pussy tightened on his cock. Oh did it feel good!

My dad could feel my pussy gripping him and together with my moans and flushed skin it told him all he needed to know.

"Oh Kelly I love you so much. You're so beautiful when you cum."

"I love you too daddy," I moaned, opening my eyes to look at him. "I want so bad to make you happy. I would do anything for you daddy – ANYTHING."

He kissed me and my tongues met his as we shared a long, passionate embrace. His dwindling cock was still in me and my pussy would spasm uncontrollably with the aftereffects of my last orgasm, alternately gripping him and then releasing him. Eventually he separated and I felt his cock slip from my pussy, leaving it feeling cold and empty in comparison. I could have fucked him all afternoon! We each got dressed and I cleaned up the seat with some tissues from the glove box before I sat on it in my jeans. I held the tissue up to my nose, breathing in the wonderful odor of our cum.

"Wow girl," my dad exclaimed as he pulled the big truck out of the lot, "Now THAT was incredible!"

I grinned at him and let me head rest on his shoulder as I pressed myself up next to him. We didn't stop again until we got home but he know he was sorely tempted to when about half-way back I gave him a nice blowjob as he drove down the middle of the busy interstate highway. I loved it especially when we would pass a bug truck and the driver could peer down and see my head in my dad's lap. It must have been obvious what I was doing because we got more than a few horns saluting us as we went by them.

4. Back Home Again

We got back home in the later part of the afternoon and mom was waiting for us at the door. I ran in and gave her a big hug.

"So how's my big college girl doing?" she asked. "Did you and dad behave yourself on the way home?"

My dad coughed and I grinned making my mom laugh at the two of us.

"Well, to be honest I would’ve been amazed and maybe even a little disappointed in you both if he HADN'T fucked you by now," she said with a laugh. "It’s always good to see some things never change."

My dad slipped in behind me and kissed my mom. His hand slipped between her legs and started rubbing her crotch playfully.

"Oh John, stop it!" she exclaimed with a laugh, "It's only been a few hours since you fucked your daughter and now me? Sheesh, are you still THAT horny!"

Then she turned to me and said, "Well girl, you've got a big night ahead of you. Now run upstairs and start getting ready and I'll be up to help you just as soon as I take care of your horny father."

That was one thing I really loved about my parents. After being married over twenty years they still could act like two horny teenagers. My mother confided in me one time that one reason she loved it when I fucked my dad was the hard fucking she usually got soon afterwards. My father loved to fuck me but it was more for his physical satisfaction as well as the erotic thrill that comes from fucking his only daughter.

My parents did something I had yet to do in my life – make love. Some day when I was married I dream of having that level of physical as well as emotional attachment with a man. Even with my parents I still consider what we do as fucking, not making love. To make love requires two people equally committed to and in love with one another. My father loved my mother as his soul mate and you can only love one person that way.

I went upstairs to my bedroom and when I entered it, the sight before me made me cry out with joy and amazement. Laying on my bed was a beautiful new evening dress and shoes. The dress was jet black with no shoulder straps. I held it up to me and smiled when I saw how short the hemline was. It looked much to small but when I checked the tag it appeared to be the right size. My mom came in behind me while I was looking in the mirror.

"So what do you think? I tried to find something for you tonight that would be sexy but not make you look TOO much like a streetwalker. "

"Oh mom, it's perfect!" I replied and gave her a big hug. "I can't wait to try it on."

My mom clucked a bit saying, "Well you better get that cute ass in gear then. I was expecting you guys home an hour ago. I would've thought that with all you have planned for tonight that the two of you could have had a LITTLE restraint but I guess I shouldn't expect you to start something new."

She couldn't keep a straight face anymore and laughed saying, "I will say one thing, you have him as horny as I have seen him in a long time! I thought he was going to fuck me right there on the porch. Now get going and get yourself ready. Kristi will be over here in a couple of hours."

I really didn't need all that much time normally but tonight I wanted to be perfect. Instead of a fast shower I decided a soothing bubble bath with some oil and salts would be relaxing and make my skin soft and scented. As I lay in the tub, feeling the hot water surrounding me, it was like being in a womb – all safe and secure.

I ran my hands all over me, taking special care to clean my ass and between my legs. Using my mom's razor, I shaved my legs and then carefully around my pussy – this was NOT a night for nicks and bumps. I took both hands and rubbed my legs one at a time. Mmmmmmm, they felt so smooth and soft. I couldn't wait to look down and see a guy's head between them!

The debate over my hair lasted more than ten minutes. Not only didn't I want to look like I was going to a prom, I didn't have the time to do anything fancy in the first place. In the end I just blew it dry and let it hang naturally. Makeup was another major decision. The idea was to look a bit slutty tonight but not an outright whore. No heavy eyeliner or gaudy lipstick. I have traded between every makeup company in the world it seems and never found one yet that I liked everything they have so my bag tends to be a bit of a mess.

Fortunately I had outgrown any acne problems years ago and my skin tonight was perfect. A little trimming on the eyebrows and a touch of perfume. My mom has always used Charlie which must date back to her teen years but she got me hooked on it as well. Some things just improve with time! I trimmed my fingernails and toenails and then added a light coating of polish. A dose of deodorant and a light dusting of baby powder (I found that guys get turned on by the feel and smell of it more than most perfumes) and I was ready to get dressed.

My new dress and shoes were still laid out on the bed. I smiled to myself at the blatant hint – no bra or panties had been set out! Past experience told me to put my shoes on first. From the look of that dress I wasn't going to be bending over very easily once it was on nor would I want to in public unless I was looking to be arrested for indecent exposure. The shoes were practically nothing, just some straps that went around my foot and ankle along with a four inch spiked heel. It had been a while since I had worn a heel that high and I hoped I didn't stumble or do anything silly in them.

Standing up in them I looked at myself in the mirror and smiled. There was really one reason for wearing heels like these – your legs and ass automatically tightened and looked sexy. I smiled, pleased with what I saw; too bad they didn't look that way without the heels!

I slipped the dress over my head and tugged it down. God it was tight! One of the good things about working for the escort service was that it forced me to watch my weight and figure rather than letting it go the way so many girls do in school. Not that they got fat, although many did, it was just that extra five to ten pounds that made all the difference when you were trying to slip into a dress like this one. I finally managed to pull it down as far as it would go. There was a zipper in the side which pulled it all together. I took a deep breath and then let everything out and quickly pulled the zipper up. No more deep breaths now, that was for sure!

I looked in the mirror and grinned. Mom had certainly picked out one hell of a sexy dress. It fit me like a coat of paint and barely covered my bustline. It had built-in support that made the most of my cleavage – I looked a full cup size bigger! The one thing that really turned me on though was the hemline. It couldn't have been more than eight inches below my ass. Sitting down was going to be a challenge and bending over, well bending over was not on the menu tonight! I think I would have burst it through the seams had I tried. The best part was the way it showed off my legs. Between the heels and the tight dress that hugged my thighs my legs looked great! I twirled around and tried to imagine the look on my professor's face this morning if he could see me now as compared to early in the morning when I was all tired and dowdy!

I carefully made my way down the stairs – guys have no idea what a challenge that can be in such heels. I made my way to the living room where my mom and dad were waiting for me. My dad was in his suit and looked so handsome! Both of them stared at me and I did my model turn for them, giving them a nice view of my ass as I did.

"Wow!" my dad exclaimed, "How THAT is what I call HOT!"

My mom looked like a proud parent at her kid's play. "Oh Kelly, you looks beautiful in that outfit. I knew those heels would make your ass look good!"

My dad had this shit eating grin on his face as he circled around me. He lifted up my dress, exposing my bare ass.

"Oh my Mary, our little girl forgot her underwear," he said jokingly. "Well, I guess it's like mother like daughter."

I pulled my skirt down and pretended to be indignant. "Daddy!! You know I'm not that kind of girl!"

I thought my dad was going to choke he laughed so hard. After all, I was EXACTLY that type of girl! Still, I didn't think it was THAT funny.

Just then the door opened and in walked my cousin and her mom. Kristi was wearing an incredible full length black gown that was slit on the left slide almost to her waist. From her waist up it was skin tight, showing off her small boobs nicely. It wasn't strapless but rather had a single shoulder strap over her right shoulder from where it dipped down low under her left arm. On her feet were simple black heels, not as high as mine, maybe only a couple of inches. Her hair looked fantastic! Normally down below her shoulders, she had it all on top of her head in a complex arrangement that looked incredibly sexy. For a moment I felt so jealous as she had obviously had more time to prepare for this evening but as soon as we hugged all that went right out the window.

"Look this way!" my Aunt Linda called out.

We looked over and she had her ever-ready camera out. She must have a million pictures of us by now so we were use to it. We put our heads together and smiled for a shot. Then we turned towards one another and kissed long and hard. Kristi's arms were around me and her hands were planted firmly on my ass, squeezing my ass and pulling me tightly into her. Then the little vixen pulled up my short skirt and exposed my bare ass to everyone! My aunt was taking one picture after another as my parents stood by and smiled, watching the two of us making out with one another.

We went into the living room where Kristi and I sat next to each other on the couch while our parents sat in the love seat and chairs. We still had about an hour before it was time to meet dad's clients so we talked about the evening and what they thought we should do. The first debate was over where to have dinner. My dad suggested Hooters and my mom slapped him playfully.

"Heaven's no John," she chastised him, "Look at those two - do they look like they are going to Hooters! You need to some place like the Grand Concourse."

We went on and eventually settled on the Grand Concourse as my mother had suggested. It was an elegant old train station that had been converted to a beautiful restaurant. It also afforded some privacy in the evening if you picked the right rooms and seats. Once the dinner location was settled, the rest of the time was spent debating what Kristi and I should be doing with the guys. My dad emphasized that they had just been teased at strip clubs all week and now that it was their last night in town they were expecting the stakes to be raised considerably.

My aunt was all for giving them as much as they could handle from the start whereas my mom, always the more conservative one, thought a little teasing at first

My dad cut in, "Ok you two, enough of that! Sure I would've loved to have all four of you but I already told you that they insisted on having teenagers. In any case, it's time to get going – duty calls."

Kristi and I stood up in the middle of the living room to let our moms give us the once over. We each got a nice goodbye kiss and then the three of us climbed in the SUV, Kristi and I in the seat behind the driver.

5. Dinner With the Guys

It took about twenty minutes to make our way downtown to their hotel where they were already waiting for us outside the lobby. My dad got out to greet them, leaving us behind. I could see him pointing to the SUV and everyone nodded and smiled. From a distance they looked pretty good and Kristi took my hand and squeezed it. We looked at each other and giggled like two little girls with a new secret to share.

The guys finally came up to the truck and my dad opened the door for them. Suddenly I realized that this was not something to joke about and masturbate to but the real deal. I felt the excitement I always got when I showed up for a new escort or party except in this case my dad and cousin were going to be involved. Having them with me helped take away that inner feeling of fear I also typically had at the beginning also which was good.

The three of them looked inside and when they saw us in the interior light of the SUV a big smile appeared on each face and I saw it – that look all men get when their more basic instincts and hormones take control and they see me with only one thought in mind – sex. I felt that twinge between my legs I get when something wants attention and I thought for a moment about suggesting that we forget the other plans for the evening and just stay at the hotel and get down to business!

The oldest one got in front with my dad while the youngest one sat next to Kristi leaving the middle guy for me. After they got in my dad introduced us to them. Roger was in front with him, Michael ("call me Mike") was with Kristi and Phil was next to me. With everyone on board my dad started the SUV and we were off. It was only a short drive to dinner from downtown and we just exchanged some small talk about where they were from and such.

On the way I noticed that Roger and Phil both had wedding rings on which I found interesting. Mike was wasting no time getting friendly with Kristi. He already had his arm around her and she was sitting up tight next to him, allowing his hand to start groping her boobs even before we hit the street!

Phil was a little less aggressive with me but his eyes betrayed him when he looked down at my dress. I was sitting with my legs crossed with my right over the left so that my skirt was pulled up to my ass on his side, giving him a great view of me from my waist to my toes. He stared for a few seconds before getting acting as if nothing had happened but I knew I already had him hooked.

We arrived without further incident at the restaurant where my dad handed the keys over to the valet. He almost dropped them to the ground as he was more interested in Kristi and me than he was the keys. Who would have blamed him? Getting out of the SUV proved to be a bit interesting to any bystanders given the cut of our dresses. I watched as Kristi stepped down, her bare leg emerging through the high cut in her dress showing all but the crotch until she had both feet back on the ground.

For me with my short skirt it was a bit more difficult as it was a large step down from the SUV and it proved impossible to keep the skirt down in the process. I managed without flashing TOO much of anything although every eye, including the valet's, were on my ass hoping it would go up just one more inch. I pulled it down and straightened it out after I got out, acting as if nothing was unusual, and we all went inside.

My dad had gone ahead and was already talking to the hostess about a table. When she saw the five of us coming up she smiled knowingly and led us to a room on the river side where there was a large round booth that looked like it could seat eight comfortably. Thus with just the six of us we fit in nicely and I noted that the table was large and high enough to conceal just about anything that might go on under it. The hostess asked if everything was OK and from the twinkle in her eye I knew just what she was thinking.

The guys quickly ordered drinks and my dad made sure to point out that Kristi and I were too young to order, making everyone laugh but at the same time it was a not too subtle way of emphasizing to them they had two teenagers amongst them (OK, I had turned twenty a couple of months before but a little white lie never hurt in a situation like this).

Dinner lasted over an hour and a half. We could have easily dragged it on another hour in a place like this but face it, the evening wasn't about having a good meal – at least not the type they served here. It was just intended to allow everyone to get comfortable with each other. I have no idea what they were talking about half the time when it came to their work but I smiled and pretended it was the most fascinating discussion I had ever been in.

At one point I asked Roger and Phil about their families and was surprised when they were more than happy to tell us all about them. Roger had been married thirty years, had two sons and a daughter, all of whom had graduated and were on their own. One son was still "available" he joked while the others were married and he was even a grandfather now. Phil had been married twice with a daughter resulting from each marriage. The first was living out west with a long-time boyfriend while his daughter from his current marriage had just turned fourteen. They both joked that Mike was the only one "available" among them and warned us that he had quite the reputation back home.

Of course my dad pretended not to know us and so when it came to his turn he explained he had been married to his high school sweetheart for almost twenty two years and they had one beautiful daughter attending college. It was all I could do to keep from smiling too broadly as he told them how great his daughter was. Looking around, I wondered what these guys would have said if they had a clue who Kristi and I really were.

As for us, we didn't say much except to say we were both students, me a sophomore and her about to graduate from high school. When they realized she was still in high school all three of them looked at her with renewed interest and I saw Roger whisper something to me dad and both of them smiling afterwards. I suspected he was congratulating my dad on his selection of girls for the evening!

Surprisingly, despite the sexual overtones and innuendos that filled the dinner conversation, very little actually happened between us. Sure I was groped pretty heavily under the table and it turned me on quite a bit. Roger and Mike were on each side of me and both had a hand on the my leg closest to them most of the evening. I liked the way it felt to have two guys rubbing my legs and inner thighs as we chatted away and enjoyed a wonderful meal. They weren't exactly shy about exploring me and both of them knew by the end of the appetizer round that I wasn't wearing panties!

Roger was the first to learn I was shaved, his fingers exploring between my legs which I kept spread apart just enough to give them access.

Phil was a bit more aggressive once he made his move, tracing his finger along my cunt until he was able to feel the wetness of my pussy. In the meantime I alternated touching each of them through their pants, rubbing them and enjoying the response I got. The best part was that even Roger was hard as a rock almost immediately. I had heard that some guys his age took medication for blood pressure and such that made erections difficult and I had been worried we would need some Viagra!

After the main course while we were waiting for dinner, Kristi and I excused ourselves and went off to the restroom together. Once we were inside and saw that nobody else was in with use, we both started to speak at the same time we were so excited. We laughed at ourselves and I went first.

"So what do you think of them? Has Mike been feeling you up all night too?" I asked her.

"Oh my god, he started as soon as we sat down!" Kristi exclaimed in mock horror. "And he certainly wasn't subtle – straight for the ol' pussy."

We compared thoughts as to how the evening had gone. Both is of were more excited than ever. All three guys were good looking and Mike was an absolute hunk.

Then Kristi got her naughty look on her face and said, "So do you think your dad will do us in front of them? I have never been with him when anyone outside our family was around – have you?"

"No," I replied, "This should be interesting, that's for sure. I wonder what our moms are doing now. I bet they wish they could have joined in as well."

Kristi giggled, saying, "Well Kelly, you KNOW what they are doing."

True enough, it was more a rhetorical question than anything else. Knowing my mom and her sister, they were probably so horny thinking of what their daughters were doing that I bet mom's vibrator stash next to the bed was getting quite a workout. I hoped that as Kristi and I got older we kept as close as our mothers had done.

We got back to the table I saw my dad was handing the check back to the waiter. The guys all were getting ready to go so it looked like dessert was off. We must have looked a bit confused at the rapid change of pace as my dad explained it to us.

"Hey girls, we were discussing things while you were doing whatever it is girls do in the restroom. The guys really like you both and thought perhaps we could get down to 'business" now. Any problems with that?"

Of course neither of us did. We were just as anxious as they were to get going anyway and we all knew what we were together for so why not just get down to it?

6. The Ride to the Hotel

We moved out to the lobby and waited for the valet to retrieve our vehicle. I felt a hand on my ass and I turned my head around to see Roger smiling at me. I smiled back at him and wiggled just enough to let him know I liked it. When I got up into the SUV he patted my ass and got in front again with my dad so we ended up with the same seating arrangements as we had coming over. This time though things were not as tame during the ride. No sooner than we left than Phil was all over me. I could see Mike was doing the same with Kristi while Roger had turned in his seat to watch.

"You are so beautiful," he whispered in my ear as he kissed my neck and started to fondle my breasts, "God I can't wait to fuck your brains out."

Well, nothing like a little romance to get things started! I turned my head and kissed him. He responded by pulling my head to him, holding us tightly together while he explored my mouth with his tongue. At the same time he pulled my dress down to expose my breasts, grabbing my nipples between his fingers as he massaged each boob. He pulled away from me and let out a sigh.

"Fuck your tits are incredible! Just the perfect size."

It thrilled me to hear him say that. It wasn't that long ago that I thought my boobs were never going to grow and I would be an A cup forever. I was just a late bloomer though as once I turned nineteen it seemed they suddenly just swelled up into a solid B cup. I loved showing them off as they were firm and perky rather than hanging down the way so many girls' boobs did. I reached over and put my hand on his crotch. God he was so hard already!

I looked outside to see where we were and we had just crossed over the river so it wasn't too far before we got back to the hotel. Even so, I decided to tease him while I had the opportunity so I reached down and unzipped his pants. Reaching in, I freed his cock so it was poking out of his pants. He was hung pretty well, bigger than most and definitely thicker than average. Length of a cock wasn't all that important to me but thickness made a huge difference for me.

I like a really long cock because it went up into me farther and it's especially nice when he cums because I can feel the heat from his cum deep inside of me. Otherwise it just made blowjobs harder! A fat cock, on the other hand, could make a huge difference. When it entered me I could feel my vagina spreading apart to accept him, forcing my legs to spread apart like I was being split apart. The fatter the cock the more it spread me open and the better it felt.

"Mmmmmmm, nice cock." I said as I put my hand on it and felt the warmth of his cock, "I bet it tastes even better than it looks."

"Suck it bitch," Phil said, "suck my cock."

Despite his rather rude language, I was only too happy to do what he asked and I bent over to take the swollen head in my mouth. As I did my skirt gave up all hope of staying down and rode up well over my ass, exposing my ass and bald pussy to him. I felt his hand moving over my smooth butt and then down to my pussy. His finger slipped in to me and started to stoke me like a mini cock. God, it felt wonderful while I was sucking him. His cock actually did taste good and I savored the feel of his smooth skin on my lips, stretched tightly because of his erection.

"OK everyone, we're here!" my dad called out.

I had barely had time to get in a few good licks on Phil's cock but I knew we would have a lot more opportunities in just a few minutes. I sat up in the seat and looked at my poor dress. It was bunched up around my belly from being pushed down off of my tits as well as from being pushed up of my ass.

I straightened myself out as best I could and I could tell Kristi was doing the same ahead of me. I wondered how far she had gotten but from the wetness on her face I had a feeling she had been doing some sucking of her own. The valet took the SUV and we all went into the lobby. I noticed that the valet gave me and Kristi the once-over and from the smile on his face I had a feeling he had a good idea of what was going on here.

7. The Hotel

My dad had reserved an executive suite so we all got in the elevator and went up together. The suite was HUGE! I had never been in any hotel room that was even half as large. It was more like an apartment than a hotel room. There was a living room with some couches and chairs that had a great view of the city lights below. The bedroom was off to one side and it had its own bathroom in it in addition to a bathroom in the general area of the suite. What looked to be a full and very well-stocked bar was adjacent to the living room. A full kitchen finished it off although I couldn't imagine anyone that could afford a room like this wanting to cook!

We stood around for a moment, Kristi and I not quite sure what to do. Roger was apparently the leader and he took control.

"John, thanks for dinner and these two incredible girls. The suite is fantastic. Now I don't know what you planned for the rest of the night but I hope you were intending to stay here with us."

My dad just smiled and nodded I agreement. Actually I think they would have had to forcibly kick him out but he never let on.

"Great!" Roger said, "Then let's get started. All week we have been to the titty bars and frankly, I'm tired of being teased. What do you say guys, do we just get right down to it?"

Mike and Phil were in full agreement so they turned to look at us. My dad laughed at our lack of understanding.

“What he means girls is they don't want a strip show or to be teased, they just want to get going and start screwing you both."

Kristi and I smiled at that. We looked at each other and shrugged our shoulders and dropped our dressers where we were standing. My dad picked them up and hung them up as we stood in the middle of the living, both of us naked except for our heels. I looked at the guys and smiled as sexy as I could.

"Well, guys, here we are. What are you waiting for? Come and get it!"

They all undressed and threw their clothes in a pile by the couch. It was the first time I got to see all three cocks and I was impressed. None of them shaved which pleased me, and all three were in one state or another of a growing erection. As I had thought with their clothes on, it was obvious that they all worked out and kept themselves in great shape. I turned to Kristi and we instantly decided to give them at least SOME kind of a show. We started kissing and quickly dropped to the floor, rubbing our naked bodies together. I laid on my back and Kristi got on top of me, lowering her pussy to my mouth as she put her head between my legs. We started to 69 in front of the guys and they moved to surround us.

They weren't going to let us have each other for long though. Suddenly a dick appeared in my face and I looked to see Roger hovering over me, dropping his cock on me. I took it in my mouth and at the same time I wasn't feeling Kristi's tongue on my clit so I figured she was sucking someone as well. After a bit they pulled away and we got off the floor.

I motioned to the two older guys to come for me while Kristi went for Mike and my dad. We each got on our knees in front of them and took their cocks in our hands. I alternated between Roger and Phil, sucking one while I stroked the other while Kristi did the same with her two. It felt so hot to be doing this with Kristi, seeing her little nude body kneeling in front of two men who were simply using her to satisfy their sexual hunger. We sucked them until they were all stiff as steel pipes and then we both turned around and got down on all fours.

"So who wants to fuck me first?" I asked in my sweetest, most innocent little girl voice.

Roger took charge again and immediately got down on one knee behind me and lined his cock up with my waiting pussy. I felt myself stretch open as he literally shoved himself into me and he didn't stop until I felt his crotch up against my ass with his thick pubic hair tickling me. I was getting the picture fast that tonight was not for romance and intimacy, that was for sure! These guys had one goal in mind - fuck us and all they cared about was their own pleasure.

So far as they knew, we were just whores purchased and paid for to be theirs for the night. Even though I knew about this from the start, it still was not exactly what I had been expecting. When I was escorting, even the guys who paid me showed SOME concern for me and wanted to be sure I felt good as well. From the looks of it, tonight I was going to learn just what the difference rally was between being a slut and a whore.

For a brief moment I wondered whether or not this was something I really should be doing but as Roger's cock swelled in me and he stroked it in and out slowly, I found myself forgetting any doubts and worries as my pussy squeezed down on the wonderful warm cock that was violating it.

Just then I heard Kristi gasp and I looked over to see that Mike was fucking her from behind as well. Kristi was moaning with her head arched back and her eyes closed as her body was pushed forward and backward as he grabbed her hips and pulled her in and pushed her away as he thrust his cock in and out of her little pussy. Kristi opened her eyes and saw me watching. A huge grin came to her face as she turned around to look at Mike.

"Yeah fuck me!" she yelled at him, "c'mon, you can fuck me harder than this!"

My dad went around us and kneeled in front of Kristi so she could suck his cock while Mike fucked her. Phil did the same for me and now we each had two cocks in us, one in front to suck and the other from the rear in our cunts. We fucked like this as they traded around until each of them had fucked the both of us and been sucked as well, at least once!

Roger was the last to fuck Kristi and when he pulled out of her he laid on the couch and motioned for Kristi to get on board.

"Get your hot ass over here now and ride my cock," he commanded.

Kristi dropped Phil's cock from her mouth and stood up. She walked slowly over to where Roger was stroking his cock, waiting for her. She looked so hot standing there, naked and flushed from just being fucked. My dad was getting ready to fuck me at this point but even he stopped to watch his sexy niece in action.

"Mmmmmmm, I'm going to ride you like you've never been ridden before," she said with a big smile on her face. Kristi climbed onto him and straddled him as she lowered herself onto his stiff cock she as faced him and played with her boobs. His cock was pushed down for a moment and then suddenly entered her, the head quickly disappearing into her hot pussy. Immediately she started to hump him, bouncing on him like a wild bronco.

Mike stood by the couch holding his cock and pulled her head towards him. She bent over and sucked him as she continued to grind her pussy on Roger's cock. Then Phil got on the couch behind Kristi and started to play with her ass.

"You ever been DP'd before you dirty little whore?" he asked.

So far as I knew, Kristi had never had anal sex before, let alone double penetration. She couldn't respond with Mike holding her head on his cock but I could see the wide-eyed look she had which was all but screaming, "What the HELL do you think you're going to do to me!?"

My dad started to say something because he knew what must be running through Kristi's mind. This wasn't in the game plan we had discussed and I could tell he was concerned for her. However, without spilling the beans there was nothing much he could do so he just kept fucking me while we both watched the three of them treat Kristi like the cheap whore she was pretending to be. Phil started to finger Kristi's ass and stuck his finger into her asshole.

"Damn you're tight!" he exclaimed. Looking at the other two, he grinned saying, "This is going to be really good! The fucking slut has the tightest ass I've ever had."

Phil spit into Kristi's asshole to wet it and then he aimed his cock into her ass. My dad called out to hold on and ran to his clothes. I just laid there, my cunt suddenly empty for the first time in an hour and wondered what my dad was doing. To my surprise he brought out some KY jelly and gave it to Phil who took it.

My dad laid down behind me again and I felt the familiar feel of his cock against me. He whispered softly in my ear while I continued to watch.

"I brought it with in case one of you had a problem after a while if they fucked you a long time. Believe me baby, I wasn't expecting ANYTHING like this. Thank god I had it though. At least it will make it easier on Kristi."

Phil used the jelly liberally and then renewed his onslaught of Kristi's asshole. She was still fucking Roger's cock and sucking on Mike when Phil spread her ass cheeks apart and pushed his cock head into her asshole. Even with her mouth full of cock you could hear her crying out as her ass spread apart further than it ever had before. Phil pushed harder and harder until he was about half-way into her.

"Fuck," he panted, "The whore is so damn tight I'll never get my whole cock into her!"

I could see that Kristi was squirming, trying to get Mike's cock out of her mouth to say something but he was holding the back of her head and forcing her down on his cock. Phil started to stroke his greasy cock in and out of her. Each time he was able to penetrate her virgin ass a little farther until finally he was all the way in her despite his earlier prediction. I noticed then that Kristi was starting to pump back against him, helping him to push himself in and out of her slimy asshole. I couldn't believe it, she was liking it!

There had been times when I had put my a finger in my asshole and another in my pussy at the same time and knew how it felt to feel them together in me. I could only imagine how it must feel to have two cocks that were several times bigger the my finger up there together! Apparently from Kristi's reactions it was good! Seeing that she was no longer trying to protest, Mike let her off of his cock for a second so she could talk.

"Oh god that feels so good, fuck me!" she cried out as she rocked back and forth, driving the two cocks in her in and out of her at the same time. Phil would push her forward which cause Roger's cock to come out of her. When Phil pulled back she sat back down on Roger's cock, letting him fully enter her again. Damn, I bet she was cumming continuously!

Mike looked over to where my dad was laying behind me and called out to us.

"Hey, you gonna fuck her or what?"

I looked back at my dad and smiled. This was the first time since we had started having sex than any other man would see him fuck me. How many times had we been out in public and I wanted to show my feelings for him but had to hold back because it wouldn't be "proper"? How many times had I brought a boy home to fuck and wished my dad could join in with us? Finally, for the first time he could fuck me while someone watched and I almost came just from the thought of it.

I lifted my leg so he could put his cock up against my pussy more easily. His dick reached between my legs and I felt the head pushing against my pussy hole. With the way I'd been fucked already I wasn't exactly as tight as I normally was but he didn't seem to mind as he slid himself into me. It took all my willpower to keep from crying out to him and call him my daddy as he began to fuck me in front of the rest of them.

We fucked like this for a while and then he got up and sat on the couch while I stood in front of him and then lowered myself down onto his lap, letting his hard cock slide up into me as I did. I was facing away from him so I could watch Kristi get gang-banged while I fucked my dad. God, what could have been more erotic than fucking your own dad in front of a group of strangers while they were screwing your sexy little cousin?

Phil was pounding her asshole now and the experience must have been quite good for him because before long he had the distinction of being the first one to cum.

"Ohhhhhhhhh," he groaned, "Here it comes bitch, your first load of the night."

Phil moved over next to Mike and Kristi stroked Mike's cock while she opened her mouth and waited for her first present of the evening.

"That's it, cum in my mouth," she begged, "I want your cum!"

Phil didn't keep her waiting and with a few strokes he was cumming into her wide open mouth. He missed with a couple of shots and hit her on the cheek with one and in her hair with another. She sucked the last few drops from him and he moved back to let Mike's blowjob resume. She started sucking his cock with Phil's cum still in her mouth, coating Mike's cock with Phil's slimy cum. Roger was the next to cum with his cock still buried deep in Kristi's cunt.

"I'm going to cum in your pussy," he said to her, "I'm gonna fill that hot little cunt with my spunk."

I could see his back arch and his hips rise as his first load was expelled into Kristi's little pussy. Kristi loved being fucked and this was what she loved the most, a man cumming in side of her so I knew she was in heaven at the moment. She dropped down hard on his cock and ground herself into his cock as far as she could, making his cock cum as deep in her as she possibly could.

"Fuck I love that!" she cried out, "fill me up you bastard."

After a few more load she lifted up on him about halfway and I could see his creamy cum dripping from her bald pussy. Damn I would have loved to have gotten a taste of that and my dad must have been reading my mind!

"I bet you want to lick that cum right off her pussy... Hey, well go for it girl."

I didn't need a second offer, I stood up and let my dad's cock slip from my pussy and walked over and behind her. I leaned down and licked her butt, getting a nice taste of his cum mixed with her pussy juices. Damn it tasted soooooo good! My dad wasn't happy though to have me off of his cock and as I stood in the living room, bent over and licking Kristi's cum-covered butt my dad moved in behind me and started fucking me from behind again.

I was so turned on licking cum on Kristi's ass that when his cock slipped in me I felt an incredible orgasm the almost took me to my knees but I held in there, enjoying the wondrous feelings that flowed though me. I could have felt that way all night but that was not to be when you have four guys and all of them wanting to fuck you all night.

Mike tapped my dad on the shoulder, "Hey John, let me have a piece of that cunt."

I felt a surge of excitement when my dad replied, "Go ahead Mike, she's all yours. Fuck the little whore." My god, how many girls get to hear their own father tell another guy to fuck them? Not many fathers call their daughter a whore either, at least not seriously!

My dad pulled his cock from my cunt and Mike moved in to take his place. Cocks may not look a whole lot different but they certainly can feel different. Mike was thicker than my dad and didn't have the curvature my dad's cock had. When he pressed his dick inside of me I felt myself splitting even further apart than I had with my dad which caused him to stimulate a different portion of my pussy because of the size and the way he fit into me.

I loved both cocks, no doubt about THAT, and it was even better to have one after the other and feel the differences between them. I could tell Mike wanted to cum from the way he was pounding my ass as he fucked me. As Mike was having his way with me I looked up to see what Kristi was up to. I saw that she had gotten off of Roger and was being fucked by my dad. God they looked so hot together, I never tired of seeing him fuck her. She was laying back in the couch while my dad put her legs up over his shoulders and was screwing her hard and fast.

I wondered what happened to Phil and Roger when they appeared in front of me, stroking their cocks and holding them out for me to suck. Both of them were only semi-hard which actually felt pretty good in my mouth. I liked to suck soft cocks at times, to feel them grow or shrink, to move them around in my mouth. As I sucked them I was more than aware of Mike fucking me even faster when suddenly without warning he was cumming in me! The surprise factor plus the taste of the cocks in front of me set me off again and another orgasm racked my body. Mike kept pumping his cock in and out my pussy, slapping his balls against me.

My dad was cumming on Kristi's face the next time I looked over at them. Normally she is not a big fan of that but under the circumstances it was probably the least of the things she had experimented with tonight. Her face was covered with my dad's cum and he even let loose a big load in her hair. God she was a mess but she looked sexier than hell with a big grin on her face as the cum dripped from her chin!

I stood up as best as I could at this point and joined Kristi on the couch. We kissed and I licked my dad's cum from her face. Then we kissed some more and I held her tightly to me. What an incredible fucking! Looking over, the guys were talking to each other about how they had fucked us and watching us kissing and hugging.

"Well Roger, I take it that this seals the contract?" my dad asked.

Roger shook my dad's had saying, "Oh yeah John, you certainly are a man of your word. Tonight was everything you promised - and more."

Everyone was shaking hands, ignoring us as if we didn't even exist. Once again I realized how different it was to be a whore instead of a slut. They had fucked us and now we were just trash to be discarded and left behind. Well, I could live with that after the great fucking I had just had! Kristi and I just ignored them after that, letting them do their business talk while we had our own little time together. My dad eventually came over and tapped me on the shoulder.

"OK girls, they're gone. Damn you two were incredible!"

"Where we good whores for you?" Kristi asked mischievously.

"Oh yeah, you were both the nastiest whores I could have asked for."

"Well, now that you're alone here with your two slutty whores, don't you think you should get your money's worth?"

My dad looked at me and grinned. There was no money involved here but he got the hint. Heck, we had this fantastic room so why not take advantage of it? I moved up to him as Kristi joined me until both of our nude bodies were pressed up tight against him.

"Mmmmmmm, don't you want us for yourself daddy?"

"Yeah Uncle John, you don't want to go home already, do you?"

Actually, it had been ages since I had done a three-some with my dad and even longer since doing one with him and Kristi so the thought of hanging around a while longer instantly got me going once again. My dad claimed that he only used Kristi as a stand-in for me when I was away from school but I knew he was just trying to be diplomatic. He may be my father but he is still a guy and guys have needs and desires, no matter who they are.

Looking at Kristi, so incredibly petite and cute as she stood there nude alongside me, who could blame my dad for taking advantage of the opportunity. It's not many men, married or single, that have the chance to fuck am incredibly sexy girl like Kristi so I wasn't about to flat my dad for doing her.

We didn't wait for him to answer but rather went straight to work on him. I reached up and he lowered his head to kiss me as Kristi went the other direction and squatted down to suck his dick. My dad had one arm around me, pulling my boobs in tight against him while his other hand reached down and held Kristi's head in against his crotch. Our tongues touched as our kiss endured and I could feel the

It was fascinating to watch as my dad got her off and drove her towards a climax. Kristi, never one to keep quiet, was moaning and pleading for him to keep licking her to the point I was wondering if someone next door wasn't going to complain. She fling her head back and I just held my dad's cock still in my mouth as she came.

"Of fuck, I'm cumming!" she cried out as her head whipped back and forth to the point I was thinking whiplash was imminent.

You would’ve thought she was having some sort of convulsions from the way her body was jerking back and forth, the only constant being her pussy over my dad's mouth and even then she had to replace herself now and then. My dad, ever the orgasm expert, kept going, driving her further and further into her ecstasy, not letting up on her for a second.

Finally she let out a small gasp and almost collapsed on his face before she recovered. Rolling over to the side, she laid on her back next to him and looked up at me.

"Damn Kelly, your dad sure knows how to eat pussy!"

Like I didn't know!

It was fun watching the two of them so I motioned for her to get back up and pointed at his dick and then at her pussy. I didn't need to know sign language to get my message across when it came to signaling Kristi to fuck a guy. She grinned and as hard as she had just cum, was obviously ready for me.

"You want me to fuck him first?"

I just nodded and smiled. It didn't mean a lot to me which of us fucked him FIRST. All I cared about was who fucked him LAST. It didn't bother me in the least for my dad to fuck my cousin, but there was no way in hell I was going to let her get his cum instead of me. He was MY dad and that was MY cum he was going to be shooting before too much longer.

Kristi straddled my dad, facing away from him so her ass was facing his head and she was looking down at me, still between his legs, humping him slowly as I rubbed my pussy up against him. I held my dad's dick up straight to the ceiling as otherwise it would have been parallel to his stomach when it was hard like this and he was on his back.

Kristi spread her pussy apart with her fingers while I directed his dick to the wet little hole at the bottom of her pussy. I noticed her clit was swollen and poking out from its hood like a miniature dick. God, she must be horny as hell about now!

"Ahhhhhh," was all she could say as she lowered herself down onto his cock.

I had a front row view as his cock pierced her cunt, the head splitting her part and then forcing its way in her as she applied more pressure down on him. Soon I watched as the shaft disappeared inside as well, inch after inch being consumed by her hungry little pussy, She was so small and petite, it didn't seem possible he could even fit in her let along bury his entire dick in her. Never judge a book by its cover as she was obviously more than capable of taking his entire cock as she soon had him completely inside of her, her ass planted on his stomach as his dick was completely imbedded in her.

"Mmmmmmm, love that little ass," I heard my dad murmuring as he took one butt cheek in each hand while she rode his dick.

With my head only inches away from his crotch, I watched as his cock slid in and out of her, glistening in the light with the wetness of her pussy. It's not too often I get a chance to see ANY cock this close while it's in action, let alone my own father's.

Kristi would literally bounce on his cock, dropping down hard onto him and using the rebound to take herself back up again until his head was all that was in her. God, that girl loved to be fucked! It was obvious just in the way she looked, in the enthusiasm she had, that she was doing this for herself, that she LOVED the feeling of his dick in her. I guess even an old-guy dick feels pretty good to her about now!

I was humping my dad's leg like a male dog on your leg until finally I needed the real thing for myself. Rising up to my knees, I rapped her on the shoulder like a guy breaking into a dance partnership.

"My turn cuz."

"Just a few minutes more," she begged me.

After years of babysitting experience, I wasn't fooled. A few minutes would turn into a few MORE minutes and so on so you just had to put your foot down sometimes. Kristi got the message from the look on my face so I didn't have to resort to Plan B (whatever that would have been).

I didn't want him to ride me though, I liked to ride a guy when we first started fucking as it let me set the pace, to control the depth of his cock in me, to run the show you might say. I wasn't looking for that now. Now I wanted to be more intimate, more submissive. I laid down on my back next to him, pulling my knees back to my chest so my pussy was in full view and ready for him to take for his own.

"Fuck me daddy," I said with a sly grin as I turned my head towards him.

I would say my dad growled more than anything as he turned over towards me. He kneeled up close to me as I kept my legs back and my pussy pointing at him like I was going to launch some ping pong balls out of my pussy at him or something. He reached over me with his left hand to grab the headboard for balance, effectively pinning my right leg back with his arm as he did. With his right hand he took his cock in his hand and lined up for an assault on my pussy.

With my knees back as far as they were, I really couldn't get a good view of my pussy although from the way Kristi was staring at it from the side, I had a pretty god idea of what was coming up soon. Sure enough, without further warning I felt his head push itself into my wet pussy, easily sliding into me followed by the remainder of his stiff shaft.

"Yes Daddy, put it in me," I sighed, as if he wasn't going to anyway.

I really wasn't asking him for my benefit but rather more for his as I knew he loved to hear me ask him to fuck me.

He started to stroke himself slowly in and out of me, picking up steam like a locomotive piston taking off from the station. Each stroke seemed just a hair faster than the previous, just a little bit deeper inside of me, just a little more aggressive than the one before. As he gathered steam, he took my legs by the ankle and pulled them upward and over his shoulders, then holding onto the headboard again with both arms and my legs between them, effectively pinning them in place.

I looked to the side for a moment and saw Kristi laying on her side, watching us with obvious envy in her eyes but letting my dad have his moment with me. Well, I would be back in school before long and she could have his dick anytime she wanted so I didn't feel too bad about hogging my dad for myself at the moment.

As he fucked me I played with my boobs with one hand while I toyed with my pussy and clit with the other. With everything going on it didn't take long until a familiar feeling began to build between my legs, like a good friend returning to me once again.

"Don't stop daddy... make me cum daddy!" I begged between gasps as I knew I was almost there. God, to have him stop now would be like trying to break a golf swing two inches from the ball!

The it happened, what I had been waiting for. My entire body suddenly felt like my temperature had rose several degrees and goose bumps broke out everywhere on my body. Oh yes, my magic "O" had arrived!

"Cum in my NOW daddy!" I all but screamed as my orgasm threatened to overwhelm me.

Only one thing could possibly make me feel better than I did now and fortunately, my dad must have been ready to deliver as he gave me just what I needed.

"Oh fuck!" he gasped as he started to quirt his sperm in me.

It was like pouring gas on a fire as my orgasm screamed off the charts. God, top cum and then feel my own father cumming in me at the same time was like the perfect storm where all the planets aligned and the most incredible sensations raced through my body.

"He's cumming in me Kristi!" I managed to squeak out, "My daddy's cumming in me!"

Lord only knows what thoughts must have been going through Kristi's head at that moment. I couldn't make the effort to turn to look at her but I had a good idea of what she had been doing lately. Finally my dad finished and he let my legs drop to the side and he dropped down to his elbows, barely keeping his weight off of me.

My dad put his hands behind my head, threading his fingers through my hair. He gently kissed me as his dick throbbed in me. My orgasm was still lingering; not at the peak it was before but still enough that each movement of his dick in me, the slightest convulsion, the briefest twitch, was magnified like an electron microscope was at work.

"Oh daddy, you feel so good inside of me," I whispered to him softly.

We kissed for the longest time as his dick slowly dwindling in me, drawing out of me gently as it shrank in size. Finally he lifted his hips and drew it completely out, leaving me feeling a sensation of emptiness, as if my pussy was incomplete. Indeed, it only felt whole when my dad was in me. Other guys could fuck me and fill my pussy with their cocks, but only my father's cock held the key to my fulfillment.

I figured that was it but Kristi had other thoughts apparently. Left out of the final act, evidently it was her intent to get the last word in, or should I say tongue? No sooner than my dad had lifted himself off of me than Kristi was leaning over my hips and burying her face in my crotch. Her tongue licked off my dad's cum that was leaking from my pussy, drawing it out and swallowing it down like it was the last piece of food on earth. My hips involuntarily jumped as her tongue flicked over my hyper-sensitive clit, just the one lick almost enough to make me cum yet again.

"Mmmmmmm, tastes good!" she giggled as she kissed and licked my freshly fucked pussy.

I don't know what was turning me on more, the feel of her tongue on me or just watching her and seeing her lap up my dad's sperm from my pussy like a cat with a fresh bowl of milk.

She got her fill and sat up, wiping her mouth off with the side of her hand and licking any traces off. I got up and the three of us hugged for the longest time, savoring this moment which I knew I would never forget as long as I loved.

Eventually we all got dressed and left for home. On the way back all we could talk about was what happened in that suite. I was especially interested in how Kristi felt about her anal gang-bang. After hearing her describe how great it was once she got over the initial shock, I had to admit that maybe I would have to rethink my ban on anal sex! Well, maybe...

When we got home my mom and aunt were still up, obviously waiting for us. They couldn't wait to hear us tell them everything and it was quite late by the time we finished. My mom shook her head as I described how they treated us though.

"I told you John that they would just fuck them like whores!" she chastised him.

"Well Mary, I don't see either of them regretting any of it!" he replied with a smile. "Besides, next time they said they want two older women. You wouldn't know of a pair that would be interested?"

My mom grinned and looked at my Aunt Linda. Both of them knew what the other was thinking and I had a funny feeling next time my dad's clients were in town they would never know they were fucking his wife and sister-in-law!

It was too late for them to go home so they decided to stay the night, Kristi spent the night with me while my aunt joined my parents in bed. I suddenly felt exhausted and even the silky touch of my cousin's petite nude body next to mine wasn't enough to keep me awake.

My last thoughts before drifting off in my cousin's arms were that the stage was set for something wild to happen when morning arrived!

(May 07) Chapter 80: Last Time With Brenda and Her Married Brother

Story codes: FF MF oral adultery inc brother sister
Me (20)
Brenda - Freshman roomie (20)
David - Brenda's brother (28)

It all started between Brenda and me not long after I met her as my new freshman roomie. She took some photos of me for my boyfriend back home and before it was over I had my first experience with a girl outside my family. While we kept it between the two of us at first, things heated up when her married brother, father of two, got in the middle of us - literally. Although it had been quite a while since we were last together, like riding a bike some things just come back naturally.

1. The Perfect Roomie

The end of my sophomore year was coming to a close. My roomie Karen had been packing for a week already. She wasn't going to be returning to this school next year, opting to transfer to a school closer to home and her boyfriend whom she had been faithful to for the entire school year. Personally, I don't know how she did it. Karen had vowed to save herself for marriage and while that was admirable and I respected her for it, it was not something I certainly believed in. What I thought was a bit overboard, though, was that she took the definition of "sex" to the point where she wouldn't even masturbate, claiming that just thinking about sex and acting on those thoughts was a sexual act. Now THAT was insane so far as I was concerned!

For me, masturbation is a physical NEED, not a WANT. I think I could go a long time without sex if necessary (as I certainly proved while at school) but masturbation is something I simply HAVE to do every day - at least once. I have even masturbated right after being fucked, especially if the guy did the old "roll over and sleep" routine afterwards, leaving me still horny and unfulfilled.

SO I sat in class and reflected how different being with Karen had been compared to my freshman roomie Brenda. Brenda had been the first girl outside my family that I'd had sex with and our year together was totally different from what I'd had just spent with Karen. Don't get me wrong, Karen was a great girl and a wonderful roomie. It's just that we never shared the physical intimacy that Brenda and I enjoyed so much. I would have loved to have had Brenda with me my sophomore year but she was living at home. Her parents lived only ten miles or so away, outside of a small town near a lake. They'd allowed Brenda to stay in the dorm during her freshman year to help her acclimatize to college life. It proved to be a wise choice when I compared Brenda's freshman year to other girls who lived at home. She was much more involved in school activities and had more friends than the ones who spent most of their time off campus. Of course, we got to have each other as well!

One of the benefits of having her parents so close was that she COULD go home periodically and often she would invite me to go with her. They had a pool which was good in the spring and fall and as it turned out there was one other side benefit – her brother David who was seven years older than us. What I found most interesting about David was that although he was married with two kids, it was pretty obvious that he was attracted to me.

As it turned out, not only was he attracted, but to my delight he was looking to cheat on his wife. Not only that, but we discovered that both he and Brenda had been harboring feelings for each other since she was a young teen. Unfortunately, neither of them had been courageous enough to say anything but when I was with them they both felt comfortable enough to have sex with each other. You could say I served as some sort of sexual catalyst for them! So far this had only happened twice and the last time had been way back in the beginning of the school year so I was starting to think they had reconsidered and decided that they didn't want to do it anymore.

Well, I was wrong... very wrong.

2. Back at Brenda's

After class I met Brenda walking outside and we started talking about our plans for the summer. She pulled me off to the side and looked around furtively to be sure nobody could hear her.

"Hey girl, what would you think about coming over to my house tomorrow?" she asked. It would be the last weekend before finals week so if there was going to be a good time this was it.

"Well, anything special in mind?" I replied.

I knew what I HOPED she would say and Brenda didn't disappoint me. She took my hand and squeezed it. "Ahhhhhh Kelly, you know I like to be with you but I thought you might be interested in knowing my brother has been staying at our house this past week while his house was being worked on." Anyone that overheard her would think it was just an innocent comment but the twinkle in her eye betrayed her.

"C'mon Kelly, you know we can't do it unless you're there with us," she pleaded.

Brenda was pretty open-minded as you might tell from the fact she fucks her brother in the first place but there was something that still seemed to bother her about doing him alone. Maybe it was too intimate for her and somehow by having me with them it made it less brother-sister and more a three-some style experience, even if the third person just watched.

I'd tried to bring up the subject a few times with her but she never wanted to discuss it. Whatever it was, she had this mental block against fucking David without me being there. Obviously she WANTED to or else why ask me to come to her house! This would have been an interesting topic to explore in Psych class although I doubt my professor would have seen it in quite the same way I did!

We agreed that she would pick me up after classes. Returning to my dorm room I quickly packed some clothes and left a note for Karen telling her where I would be so she wouldn't worry. I walked out of the dorm just as Brenda pulled up and I hopped in her car.

It only took about fifteen minutes to get to her house and we just chatted about school gossip and such. We went in through the garage door entrance and into the kitchen where her mom and David's wife were getting supper ready. His wife was a bitch and for some reason she had hated me from day one - even before I was fucking her husband. She thought she was some sort of beauty queen and while she did indeed look pretty good, especially in a string bikini, I didn't think that she was as hot as she thought she was. In her own a way I think she knew it which is why she resented any other girls around her.

Sure enough, she took one look at me and rolled her eyes, ignoring me afterwards. I would have loved to have walked up behind her and whispered in her ear, telling her how good her husband's cock felt in me when he fucked me! She deserved it but I knew I could never tell her, much as it would have thrilled me.

Brenda's dad and brother were in the family room watching TV. I walked over and hugged them both. Brenda's dad was really nice and he gave me a quick hug and said he missed my regular visits. David also gave me a hug although his hands grabbed me more firmly than her dad's had and when he said he missed me there was a little more to it as well. I winked at him and he glanced over at his dad who had turned his attention back to the TV set and whatever program they were watching. The boys were playing in the backyard which was fine with me. Both were spoiled brats for which I blamed their mother. So far as she was concerned, they were her little angels and could do no wrong. I really didn't care so long as they stayed away from me!

After greeting everyone we went to her bedroom and she shut the door behind us. No sooner was the door was shut than Brenda hugged me and started to kiss me. Mmmmmmm, I missed her! Just like you never forget the first boy who fucks you, the same goes for the first girl. Technically I had been with several women before Brenda but it was my mom and then my aunt and my cousin which to me don't count. No matter where our paths led in the future I would never forget her!

We fell on her bed, still hugging and kissing. Her hand grabbed my ass and I felt her rubbing it as her large breasts pressed against my smaller ones. I had always envied her boobs as she was one of those lucky girls who got them early and got them big. Mine, well they came late and small!

I was eventually fortunate that they continued to grow slowly until finally when I reached my 21st birthday I was able to buy my first "C" cup bra. I am happy with how I look today but it sure would have helped if I had them when I was a teenager! We may have one further but fortunately there was a knock on the door. I mean fortunate in that Brenda had forgotten to lock the door and in walked her mother. The knock gave us time to let go of each other so all her mom saw was the two of us laying bed talking to one another. If she had waited a few more minutes it might have been embarrassing for her to walk in!

As it was her mom announced that supper was ready and so we all met in the dining room. By coincidence (or maybe some influence from Brenda?) I was seated between David and Brenda so it made for an interesting dinner, to say the least! I wasn't sure who was teasing me more - Brenda or David! Both of them would touch my leg and run their hand inside my thighs when they thought nobody would notice. Once they did it at the same time and their hands met at my crotch. It was all the three of us could do to keep from bursting out in laughter!

3. Sucking David in the Bathroom

After dinner the family gathered to watch TV and eventually Brenda gave me that "look" - the one that I knew meant she was horny and needed to do something about it. We said goodnight to everyone. I think David knew why we were going to bed early from the smile on his face and the wink he gave me. Mmmmmmm, too bad he couldn't join us!

We disappeared back into her room and this time she made sure to lock the door! It was like we were back as roomies again in the dorm. We both stripped down as we never wore anything to bed together and slipped under the sheet together. Our legs intertwined as we resumed the hugs and kisses we had shared earlier. This time was better though because I could feel her warm nude body against mine instead of our clothes between us.

Brenda pressed her pussy against my leg and I could feel the warmth of her fuzzy cunt against me. While I had taken to shaving my pussy the last couple of years with an occasional grow-out period where I would try out some design or other trim, Brenda never got into the shaving routine. The most she did was shave and trim enough that her pubic hair didn't stick out of her bikini bottom. A natural redhead, she was a "true" redhead in that her pubic hair was flame red in color and thick and fuzzy versus long and curly like most girls if they let it grow out. Hers actually reminded me of my pubic hair when I was just starting to fill in, short and fuzzy.

One thing I want to make clear about my relationship with Brenda - we were good friends, NOT lovers. We played around with each other because we enjoyed it, not because we loved each other or anything kinky or weird. In fact, most of the time we just cuddled and did some mild groping which is exactly what we did that night. I never even touched her pussy before we fell asleep! Well, I mean not much. She played with my hair for what seemed like hours and it felt absolutely incredible! I knew she loved her back lightly scratched and so I would slowly run the tips of my fingernails up and down her spine. I knew when I was doing it well because she would break out into goose bumps!

We fell asleep on our sides with her facing away from me in a spooning position. The feel of her smooth ass against my stomach and crotch was like the soothing touch of my mom when I was a little girl. I woke with one arm around her, my hand clutching her breast and I could only imagine what I had been dreaming!

It was barely dawn but I had to go to the bathroom so I quietly slipped out of bed and grabbed a terry robe from Brenda's closet. Tip-toeing down the hallway, it appeared that everyone was still in bed. Well, it was only 5AM so who could blame them!

I quickly used the toilet, washed my hands, and opened the door to leave. As the door opened I nearly jumped out of my skin! I was not expecting anyone to be there at all and here was David, waiting outside to come in! Obviously I'd surprised him just as much as he did me from the way his eyes opened wide from their sleepiness. He was wearing just a pair of sweat shorts and my eyes couldn't help but zero in on his lovely crotch. Unfortunately the shorts were too baggy to reveal much of anything but I knew from past experience what lurked beneath that fabric and I instantly felt myself getting that feeling between my legs I get when I am horny. He was taking in an eyeful for himself as I hadn't bothered closing up the robe since I didn't expect to be seeing anybody.

"Sorry there Kelly, didn't mean to startle you," he said with a grin.

"That's OK, I just wasn't expecting anyone when I opened the door - especially you."

"Obviously...," he said softly, his eyes riveted to my chest where my boobs were just barely covered by the robe. I giggled and gathered up my robe.

"Ahhhhhh, you didn't have to do that," he whispered, "I was enjoying the view!"

"Now David, behave yourself," I said, pretending to be scolding him, "What are you doing here anyway?"

"Dad wanted to go fishing in the morning so rather than go home and have to get up even earlier, I just stayed the night. I do it a lot, actually, and besides, I knew Brenda had company!"

Before I could say anything back he stepped into the bathroom, pushing me gently backwards until he could close the door.

"Now David," I said in a mocking tone, "Just what's on your mind this morning?"

"Same thing as you," he replied. I looked at him questioningly and he laughed softly, "O come off of it, I saw where your eyes went the moment you saw it was me. It's been a while Kelly, you been missing something?"

"Welllllll... maybe something now that you mention it," I teased.

He pulled the front of his shorts down and pulled his cock out. It was already starting to get hard and his thick black pubic hair spilled over the waist band of the shorts. I couldn't resist anymore - I reached down and grabbed it with my hand, feeling the semi-hard warmth in my palm. He groaned softly as I started to stroke him gently.

"Well, guess you must be just as horny as I am this morning. God you are such a nasty little slut, I love it!"

He reached out and pushed the robe off my shoulders. It slipped down and I switched hands on his cock long enough to let it fall to the floor over my arms. I looked up at him and smiled, anticipation filling my thoughts. His eyes were not looking at mine though, they were wandering up and down my naked body and his tongue subconsciously wetted his dry lips.

"God you look incredible Kelly," he sighed softly, "I can't tell you how many times I've jerked off since the last time I fucked you, thinking about how bad I wanted you again."

I just smiled at him dropped down to my knees, stroking his cock as it hardened more in my hand and grew longer and thicker. I gazed at it in wonder and admiration. You would think that by after having sucked hundreds of guys times that I would become accustomed to the feel of a cock but somehow they never ceased to amaze me.

No two cocks are ever exactly the same, each having its own markings, curvature, thickness, length, and even smell and taste. Some are big when soft and just grew hard and thick while others are more shy - small when soft but then growing to twice or three times their size when they get erect. Some curve upwards, like a rocket ready for launch, while others stick straight out and a few never even get totally hard but instead just get long and thick and bent easily. For the most part they fall into a typical size and length range.

One thing you find out when you blow a lot of guys is that the average male is not like what you see in the porn movies! Yet to me that really didn't matter to me. Unless they were unusually large or small, the old axiom of "size doesn't matter" actually held true for me.

I'd had a couple of dicks that were HUGE and frankly, the guys may have had a future in porn movies but for every day fucking they were really not all that much fun. First, they were damn near impossible to blow and in one case, pushed so far up into me it actually hurt. Undersized was not really a problem as even the so-called "small" cocks were always adequate. The smallest I had was when I fucked a younger boy but in that case the thrill of fucking him far outweighed any issues over his small cock size. What I really look for in a man's cock is the head. Some men barely have one and others have this huge mushroom head. The bigger the head in relation to the cock, the better for me.

In reality, the best moment for me when getting fucked (other than when either of us cum) is when his cock is first penetrating my pussy. The sensation of my pussy being stretched open to allow his cock to violate me can be overwhelming, especially when he moves it around near the entrance of my pussy where all the nerve endings are located.

Once it is inside of me, I feel the shaft as it passes inside of me but the reality is I don't feel him deep inside of me all that much other than the pressure of something in me. When he cums in me I can usually feel the warmth of his sperm as he shoots his load in me but the sensation disappears pretty quickly. I like to push the cum out of me afterwards and let it flow down my ass and onto whatever is supporting me at the time. Sometimes I scoop it up with my fingers and the taste of our cum mixed together is so good! If someone could bottle it they could make a fortune!

So anyway, there his cock was, just inches from my face, looking red and angry as my hand stroked the thick shaft. I leaned my head back and looked up at him.

"Do you want me to suck it?" I asked in my most seductive tone of voice.

"Oh god, you know better than to even ask such a silly question!" he moaned, "C'mon you little whore, suck my dick!"

It really didn't matter to me what he said as I was going to suck it no matter what he said; but it's always nice to know you're appreciated! I rubbed the smooth head against my face, around my cheeks and mouth and ears. Then I stuck out my tongue and slapped the head against it. My tongue ran up and down the shaft, tickling him in some places and making him groan in others. Every man's cock reacts differently so I like to have a chance to get to know a little bit more about the one I am getting ready to suck before I get too ambitious. I learned quickly that David loved the tip of his cock licked and along the underside of the hood of his large head. Actually those are two of the most common locations in my experience. Men are not all that complicated once you understand their plumbing!

I was rewarded for my efforts as his dick became hard as wood and I could barely get it all in my mouth. Then he grabbed my head with both hands and started forcing my face into his crotch as he pumped his dick in and out of my mouth like he was fucking it. He would hit the back of my throat when he thrust inward but just for a moment which didn't really let me get used to it and a couple times I thought I was going to gag but I did my best. My hands grabbed his hairy bare ass and I pulled him towards me just as much as he was pulling my head into him. His butt would clench and then release as he thrust and out of me.

"Oh my god..., that is SO incredible," he groaned, "Damn girl, you sure know how to suck a cock! Oh fuck, don't stop now, I'm gonna cum!"

His hands pulled me into his crotch with all his strength and my face was pressed against the base of his cock, his pubic hair smashed against my face. He smelled strongly of male musk and sweat and then the next thing I knew I felt his butt tighten and jerk. A huge shot of cum launched from the tip of his cock and hit the back my mouth. I thought I was going to gag as it went down my throat and I jerked my head back so strongly even he couldn't hold me down. He grabbed his cock and stroked it in front of my face as stream after stream of white messy cum spewed from him and struck me in the face and boobs. A little went on my hair and one shot went straight into my mouth which I had kept open for him. I looked up and him and our eyes met. He grinned as his hand jerked a few more shots of cum onto my cheek.

I leaned forward and took him back into my mouth and softly sucked on his now ultra-sensitive cock. When my tongue touched his head he jerked just a little and a final drop of cum spilled from his dick onto my tongue. He kept watching me, groaning as I kept sucking his now softening cock.

"Damn that was fucking incredible. God, I've never been sucked that good before."

I let his cock slip from my mouth and used my fingers to collect the cum that was all over my face, licking it off my fingers as I gathered it up. I leaned forward and without any hands picked up his limp cock in my mouth again.

"Damn Kelly, you can't do that!" he moaned, "I don't think I could take anymore right now."

I gave him one last pull with my mouth and let him hang free again. I stood up and quickly glanced in the mirror. Yep, he HAD cum in my hair. There was a big blob on the side of my head and my face was covered after my smearing it around. I usually don't like a man to cum on my face and this was just the reason why - it was such a pain getting cum out of my hair!

I smiled as I realized right then I looked like some cheap whore after a $20 blow job. I started to reach for a towel but suddenly an idea hit me like a light build had just turned on over my head. My thoughts were interrupted by David though...

"We'd better get going," he whispered. My dad will be getting up soon and the last thing we need is for him to find the two of us in here like this! He pulled up his shorts and gave me a pat on the heads like I was some lap dog who had just performed for him.

"Maybe when I get back I can give you a little more of my cock, eh?," he teased, "Tell Brenda I'm fucking horny today. She'll know what to do!"

With that he hustled out of the bathroom. It always amazed me how fast a man changes once he cums. One minute he is superman, ready to fuck anything with a vagina and the next it's like he's a monk with zero sex drive. Here David was, all set to go back to his bedroom while leaving me all horny and just getting started so far as that goes. I hadn't even cum myself and my pussy literally ached as I thought of what I would do if he dared to return anytime soon!

4. Waking Up Brenda

I threw on the robe once again and headed back to Brenda's bedroom. She was laying on her back, still sound asleep with the covers pulled up to her chin. After dropping the robe, I slipped in under the sheets and felt the warmth of her nude body against mine I snuggled up to her, draping one leg over her and pressing my boobs against her side. My arm went around her and my hand cupped her large breast. I pressed my hips forward until I could feel my pussy against her warm soft hip and my hips slowly gyrated as I rubbed myself against her. God I was so horny! I was about to just lean back myself and start masturbating when Brenda stirred and opened her eyes up just enough to see it was me.

Damn, what are you doing up so early?" she groaned.

I leaned over and kissed her. She wasn't so tired that she couldn't respond, that was for sure! When her tongue went into my mouth and got a taste of my morning "mouth wash" (maybe I should package it and call it David in the Morning), her eyes suddenly popped up and she looked at me a lot closer.

"What the..?" she exclaimed. Then her eyes finally focused and she could see the mess in my hair and on my face.

"Shit! You didn't fuck David already? Did you?" she asked, "Oh my god... you DID! You dirty little whore!

I laughed and kissed her again. As much as I knew she wanted the answer, I knew Brenda and I knew she wanted to taste his cum even if it meant waiting a few more minutes to hear about my escapades. We went into a lip lock for several minutes when her curiosity finally got the better of her.

"Mmmmmmm, I can taste him on you... So spill it girl!" she whispered excitedly, "What happened?"

I grinned and told her about everything that had happened. She seemed almost relieved when I told her about how I just sucked him and not been fucked. A little jealousy maybe?

"So tell me Brenda, when was the last time David fucked you?" I asked.

"Well, believe it or not, we haven't done it since the last time you were here," she confessed.

The surprised look in my face said more than I could have right then so she continued saying, "I don't know, it just doesn't feel right to do my brother all by myself. We both feel the same way - we want each other so bad but it just seems wrong to do it alone with him. It feels different when you are with us, though."

I smiled and kissed her again briefly. "Oh, I almost forgot... David said to tell you that he was... well I think he used the phrase 'fucking horny'. Anyway, he said that you would know what to do about it. Well, if you haven't been fucking him, then what do you do about it?"

Brenda just rolled her eyes at me in mock despair. "God Kelly, sometimes I wonder about you." She laughed and just shook her head solemnly as she continued, "He wasn't talking about anything before; he was referring to later today when they get back from fishing. C'mon girl, don't tell me I have to connect the dots for you!"

Between being tired from waking up early and my head still a bit cloudy after sucking a scrumptious cock, I guess I must have been the equivalent of hung over. Sometimes the most obvious things go right past me! We both giggled like little girls and then spent the next hour or so in her bed. Unlike last night, this time we were both horny as hell it was no time for mild kissing and touching.

I turned over and she twisted on her side as we each put our head between the other's thighs and started licking pussy. Mmmmmmm, she tasted good! I could imagine how wet my pussy was for her after what I had already done this morning. Other than my mom, Brenda was the best girl I ever had lick me. Not even my cousin was quite as good (although she WAS pretty damn good!). I think after spending a school year together she had learned most of my personal idiosyncrasies, just as I learned a guy's when I sucked his cock except she had almost a year of experience to draw on.

I had one arm around her and reached between her legs to touch her pussy as I licked it from the other direction. She was pretty much doing the same except she was paying more attention to my asshole than I was to hers. She knew how I felt about penetration so she didn't go that far but her fingertip traced little circles around my asshole and pushed just enough on it to let me know she was there and willing if I decided to let her.

Even though it's not my thing, I know a lot of people get off on anal sex, and I suspected early in our relationship that Brenda was one of them. She never discussed it which I figured was more out of respect for my feelings than anything else. Considering what comes OUT of my ass I have never understood why anyone would want to go IN it. I don't mind if someone lightly fingers it, like Brenda was doing to me in her bed, but full penetration was another matter entirely.

Some people have asked if they could lick my asshole and I have always said yes, but I have to admit it is not easy for me to kiss them anytime soon afterwards. I have experimented in the shower and bath tub a few times with my fingers and more than once actually had my entire finger in me but it was never something that I enjoyed all THAT much. For me, the bottom line is that I have this wonderful pussy that God designed to be the perfect home for a cock so why in the world would anyone want use the hole designed for my crap when my pussy wants it so badly?

During the next hour or so we each came a couple of times. I have always been a "gusher" while Brenda barely even releases anything when she cums. So much for all the guy fantasies about "squirting girls." Actually I've never been with a girl that "squirted" so I don't where guys get the idea that they are that prolific. By the time we were done, David's cum had long been washed off of my face and we both must have smelled to high heaven of our sex. I have no idea how long we might have gone on that way but the point was moot when her mother once again knocked on the door. This time, however, it was locked so there were no surprises.

"Hey you two sleepyheads!" she called out through the locked door. "Time for breakfast so hurry up!"

5. Morning With Brenda

Reluctantly we separated but we couldn't resist another kiss. This time I could taste and smell myself on her mouth and I loved it! We threw on robes over our bare bodies and scurried across the hall to the bathroom. In reality, only her mom was home and she was in the kitchen so we really didn't need to be so careful but you never knew what might come up!

I jumped in for a quick shower to get the cum out of my hair. Damn cum! It was dried by now which made it that much harder to get out and I must have used a bottle full of shampoo and conditioner in the process. Brenda joined me and helped to make sure all of it was out. God, I hadn't realized he'd hit me with that much in the head!

After we finished cleaning up we joined her mom in the kitchen. Brenda's dad and brother had long since departed for the lake so things were pretty quiet. It was only a few blocks to get to the lake where they kept a pontoon boat docked along with what must have been a couple of dozen other ones.

It was a small lake and they could only have small engines so no tubing or waterskiing. There wasn't even any swimming allowed anywhere. I'd been fishing a few times but it was mainly to get out with a guy in a more private location so I couldn't say the lake was all that interesting to me. After all, what fun was it to go out and putt around at a few miles an hour on what was essentially an old floating barge? It was with that in mind that caused me to be shocked when Brenda brought up an idea to her mom.

"Kelly and I were thinking of going over to the lake later and seeing if David and Dad needed some company," she proposed to her mom. I looked at her with my patented "are you crazy" face but didn't say a word.

"That would be so sweet," her mom said as she picked up our plates, "I bet the guys would love it if the two of you surprised them. You know, you're dad always wished you would have enjoyed fishing more!"

After breakfast we went back to her room to get dressed. Well, I say that if you consider a pair of VERY short cutoffs and a skimpy bikini top as being "dressed". Neither left much to the imagination as my shorts were cut up at the crotch and the bikini top covered my nipples but that was about it.

It was still early so we went out to the deck where her mom was putting out the seat cushions for the day. She collected them every night as well, whether anyone used them or not. It was some sort of fetish for her I guess. She turned as we walked out onto the deck and just shook her head at the sight of us.

"My goodness sakes, do girls wear ANYTHING these days?" she opined, "I certainly hope you don't plan on going anywhere dressed like THAT today - or, should I say, undressed!"

I couldn't help but smile as Brenda just looked exasperated. I knew it had been a running battle for years between the two of them over what she wore (or rather, didn't wear). In the end they somehow worked it all out and as usual she got her way.

We all took a seat and for the next couple of hours just chatted and got more sun as it got brighter and hotter as the morning disappeared. Finally it was about lunch time and it was Brenda's mom who unwittingly came up an idea that promoted our plans. She proposed we take down some fresh sandwiches and drinks for them along with some ice. It was getting really hot and she figured whatever they had taken might not even be any good after sitting in the warm weather.

Brenda-s mom went back in the house to prepare their lunch, leaving the two of us alone. Brenda turned to me and said, "Wanna take a dip in the pool before we go? Remember, you're not allowed to swim in the lake."

Brenda had a great pool in her back yard. I started to go back in the house, assuming we would change into our bikinis (at least the bottoms) before going in. Well, once again I was wrong...

"Hey! Where you going?" she called to me as I turned and saw her heading for the pool, "heck, there's nobody around so let-s just skinny dip!"

That was perfectly fine with me so I ran to catch up with her and when we got to the pool edge we both dropped our shorts and pulled our bikini tops off. She just dove in and I didn't think about what I was doing so I jumped in after her.

Well, I hadn't taken into account that it was early May and that the water was COLD! I don't mean just chilly, I mean COLD! I came to the surface and gasped, my entire body felt like one big goose bump! My teeth chattered and I quickly scrambled to get out of the pool. We hadn't bothered to get towels or anything so I just had to let the sun warm me up. What had seemed like a blazing spring sun earlier now seemed like a flashlight so far as the warmth I was feeling. Brenda sat next to me and laughed.

"Oops... sorry, I should have warned you. Dad just filled the pool last week."

Well, she wasn't TOO sorry from the way she was laughing at my plight. What I couldn't understand was why she didn't seem bothered at all by it. I guess different people react to cold water different than others. As for me, I prefer it HOT. Brenda looked down at me, standing over me naked and dripping.

"Wow, look at your nipples!" she said with a grin, "Damn! I never saw them so hard before."

I looked down and realized what she was talking about. Sure enough, they were sticking out like bullets and when I touched them it was like a little electric shock pulsed through me! Just then her mom called out to us.

"What in the world are you two doing?" she exclaimed. She just had her head out the door but she could see that we weren't wearing anything. "Are you girls nuts or what? That water must be freezing!"

Well, she had that pegged for sure! We gathered our things and rushed back to the house. I was so cold I didn't even think about the fact we were nude until I went through the door and saw her mom purse her lips a little at us. Brenda's mom was a sweet and dear lady but she wasn't exactly open-minded when it came to things like nudity. I could tell she was less than thrilled with the skimpy bikinis we both liked to wear but this time it looked like we'd crossed the line.

"Brenda!" she hissed under her breath, "What in the world are you doing running around like that! You get some clothes on... NOW!"

I wanted to giggle at that but there was something in her tone that told me she was serious and so I kept my big mouth shut for once and hurried back to her room, stopping by the bathroom to grab a towel. Brenda was a few minutes behind me, apparently her mom had a few words for her in private. Finally she came in her room, shutting the door behind her and letting out a deep breath.

"Damn, your mom sounded pissed!" I whispered.

"You can say that again!" she replied, rolling her eyes. She dropped the towel she must have picked up on her way and stood by me as I lay on the bed. "But I have to tell you, I still love it when you're not wearing anything. Remember when we would hang around the dorm room all nude and then have to grab something fast when the RA came around?"

I laughed softly, those were indeed some memorable times. As I reached out to her she sat next to me on the bed. Brenda leaned over and we kissed gently, our tongues playing and our hands moving all over each other like teenage boys getting to second base for the first time. After a few minutes she lifted her head up just enough to talk.

"You know, we had better get going if we are going to go to the lake. If we're going to see my brother I have a feeling it would be best not to even hint at anything here. My mom's really on edge today for some reason."

She paused and looked at me in the eyes, as if hesitant to say something. I waited and finally she asked, "You don't think she saw or heard anything this morning when you and David were going at it in the bathroom, do you?"

I assured her that nobody else was up and that when I came back to her room from the bathroom her mom was nowhere in sight. Brenda just shook her head

"Sometimes I wonder if she knows more than she lets on about David and me," she said. Then she lifted her head and perked up saying in a happier tone, "C'mon, let's get going!"

We both pulled up our shorts and this time I put on a halter top while she dropped a tight tank top over her head. While neither of us had a bra on underneath, Brenda's larger boobs made the fact much more obvious than mine. I couldn't help but wonder what it would be like to have big boobs like hers but she called to me before I could finish my thought. As we went out we passed her mom in the kitchen. She looked us over and I noticed that she paid special attention to Brenda's tight tank which was allowing her large nipples to push through the thin material, clearly outlined by the white cotton. Her mom opened her mouth as if to say something but then just turned away from us with a frown on her face.

Brenda mouthed, "Let's go!" to me and we hurried out the front door before her mom could change her mind.

6. David Does Brenda on the Lake

The lake was only a few blocks away so we walked along the side of the road and reached the docks in just a few minutes. There were several guys struggling to put their boat in the water at the ramp. I smiled wickedly at them as they turned to stare at the two of us walking by. Another time and I might have hung around a bit and teased them but we had other things on our mind.

When we got down to where her dad kept their pontoon boat tied up we saw it was still gone and there was no sign of her dad or brother. Fortunately the section of lake in this area was relatively narrow and Brenda knew where her dad liked to fish so we walked along the bank until finally we spotted them. They were quite a ways away but after shouting for a minute or so they finally heard us and her brother waved. The fishing must not have been very good because in a few minutes they had pulled up anchor and were heading back to the docks as there was no place along the shoreline for them to get close enough to pick us up.

Brenda and I ran back to the dock and waited for them anxiously. It wasn't long before they showed up, going as fast as the little motor would push them. We helped them tie up the boat and Brenda hugged her dad and brother. David looked at me and winked. I looked at his crotch and memories of how his cock had tasted just a few hours ago came flooding back in my mind and my pussy tingled as if to tell me it wanted his cock as well. From the way he was looking at me I had an idea he wouldn't mind satisfying that wish!

Brenda asked her dad if we could go back out fishing with them. He just shook his head and complained the fish weren't biting and that he had had enough for one day. No sooner had he finished than David volunteered to take us out if we really wanted to. Brenda's dad just shrugged his shoulders and said something about "a stupid waste of time" but then he had no idea what we would be fishing for. I had a feeling we weren't going to be disappointed with our catch! Her dad went up to the parking lot with his gear while the three of us pushed off and headed back out to the middle of the lake.

As we motored down the lake I looked around me. Compared to my parents' ski boat their pontoon boat wasn't all that fancy but it was clean and comfortable. The front end was surrounded by well-worn padded seats with a small swinging door at the bow that opened to a small "porch" up front. In back there was an overhead awning that covered about a third of the pontoon boat. A pedestal-like thing had the steering wheel and throttle on it and the entire floor was covered in tacky green indoor-outdoor carpeting.

David was at the wheel and he steered us out to take a cruise around the lake. Brenda and I each took one side of the front end and stretched out on the cushions. It was still early in May but the sun was out more than ever and it was a perfect day so far as I was concerned.

I stretched out my legs, allowing my shorts to work their way up my crotch and over my ass to expose as much of my legs and butt as possible. Brenda was doing the same and she looked positively sexy as she leaned on one elbow with her boobs hanging down and her nipples poking through. David was watching us more than he was the lake and while we pretended not to notice, we both were doing our best to give him something to look at.

The boat wasn't exactly fast but eventually we made it to a bend in the lake where an inlet led to a small cove. There wasn't another boat in sight as it was still early in the season and not many people were on the lake period. Once we were far enough in to where it was hard to see the lake, David stopped the engine and dropped a concrete anchor overboard with a loud splash. It was a good thing we weren't planning to do any real fishing as it must have scared every living creature for a hundred yards!

"Are you sure we can't do swimming?" I asked, hoping that perhaps in the privacy of the cover we could do it even though it was against the rules..

Brenda shook her head at me and answered, "Well, first of all, if you thought the pool was cold, this the water is FREEZING and second, it's not too deep here and lord only knows what's down there when you jump in!"

I took a second look and realized what she meant. You couldn't see more than a few inches below the water and along the bank was lots of weeds and the whole place in general may have been nice for fish but definitely not my idea of a swimming hole.

"Well, if we can't swim then what do we do out here in the middle of nowhere?" I asked in a naive tone. It was obvious to us all what was on our minds - why else would we be here in the first place after all? Still, it was fun to play around and pretend we were on an innocent little cruise. Judging by the looks that Brenda and her brother were exchanging, I had a feeling the game was going to get a lot more serious pretty quick!

"So David, are you just going to stand there staring like an eighth grade boy peeking into the girl's locker room or what?" Brenda teased her brother.

"Oh? ...is there something on your mind little sister?" David teased right back at her. He made a few steps closer in our direction and gave her a good, long look up and down her sexy freckled body.

Brenda turned more on her side and pulled her right leg up and put her bare foot on her upper leg which had the effect of spreading her crotch apart and pulling her already tight shorts even tighter up into her crotch. She wasn't wearing any panties - that was obvious as the thin strip of material pulled up into her pussy slit and you could see the outer lips of her pussy poking out each side. It had the desired effect on David as he licked his lips and I saw that his shorts weren't as flat as they were before!

As for me, I was getting tuned on just watching the little tit-for-tat that was taking place between this brother and sister pair.

"Hmmmmmm, maybe a little lower," Brenda cooed to him as she took her right hand and cupped her crotch with it, pulling upwards and then rubbing herself. "See anything you want?"

David moved over until he was standing next to her head. Without further ado he simply unbuckled his pants and unzipped them. Pushing his underwear down, he pulled out his cock, which was about half-erect by now, and started stroking it right in front of her. I had to flip over to my other side to keep an eye on what was happening - I didn't want to miss any of this, that's for sure!

"You know, I hate to say this about my own sister, but you are one fucking slut Brenda," David said with a grin, "Not that THAT'S bad!"

"Well, I may be that but what do you call a big brother who pulls out of his dick right in front of his little sister?" Brenda responded softly, her eyes fixed on his cock as he slowly stroked it right in front of her face.

"I don't know but why don't you just suck my dick and if you're lucky, maybe I'll fuck you," he said with a smug grin on his face..

Brenda rubbed her pussy for him and replied, "Well, I think it's more like if YOU'RE lucky you can have a piece of this pussy." She unsnapped her shorts and pulled down the zipper, opening the flaps and then pushing her hand down inside where she started playing with herself again for him.

"Mmmmmmm, this feels soooooo good," she sighed, "God I love touching me!" Then Brenda pulled her hand from her pussy, licked her finger suggestively, and then reached out for his hardened cock. "Alright, come here... I want your cock in my mouth."

She took him in her hand and started to slowly stroke him as he reached down and pulled her head up towards his crotch. He grabbed a thick handful of her long red hair and used it to hold her head close as she opened her mouth, her tongue extended as she waited impatiently for a taste of his cock. David moved forward just enough to slip his cock into her open mouth and then she closed her lips down around it. I watched intently as she started to slowly suck it, just the head at first, like he had put a popsicle or sucker in her mouth.

I was so fascinated watching the two of them I was almost frozen in place but as she started to suck harder I could feel my own pussy starting to respond and my hand reflexively moved down between my legs. I rubbed myself lightly for a little while and then moved my hand back up to cup my boob, massaging it through the halter top. Frustrated by the material that was in the way, I untied the loose knot between my boobs and let it fall freely, slipping my hands under the hanging material to feel the firm soft skin of my breasts in my hand. My fingers traced around my hard nipple and in response it tingled with excitement.

Meanwhile, David had relaxed his grip on Brenda and now she was on her back with her head resting on the cushion. He leaned over and grabbed the railing behind her and used it to support him while he drove his stiff cock in and out of her mouth as she held it open for him. She reached down to slip off her shorts and then spread her legs, rubbing her warm pussy while her brother continue to fuck her mouth.

I just can't emphasize how amazing this all was to me. After all, it was just a few minutes ago that we had been cruising down the lake like any threesome on a boat and now, in what seemed to be a blink of an eye, Brenda was bottomless, sucking her brother's erect cock while she masturbated herself below him!

To be honest, I had a pretty good idea what had driven them to it so quickly. For whatever reason, the two of them had never had sex alone - only when I was around. Brenda called me their "catalyst". It was like somehow the guilt they felt in succumbing to their incestual desires (and don't forget, there was the adultery thing for him as well) was somehow forgiven so long as someone else was involved, even if they were just watching as I was now.

For all these years they had both wanted each other badly but the brother-sister taboo, and then eventually his marriage, had always prevented them from realizing their desires. Thus when the opportunity came, as it had now, it was like a coiled spring inside of them was suddenly set free and they reacted like teens hopping in a back seat.

Watching them I wondered yet again what might have happened if I had grown up with a brother. Would I have let him fuck me? I couldn't image NOT letting him but it frustrated me that I would never know for certain. In a certain way I was a more than a little jealous of Brenda. Oh sure, my younger cousin fucked me at times but that wasn't the same as a sibling, no more than my uncle fucking me compared to when my dad did.

"I can't wait any longer - you ready?" David asked her between gasps as his cock continued to rise and fall from her mouth. He didn't have to say ready for WHAT, she knew!

Brenda had to pull her head away from his cock in order to speak and she took a deep breath once her mouth was empty. "Fuck me," was all she said in a soft but determined voice. Those simple words, so innocently spoken, were more erotic than anything else she could have said or done. I knew from personal experience how powerful they could be - nothing got a guy going more than to whisper them in his ear and David certainly was no exception!

"Oh yea, you better believe I'm gonna fuck you!" he said with a grin.

David pulled Brenda's left leg over the edge and then lifted his own left leg and planting his foot inside her thigh with the knee bent. This caused Brenda's pussy to open wide for him and he grabbed his stiff cock in his hand, aiming for her open pussy. He ran the head up and down her slit, wetting it with her juices and then running it over and around her sensitive clit.

"C'mon David, quite playing around," Brenda complained, "Fuck me dammit!"

David just smiled at her and then replied, "Ok, OK... but only because you insist!"

He lowered his cock down to align with her hole and leaned forward. Her pussy was so slick that he slid easily inside, the head forcing its way past her lips and disappearing inside of his sister's pussy. I felt a twinge in my own pussy as I wished it was in me instead! I couldn't just watch and play with my boobs so I stripped off my shorts and laid there bare-ass, masturbating as I watched the two of them.

Brenda was rocking under him as he thrust hard into her crotch, driving her up on the slippery cushions and then pulling back until he actually came just a little bit out of her and then ramming it back in. Once he missed and it almost made me laugh when his cock tried to bend as it hit the outside of her pussy instead of entering her hole. It hit the mark the second time and they kept on going like nothing had happened.

"Flip over!" David commanded as this time he deliberately pulled out of her and stood back, waiting for her to do as he ordered. "No... up on your knees," he corrected her, as she started to go down on her stomach.

He grabbed her by the waist and helped her into position saying, "Just kneel and grab the railing... that's it, now spread your legs apart and show me that cute pussy."

My pussy was throbbing as I watched Brenda get on her knees with her bare feet hanging over the edge of the seat. She had a grip on the side railing with both hands and her legs were spread wide which gave her brother a great view of her sloppy pussy. Her pussy hole was actually open just a bit from his cock stretching her out, making a nice bulls-eye for him to aim for.

David moved in behind her and put one hand on her ass and the other directing his cock to her open hole. This time he slid in almost effortlessly and pushed himself in until his crotch pressed up against her cute little ass. I lifted myself up to look out to see if anyone was watching. Brenda still had her top on but it would have been pretty obvious to all but the most naive what David was doing to her, even from a distance.

Given they both lived in town, I wondered what the odds were that if someone were to come by that they would recognize them. My, what a scandal that would be in this small town - a married man fucking another woman on the lake - and his own sister to boot! Based on the lack of boats we had seen coming here I knew the odds were pretty low but there was still a chance which just made it all the more erotic so far as I was concerned.

David was gripping Brenda by her hips as she rocked back and forth on his dick. She was moving in a deliberate fashion, leaning forward to slowly draw him out of her and then thrusting back to ram him back in her until her pretty ass slapped noisily into his hairy crotch. David smacked her butt playfully with the palm of his hand, making a spanking sound that echoed across the cove.

"Ahhhhhh, now THIS is what I call one bad little sister," he said to her, "Mmmmmmm, you love my cock in you, don't you?"

Brenda just grunted but she gave him an especially hard movement back onto his cock as if to confirm what he had just said. Actually, David was the only guy I had ever seen fuck Brenda and so I didn't know how this compared to when her boyfriends fucked her but she certainly seemed to be enjoying him.

7. My Turn With David

My pussy was so wet at this point that I couldn't stand just being a spectator any more. I stood up and moved across the boat, kneeling next to Brenda and taking the same position she was in. My halter top fell open and my boobs hung free as my bare ass faced David, serving as an open invitation. I wiggled it for him and licked my lips seductively for him to see.

"Damn, looks like somebody wants a piece of this cock for herself," David said.

"My turn," I responded, "I wanna be fucked too."

David was looking at my ass and the pussy that was his for the taking while he continued to fuck Brenda. Then he reached over with his left hand and grabbed my ass, squeezing each cheek and spanking me playfully. I wiggled it again for him and his hand worked its way between my legs and he pushed his middle finger up my pussy.

"Damn, I'll say somebody wants some cock!" he laughed out loud, "Shit, that's what I call a wet pussy!"

David quickly pulled out of Brenda, eliciting a moan from her as her pussy was suddenly empty and then there was another moan, this time from me as he took a step sideways and quickly thrust himself into me. Now THAT was much better! I mimicked Brenda's previous actions and rocked on his cock as he stood there, basically letting me fuck his cock. With him all the way in I held myself in position, rotating my ass in a circular motion to rub his cock all around inside of me.

"Oh yea, that's nice," David groaned, "God you're so damn tight!" After a bit he pulled back out of me and returned to Brenda's pussy. Back and forth he went, alternating between the two of us every dozen strokes or so. I looked over at Brenda who was looking at me, a broad grin on her face as we took turns receiving his cock. She winked at me and I knew she had an idea so I winked back to signal I was OK with anything she wanted. The next time he pulled out of her she quickly turned around and pushed him backwards before he could start fucking me again..

"Have a seat big brother," she commanded.

David sat back on the edge of the opposite cushion where I had been laying before. His hard cock was wet with our pussy juices and was sticking up in the air like a missile ready to launch. The hair in his crotch was matted down with our wetness, exposing even more of his cock for us to see.

Brenda pushed him back further onto the seat and then straddled him, placing her knees on each side of him, facing him such that her large boobs were hanging in front of his face. She lowered herself down as she grabbed her brother's cock and guided it into her pussy yet again. Once it found the mark she dropped quickly down onto it until she was sitting firmly on his lap. She didn't stay there long, though, as she started bouncing on his cock like she was riding a horse at a full gallop. David pulled her tank up to expose her large breasts which were bouncing even more in front of him and buried his face between them, letting her boobs rub against his face as she fucked herself on his cock.

As for me, once again I took on the role of spectator as I just sat back and enjoyed the show, playing with myself casually as I watched the two siblings enjoy one another. They were both good looking and it would have been hot to watch them fuck in any case but once again, knowing they were brother and sister made it something special for me.

Once again, as great as it was to watch them, how long could any reasonable person expect me just to sit back and watch them have all the fun? I understand that sex can be a great spectator sport but I prefer to be the one people are watching! I got up and stepped behind Brenda and tapped her on the shoulder, like I was on the dance floor and cutting in. She paused her bouncing and settled down on her brother's cock. Even so, I noticed she was still squirming a little bit to keep him moving in her. She looked over her shoulder at me and grinned.

"Something you wanted Kelly?" she asked innocently as if we were all just hanging around doing nothing.

"You know damn well what I want," I replied, smacking her bottom to make my point. "Quit hogging your brother's cock!"

Brenda made an overly dramatic sigh and kissed David before lifting herself off and dismounting him. She stood to the side and waved her hand at him with a flourish saying, "Here you go... all yours Kelly!"

With a clear shot at his cock, I turned around and backed into David. He scooted forward on the cushion so his ass was barely on the seat and he spread his legs so I could get between them. With my legs together it kept my pussy all the tighter but as wet as I was he had no problem entering me as I lowered myself down onto him. He reached around me and grabbed my boobs with both hands like handles as I rode him.

Brenda left her tank pulled up so her boobs remained exposed. It was all she had on as she stood in front of me and rubbed her boobs together as she watched me being fucked by her brother.

Just then we all heard a loud noise like a boat motor and Brenda quickly pulled down her tank and sat on the cushion next to us. I sat still, not sure whether I should get off David's lap or stay where I was. The railing and seat back cushions would hide us from anyone seeing what was going on, at least so far as they were not right on top of us, so it seemed the best thing to do was to just act like nothing was going on. That sounds easier than it was given I could feel David's hard cock throbbing in me!

About thirty seconds later we saw a large pontoon boat go by. It was out in the middle of the lake going full speed towards some destination. We waved at them and they waved back, not really paying a whole lot of attention to us. I just couldn't help but squirm a bit - it's hard to be still when a guy's cock is inside of you! Fortunately, they had no interest in us and before long they were out of sight again and it was all quiet except for the muffled sound of their engine which gradually diminished away.

Brenda giggled a bit and said, "That was the people in that big house down the lake. I recognized their boat."

"OH? In that case maybe we should have put on a show for them?" I offered.

"Oh fuck, that would be all we needed," David replied.

His hands were on my hips now, pushing me in little circle like he was churning butter or something, making me rotate around on his dick. It felt good to feel his pubic hair smashed against my ass, rubbing against me like a soft brush as my ass swung around slowly.

"Well, I see it didn't have any effect on you David," I teased him.

I had my hands on my knees as I stirred his cock inside of me. Brenda was sitting next to us and now she opened her legs up and spread her pussy apart with both hands.

"OK David, that's enough of her for now," she said seductively, "It's time to fuck this pussy again!"

I just rolled my eyes and pretended to be exasperated but it WAS her turn to be fair, even if I really didn't WANT to be fair when it came to sharing his cock! I leaned forward which had the effect of lifting myself off his cock. I stood up and held my hand in my crotch, rubbing myself slowly as I watched David move over to where Brenda was exposing herself to him.

David pushed her back against the back seat cushion and leaned forward, holding himself off of her by grabbing the rail on each side of her head, suspending himself over her with his erect cock hovering over her stomach. He rubbed himself up and down her tight stomach, touching the tip of his dick to her boobs and then letting it slide down to below her belly button. Finally she grabbed it and pulled him down to where she was spreading her pussy open with her other hand and pulling the head of his cock against her pussy.

"David! Quit playing around and fuck me dammit," she said, sounding a little frustrated and not in a playful way this time.

I couldn't blame her. There was a time to goof around and then there was a time when you just wanted it in you and Brenda was obviously in the latter mode. David patted her on the head and then grabbed the rail again, thrusting his hips forward and driving himself back in her yet again.

"Oh god, that feels so damn good!" she moaned.

Brenda was getting serious now, rubbing her clit with one hand while she massaged her boob with the other. Her eyes were closed and she as breathing heavily which I knew from plenty of past experience meant only thing - she was working her way to an orgasm and was just about there. Sure enough, suddenly her eyes opened wide and she cried out as her hips bucked up against David and her back stiffened in an arch.

"Of fuck, I'm cumming," she gasped loudly, "Fuck me harder dammit... fuck me big brother!"

Brenda was the type that usually had what I call "quiet orgasms" in that she might moan a little and whimper but wasn't one to put on a big display or anything. Not this time. She humped up against him, driving him deeper inside of her and kept cursing and demanding that David fuck her harder and still harder.

To David's defense, he was banging her for all he was worth but nothing seemed to be enough to satisfy the little whore that suddenly had appeared underneath him. Brenda was also rubbing her clit furiously and I wondered how sore she was going to be later after abusing herself this way. Somehow I didn't think at the moment she cared one bit about that! I could see from the expressions on his face that David was also getting to the point of no return.

Brenda was finally starting to settle down but he didn't slow a bit. Finally he rammed himself one more time into her and then pulled out, stroking his cock with his hand as a stream of milky cum shot from his cock onto her boobs and face. The first couple of loads went the furthest with one even leaving some traces in her red hair. The remainder of his sperm pooled on her chest and stomach and once the last shot was finished he rubbed his cock around on her, spreading the cum around her torso like a slimy lotion.

Brenda used her hand to wipe the cum from her face and then she licked it from her fingers, looking at me with a big grin on her face as she smacked her lips. I pointed to my hair and she realized what I was trying to tell her.

"Oh David, you didn't cum in my hair, did you?" she whined, pretending to be mad at him. "Crap, now how am I gonna get it out before we go home?"

David, typical guy he was, just ignored her and looked quite satisfied with himself as he stepped back and flopped down on the cushion behind him. He put his arms out to each side and rested them on the railing behind him. His legs were spread apart - no modesty whatsoever there, and his wet dick was already softening rapidly.

"Damn girls, that was fucking hot," he said as he tried to catch his breath. "I wish you two would teach my wife a few things."

I hadn't thought about his wife while we had been fucking and an image of the bitch suddenly flashed in front of me. In a way, I wish she DID see what we had done to her husband today, just to show her how much more he enjoyed fucking us than he ever had with her. At least I had the satisfaction of knowing the next time she griped at Brenda that Brenda would be able to remember the feel of her brother's cock in her and know he enjoyed fucking her more than his wife.

Now that he had cum, David, like most guys, was ready to wrap things up and get going. As much as I preferred older men, that is one thing I have to say about teenage boys - they never quit! It seems that the older they get the faster the lust disappears once they get off. Oh well, at least I had some decent cock and the memories of seeing the two of them fucking would be getting me off for some time to come I was sure! David pulled up his shorts and then brought up the anchor. As he started up the boat and headed back out to the lake, Brenda and I just laid back on our respective cushions with our backs to the front of the boat. Neither of us bothered to put our shorts back on although Brenda did pull her tank down and I loosely tied my halter back together again.

"Ummmmm, aren't you two forgetting something?" David called up to us with a laugh as he steered around the corner and out into the lake.

Brenda and I looked at each other and then back at him, acting as if we had no idea what he was talking about. We each had our legs down flat, spread slightly apart, offering him a nice view of the two pussies that he had just finished fucking. Brenda rubbed herself, more for him than herself.

"Oh David... Are you sure don't want any more of this?" she teased him. David just shook his head in mock frustration.

"C'mon Brenda, get your shorts on before someone sees you like that. Who knows who might be watching from shore."

Reluctantly we both grabbed our shorts and put them back on again. Compared to being bare-assed, they felt so restrictive! I loved the feeling of being bottomless outside like we had been, it felt so free and natural. Much as I hate to admit it, it was probably a good thing we did as it turned out. As we neared the bend around to where the docks were, there were several people fishing up on the shoreline which was high enough that they could see down into the boat as we passed. Brenda waved at them and from their response they obviously knew who she was. It might have been hard to explain later why she was half nude if we had not listened to David!

We soon were back at the dock and David tied up the boat. Brenda's dad had taken the truck back so we had to walk back to her house but it didn't take us long. Once there we found her mom and dad in the kitchen, her mom fixing dinner and her dad reading the newspaper.

"Well, any luck?" her dad asked.

Fortunately he had no clue what we had been REALLY fishing for! Her dad was a sweet guy and I would have been willing to bet anything that the very thought that we might have been fooling around had never even entered his mind. Her mom, on the other hand, I sometimes wondered about. Even then, I think she was more worried about ME than anything. It would have been interesting to see her reaction if she knew her son had enjoyed fucking her daughter more than his own wife!

Postscript

So far I haven't fucked David since that day. I talk to Brenda quite a bit and we get together now and then. Probably the biggest reason I haven't been with David is that Brenda told me that she and David were finally doing it on their own now. I guess they don't need me to get them together anymore and I have always known he liked fucking her the most. As much as it disappointed me from a physical perspective - he WAS a pretty good fuck, I couldn't help but feel happy for the two of them. He really DID love fucking his sister more than his wife and since Brenda enjoyed it, why shouldn't he? It wasn't hurting his marriage and there was no chance he would ever leave his wife for her so I didn't see any harm in them doing it.

I just wished I had a brother like David to fuck me!

(May 13) Chapter 81: Fifth Escort Job, Ralph and Friends Rape Me

Story codes: MMF rape group adultery anal
Ralph - client (50)

When I started escorting, all I thought about was the fun and excitement, and of course the sex. Perhaps I should have thought more about what could have gone wrong as well BEFORE it happened to me.

1. Why I Love Being an Escort

I've been having sex since I was fourteen but until recently it was with someone I knew or in a situation where I chose who I had sex with. This past year in school has been the toughest so far in terms of my sexual needs. My freshman year at least paired me with Brenda, a wonderful roomie who introduced me to the beauty of girl-girl sex with someone not related to me. This year I once again have a very sweet roomie with just one difference - she's saving herself for marriage. Needless to say we don't sleep together let alone share my double dildo that Brenda and I put to such good use.

After a wonderful Christmas break I felt my heart sink as I realized that all I was destined to spend the next few months with just my fingers and imagination. I started thinking about what other options I had. The club scene is non- existent around here and even if it were available, I couldn't do anything this close to school. I had lots of offers from guys I chat with but no matter how tempting some of them were I wasn't about to give in and take that kind of risk. The one idea thing that kept coming up was some sort of an escort job. I don't mean being like one of those web whores that tease you on the Internet all the time, but rather working for a respectable and legitimate agency.

I checked out several in Columbus and eventually decided to give one a try. This agency claimed to check out their clients and choose the ones that they think are best for me (I insisted on only older married guys from out of state). Since the guys pay the agency directly, I didn't have to fool with money or worry about getting arrested as a prostitute although I could keep any tips. While it is expected that I be friendly and outgoing - including putting up with some minor groping, sex is definitely NOT mandatory and completely up to me.

Indeed, so far as the company is concerned, sex is not part of any deal but that doesn't fool anyone. The agency sends a prepaid cab to pick me up and then another to take me back home. In addition to the single escorts, I also agreed to do bachelor parties, which actually sounded like a lot of fun. I love an audience, especially when I am having sex, so these parties sounded like a perfect match for me.

Soon after I signed the papers (including the income tax forms!) I went to my first bachelor party. There were ten guys including the groom and before it was over they had all fucked me at least once, even the married ones.

A couple of weeks later I went on my first escort. This was actually more nerve-wracking for me beforehand than the party since it would be one-on-one with a total stranger. I mean, talk about the ultimate blind date! In the end it went great. Greg was 44 and had a daughter my age he fantasized about having sex with. He said I actually bore a resemblance to her which is why he chose me. I spent the night pretending to be his daughter and he fucked his daughter several times - or at least as close as he was ever going to get to.

The next two escorts came quickly; both were the following weekend. John was probably one of the most erotic dates I had ever been on. He spent half the evening on the phone with his wife. It was incredible to be fucked while he was telling his wife how much he loved her and missed her!

The next night Bill didn't want to go to his hotel room since his family was staying with him. It was like a night back in high school! He took me to a restaurant and groped me in the booth. From there we saw a movie and I sucked him off in the theater. It had been ages since I had done that and I felt fourteen again! Finally we fucked in the hotel parking lot right outside his room on the first floor. We could actually see his family coming in and out of the room while he was screwing me!

It was couple of weeks before another guy took me out. Dan was a middle aged husband who had never cheated on his wife before. He was on a guilt trip the entire evening and in a way it actually turned me on to be sexy enough to make him want to overcome his fear and doubts and be with me for the evening.

Three weeks later, most of the delay thanks to a great spring break, I had my second bachelor party. It was smaller, only 6 guys this time, but wilder than the first. I loved it and if nothing else I want to do more parties in the future.

2. Masturbation

Now it is the last weekend at school. I should have been studying for finals but when the e-mail arrived asking me if I was interested in another escort I couldn't turn down the opportunity. The guy's description showed he was fifty years old which would make him the oldest man to ever fuck me. He was married of course and had four kids, all older than me. Ralph was from Chicago and was in town for business but wanted someone in the evening to entertain him. Well, I was ready to help him out!

Friday finally came. Luckily my schedule on Fridays is easy with only one class and that being in the morning. Thus I had the afternoon to get ready for the evening to come. Karen was not so fortunate and so I also had the room to myself which came in handy at times like this. I got back to my room after a light lunch and plopped down in my bed. All I could think about was what would happen later that night. What would he be like? Where would he want to go? Would he treat me nice?

Then of course came the other thoughts... Would he feel me up right away or take his time? Would he want me to do anything to him at the restaurant or wait until we were back to his hotel room? Would he have a nice cock? How would he smell and taste when I sucked it? I dreamed of him fucking me and wondered if he would cum in me or want to spray his sperm all over me?

The more I thought about having sex with this stranger the warmer my pussy felt. I lifted up my tank top and played with my breasts, the nipples already pointed and hard from my dirty thoughts alone. I loved to play with them and when a man squeezed them gently and grabbed my nipples between his fingers my entire body would tingle with pleasure. I cupped my breasts with my one hand as I used the finger on my other to trace small circles around the nipple.

After spending my teen years hating them, I loved my breasts now. They use to be so small that I was always a bit embarrassed when I was around other girls my age or younger who were so much more developed than me. Now they were large enough to fill out my bikini top and show plenty of cleavage but not too big that they hung down and needed a bra to lift them up. I could still not wear a bra and my boobs would be nice and high with a firm bounce to them.

As my thoughts grew more intense I unsnapped my jeans and lowered them to my ankles, kicking them off to the end of my bed. Lifting my top over my head, I threw it down to join my jeans leaving me to lay naked on my small bed. I spread my legs wide apart and place my hand between them, just covering my pussy and feeling the warmth radiating from it.

I usually shave every day but knowing my plans for the night I had not done it this morning, figuring I would be doing it just before going out so my pussy would be as nice and smooth as a twelve year old virgin. I found that so long as I shaved it every day that it would stay that way but if I let it go and grow that after I shaved it would be red and irritated for a day or so afterwards, not exactly the sexiest look in the world.

So now as I touched it I could feel the slight stubble warning me it was overdue. I really had no choice but to keep it shaved with the clothes that I wore. Some girls I knew liked to keep a "landing strip" or small triangle but I liked the little girl look - bare and smooth. Almost every guy I fucked liked it that way too. I think they liked that it made me look so much younger, like a young teenager.

My finger began to press into my slit as I started to rub my pussy up and down. I was already getting wet so my middle finger easily slid into my slit between my pussy lips. I touched my clit and shivered as it reacted to the stimulation. I loved to be touched and fondled all over my body but when it came to the bottom line, the most sensitive spot on my body was without a doubt my clitoris. When it was hard and sensitive I never ceased to be amazed how such a small spot on my body would make the rest of me feel so incredibly good. My hood pulled back as I ran my fingers around and over it. Now and then I would reach down to get more wetness from my pussy and then go back to my clit.

I took my other hand from my boob and pushed my finger into my pussy like a small cock was fucking me. I kept my other fingers working on my clit and I fucked myself imaging it was someone else doing it to me. It wasn't long before my orgasm began to start as I felt my entire body began to catch fire as it always did whenever I came. Every part of me from my toes to my scalp began to tingle and feel like it was burning up as my pussy pulsed out wave after wave of orgasmic pleasure. Each wave would radiate from between my legs and flow up and down me like an ocean wave.

I gasped as my fingers worked feverishly to keep me going, not wanting it to end. I arched my back and lifted my hips up off the bed as if to try and pull my dream lover deeper into me. Finally I pounded myself up and down, bouncing on the bed as though I was being fucked hard. Eventually I was exhausted and just laid there with my finger still in me and my hand just pressed against my clit. I must have laid for half an hour, naked and sweating from my orgasm.

I must have fallen asleep because the next thing I knew I was waking up to the sound of Karen, my roomie, talking on her phone. I realized I was still laying on top of my bed totally naked and was about to get up when I heard her say, "Yea, she's still sound asleep. How would you feel if you walked in and your roommate was sleeping naked on her bed?"

I pretended to be still asleep, wondering who she was talking to. It felt strange to be laying there on my back with nothing on while she was just a few feet away talking like I wasn't there. What I really wanted her to say was how hot I looked and that she wanted to join me in bed but unfortunately that wasn't Karen.

"Yeah, I know," she said to whoever it was, "I am glad the year is about over.

She's been really nice to me but somehow I think there is a lot to her she doesn't tell me. She's going out tonight and I don't believe for one second it's just to visit a friend. You should see her when she gets back some nights! Makeup all messed up, hair tussled and she smells, well like she has been doing something."

I was actually feeling a little horny as I listened to her. Finally she said goodbye and then left the room again. I got up and looked at the clock in shock - I'd slept the entire afternoon away and now I had to be ready in an hour! Thoughts of Karen were replaced by questions over what to wear. I grabbed my bag and went down to the bathroom to wash up. First I took a nice hot shower. While I was in there I shaved my legs and pussy. It felt so nice to feel it wet and smooth again.

I couldn't help but want to touch it again with the warm water cascading down my boobs and then between my legs. I reached behind me and help my wet ass in my hands, squeezing my cheeks and massaging them. I loved my ass to be played with. When I am walking with a guy in public I love it when he has his hand squarely on my ass, rubbing me through my tight jeans.

As I stood there under the hot stream of water my hand ventured lower and I ran my finger around my asshole. Then I pushed it inside, feeling my finger entering my ass. I had never let anyone into my ass before, not even a finger let alone a cock. It was only the past year that I had started experimenting with it and once in a while like now I would slip a finger in my ass when I was in the shower or bath tub. Sometimes I would put another in my pussy and feel me rubbing against each other inside of me. It felt good but so far not such that I wanted anyone else to do it to me. I don't mind if a guy wants to lick my asshole or rub it with his finger, just so he doesn't ask me to do the same to him.

After an enjoyable shower I wrapped a towel around me and went back to my room. I dried my hair and tried to put some wave into it with my curling iron rather than being just straight like it usually likes to hang. I was just finishing my makeup when Karen came back. She just went to her desk to get a few things, apparently she was not going to mention anything about what happened earlier which was fine with me.

"So who are you getting all dressed up for?" she asked.

I smiled and looked over from my makeup mirror saying, "Just someone I met at a party."

Karen looked at me, obviously not buying a word I was saying. She grabbed her purse and started to walk out when she turned at the door to say, "You know Kelly, I don't know what you're doing tonight and I'm not sure I really want to know. Just take care of yourself girl."

She left with that and I realized she was really a very sweet girl. We didn't share the same views in many things in life, particularly when it came to sex and family life, but we each had spent the past year sharing a room and overall she was a great roomie. I had to give her credit for being as sexy as she was and yet despite how wild she dressed or how small of a bikini she wore, she still hung to her beliefs and values which I respected her for. I have a feeling she knows a lot more about me than she lets on yet she has respected my lifestyle as well which I appreciated more than perhaps she knew.

I was clean, my hair was ready, makeup touched up, and a touch of perfume in all the right places. I pulled out my slutty black dress - the one with no straps and super short. It was the same I had worn a few weeks earlier when I entertained my dad's clients and I knew they certainly liked it on me. Looking in the mirror I debated whether or not to put on a thong. I had a few really small ones that really didn't hide much and were nothing more than strings except for a small triangular patch that barely covered my pussy. I started to pull one on and then thought the hell with it.

Tonight I was going to be the perfect slut, sexy and underdressed. I knew this guy was older and would probably be looking for someone young and hot to make him feel he still had it. Well, I was going to do my best to be everything he dreamed I would be.

3. Slut for Dinner

It was 7:00 and time for the taxi to pick me up. I threw on a long lightweight raincoat to cover me up - it wouldn't be good for my RA to see me in this outfit! Walking out, I saw a taxi waiting at the curb and sure enough it was for me. Getting in the back seat, I didn't say a word as he took off. He knew where to take me and there nothing I had to say to him as I sat back there in silence for the entire trip. It took about an hour to get to the restaurant where I was to meet him. It was not somewhere I had ever been before, some sort of fondue place called the Hot Pot.

Walking in, I gave my name to the hostess who looked at me with a sideways glance. My date was supposed to be already here and when she saw me and realized how much younger than he was, it probably didn't take all that much for her to figure out what the story was. She told me to follow her and she led me to the table.

I looked around and was impressed by the place. It had the usual tables but was lined by a series of small enclosed booths. The walls on the booths were high enough to make them private from the one next to them. The bench seats were on one side and the back to form a "L" and a small table was on the other side. The whole place had a sense of romance and intimacy, perfect for a night like this.

We got to the booth where my "date" was waiting. He was quite handsome, a full head of silver hair, clean shaven, with a dark complexion. The hostess asked me if I wanted her to take my coat so I untied the belt and slipped it off. I noticed both my date and the hostess were looking at me and I felt that glow inside I get whenever someone admires the way I look. I pulled my dress down as it had ridden up to the point where my bare ass was about to show and my cleavage was clearly visible as the top of the dress was barely high enough to cover my nipples. The hostess rolled her eyes just a bit, enough to send me a message of disapproval. I just smiled at her and then turned my attention to him.

"Hello, you must be Kelly," he said as he stood and reached his hand out to me, "My name is Ralph. I'm honored to meet you tonight."

I took his hand and he got out from the booth and offered me to sit in first. He was tall, probably over six feet and had the build of an ex-athlete. He smelled of expensive cologne and was wearing a large platinum wedding band studded with a row of beautiful diamonds.

As I sat down my skirt pulled up and in the process of moving around the bench behind the table it actually pulled up above my ass so by the time I was seated with my legs crossed I was sitting bare-assed on the seat. The table kept anyone from seeing though so I didn't bother doing anything about it. Ralph moved in next to me and looking down he could see my bare butt and thigh of my leg. He smiled at me and put his hand on my bare leg.

"Well, it's always nice when a girl makes her intentions known from the start," he said in a soft voice, "I hate playing games and it looks like you don't like them either."

I gave him a sexy smile and replied, "It's your night Ralph so you just let me know if there is anything you need."

His hand immediately reached between my legs and he touched my bald pussy with his fingers. This guy certainly wasn't shy and he wasn't wasting any time either! The waiter came buy then and offered us menus but Ralph was evidently a frequent customer as he knew already what to order and explained it to waiter. He asked me what I wanted to drink and I just asked for a glass of ice water, casually mentioning that I wasn't old enough to order anything alcoholic. Ralph said he knew in a voice that signified not only that he knew my age but was happy that I was as young as I was.

The waiter brought back a bottle of wine which Ralph tasted and approved of. It was an expensive white and I wondered if he intended to drink the entire bottle for dinner! We were then left alone and as there was nobody in the tables near us, we were as private as you could be under the circumstances.

Ralph was taking full advantage of it, groping me up and down my legs and between them. I uncrossed my legs and spread them apart to let him get to my pussy more easily and he immediately went for it, plunging his finger up into me. I gasped as it penetrated me.

"Oh yea, I love your finger in me," I whispered to him.

"Damn you are such a fucking slut," he hissed at me. "I can't believe how wet you are already!"

I smiled at him with a wicked sexy grin and reached over to his crotch. Well, he certainly wasn't having any problems getting it up! I decided to follow his lead and not waste any time playing around so I unzipped his pants and reached in to pull his cock out. It was already pretty hard and about average length and size so it wasn't too hard to get it out of his pants and in the open. I licked my lips at the sight of his swollen cock and grabbed the shaft with my hand and started to stroke him gently.

"That's it Kelly," he said, "Do me here. I want a blowjob before dinner gets here."

Well, what the hell? This was about as fast as I had ever moved with anyone in this type of situation so I guess it was only natural to suck him in the first five minutes of the date. He slid over enough for me to bend over and take him in my mouth. He tasted really good and smelled wonderful, a mixture of deep natural musk and cologne.

As I leaned over he pulled my dress up over my butt so my entire ass was exposed. His hand reached in from behind and played with my wet pussy, sliding his finger back into my cunt. I sucked his cock, easily taking it all the way in my mouth. His thick bushy pubic hair filled my face as I buried it into his smelly crotch. My tongue swirled around him and my head pumped up and down on his dick like I was humping him. Now and then a low moan would escape from his mouth.

I had his while cock swallowed when I heard the waiter stopping by asking if he needed a refill. There was no way he could have missed what was happening! And I was incredibly turned on wondering what the look was on his face as he saw this young girl sucking Ralph's cock! I lifted up enough to look his way, the head of Ralph's cock still in my mouth as I looked upwards out the corner of my eye.

The waiter was holding the wine bottle, watching my every move with a big grin on his face. Ralph motioned for him to leave and he gave a wink and then left us alone again. Back to work I want on Ralph's cock, determined to make him come before our meal arrived. From the way he was starting to squirm and the tell-tale swelling of his cock I knew I was close to my goal.

"That's it Kelly," he moaned, "Don't stop now, I am almost there."

Suddenly I felt his hips rise up against me and he put his hands on my head, forcing me down onto his cock. His cock swelled and he jerked as his first load shot into my mouth. His cock was already filling my mouth so it was hard to keep his cum in my mouth. As the third and fourth loads erupted it was too much and I had to let some of it drip from my mouth onto his crotch.

Finally he was through and I sat up once again, his cum filling my mouth with a bit trying to drip from my chin which I wiped off with a napkin before it got on my dress. I swished his cum around in my mouth, savoring the bitter taste before I swallowed it. Ralph put his cock back in his pants and zipped himself up. I started to straighten out my dress but he put his hand on my arm to stop me.

"No Kelly, leave your dress up like that," he said, "You have such a sweet looking pussy I want to see it while we eat."

The waiter came back then with the beginnings of our meal. He looked at me and a smile barely formed on his face as he described to us how to cook our meal. It was all fondue dishes and looked delicious. Each time he looked at me I knew what he must have been thinking about me. God I felt like such a slut and I loved it!

The rest of the dinner was actually quite uneventful. It was a fabulous meal and Ralph was quite entertaining. He told me all about his family including his wife, son and daughter. His kids were both married with families of their own. He made business trips frequently with a number of business partners and still enjoyed the company of other women. He and his wife had settled into a routine existence which bored him and even if he didn't have sex he still looked forward to the anticipation and exhilaration that comes with meeting a strange woman.

The meal was over and we had a wonderful dessert of strawberries dipped in melted chocolate. Ralph excused himself to use the restroom and when he came back he had a big grin on his face.

"Hey Kelly," he said with this sly grin on his face, "I have something for you to do before we leave."

I looked up at him and wondered just what he had up his sleeve. I was soon to find out!

"I just spoke to our waiter and he is quite taken with you. As a matter of fact, he was impressed with your cock-sucking skills and was hoping to learn more first hand."

My eyes widened as I looked at him incredulously. What was he getting me into now? I listened as he continued.

"I promised him that for his tip you would go back to the men's room and suck him off. "

I couldn't believe what I was hearing! Was he serious? This was NOT in the contract for tonight although I had to admit the waiter was pretty hot and the thought of sucking his cock didn't exactly turn me off. I wiggled my way out of the seat and quickly pulled my dress down to cover myself. I gave Ralph a quick kiss on the cheek and then I whispered in his ear.

"OK then, I'll do it. Are you going to watch?"

"No, I think I will leave this up to you but don't you dare come back here until you have a mouthful of his cum to show me. You understand my little slut?"

I just nodded and headed off to the restrooms. I opened the door to the men's room, ready to quickly apologize if someone else was in there. Fortunately it was empty except for our horny waiter. I turned around and locked the door to the small room. There was just a urinal, a toilet stall and a sink. The waiter was obviously horny and in a hurry. I say horny because as soon as the door was locked he had a hard cock unleashed from his pants. In a hurry because he motioned for me to get on my knees as soon as I turned around from the door.

I didn't want to get on my knees on that filthy floor so I bent my knees and lowered myself down until I my head was at his waist level. Of course my dress had no chance whatsoever of staying down in this position and so I just lifted it up to my stomach to make it easier. I quickly took his hard cock in my mouth, determined to make him cum as fast as possible and get this over with.

There are a lot of techniques for sucking cock, depending on your goal at the time. Usually I want it to last, to take as long as possible before he can't hold back any longer and finally has no choice except to cum. In these cases I tease him, lick him up and down his shaft, take him in and out of my mouth at various depths and speed. Now and then there are situations like this where I just want him to cum as fast as possible. I kept him my mouth as much as possible while still stroking him with my hand. I played with his balls with my other hand, gently rolling them with my fingers inside their hairy sacs.

He was probably around twenty-one and I am sure this wasn't his first blowjob but I bet he had never had one delivered with such intensity before. Most time when I am sucking a cock I am concerned for his pleasure and feelings but this time I all I cared about was getting my prize so I could go back to the table with Ralph. There was a knock on the door - someone wanted in to use the restroom. The waiter called out that he would just be a minute and from the involuntary thrusts and the beginnings of his precum seeping into my mouth, I knew he really would. Those were the only words he said the entire time I was in there as for myself, I never uttered a word.

Suddenly I felt his balls tighten and his cock expanding as he began to ejaculate his sperm into my mouth. It was quite a load but I able to keep most of it in my mouth. As soon as he stopped I dropped his cock from my mouth, stood up and straightened my dress as he did his best to put his still hard cock back into his pants.

I opened the door and there was an older man impatiently waiting outside. He looked at me as I walked out and then saw the waiter fixing up his pants inside. It didn't take a mental giant to figure out that something had been going on in there between us and he looked as if he was going to say something but I just shrugged my shoulders at him and quickly brushed by.

Walking back to the table past all the other people with a fresh load of cum in my mouth has to rank up there as one of the more bizarre feelings I have ever had. The entire evening so far had not been at all what I had been expecting but so far things seemed to be working out. I arrived back at our table and Ralph see my lips sealed tightly and unlike the other patrons, he knew why. He got up to let me have the seat inside again and as I slide by him his hand ran under my dress and rubbed my bare ass. One thing I could say about Ralph, he never missed an opportunity!

"OK you dirty little slut, let's see what you got from the waiter," he demanded.

I obediently opened my mouth so he could see the cum pooled on my tongue. Ralph smiled and nodded his head in approval.

"Now that's what I call a good girl! Well, let's get going. I paid for the meal while you were gone and it appears you tipped the waiter."

4. Rough Sex

Ralph took me by the hand and led me to his rental car outside. It was big and roomie with a full bench seat up front. I had a feeling Ralph made sure he had a car that would keep me as close to him as possible. I started to put on my seat belt when Ralph put up his hand and motioned for me to stop.

"I have a better idea," he said, "I want you to lay back on the seat and hike that skimpy dress up to your belly so I can watch you play with your pussy while I drive."

Damn, this guy was relentless! I had better be getting one hell of a tip tonight! Oh well, why not? I mean it's not like it would be the first time I messed around in a moving car. Kicking my heels off first, I swiveled my legs up onto the seat and laid back against the door after making sure it was locked. I pulled my skirt up almost to my boobs and felt the cool leather of the seat against my bare ass. I spread my legs wide apart and smiled at him.

Ralph let out a deep breath saying, "God Kelly, you have a beautiful pussy. Touch it for me."

The ride to the hotel took about twenty minutes. During that time I masturbated for him, touching myself and cumming twice in the process. I don't know how he avoided an accident - he seemed to be watching me more than the road. The seat under me was wet with my pussy cum and I licked my fingers as he pulled into the hotel garage. He pulled into a space and stopped the engine. I spread my pussy apart and gave him my sexiest smile.

"Hey big guy, are you ready to stop watching and start fucking me? Lick my pussy. NOW!"

Ralph laughed. "Hey, who said you could give the orders here bitch? Just for that you're going to have to wait to have your pussy licked until we get to the room."

At first I thought he was joking and then he go out of the car and I realized he was serious. Damn, I really DID want him to lick my cunt. I pulled down my dress, slipped on my heels and got out to join him. We walked to the elevator and he put his room key in. As the elevator went up he put his arm around me and cupped my boob in his hand.

"Sorry Kelly, I know you wanted your pussy licked but you have to learn who is in charge here tonight."

Given the tone in his voice, for a second a chill went through me. What was I getting myself into? So far he had been calling all the shots this evening and he hadn't asked me anything too terrible. If anything the night had been rather exciting so far. I could still taste the waiter's cum in my mouth even a half-hour later and the thought of blowing a stranger in the men's room at the demand of my date was pretty wild! Oh well, he seemed like a nice man - maybe a little kinky but overall OK. I had a feeling things might get a bit weird in his hotel room but nothing harmful. Looking back this was when I should have called a cab!

We got to the room and he pulled out his card key to open the door. Just then a couple of guys came out of the room next door heading to the elevator. They looked at me and then smiled at Ralph. Ralph grinned and slipped his hand under my dress, lifting it up enough to show off my ass to them. The guys rolled their eyes and shook their heads as they walked by. I felt pretty hot since they obviously knew what was going on. I certainly wasn't his daughter!

Once we were on the room, Ralph closed the door and latched it. Turning towards me, he smiled and looked me over.

"Strip," he said softly but firmly.

That was all he said and then he just stared at me, his eyes unreadable to me. I kicked off my heels and took off my dress. I stood there naked in front of him with my arms to my side, wondering what was going to happen next.

"Turn around," came the next command. I turned my back to him and I could feel his eyes on me, drilling through me with their intensity.

"Spread your legs and bend over. Touch the floor."

I spread my feet apart and then bent over until my fingers touched the carpet. He had a great view of my ass and pussy now. I looked between my legs and saw him still standing there upside down. Without another word he took off his clothes slowly, laying each piece on the bed as I struggled to stay in this position. Once he was nude I watched him stroking himself, his cock growing thick and hard. He stepped up behind me and grabbed me by the waist. His cock was pressed against my pussy and I could feel my lips starting to spread apart for him.

"No more teasing, time to fuck you like you deserve to be fucked."

I was wondering how he thought I "deserved" to be fucked when he thrust his cock hard into me, all the way to the base without hesitation. Fortunately I was pretty wet from masturbating and just anticipation so it didn't hurt much but just the sheer shock of it almost knocked me off my feet. Again and again he withdrew himself until he was just barely in me and then rammed himself hard into me. He grunted with each one like an animal fucking his mate.

Then just as suddenly he pulled out and lifted me straight up again. "Get on the bed," he ordered.

As I did he opened up a drawer and pulled out some ropes. They weren't the type that we used on our boat more instead made up of some softer-looking material. Regardless, my eyes still widened as I realized what his intentions were. I have NEVER been tied up for sex before and with tonight's track recons I wasn't sure I wanted it now. He reached for my ankle and I instructively pulled it back from him.

"Give me your ankle slut."

There was something in the tone of his voice that told me I had better give it to him and reluctantly I did. He grabbed it and tied one end of one of the ropes to it. The other end he ran under the end of the bed to the leg and tied it there. One by one he did my other ankle and wrists until I was spread-eagled out on the bed. On one hand I was scared. What was he going to do to me? On the other hand I was feeling horny as hell. I had never been so submissive in this manner to anyone ever before. Not even my father had ever forced me to put myself in a position where I had no control over what he could do to me. Now I was letting a total stranger control me completely. Was I insane? I hoped that in the end it would all be worthwhile.

Just when I though nothing could be crazier he pulled out one last item - a long length of black silk. He came up to my head as it dawned on me that it COULD be crazier - he was going to blindfold me. Now THAT was going too far and I started to protest.

"SHUT UP BITCH!" he shouted at me and I immediately froze and didn't say another word.

Oh my god, what was going to happen to me? Now I was not longer horny, I was just scared - VERY scared. I never thought anything like this could ever happen to me and it was like a nightmare with my eyes opened except I couldn't see anything.

I felt the bed bounce and then Ralph was on top of me. He roughly pushed his fingers into my pussy, opening me up for his cock which he then pushed into me. For the first time in my life I did not feel exhilarated at the feel of a cock filling me up. This wasn't sex, this was just a cock in a pussy. I didn't want him in me and I hated him at that moment. Little did I know my hate was just beginning.

5. Raped

As he fucked me I just laid there, letting him pound my pussy with his damn cock. Then I heard the door open and voices. Now what the hell was happening?

"Hey guys, what do you think?" Ralph said as he kept fucking me.

"Fuck Ralph, she is fine!" said another voice. Other chimed in - it sounded like at least four to five other guys were now in the room.

"Take her guys," Ralph said, "she knows who is in charge here. Fuck the little whore. Don't worry, the bitch likes it rough."

The hell I did! I started to say something but Ralph grabbed my mouth tightly, actually hurting me with his fingers.

"Not a word if you know what's good for you," he whispered into my ear.

The threatening tone in his voice was enough for me. I shut up and laid there, wondering what was going to happen to me. It didn't take long to find out. One after another they fucked me, each one getting on top of me and pushing himself into me.

I know that some of them must have done me more than once because more than six cocks were in me. Only two of them came in me, the rest of them came on me either on my face or boobs.

With the blindfold on I didn't know when one of them was about to cum on me so it wasn't until I felt the warmth of their cum. My face seemed to be the favorite target and it felt like it was completely covered with their multiple loads of cum. At least the blindfold protected my eyes! Surprisingly none of them put their cocks in my mouth but then again maybe not so surprisingly. They may have been afraid of what I would do if I got my teeth on their cocks!

Once more the guy who was fucking me came in me, gasping as he delivered another stream of sperm in my cunt to mix with the others. When he pulled out nobody jumped in immediately to take his place as had happened the last nine or ten time... I had lost count somewhere around 6 and I know several more had done me after that. I lay there for a few seconds motionless, the cum on my face dripping down the side of my face onto the bed and my neck. Some of it hid pooled on my lips and I had to let it into my mouth and swallow it. It would have tasted good except for the circumstances.

Just when I thought it was finally over, people started to untie me. I reached for my blindfold but a hand grabbed my wrist and then Ralph said, "Not yet cunt. We're not through with you yet."

Someone grabbed my legs and twisted me over on my belly. Ralph again said, "Up on your hands and knees."

I did as he told me and felt a hand on my ass, rubbing my cheeks and exploring between my legs. One finger and then two went in my cum-filled pussy. They then started to touch my asshole, wetting it with the mixture of my pussy wetness and cum. I had this horrible feeling that I knew what was going to happen and as his finger plunged into my asshole I knew I was right.

"Fuck she's tight!" someone said. "Here," another voice chimed in and I felt a cold greasy substance on my ass.

The finger withdrew and I could feel the head of a cock pressed against my asshole. I gritted my teeth as he started to push it into my unwilling ass. God it hurt! I couldn't help but cry out in pain which only made them laugh. I thought he was going to split my ass in two. I started crying from the pain and begged him to stop. Someone grabbed my hair and pulled my head up sharply, sending even more pain through my head, "Shut up whore, you know you really want this."

These guys had seen one too many porn flicks where the abused girl suddenly realizes she likes the abuse and tells the guys to fuck her harder or something like that. Well, this was real life and the reality was it hurt like hell and I wasn't about to start feeling good any time soon. At the same time I realized that if I continued to protest it would just take longer and they would probably be even harder on me so I decided that despite the agony and humiliation I had better act like they wanted.

"Fuck me then," I cried out in a wavering voice, "Cum in my asshole."

"That's more like it," he said, thrusting himself into me over and over, each time sending another series of pain through me.

Finally he did cum and I could feel the cum in my ass, definitely a different sensation than being filled in my pussy. He pulled out and everyone cheered for the bastard while I slumped to the bed.

I heard the door open and people leaving. Thank god it was over! Ralph took the blindfold from my face and I blinked even in the low light of the lamps.

"You bastard," I said in a low voice. "Why did you do this to me? You realize that if you had asked I probably would have fucked all your friends anyway. You didn't have to have them rape me!"

"Don't worry Kelly," he said with a smile I wanted to wipe from his face, "I think when you get up you'll see they made it worth your while. I'm leaving now so get yourself dressed and you can leave whenever you are ready. Take your time, the room is yours for the rest of the night if you need it. Goodbye my little whore."

With that he left and I laid on my back again, wondering if this had all been a bad dream. The stickiness on my face and between my legs told me otherwise. After I laid there a bit collecting my thoughts I got up to use the bathroom and shower. God my ass hurt! I felt like I was waddling instead of walking.

As I made my way there I noticed a fat envelope on the dresser. Curious, I opened it and found it stuffed with money, mostly hundred dollar bills. I couldn't believe it, there must have been over a thousand dollars in there! I counted it out and there was actually $1,550 bucks. Even though no amount of money was going to make me feel good about the evening at this point, it was still a remarkable amount. I cleaned myself up and got dressed, if you call slipping on a dress and heels dressing. I looked in the mirror and surprisingly I looked pretty good. My hair was not going to be the same that night but otherwise there were no marks on me or anything. They had not really hurt me or hit me.

I called the agency's taxi firm and had someone pick me up. On the way home I replayed the evening in my mind. Everything had gone so well until we got to the hotel. Even then I was not bullshitting Ralph when I said I would have done his friends if they had asked me. What made the whole thing so wring for me was the forced nature of the sex. I couldn't enjoy it when I had no control over it, when I was nothing more than a cunt to them to fuck. I hate humiliation and that was how I felt, like all pride and respect had been stripped from me.

The next morning I sent in my follow-up e-mail I was required to do after each escort. They billed from the taxi records so they knew how many hours I had been out. This was more of an evaluation. Even though the agency did not technically "sell" sex, they knew what their clients wanted. They also knew sometimes some got out of hand.

The one satisfaction I got was that "Ralph" would never again get a girl from another escort agency in Columbus since they shared this secret "black list" of abusive clients. Along with the e-mail I also submitted my resignation from the escort business.

I still plan to do parties for now but the single escort stuff is one thing I will chalk up to as an experience - but not something I will do ever again!

(May 19) Chapter 82: Back Home for the Summer

Story codes: MF FF oral exhib inc father mother daughter
Me (20)
John - my dad (40)
Mary - my mom (38)

Finally, my sophomore year was over and summer break was here. I had been wondering how my first few days would be after being gone for so long. Well, I needn't have worried as my parents had quite a homecoming planned for me.

1. Heading Home for Break

Every university seems to start and end on a different week. Mine starts later than some but it ends later as well so it was past the middle of May before I was finished with finals and packed for home. Thank God I would be living in an apartment the following year - no more dorms, so most of my stuff just went into storage as I really didn't need it at home. My conservative school wardrobe wasn't exactly what I liked to wear at home so most of it remained as well.

In any case, most of it was for cold weather and it was summer finally! I hugged my roomie Karen and wished her well and then waited for my parents to arrive. They had just called me and my mom told me that my dad had gotten a speeding ticket so they were running a little late. Most everyone else was gone when the SUV pulled up to the curb. At least it was easy for them to get a parking space! I ran up to them and hugged them as they got out. I loved my parents and it was great to see them again!

It had been only a week since my last escorting gig - the LAST one I would EVER do after what happened to me. I could tell my mom was still upset over it as the first thing she asked me was whether or not I was OK - and I knew she wasn't just asking a generic question. My career as an escort girl had ended with one fateful trip to a hotel room where a guy had unexpectedly invited a few friends and essentially I was raped by them.

I know, it's hard to claim you are raped when you hire yourself out as an escort and that is why I never reported it to the police. Still, I felt violated in that I had not agreed to provide such a "service". In my mind, I was not a prostitute and I only did the escorting thing to satisfy my own needs and urges. The fact the guy paid was more because he expected to than anything else. So when this guy treated me like a whore I felt abused and violated. I reported him to my service and at the same time resigned.

I had a few great nights out, though, and overall did not regret the overall adventure. Actually, I was probably quite fortunate to get out before something REALLY serious happened to me. In any case, I assured my mom that I was fine and from my tone I think she got the message that I really didn't want to discuss it further. I had told her about it right after I got home that night so it wasn't like I was hiding anything, I just didn't want to make an issue of it.

In the meantime my dad had thrown my stuff in the back of the SUV and we were ready to go. I gave my RA a hug and jumped in the back seat. It was over a three hour ride home and so I to myself comfortable for the trip ahead of me.

"Sorry we were so late," my mom apologized, "Your dad was so anxious to see you again he never even saw the trooper."

I told them it was just fine. At least I wasn't the LAST one to leave the dorm. Now THAT would have been embarrassing! My mom was in a chatty mood and for the next hour or so it seemed she went on non-stop, filling me in on everything that had been going on. Most of it was just local gossip and while it was fun to listen to, I really didn't relate to much of it anymore after being gone for so long.

I started to daydream and as I did, an old habit of mine emerged and my hand sort of found its way between my legs and I started rubbing myself through my jeans. Nothing serious, more of an unconscious act than anything else. When I was little my mom was always whispering to me to stop touching myself when we were in public. Most of the time I didn't even realize I was doing it, I just did it out of habit. I had pretty much stopped doing it but now and then I would fall back into the old habit and it was always in private!

I was brought back to earth when my dad pulled over into a gas station to fill back up. I got out with him and went in the store with my mom to grab something to drink and snack on. When we came out he was just finishing up and as he put away the hose I wrapped my arms around his waist and hugged him, squeezing up tight against him. He reacted by holding me in his arms and to my delight, his hands reached down and squeezed my ass though my jeans. I wiggled my butt in his hands suggestively and giggled as my face was buried in his chest.

"Daddy!" I exclaimed playfully, "People are watching!"

It was indeed the truth. At the pump across from us was a middle aged man and the pump in front of him was being used by an older woman. Both of them were apparently more interested in what was happening at our pump than theirs because they were both starting at us instead of filling up their cars. The guy was just staring but the older woman looked horrified. With my mom coming back to the SUV it was obvious I was his daughter and to see him grabbing my ass the way he was must have been quite a sight for them. At least I was wearing jeans! Knowing my dad, if I had been wearing a skirt his hands would have been under it and under my panties (assuming I was wearing any)! The old lady would have REALLY had something to look upset over in that case. As it was, I got a kick out of showing off a bit and I knew my dad didn't mind so long as we were far from home where nobody would recognize us. My dad held the back door open for me and closed it behind me. I would have given a lot to know what was running through the minds of the people who had been watching us.

Back on the road my dad was grinning and my mom smacked him on the arm as she pretended to be aghast at his behavior. She couldn't keep up the act for long and next thing I knew we were all cracking up. Some people are such prudes! I commented about my thoughts about what it would have been like if I had been wearing a skirt. I saw my dad smile in the rear view mirror. He didn't have to say or do anything more to confirm my expectations would have been realized.

2. Dad Welcomes Me Home

The rest of the trip was actually fairly uneventful and before long we had exited from the expressway and were snaking our way back home along the curvy roads and hills that made up the community. Then home was in sight and the SUV had barely stopped in the garage before I jumped out and cried out with glee, thrilled to be home again! I ran into the basement, which was at the same level as our garage thanks to the sharp hill we live on and up to my room. I was so happy to be home! Everything was in its place and I bounced on my bed which I had missed so much sleeping in the dorm. My parents came up, my dad carrying my suitcases.

"Welcome home long-lost daughter," my mom said with a smile as she reached out to hug me. My dad followed behind her and this time when he grabbed my ass his hands went a bit lower and made a pass BETWEEN my legs this time and up the crack of my ass.

"Oh Daddy!" I exclaimed for the second time today. Except this time I wasn't teasing him about people watching. This time I was horny!

"So did you miss me daddy?" I asked him in my innocent little school girl voice, as if he needed to tell me. I looked up at him and slowly ran my tongue across my lips. My mom just laughed and started to leave the room.

"Alright you two, have some fun, I'll leave you alone for a while," she said. She hesitated as she reached the door and then laughed again saying, "You know, I figured the two of you would never have made it all the way back without going at it - I think you're slipping!"

My dad and I both stuck out our tongues at her and then laughed at our simultaneous reactions. My mom just waved her hand at us and went downstairs. I knew the two of us would be getting together before long but my dad needed my attention first. Judging from the bulge in his jeans if I didn't do something for him soon he was going to explode! I reached down and put my hand over his cock and pressed on it through his jeans.

"Mmmmmmm, I think someone DID miss me," I said seductively. Forget the little girl crap, I was horny and my dad wanted me which was a dangerous mix at any time but given just HOW horny I was and HOW much he wanted his daughter, it was more like a volcano about to erupt.

"Do you want me daddy?" I asked him softly as I rubbed his stiff cock, "Tell me you want me."

"Oh Kelly," he sighed, "God yes, I want you so bad... I want to fuck you so bad."

Now THAT was what I wanted to hear, the words that always thrilled me and made my heart skip a beat no matter how often they were repeated. Nothing made me happier than to know my father wanted me, and that he wanted me in the most intimate end explicit way a man can want a woman. When he told me he wanted to fuck me it was the most wonderful compliment he could ever give to me as in just those few words he told me everything about how he felt about me.

Granted, I knew my dad loved me and respected me - he didn't need to have sex with me for me to know that. After all, I was his daughter and I knew no matter what I did - or didn't, he would always love me unconditionally and he would never do anything that would disrespect me or injure me in any way, no matter how slight. The fact that in addition to his love and respect he also lusted for me in a way only a sexy girl, only a naughty slut, only a girl half age could - THAT was what really made me hot.

I felt so lucky I could fulfill his fantasies and enable him to realize his naughtiest dreams. I loved to make my father happy and I knew when I submitted myself to him and surrendered myself totally over to him that I pleased him the way no other woman ever could as I was his only daughter and only his daughter could do this for him.

"Oh daddy, I want you to," I whispered, barely trusting my voice to work.

My dad was undressing me now as I just stood there, presenting myself to him and allowing him to do to me anything he wanted. He pulled my jeans down to the floor and I stepped out of them, leaving me bottomless as I wasn't wearing anything under them. His hands ran over my bare ass and then around my hips and between my legs, his fingers running up the center of my pussy lips and up and over my exposed belly. He unbuttoned my blouse and removed it from me, leaving me totally naked in the center of the room. I looked him in the eyes and smiled.

"Take me daddy... let me be your little girl for you," I whispered.

"Oh my god Kelly, you are SO beautiful! You'll always be my little girl," he replied as he maneuvered me to my bed.

I sat down on the edge and reached out to unbuckle his belt and jeans. As I unzipped his jeans and spread them apart his cock pressed out against his underwear, straining to be released. I pulled his jeans and underwear down together, unleashing his cock and it flipped out as his underwear dropped down. My dad stepped out of them and pulled his socks off at the same time. He pulled his polo shirt up over his head and there he was in front of me, my strong handsome father nude just for me.

"Tell me what you want me to do daddy," I said, looking up at him with my brown eyes locked onto his.

I knew exactly what he wanted but I wanted to hear him tell me. I wanted to do his bidding, to be completely under his control and orders. I wanted to submit myself as his loving daughter, completely and totally bending myself to his will.

"Suck my cock Kelly," he said softly.

I reached out and held him in my hand. Mmmmmmm, he was so hot and hard that I could actually feel the pulse of his heart in the veins of his cock. Not only that, I could smell the musky odor of his crotch, the strong male scent of his unfulfilled sex. He may have been my father but he was also a man and in addition to wanting to please my father, I also wanted this man to suck and then fuck me. Naturally my first priority was his pleasure but I never said I didn't enjoy being fucked by him as well!

"Yes daddy," I responded as I leaned forward towards his dick

It was so hard it was actually curving upward slightly so I licked it with my tongue to start, beginning at the middle of the underside of it and working my way up to the tip of the head. He shuddered as my tongue ran over the crown of his cock head and then as I ran it in circles around the base of his head. I ran my lips along it like I was playing a flute - except in this case it was a skin covered one.

Finally I took just the head in my mouth, gently sucking on it and running my tongue along the tip of it and into his little slit.

Gradually I worked more of him into my mouth, easing the length of his cock further and further into my mouth until he was at the back of my throat. I almost had him all the way in now so I held my breath and plunged in the rest of the way. I could feel his cock press back into my throat and then momentarily started to gag as it slipped down into my throat. I relaxed and the urge quickly passed and then he was all the way into my throat. My face was buried in his crotch, surrounded by his thick, coarse pubic hair that brushed against my flushed face.

"Oh god!" I could hear him gasp as I turned my head from side to side, rotating his dick in my mouth and throat.

I had to breath so I pulled back until his cock dropped from my mouth and then repeated the entire maneuver several more times.

My hands were wrapped around him, holding onto his hairy ass and pulling him towards me. His hands, meanwhile, were on the back of my head, pulling my head in towards him. The result was my face was pulled tightly into his crotch with nowhere to go. The odor of his male musk was overwhelming as my nose was pressed tightly against the base of his dick. Mmmmmmm, yes indeed, I so loved to suck my dad's dick!

My dad released the pressure against my head and I pulled back a bit but kept his cock in my mouth and sucked him for a while longer before he pushed my head away so he could talk to me.

"Lay back sweetie," he said, helping me to turn and lower myself until I was flat on my back.

My dad kneeled on the floor and ran his hands up and down my body, from my feet to the tip of my head, tracing his fingertips lightly all over my exposed nude body. I could feel the goose bumps rising as he would hit one ticklish area and then a serious one. My dad knew my body pretty well by now so he knew where to touch me for each reaction. I shuddered involuntarily as he traced little circles around my nipples, widening them in a spiral until he was touching my entire breast and then cupped it in the palm of his hand. He squeezed my boob gently, then bent over to kiss the nipple and finally to put the nipple between his teeth and gently tug on it, licking it at the same time with the tip of his tongue.

"Oh daddy, I missed this so much," I sighed softly, my eyes closed as I just relaxed from his gentle touch.

My dad's hand left my boob and started to wonder down my torso, past my belly button and over my lower stomach. I spread my legs apart just enough to signal him what I wanted and he moved down, gently skirting my pussy and tracing a line down the inside of my left upper thigh.

When he got to my knee he switched sides and did the same moving up my right thigh. Again, he just teased my pussy and moved back down the other leg. He made several trips around, each time lingering just a hair longer at my crotch than the time before. His mouth continued sucking on my boobs as his hand stopped this time and stayed on my pussy. His middle finger worked its way between my pussy lips and pressed gently against my pussy hole. It was already a bit wet and he gently pressed until his finger was barely ion me, just enough to make it wet and then he pulled it up to wet my pussy slit and clit.

Once I was wetted up and slippery, he started to play with my clit much the same way he had with my boob and nipple. A sharp moan escaped from me as his fingertip rubbed my clit just the right way. He continued to play with my clit, stopping only for a brief incursion to my pussy hole for more pussy juices to make me nice and wet.

My dad was being so patient with me, not hurrying at all despite how badly I knew he wanted to fuck me. Most men would have been pumping away at me by now – or a long time earlier. That is one reason I love it so much when my dad fucks me because he cares about how I feel and makes sure I am being pleasured just as much as he is.

One of my biggest regrets I will always bear is not giving my virginity to my father. I have imagined so many times what a beautiful time it would have been to have him take me for my first time, how patient and loving he would have been! Not that it was bad with Steve, my boyfriend at the time, but not matter who it was how could they compare to your own father?

Dad lifted up from my boob and I figured I was about to be fucked but somehow he was showing even more than his usual patience, even though I knew he was hornier than a farm dog and wanted nothing more than to bury his cock in his daughter's wet pussy.

Instead, he moved himself down and twisted me on the bed so my legs hung over the edge and my head was against the opposite side of the bed. He spread my legs apart and moved in between them, running his fingers against my legs again and up to my pussy. He leaned forward and when his head was just inches from my cunt, he gently blew against me, making me jump just a little from the cool freshness of his breath against my hot pussy. Then he used both hands to spread my pussy lips apart and again blew softly, right against my pussy hole making me quiver with anticipation.

"Damn, you have such a pretty pussy Kelly," my dad murmured to me, "It smells so sweet and fresh."

I just laid back with my eyes closed, waiting to see what he would do next. I didn't have to wait long as I felt the touch of his exploring tongue against my pussy. For what must have been ten or fifteen minutes my dad licked my pussy, running his tongue up and down and then pushing it into my pussy hole and then back up my slit and against my clit. It was simply wonderful!

"Don't stop daddy," I begged him as I felt my orgasm begin to rise from deep within me.

It was like a beast inside of me was being released and was working its way from the dark recesses of my mind out into the open air. It seemed to raise from the center of my body but its exit was my pussy hole as suddenly it was like something exploded between my legs as a pulse of pleasure raced from my pussy and passed through me like a wave emanating from where a boulder was dropped into the water.

My face felt flushed and my back arched upwards like I was some sort of sexual gymnast as my first orgasm since returning home took control of me. I say that because during an orgasm I feel totally out of control, unable to think or even acknowledge the world around me as I mentally retreated into my own little slice of paradise. It was incredible! Well, I say that about almost every orgasm but that is the way it is, as if each was better than the last and the fact I am experiencing it makes it better than the last because it's over.

I could feel the pussy cum gushing out of me and onto my dad's face where his tongue was lapping it up like a hungry cat with a bowl of fresh milk. Finally it slowly dwindled away and I was left there panting from the exertion. My dad wasn't going to let me stay that way for long!

"I can't wait any more," he said in a tight voice as if he was bearing the weight of the world, "I've just gotta fuck you now."

I looked up at him as he lifted my legs up in the air and rested them on his shoulders as he leaned over me. His eyes met mine and I could see the transformation that had taken place in him. Gone was the sweet father gently holding my hand, talking to me in his deep soft voice as he read me a bedtime story. That man was not the one I was looking at now. Instead, my eyes were locked in place with a man who I knew had one thing on his mind at that moment - fucking me.

My heart raced as he roughly pushed his way into place and positioned his cock between my legs. He looked so determined! I wondered if for whatever reason I should ask him to stop whether or not he would when he got to this point. On the one hand I would like to think that he would never go against my wishes but somehow when I saw him like this I never wanted to test that theory.

It was almost animal-like the way he looked at me, like I was just a hot cunt to be fucked, something to pleasure him and make him cum. It didn't scare me or make me feel bad, not in the slightest. If anything, it thrilled me even more that I could get my own father this worked up over me. If I could make my own father feel this way about me, to make him want to fuck me like a slut, imagine what other men felt when I was with them!

"Ohhhhhhhhh!" he cried out as he pushed his cock into me. "God damn it, your pussy is so fucking tight!"

My dad's first push got about his head and maybe an inch of his shaft in me. He pulled back until he was just barely in me and shoved forward again, this time getting over half of him in me. Finally, one more shove and I felt the base of his cock press against my crotch, his balls against my ass and I knew he was in me to the hilt.

I loved the feeling I always got at this one particular moment, the moment when my father was first in me. We were now joined together in the most intimate act any man and woman can share. It represented a union between a father and daughter like nothing else they can experience. I was now closer to my father than was possible in any other way and I could have stayed this way forever with him. YES! My wonderful daddy was fucking me and I couldn't ask for anything more than that!

We fucked this way for a while and then he put me in various positions - doggie, spoon, and finally me riding him - first facing him and then facing away. I don't know how his cock managed to go that long without cumming as in the process I came at least two or three more times depending on how you counted the ones close together.

Finally I was on my back and he was back on top of me in classic missionary style. I loved this the best with my dad as he was on top of me, his dick buried in me as we coupled ourselves together. I felt totally under his control, complete submission in every sense of the word. In this position he was dominating me physically and mentally as he fucked me, taking me as his mate, literally mating with me in a holy act of intimacy. I knew he was about to cum and I couldn't wait to feel him release inside of me.

"That's it... fuck her John," I heard off to the side.

I looked over and saw my mom standing there watching us. She was wearing a nightshirt but from the way her hand was holding herself under it, it was obvious that there wasn't anything under it. Indeed, my mom was masturbating herself as she watched her husband fucking her daughter with all the wild abandonment of a john (no pun intended) fucking his favorite whore - and obviously loving it.

"Give it to her John," she said in a soft but demanding tone, "fuck the little slut, give her what she wants."

My dad just grunted and continued pumping me like he was drilling for oil. He moaned and stiffened and pushed his cock deep in me and I cried out with joy as I felt him cumming in me. I could feel a warm bloom of heat deep inside of me and I knew it was my father's sperm as he release himself inside of me.

I literally had tears of joy running down my face as he mated with me, giving me the most intimate and sacred gift he possessed as I offered myself to him unconditionally. It was the ultimate gift given for the ultimate submittal. My dad shot one load after another, jerking his cock in me with each one, thrusting himself against me and driving my up my bed further with each load of cum.

Finally he stopped and I thought he was done but then it was like he instinctively jerked as a final bit of cum was ejaculated from his cock. With a gasp he dropped down to his elbows, his weight heavier on me but I could still breath comfortably.

"Oh Daddy," was all I could say, whispering it softly in his ear as he buried his face in my hair.

I could feel his hot breath against my neck as he panted from the exertions he had just made. His cock was still in me, feeling like a hot poker, twitching now and then involuntarily as I gripped it with my pussy.

Finally he slipped out of me and then rolled over on his side next to me. He let out a long breath and closed his eyes as he remained motionless next to me. I looked over at my mom who was smiling and shaking her head.

"Men," she said with a wry smile, "one-shot wonders."

She stepped over to me and extended her hand saying, "C'mon, let's go to my bed and let him crash."

I started to rise and then fell back again as I realized how exhausted I was but then as I gained my breath I actually rolled out of bed and took my mom's hand. I look back at my dad who was clearly unconscious. His dick was soft now and was flopped over to one side with no sign of the urgency or lust that had filled it just minutes before. Meanwhile, although my pussy was dripping with his cum, it still was ready to go for another round. If my mom had not been there I would have likely just done what I did many times with my dad - masturbate while he slept next to me. Instead, I followed her into their bedroom but every step I took seemed to move my pussy just enough to remind me how swollen my clit was still and how demanding it could be!

My mom dropped her nightshirt to the floor before getting in bed with me. I don't think I had ever seen her in bed with anything on other than maybe when she was role playing for my dad so it would have more surprising to me if she had kept it ON than anything else. Even when I was a little girl and wore pajamas and then nighties to bed, my parents had always slept nude and they never made any effort to hide it should I be in bed with them. Growing up that way, their nudity wasn't something sexual or naughty but rather simply the way I knew them.

Even now, I felt more comfortable being nude with my mom in bed than dressed. That wasn't true OFF the bed, mind you. Running around the house nude was NOT something normal for me - or my parents. Basically, why would you want to? No, causal nudity was restricted to where it made sense - the bed, bathroom, hot tub, etc. Of course there were times where nudity was NOT casual and WAS intended to be sexual in nature. That might happen most anywhere but is really a different story entirely.

3. Mom Welcomes Me Home

So anyway, the two of us were on top of the bed, each of us on our sides, resting on our elbows as we faced one another. My mom was the first to speak.

"That was so great of you Kelly to satisfy him like that," she said. "I can't tell you how horny he's been this week as it came time for you to come home. I tried to keep up with it - God knows I tried, but it's like he's had this continuous erection all week! He even fucked Kristen and your aunt a few times but it was like nothing was enough for him. That was the most content I've seen him all week!"

I just smiled at her, almost feeling honored by what she told me but at the same time a bit thrilled to find out how much he had been dying to fuck me all week.

"Well mom," I said in reply, "I AM his daughter after all. I mean, isn't that what I am SUPPOSE to do for him?"

My mom nodded her head slowly. "Yea, I guess so but still, you don't have to let him fuck you to show him you love him."

"But mom, I WANT him to fuck me if that's what HE wants," I protested.

"Well, so long as you feel that way I guess it's OK," she replied. "I just wanted a chance to tell you how much I appreciated what you did for him."

She reached for me and we moved close to each other, embracing one another and pressing our warm nude bodies tightly together. Her leg moved over mine and I pushed mine over and between her legs until my thigh was pressed against her pussy and my pussy was pushed up against her leg. We didn't hump each other but rather just laid together like that for a while, just soaking in the other's warmth as we hugged and kissed.

It wasn't the same as when I kissed my dad. With my dad it was always me kissing my father whereas with my mom it was more like we were equals, more of a mutual sharing than one dominating over the other. I didn't submit myself to my mom nor would she have allowed me to do so. We shared ourselves with one another, each offering ourselves to the other but at the same time taking something as well.

As our tongues explored I felt her hands roaming over me, softly caressing me and stroking me all over. I was doing the same for her, sometimes just running my pussy getting wetter and wetter as she touched me in exactly the right way to get me horny as hell - not that I needed much incentive.

"Oh mom... that feels so good," I whispered in a husky voice, the lust evident in its tone.

My mom didn't say a word but instead gave my nipple one last tug and then let it drop from her mouth. She alternated between kissing me and licking me as she worked her way down my stomach. It seemed to take forever but finally she was at my pussy. My mom was on her knees at my side, her head down between my legs. To my delight she lifted one leg and straddled me, her ass in front of my face. She worked her way back until her pussy was directly over my face and lowered herself down to me. We both started to work on the other's pussy. It was hard to lick her actually, as the feeling of her tongue and mouth on mine was making it difficult to think about anything else. Her pussy was covered with thick pubic hair which smothered my face and smelled strongly of her sex. My tongue reached up and licked her.

Mmmmmmm, she tasted heavenly! It was almost too much between the taste of her pussy and the incredible sensations I was feeling myself as she expertly licked me.

"Mmmmmmm," I heard her say as she pushed her face directly against my bare cunt.

Actually, I felt it as much as I heard it as the vibrations of her voice passed through me. I did the same, humming into her pussy and was rewarded by the squirming of her ass against my face.

As much as I loved doing 69 with my mom, it was overwhelming me and I couldn't concentrate on her pussy like I wanted to as my own pussy was flooding me with such feelings of pleasure I was going crazy trying to work on my mom's cunt. My mother, who knew me better than anyone in the world, must have sensed my conflicting emotions as she lifted herself off of me and maneuvered herself in the opposite direction such that she was looking at me, laying on the bed between my legs. She put her arms under my legs and wrapped them around me, using them to pull me into her face as she resumed her licking of my pussy without actually saying another word. She looked up at me as her tongue played around my clit, our eyes locking onto one another's. She looked so beautiful, her hair cascading down and around my legs and belly. I had dreamed so many nights in my dorm room of this very sight, of how she would look between my legs licking me in the way only my mom could do.

Somehow seeing her looking at me set me off as much as her tongue. The very image of my mother with her face pressed against my pussy was so erotic that I started to cum - and cum hard!

"Cum for me baby," she called to me, lifting her head just long enough to give me her encouragement.

Oh yes, I wanted to cum but I wanted to cum for her too. I wanted my mom to watch me cum, to enjoy the sight of her daughter in the most emotional and pleasurable state she could be in.

Usually when my orgasm comes it rises quickly and practically knocks me over with its intensity. This time it was more like a rising tide, slow but relentless and powerful. My mom's mouth was sucking on my clit when I felt a warmth emerge deep inside of me, not so much in my pussy as just inside of me with no particular place to describe it. It spread through me slowly, building in intensity as it did. Then my mom licked my clit once more time while she was holding it gently between her teeth and it was like she had lit the fuse to ignite whatever it was that had filled my body and I felt like I was on fire. It wasn't a painful feeling, but intense and powerful and incredibly pleasurable.

My hips rose as my back arched and I moaned long and loudly as the tide in me continued to rise. My pussy gushed cum onto her face but she didn't stop, licking my clit to make me cum even harder. She as merciless! Usually when I masturbate I will regulate how much I toy with my clit to maintain my orgasm as long as possible. As it starts to build to where I can't control it anymore I slow down and then go back to it when I feel it begin to subside. The result is usually a strong and lengthy orgasm that can last for quite a while.

In this case, my mom seemed determined to see how high she could take me, how crazy she could make me. I wanted to cry out to her to stop but I couldn't speak and even if I could I don't think I would have really wanted her to stop anyway.

Everything in the room went out of focus and it was like a camera flash had just gone off in front of me as I had to close my eyes yet even with them shut it was like looking into the sun. My arms were stretched out away from me, grabbing the bedding and pawing at the bed as if there was something there that I could hold on to as it felt like I was rising up off the bed. God it was incredible!

I have no idea how long I was in this state. Time seemed to stand still as I writhed under the seemingly relentless touch of her mouth and tongue. I cried out one minute and then moaned the next as it was like I had become some wild animal struggling for release, except in this case it was my lust and sex that was driving me. I couldn't take any more yet I didn't want it to ever end.

Unfortunately - or fortunately perhaps, my body must have some built-in limits and the room slowly came back in focus and the light in my eyes dimmed to where I once again see my mom clearly. She was still between my legs, her pretty face looking up at me and a huge smile on her face. She was just resting her face against the inside of my thigh, her hand gently stroking my pussy, running her fingers slowly up and down the edges of it. She wasn't touching my hole or clit, just running along the side on my skin almost absentmindedly as she watched me.

"Wow, that was some O," she said admiringly. I thought you were going to flip out on me!"

I reached out to her with both hands and she moved up alongside of me and we embraced, not just as mother and daughter but as the lovers we were at this moment. There was no other woman in the world I had ever felt this way about. All the other girls I had sex with, even my cousin, were for fun and enjoyment. I never once felt I was in any way their "lover" or anything like that. Even with my mom I was always her daughter except in rare and special moments like this, after an intense sexual experience where we shared one another in such a way that only a mother and daughter can understand. It was actually AFTER the sex that I felt like her lover, when we were together as we were now, bonded together through our mutual experience.

4. Can't Get Enough

I must have fallen asleep because next thing I knew I found myself in bed alone, stretched out on my side with the covers pulled over my nude body. I rubbed my eyes and pushed the covers down, swinging my legs over the edge of the bed and standing up. I quickly sat back down as I felt a little light-headed but it passed quickly and I went into my room which was empty as well. I pulled a t- shirt out of my dresser and slipped it over my head before heading down the stairs to see where my parents had disappeared to. The stairs in our house had always squeaked so by the time I reached the bottom and turned to the hallway towards the kitchen I saw my mom had turned from the sink and was smiling at me.

"Hey sleepy head!" she called to me with a smile. I looked around but my dad wasn't around so I hugged my mom and we kissed briefly.

"Love you mom," I said with my head buried in her shoulder. She was wearing a light cotton robe tied around the waist and I felt her pressing against me. Memories of what we had just done flashed through my head and my pussy ached despite the incredible sex it had been treated to so far today.

My mom gave me one last hung and said almost apologetically, "Well, we figured all you'd been through today we would stay home this evening so I ordered out a pizza. It should be here any minute so I was waiting around. Oh - your dad's downstairs watching TV I think."

I decided to wait with him so I went down the stairs to the basement where our family room was. My dad was in his usual place - his LazyBoy chair. They had their own and there was a couch where I usually hung out when we were all together. Rather than head there, though, I hopped onto his lap sideways with my legs hanging over the left side arm and my left arm wrapped around his neck. My t-shirt rode up to my waist leaving my pussy in full view but I knew he didn't mind that one bit! He was wearing a Steelers t-shirt and some old sweat pants - his favorite outfit when he was relaxing around the house. I reached down to the side of me and pressed my hand on his crotch. I loved the feel of the lump that was under his pants and I rubbed it slowly through the soft material.

"Damn girl, aren't you EVER satisfied?" my dad said, pretending to be exasperated with me.

father's cock stiffen, knowing it was because he was being turned on by his own daughter, made it even more special for me. As he got bigger his cock threatened to push out past the elastic of his pants and so I reached under it and touched his bare dick with my hand and resumed my stroking under his pants.

I glanced over my shoulder to check on my mom. She was watching her show but glancing over at us now and then. She looked over at me and our eyes met. She winked at me which made me grin. Today had been such a special day for me. It was rare I got to fuck both my parents in the same day, especially my mom since we reserved out times together for when it was something extra special. I grinned at her and turned my attention back to my dad. I put my head down on his shoulder and at that moment I was as happy as I think I had ever been in my life.

What more could I ask for? I was with my parents who loved each other, sitting on my dad's lap holding his hard cock in my hand. It was fine with me to just stay this way, secure in my dad's arms, holding him in this special way which told him I was available to him in any way he wanted me. Where it would lead to this evening only he knew but whether I just held him this way for the evening or allowed him to fuck me again and maybe even again, it was OK with me. I was finally home again for the summer. I was daddy's little girl once again and nothing could make me happier.

twenty years and neither one of them had ever sex with anyone outside their immediate families. They had always taught me that sex outside of marriage was adultery and thus a betrayal of your wedding vows, even if your spouse was OK with it. So when my dad did Beth right in front of me in our hot tub, fucking my best friend in the whole world, I was overwhelmed with conflicting emotions.

Overall I have to say that I was turned on, just as I am anytime I see my dad fucking someone. To see him doing my closest friend was incredibly hot. He and my mom rationalized it at the time by saying Beth was like another daughter to them having known her since she was born and me being so close to her. At the same time though it wasn't the same in that she wasn't really part of our family so I could not tell her that I had been having sex with my dad since I was sixteen. Thus while I got to watch him fucking her, she never witnessed anything sexual between us. Sure, not many fathers are naked with their daughters in a hot tub so that had to be a bit of an eye-opener for her, but that wasn't nearly the same as him having sex with me.

After that experience I wondered if now that the door had now been opened whether he (or my mom) would have sex with anyone else outside our family. Although I didn't know of anyone off-hand, I did notice that my dad seemed to take a particular interest when I started working as an escort.

At first I thought it was just fatherly concern since I knew he was worried about my personal safety, something he had always looked after for me. In talking to my mom though, I learned that he was tremendously horny after I would phone and tell him about my latest client. Mom even laughed when she told me that she loved it whenever I went out since she knew she was in for some great sex when I reported in afterwards!

It wasn't until almost the end of my sophomore year of college, though, that I learned just how far my father would go when it came to doing things with me. At the time he had some important clients in town who had quite a taste for women and it was up to my Dad as the senior partner to entertain them. He knew what their real intentions were regarding nightly entertainment. The problem he faced was that if he was with them they would expect that he would be involved so he was hesitant about hiring just any old hookers from the street. Instead I got a surprise phone call asking if I wanted to come home for the weekend to help him out at work.

As it turns out, "help" meant having me and my cousin Kristen serve as their entertainment for the evening. After dinner we went to a hotel suite and had quite a wild evening. My father had watched me fuck several of my boyfriends that I had brought home in the past (although most of the guys never knew) so it wasn't like it was the first time he had seen me with another man but this was entirely different.

What made it incredibly sexy and erotic for the both of us was he that he got to fuck me and my cousin for the first time with someone outside our family watching. Of course his clients had no idea who we really were. They thought that my cousin and I were just a couple of local whores that my dad had picked up for the evening. Both my dad and I were incredibly turned on when he fucked me in front of them, a father screwing his own daughter and they didn't even know it!

Afterwards when we were home we talked about that night and how we felt about doing something in similar in the future. I was surprised to learn that my Dad had a number of similar ideas and many of them were loosely based on my escorting experiences.

When I went returned to school I often masturbated as I dreamed of that night and then fantasize about what I might do in the future. Returning home for summer break I wondered when a new opportunity would arrive and it wasn't more than a couple of weeks that one did.

One night after work my dad came home and after we had some quick sex he explained to me that things had been really busy at the office lately and he wanted to reward a few of the guys who had put in some extraordinary efforts. Although he had given everyone bonuses after winning a huge settlement in some arcane business dispute, he thought that three of them deserved an extra-special prize and what could be better than to do the boss's daughter, especially if they thought he didn't know about it?

Having grown up knowing everyone who worked for him I asked who they were since odds were I had teased them at one time or another. When he told me I smiled because they were all great guys and so far I had never done anything with any of them. They varied in ages but all of them were married which made it all the more interesting for me. Actually I had not had sex with anyone in his office other than Don and that was almost five years ago.

I was well aware that I had quite the reputation for being a terrible tease in his office. I liked to come in dressed provocatively and then flirt with every guy in the office but other than a risque joke or comment on my clothes nobody had ever made a real move on me. I figured they were probably afraid to touch the boss's daughter! Well, now it was looking like at least some of them would have that very opportunity.

2. A Mouthful of an Alarm Clock

The day we had decided upon came finally and I had a terrible time falling asleep the night before as I fantasized about what might happen the next day. Finally I nodded off for what seemed like only minutes before I was awakened with the pleasing soft touch of my father's cock rubbing up against my cheeks. Damn, time to get up already? Oh well, at least I had the world's best alarm clock! I was too tired to even open my eyes so I just opened my mouth wide and immediately felt his fleshy cock slipping between my lips. He hadn't showered yet making the odor of his crotch pretty strong, just the way I liked it. I don't like dirty men but a little sweat and sex always made a good combination. There was also a lingering trace of another scent which I recognized as my mom's pussy – they must have had a good time last night!

I laid still as he did all of the work, stroking his cock in and out of my mouth like he was fucking it. I ran my tongue around his cock as it moved over it, at the same time making sure I didn't let my teeth hurt him. My dad's cock grew bigger and bigger as the blood rushed into it, making it feel warmer in my mouth as it filled him.

This was one of my favorite moments when giving a blowjob – when the cock was miraculously growing in my mouth. No matter how many cocks I may have sucked, I still got the same thrill I had with my very first one. It made me feel like the sexiest woman alive knowing that I was making it do this, that it transforming because it wanted me. Although not nearly the biggest cock I had ever had, my dad's was respectable and when he got fully erect it was hard for me to take all of him in. If I was the one controlling the BJ then I would get all but the last inch or so in my mouth after which I would take it slow and ease him down into my throat to get the final bit in until my mouth was pressing against the base of his shaft.

At times like now, when he was literally fucking my mouth, he would stroke about half of himself in and out which was easier for me to handle. I could tell from the forcefulness and speed of his strokes that he was getting close to cumming and his breathing was getting heavier and faster.

"That's it Kelly," he gasped, "let me fuck your mouth. Damn it feels soooooo good this morning."

While this morning started out with a blowjob, some mornings he would start by fucking me while on a few occasions he just masturbated as he watched me sleeping nude in bed in which case I would wake up with a face covered with cum. Other than the mess I was left to clean off, I liked that occasionally because it turned me on to picture my dad standing over me, stroking himself while he admired the daughter he loved while she slept. The dried cum on my face was a reminder of the love he had for me and I would play with myself as I dreamed of him jerking himself off and then directing streams of sperm on his daughter's face and body.

Mornings were for my dad in that they were my way of showing him my love each day. Depending on how much time we had, sometimes I would cum but my primary goal was to get him off at the very least. Even if I didn't cum (and often even when I did) I could always masturbate after he had left. I could tell this morning was going to be one of those times as he was going to be cumming any second now and I had not even started to play with myself.

Yes, my dad was ready to cum! God I loved this moment, when his erect cock would suddenly swell even more and that first drops of precum would emerge to tease me. Then a full load of cum would emerge from the tip of his cock and start to fill my mouth. The first load was almost always the biggest and it felt I had a garden hose in my mouth and someone suddenly turned on the water except in case the hose was a thick warm cock and the water was a bitter load of gooey cum.

My dad pulled my head into him and he held his cock still in my mouth as his hips involuntarily thrust forward to deposit his love into me. After the first couple of loads I could feel my cheeks filling and a bit of his cum started to leak past my lips and down the side of my face. With a shudder he gave me the last of it and he held my head to keep his cocking my mouth. He was breathing heavily from the exertion and I could smell his sweaty odor.

"Oh my god that felt good. I love you Kelly," he whispered to me.

Those last four words were what I had been waiting to hear from the first moment his cock awakened me. I craved my father's love and to hear him say he loved me was the sweetest music to my ears. It felt so good to be able to give him what he needed, to be the daughter he needed, to be the woman he needed. I sucked softly on his softening cock, swallowing his cum as I did.

Finally he released my head and I fell back onto my pillow, letting his now limp cock drop from my mouth. I eventually opened my eyes for the first time this morning and looked up at him, a loving smile on my face as I gazed at him with the adoration of a daughter for her father. He patted me softly on the heads and left to get ready for work.

3. Morning at the Office

Normally at this time I would get up for a little while, check my e-mail and sometimes even chat bit. It felt erotic to chat with friends and strangers after having just fucked my father. This is one of the few times I would chat nude and often I would play with my clit if the person I was chatting with jerked off on his cam for me. Mornings are my most naturally horny time and although cyber is not normally one of my favorite things to do, sitting there with my dad's cum either in my mouth or pussy lent a different perspective.

This morning there wasn't time for more playing as I knew I had to get ready so I could go with my dad to work. I knew he always shaved first so I followed him into the bathroom and jumped into the shower and hurriedly cleaned myself off, trying not to get my hair wet. I finished my shower just as he was through shaving so we changed places to let him shower while I dried off and brushed my teeth. I grinned in the mirror as I wondered whether cum was a good mouthwash.

We both went to our bedrooms to get dressed. I fixed my hair and makeup and then chose an outfit that appeared to be a bit more conservative than what I typically wore for a day at his office. The skirt was the longest one I owned that wasn't floor length and it came almost to my knees. A gift from a well- meaning relative, it was a simple dark blue skirt, nothing special or fancy, and I had never worn it until now. A plain white button-up blouse with short sleeves contrasted nicely with the skirt.

Underneath I selected a simple matching bra and panties. Pure black and silky, the bra was just visible under the white material of my blouse such that a person had to be looking for it to knew it was there. The panties were skimpy but more closely related to the ones I wore as a child than to a thong. I selected a dark pair of shoes with about a two inch heel, not enough to overwhelm the outfit but just right to tone up the muscles in my legs. My hair, well it was as it was. I just combed it out and let it fall to my shoulders and gave up. A little makeup and a dash of perfume and I was ready.

I turned off the lights and hurried downstairs where my dad was impatiently waiting. "Let's go my little slut! We're running late and we both have a big day ahead of us."

I loved it when he called me that. It was reassuring to know that my dad loved me enough to want me for himself yet had the confidence in me to allow me to have fun on my own. I think he loved knowing that no matter how many other guys I sucked and fucked that he was the one I came home to. I was not just a little slut, I was HIS little slut.

We got in his SUV and he drove downtown, maneuvering through the heavy tunnel traffic that never seemed to go away. I hate driving in Pittsburgh and I prefer to use PAT and T whenever possible (buses and light train). Eventually we made it and he parked in the space reserved for him. The lights flashed and horn beeped as he locked it behind us and we joined the morning foot traffic into the building and took the elevator to his floor. When arrived in the reception area his executive secretary greeted me and commented on my outfit, saying how good I looked this morning.

Mrs. Ulrich (I've known her most of my life and have always called her that)) was your stereotypical church lady. Dad put up with her BS because she was a damn good executive secretary who knew where all the bones were buried, so to speak. My dad has his own personal secretary, Margerie, who took care of his admin and appointments but the was no disputing that Mrs. Ulrich ruled the office. She had never approved of the way I dressed and flirted around the office so I knew this nice comments was really a back-handed way of saying she didn't like my other outfits.

Oh well, I'd learned long ago to ignore Mrs. Ulrich. The opinions of people as closed-minded and self-important as her had little impact on me. I just give her a polite thank-you as we went to my dad's office where he took his papers out of his briefcase while I sat back and relaxed on the black leather couch. It was like everyone knew when he got to work as immediately his phone began to ring and he was lost in the demands of his work.

I was still a bit tired and it was tempting to just lay back on the couch and take a nap but instead I went out and walked over to the mail room where I knew there would be large pile of paper to file from the work the guys had been doing over the weekend.

As I made my way through the office I stopped and said hello to everyone. Although I'd never actually done anything with anyone in the office (other than a one-time thing almost five years ago that took place away from the office anyway) I knew that had a well-deserved reputation for being a shameless flirt.

My cousin Kristen also made an appearance now and then and if anything she was even worse than I was! No doubt most of the office assumed I was a total slut which I did nothing to dissuade. Although my dad and I had sex many times in his office, we always made sure the door was locked and outside the office he never laid a hand on me even so despite whatever they might think of my personal affairs, I doubted anyone even thought for a moment that we might be doing anything so naughty as having incestual sex right under everyone's noses!

As I'd assumed, the mail room was full from the weekend work. One thing about being in a high-power corporate legal office, it was never just five days week. Most weekends found my dad either in the office or working at home. At least with the new networks he had installed he was now able to work at home most of the time. Still, it was rare that he got a weekend off and things like two-week family vacations were things other families did.

Lately there had been a big case and several of the lawyers had been spending even more time than usual and now that it was over after a huge verdict in favor of my dad's client, my dad had given them some hefty bonuses so everyone was feeling pretty good. The three guys I was going to be seeing today had been instrumental in winning the case so my dad wanted to give them a "special" bonus as well.

What I had planned wasn't really wasn't as far-fetched as someone might think. I have never met a man yet who didn't want me. The only difference was what they did about it. A lifetime of cultural conditioning kept most men in line but that couldn't stop them from dreaming. The guys I was going to be with today were all married and so far as my dad knew, had never cheated. That could mean one of several things: they were truly faithful, had never had the opportunity, or just had never been caught!

All that I was going to do was to make sure that for at least one time in their lives they had the opportunity. What they did with it would be up to them. If they were faithful then I expected they would be flattered at my offer but turn me away. On the other hand, if it was indeed true that the right opportunity had never come up, then what was wrong with letting them realize their long-time fantasy safely and discretely?

The real quandary was how I was going to present them with their "opportunity". On one hand my dad wanted them to know how much he appreciated their work yet on the other hand he couldn't come right out and hand me over saying "For all your work, here's my daughter, now go fuck her." I'd thought about it long and hard and had what I thought was a good solution ready to go. Now it was time to put my plan in action.

4. Martin's Reward for a Newlywed

The first guy eligible for my "reward" was Martin. He was thirty and was recently married to a gorgeous gal. Martin was the office stud and I'd always secretly hoped that one day he might make a pass at me until he went and got himself married. As the "most eligible bachelor" in the office, he was my favorite target as I flirted in the office. I gave him all the classic moves, bending over for a dropped file to give him a peek under my skirt, leaning over his desk so he could see down my blouse, and rubbing up against him whenever I stood next to him. I had to give Martin credit in that he wasn't afraid to respond in kind. He would look where I intended and then wink at me as if to thank me yet at the same time let me know he knew it was all a game. Well, today the game was going to get serious.

It was about 9:30 AM and everyone had pretty much settled in for a Monday after the usual chatter about the weekend and weather. I waited until Martin was alone in his office, undid a couple of buttons on my blouse, and then went in with an armful of files I'd been saving up for him. He was seated at his desk and was working at his computer when I laid the pile on his desk.

Martin looked up at me and smiled pleasantly saying, "Oh hi Kelly, nice to see you here today. How was school?"

"Oh it was great Martin," I replied.

The last thing I wanted to do was get lost in a discussion about school so I changed the subject saying, "Dad told me that you guys have been working really hard lately."

Martin sighed, "Yea, it was pretty grueling for a while but we did it." Then his expression turned to more serious and he got a look of satisfaction on his face. Leaning back in his chair with his hands behind his head, he had this smirk on his face as he said, "They underestimated us and we took the bastards for everything they had."

I leaned over the desk which letting my loose blouse open up for him to get a clear view of my bra and cleavage. "Well, I've never underestimated you."

Then I winked at him and kept going before he could say anything to sidetrack me. "I wanted to thank you personally. My dad says if it wasn't for you he would have lost the case. Now he said I might get the car I've been wanting and it's all thanks to you."

Martin shook his head but I noticed his eyes were fixed on my chest as they always were when I flirted with him. "Naaaaa, I was just part of the team, Kelly. Everyone put in a great effort."

Ignoring him, I leaned back and walked slowly over to close the office door. Then I moved around the desk over to his chair where I sat on the desk with one leg on the floor and the other lifted up on the desk, letting my skirt ride up to show more of my leg - a lot more. When I started to unbutton the rest of my blouse Martin's eye widened and he stammered just a bit at first.

"Uh Kelly, just what do you think you are doing?" he asked softly, as if he didn't already know.

I smiled seductively at him, "Just trying to show you my appreciation Martin. C'mon now, I've seen the way you've looked at me in the past. You can't tell me you don't want any of this."

My blouse was completely unbuttoned now and I slowly took it off, sitting there on his desk with my white bra still on. Martin just sat there, frozen in place with his hands on the arms of his chair looking stunned. He wasn't reaching for me but at the same time he wasn't doing anything to stop me either which I took as a signal to keep going.

I unzipped the side of my skirt and slipped it down to my knees where I let it slide to the floor leaving me in nothing but my underwear and heels. I put one finger to my lips and gave him a saucy look saying, "So tell me Martin, what do you think? Is this a good reward or not?"

He kept staring at me but I could see his breathing had quickened and he shifted in his seat, my guess was to make room for an expanding dick. His hands were now clenching the arms of his chair tightly as his eyes roamed up and down my semi- nude body. He was struggling and I knew it was just a matter of time now but I didn't dare push too hard. He had to work this out for himself and make the decision if it was to work out the way I wanted.

"Damn Kelly, I haven't been married even a year yet! I can't do this. I can't cheat on Nancy," he said but the tone in his voice lacked any conviction and the look in eyes was saying something entirely different than his mouth was.

A smile came to my lips as I knew he was mine now. There was nothing that he could do to stop what was going to happen; nor would he want to if he could.

"Don't worry about her now Martin," I whispered as I moved my panties to one side to reveal to him my baby smooth pussy, "Just sit back... enjoy yourself... you know what you want so just do it."

I started to play with myself, running my finger up down my pussy slit through my panties, getting them wetter and wetter as felt myself getting warmer and more swollen. I rubbed over my sensitive clit and shuddered as it delivered a jolt through me like an electric shock. God I loved to be watched by a man when I touched myself, knowing he wants me and is getting hornier by the minute as he gazes at me while I masturbate for him.

I slid my panties to the side and let him see my shaved cunt. Sliding my finger down, I slipped it in me and pushed it in as far as I could. I was good and wet now so it slid in easily and I stroked myself as slowly as I could stand it.

It was time to make my next move for Martin. I pulled my pussy wetted finger out and pressed it to his lips. I was pleased when they parted slightly, letting me slip my finger in allowing him to taste me. He sucked softly on my finger as I stood up and moved between his legs. He was hooked now so I reached down and undid hid belt and then unzipped his pants. He responded by pulling his pants and underwear down together to his ankles. I looked down and saw he had a good- looking cock, hard as a rock now and pointing up like a rocket ready to launch.

I climbed up on his chair, straddling him with my knees such that his cock was poised directly under my wet pussy. Our eyes locked with his just inches from my face. He was looking so intense, almost as if he was trying to drill right through me. I reached down and touched his cock for the first time, putting my hand around it and gripping it. I started to lower myself down onto him and just as the tip of his head grazed my pussy he grabbed my hips his with his hands and held me in place.

"I can't let you do this," he said in a low voice, "It's not just my wife, I could never look your dad in the eye again Kelly. Trust me, I would love to do this but I just can't."

I smiled and kissed him softly on the lips. I leaned back and smiled at him saying, "Don't worry Martin, it's OK." I didn't do anything though, I just stayed where I was, waiting for him to make the next move.

It seemed like hours but it could only have been a few seconds when he let out a long breath and whispered, maybe to himself more than to me, "Oh fuck it!"

I put my mouth to his ear and whispered the words that had never failed me, those two words that I knew every man wanted to hear me say to him. Those words I knew Martin was hoping to hear more than anything else.

"Fuck me," I whispered in a husky voice, I didn't say another word, just letting him ponder what I had just said.

His grip on me released, telling me more than entire speech could ever do. I lowered myself down and this time there was no resistance from the hands that were still on my bare hips. I felt the tip of his cock pressing against my pussy and I pressed myself down onto it, forcing my pussy lips to part for the intruder trying to violate me. I moaned softly as I continued to sit down on him, driving his hard dick into me, deeper and deeper. Finally I had it all in me and I could feel his thighs under my bare ass.

I still had my panties on but they were slid over to let his cock by. My arms were around his neck as his hands pushed me down hard onto his lap as my pussy felt itself tickled by the bush of hair surround the base of his cock. He groaned with his pent up as he buried his face in between my breasts. Then he leaned his head back and let out yet another groan.

"Oh fuck Kelly, your pussy is so damn tight. Shit! You have no idea how many times I've dreamed about how it would feel around my dick."

I didn't say a word, instead I just started fucking his cock with my pussy, rising up and down to let him stroke in and out of me like a warm steel rod. I never had a chance to cum after sucking my dad off earlier and I needed to badly.

Fucking Martin in his office with the rest of the staff just outside the door was incredibly erotic and it wasn't long before I got what I needed - a raging orgasm. My pussy involuntarily clamped down on his cock like a vise as I gasped from the sheer pleasure I was feeling throughout every inch of my body. My breasts tingled and my nipple stood out like bullets as my pussy creamed over the fleshy pole imbedded in it. I closed my eyes and leaned my head back, moaning softly as I enjoyed the moment.

I loved my orgasms and only wished the ecstasy I felt could go on forever. Of course it couldn't and gradually the fire in me ebbed and my cunt released the iron grip on his poor cock. I resumed my humping, wanting to make him cum in me. I knew he couldn't last much longer and sure enough it was only a few minutes before he was ready.

"Oh god Kelly, get off so I can cum," he begged.

I shook my head violently and ground my pussy even harder on his cock, twisting around it while he was buried deep inside of me. "Cum inside of me Martin, let me feel your cum in me."

"Oh fuck," he blurted out, "Can't stop... gonna cum... oh my god!"

I felt it then, a bloom of heat like a fireworks had just been set off deep inside of my lower abdomen. His hips bucked underneath me as he drove his cum deeper into me. I could feel it shooting out of his cock, streams of his adulterous sperm pouring into me and filling my pussy.

He came in me several times before I could feel him sagging under me, as if the lust that had filled him had been transferred to my pussy with his cum. It was always amazing to me how a man changed when he came, how he could suddenly shift from an animal-like fucking machine to a wet rag that sometimes just wanted to fall asleep which I was ready for so much more.

God it could be so frustrating! I can't say how many times I found myself masturbating next a sleeping man after we had fucked, needing so much more than he was able to give me. In this case it was more than just him being spent, it was like somehow Martin suddenly realized what his desire for me had blinded him to before, where we were and what we'd just done. He looked at me with what was almost panic in his face.

"Oh fuck," he hissed, "What the hell am I doing? You've got to go Kelly. I can't believe this!"

I still had his cock in me and I wasn't ready to let go of it quite that quickly so I sat down hard on him and softly responded saying, "It's OK Martin, I wanted it just as much as you."

Then I got up, feeling his softening cock slip out of me leaving my pussy feeling empty and hungry. We both dressed and then he took me in his arms and kissed me for the first and what I knew would be the last time.

"Thank you Kelly, I really did appreciate it." Then he looked more serious and continued, "But this is not something we can ever do again, you understand?"

I just looked at him and for just a fleeting moment wondered if I had done something wrong. Had I possibly crossed a line somehow that even I knew better than to? Was it right to tempt such a decent man who truly loved his wife the way I had? How was he going to feel tonight when he went home to his bride whom he loved more than anything? Then I felt his cum seeping from my pussy as I stood there in his arms and I didn't regret it for another second afterwards. After all, it was just sex and we had both enjoyed it. I had fulfilled his fantasy and given him an experience he would never forget. I wasn't his lover nor did I want to be. I had come into his office for one purpose and one only - to fuck him once, enjoy it, and walk away. Well, I was just one step from having accomplished exactly that so I pulled myself from his arms, turned and walked out of his office without looking back.

One down, two to go…

5. Stewart's Reward Helps a Mid-Life Crisis

Leaving Martin's office. I went to the restroom to straighten up a bit. As I walked in Mrs. Ulrich was just coming out. She peered down at me with narrowed eyes and pursed lips. I wondered just for a moment if she knew why my hair was tousled and my face flushed but if she did she didn't say a word.

I sat on the toilet and used some toilet paper to wipe the cum that was leaking from my pussy. My panties were soaking wet and cum stained in the crotch. I knew I couldn't wear them for my next "appointment" so I bunched them up and slipped them in my purse. With this ridiculously long skirt nobody would know the difference anyway.

I checked myself out in the mirror and saw just how flushed my face really was. It always did that when I had an orgasm and I knew if I could see the rest of me that my upper chest was looking the same way. I decided to stay in the restroom for a little bit and unwind on the couch to let it die down a little before someone wondered what was wrong with me.

It took a good twenty minutes before I felt comfortable leaving and when I came out Martin just happened to be walking past. He looked at me and blushed a little bit but I was pleased when he smiled at me so I returned my own smile along with a mischievous wink. He shook his head as if to tell me to be careful but a mischievous smile was on his face as he continued on to wherever he was heading.

As for me, I made my way to Stewart's office, the next guy on my "reward" list. Stewart was 35 years old. Married early while still in college, he had a clan of four boys ranging from four to thirteen years old. Stewart was at that stage in life where things at home were sometimes overwhelming and he escaped to what must have been quite the fantasy life. I deduced all this from the ease at which he would go hard whenever I teased him and from the off-hand comments he made about life at home.

Looking around to be sure nobody was watching, I slipped into Stewart's office and shut the door quietly behind me. Stewart was on the phone, standing up and facing the window as he talked to a client. He didn't hear me enter so when he turned around he jumped just a little, obviously surprised to see me sitting in one of the chairs facing his desk with my legs crossed and blouse unbuttoned one button too many. His eyebrows raised as he looked at me while he finished up his conversation and I sat there quietly with my legs crossed such that my skirt was pulled up enough to expose most of my legs but not enough for him to know I was no longer wearing any panties. Finally he hung up the phone and walked around the desk where he leaned back against it while facing me.

"Well Miss Wells," he intoned as if he was questioning me in a courtroom docket, "Tell me for what I have the pleasure our your presence this morning?"

Damn, he was really being formal! For a moment I wondered if this was going to work and I guess I must have allowed my face to betray my self-doubt more than I thought because suddenly he bent over laughing and then straightened up with a devilish grin on his face.

"Oh come now Kelly, you know better than to let ol' Stewart pull your leg - pretty as they may be. But really, is there something you need? Hmmmmmm, I could think of a few things."

Wow! This was a more risque Stewart than I had seen before. I loved to tease him because he was so easy and although in the past he would let me have my fun he had never responded back to me. In an instant I threw out the conservative game plan I had prepared for him and decided to take an entirely new approach. There was a bit more danger in what I was going to do but it would be worth it if everything worked out. I uncrossed my legs slowly, then stood up and moved up close to him, by boobs pressing against his chest. Looking up into his face I reached down and put my hand on his crotch, taking a firm grip of what I could of him through his slacks.

"Well, what does this tell you?" I asked in a soft voice, licking my lips seductively. "Anything you were thinking of?"

Stewart quickly reached down and pushed my hand away from him. "Whoa girl, I was just teasing. Ahhhhhh, just what is going on here?"

I explained to him as I had to Martin about how I appreciated what he had done for my dad and how I wanted to show him my appreciation in the best way I knew how. I had to admit I was surprised at his response. I had expected at least a little disbelief, a little resistance although I knew I could overcome whatever objections he might raise. Instead, to my utter disbelief Stewart put his hands on my shoulders and gripped me tightly.

"Kelly, you've been the biggest tease in the world here the past few years. I can take that but if you really want it then damn it no more teasing, on your knees you little bitch and get busy." He pushed me down to my knees and unbuckled his pants. I stared at his crotch as he pulled out his cock and held it up to my mouth.

"Suck it," he demanded.

So much for not only Plan A, Plan B or any other plan I could have dreamed up beforehand. This was coming right out of left field in that I had NEVER expected such a response from him. I guess my teasing must have been even worse than I had imagined!

Oh well, I wasn't about to complain so I opened my mouth and let him push his soft cock into it. It was pretty small and I easily sucked on the entire thing while playing my tongue over him. He still had his pants up and his cock was poking through his boxer shorts so I couldn't really see his crotch but I could smell the musky odor that made a male crotch so alluring for me. The blood vessels in his cock were throbbing as the blood poured into it, hardening it as well as heating it as I sucked on him relentlessly. It quickly grew and I was impressed at how much it expanded from its original size as it filled my mouth more and more with each passing minute.

"That's it you little cock tease, it's time to pay up for all those nights I had to spend alone thinking about you after you spent the day here," he said as he grabbed my hair in his hands.

He used his grip on my hair to move my head such that his cock moved in and out of my mouth. "C'mon you fucking whore, suck my cock harder. That's it... take it all in your mouth."

I couldn't say anything with my mouth full of cock but I grunted to try to show him I'd heard him and was doing the best I could. Eventually he was totally erect and he felt so big in my mouth as it had become thick enough that my hand barely fit around the base of it. There was no licking the shaft or sucking his balls; all he wanted was to fuck my mouth and after having done that for a while he was ready to fuck another opening in my body, namely my pussy.

He stepped back to let his cock drop from my mouth and picked me up roughly by my shoulders. Spinning me around, he bent me over until my hands were on the chair such that I was bent over in front of him. He pulled up my skirt and if he was surprised that I wasn't wearing anything underneath he never said a word about it. Instead without saying a word he spread my butt cheeks apart and pushed his cock into my pussy without any foreplay or fanfare. I gasped as he violently shoved his penis in me, pushing it in to the hilt in one fast and hard motion.

"Take my dick bitch," he said in an authoritarian tone, leaving no doubt I was going to take it now no matter what I said.

Well, I had asked for this and now that he was giving it to me so how could I complain? Admittedly I usually preferred a softer approach when someone first fucked me but there was something animal-like in what he was doing that turned me on. I was still stunned in the transformation that he had made, as much by the speed of it as the nature.

Later when I looked back at it the only thing I could figure out was that he must have fantasized about just such a situation and when it presented itself in real life he just fell into that fantasy world he had created. In a way it made everything even better since he must have really wanted it this way and I was able to make it come true for him.

Stewart was obviously thinking only of his own pleasure because he made no effort whatsoever to do anything for me other than fuck me. No touching, no foreplay, not even any words to show me how he felt about me. I leaned on the chair in front of me, trying to keep my balance as he slammed his crotch into my ass as his cock stroked in and out of me faster and faster. Just when I thought he was in as deep as he could get, he spread my ass further apart and his thrusts became even harder as somehow he drove himself even deeper into me. He never said another word as he fucked me nor did he try to touch me other than to grab my waist.

Stewart kept pounding me and I began to wonder if he was ever going to cum. Although the situation was completely different from anything I could have ever imagined, I found it not to be as enjoyable as I had hoped. He could have been fucking a plastic doll for all the attention he was showing me. OK, so I DID enjoy being fucked but other than that it was rather mechanical for me and while thank god my pussy stayed wet, I didn't feel anywhere close to an orgasm.

The experience must have been more thrilling for him though because suddenly he pulled out of me and started to stroke himself until he came, squirting all over my ass. I could feel each shot hitting me as he covered my ass with his slimy cum. Then he used his cock to spread it around my ass, leaving a layer of cum over almost all of it by the time he was done. Finally he stepped back, tucked his cock back into his pants and snapped them back together again. As he zipped himself up he slapped me on the side of my butt.

"Damn Kelly, you have no idea how many times I wanted to do this to you when you would run around here in your short skirts or tight jeans, flirting with all of us but never putting out. Not that I didn't appreciate it but get out of here you fucking slut before someone wonders what is going on in here."

Two down, one to go…

6. Lunch Break With Dad

I hurried to the girl's restroom once again, passing by Mrs. Ulrich's desk in the process. I wondered if she had seen me leave Stewart's office but her face had on its usual inscrutable mask. Damn, did the woman have ANY emotions?

I didn't pause to give her an opportunity to say anything but instead went straight to the restroom again. When I got in there I went in a stall and once again used the toilet paper to clean up, except this time to wipe Stewart's cum off my ass. I took off my skirt and tried to wipe off what I could before it soaked in any further. I smiled as I thought that Monika Lewinsky had nothing on me when it came to cum-stained clothes!

Having not cum this time I didn't have the deep flush like I had the previous trip to the restroom so I was ready to leave in a few minutes after I fixed my hair and makeup. It was a good thing I had not done anything special to my hair or it would have been a real pain in the ass to have dealt with it.

When I came out I saw on the wall clock that it was lunch time which explained everyone was evacuating the office. I went to my dad's office and he asked me if I wanted to out for lunch with him. Naturally I did so he took my hand and we went down to the street to a local cafe. We found a booth and settled in as the waitress took our order. My dad looked at me with an inquisitive eye and I smiled like the Cheshire cat in return.

"Well babe, how has your morning been? I haven't seen you around much so I assume you've been busy?"

In a low voice I told him about my adventures so far. When I described Martin he just nodded as I think that went about as both of us had expected. It was when I told him about Stewart's response that his eyebrows rose and eyes sparkled.

"Damn," he muttered, "I would never have guessed he would have the balls to do anything like that. Goes to show you can know someone for years and not really know everything about them."

I reached into my purse and pulled out my bunched-up panties and handed them to him in a small ball to keep anyone from seeing what they were. He set them on the seat next to him away from the aisle and unfolded them. They were still wet from my pussy and Martin's cum. Dad smiled when he looked at them and then returned them to me.

"Looks like you have some laundry to do," he said with a devilish grin. "So are you ready for your final assignment?"

I didn't say anything but my wide grin was more than enough to express my feelings. We finished our lunch and returned to the office. I spent the first hour doing some copying for Mrs. Ulrich and sorting the mail that had arrived just after lunch. The mail was the key to initiate my last "reward" and I was pleased to see there was plenty of it addressed for Phil.

7. Phil's Reward, Never Too Old to Cheat

At 48, Phil was one of the oldest guys at the office. Married to the same woman for almost thirty years, he'd gone back to earn his law degree after working for years as a law clerk and had finally passed the bar when he was 41. He had two daughters that were married and lived a long ways away so he and his wife were classic empty-nesters. Twice a grandfather, Phil seemed resigned more than anything else to the boring life he had led for most of his life. He was still a guy though, which meant he had a cock that told him what to do.

I had caught Phil more the a few times taking in the view when I would bend over with short skirt but he never made so much as the slightest hint of a move towards me. I had left Phil for last because I knew he was probably going to be the most interesting of the three as well as the one that would likely take the most time. Well, I had all afternoon...

Gathering his mail, I waited until his office was clear and walked in. He was reading a thick document and must have been deep in thought as he never even looked up as I walked in. As one of the most senior lawyers, he had a rather luxurious office with a bar and even a small private restroom. The view from his office was similar to my dad's, overlooking the city and river far below.

I dropped the mail in the in-box on his desk and walked over to look outside through the glass that was the height of the wall. It was easy to feel a sense of vertigo at first when you looked down to the street so far below but I was used to it by now. I'd been assured that the glass was strong enough for me to bounce off it without any worry but I never felt comfortable even leaning against it.

"Oh hi Kelly," Phil said as he finally acknowledge my presence. He peered over his reading glasses and gave me the once-over saying, "Nice day out there today isn't it?"

I turned to look at him saying, "Yeah, I never get tired of looking out over the city from here. I love Pittsburgh. I really miss it when I'm away at school."

We went on with this small talk for maybe five to ten minutes. Phil was just being nice to me and as we went on I could see him glancing back at the papers on his desk, obviously anxious to get back to work but not wanting to be rude to me. He was probably wondering what I was doing since I had never spent his much time in his office before, at least without a prearranged reason like sorting files.

As the conversation began to drag on I knew I had better make a move soon or else my whole plan would just die a natural death. Actually it already had since he was busier than I had hoped he would be. He was suppose to have come over to the window by me where I could seduce him but so much for that plan! Then I saw a picture of his oldest daughter with her new baby on his desk so I went over to pick it up and look at it as I stalled for time. Suddenly an inspiration struck me and I knew exactly what to do...

"So Phil, how does it feel to be a grandpa?" I asked him.

"Well Kelly, actually that's my second grandchild so I've had some time to get use to the idea," he answered. "Although I will admit being married to a grandmother is still hard to accept!"

I laughed at the old joke. "Cool," I answered, "You don't seem old enough to be a grandfather though."

Phil laughed softly. "Trust me Kelly, I FEEL old enough these days. Can't even see these days without these damn glasses. Seems like I started falling apart once I went past 40."

I put the picture back down and went over to his couch where I sat down and then swiveled my legs up onto the couch. My skirt slid down to reveal most of my legs and I made no effort to push it back down. I smiled seductively at him and said, "Oh Phil, you're being too hard on yourself. You look great - for a man your age." It was a very calculated remark. I wanted to tease him and put him at ease yet at the same time not go too far and make him feel embarrassed."

Then I shifted the subject in the direction I wanted to go saying, "My dad was just telling me over lunch about how hard you've been working lately. Guess you haven't had much time to see your new granddaughter."

"No," he said ruefully, "Actually I haven't had much time for much of anything at home lately it seems."

Perfect. Plus the tone of his voice told me there was more there than he was saying. I also saw that he had not failed to notice my skirt sliding further down as his gaze kept moving to my legs and then back to my eyes again.

"Oh? Is everything OK at home Stewart?" I asked in a soft voice.

"Not really but then I really shouldn't be complaining to you Kelly," he said ruefully.

"Nonsense," I replied, "After all it's my dad that you have been working so hard for which means I benefit from your efforts. I feel like I owe you something for all the sacrifices you have made."

Phil shook his head at me saying, "Oh no Kelly, you don't need to feel that way. Besides, there's nothing you can do about it anyway."

I turned on my side and stretched out on his couch. My skirt was already riding up and I pulled it up even more so part of my ass was showing. Phil stared at me as if he couldn't believe what he was seeing. I gave him my sluttiest smile and tossed my hair back saying, "Well Phil, if you shut your door then just maybe I can prove you wrong about that."

Phil just stared at me, not saying another word. His face was expressionless and I realized why he was such a great lawyer in court as I couldn't read anything from his face. He seemed to be pondering what I just said, weighing the pros and cons of whatever he did next, and finally he must have come to a conclusion because he got up from his desk and quietly closed the office door. He made a statement of it by turning the latch, locking the door with a distinctive "click". He went back to his desk and leaned back on it, his eyes never leaving once moving away from me.

"Ok, the door is shut - AND locked. Now what?" he asked although I knew he was smart enough to know damn well what was coming next. I laid on my back and pulled up my skirt to reveal my bare pussy. Putting my hand over it, I started to rub it slowly.

"See Phil, I told you there was something I could do about your problems."

Phil stood there watching me. "Well, from what I can see you certainly can but on the other hand something like this could also make them a hell of a lot worse if anyone finds out!"

I pushed a finger into my wet my pussy and began to fuck myself, slowly humping my hips up and down, just enough to simulate someone fucking me. "Well then, I guess you had better get moving Stewart before someone does. C'mon over here and let me help you."

Phil may have been a faithful husband and loving father but even the best of them are vulnerable when the stress builds and they get horny enough which is exactly where he was in his life. All he needed was a match to light his fuse and then the fireworks would start! Well, I think I had his fuse lit and now it was time to wait and see what happened next.

Phil moved over to the end of the couch where he had a great view straight of my pussy so I opened my legs wide for him so he could see me even better as I masturbated. He wasn't satisfied watching though. Moving down the couch, he put his head between my legs and started to lick my pussy with his tongue. I moved my hand out of the way and let him go for it! He obviously was quite experienced as his technique was flawless and he had me cumming before I knew it.

I held back a nasty grin as I wondered what he would have said had he known two of his colleagues had been fucking the same pussy he was licking and that the pussy cum gushing out of me as my orgasm swelled was laced with their sperm? I squeezed my boobs though my blouse and bra as he kept sucking my clit, making my orgasm grow in intensity until it was I could do to keep from screaming out with pleasure. He looked up at me from between my soft thighs, his face glistening with my wetness. He reached up and unbuttoned my blouse and then lifted my bra up over my boobs. My nipples stood out like two bullets as he licked them and then gently pulled on them with his teeth making my breasts feel like two hot coals on my chest.

"Oh my god Phil," I moaned, "That feels soooooo good!"

Phil kept sucking on my breasts with the intensity of a starving newborn. At the same time I could feel him fumbling with his pants, pulling them down until finally his cock was freed. I reached down and helped guide him to my pussy where it easily slipped into me after the incredible orgasm he had just given me. It helped also that Stewart was not exactly a candidate for any porn movies. His dick was one of the smallest I had seen on a man other than some teenage boys I had been with and even they would have given him a run for their money. At the moment though what mattered to me was that it was a cock and that it was in me where it belonged. Stewart was evidently as pleased as I was with the current situation.

"Oh lord, it's been so fucking long," he said between gasps, "so long..."

"That's it, fuck me Phil," I said to him, "fuck me like you've always wanted To fuck me."

Phil's little cock was doing a magnificent job. He stroked it in and out of my pussy as far as possible, pulling out until the head was just about to slip out and then pushing it back in until the base of his crotch pressed against my pussy and stimulated my clit. A few times he went just a bit too far and it actually did fall out and then when he would thrust forward instead of pushing back into me it would slide up my slippery pussy slit which meant the length of his little cock would pass over my clit, making me cry out despite my attempts to keep quiet.

I reached down and rubbed my sensitive clit as he fucked me, quickly bringing myself to yet another orgasm. He held his cock in me as he felt my pussy grip him tightly and my cunt creamed over his cock. I closed my eyes and rubbed my clit furiously, driving myself further and further into the world of pure pleasure I could enter only at this time, only when my entire body was on fire.

This was when all reality slipped away and time seemed to stand still. I squeezed my breasts with my other hand and it was like someone was touching them with a branding iron while my pussy contracted and pulsed around the fleshy pole that was imbedded in it. My back arched up and I lifted my hips up against him, trying to pull his cock deeper into me but I was already impaled completely by him.

"Ohhhhhhhhh," I moaned as suddenly another wave of unbelievable pleasure originated in my cunt and then radiated through my entire body like a sun suddenly going nova.

"Oh... my... God!" I cried out, not carrying who heard me (although thankfully this was a legal office so the doors were pretty good at muffling sound).

It was by far the best orgasm of the day and I never wanted it to end. My fingers, guided by years of experience, manipulated my clit, instinctively rubbing it and playing with it in just the right way to maintain me at the peak of my orgasm. Just as I was afraid it was about to subside Phil pulled back and then rammed his cock into me again which was exactly what I needed at that moment and once again I cried out and another surge of pleasure enveloped me like a wave crashing onto me as I lay on the beach. God it was incredible!!

My pussy loosened its grip on Phil and he began to pump me hard and fast. I was still feeling the aftereffects of my tremendous orgasm when he pulled out and stood next to the couch, rubbing his wet organ above my face. I looked up and saw it hovering over my mouth, all wet and purple with lust, ready to explode at any second. I opened my mouth just as he came, squirting his hot cum over my face, hitting my tongue and throat. He kept stroking himself, milking his cock to draw all the cum from him.

I could taste the bitterness of his warm gooey sperm in my mouth and felt it running down the side of my face and into my hair.

Phil dipped his cock into my mouth and I sucked the remaining cum from him making him groan from the sensations he was getting as my mouth caressed his cock like a pussy with a tongue. Finally I let him slip from my mouth and I laid back, totally exhausted with my pussy throbbing. I couldn't move, trying to catch my breath with my eyes closed. I heard Stewart dressing himself and moving about the room and eventually he was back at my side.

"Kelly," he said softy, "you need to get yourself back together or people will start wondering why my office door is still closed."

He was right of course, but that didn't make it any easier for me to move. I felt totally drained yet somehow I worked up the energy to sit up. My face was covered with his cum and he handed me a box of tissues which I used to wipe it from my face. I licked my lips and savored the aftertaste of his sperm in my mouth. My pussy felt so hot and my clit was still swollen and sensitive and just sitting up and rubbing my legs together was enough to make me shudder. It really didn't take much to get myself presentable again since nothing had been taken off.

I dropped my skirt back down and pulled my bra back down over my breasts which felt as good as anything. I realized it was faster to just slip it up over my boobs but it was a lot more comfortable to unsnap it first! Buttoning my blouse, I looked in the mirror over the bar and straightened my hair out as best I could. Stewart moved up behind me as I was combing it out and put his hands on my shoulders.

"Thank you Kelly, that was absolutely incredible!" he whispered in my ear.

I leaned back against him. "Mmmmmmm, I enjoyed it too Phil. God you made me cum so hard!"

He seemed to hesitate but then I heard him take in a deep breath. "Can we do this again sometime? I would love to meet you away from the office."

I wasn't sure how to answer him but my pussy told me what to say. "Yes Phil, I would like that." With that I turned around and we kissed for the first time, a deeply passionate kiss which we shared for several minutes as he groped me through my blouse and ran his hands under my skirt to hold my bare ass in them. I knew that if I let him, we would be back on the couch again soon so without another word I forced myself to pull away from him and then left his office, turning back to give him a smile and a wink.

8. Day's End

I turned back around and who was there but none other than Mrs. Ulrich!

"Been busy today, haven't you?" she said with a look that penetrated into me as if trying to see into my soul for the answers.

"Oh yes Mrs. Ulrich," I replied in an innocent tone, "Mondays are always busy here."

As we walked away from Phil's office, Mrs. Ulrich gave me a stern and distinctly disapproving look. "Alright Kelly, I always knew you were nothing but a dirty slut but out of respect for your father I've never said anything. I know what you've been doing today so don't give me any of your usual innocent and naive bullshit. Those were three wonderful men you threw yourself at today, loving husbands with caring wives and adorable families. I don't want you to hurt them and I won't let you, even if your dad IS the senior partner."

Deep down I had never really liked Mrs. Ulrich. She was generally nice to me and we had gotten along in the past but there always seemed to be something there, something I couldn't quite place a finger on and now I knew what it was. Oh well, why should I care what she thinks? Besides, the witch had to know that half the other girls in the office were doing more than just wearing sexy clothes every day (which seemed to be the dress code for girls at this office). I think it irritated her that I was just more open about it. I simply spun around and walked away, making sure to wiggle my ass just a little to piss her off.

I went to my dad's office to say goodbye. I knew he would be working until late tonight and I was pretty spent with all the day's activities so I wanted to head home. He was busy with a couple of other lawyers when I walked in but they all paused and looked at me when I walked in. My dad laughed saying, "Eyes back in your heads guys, that's my daughter."

One of them raised his eyebrows at that but both of them looked away and went back to their conversation with my dad. I sat down on a chair in the corner and waited patiently for them to finish. It wasn't long before they wrapped up and left me alone with my dad. I moved up to a chair next to his desk and he took his seat as well.

"Well, how did it go this afternoon?" he asked with a slight smile on his face. I knew he wasn't asking about my filing!

"Everything went just great dad," I answered, "In fact, I would say the entire day went much better than I had even dreamed it would. They all seemed happy with their 'bonus'!"

My dad looked me in the eyes. "Thanks Kelly, all I could think about today was what my hot little daughter was doing right under the eyes of everyone. You are really something you know. Not many daughters would've done this for their father."

We chatted for a few minutes more but I knew we would have to wait until he came home tonight to discuss the details. I had a feeling he was going to be incredibly horny by the time I was done and that I would be getting a reward of my own before I went to bed tonight. I left his office and headed home feeling so good knowing that my dad was pleased with me.

I wondered what other ideas he would be coming up with regarding me. I would just have to bide my time but one thing I did know, I was sure it would be fantastic!

(Jun 11) Chapter 84: Boating With My Cousin Kristi and Friends

Story codes: MF FF group oral inc father mother daughter uncle niece
Me (20)
John - my dad (40)
Mary - my mom (39)
Kristi - cousin (18)
Mike - Kristi's boyfriend (20)
Sam - Mike's older brother (22)

One thing I love about my cousin Kristi - she has lots of boys who love to make her happy - and me as well when I'm with her. Add in a boat out on the lake and you have all the makings of an incredible afternoon of sex!

1. Mothers and Daughters

I started water skiing when I was just six years old and over the past fourteen years I don't think it would be bragging to say I have gotten to be a pretty good slalom skier. My dad traded up for a really nice ski boat last year with a big inboard motor that is a dream to ride in and ski behind. Unfortunately it seems to spend more time on a trailer in a storage building than in the water.

As the years have gone by we've gone out less and less as my parents became more involved in their jobs so I am always excited whenever there is an opportunity for a family day out on the lake. For the past week we had all been excited by plans to head out to a nearby state park but then on Friday my dad came home from work with a grim look on his face. He explained that his firm was having problems with one of their cases and that he would have to work the entire weekend.

Rather than letting all our plans go down the tubes, my mom and I decided we would try to make the best of it so she called her sister and asked if she and my cousin wanted to spend the day with us. Needless to say they jumped at the offer.

My cousin Kristi (two years younger than me) was excited and asked if she could bring her latest boyfriend with (or to be more accurate if I knew her, her latest boy "toy"). My mom actually thought it would be a good idea as the boat was hard to handle sometimes, especially when it came to getting it in and out of the water so a strong guy would probably come in handy.

"Mommmmmm!" I whined, "It's not fair that Kristi gets to have a guy come with and not me."

My mom laughed and relayed my complaint to my aunt who passed it on to Kristi. A few seconds later my mom motioned for me to get on the phone and when I put it to my ear my cousin was on the other end.

"Now don't get all hot and bothered girl," she said quickly, "Mike's brother should be available and from what I hear he would be just your type."

For a moment I was tempted to ask Kristi exactly what she considered to be "my type" of a guy but I thought better of it. After all, she probably knew better than me! Kristi went on about how she would call Mike and find out if Sam was available so I handed the phone back to my mom after which she and her sister made plans for the day.

Kristi called back later and said her boyfriend's older brother was not only available but ready and willing to come. Again I was tempted to ask Kristi exactly what he had been told about me to make him agree so easily but then again, I really didn't have to ask if I knew my cousin. I hung up when we were finished and told my mom who just shook her head in mock despair.

"Oh great," she said with a long theatrical sigh, "Now instead of having one guy along to do the work we'll have two guys who will be thinking more about trying to make out with our daughters than helping out with the boat!"

I just laughed, twirled around and headed up the stairs to my room. It was now time for the first big decision of the day – which bikini to wear. For a girl this is NOT an easy decision to make, trust me! On the one hand we were heading out to a public beach so I knew despite how much fun it would be that I couldn't wear my "Kelly's little slut bikini" (as my dad referred to it) since odds were I would either arrested or tossed out of the park for indecent exposure.

Eventually I settled for second best and chose my new yellow thong bikini. It was pure bright yellow with no markings or designs on it. The bottoms were extremely high cut and barely concealed my pussy – one of the reasons I shave! While the rear wasn't just a few strings like my sluttier bikini, it wasn't exactly a whole lot more as none of the material was ever more than a couple of inches wide at any point. My bikini top tied behind my back and neck. I liked to keep it loose so that it didn't take a lot of maneuvering to give anyone I wanted a peek at my boobs.

Checking myself out in the mirror I smiled as Kristi had not seen this one yet so I was excited to see what her reaction to it was.

"Well you go girl!" my mom exclaimed from my bedroom door.

I turned to see her standing there in her own bikini. My mom may not have the same figure she had twenty years ago but she was still pretty outstanding for her age. Most women in their forties that tried wearing a bikini like hers would just look a bit silly, sadly appearing as an older woman trying to recapture her lost youth. Not my Mom! She didn't have to recapture anything because she still had a better figure than most women did ten years younger than her.

As if to prove that genetics work, my mom's younger sister, my Aunt Linda, was blessed with similar youthful looks and more than once when I was in bed with them I found myself praying their lucky genes had been passed on to me. Judging from how slowly I had matured in my teens compared to many of my friends, I was betting the odds were good! Hopefully there would be a payback in my later years for the suffering I went through as a young teen who always felt years behind her friends when it came to her development.

I turned around slowly to show off my bikini to my mom since she was the one who had bought it for me although she had not yet seen me wearing it until now. I heard her enter the room and when I turned to face her she put her hands on my shoulders and pulled me to her. We gently kissed and I put my arms around her waist, feeling the softness of her as she pressed against me.

"Oh mom," I whispered huskily, "I love you soooooo much!"

My mother looked at me with that look I rarely saw but the one that never failed to make my heart flutter and my stomach feel like it was filled with butterflies. It was that look she would give me when somehow in her mind I went beyond being just the daughter she doted over and loved and became her lover and confidante.

"Mmmmmmm, Kelly my little darling, you are so beautiful," she responded. "I want you... Oh god I want you so much right now."

We kissed again, this time though it was more passionate in the way that two lovers would after a long separation. My mom and I have a fantastic mother-daughter relationship and I also consider her to be my best friend. I trust her more than anyone else on earth and share everything with her – all of my experiences, dreams and even my deepest and most erotic fantasies. Even so, maybe 99% of the time our relationship is strictly that of one between a mother and her daughter. But then there were those rare moments like this, when the line between mother and daughter blurs and actually disappears to where my mom becomes my lover.

Looking back over my life I can think of many profound moments that literally changed my life but only a few that happen on a recurring basis. For instance, losing my virginity was a milestone in my life but needless to say you can only do it once. The first time I had sex with my dad is a moment I will never ever forget and although it thrills me to please him as much as possible since then, that "first time" feeling was something unique.

With my mom, though, it's different. We've made love only a couple dozen times whereas I have fucked my dad hundreds of times. Each time had such a profound impact that I can actually remember every one in detail. I wish every girl could know her mother in this way as even in our daily lives it has an impact because when things start to get rough I always remember what we share and it helps things from getting out of hand.

I should note that my wording here was stated rather deliberately – I "fuck" my dad and "make love" to my mother. Read more in the "About Me" section of my diary where I describe the difference between sex with my mom and dad in more detail. In short, sex with my mom is all about emotion and is so much harder to describe which is why I do not discuss it much in my stories as I am afraid no matter how hard I try that it will not sound right and would give people the wrong impression of our time together.

My mom and I spent the next hour in bed and when it was over I just laid in her arms, feeling incredibly loved and secure. My pussy was still tingling from her lovemaking and the aftertaste of her strong yet sweet cum was still fresh in my mouth as we kissed softly, our tongues tenderly reaching out to explore the other. I think we could have spent the entire morning this way if the realization of the time had not finally sunk in and we knew we had to get going if we were going to make it out of the house at all today!

We didn't bother showering – let the others smell our sex! Instead, I put back on my bikini and then added some shorts and a tight cami along with a pair of pink canvas sneakers over my bare feet. I tied my hair back in a ponytail which made me look a bit younger and left the makeup off except for a little lip gloss. My face had a radiant glow after my time with mom which was better than any blush I could have applied.

My mom was walking out of her bedroom as I left mine. She was dressed similar to me although her shorts were not quite as revealing as mine. We drove over to Aunt Linda's house and just walked in the back door unannounced – as we usually did.

Well, maybe it was just that kind of day or something because when we arrived we found Kristi and Aunt Linda in each other's arms kissing, just as my mom and I had been not long before. Seeing it was just us, they didn't allow our interruption to stop them. My mom and I looked at each other and we both winked. I knew what she was thinking – it would take only a small suggestion and our boating trip would be cancelled for a day of lovemaking. For a brief moment I considered it as it had been a long time since the four of us had been together like that but I was excited about boating too.

"Hey you two!" I said sternly, like a parent catching her kids making out, "Get a room or let's get going!"

My aunt released her lip lock on her daughter and Kristi just sighed as she rolled her eyes melodramatically. I had a feeling their morning had been similar to ours and I knew only too well the conflicting feelings that Kristi must be having.

Kristi was just as close if not closer to her mother than I was to mine. Her father had left town immediately after the divorce and never returned so she had never known him leaving only her mother to look to for love and comfort as she grew up. They had shared a bed from the very beginning so unlike me, having sex with her mom was not something that had a definite "first time" episode. Instead, their intimate relationship had evolved over the years starting in her early childhood and then blossoming once she entered puberty.

As close as Kristi and I were with our moms, I could count on one hand the number of times the four of us had actually been together sexually but during each of these times I had a strong sense that there was something between Kristi and her mom that was even closer and more intimate than what I had with my mother. It was just a feeling but I know it is something that I will never be able to understand, just as people who do not embrace incest cannot fully understand the relationship between my parents and me.

I've read about identical twins and how close they are, in some cases in an almost supernatural way, and it was almost something like that when I saw my aunt and cousin making love. I really don't know how else to describe it and unless you have witnessed it I doubt I can ever fully make someone understand what they share.

2. The Brothers

We all wanted to go boating so any further thoughts were put aside as we gathered up the picnic supplies and piled back in the SUV. Kristi gave directions to my mom on how to get to her boyfriend's house which was only about ten minutes away. My mom pulled up to the curb in front of this huge Victorian brick house with a slate roof and immaculate lawn – their parents obviously were doing well!

Soon Kristi came bouncing out (literally), followed by two good looking guys dressed in jean shorts and muscle shirts. Each of the boys was carrying a small bag with who knows what inside. As they walked up to the SUV I quickly sized them up. Now I have to admit that I'm terrible when it comes to making first impressions based solely on how people look and how they carry themselves but usually I find that I am correct in my assessments.

Although I'd never met him, I knew instantly that Mike was exactly the typical Kristi "boy toy" type. She had told be before that he was seventeen making him a year behind her in school. Kristi had always preferred younger guys and now that she was eighteen she was having to be a little more discreet in her choices (no more thirteen year olds!) but she still wanted them as young as she could get away with.

Mike was the more muscular of the two brothers – another characteristic that I knew turned Kristi on given I think she has fucked the entire wresting team at one point or another. A few inches shorter than his older brother Sam, Mike was built like a tank – compact and strong. Damn, the kid must live in a gym! His head was all but shaved off along with the rest of him and he sported a great tan. He was a Kristi guy alright, no mercy fucks for her, just the hot guys.

Sam, Mike's older brother, was nineteen and even though that made him two years older than Mike he looked much older. Taller and thinner but not scrawny by any means, Sam looked more like a men's clothing model than an athlete – a nice build and he carried himself with an air of confidence but not a swagger either. Instead of going to college he chose to work at his father's store. Based on the house the store must pretty successful!

Unlike Mike's shaved look, Sam had a thick head of light brown hair that was trimmed nicely in such a manner that while he looked mature he didn't look "old" or nerdy. I was intrigued by one thing though – his moustache. Like his hair, it was well trimmed and extended just to the edges of his mouth and down to his upper lip. It had filled in well and was probably one of the reasons he looked older than his years. He was registering about a nine out of a possible ten on the Kelly boy meter with the only thing keeping him from getting a ten was his height. Taller than Mike, he still looked well shy of six feet and I loved a taller man the best.

After my quick fifteen second assessment they had made it to the SUV and Kristi made the introductions. I smiled inwardly as I noticed the second look they were getting from my mom and aunt as well. For my mom, I knew it was just curiosity as she would never cheat on my dad by doing anything with them in that way. However, for my aunt I knew it was a different story.

It wouldn't be the first time by any means that my aunt had helped herself to one of her daughter's playmates – regardless of how old they were! Not that I’d ever heard any complaints!

I sat in the front seat between my mom and aunt while Kristi sat in the middle of the two guys in the backseat. I guess the four of us could have crammed in the backseat but for now it seemed the best solution. Depending on how the day went, I would hope that the seating arrangements would be different on the way home!

It only took about 45 minutes to get to lake but there was already a long wait at the launch area so we got in line and everyone bailed out of the SUV. The guys took off the boat travel cover and removed the tie-down straps between the boat and the trailer.

I'll never forget the day my dad forgot the straps holding down the stern. He was sitting in the boat as my mom backed it into the water and nothing happened! He started the motor and gunned it until finally he realized what he had forgotten. He looked soooooo embarrassed! I learned long ago that if you wanted some perverse entertainment, just watch people trying to put their boats in the water or remove them – there's always someone who has no clue that gives everyone a chuckle. My dad was mortified to be one of those people that day but I hugged him and loved him anyway. I can guarantee we will never forgot those straps again!

My mom also checked the drain plug to be sure it was installed – as you might guess that was the culprit for yet another embarrassing moment!

There were still about ten boats ahead of us and even thought there were two launches in operation, it was clearly going to be a while before we got to the front of the line so since we had our swim suits under our clothes it was a simple matter to strip off our clothes and toss them in the back of the SUV.

It was an interesting moment because the guys and girls each got their first look at the others in their swimwear and I'm not sure who was more turned on! Kristi and I both were wearing very revealing bikinis as usual and our moms definitely didn't look like the typical soccer moms you saw cruising the mall in their minivans. At the same time, Mike and Sam were definitely getting all of our attention as well.

Mike cemented his reputation with me as a Kristi boy toy by wearing a tight Speedo which clearly outlined his "package" to such an extent that I had to wonder if he wasn't hiding a sock in there as well. If was all him then he was definitely Kristi material as she loved big cocks – the bigger the better whereas I typically preferred something more in the middle of the road range since it made giving head much easier for me. Kristi enjoyed sucking cock as much as the next girl but what she really looked for was a cock to fill her little pussy so the longer and thicker the better so far as she was concerned.

Looking at Sam, again I saw the similarities yet at the same time the sharp contrast between the two brothers. Whereas Mike was wearing a second skin over his crotch, Sam had on long shorts that were not much shorter than the denim shorts he had worn coming here. They were too baggy to show off his cock so I was left having to figure out for myself what he was hiding underneath.

The four of us walked around the launching area while my mom and aunt hung around the SUV, periodically starting it and inching it along in line as the boats one by one made their way into the water. As I mentioned before, watching people launching their boats can be considered a wicked form of entertainment and so we sat on the cement which lined the launch ramp, rudely commenting on the skills – or lack of them, of some of the people.

Probably the worse to watch was the backing up. My dad had dragged me over to a huge parking lot and made me spend an afternoon learning to back up using the mirrors and I felt I was reasonable adept at it. Well, a LOT of people needed my dad's lessons! It made the time go by and before long it was my mom backing our boat down the ramp – finally! Fortunately Mom was pretty good at it and indeed she put on quite the demonstration of proper technique and I was proud of her, especially after all the bozos we had been watching before her.

Just before she got to the water's edge I jumped in. As the boat settled into the water I started the engine and pulled the boat back off the trailer. I headed over to the pier as mom pulled the trailer out of the water and parked the SUV and trailer.

3. Some Simple Boating Around

Everyone piled in and finally we were off!! It was an incredible day with not a cloud in the sky and temperatures in the 90's. There were a lot of boats near the marina but as we drove further away the congestion dwindled and we broke out the gear.

For the next couple of hours we alternated between water-skiing and tubing. In reality, it was mostly tubing as neither of the guys could ski and even Kristi wasn't exactly the best. Tubing was fun but for me nothing beats a slalom ski. I loved jumping the wake and throwing up the biggest rooster tail I can make behind me as I lean over and almost touch the water with my shoulders as I cut from one side to the other.

It seems not that many people ski anymore with most folks seeming to settle for the easy way out and just lay on a tube. I guess that is part of why I loved to ski as well, to show off in front of everyone on the lake. Plus, laying on a tube doesn't let you show off your bikini nearly as well either!

We were having a great time but it didn't take too long before we all were exhausted and needed a break. My mom drove the boat back to the marina area where we tied up to another pier and grabbed our picnic baskets and coolers from the SUV. We spread out a blanket near a picnic table and watched the action out on the lake as we enjoyed sandwiches and Arizona Teas.

Fortunately my mother didn't subscribe to that old wives’ tale about waiting an hour after eating to go in the water so as soon as we were done both Kristi and I were ready to head out again. Our mom's shook their heads, saying they were too tired and for us "kids" to take the boat back out ourselves. I was too keyed up at the prospect of getting back out on the water to bother protesting her "kids' remark and before long we were off, waving to my mom and aunt back on the shore.

As I drove off, Sam sat up front with me while Kristi and Mike stayed in the back. I could see in the rearview mirror that Mike's hands were starting to wander more and more over Kristi and needless to say she wasn't doing anything whatsoever to discourage him. Somehow she slipped her hand into his tight swim trunks and I could tell from the expression on his face that she had quickly found what she was looking for.

4. Taking A Dip and a Dick

My attention was on them so much that I almost smacked another boat so I figured it was time to make the day a bit more interesting. Nodding back to the two in the back, I told Sam that it looked like they weren't too interested in tubing anymore so would he mind if I pulled over somewhere? Needless to say Sam didn't mind so I found a small cove to pull into. It wasn't exactly a private beach but it would do. With the boat anchored we could swim on the shore side of the boat without drawing too much attention to ourselves, not to mention anything else we might do...

"Cool Kelly!" Kristi exclaimed once we had the boat anchored in place. "Now THIS is more like it!"

With that she pulled her hand out of Mike's suit, quickly stripped off her bikini and jumped in to the water, initiating a skinny dipping party. Mike rapidly followed suit and I look at Sam who just shrugged his shoulders and started pulling his own pants down. As I stripped I finally got a good view of what had been hiding all day under his shorts and was truly impressed. Although it was still pretty soft I estimated his cock was probably in the seven to eight inch range making it better than average in that category and it was surrounded by a thick bunch of dark pubic hair which, as anybody who knows me will attest, is a definite positive for me. He didn't seem shy about me seeing him and as he turned to jump in I couldn't help but lick my lips at the tight white ass in front of me.

I was the last to hit the water and then we were all in. The water was fairly shallow and the bottom was sandy which was a relief for me. I hate mud bottoms as they always make me feel like there is something slithering around below me. In this case I was able to keep my head above water but the rest of me was submerged. The water was surprisingly clear for a Pennsylvania lake but still not quite enough for anyone to see more than my boobs and the same went for Kristi. I could see Mike and Sam's chests but that was about it.

Mike swam over to Kristi and she squealed with a big smile on her face as his hands disappeared under the water and touched her only lord knows where. He was behind her with his arms wrapped around her lower body, pulling her against him. I had little doubt that he was getting pretty hard and that she was feeling something poking her in the back by now.

Both Sam and I just swam around for the time being, watching the show developing in front of us. Mike maneuvered Kristi back over to the stern of the boat where the there was a platform at water level for getting in and out of the boat. Kristi grabbed the wood decking for support and I saw Mike reach down between them. He must have been guiding his cock in her as before long he was humping her ass and obviously fucking her, a fact that was soon established by her moans and cries.

"Oh yes Mike, fuck me harder!" my cousin the little slut begged.

I tried to imagine what was happening under the water and felt myself getting wetter than what was being caused by the lake water against my pussy. I turned to Sam who was now right next to me.

"What do you think Sam, ever watched your brother fuck a girl before?" I asked.

For the first time so far today my assessment proved to be wrong. I had just assumed that based on their comfort with stripping in front of each other that they had probably had sex together as well – not with each other mind you but with other girls or maybe even sharing a girl. Obviously I was surprised by his response.

"Actually no Kelly," he said, "Can't say I have ever seen Mike like this before. Actually, I’ve never watched a guy fucking a girl for real. I have to admit though, it's pretty hot to watch!"

The way Kristi was pushing back into Mike with each thrust and the cry she would let out each time he drilled her I had to agree with him. Needless to say Kristi was no virgin so when she was looking this hot a guy must be doing quite a number on her.

I was quickly growing tired of watching though, especially when I had a hunk like Sam naked in the water next to me! It seemed like there was some definite cock going to waste!

I turned to Sam and in as seductive of a voice as I knew how to make, said, "So tell me Sam, who fucks better – you or Mike?"

Sam grinned and turned to me as well. "Well, I don't want to sound egotistical but my little brother may be good, he could still learn a few things from his big brother."

I reached down and grabbed his cock and once again found myself wrong – twice in one day! But if you have to be wrong, this was definitely the way to be. I had judged him to be above average in cock size but he was evidently the type that started out smaller but grew a LOT when he got erect. My hand barely fit around the monster I was holding and though I couldn't see it through the murky water, I had a damn good idea of what it must look like. I normally like a more average sized cock because it is easier to suck but from the looks of things today was going to dominated by fucking so a big cock was more than welcome.

"Wow Sam!" I couldn't help but gush, "I guess you weren't just being chronological when you called yourself his 'big' brother."

Sam smiled and looked just a little bit satisfied with himself but who could blame him? He had to know what he was blessed with and I am sure I wasn't the first girl to be wide-eyed when she realized what was waiting for her. My pussy throbbed as I stroked his giant cock and I knew I had to have him in me sooner than later so I pulled him along by his dick until I was side-by-side with Kristi who was still being fucked hard by Mike. Actually only a couple of minutes had passed since they had started, it guess it just seemed longer due to my preoccupation with such a big male specimen.

"Hey girl, mind if I join in?" I asked her.

"Oh my god Kelly," she gasped, "God I love this! ...I love fucking in the water!!"

Usually I’m a big fan of cuddling and sometimes I can spend the entire night doing it without even fucking but this wasn't one of those times. At this moment though I just wanted to be fucked and fucked hard so there was going to be no foreplay, kissing or anything. I just wanted that big cock in me as fast as I could get it in! I could feel \Sam reaching between my bare legs and then he started pushing his finger deep inside of me. I gasped as he fucked me with his finger while his other hand reached around and started to play with my clit.

He must have wanted to fuck my pussy as bad as it wanted to be fucked because the next thing I knew I could feel the head of his cock pressing up against my ass. He squatted down to allow it to move down the crack of my butt and then it slipped down between my legs. I could feel it slide under me as he drew it back until it was properly positioned just outside my waiting pussy hole. For just a second though he hesitated, as if unsure he should be going this fast. It was less than ten minutes since we left the shore and here he was already nude in the water with a new girl and he was about to fuck her already!

"Do it Sam," I begged, "fuck me... damn it don't wait any longer, just fuck me with your great big cock!"

Sam obliged and I immediately felt the pressure from his cock head increase as his fingers spread my pussy lips apart to make way for him. I groaned from a mixture of pleasure and then pain as it felt like I was going to be split in two as his cock head forced its way into me. My God he was huge! It had been a long time since I had a cock anywhere near this size in me. The last time was around Thanksgiving last year at a frat party and actually I was beginning to think Sam's was even bigger than that one which would make Sam the biggest cock I had had (so far at least!). It felt like he was filling my pussy and so far only the head was in me!

"Oh... my... god!!!" I exclaimed as he shoved it roughly further up into me. It was like a huge log was inside of me, actually forcing my legs apart like I was having a baby except this monster was going IN instead of OUT! Each time I thought I had all I could take in me he shoved it in me deeper, pushing yet another inch of his engorged penis into my welcoming pussy.

Finally I felt the base of his cock pressing against my ass and I knew he was in me all the way but I didn't know whether to feel relief or what. I had never felt anything like this before; it was unreal the way it filled me. Once in me Sam didn't just hold still. He began fucking me, stroking his horse-sized cock in and out of my stretched-out pussy.I soon was getting accustomed to the size of him and the pain mostly disappeared, replaced by an incredible sense of pure pleasure as I quickly reached my first orgasm. Kristi was in the middle of one herself and the two of us moaned in unison as the brothers fucked the cousins. I turned to her and we kissed and I could feel her body moving as our lips touched, humping the cock that was in her just as I was to the one in me.

I heard a boat as it went by but I never even looked up as my body was consumed by the roaring fire of my orgasm. The sensation expanded as my pussy was being rubbed from his cock and I squeezed down on it and grabbed him while my pussy pulsed and throbbed. For just a second he had to hold still as my pussy muscles gripped him so hard he couldn't pull out to me. "Damn Kelly!" he exclaimed, "you're going to pop my cock if you grip any harder on it!"

Kristi overheard him and managed to let out a laugh between her moans. "That's my cousin, strongest pussy grip in the 'burgh!"

As our orgasms dwindled I looked over at Kristi and our eyes met again. We both must have been thinking alike because each of us said the same thing - time to switch! The brothers were listening and both of them pulled out from us and traded places.

Kristi and I remained in place and it was only a few seconds before I felt another cock trying to violate my still-throbbing pussy. Mike's cock slid in me easily after the trail blazed by his brother but it still felt good. In a way it felt better because I was able to concentrate on how he was pumping it into me instead of wondering how I was going to take him all in yet again. Kristi must have been getting her first sample of Sam's monster because she let out a large squeal with a touch of pain in it.

"GOD!!" was all she could get out before she bent her head down and squeezed her eyes tightly shut.

Kristi was very petite and her pussy was smaller than mine. Many times I had watched my dad fuck her and even though he was nowhere in Sam's class I was still amazed every time my dad entered her that he was able to get it in her. I could only imagine what her pussy must be going though as Sam penetrated her.

"Ohhhhhhhh," she moaned and then I heard her say something I had never heard before. "Oh fuck it's too big, I can't take it! Fuck me it hurts!"

Sam wasn't deterred though. Mike was fucking me pretty good at the moment but I knew at this moment both of us were simply going thought the emotions as our attention was riveting on the erotic scene taking place right next to us. Sam had his hands on Kristi's waist and was pressing himself into her as hard as he could. Kristi had her head down on the wood platform on top of her hands, crying out and complaining about how much it hurt and begging for Sam to stop. Sam wasn't going to stop though, I could tell that from the look of animal lust in his eyes. He was going to fuck Kristi no matter what, even it meant raping her.

"Take my cock you little bitch," he ordered her, "you're going to take every inch of it."

Kristi moaned even loader as Sam took used a giant final thrust to ram his cock the rest of the way into her tight pussy. Kristi may have fucked well over a hundred guys in her life but she wasn't a fan of oversized dildos, fisting and other practices that stretch out girls early in their life so her pussy was still almost as tight as when she was just starting to have sex. Sam's fat cock was probably stretching her apart further than she had ever been in her life and it was letting her know it!

"Oh god... oh god... I can't believe this!" she screamed.

For a moment I wondered if anyone heard her but the noise from all the boats on the lake surely was drowning her out. Sam started humping in and out of her and soon she was responding by bucking her cute little butt back in to meet him. Sam grabbed her hair and used it to pull her head back up saying, "Yeah that's it slut, you know you like it now beg for it, beg for me to fuck you," I could see that Kristi was really getting into it now. From my own recent experience with that giant dick I knew exactly what she was feeling. First there was the initial shock and awe of having something bigger in your pussy than anything you had ever played with before, followed by the most intense sensation of pleasure, deeper and better than anything I could have ever imagined.

"Oh yes Sam, fuck me... oh god yes fuck me you bastard," she pleaded, "Fuck me with your huge cock. Split me open with it!"

Mike started pumping me harder, matching up with his brother's strokes and the two of them fucked us in harmony. They speeded up and I knew it wasn't long before they were going to be cumming. I was afraid Mike would pull out and deprive me of his cum so I turned my head to look back at him saying, "Cum in my pussy Mike, stay in me. Fuck me."

Mike was too close to cumming to be able to answer but from the grip he took on my hips I knew he had the message. He gave one last hard push and held himself deep in me as his cock began to shoot one load after another of his life-giving cum into me. Each time I could feel his cock swell and then explode as a burst of warmth emerged from him that I could sense deep inside of me. Just as it faded another burst would erupt.

Sam was also cumming and I could only imagine the amount of cum he was depositing into my cousin's pussy. If it was proportionate to the size of his cock he would be dumping at least a gallon into her! As it was, I love the feel of any man cumming in me. Even though I am on the pill and know I won't get pregnant, there is still this primal instinct in me to mate, to have intercourse with a male and have him deposit his seed within me. As a man pulls out he leaves something of himself behind, millions of living invaders, all trying to work their way even deeper into me to fulfill the evolutionary need to procreate.

The worst feeling in the world, well maybe not the worst but close, is for a man to wear a condom and for me to feel his cock bursting in me yet not be fulfilled by the feeling of his cum emerging into me. It is like waiting for a finale and the curtain closes just before it.

Sam was still humping Kristi when he turned to his brother to say, "Damn Mike, why haven't you shared these two sluts before!"

Mike just laughed, "Oh yea, one guess big brother! Would you want to share?"

My body tingled from the aftermath of my orgasms and I just floated in the water with his cock still in me. I could have stayed that way all afternoon but suddenly I heard a boat horn honking and looked over to see a speedboat with four guys in it all waving to us and making obscene gestures. Sam and Mike both gave them the thumbs up gesture while Kristi and I just grinned.

I felt Mike slip out of me, leaving me with that momentary sense of emptiness I always feel after a cock has been in me. Sam did the same and from the look on Kristi's face I bet she wasn't sure whether to feel sad he was out or glad her pussy could return to its normal size again. I dove under the water and took Mike's cock in my mouth briefly and then returned to the surface. He grinned and motioned to Sam to get back in the boat.

"Hmmmmmm," he said, "I think I could use a bit more of that! Let's get back in the boat and see what other talents these two have."

Kristi looked at me and we both let out a laugh. I knew what she was thinking – they hadn't seen nothing yet!

5. Fun All Around the Lake

The guys got in first and I loved the view from down in the water as they climbed the ladder while we watched from below. Both of them had a great ass and I wanted to get to know them a LOT better. I just knew they were going to feel great in my hands while I sucked their cocks! Kristi got in the boat next with me coming in last. Kristi as usually was the first to make a suggestion.

"Hey, that was cool when those guys went by. What do you say we drive around the lake like this for a while?"

I was all for it but I could tell Sam was a little hesitant at first until he saw that Mike was OK with it so he relented. I started the motor back up while the guys brought in the anchors. When all was clear we took off and the next thing we knew I had steered us out into the middle of the lake with all of us wearing nothing but our birthday suits! I guess for the guys it wasn't as big a deal since while they were seated it was really almost impossible for anyone to notice they were missing their swim suits but for Kristi and me it was blatantly obvious to anybody who could see us that we were at the very least topless and it would be up to their imagination as to whether or not we had anything on lower down.

There was no sense being stupid and getting the park rangers after us so I steered away from any family groups while keeping an eye out for ski boats or pontoon boats with groups of just young people with them. If they responded back positively, I would circle back around for another pass and as you may well imagine, with each pass we got a bit more daring, starting out with just giving them a view of our bare tops and then sitting on top of the seat backs so they could see we were bottomless as well.

Moving along, there was one boat with three couples in it that cheered loudly each time I circled around and it wasn't until Sam offered to drive so I could look back that I realized why – Kristi was blowing Mike on the back bench seat! It was pretty high and given the war whoops the other boat's occupants gave as we passed by I am sure they could see enough to figure out what was going on even if they couldn't actually see Kristi's mouth on Mike's hard cock.

I couldn't help but feel a bit envious at the attention she was getting – God what a little slut she was! People who didn't know her think she is just this petite pretty teenager who looks so naļve and innocent. If they only knew!

Not to be outdone by my sexpot cousin, I started to blow Sam as well. There was simply no way I was going to take all of his cock in my mouth so I settled for getting the head and the first couple of inches in and left it at that. Besides, at this moment it wasn't the blowjob that was so important as letting people see me giving it!

Even though he was sitting on top of the seat back with his feet on the seat, the windshield and side of the boat prevented anyone from seeing what I was doing but that was OK, it was enough just to suck such a big cock. Honestly it was really too big for me to give him my best blowjob. Huge cocks are OK for porn movies but in real life I prefer one more on the average size so I can take it all in. Sam's dick was simply too large to fit down my throat so I had to be content with getting only about half of it down. He didn't seem to mind though!

I had one hand on the lower half of his shaft and the other on the seat to steady myself against the bouncing of the boat against the waves. It seemed I was doing more work stroking him with my hand than I was with my mouth. I held his head and sucked more than stroked him while my hand slid up and down his thick shaft. Sam was getting close to cumming and he pushed my hand out of the way and started stroking his cock himself.

"Keep it in your mouth slut," he yelled over the din of the engine as I started to let him loose but after his demand I just sucked even harder on the head as he stroked himself.

All the while he was steering the boat but by now he had slowed down to keep it from bouncing so hard (I think he was probably afraid I might bite it off if we hit a big wave unexpectedly!)

I couldn't see where we were or if anyone was nearby but I didn't care. Now that I had one hand free I was stroking my clit and about to cum again myself when Steve groaned and rammed his cock hard into the back of my mouth. I gagged briefly but I was able to take it as Steve started to cum. With his cock filling so much of my mouth most of it leaked out around his shaft onto my chin and dripped to the seat back below him.

"Fucking right!" Steve called over to his brother, "You should see her taking this Mike, what a fucking whore!"

I barely heard Mike's reply but it had something to do with Kristi not being too bad herself so I let Sam's cock slip out of my mouth and raised my head to see what was happening in the back of the boat. Damn, leave it to Kristi; she was kneeling on the bottom of the boat with her elbows on the padded seat and her legs spread wide. Mike must have just cum as there was sperm all over her ass and back. He must have still had quite a load left after cumming in me earlier as some had even shot up into her hair! The boat was still and I wondered where we were so I lifted myself up and took a look around. Sam must have driven off into another cove because I didn't see anyone, allowing me to stand up and put my hands on my hips.

"What's with the mess Mike?" I pouted, "Looks like a waste of perfectly good cum. Guess I'll have to help out now."

I carefully maneuvered to where Kristi was still on her knees. She was looking back at me and wiggled her ass for me as I approached. I put one hand on her ass and the other on the seat and then leaned over until I could lick the cum off of her butt. I lapped up Mike's sperm and moved my way up her back to get the rest of his stream. Halfway through I looked up at Mike and Sam who were watching intently.

"Mmmmmmm, at least I get a snack out of the deal."

Kristi laughed and the boys just put their hands over their faces as they laughed. They were both a bit soft now but I had a feeling it wouldn't take much to get those young cocks hard again if I really tried. I finished up lapping the cum from Kristi's back and stood back up again, using my finger to push the cum that had collected on my cheeks and chin into my mouth for a final taste.

Kristi stood up and we hugged each other at first and then kissed. Her tongue met mine and I knew she could taste the cum that was still lingering in my mouth.

We both looked back at the boys while maintaining our erotic kiss. They were both motionless, staring at the two of us as we kissed like two horny lovers.

I caught a glimpse of the time on the clock and realized how late it had gotten. My mom and aunt were probably wondering what had happened to us! Well, they probably knew but they would still be wondering when we would be getting back. For some silly reason none of us had brought our cell phones so that meant we had to get going.

"C'mon girl, let's jump in and get cleaned off," I said and the two of us jumped in the water.

I helped her to wash off the sticky cum, especially from her hair where it had coalesced into a gelatin-like mass. We didn't have any soap and it WAS lake water so a good shower was going to be welcome but for now we were at least acceptable for public display. Climbing back into the boat, I was the first up the ladder and as I got ready to get into the boat I looked down and saw Kristi giving my ass a good look. Her eyes caught mine and she smiled.

"Nice view from down here!" she laughed. I just grinned and shook my head in mock disbelief. The boys had already put on the swim trunks and in a few minutes Kristi and I had our on as well. I cranked up the motor and we headed back to the marina.

6. Driving Home

When we got back to the dock Sam and Mike helped tie up the boat while Kristi ran off to find our moms. They came back with the SUV and fortunately there was a lull in the launch traffic so we were able to get the boat out pretty fast. We all jumped back into the SUV except this time the four of us squeezed into the back seat leaving just mom and Aunt Linda in the front with Aunt Linda driving home.

Actually Kristi and I were sitting on the boys' laps, not the car seat. We hadn't bothered putting on our other clothes so through my thin bottoms I could feel Sam hardening once again underneath me. Judging from the way Kristi was squirming, Mike was obviously doing the same.

Kristi spread her legs enough to let her reach between them and press on Mike's cock. She smiled and kissed him as she started to rub it through his tight suit. I did the same to Sam and both brother's looked first at each other, then at our mothers in the front seat and finally at the two of us with a "what the hell are you doing?" look on their faces.

Kristi had this devilish look going herself. She pulled Mike's suit over to release his stiff cock and then did the same with hers. Wasting no time she lifted herself up and off his lap, lined up his cock with her pussy, and promptly sat down again, driving him inside of her. She gasped and Mike looked totally confused, not knowing whether to enjoy it or jump out of the SUV before her mom saw them. Kristi rocked on his cock, moaning loud enough for my mom to turn around in the seat to see what was going on.

"Hey Linda, you should see what your daughter's doing to this poor boy," my mom chuckled with a grin.

Then she looked at Mike saying, "Oh don't worry there poor boy, we would have been disappointed in her if we got all the way home without her fucking you." Then she looked over at me with a questioning look, "So what's wrong with you daughter? Feeling OK? I would have thought you couldn't keep up with your cousin!"

"Mommmmmm!" I pouted, "Give me a chance! Besides, wait until you see THIS!"

I lifted myself off Sam's lap and looked back at Sam. "Well, are you just going to sit there or take off those damn shorts and show my mom what you've got in there?"

Sam was still in a bit of shock from the entire situation so he reacted more to my command than thinking about it and quickly dropped his shorts to his ankles. He may have been a bit confused but his cock certainly wasn't. It was sticking straight up, all ten inches and so thick I could barely get my hand around it!

My mom's eyes widened and her voice was suddenly hoarse as she said, "Damn! Linda, you've GOT to see this dick. Holy shit!"

Aunt Linda took a quick look over her shoulder and let out a whistle. "You sure you can take that Kelly?" she said incredulously.

I had been rubbing my fingers over my pussy to get it good and wet. Using one hand to guide him into me, I settled down onto his big cock until his head was pressing firmly against me. I remembered the last time and took a deep breath. My mom was watching me and frankly I wanted to show off for her by taking in his giant prick without looking like I was having any problems. As I put my weight down on his cock at first he wasn't going in so his shaft started to bend under my increasing bodyweight. Finally it was like a bow that had been bent until there was enough force for his head to stretch me apart enough to enter. Once again I thought I was being split in half when his head suddenly popped into me and I literally sat down on his cock, driving it deep into my pussy in one smooth motion. God! It felt like I was going to explode from the pressure of him in me!

"Yea! You go girl!" my mom exclaimed, "Damn you look hot! I have never had a cock like that in me you lucky little slut."

I was rocking on Sam's fat cock just like Kristi had been doing to Mike's. Sam held me with one hand on each hip and was helping me to bounce up and down on his monstrous cock. There was little danger of him slipping out of me – I would have had to practically stand up for that to happen!

I looked down and watched his cock sliding in and out of my stretched-out pussy. Having had him earlier, this time wasn't nearly as painful as the first time was and I closed my eyes and laid my head back, just letting the pleasures that were emanating from my pussy flood me with passion.

Suddenly I heard a honk and I opened my eyes to see a truck next to us with the driver looking down from his rig at me. He was getting quite the show and he gave a big thumbs up as we passed on. My mom and aunt were laughing up front, joking about whether or not they should slow down and give him a show. Common sense won out and we continued on our way. It was for the best as who knows what kind of wreck there would have been on the news that night had she not!

Kristi had been bouncing on Mike's cock like a wild girl and her efforts were about to pay off. Mike reached around her and grabbed both boobs, one with each hand. He was groaning and about to cum any minute from the look and sound of it.

Sure enough, he must have started to squirt his cum in her because Kristi suddenly squealed with delight and planted herself firmly in his lap as he humped underneath her, driving his cock as deep as possible into her. My mom dutifully reported her daughter's progress to her mom who was trying to pay attention to her driving yet at the same time monitor her daughter's progress behind her.

"Damn Linda, Mike's cumming in Kristi right now – nothing to say to him?"

Linda looked in the rear view mirror to see what she could. "Fuck her good Mike. You better give her enough to satisfy her!"

Mike finished and let out a big gasp. Kristi stayed on his cock and looked over at me saying, "Your turn Kelly, I can only imagine what it feels like for a dick that big cumming inside of me!"

I was sweating heavily from the exertion of fucking Sam and had already cum twice by now so I was more than ready for him. "C'mon Sam, give it to me," I begged, "Cum in me now!... God I need it soooooo fucking bad!"

My heart skipped a beat it seemed his cock literally burst inside of me, releasing a huge load of cum that felt like a giant ball of heat suddenly exploding deep inside of me. God it felt incredible! Sam unleashed one load after another, pumping me full of his hot sperm and I all I wanted at that moment was for him to just keep going on and on and on.

After the second time I felt my orgasm returning yet again and it was like I had landed on another world with everything else around me just fading away leaving nothing but the intense feeling of his swollen cock exploding in me, driving my orgasm higher and higher with each spurt.

I let out a load gasp as I fought to catch my breath and I ground my tight ass into his crotch, trying to force him even deeper than he already had violated me. He stopped cumming but I was far from finished. My hand was rubbing my clit furiously as my now ultra-sensitive pussy could feel the giant male organ that was now still but throbbing with his rapid heartbeat.

Even though it was already beginning to shrink, it was still stretching me out more than anything ever had before and my inner thighs ached from abuse they were taking. I let out another load moan and now I could hear my mom in the distance excitedly describing everything that was going on to her sister.

It made me feel so proud to hear her bragging to Aunt Linda about how hard I was being fucked and how I was taking such a huge cock. Sam had his arms around me, pulling me tightly to his chest with this hands cupping my boobs. My nipples were like hard steel between his fingers as he massaged my breasts. I simply leaned back, leaving his cock in me and enjoyed the attention. His hands would leave one breasts and wander around me, once touching my still swollen clit making me jump from what felt like an electrical shock that ran from my toes to my hair.

I glanced over and saw Kristi still on Mike's lap but not fucking him.

She was sitting sideways on his lap, her feet up on the seat with her arms around Mike's neck. They were kissing passionately while he squeezed her little ass with his hand. Her bare right breast was pressed against his chest and she was playing with her left one from time to time.

From the front of the SUV I heard a new set of moans. I looked forward and could tell from the way they were seated and moving their hands that our moms were masturbating in the front seat! Apparently seeing and listening to their daughters being fucked so hard had been too much to take and even though she was still driving, my Aunt Linda had one hand down her bikini bottom while my mom had slipped down the passenger seat enough to make it easier for her to masturbate.

Sam obviously heard them cumming as well as I felt his cock twitch inside of me. He was pretty soft by now but even so he filled me better than many a boy had with a full erection! While I suspect that he had a suspicion that he and Mike would be fucking Kristi and me today, I am sure he never dreamed that he would be doing it again right in front of our mothers AND that our moms would masturbate afterwards in front of them.

I couldn't help but smile at the thought of what they would say if they knew what else we did with our moms! My mom finally finished with herself and sat back up in her seat again. She twisted around and looked at the goings on in the back seat.

"Damn Kelly, is he STILL in you?" she said incredulously. Then she looked at Sam saying, "Hope you didn't mind Linda and me. You kids were just too hot to just sit and watch you know."

Sam had his composure back by now and responded, "Not a problem Mrs. Wells. You've GOT to be the hottest pair of moms ever!"

We were almost home now so I reluctantly lifted myself off Sam's lap. My pussy felt such an emptiness I wanted to reach down and push him back in me again but we were only a few blocks from his house. Pulling up to the curb in front of their home, Aunt Linda put the SUV in park and turned around to say goodbye to the boys. From the lustful look on her face as she eyed their crotches I had a feeling Kristi was going to be inviting them over to her house before long.

Being married my mom might get off looking at the boys but she wouldn't fuck them but my Aunt Linda wasn't under such constraints and this would not by any means be the first time one of Kristi's boyfriends found out the side benefits of being with Kristi.

All in all it had been a great day and before long dad would be getting home. I couldn't wait to be sitting in the hot tub with him, describing the day's events. No matter how incredible Sam's cock had been, there was still none that I preferred to my dad's. Mmmmmmm, should be a great night!

(Jun 19) Chapter 85: Father's Day

Story codes: MF F-solo oral inc father daughter
Me (20)
John - my dad (40)
Kristen - cousin (18)

Father's Day is always a special day and it's no different in our household. Every girl wants to give her dad something special on that day but I doubt many can compare with my gift to my father!

1. Worried About Father's Day

I'd been home from school for just over a month now and so far summer break was going great. After the local schools had finally let out, I was requests from a number of families to baby-sit for them. Most girls quit once in their mid-teens, especially after high school, but I didn't want to work at the mall or some fast-food joint and babysitting was a pretty good way to make money if you could stand it.

Truthfully, I really getting tired of the gig myself but I decided to take on a few of the easier, better paying families. It gave me some extra play money so I didn't have to beg dad for it all the time - not that I minded begging him, especially when you consider how he made me "earn" it.

Other than that, so far my summer break pretty much consisted of spending time with my friends and family, going shopping, seeing movies, eating out, and boating. Mixed in, of course, was a bit of casual sex. Although at my age I wasn't ready to tie myself down to a steady boyfriend, there were a few guys still around from high school that were happy to learn I was back in town - and I'd like to think even happier after they took me out. It was all just for fun, though. Like I said, I wasn't looking to establish any kind of emotional bond with anyone for now.

One of the holidays I look forward to every year is Father's Day. Mother's Day, of course, is important, but Father's Day provides all sorts of opportunities. When I was little there was the traditional ugly tie or "World's Greatest Dad" gift in one form or another but as I got older my presents became more "personal". After all, once you given yourself, literally, to your dad, an ugly tie just doesn't seem to cut it anymore. Every year it got harder as I tried to think of something to do better than the year before. This year I wanted it to be something that would surprise him but my mom wasn't exactly providing me with a lot of help.

"C'mon mom, what should I do this year for Father's Day?" I whined like a little girl who wasn't getting her way. Just because I'm twenty years old doesn't mean I can't act childish at times.

"Well, you're going to have to come up with something pretty wild if you plan on beating last year's gift," my mom responded absentmindedly, not even looking up at me from her book.

I rolled my eyes in exasperation - no help there! Mom loved her romance novels and once she was immersed in one, the house could have been burning down around her and she wouldn't have noticed so I was probably lucky to get even THAT much of a response.

Speaking of last year's gift, I smiled as I recalled the look on my dad's face last year when he opened my present. A camera nut friend of mine had helped me make up a calendar using a dozen "up close and personal" shots of my pussy and ass, decorated with an appropriate theme for the month. Given there was nothing that identified me in the photos, he actually showed it off to the guys at the office, letting them think he had been given it as a gag gift. It must have been pretty hot seeing them looking at the photos without them knowing it was his own daughter's pussy that was covered with candy hearts in February!

2. Inspiration Through Masturbation

Somewhat dejected at my lack of inspiration, I slowly retreated to my bedroom and flopped on my bed face down. I needed some motivation but all I could think about was the strong odor of sex that remained imbedded in my sheets from our activities earlier in the morning. Although the wetness had long since evaporated, the distinct scent of my pussy remained where I had cum this morning and soaked the sheets in a large circle under my ass.

My dad had already hurriedly fucked me earlier this morning and left for work, leaving me to finish myself off and as I laid there I remembered how good it felt to touch myself, knowing even though he was gone, his incestuous cum was still deep inside of me. The more I thought about it the hornier I was getting and it didn't take long for my hand to reach under the loose T-shirt I was wearing and cup my pussy with my palm. God it felt so warm! My middle finger pressed inward, forcing itself between my pussy lips and up against the entrance to my pussy hole.

As I pressed harder, my fingertip penetrated me, reminding me even more of how my father's finger had been in me when I woke up. As I tried to clear the sleep from my eyes I could feel his long finger pushing its way deeper inside of me. Overall, it wasn't a bad sensation to wake up to! My finger moved in and out of me, just as my dad had done only a couple of hours earlier, rubbing against the walls of my pussy and stimulating the bundles of sensitive nerve endings that lined the inside walls of my pussy.

When my finger was wet from the moisture of my pussy, I dragged the wetness from my pussy hole up to my clit, spreading my pussy juices around it to moisten it which made it easier to slide my finger around it. I loved the way my dad would run circles around my clit, teasing it slowly until I would beg him to do it faster and so I did the same, running my middle finger around and around my hardening clit. I gasped and cried out, again begging for him to rub me faster except it was my own finger that responded.

Awake and horny, I had wanted him to fuck me so I simply asked him. All I needed to say was, "Fuck me daddy." He knew I wanted it but it was sort of a game we played where I had to ask for it before he would give it to me. The "daddy" part was important - he would just ignore me until I said it right!

He didn't say a word in response but simply got on top of me and as I held his cock in position, he thrust himself quickly inside of me. My eyes were closed as I recalled the wonderful sensation I get whenever a dick first penetrates me, especially when it was my dad's. Now I used two fingers from my other hand and pushed them in me, imagining it was his cock once again that was violating me while I continued to rub my hard clit with my other hand.

"Mmmmmmm, fuck me daddy," I murmured to myself as I plunged my fingers into my pussy and then started to stroke them in and out of me - just as his wonderful cock had fucked me this morning.

"Oh fuck me daddy!" I gasped again, then repeating myself over and over and over again as I played with myself using my fingers.

I could almost feel his hot breath again on my face as he pumped his cock in and out of me, driving me down into my bed with each hard thrust of his hips against my crotch. Then he had stopped breathing, holding himself up with his head thrown back while he grimaced as he held himself back.

Finally, he couldn't resist any further and a loud breath escaped him and he sucked in a lungful of air as his cock erupted like a volcano inside of me. In response, my hips lifted high up off the bed as I thrust another finger inside of me, pushing all three now into me as deeply as I could as I tried to imagine that once again his hot cum was streaming into me, each load feeling like a bloom of heat inside of me momentarily.

"Oh daddy, cum in me," I begged for the second time that day. There wasn't anything I loved more than the feeling I got when my dad came inside of me. Sure, I enjoyed it when any guy came in me but this was different - totally different. This wasn't some horny guy getting his rocks off with me to fulfill some perverted fantasy. No... this was my father giving his daughter his most precious and intimate gift.

When my dad came in me it was the most incredible sensation imaginable. I felt loved, secure and sexy all at the same time. Love because I knew my father would never fuck me if he didn't love me. Secure because it was my father and he respected me as his daughter. I knew I could submit myself to him completely and never have to worry that he would take advantage of me. Finally, I felt sexy because he wouldn't be cumming if I didn't turn him on. I loved to see that look of lust in his eyes when he got horny and wanted me!

3. Kristen Inspires Me Even More

I finally opened my eyes and I blinked as I focused on a shape in the doorway.

"Well, that must have felt good! I could hear you all the way downstairs in the kitchen!" It was my mom, of course. God, how long had she been watching? Of course I didn't mind that she had seen me masturbate, I just liked to know when she did. She stepped into my room and stood at the head of my bead, her hands on her hips over the thin cotton robe she was wearing. It was enough to cover her - barely, and I was reminded once more of what a sexy mom she was. There was no doubt in my mind the neighbors saw her as a MILF - and I bet she loved it!

"I guess I got here just in time for the grand finale," she giggled, "Damn girl, what's got you so horny this morning? What's the matter, my husband wasn't enough for you this morning?"

"Oh mom!!!!" I just frowned at her, trying to appear irritated without cracking up. Somehow I managed to twist around and get myself up and out of bed. Reaching down to the floor, I grabbed the t-shirt I had been wearing last night and pulled it over my head.

"Kelly, that's dirty!" my mom scolded me. "Why can't you ever put your clothes in the laundry without me saying something? This room's a disaster!"

I may have been twenty but sometimes my mom still seemed to think I was six. As usual, I just ignored her and tugged the t-shirt down until it just covered my ass. I went over to her and gave her a quick kiss on the cheek. She smiled at me and patted me on the head, something I hated but I knew she meant it well.

"Well, I guess I can't say anything. When I was your age I was always horny too," she teased me, "Now how about handing me those sheets. From the looks of things I have a feeling they could use a good washing."

Well, there WAS this large wet spot right in the middle so how could I protest? We stripped off the sheets and even the mattress cover was damp where my ass had been. My mom took them to the hallway and dropped them down the laundry chute that lead to the basement where our washer and drier lurked. I smiled as I thought about how she always did the easy direction. Too bad it didn't have a "reverse" as I seemed to be the one that had to carry them back UP later!

Have you ever had one of those moments when you're working on a difficult problem that seems impossible to solve when suddenly it's like everything becomes

"I think it took him about three strokes," she said, sighing as if she was saddened by the results. "Oh well, that's what you have to expect with a boy that age."

I was still in just my t-shirt while Kristen was wearing her usual summer outfit - super short cutoffs and a tight tank top with no bra. I swear she must have a drawer full of both since it seemed that was all she ever wore. Now that she had gotten hat off her chest, I moved up closely behind her and put my arms around her. My fingers unsnapped her shorts and my hand slipped down inside. God, the girl WAS horny as hell - her pussy was soaking wet and hot as an oven.

"Mmmmmmm, I was hoping this was what you had in mind when you asked me over," she purred.

Actually, it hadn't been but now that the opportunity was here, I figured why not? There was plenty of time to talk about my dad's present.

I slipped her shorts to the floor and helped her to pull her tank top up and off of her. She turned to me and did the same with my t-shirt and that left us both naked in the middle of my room. Kristen looked over to my bed, all freshly made up now, and grinned at me.

"Well, what are we waiting for?" she asked. We both giggled like two girls heading down the stairs on Christmas morning, full of anticipation of what was to come. I quickly laid down on my back and she hopped on top, her pussy in my face and her own face quickly lowering itself to my own crotch. We had both done this enough we dispensed with the formalities and went straight to work.

For the next twenty or thirty minutes or so, we just enjoyed each other. I think we both came at least twice and once again, my sheets were a mess. Oh well, being with my cousin like this was worth facing my mother's wrath! After we had finished, I finally got to take the shower I had been trying to get in all morning. Of course, Kristen joined me so it was better than I had originally anticipated. Who needs a shower massager when you have a hot cousin like Kristen available?

When we were finished, Kristen put her shorts and tank top back on while I put on a similar pair of shorts and a tube top. The two of us went downstairs where I was surprised to see my Aunt Linda having coffee with my mom. Kristen hadn't bothered to tell me that her mom had come over with her. My aunt had the same powers of perception as her sister and she instantly read my face and knew I was surprised.

"I guess Kristen didn't mention I was here," she laughed. The she looked at Kristen and shook her head solemnly, "So girl, did you get it out of your system for now?"

For a moment I thought Kristen might actually blush. I didn't think ANYTHING could embarrass her and as it turned out, she was just still flush from the shower. She DID look surprised, though, when her mom sprung a surprise on her.

"Well, maybe if you stopped over here more often you stop molesting the neighbor kids!" my aunt teased her.

"Mom!" Kristen protested, looking at my mom as she was the most innocent girl in the world.

My mom just shook her finger at her saying, "Sorry, your mom has already spilled the beans so cut the act." She paused for a second and then a mischievous look appeared on her face.

"Thirteen?" was all she said, as if she couldn't believe it. We all laughed, except Kristen who just stood there glaring at her mom.

Having embarrassed her niece enough, my mom turned her attention to me.

"OK Kelly, so what's your big idea for Father's Day?" she asked.

I sat down at the table next to my mom and looked around at the three of them. As I began to explain my idea, even my mom looked a bit surprised - and perhaps even a bit shocked which was saying quite a bit for my idea.

"But... what if you get caught?" my mom was the first to ask after I had finished, "You know, there ARE some things that we simply can't ever tell people and this is cutting it awful close."

"I've checked everything out," I assured her, "And it's no problem. Nobody goes in there at that time and besides, there are ways to keep people out.

Everyone had questions which actually helped in the end as they made some good suggestions and the finished plan was much better than my original. The only thing now was to put it into motion...

4. Father's Day Wakeup Call

The next morning was Father's Day and I made sure to set the alarm in my room to get me up well ahead of my parents. All night I had tossed and turned, thinking about today and now it had finally arrived. I had masturbated several times and still couldn't seem to realize enough to get any measurable amount of sleep but I knew with all the adrenalin I had going that it wouldn't make any difference today.

Throwing off my covers, I turned and got out of bed. I could hear my dad snoring in their bedroom next to mine. He didn't snore THAT loud, certainly not as loud as some men I had known, but it was still plenty noisy to let me know he was still asleep, Sneaking into their bedroom, I made my way to the foot of their bed. Our old wood floors creaked now and then but I knew from years of experience where the nosiest ones were and so I was able to arrive at my destination without waking him OR my mom.

The bedspread had been tossed to the floor and just a sheet was covering the two of them. My dad was flat in his back, which was probably why his snoring was louder than usual. Of course, he hadn't shave yet so there a light stubble on his face and his hair was a mess but that didn't matter to me. What I was interested in was a bit lower on his anatomy.

Pulling gently on the sheet, I slowly uncovered him, baring first his hairy chest and then his stomach. It wasn't as flat as I am sure it was when he was younger but by no means did he have anything near a "beer belly". Then I saw the first hint of his pubic hair and finally his limp cock was revealed.

I pulled the sheet down just far enough to uncover my favorite part of my dad and then gently worked my way on the bed and to his side. His legs were too tight together to get between them so I went along side of them instead. Kneeling by his side, I reached out and gently picked up his flaccid cock in my hand. It felt so small and soft. It wasn't often I was around my dad when his cock was this limp!

Using my hand to flatten down his thick pubic hair around his cock, I lowered my face and gently took the head of his cock in my mouth. His breathing hesitated for a moment and so I froze, holding his cock between my lips without moving. His regular breathing resumed, as did my movements on his dick.

I am not sure what exact mechanism makes a man get hard but I am sure it is not something he consciously controls. If he did, then men wouldn't get erections in places they shouldn't - like a husband looking at me in the mall sitting next to his wife! In any case, whatever sense was involved, my dad's was in full wake mode as I continued to suck gently on it.

At first I wasn't sure it was him or me but it didn't take long for it to grow enough that I was sure it was him that was getting larger on my mouth. This was SO cool as it was seldom I got to start with a dick that was completely flaccid. Most frothy mixture of sperm and saliva and then sucking it back into her mouth again before swallowing it.

"Mmmmmmm, that tastes so good," she gloated, looking over to my dad and licking her lips. Suddenly her opens opened wide and I felt her body stiffen under me.

"Crap!" she exclaimed, "We have to be in church in half an hour!"

Oh my God, had it really gotten to be so late? My dad started to suggest we just skipping church today but I had plans that depended on us going. I said something about it being Father's Day and how we had to go and he rolled his eyes and hurried off to the bathroom to shower.

5. Fucked By My Dad During Church

Somehow or another we made it in time, barely getting into the sanctuary as the opening hymn was being sung. Kristen and my Aunt Linda had saved some seats for us near the back and I was the first to slide in the row, putting me next to Kristen. She looked at me and whispered in my ear so I could hear over the loud organ music.

"God, you have that 'I've just been fucked' glow about you."

I poked my elbow into her side but the smile on my face told her all she needed to know. Kristen whispered again into my ear.

"Well, are we still doing it?"

I winked at her and again, the even bigger grin on my face was all she needed to see. Of course we were still doing it!

My dad was sitting next to me with my mom on the outside next to the outer aisle. As the hymn finished and we did the "greet your neighbor" routine, she looked at me and nodded. Everything was ready to go as planned. As people began to take their seats, she whispered something to my dad and then left for the back of the church and disappeared from sight. I knew it was something about using the ladies room... and I also knew it was a complete fib on her part.

The announcements were read and mom still hadn't returned. It was up to me now. I leaned over to my dad and he bent his head down so I could whisper to him.

"Dad, I think we better check on mom."

He looked at me and said something about her not being gone that long.

"Dad, really, I think something is wrong," I insisted. He gave me a strange look but I was giving him my total sincerity look and he fell for it. We silently left as everyone stood to sing the next hymn and exited out the back of the sanctuary. The restrooms were down some stairs and I led the way. At the bottom of the stairs, instead of turning into the restrooms, I kept on going into the basement.

"Hey Kelly," my dad called out softly to me, "Isn't your mom in the ladies room?"

I grinned and even before I answered, his expression changed and I think he realized something was up.

"No, just follow me," I said, turning back around and walking briskly in front of him.

He HAD to know something was fishy but I doubted he realized just HOW fishy things were. We passed through the basement and into the main building and down to where the chapel was. Nobody was around and I didn't see another soul the entire way. We could listen to the service playing through the speakers in the hall and I grimaced at the usual mangling of the hymns.

"Kelly, where the hell are you going?" my dad called out to me, still about twenty feet or so behind. Not exactly the most appropriate language in church, mind you!

I stopped at the chapel door. Actually, it was more like a prayer room as the real "chapel" was much larger and even used for small services. This room was built over a hundred years ago when the church was first erected and as a little girl I use to think of it as the dungeon with its stone walls and lack of windows. I don't know what its original purpose was but today it was used for private prayer and counseling. What I liked best about it today was that it HAD no windows, not even in the door, and the door could be locked.

Once inside I let the door shut behind me. My mom was waiting for us.

"Took your sweet time getting here, didn't you?" she asked, a little huffy if you asked me.

"I had to wait for the announcements, Mom," I whined a bit, "Pastor was a bit long-winded today. Besides, you heard him."

Like most of the rooms in the church, there was a small speaker in the room over which the service was being played so we could hear what was happening. It was "Children's Time" and for a moment my thoughts drifted off to when I was a little girl and couldn't wait to get up front and listen to the story. Of course, the best part was we got to leave for Children's Church afterwards and escape the boring adult service.

My thoughts were broken when the door swung open and my dad appeared in the doorway. He stepped in and the door automatically swung close behind him. "Alright, what's the story with you two?" he demanded, "I thought the whole point in hurrying to get here was so we could attend the service?"

My mom smiled and looked at me before answering. "Your daughter thought it would be nice it on Father's Day you attended a more private service," she explained, "or maybe 'private servicing' would be more appropriate."

I just grinned at him as his face contorted as he tried to figure out what she was talking about. Then I saw the comprehension in his eyes and he wagged his finger at us. "You've GOT to be kidding," he said, "Here?... Now?"

We both just giggled like school girls at his response and he said, "But the service is going on for cripes sake. We can't do it NOW... can we?

I stepped up to him and took his hand, looking up at him with all the love and adoration a daughter can have for her father.

"Well, this way you can listen to the Father's Day message and at the same time I can give you my present," I said seductively.

"Present?"

"Well, I didn't know what else to give you this year so I decided it would just have to be me, but I wanted it to be someplace that would make it something you would always remember," I explained.

My dad looked at my mom and asked, "And what about you? Are you in on this too Mary?"

My mom laughed and waved her hand. "Oh no, I'm just here to watch the show," she said with a smile. "This was all your naughty daughter's idea."

"Well, how could any father say no to a present like that?" my dad said, kissing me on the forehead as he put his hands on my shoulders. I was wearing my new Easter dress with thin shoulder straps and fairly low cut in front. It wasn't the shortest dress in my closet by any means, about six inches above the knee, but then it WAS for Easter after all. It was a light floral pattern which, if the sun was behind me, was a bit transparent but nothing too slutty.

I reached out and put my arms around him and hugged him tight. "Happy Father's Day daddy. I'm all yours... ALL yours."

My dad looked around and turned back to me to say, "God, I can't believe we're doing this - and in here to boot!"

It DID seem a little sinful, having sex in a prayer room. It wouldn't be the first time I had sex in church, not by a long shot, but it had always been in more common places - classrooms and such. This just so much more, well, intimate. The pictures on the walls, the small alter with a cross set in the center, the bible to one side and a book of meditations on the other. Even the lighting was warm and reverential. At the same time, all this just made it all the more exciting for me!

I looked up at my dad and he smiled down at me, then lowered his head to kiss me. As our lips met his hands caressed my back and slowly worked their way down until he was holding my ass I his hands. He almost lifted me off my feet as he squeezed my butt and pulled me up into him. An overwhelming sense of love for my father ran through my, making me almost shiver with anticipation. I was all his now and I couldn't wait to see what he wanted to do to me.

"I love you Kelly," he whispered as our lips parted slightly, "I'm gonna fuck you... oh god I'm gonna fuck you so good now."

What sweeter words could a father say to express his love and respect for his daughter? I know my father loves sex but he has never cheated on my mother in over twenty years of marriage. Fucking a girl half his age has to be an incredible turn-on for him but I knew in my heart he would still never do me unless he truly loved me as only a father can love a daughter.

I would never submit myself to any man in the way I give myself to my father because he is the only man in the world I trust enough to do so, the only man I know who respects me enough to never do anything against my wishes, to always act in my best interests, that would put me first no matter what his lust or desires might be.

"Whatever you want daddy," I whispered in response, "I want to make you happy."

His hand began to pull up on my dress, bunching it up above my waist until my bare ass was in his hands. "Mmmmmmm... no panties today?" he teased, "You're such a naughty little girl."

Normally, with a dress this short, I would have worn panties, especially going to church. The last thing I needed was some sanctimonious old lady spreading the word that Kelly didn't wear panties to church! Anyway, it was usually more of a tease to flash your panties and let them wonder what was underneath.

Today, though, I had one goal in mind when we left the house for church - to turn my dad on and I knew he LOVED it when I wore a skirt with nothing on underneath. Different guys get off on different things and for my dad, a bare bottom was just what the doctor ordered!

He let my dress fall back down and his hands returned to my shoulders where he pressed gently down on them and I knew what he wanted. Even so, it's always nice to hear him say it out loud and he didn't disappoint me.

"Suck my dick," he commanded me. From the tone of his voice, it wasn't a request but an order, one I was glad to follow. "Suck your daddy's cock, you little slut."

I smiled at that last remark from him. He loved to call me his "little slut" and I knew it was meant to be a term of endearment, not something demeaning. When he called me his slut, I knew he meant that I was HIS slut, ready to do anything he wanted.

I bent my knees and dropped down until my head was facing his crotch. Reaching out, I unbuckled his belt and undid his pants as he let his hands hang to his side and watched me. Grabbing his pants on each side, I pulled them down until they fell on their own to his ankles and then did the same with his black boxers.

The tails of his dress shirt hung down and covered his crotch until I lifted them up and there in front of me was my father's wonderful cock, hanging loose from him amid a thick growth of black curly pubic hair. It didn't matter that I had just sucked it not more than an hour before, I loved seeing it for the first time when he undressed and exposed it to me.

One thing I DID notice, he was still flaccid when normally under conditions like this he would have already been hard as a rock. Well, it WAS only an hour since he blew his wad in my mouth and dad wasn't exactly a teenage boy anymore. It was going to be a challenge to get the mechanisms to respond again this quickly but that was a challenge I was more than ready for.

Taking his cock in my right hand, I held it up and leaned forward to take him in my mouth. As soft as he was, he was pretty small compared to his erect state and so it barely filled my mouth. Actually, I enjoyed the feeling of a soft dick in my mouth. Rather than some hard shaft it was soft and flexible and when I sucked on it, it would stretch out and then snap back again. With my other hand, I caressed his hairy balls and rolled them gently between my fingers. At first he wasn't responding but evidently it was still feeling good.

"That's it, suck on it Kelly," he said softly, "I love watching you with my dick in your mouth."

I was glad he wasn't saying anything about how soft he still was. I have been with older men who have a hard time getting an erection and I know that once they get worried and anxious about it, the more difficult it makes it.

Fortunately, I have sucked my dad so many times in the past that this wasn't the first time we had faced this situation. Had it been a few minutes after he had cum I might have been facing an impossible task but an hour later, and under these circumstances, I knew it was just a matter of time.

The only problem was, we didn't HAVE all that much time! I could hear the service in the background and even though I couldn't see a clock, I could tell from what I heard that it was already about half over. Once it was over, the halls would fill with people and it would be impossible to keep from drawing attention to ourselves in here.

There WAS one thing I had in my favor. If there was any man who I knew how to blow, it was my dad. Different guys like their cocks sucked in different ways. One of the things I think that makes me so good at sucking dick is that I can quickly pick up on what turns a guy on (and off) and adapt my style to meet his needs. Some prefer a lot of tongue action while others want my hand as much as my mouth.

With my dad, I knew EXACTLY how to suck his cock and get the quickest response. This had come in handy more than a few times in the past when he wanted me to suck him off in some places where we didn't have a lot of time and this was definitely one of those time.

With my dad, the key was to keep as much of his cock in my mouth at any one time as possible and let my lips and tongue do the work on his shaft. I knew he really got off watching me as well so I made sure my hair was pulled back and he got a good view of his dick in my mouth. Another thing that turned him on was for me to look him in the eyes when I sucked his dick. I think for him that it reinforced the "submission" aspect of my sucking his cock.

It took a few minutes but my dear old dad finally began to respond and once the process started it seemed to accelerate. I could feel his cock begin to stiffen in my mouth and as it grew it moved deeper inside and filled my mouth more and more. He put his hands on the back of my hand and gently, but firmly, pulled me into his crotch as if I needed to be reminded to keep his dick in my mouth as much dress lift up and the cool air on my ass as he exposed me again. I spread my legs apart to make it easier for him to get to my pussy and wiggled it suggestively for him.

Turning my head to the side, I saw my mom sitting in one of the chairs, watching intently as her husband moved in behind her daughter, his erect dick in his hand as he prepared to fuck her daughter. God, what she must have been thinking right then! I was a bit surprised she wasn't touching herself a little by now.

Many times when my dad fucked me and she was in the room, she just read her book or watched TV, content to let us do our thing. Sometimes, though, she seemed more interested and those times when she watched, she almost always masturbated, even if it was just rubbing herself through her clothes. The only thing I could think of at the moment was she was concerned that someone might come by and she needed to be "normal" if that happened. The odds were highly against that but my mom was always the practical one.

My dad didn't waste any time as I felt the head of his cock pressing against the entrance to my pussy. It hadn't been that long since he had fucked me so it wasn't as resistant as usual to his initial entry but I still couldn't help but gasp with delight at the feeling if his thick head splitting me open as it penetrated me. Obviously my dad has fucked me many more times than any other man but I still feel almost like it's the first time when he does.

When another guys fucks me, I like the feel of it and enjoy the physical pleasure. I know they don't really care about me, though, and it's just for them to satisfy their lusts. One reason I like being fucked by married guys is that when they first put themselves in me, I know they have just done something they can never take back, that they are now committing adultery against their wives and they don't care because they want so bad to fuck me. But that's an emotional high driven by another man being bad by his lust for me.

When my dad fucks me it is totally different. After all, he is my FATHER and nobody else can make that claim. He doesn't fuck me out of lust or to cheat on his wife, he fucks me because he loves me. My dad fucks me because I am his daughter and it is his right as a father to have me. Sure it feels good when he does, but my emotions at the time are more about how I am fulfilling his needs and desires than my own.

I enjoy being fucked from behind but the problem is that without twisting my neck enough to make it sore later, I can't really watch what he is doing. With some guys, that's not such a bad thing, especially if they aren't all that good looking. But with my dad I like to look at his face and see the lust in his eyes, to see his cock as it strokes in and out of me, to feel him inside of me at the same time I see him push into me. Thus I was thrilled when he pulled out of me and twisted me around. My pussy, though, was crying out to be filled again and I squirmed as I wondered what he would do to me next.

"You want more, don't you?" he teased me, "My baby girl can't wait to get more of her daddy's cock, can she?"

"Daddy!" I whined a little, "Stop teasing me."

He laughed a little at that and reached behind me to pick up the cross and set it on the floor. Then he grabbed me by the waist and lifted me up and set me down on the altar. I could feel the softness of the cloth that covered it against my bare ass and for just an instant, wondered if rubbing your bare butt against an altar cover wasn't going a little too far!

Spreading my knees apart, my dad moved between me and up against my crotch. I put my hand just behind me so I could lean back a little and I watched as his dick moved in closer and then quickly disappeared once again inside of me. At the same time I felt that feeling you get when a cock is in your pussy and it was almost over whelming to realize that the feeling I was getting was from my dad's cock that I was watching push inside of me.

My dad's hands were back on my hips again, pushing and pulling me in sync with his thrusts in and out of me. It felt wonderful!

"Oh daddy... fuck me," I moaned softly, "I want you to cum in me... make me yours"

He probably would have cum about then except for one minor detail - the knocking on the door. My heart skipped a beat as I wondered if anyone had bothered to lock the door! Fortunately, my mom's precautions paid off and she went to the door and opened it slightly.

"Oh, I'm so sorry, I thought I heard something and I just wanted to be sure everything was OK?" a voice came in from the hallway.

It sounded like one of the elders in church and if it was the one I was thinking of, he was a busybody that loved to stick his nose in everyone else's business.

As my mom told him it was just her and she was sorry if anyone as disturbed, my dad and I were literally frozen in place. It was about as surreal of a scene as I could have ever imagined. Here I was, bare ass on a church altar, my own father's hard dick deep in my pussy, while my mom talked to an elder of the church as if everything was fine and normal! Well, it may have been "normal" for us, but somehow I doubted out church would have been so understanding if they found out someone was committing incest in the prayer room right in the middle of the church service!

Even though neither of us was moving a muscle, I could feel my dad's dick throbbing inside of me and I clenched my pussy to squeeze down on him. He obviously wasn't expecting me to be doing anything like that as he jumped just a little and then had to cover his mouth to keep from making a sound. He looked at me sternly but then he cracked a smile but wagged his finger at me as if to say I should behave myself. Yeah right, like I was the one with his dick in his daughter on top of an altar!

My mom shut the door and I heard the distinctive click of the lock this time. She resumed her seat and shook her head slowly at us.

"Now you two behave yourselves and keep it down," she admonished us, "Thank god he knocked and didn't just come right in!"

We responded with a "yes, Mommy" and "yes, Dear" and it was back to the business at hand. Well, there wasn't anything business" at all to what we were doing but the phrase fits. If anything, I think almost getting caught made the two of us even hornier than ever.

Given the way society views incest, my dad was always careful to be sure we were never caught in public yet he still seemed to love the thrill of pushing the envelope to where we ALMOST got caught. As disastrous as it would have been to be found fucking in church, ALMOST getting caught was obviously a huge turn-on from him judging from the way he was banging me harder than ever right off the bat.

"Here it cums baby," he groaned softly, his eyes shut tight and his face tense, "Daddy's cumming in you!"

I looked over at my mom and a huge smile broke out on my face as I felt him releasing his sperm inside of me. She knew what that smile meant and she mouthed "I love you," to me as my dad shared himself with me. It wasn't nearly his normal load but what could you expect under the circumstances? Besides, when he came in my pussy it was not so much how MUCH he came but the fact he did it in the first place that made me happy.

When his orgasm had expired, my dad pushed himself deep into me and we just stayed that way for a few minutes, a father and daughter joined intimately, sharing their love for one another. Finally it my mom who brought us down to earth.

"OK you two, get it together, we need to get out of here before the service ends."

I listened to the service and realized our pastor was delivering his post-sermon prayer. That meant we had only a little time during the final hymn to sneak back in to the service. For me it was pretty easy, I just dropped my dress back down and straightened my hair. My dad's cock was rapidly shrinking as he pulled his pants back up which was good as it meant he wouldn't have to hide himself on the return trip. My mom straightened out the altar and then I heard her mumble something under breath.

"What's the matter mom?" I asked.

Look at this, you go the altar cover all wet!" she huffed, "Here, help me turn it around and try to hide it.

I shrugged my shoulders as if to say, "not my fault" while my dad just chortled.

"Give the poor girl a break Mary," he said, "I know someone else that use to soak the car seats in my parents car!"

My mom playfully slapped him as she put the cross back in place and straightened everything out. Then she shooed us all out and we left the room together. We hadn't gone twenty feet down the hall when our friend the elder walked by. He looked at the three of us and a surprised expression came to his face.

"Hey John, good to see you again," he said, putting his hand out to shake my dad's. "Sorry, I didn't realize the three of you were in there together. Anything I can help with?"

I bit my tongue hard to keep from breaking out laughing. If he only knew what kind of help he would have needed to give had he joined us! My dad just shook his head and move forward, leaving the guy behind. I wondered if he had any suspicion at all of what the REAL story was but then, why would he? I mean, how many people would suspect that a father would commit incest with his daughter right in the middle of church?

When we got to the sanctuary, everyone was standing and the organ was blaring for the final hymn. I slipped in first into the pew next to Kristen followed by my mom and then my dad.

"Well?" Kristen asked.

I just grinned and nodded and her eyes widened.

"You REALLY did it?" she said. She wasn't so much surprised as confirming what she knew. I quickly put my finger in my mouth and then took it out and she just rolled her eyes at me and grinned.

Once the service was over, we all streamed slowly out and stood in line to shake the pastor's hand. Standing there, I could feel my dad's cum starting to drain from my pussy and I prayed that the line would hurry up so I could get to the restroom before something embarrassing happened. For once I was happy he had not cum a lot in me, as then it would have been a real possibility but it was just a feeling of dampness for now.

When it was our turn my dad shook the pastor's hand and he greeted us, commenting that it was nice to see our whole family back in church again. I suddenly felt incredibly horny as I wondered what he would have thought had he ANY idea of what we had really been doing during the service.

As soon as we passed by him, I told my mom I needed to visit the little girl's room and Kristen came with me. Surprisingly, nobody else was in there, I guess everyone was too anxious to get back home and use their own toilet. The heavy door shut behind us and Kristen checked out the stalls to be sure nobody was in there with us before she turned to me with a huge grin on her face.

"Well, was it like you planned?" she asked, the curiosity burning her up.

"Almost," I said and then I told her about our little "interruption". She giggled and then I reached under my dress and rubbed my pussy. Sure enough, there was a little wetness where my dad's cum had drained out a bit so I ran my fingers over it and then held them out to Kristen.

"Wanna taste?" I teased her?

Kristen sucked on my finger and grinned. "You are SUCH a slut, you know that don't you?"

"Oh? And I suppose you're not?" I retorted.

We both laughed as I washed my hands and we headed back to our parents. Our plans were to go to lunch to celebrate Father's Day but so far as I was concerned, the celebration had already been held. After all, it was only noon and already I'd been fucked twice by my dad, including once in church.

I certainly hoped this was going to be a Father's Day my dad would always remember!

(Jun 25) Chapter 86: Crashing Steve's Wedding

Story codes: MF F-solo oral inc father daughter
Me (20)
John - my dad (40)
Steve - ex-boyfriend, married Cindy (22)
Larry - best man (22)

It was almost six years ago when I gave Steve my virginity. Today I'm twenty and have been fucked by dozens of guys and sucked well over a hundred more since Steve moved away but I'll never forget my first time with him. I may not have been his first but I like to think I was his best. Hopefully at his wedding I could leave him with something to remind him of that when he was with his new bride!

1. Persuading My Daddy

I was just starting summer break after finishing my sophomore year in college when I opened up a fancy envelope in my mail and almost fainted when I saw what it was - an invitation to Steve's wedding! The wedding was to be held in a Chicago suburb where his fiance was from which worked out good for me since my grandmother lived not far away. I don't have a car and my parents weren't going to drive eight to nine hours one-way for a short weekend so somehow I had to convince my dad to buy me a ticket to fly there. Fortunately I knew there was always one way to ensure he would say yes...

That day my dad was watching TV, sitting back in his Lazy-Boy drinking a cold glass of ice water. It was a hot day and even though the air-conditioning was taking care of things he was still wearing nothing but the gym shorts he had on while doing some yard work earlier. My mom was getting supper ready upstairs in the kitchen and I knew the time was perfect to "persuade" my dad to buy me that plane ticket.

I went to my dresser and pulled out my favorite bikini - a skimpy string thong which was more string than thong. The only actual material was three triangles of jet black cloth that covered my pussy and nipples but not a whole lot more. The even had me and my cousin fuck some of his clients. He told them that we were dirty street whores he had hired to entertain them. I know he especially loved it the fact that he could fuck us in front of them without having them knowing that he was fucking his own daughter and niece.

As I lowered myself down I slowly twisted my hips in a circle as if I was screwing his cock into me. Well, I guess that is why they call it screwing! I don't think I will ever tire of the feeling I get whenever a man enters me for the first time when we fuck. My pussy feels like it is being spread apart and I can feel the head pressing its way into me like a big fat worm trying to tunnel into the earth. I can feel the pressure of his cock in me, feeling like I am being stuffed full by this hard warm invader. Deeper and deeper I let him into me, feeling his cock more and more within me as the sensation of his cock filling my pussy worked its way up from the bottom of my crotch towards my stomach.

My father doesn't have the biggest cock in the world but it still feels wonderful whenever it is all inside of me. My ass was grinding into his shorts as my pussy bottomed out against the base of his cock. I moaned loudly as I started to hump his cock, lifting myself up and then dipping back down on it. It was good to be able to control the pace and penetration while I fucked him. "Yes daddy, fuck me!" I cried out. "I want your cum in me. Please daddy, cum in me!"

My dad grunted as he lifted his hips up to meet me when I dropped down on his rock hard cock, trying to drive himself even deeper into me with each stroke. Sometimes we would fuck for hours in various positions and places with me sucking him at times and him eating my pussy. Tonight though I was in a bit of a hurry knowing my mom had supper almost ready to it was going to be was just an old-fashioned fucking - nothing fancy or wild as his cock fucked me while my pussy grabbed him, trying desperately to drive him over the edge until he couldn't hold back any longer.

My boobs bounced as I fucked my daddy and I leaned forward so he could take them in his mouth. I pulled my bikini up so he could take my bare nipple in his mouth and I put one hand under each boob and alternated them to his mouth. He sucked hard in my nipples and between that sensation and his cock ramming in and out of me I quickly came. I dropped my head back and let out a loud yell.

"OH GOD DADDY!" I cried out. "FUCK ME DADDY, FUCK ME!"

My pussy clamped down on his cock as my orgasm surged through me. I held it in me, circling my hips around it as I gripped it like a vise with my cunt. The harder

I cum the harder I grab a guy's cock. Some guys have actually had to ask me to not grab them so tight because it hurt their cocks! My pussy cum poured down over him, soaking his shorts as I ground my dripping pussy into them.

God I was in heaven! My wonderful dad was fucking me, I was cumming hard, and there was nothing better than this! Just as my orgasm began to settle down I could feel his cock swelling and I knew he was about to cum in me. I loved it when my dad came in me, filling me with his most precious gift he gave only to those few women he loved. To be joined together as we were, both physically and mentally, and then to feel him deposit a part of him within me was the truest expression of his love for me the I could ever ask for.

"Please cum in me daddy," I begged, "Fill your daughter with your love! Give me your love daddy. Oh please, show me how much you want me, show me how much you love me."

He suddenly jerked upwards. "Oh yea, take it slut," he grunted, "Oh fuck... Oh yeah, I'm cumming now Kelly!"

Cum he did. The first load was huge and I could feel it surging from his cock deep inside of me creating a hot flash deep inside my womb as my father's cum filled his daughter's starving pussy. Again and again he released his love into me. I dreamed so often of this prized moment.

This was the time when my dad truly showed me in a physical way how much he loved me, how much he lusted for me, how much he wanted me in that special way only he could. Feeling my dad cum in me, knowing my own father was giving me the most personal and precious gift he had, made me feel more loved than any daughter deserved. He could give me anything else, presents, money or whatever and it meant nothing in comparison to how I felt when his cock surged inside of me.

When he had finished, he collapsed in the chair in exhaustion and I sat in his lap with his throbbing cock still in me. Now and then he would twitch and I could feel him move slightly inside of me. I kissed him again and we held the kiss for the longest time until suddenly our moment of bliss was interrupted by a voice calling down from upstairs.

"Hey you two sex fiends!" my mother called down the stairway, "Finish whatever deviant things you are doing and get you here. Supper's ready."

We smiled at each other like two kids sharing a secret as I reluctantly lifted myself up and off of his cock. I would have rather sat there all night, waiting for him to get hard again and fucking me over and over. Well, it wasn't going to happen tonight so I got up off from the chair and then leaned over him, taking his limp wet cock in my mouth and licking it to clean off the mixture of our cum that was covering it.

Mmmmmmm it tasted so good! I loved the taste of a man's cum and I especially loved the flavor of my pussy so mixing the two together made for a succulent taste I wished I could bottle! His cock was still sensitive from our fucking and he jumped as I sucked briefly on it.

"Damn Kelly," he moaned, "You have simply got to stop or else I'll have to fuck you again and you know what your mother would say."

I would have gladly let him do it but like he said, I knew my mom would be pissed if we ruined her supper so I stood up and adjusted my bikini bottom. My dad's shorts had a big wet spot in the front now and it looked like he had an accident but I knew that was the last thing he was concerned about. I gave him a kiss on the cheek and giggled as I turned and ran up the stairs ahead of him, wiggling my butt suggestively for him to watch.

I sat down at the kitchen table and my dad soon joined me as my mother served supper. I was still so excited from the fucking my dad had just given me that I squirmed around on my chair like a four year-old that has to go to the bathroom. My dad still had the wet spot in the crotch of his shorts so it didn't take a Harvard graduate to figure out what we had been doing!

My mom looked at both of us and laughed saying, "Well, from the stink of sex coming from the two of you and Kelly's non-stop squirming I would say you two must have had a good time. Hmmmmmm, Kelly wasn't down there that long John so I take it she must have really been horny tonight judging from the way she came on your shorts!"

I beamed at that, knowing that yes indeed I had been horny for my dad and the proof of my dad's love for me was in the cum I could feel leaking from my pussy.

"So Kelly," my dad said after we prayed and started eating, "I know that you just didn't come down to let me fuck you no matter what you say. Not that I would ever want to discourage you but c'mon, you have something up your sleeve so spill it girl, what's the story?"

I sighed deeply but after all, this WAS why I fucked him tonight so I explained about the invitation to Steve's wedding and begged my dad to let me fly there. I was even ready to get under the table and "persuade" him more if I had to but my parents just looked at each other and shrugged. He agreed and I squealed with delight, hugging and kissing them both. Immediately after supper I got on-line to book my flight.

2. Flying Sucks

The next day I mailed my RSVP and Steve called me a few days later. We arranged it so he would pick me up at O'Hare and take me to my grandmother's to stay so I wouldn't have to pay for a hotel room. It was only a couple weeks before the wedding so I didn't have much time to look for a dress but by the fateful weekend I was ready with a hot dress and numerous masturbation sessions behind me as I dreamed of the times I had with Steve.

My mom drove me to the airport since my dad was working. She dropped me off at the departures area and since I had already checked in on-line I headed straight for the gate. When I got to the security area I was amazed at the hassle I had to go through. The last time I had flown was almost eight years ago when my parents and I went to Florida for a vacation. Things certainly are different now!

What really pissed me off though was the extra search they put me through after I went through the metal detector. Even though nothing went off some older woman in a uniform pulled me over and claimed I had been selected "randomly" for a more thorough search. I was wearing a pair of jeans that I had to lay on my bed and pull as hard as I can with both hands to get them on. They were so tight I couldn't put anything in the pockets and with no panties you could see the outline of my ass perfectly and even my pussy lips if I spread my legs. On top I had on my favorite pink cami which was also skin tight and left no doubt as to the fact I wasn't wearing a bra either. Where in the world was I going to hide anything in this outfit!

Needless to say, the ridiculousness of the situation meant nothing to this Nazi woman who insisted that she had to run her hands over practically every square inch of me. When she rubbed up between my legs I had a brief thought about this could be the start of some porn movie episode where they led me off for a more "private" search but it was soon over. She handed me my boarding pass and it was off to the gate for me.

When I got to the gate it was packed. It seemed everyone in Pittsburgh was heading to Chicago! Finally the gate attendant started to call off rows for boarding and I joined the line to get on board. When I approached my seat I realized I was stuck in a center seat between two men, both looking to be business guys maybe in their thirties or early forties.

I excused myself and asked the guy in the aisle seat if I could get in. The guy was reading some report and at first he had a look of exasperation as he realized his empty middle seat was about to be filled. Then he looked up at me and I almost laughed at the transformation as he smiled and his eyes traveled up and down me in a quick survey. From the way he looked at my chest I knew he was a boob man and with me not having a bra on something told me I knew where his eyes were going to be the whole flight!

I sat down between them and buckled myself in, trying not to appear too pleased at the attention I was getting. The flight was short so I just read the airline magazine and listened to some music. I found myself daydreaming and imagining myself pretending to be sleeping while each of the guys next to me started to let their hands wander over my legs until lone was brave enough to slip between them and feel the warmth of my pussy.

I dreamed of waking up and smiling at them and giving them both a hand-job to the utter disgust of the matronly flight attendant. Unfortunately with a full flight there was no way anything was going to happen like that so I just dreamed and felt myself getting hornier until finally we reached Chicago. It was a good thing it wasn't a longer flight or I would have had to slip into the toilet and take care of something!

As we were standing up to leave the plane I pressed my ass into the guy's crotch behind me and wiggled it just enough to let him know it wasn't an accident. I never looked back at him but he didn't pull back! I bet he had some wild dreams that night as he masturbated and thought of initiating me into the mile-high club!

3. Picked Up By Steve

At the airport I my luggage was the last to come off the ramp and I hurried out to the curb to wait for Steve, hoping he hadn't given up on me after my long wait for the luggage. Suddenly I heard someone call out my name and I turned to see someone approaching me. I vaguely recognized the face but the rest of him was a total stranger. My god had Steve ever changed! He was no longer a skinny and short sixteen year old teenager boy. The MAN running up to me was tall (he must have been over sex feet) and VERY handsome with a body that had obviously been a frequent visitor to the gym. He ran up until he was by me and stopped a couple of feet away and looked me over with a big grin on his face.

"Kelly?" he said with an inquisitive look on his face. I nodded, not sure what to say and he continued, "Damn, you have certainly grown up. Wow! Look at you girl!"

I must have flushed a bit because I could feel my face getting warmer. "Hi Steve, I almost didn't recognize you. God, you have changed a bit yourself." I laughed nervously, "I seem to remember being the same height as you and now... well now you're head and shoulders taller!"

What I didn't say was that now he also had the body of stud and I couldn't help but wonder what else had grown on him. Steve's cock was the first one I ever sucked and it had pierced my virginity so I guess I was still a bit biased when I recalled the size of it. Somehow I had a feeling I wouldn't need to inflate my memories today with it.

We then hugged and I was a bit disappointed he didn't kiss me. It was over five years since we'd last seen each other and I guess over that time I had many a dream about how we would meet again someday. There were so many times I would be playing with myself in bed imagining how he would sweep me off my feet and kiss me with all the passion of a long-lost lover.

I don't need to say what I imagined happened next but it certainly wasn't this rather platonic greeting that was happening now in real life. I was thrilled to see Steve but I was reminded of why I was here. He was getting married so there was someone else in his life now. Well, he may love her but I knew deep down he had to remember fucking me. I wasn't his first but I was now determined to show him I was his best.

Steve had parked in the garage when I didn't show up so he could go inside to see if I had made it. When we got back to his car he tossed my luggage into the trunk and we drove to my grandma's house. Along the way we exchanged small talk and it was a bit awkward given it had been almost a year since we had even talked and many more since we had been face-to-face.

Steve was obviously in love though with Cindy, his bride, and as much as I was happy for him I couldn't help but feel a twinge of jealousy. Thankfully Steve was the first to open the door to the subject I knew we both wanted to talk about but I wasn't sure how to initiate the discussion.

"You know Kelly, there are still times when I think of you. I mean, Cindy's great and I love her to death but I will never forget the times we had back then. It's hard today to believe you were barely out of eighth grade when we did it that first time!"

I smiled and nodded my head. "Yea, those were some great times!"

The rest of the way home we reminisced about some of the things we had done together. We laughed at some of the more crazy antics and both of us reminded the other what ridiculous chances we had taken at times. I found that while I enjoyed our conversation, at the same time it was difficult sitting in the front seat with him like just any other passenger.

Thoughts of what I use to do when we drove around kept coming to my head and my pussy was getting hot and wet as I looked at him now. He had grown into such a handsome man and I could see from the rise in his pants that my earlier suspicions about how the rest of him had grown were correct! Six years ago I would have been unzipping his jeans and pulling it out but today all I could do was imagine how wonderful it would be.

We finally arrived at my grandmother's home and he leaned over to give me a quick kiss on the cheek as I got ready to exit the car.

"It's great to see ya again Kelly. See you at the wedding!" he called out to me as I closed the door behind me.

4. Surprising Chat With My Grandmother

As he drove away I started to wonder if this was all such a good idea. Talking to Steve on the way home had just reminded me of the incredible times we had together and had opened some old wounds from when he left me that had taken years to heal. Like most memories, perhaps I was guilty of inflating the good and pushing aside the bad times.

I caught myself questioning myself, wondering if it had really been as great as I remembered it or were these just the memories of a young teenage girl infatuated with her first lover? Was I setting myself up to ruin all those memories?

I started to wonder if maybe I should have just stayed home and left things the way they were. Seeing Steve in love with another girl was turning out to be so much harder than I had ever dreamed it would be.

In my heart I had to admit a small part of me had been hoping that when he saw me again he would want to leave his bride to have me back. I knew one thing for

The one thing my mom had not talked a lot about though was how my grandma had been through those years. I did know she had never even once had sex with her daughters but yet she had encouraged the two sisters to satisfy their dad's needs. Other than that my mom had not said much more so this night I was learning a LOT more! At one point I couldn't resist any more so I asked her why she had never joined in. My grandma smiled and shook her head slowly.

"Well Kelly, I was raised in a very strict home so I guess despite everything I have never gotten that brainwashing out of my head. I truly have never wanted to have sex with a girl, not even in a fantasy so I must not be wired the same way you are. To have sex with my daughters was even less imaginable then and still is. It's not some sort of moral issue; after all I loved watching Bill as he fucked our daughters because I knew they could satisfy him in ways I couldn't. I couldn't blame him for wanting to have sex with two beautiful teenagers who were somehow hornier than hell 99% of the time. We knew they were doing each other anyway so why not let him indulge? I was also happy that he did it with our daughters and kept it in the family rather than seeing other women." Listening to her talk I couldn't help but feel a bit horny. She told me about some of the places my mom and grandpa had fucked and how exciting it was especially when she and my aunt were still young and eager to learn and do new things. I couldn't help but laugh as she described how shamelessly sexy they could be at times in front of their father. At least I knew where my sex genes had come from!

As she kept talking her face became flushed a bit and I was a bit shocked at first to realize that talking about all of this was turning her on as much as it was me.

"So Grandma, do you like to think about those days?" I asked, knowing the answer but wanting to hear her say it.

She sighed and closed her eyes. "Oh yes Kelly, I miss Bill so much. I'm sure if he was still here tonight that he would be wanting to have sex with you as well. He always talked about you as you were growing up and I know he couldn't wait to have you. There were times when you stayed here back then that he would go off to our bedroom and masturbate to relieve the sexual tension in him that built whenever you sat on his lap or pranced about in your little bikinis. Frankly, looking at you now I can imagine watching him fucking you on the floor in front of me and I have to admit that it makes me more than just a little bit excited."

Her eyes were still closed as one of her hands slipped away from mine and I watched as she opened her robe and reached down to her pussy and started to rub herself. Oh my god! My own grandmother was masturbating right in front of me! She was 62 and still looked good for her age but it still was a bit unnerving at first.

After the initial shock wore off though I found that seeing an older woman masturbating next to me on the couch was one of the more erotic things I had witnessed in a long time! It didn't hurt that my grandma was really getting into it!

"Oh Kelly," she moaned softly, "Tell me how you would want your grandpa to fuck you."

Well, this evening was certainly turning into something different than I had ever expected! Not to be outdone by a woman three times my age, I undressed quickly and laid back against the end of the couch.

I spread my legs and started to touch myself as I watched my grandmother fantasizing about me fucking the husband she missed so much. She slid down the couch a bit and spread her legs wide as both hands went to work on her hairy pussy.

I started "talking" to my grandpa, telling him how much I loved his cock and how bad I wanted him to fuck me with it. Although I would have loved for her to watch me as well, my grandmother's eyes stayed closed for the entire time we masturbated together, even when I cried out as I imagined him cumming in me.

She came several times, humping her hips violently into her hand as she whispered for him to fuck me and to cum in me. Then she told me to please my grandfather, to be a good granddaughter for him. As for myself, I had two of the most incredible orgasms watching my grandmother getting off as I fantasized for her about my grandfather fucking me.

I would have loved to have kneeled in front of her and tasted her pussy cum but I respected her feelings about that and somehow found the willpower not to even try, probably more because I didn't want to hear her say no more than anything else.

When we both had finished she took me in her arms and held my naked body tight against her. Her robe had come off long before and it felt strange to be naked against my grandmother. She sighed and looked at me with such love in her eyes.

"Oh Kelly, thank you for that. You have no idea how much I needed it. Mmmmmmm, I remember holding your mother like this after we would masturbate together. I felt so close to her when we shared that experience, just as I feel now with you. You're a wonderful daughter and granddaughter!"

Well, we certainly were closer now than we had ever been or I had ever dreamed I would be - physically as well as emotionally. We laid like that for a while longer before going to bed. That night I masturbated for the longest time, cumming several times.

5. Memories of Steve

At first I couldn't help but imagine what might have happened tonight if my grandfather was still alive. God what an evening this would have been! My grandpa had died years ago and my memories were a bit vague but I could still imagine how erotic it would have been to feel his cock entering my pussy for the first time while my grandmother watched, encouraging us and masturbating as her husband fucked his young granddaughter's tight pussy.

Then my thoughts turned to the first time Steve fucked me, tearing away my virginity as his cock entered where no other had gone before. Then I dreamed again of some of the times and places we had done it afterwards.

We shared so many first-time experiences, at least for me. There was the night in the movie theater when I first sucked his cock and tasted his hot sperm for the first time. I knew I loved sucking his cock from the start but never would I have believed what my craving for cock and cum would drive me to later!

After Steve there were not many boys I went out with who I didn't suck before the evening was over and those few I never dated again. Although I loved sucking their cocks, I wouldn't let the majority of them touch me and even fewer ever got to fuck me but I love giving blowjobs and as long as he is clean that is all it takes to convince me. It wasn't long after I started sucking him before that fateful day in his basement where I gave him my virginity.

We fucked like horny rabbits after that, two and three times a day sometimes, everywhere we could. Nothing was sacred when it came to fucking - he even did me on the church altar once and another time in the pastor's study on his desk. We loved being a bit naughty when we had sex to make it fun and exciting like when he fucked me on a school swing set where anyone could have stopped by and seen us.

I smiled as my fingers caressed my swollen clit as I recalled teasing his brother and then fucking him later on. His sister Sharon and I were good friends and she loved to hear about what her brother did to me, especially since she wanted him to do it to her as well. That never happened so far as I know but she did spend an evening with us when she shot my first set of nude photos while Steve watched.

I finally fell asleep, totally exhausted after hours of masturbating and cumming more times than I could remember. The sheets were soaked but I didn't care, it was my cum anyway. The next morning I slept in and didn't get up until after 10:00AM. I quickly got up, threw on a t-shirt, and went to the kitchen to have breakfast with my grandmother. She smiled at me as I sat down at the table.

"Good morning Kelly," she greeted me, "Just so you know, my clit is sore this morning from the workout I gave it last night but it was well worth it. You are such a sweetie. I can't believe how much you remind me of your mother when she was around your age."

I gave her a devilish smile and said, "Well you know Grandma, I could always lick it and make it feel better." As soon as I said it I couldn't believe that I had but fortunately she just laughed and sat down across from me.

"Well, you certainly are your mother's daughter," she laughed, "She was always after me that way as well. Much as it I am sure it would feel good, I'll take care if it but thanks for the offer."

I couldn't help but feel a twinge of disappointment. I had woken up incredibly horny and could have easily jumped into bed with her if she hadn't been making breakfast already. Oh well, I guess I would have to see what opportunities came up (literally) today to relieve myself. After breakfast I hurried upstairs to shower and get myself ready. I would have given anything to have the door open and my grandmother step into the shower with me.

I masturbated in the shower thinking of her hands moving over me, exploring another woman's breasts and pussy for the first time after all those years of just watching. A mild orgasm filled me as I stood in the hot shower stream. I imagining her cumming as I licked her pussy which hadn't been fucked in so many years. Then I thought of how my mother must have stood in this same shower when she was a teenager, doing the same thing I was now as she dreamed of being more intimate with her mother. I felt a tingle between my legs as I imagined her and my aunt going at it in this same shower and my grandfather would open the shower door and join them. Mmmmmmm, there were times I wish I had a sister. Kristen, my cousin, was about as close as anyone could be but seeing my mom and aunt together I knew there was a bond between sisters that not even cousins could share.

The wedding wasn't until 2:00PM but I wanted to get there a bit early to see Steve and his family. I had brought with me my new slinky peach colored dress with spaghetti straps that clung to me like saran wrap. I loved the feel of the material against me and without a bra it outlined my boobs perfectly and my perky nipples showed through nicely. I figured I didn't know anyone at the wedding besides Steve and his family so I may as well look as good as I could. The dress was so short that it barely covered my ass so I pulled on a matching peach thong that tried valiantly to cover my pussy but failed at hiding much of anything else.

The last touch was a matching set of three inch spike heels that showed off my legs and ass as well as possible. Grabbing a tiny purse that held just my driver's license and more importantly, my dad's credit card, I went out to the living room where my grandma was watching TV. She turned and grinned as she looked at me.

"Oh yes, I see your mother so much in you now." she said. "I remember her and Linda going out on dates looking like two little whores. They use to drive the poor guys crazy."

I imagined my mother at my age, dressing in her sluttiest clothes to go out with my dad. In reality, when she was my age they were married and had me but that didn't stop me from fantasizing about it.

She laughed then and looked at me with a grin, "Somehow I doubt you picked out that dress planning to keep it on for long!"

"Oh grandma!" I said with a fake pout, secretly pleased she had read my motives.

6. Last Time Before His Vows

My grandmother was letting me borrow her car so I left and drove off to the wedding. Even after the shower I was still horny and having my grandmother tell me about my mom hadn't helped things. My dress was so short that it kept wanting to ride up my thighs as I drove. It seemed there was a stoplight every block and all of them red so I had plenty of opportunities to tug it back down.

As I drove, thoughts of my parents kept flashing through my mind and I found myself imagining my mother in the car with my dad on a date, dressed in a dress even sluttier than the one I had on now. I had no doubt she put on a pretty good show for my dad and probably for the people in the cars around them as well.

At the next light I stopped and decided to put the time waiting to better use so instead of tugging at the hem I pulled my dress up even higher until it was up to my stomach and I was sitting bare-ass on the leather seat except for my thin thong. I pulled it over to the side so I could get my finger on my clit directly. Tracing my finger from my clit down to my pussy hole I felt the wetness of my cunt and I dragged the moisture up to make my clit slippery. Suddenly red lights weren't so bad!

Even with the heavy traffic it was only about thirty minutes before I arrived at the church during which time I masturbated most of the way, finishing myself off in the church parking lot before I got out.

I was still plenty early and when I went inside everyone was scurrying about getting things ready. Looking around I saw Sharon, Steve's sister and my long lost friend and we hugged each other.

Steve's mom greeted me as well and looking at her my thoughts instantly flashed back to that day in their living room when she "caught" Steve fucking me and then to my total surprise she joined in and let him fuck her! She was all flustered about something to do with the ceremony so we exchanged a quick "Hi!" and that was about it.

Sharon and I left the noisy bridal room and sat off together on a couch in a lounge area of the church where we tried to catch up on the six years that had passed since they had moved away.

A little later Steve came by and joined us. I guess being the groom at a wedding isn't as hectic as being the bride because he said for the moment there wasn't anything he needed to do but wait around and look pretty. Sharon and I both laughed at that one but looking at him he really did look hot in his fitted black tux.

I gave Sharon with an inquisitive look and winked but she just shook her head and smiled ruefully. As usual Steve missed that exchange entirely but I knew what it meant. Sharon had always had a thing for her brother and I was wondering if she had ever made her dreams come true. Well, evidently not from her cheerless response.

Steve took my hand and motioned for me to stand up, telling Sharon that he need to show me something. Sharon just grinned and didn't say a word but from the look on her face she knew exactly what was going to happen. Hopefully she was right as I was also thinking about the groom in some nasty ways his bride would not have approved of!

I followed Steve to a room off a deserted hallway in the church and he silently shut the door behind us. There wasn't a lock but I doubted anyone would be coming back to this out of the way part of the church any time soon.

Steve looked at me at smiled saying, "Kelly, all I could think about after I dropped you off last night were those times we had together. Cindy would kill me for this but I simply can't get married without having you one last time."

Wow! I couldn't believe what he was saying. Not that I was upset or anything by it but rather just the opposite - I couldn't believe my wildest dream was about to come true. I was actually going to be the last girl he fucked before he got married; and at the church he was soon to be married in to boot!

I know there are people who would condemn me for doing something as deceitful as this but honestly I didn't feel even an ounce of guilt. After all he wasn't married yet so there were no vows to break. His bride would have him for the rest of her life so why should I be denied this one last chance to be fucked again by the guy who held my virginity?

Steve unzipped and unbuttoned his pants as I pulled my dress up to my waist and stepped out of my thong, leaving me bare-bottomed with my dress bunched up under my boobs. Fortunately the material was the type that didn't wrinkle so I left it on rather than fooling around with taking it off and then later having to get back into it again - not an easy task! I felt my pussy heating up and my mouth going dry as he pulled his cock out from his pants. Wow! He really HAD grown up!

Steve stroked his cock as I knelt in front of him and took it in my hand. He was already almost two hands long and my hand barely went around the thick shaft - and he was STILL growing! He put his hands on my head and moved me towards his engorged cock until it was pressing against my mouth. I opened my lips and allowed his head to enter my waiting mouth.

Instantly I was transported back to the dark movie theater where I tasted this same cock for the first time so long ago. Damn, if it had been this big back then I would have probably been too scared to suck it! I started to suck it, rubbing my tongue around it as I did, taking a bit more if him into my mouth with each stroke.

Steve started fucking my mouth, swinging his hips to drive himself in and out of it. He was so big now I was having a hard time getting him in all in but if there was one thing I knew with all certainty and that was that today he was going to be all the way in my mouth one way or another! I relaxed my throat and let the smooth head press its way down into it, driving into my throat as he groaned from the pleasure it gave him.

For a moment I thought I would gag but my many hours of practice saved me and I soon had all of his cock in my mouth with my face pressed up against his crotch. His coarse, thick pubic hair trickled my cheeks and I could smell some cologne on him but it was being overwhelmed by the muskiness of his sex that was being released by his lust for me. I couldn't breathe with his cock down my throat so I had to let him out but I deep-throated him several times that way before I heard that old familiar groan.

When we fucked years before I always knew when he was going to cum from his distinctive groan and I was thrilled that he still did the same thing. I wondered for a moment if he did that with Cindy but seconds later my thoughts were brought back from this tangent as he jerked and I felt the first stream of his creamy cum striking the back of my throat. I didn't want any cum to get on me or my dress and I was sure he didn't want cum stains on his tux so I worked hard to keep his entire load in my mouth. It wasn't easy though as not only had his cock grown over the years, but the load he delivered was much larger than he had in the past as well. He even tasted the same as I remembered and I swallowed his cum just like I always did for him.

When he was finished I sucked every drop out of him that I could and then finally I released his cock from my mouth but kept my hand on it, stroking him to keep him hard. He was so damn horny there was no way a single load was going to drain him and his cock was still as big as a horse as I smiled up at him with just a trace of his cum dripping out the corner of my mouth.

"Jesus Christ!" he gasped, "I had almost forgotten how damn good you were at that Kelly. Fuck! You are a natural born cocksucker!"

"Better than Cindy?" I asked with an impish grin.

"Better than ANYONE!" he exclaimed. "She's NEVER given me a blowjob anything like that!"

I stood up and kissed him, my mouth still flavored with his slimy cum. I used his cock like a leash as I led him to the desk in the back of the room. This must have been a classroom for small kids because the chairs were all a bit smaller than normal and from the looks of the posters on the wall I guessed it was a fifth or sixth grade classroom. We got to the desk and I turned my thoughts back to the guy whose cock I was holding...

"I'm glad you like your first wedding present Steve. Now it's time open your next one," I said seductively, "C'mon and fuck me Steve... oh God I want you to fuck me again soooooo badly. Fuck me like you use to... PLEASE!"

I sat on the desk top with my cunt at the edge, legs spread wide open for him. I could tell from the look in his eyes he wanted me, that he wanted to violate my pussy once again with his huge cock, just like he had done so many times before.

Steve held his cock in one hand as he lifted my right leg up and over his shoulder which had the effect of lifting my butt up slightly and making it easier for him to enter me. I gasped as I felt his big cock head pressing against my pussy hole, trying to force its way into me. He rubbed it up and down and it slid between my wet pussy lips until it was poised at the entrance to my pussy like a train about to enter a tunnel.

"Fuck me Steve, oh PLEASE fuck me," I begged. I wanted his cock in me so badly I wanted to just scream. My pussy felt like it was on fire and I knew the only thing that could satisfy it was that thick hard piece of warm flesh I could feel pressing up against it. He just held it there, driving me crazy with lust as I tried to lift my hips and drive him into me. I knew he wanted to fuck me just as bad so it wouldn't be long before he couldn't hold off anymore.

Steve looked up and I heard him softly say, "Forgive me Cindy."

Damn, I was so lost in my own pleasure I had forgotten for a moment where we were! The lust in me grew even more if that was possible as I thought about his bride down the hall, getting ready to marry the man of her dreams, the same man who was getting ready to fuck his old girlfriend just minutes before pledging his life to her. I would have loved for her to open the door and see her husband-to-be fucking me, seeing his wonderful cock entering me in the very church they were to be married in shortly. YES! He was going to be standing at the altar in just an hour and here he was about to fuck me again like a young boy in heat!

Steve held back as long as he could but he'd never been able to say no to my pussy before and today was no exception. He pushed forward and I felt my pussy spread open and my legs parted even more as his big cock penetrated me. God, I thought I was going to be split in two! He was big but it felt great as he slowly slid deeper and deeper into my wet cunt.

I was so wet that as big as he was he still was able to slide into me easily and just as I was starting to wonder how far I could take him in the base of his cock pressed up against my crotch and I knew he was all in me. I was in heaven - my Steve was fucking me again after all these years!!

I looked down and saw his hairy crotch pressed tight up against my bare pussy. I thought back to the first time he was in me this way and how amazing it was then to realize that his cock was actually inside of me, surrounded by my pussy. Back then he didn't have nearly as much hair and my own pussy was covered with fuzzy new pubic hair which mixed with his longer coarse hair. Today I could feel his bushy pubic hair tickling my bare skin around my cunt and it felt wonderful.

I loved to watch a man fuck me, to see his cock disappearing inside of me knowing that we were actually joined together as only a man and woman can be. For this moment we were one body as I gave everything to him that I had to give. Steve was soon pounding me, his breath getting faster and his strokes deeper and harder.

Steve moaned and cried out so loud I was afraid someone might hear, "Oh fuck Kelly your cunt feels soooooo good. Take my cum you little whore, take it all!"

While I freely admit to and in fact am proud to be a slut, I draw the line at being a whore but at that moment I wasn't going to argue. He could call me anything he wanted right then and I wouldn't have dreamed of objecting. All I knew was he was about to cum and I wanted it more than anything else. It was only a couple more strokes before my wish came true as his cock jerked into me even deeper than any time before and suddenly it was like a burst of heat inside of me as he came.

Even though he had just cum a few minutes before he still had quite a load this time around and I could feel him ramming his cock into me as deep as he could with each spasm. He grunted each time his cock unloaded another stream of sperm into me and I threw my head back and moaned loudly as I came with him. I didn't care who heard me at that moment. I just knew my first love was cumming in me again, just as he had so many times before and it was so beautiful.

Finally his store of sperm was exhausted and he fell down over me on the desk, kissing me as my cunt jealously held onto his now spent cock. I knew that from now on it would be Cindy's pussy that would enjoy this wonderful cock and I didn't want to give it up a moment before I had to.

7. Sharing With Sharon

Suddenly the door opened and for a brief second I thought we were in MAJOR trouble - or at least Steve was.

"Hey you two, there's a wedding about to start and they need a groom!"

Thank god, it was Sharon. I looked over at her and saw that she was taking in a nice view of her brother fucking an old girlfriend. I smiled at her and she smiled back, shaking her head with her hand to her mouth in mock disbelief. Steve pulled out of me quickly - too quickly as my pussy suddenly felt like it had a big hole in it that needed to be filled again.

I sat on the desk with my pussy dripping cum as Steve quickly rearranged himself. His cock was still a bit big but hopefully by the time he made his way to the wedding party it would have calmed down a bit. Besides, who would ever suspect that the groom had just fucked another girl?

After he left Sharon came over and helped me to gather myself and fix my dress. She handed my some tissues saying, "Here, your pussy is dripping pretty bad. Damn, he must have really cum hard!"

I took the tissues and wiped myself off. I got up and saw the desk was wet with my cum and there were spots of his cum where it had drained from me. I looked at Sharon and we both grinned as the same thought came to us both so I left the cum on the desk and wondered if anyone would notice it later. Putting on my thong, I knew it was going to probably get pretty wet sitting in the pews with me being this horny and no doubt there would be some of his cum leaking out of me but what else could I do? Fortunately the material didn't show all that much so hopefully nobody should notice. Then again...

Sharon broke my thoughts saying, "Well, I figured you wouldn't let him get married without one last fuck you naughty girl," Sharon still has a big grin going as she said, "Everyone was looking for Steve so it's a good thing I found you two first. Can you imagine if someone from her family had!"

We giggled and left to rejoin the events. On the way we stopped at the bride's room to see how things were going. I still hadn't met Cindy, Steve's fiance, and when I saw her in a stunningly gorgeous wedding dress I had to admit to myself she was even more beautiful than he had described. At least he wasn't marrying some ugly fat girl. Sharon introduced me as an "old friend" and we exchanged perfunctory greetings. Obviously Steve had not told her about our past relationship or else she was great at concealing her emotions because she seemed to have no idea who I was.

Sharon and I left to take a seat in the sanctuary. Sharon had invited me to sit next to her so I had a nice view of everything. As I sat through the service I found myself wanting to cry and there were a few times some tears made their way down my face. People probably thought I was just happy for the newlyweds but that wasn't the case at all. Steve was getting married for god's sake!

Even though I knew in my heart I never would marry him, it was still tough to see the man who had taken your virginity pledging himself to forever be faithful another woman. It didn't help that I could feel the wetness of my pussy from being fucked by him just an hour ago and there he was telling Cindy how much he loved her! During their vows I made one of my own - I was going to make sure that this was one promise he didn't keep!

8. First Time After His Vows

After the wedding I drove myself to a nearby hotel where the reception was being held. It was a big Marriott with a beautiful courtyard in the middle. We were served some snacks and cookies (plus beer and wine for the over-21 folks) before the reception while we waited for the wedding party to arrive. It took over an hour for them to appear with all the picture taking after the ceremony plus driving all over town.

We were herded into the reception hall when word came they were near and the disc jockey announced the wedding party as they arrived. Then Steve and Cindy were finally introduced as "Mr. And Mrs." and everyone rose to clap and cheer. They looked so happy but I remembered my earlier vow.

There was the traditional cake cutting, toast by the best man and then dinner was served. Afterwards there was the usual garter and bouquet throwing. I was pulled into the line for catching the bouquet but you can be sure I made no effort to catch it! The newly married couple danced and finally the ceremonial crap was over and the disk jockey played dance music and everyone started having fun.

People were lining up to dance with the bride and groom and eventually I got my turn to dance with Steve. You can imagine my surprise when he whispered to me saying, "Meet me out by the elevators in ten minutes."

I looked him in the eyes and I recognized the smirk on his face - it was the same one he use to flash at me when we would talk about where we wanted to fool around next and I found myself wondering just what Steve had in mind. It was one thing for me to fantasize about fucking the new husband but for crying out loud he had been married for only a few hours so he couldn't be thinking about cheating on her already - or could he? He kissed me on the cheek when the dance was over and we separated.

I waited a bit and then worked my way out of the room and went over to the elevators. Almost twenty minutes passed and I was about to leave, figuring he must have had second thoughts, when I saw him hurrying across the lobby.

"Sorry I'm late," he said as he caught his breath and pushed the elevator button, every old broad in the place wanted to dance!". The door opened immediately and he put his hand on my back and gently directed me in. "Let's go before someone sees us."

The doors shut and he pressed the floor button. Then he turned to me and without another word pulled me tight against him and kissed me. This wasn't the little peck on the cheek he was giving everyone and his grandmother in the reception line. No... this took me back almost six years and suddenly it was if I was fourteen again and he was kissing me while we laid on his bed, two horny teenagers going at it.

If we had more time I think it could have gone farther but the elevator stopped and the doors opened to let in another couple who, fortunately, we didn't know. The next stop was our floor and Steve led me down the hallway to one of the rooms.

"This is Larry's room," he explained. Larry was his best man and quite a hunk himself. "Lord knows what we'll find in here but I figured it was the best place to go where we wouldn't be disturbed."

Steve opened the door and we both hurried inside. I could just imagine someone we knew coming down the hallway and seeing the newly married Steve entering a hotel room with a girl in a streetwalker dress!

Steve closed the door and then turned to me and kissed me. "I can't believe that during my own wedding ceremony I was thinking about fucking you," he exclaimed. "Damn, I almost had a hard-on in the middle of the altar ceremony thinking of how good you sucked my dick just a few minutes before!"

I didn't waste any time as we didn't have long because people would wonder where Steve had gone. I pulled my dress up over my head and quickly stepped out of my thong leaving me naked in front of him with just my heels on. I knelt down in front of him as he undid his pants for me once again.

"God I can't believe I am doing this," he sighed, "What the hell is it with you Kelly? I have never had another girl that could make me do the things you make me do. Fuck, I have been married only a few hours and already you have me cheating on my wife. Damn bitch, I haven't even fucked my own wife yet!"

I looked up and smiled at him. "Oh quit fussing and give me that cock," I ordered playfully. This is one wedding I was never going to forget!

We both knew the risks he was taking being away from the reception with me so it was one of the fastest blowjobs and fucking that I had had in a while. It was ok with me though as I wasn't really doing it for pleasure. I was like a hunter stalking a trophy rather than hungering for meat. What I really wanted was for Steve to fuck me now that he had pledged himself publicly to his new wife. I wanted him to crave my sexuality to the point where he would cheat on his wife literally within hours of marrying her.

As he fucked me in the dark hotel room, I felt so incredibly sexy and hot knowing when he came deep inside of me that I was getting the first seed of his marriage instead of Cindy. Even though she would never know what I had stolen from her, I knew that Steve did and that when he made lover to her in their wedding bed tonight he would be thinking of me and how much more I satisfied his needs than she ever could. I couldn't imagine someone wanting me more badly, someone desiring and lusting for me more than Steve must have at this moment for him to break his wedding vows before the reception was even over.

It reassured me knowing I could make him do this, that my body and sexual energy was enough to drive him to this level of decadence. In all honesty I had no desire to break up his marriage or when it really came down to it, for Cindy to ever know. I wanted Steve to be happy and for his marriage to be long and loving. It was enough for me to know that whenever he fucked his wife that somewhere deep down he would remember fucking me this day and wish for maybe just a moment that it was my pussy or mouth that his cock was fucking.

When we were done we silently dressed and left the room without another word between us. Really, what was there to say? I hoped that Steve loved Cindy enough to at least feel a little guilty but at the same time I knew that he probably wouldn't have done this with anyone but me and after today I might never see him again so what did it really hurt? Besides, I sort of liked thinking that I might be the only woman he cheated on his wife with. Who knows, maybe someday I might visit him and fuck him while his kids played outside, never knowing that their daddy loved fucking another girl more than their mommy.

We decided to take separate routes back to the reception room and from the looks of things nobody had noticed that we were gone. I sat down at my table and watched as Steve hugged his new bride and danced with her as if nothing had just happened.

9. Steve's Best Man

I was watching them kissing and hugging and I felt that familiar twinge between my legs as I wondered what she would say if she knew his cock was covered with my pussy cum as he kissed her? Sharon sat down beside me and leaned over to whisper in my ear.

"You little slut!" she hissed, "I can't believe you Kelly. I always knew you were insatiable but this is going over the top, even for you!"

I looked at her and acted as if I had no idea what I was talking about. Sharon just rolled her eyes and grinned, taking the edge off the moment. "Oh give me a break girlfriend. You think nobody noticed that the two of you were gone? Well, I certainly did and it didn't take a computer to figure out what you were doing. I have to admit it Kelly, you must really be hot as that is the fastest I have ever heard of a groom cheating on his wife! Crap, look at her out there with him. She has no idea her new husband just fucked you!"

I just smiled and looked dreamy. It wasn't hard as that was how I felt. I could still taste him and my pussy still was stretched out from his big cock. Sharon, though, was always able to surprise me when I least expected it and now she did it again.

"Well, since you were so willing to fuck the groom, what about the best man?" Sharon asked.

I looked over at her and tilted my head the way a dog does when it is curious.

Sharon licked her lips and grinned saying, "Larry has been staring at you all day. If you had managed to take your eyes off of Steve for a moment you would have noticed. Want me to introduce you to him?"

I looked over at the dance floor and say Larry standing off to the side with a drink in his hand. He was handsome and looked like a nice guy so I nodded to

Sharon and the two of us hit the dance floor. At first we danced with each other and I loved knowing most of the guys were watching us as we were the two hottest girls in the floor. My dress didn't give me much leeway to dance and Sharon wasn't exactly in a modest outfit herself. Sharon maneuvered us over to where Larry was and as we passed by she stopped and pulled me over to him.

"Hey Larry, you meet Kelly yet?" she asked.

Larry of course had not so we danced for a while and then sat down at one of the tables to talk. Sharon stopped over and whispered something in his ear. His eyebrows raised and he looked at me a bit differently, like a starving dog would look at a fresh slab of meat. He turned back to Sharon and whispered something back and she just laughed and walked away, giving me a wink as she did.

"Well," I asked, "Are you going to tell me the big secret?"

"Sharon says you wanted to show me something in the courtyard," he answered. "Something to remember tonight by."

He grinned and I knew she had said more but he was putting it in more diplomatic terms. From the way he was licking his lips unconsciously I knew she had undoubtedly told him that I wanted to fuck him. Well, I did!

We left the room and walked over to the doors leading to the now darkened courtyard. It was getting late so not many people were around and I doubt anyone noticed us as we worked our way to the center where some benches were set up under a tree. Both of us sat down and just looked at each other, waiting for the other to make a move. I was never one to flinch from getting things started with a guy so I kicked things off.

"So Larry, do you believe in wedding traditions?" I asked.

"Well," he answered, "I guess it depends on which ones you mean."

"How about the best man screwing the maid of honor?

Larry chuckled, "Well that would be nice but she's not available."

I took a breath and decided to just go for it. "Well, you could pretend I was the maid of honor..."

Steve laughed a bit but his eyes never left my boobs. "Damn, Sharon said you weren't shy and I can see she was right. I have a room upstairs, want to head up there?"

I shook my head. I couldn't tell him I had just been in that bed and fucked Steve not an hour before and besides, the courtyard looked like a pretty cool place to fool around. I had a thing for fucking in public places and this was about as public as you could get without spotlights.

I pressed my hand on his crotch, feeling the promising start of an erection underneath. "Why not just do me here?"

An even bigger grin opened up on his face and he started to run his hands over me. "Well, you have definitely talked me into it," he said. I felt his hands as they brushed over my boobs and I grabbed them and put them back on me. He quickly took the hint and began to massage and play with my boobs. The material of my dress was so thin that as soon as my nipples started to respond they poked through like little bullets.

I rubbed his cock through his pants and felt it growing. He reached forward to try and kiss me but I pulled back. "I just want you to fuck me. Is that OK?"

That may have sounded like a stupid question but it really was more of an invitation. After all, what man would ever say he didn't want to just fuck a girl! I reached down with my other hand and started to unzip his pants. After undoing the buttons - damn a tux is a pain, I reached inside his underwear and pulled out his hardening cock. Well, it wasn't going to remain that way for long if I had anything to say about it!

I leaned over and took it in my mouth and as I did I thought about how this was my third blowjob of the day and the second cock. Not bad considering I was at a wedding! I have always loved trying out a new cock as everyone has its own personality and characteristics. No two cocks taste exactly the same or smell quite alike. Actually it is the odor of a crotch that really distinguishes one man from another if you look beyond the actual cock shaft itself.

Larry was not nearly as large as Steve but his cock was more than respectable and I couldn't wait to feel it exploding in my mouth. Larry lifted up enough for him to pull his pants and underwear down to his ankles which made it a lot easier for me to suck him. He was sitting bare-ass on the bench now and I looked up at all the rooms surrounding us and wondered if anyone in them knew there was a nice show in the courtyard that night. As dark as it was I doubted anyone could see anything even if they knew where to look but it was still exciting to have his dick in my mouth in front of hundreds of potential viewers.

I cupped his balls with one hand as my other hand held his firm butt. My mouth moved up and down his shaft as I gently massaged his balls and squeezed his butt at the same time. He ran his fingers through my hair and kept pulling it back out of the way so he could watch me blowing him.

"Mmmmmmm," he moaned, "You really ARE good! God your tongue is incredible."

In my humble opinion a talented tongue is the key to a great blowjob. I have watched so many girls just take a cock into their mouth and bob up and down on it like their pussy had moved north. My experience is that nothing drives a man crazier than to have my tongue working their cock as my lips slide up and down their silky shaft. Men also love it when I take their cock in my mouth until my face is buried deep in their crotch and they can feel the tip against the back of my throat (or down my throat in a more rare cases).

I can't believe how many men have confided in me that they have never been able to cum from just a girl sucking them. These poor guys have to help out at the end or have her stroke them with her hand. Well, I have never failed to be able to make a man cum in my mouth (when I wanted him to) which is a resume I am extremely proud of.

In Larry's case, I knew my record was safe. He was so horny it didn't take more than a few minutes before he was spurting his sperm into my waiting mouth. He tasted good and I wouldn't have minded a second helping but I knew there was more I needed for him to do to me.

I let his cock drop from my mouth and stood up in front of him, I lifted my skirt and pulled aside my thong to reveal my smooth bald pussy. As he stared at it I felt sexy as hell as I knew at that moment there could be only one thing running though his mind - fucking me. Well, I was certainly not going to keep him from doing that any longer than necessary so I leaned over until I was holding myself up on the bench seat next to him.

Larry stood up and got behind me as I spread my legs to give him a nice view of my ass and pussy. I looked back and saw him stroking his cock as he moved into position behind me. I gasped involuntarily as I felt the head of his still hard cock pressed against my waiting pussy and I wiggled my ass as he rubbed it up and down my pussy crack to get it wet and slippery.

When he finally pushed it into me I felt that sensual glow throughout me that I always get whenever a man's cock first enters me. It's hard to explain but I guess you could say it's like someone lights a match inside of me and my whole body catches fire like it was soaked in gasoline. At first it always feels like my pussy is too small and that he can't possibly fit it into me. Then as he forces his cock head into me it spreads me apart and stretches me to let the rest of him enter behind it. Larry's cock came about an inch or so into me and then he held it there, rotating it around my pussy with his hand and moving it slightly in and out as he did.

God it felt incredible to have him do that! The first part of my pussy hole is the most sensitive and when a cock head penetrates me for the first time these nerve endings are awakened and release an incredible surge of sexual pleasure that radiates outward from between my legs to every part of my body. When a man wants to really pleasure me he stops when he first enters my cunt and lets his cock head move around in that area and guaranteed it will make me cum faster than anything else. Too many guys are so anxious to bury themselves in me that they pass right by and start pumping away. Sure his stroking usually produces an orgasm in me although often I help by playing with my clit, but a guy who knows how to really fuck a girl and wants to maximize her pleasure knows to take his time filling her cunt.

Well, Larry was one of those rare guys who really knew his way around a girl's pussy and he was driving me insane with pleasure! I felt my first orgasm quickly rise to a peak and my pussy clamped down hard on his cock as it gushed pussy cum out onto his cock. Everything around me disappeared into the fog as I could think of nothing but the incredible sensations that were wracking my body. My pussy was so wet and I squeezed even harder on him as another convulsion hit me.

"OH GOD THAT FEELS GOOD!" I cried out, forgetting for the moment we were in the middle of a hotel with hundreds of people nearby.

I didn't care, all I wanted was more - more of his cock in me, more of the incredible waves of pleasure cascading over me, more of his cum, just more sex!

My pussy released its grasp on his cock enough to let him start thrusting in and out of me again like the piston on a steam engine. Each time he pushed himself into me I felt his body slap up against my ass creating a smacking sound. Then he would pull out until his head was barely in me, sometimes it even came just out of me and then suddenly he reversed course and was drilling his way back into me again.

"Fuck Kelly," Larry groaned, "You have an incredible cunt. God I love the way you grab my cock so tight with it."

Larry then pulled out of me and twisted me around. I was curious what he wanted to do when he grabbed me by the ass with both hands and lifted me up into the air until I was over his cock and then lowered me down until his cock was back in my pussy again where it belonged. I wrapped my arms and legs around him as he bounced me up and down on his rigid pole of a cock. Then he turned around and while I was still mounted on his dick he sat down on the bench seat. My knees were on the seat so now I could do the work and I rode his cock like a bull in a cowboy bar.

I love being on top like this because it let me control his cock in me. I can vary the depth and speed to what felt best for me and I was soon cumming again as I fucked his cock and played with my clit while he sucked on my nipples and held my little ass in his big hands. I raised up until he was about half way in me and rotated my hips like I was trying to twirl a hula hoop. This had the effect of rubbing his cock around inside of my pussy and it wasn't long before I felt yet another orgasm rising in me. I soaked his crotch with my cum this time as I groaned and moaned from the animal-like pleasure I was feeling.

"God I love a cock in me," I purred, "fuck me Larry... cum in me... let me feel you cum inside of me!"

Finally he couldn't hold out any longer. "I'm going to cum!" he cried out and true to his word the next moment I felt the first surge of sperm spewing from his cock and driving its way deep into my pussy.

"Oh yea Kelly, I'm cumming babe, cumming in you," he kept saying over and over as he released one load after another of his manhood into me.

Finally he stopped bucking under me and I sat down on his cock, feeling it slowly softening and withdrawing from my cunt as I leaned forward into him and he held me in his arms. We eventually agreed it was time to get up and I lifted myself off of what was left of his once hard cock. It looked so much smaller now, wrinkled and glistening in the soft light from a combination of our cum.

I knew that it wouldn't take much work to revive it and for a moment I was tempted to suck it back to an erection but I also knew there was a wedding reception to get back to so it was time to head back in. As we straightened out our clothes, I couldn't believe what Larry told me next...

"That was great Kelly, you are an incredible lay. You should know Kelly that Sharon told me everything you and Steve did today - before AND after the wedding."

My face felt like all the blood rushed from it. What did Sharon tell anyone?

"Don't worry, I think it is wild although Cindy might be so enthusiastic about it," Steve reassured me, "And just so you understand the whole picture, Sharon and I are engaged to be married next year sometime. I wanted to tell you but Sharon thought it would be more erotic to have us get together this way instead."

Well imagine that! Ol' Sharon had really pulled one over on me this time! Sure enough, as we left the courtyard you can guess who was there to greet us. Larry and Sharon both kissed and it was obvious to me then that they were in love with each other. Sharon looked over at me and giggled.

"Sorry Kelly, I didn't mean to deceive you but from the looks of it you had a good time!" she said. Looking at Larry, she said, "Well, was she as good as I said she would be?"

"Fuckin' right she was," Larry said with a big smile, "Of course I always want you babe more than anyone else."

Well, that was nice of him to say but I was curious what a lie-detector would have revealed. We walked together back to the hall just in time for the waning moments of the reception. Larry went off to grab a last drink before the bar closed after he left Sharon looked me in the eye with a no-nonsense stare.

"Now listen Kelly you insatiable slut, just because I let you fuck Larry tonight don't go off getting any naughty ideas about messing around with him at MY wedding!" she said but this time there was no giggle to take off the edge and I knew she was being serious.

She continued, "Remember, I know what you are and I'll will be keeping a close eyes on you!"

We both laughed but deep down I wonder what she would have said if she had really known what I was already planning for Larry and me at her wedding next year. Hmmmmmm, this could be interesting...

(Jul 01) Chapter 87: First Summer Sex Party

Story codes: MF FF oral group
Me (20)
Beth - BFF (21)

After a lot of debate I finally let Beth talk me into another one, my first of the summer. Well, it turned out better than I dared hope. I got to participate in the initiation and even convinced a newlywed to commit adultery. Yeah, I had a good time!

1. What's a Sex Party?

Beth and I were talking on our cell phones one night about a movie we had both been wanting to see when she suddenly switched the conversation over to a totally different topic.

"You know Kelly," she said with a giggle, "It's been a long time since you joined one of our parties. How about tomorrow night?"

She didn't have to explain what she meant by "one of our parties". I knew EXACTLY what she meant. Last summer Beth introduced me to the bizarre world of sex parties. I think some people might refer to them as orgies or swinger parties but to me that gives the wrong impression.

When I think of an orgy I picture a room of people all going at it, switching partners, etc. Swinger parties involve couples sharing partners. At Beth's parties we certainly have sex but it is more of a laid back situation involving unassociated people. Folks do it with one another for a while and then may just watch someone else or have a bite to eat or drink. Boyfriend and girlfriends showing up together was discouraged and married couples were outright banned. The emphasis also seem to focus more on small groups or one-to-one than large groups or "gangbangs".

Access to these parties was by invitation only and only people who have been actively involved for a long time were allowed to invite someone. If you do invite someone then you are also responsible for them and could even lose your invitation privileges if they didn't work out. Beth was one of the more frequent attendee at these ever since she had turned eighteen and so far me and my cousin were the only people she has risked inviting. I would like to think we more than met expectations!

Last summer I went to four parties in all, each with a different theme. They were all fun in their own way and certainly provided me with some unique experiences. The first one caught me by surprise in that I learned that all new people had to be initiated which meant having sex at the outset with the current host - in the middle of the room with everyone watching!

The last one was just before I went back to school so I decided to make it a truly memorable experience and fucked twelve guys in a row (that's how many guys were there). Actually each one fucked me until he was ready to cum and then I finished him off in my mouth while the next guy got started. It was a one-time experience for sure but I don't regret for a minute trying it.

During my sophomore school year I tried out some escorting and even worked at a couple of bachelor parties. The bachelor parties were a lot of fun and even though I ended up doing the guys it was different than being gangbanged at the past party. I think it was because as a dancer I felt an obligation to please my clients in whatever way they wanted whereas at the parties I only did it to please myself. I quit the escorting after a close call and hadn't done any more bachelor parties but I still would like to do them if the opportunity arises.

Back to Beth, I was intrigued by her offer. In reality I hadn't planned on doing any of these parties this summer, I guess I had a sort of "been there done that" attitude. But as she said, it HAD been a long time since I had been to one and my curiosity finally got the best of me so I agreed to go.

When I told my parents at supper about the invitation, neither of them objected to my plans but as always, they were concerned for my safety and security. Fortunately they didn't mind me going to one of Beth's parties since they were so well controlled and the people were known to each other. There had never been a case of STDs stemming from these parties, at least so far as Beth knew, and I had been on birth control since I was fourteen. My mom still counseled me to make the guys use condoms though and in the past I had usually followed her advice when I didn't know the guy that was fucking me.

At the end of dinner they even joked that the only real problem they had with my latest plan was that they weren't invited! Of course, even if they had been they would not have gone since they had always been faithful to their wedding vows. For my parents, even if they both "consented", fucking someone outside your family was still adultery no matter how you sliced it and that was a sin they would not commit.

2. Before the Party

Late the next afternoon I started to get ready for the party. I looked through my closet and as always struggled with the decision as to what to wear. It seems I face this same dilemma before every party. Obviously in the end it didn't matter a great deal since I didn't plan on wearing anything for long once the party started but there was still the time when the new person was initiated plus I liked to make a good impression on people when I arrived.

In the end I chose short denim skirt, the type that is tight and straight around your ass and then ends with a ruffled bottom. It was just long enough to barely cover my ass so underneath I wore a black thong which left little to the imagination. A skin-tight cami showed off my boobs and with no bra, my nipples could be clearly seen through the thin fabric. A nice set of three inch heels finished off the outfit. I was looking at myself critically in the mirror when I heard someone at my door.

"Damn girl! Lookin' HOT!" Beth exclaimed as she entered my room. "Thought I'd stop by early and see how things were going. Hmmmmmm, from here things are looking just fine!"

I grinned at her and spun around in a circle to show off my outfit. She was dressed pretty hot herself with a pair of cutoffs that were so short and had so many holes in them they may as well have been off. All she had on top was a cutoff t-shirt that barely covered her large breasts when she stood up but all she had to do was raise her arms over her head and I bet her boobs would have been on full display! No heels for her, just a pair of sneakers. With her hair tied back in a ponytail she had the fuckable girl next door look that I knew from my own experience drove guys nuts. I grabbed my purse and we kissed briefly on my way out of the room.

On the way down the stairs we met my dad coming up. He looked at the two of us and just shook his head saying, "Damn! I guess there's not much doubt what you two have planned. You girls make a hell of a sexy pair you know."

Beth looked at me and winked. For a split second I thought to myself that she was just kidding but then she grabbed my dad's crotch in her hand and I knew we wouldn't be leaving as soon as I had thought! Beth looked at my dad and licked her lips in as seductive a manner as she could as she rubbed my dad's rapidly expanding bulge.

"Sexy enough to fuck?" she purred at him.

Beth lifted her t-shirt to expose her full breast to him. She cupped one in her hand and began to massage it while her other hand was still on his crotch. I watched as my friend teased my dad mercilessly. I thought for a moment he might just screw her right then and there on the stairs but to my amazement he just kissed her on the cheek and gently pushed her hand away. He squeezed between the two of us and continued upstairs.

"Sorry girl," he said looking back at us, "but I promised Kelly's mom to take her out and if she catches me fucking you two there'll be hell to pay!"

My pussy ached and I realized that I'd been hoping Beth would have been able to convince him to take the two of us upstairs with him. It had been a while since I had seen him fuck her and I loved having my best friend watch my dad fuck me. Well, it wasn't like we were going to be going without any cock today so as much as it would have been fun to stay we went out the front door and got in her car.

Beth must have been even hornier than me though because she was acting crazy all the way over to the party. We pulled up next a couple of guys at a stop light who definitely had an interest in us. Beth looked over and grinned at them. Then she pulled her t-shirt up and wiggled her boobs at them. The guys were howling and begging us to stop when the light turned green and Beth took off away from them.

"Woo-hoo!" she yelled as she sped down the road with her boobs hanging out.

I was laughing so hard tears came to my face. People were staring and pointing at her and it was a wonder she didn't cause an accident.

3. My Initiation

Before I knew it we were at the address of the party. We pulled up to the curb she dropped her T-shirt back down and we went to the front door where we were met by one of the most gorgeous guys I had ever seen! He was just wearing a pair of jeans with no belt or shirt. God he was a hunk! Tanned and muscular, there wasn't an ounce of fat anywhere! Not only did he have a hot body but he was handsome as hell too with that rugged outdoorsy guy type of look. He recognized Beth immediately of course but he had to look at me twice along with a questioning look at Beth.

"Don't worry Mike," she said, "Don't you remember Kelly? She came a few times last summer. She's been away to college so just don't stand there, let us in!"

Mike looked me up and down and I felt my knees go weak. God I wanted him to fuck me! We went in and everyone was already seated in the living room. I quickly counted twenty people beside Beth and I so based on previous parties I figured we must have been the last to arrive. Sure enough, Mike followed us in and made the announcement.

"OK everyone, our last stragglers finally showed up. Let's party!" Mike then pointed at a girl seated on the couch next to a guy who was looking around at everyone with a bit of bewilderment in his eyes.

I had a suspicion that he was a rookie which was exciting for me. At every party I'd gone to before it the new person was always a girl so I was curious about his initiation requirements. Well, it turned out not to be all that different than mine or the others I had watched afterwards.

"Cheri, introduce your friend to us," Mike said to her.

A girl got up and pulled the guy sitting next to her up with her, introducing him as her neighbor. Andy was twenty four and still had a bit of a look of apprehension. This was his first time at a party like this and it was obvious he was more than just a bit nervous at having to stand up in front of the group. Well, if he was anxious now, wait until he found out what was in store for him! The girl sat down after the introduction and Mike took over.

"Welcome Andy. I guess Cheri 'forgot' to tell you about our little initiation ceremony."

Poor Andy, he suddenly had this "deer in the headlights" look and he glanced over at the girl who brought him. Mike laughed and patted him on the back. He explained to him that it was traditional for the host to get to fuck the new person in front of everyone. Andy suddenly had a look of panic and everyone cracked up laughing. Mike just shook his head and explained that since today's female host couldn't make it, he would get to choose someone to take her place.

Andy's face immediately showed a huge sense of relief. Poor guy, he must have thought he was going to get banged by Mike! Mike looked around and my heart jumped when he stopped and pointed at me.

"This is Kelly's first time with us in quite a while," Mike announced to everyone with a devilish grin, "So even though she's not technically 'new', what do you say we get the two of them to show us what they've got?"

Everyone cheered and Beth kissed me on the cheek, whispering in my ear, "Go for it girl! Make me proud!"

I stood up and Andy looked at me and then back at Cheri. She just shrugged and sat back to watch. Mike took the spot on the couch where I had been sitting and put his arm around Beth, his hand reaching down to cup one of her gorgeous boobs. She in turn put her hand on his crotch and I wondered briefly if they were going to wait until the initiation ceremony was over!

Andy was just standing there, uncertain what to do so I figured it was up to me to get things started. The living room had been arranged so all the furniture was against the outer walls leaving the center of the room empty except for the two of us.

This wasn't the time for a lot of subtlety or foreplay so I knelt in front of him and proceeded to unbuckle his belt and dropped his jeans to his ankles. He was wearing boxers so they were the next thing to go. His shirt tails were still hiding his cock so I lifted them and took him in my hand. He was still as limp as could be but looked to have potential.

I took a quick glance around and saw that everyone was watching me intently. I felt a familiar twinge between my legs. God I loved to be watched and this was the biggest "audience" I had ever had for something like this. Well, I was going to do my best to impress them!

I stroked him gently a few times and admired the thick pubic hair that surrounded his dick. With my other hand I cupped his balls and let them gently roll between my fingers. Leaning forward, I took him in my mouth and buried my face in his thick coarse pubic hair. He smelled, well... he smelled like a man's crotch! Musky and strong, I breathed it in deeply as I felt his soft dick in my mouth. My tongue rolled around the head of his cock and I could feel his pulse as he slowly began to grow.

I've sucked a LOT of cocks but I'll never get over the thrill when I feel it responding to my mouth and tongue. It just fascinates me how a cock can grow and harden the way it does and I feel incredibly sexy and hot knowing it's me that's causing his erection. I put my arms around him and grabbed his butt with my hands, pulling him into my face as I worked his cock with my mouth. Andy was finally getting into it and he grabbed my head with both hands and started pulling and pushing my head onto his cock.

I looked over to where she was sitting and saw her stroking Mike's cock which was now hard and sticking out from his shorts. Even so, both of them were staring at me and smiling.

Just then Andy took my clit between his teeth and tugged gently on it and I thought I was going to jump out of my skin! God I was cumming now! Beth and Mike faded away in a haze as my eyes rolled back and I let out a long lustful moan.

"Ohhhhhhhhh fuck!" I cried out as I gushed cum in his face.

His tongue somehow stayed on my clit as I bucked my hips in his hands. I was still cumming when he quickly got up and got onto his knees behind me. I could feel the head of his stiff cock pressing against my wet pussy hole. Several people were calling out encouragement, telling him to fuck me hard! Well, I certainly hoped he was listening to them!

I gasped as suddenly he rammed himself into me. My throbbing pussy felt something warm and hard filling it, expanding it. He thrust himself into me until the hair of his crotch tickled my butt as he buried himself completely in me. God it always felt soooooo good to have a cock in me! I closed my eyes again to concentrate on the warmth of the hard dick that was violating me.

Andy didn't hesitate as he began to fuck me, just as I had asked him to! I was rocking on my knees in sync with his thrusts into me, banging my ass hard into his crotch when we met and then feeling him pull out until just the tip of the head of his cock remained in me. He would hold it there and tease me as if he was going to pull it out of me and just as I was about to beg for him to push it back in he would jam it into me as hard as he could.

"Fuck her Andy!"

I looked over and saw the girl that brought him sitting at the edge of her seat, obviously turned on seeing him fucking a strange girl. I turned my head around and look over my shoulder at him with a grin, "You heard her Andy, fuck me!!"

Andy just shook his head with a devilish smile. He pulled out and literally flipped me over on my back. I felt the rough carpet on my ass and then he lifted my legs up in the air and over his shoulders. Just as quickly he was back inside me again, fucking me with his hard cock as he held my ass off the carpet and onto his lap. I looked up and watched his stiff cock as it moved in and out of me. I have always loved watching myself being fucked, seeing a man's cock as it disappeared inside of me. There was just something about seeing a man's hard dick approach my pussy and then the sensation deep in me as I watch it vanish inch by inch.

Feeling myself joined at the hips with a man was simply something I wish could just last forever! My hands were at my side as I used my arms to lift my ass up into his lap. Andy was pumping faster now and from the way his eyes were rolling and his face was grimacing I knew he was about to cum.

Sure enough I felt his cock swell and then suddenly let loose a burst of hot sperm inside of me. Before he could cum again he pulled himself out of me and the rest of his cum sprayed onto my pussy and stomach. My legs dropped around his waist and he rubbed his dick in the cum that was pooled above my pussy, spreading it around on me.

Everyone clapped and he gave a little bow over me as if he had just concluded some sort of performance. Well, I guess he had! Everyone was hot and horny by now so there were no calls for an encore as the party got started in earnest. Beth and Mike had a head start and she didn't waste any time as she sucked his hard cock.

Andy got up to pursue another girl he had his eye on, leaving me laying there in the middle of the living room covered with his gooey cum. Taking a deep breath I got up to head to the bathroom to clean up a bit.

4. Fucked While Cleaning Up

Looking in the bathroom mirror, I saw that one of his shots must have been more energetic than I had realized as there was a thick trace of cum in my hair as well as more all over my torso. Well, just another good reason for having a guy cum in my mouth or pussy - no messy cleanups! Using a washrag I wiped myself off and then used a comb to try and get the cum out of my hair without totally screwing it up. As I was leaning over the sink to get closer to the mirror I felt two hands grab my waist from behind and then the unmistakable feel of a hard dick pressing against my lower back. Looking in the mirror I could see it was one of the older guys at the party.

"God you looked so fucking hot out there!" he said as he rubbed his cock up and down my back and then against my ass. "I was pissed, though, when he came in you - I wanted to be the first to do that."

I spreads my legs apart and leaned over more to make it easier for him. After all, this was what I was here for so why not get right down to it. I looked over my shoulder at him and licked my lips seductively. "Well what are you waiting for?" I said in a deep voice, "Are you gonna fuck me or not?"

There it was again, those words that were music to a man's ears and once again it got the results I wanted although I don't think it was necessary to tempt him any more than he already was as he was already bending his knees to lower his cock to my pussy. His left hand reached down and lifted my leg up so my knee was resting on the counter top. Then I could feel the head of his cock sliding against my thigh and up against my bare pussy, trying to find the entrance to my cunt.

The head of his cock rubbed up and down my pussy slit, getting wetter and slipping between my pussy lips more with each stroke. I reached down and pressed the cock head into my hole with my fingertips and at the same time he lifted himself up to drive his cock into me. As wet as I was from my recent fucking he easily slid in until his crotch was tight against my ass and he lifted me up onto my toes as he pushed harder into me.

"That's it, fuck me," I begged. "Yea, cum deep inside me."

The guy (I never did learn his name) was humping me like a dog fucking a bitch in heat. He had started out rock hard and evidently had gotten pretty turned on by my earlier performance as it was only a few minutes before he was ready to cum. The whole time he hardly shut up, telling me how good my pussy felt around him, what a slut I was, and just in general how bad he had wanted to screw me from the moment he saw me. He brushed my hair from my neck and kissed it, licking me all over my neck and ears. Both of his arms were around me, his hands on my breasts as he pulled me back tight against his body. Suddenly he pushed himself even harder into me and held himself there.

"Oh fuck I'm going to cum!" he swore, "Take it you fucking bitch! Take it all!"

A bloom of heat swelled inside my pussy as his cock exploded and a huge load of cum burst from it. It was followed by another and then several more as he held himself in me while his cock throbbed and his groin jerked against my ass with each ejaculation.

"Damn that felt good," he whispered, almost more to himself than me it seemed.

With that he pulled out of me and just left the bathroom without saying another word to me. Well, I guess that was what you would call a pure fucking! I used another washcloth to wipe off the cum that was leaking from my pussy. Checking myself again in the mirror, I finally left the room to join the party once more.

5. Banged on the Couch

Things were now in full swing with at least half the people fucking while the rest watched and either played with themselves or fondled someone next to them. I finally found Beth in the dining room, laying on the hard oak table with her legs hanging over the edge getting fucked by some guy. I hung around to watch for a while. Beth and I had been friends forever it seemed and she looked really hot as she bucked her hips in time with his thrusts into her.

I couldn't help but smile as I thought of us as little girls when we first started masturbating together. Who would have thought then as we innocently watched one another that someday we would be doing anything like this!

Wandering back into the living room, I noticed the couch was open so I laid back and just watched the activities going on around me. It was interesting to me because other porn flicks and my family, I really never got to watch other people fucking. I don't really care for porn as it just seems so fake to me that I can't enjoy it and I usually don't go to parties like this one.

I slowly rubbed my clit as my other hand traced lightly around my boobs, just the fingernails grazing my sensitive hardened nipples. So far I had been fucked twice but only cum once and my pussy was definitely letting me know it was being neglected! My finger tip worked its way barely into my cunt as the rest of the finger rubbed against my demanding clit and I gasped as it responded by sending a jolt through my entire body.

As I continued to masturbate two guy came over and stood by the couch to watch. They were both nude and their cocks were both hairy and thick – just the way I liked them! I smiled at them as I continued to work my pussy and they just smiled back. First one and then the other held his cock, slowly pulling on it and stroking himself as they watched me make myself cum.

An audience always makes me feel hot and together with the still lingering feeling of sperm in me it didn't take much more for me to cum. My hips lifted up off the couch as I shoved first one and then two fingers into me. I moaned as my second orgasm of the night wracked my body, raising goose pimples all over me as I bucked like I was being fucked except it was just my fingers in me although I was looking at their cocks and imagining it was them inside of me instead. Finally I just laid there with my legs spread wide open, flushed from my orgasm and ready for the real thing. Thankfully my audience didn't wait for an invitation.

The first guy got onto the couch and kneeled between my legs. Bracing himself by putting his hands on my inner thighs, he lowered himself down until the tip of his tongue teased my now ultra-sensitive clit. I jerked involuntarily at the first touch, unable to control the spasm.

In the meantime, the other guy moved closer to the couch and hung his semi-hard cock over my face, teasing me with the smell of his crotch and an upward view of his balls and dick. I tried to reach up for it but just then my pussy exploded as a tongue pushed its way into me. God he must have had a snake for a tongue the way it was able to reach inside of me! His nose pressed against my clit at the same time resulting in another orgasm. My pussy gushed over his face and I wondered how much sperm was mixed in it from my previous fucking. My head arched backwards as I groaned from the pleasure he was giving me. Damn this guy could lick pussy almost as good as a girl!

My eyes were closed as I just let the waves of pleasure flow up and down my rigid body when I felt the unmistakable touch of a hard cock to my lips. Instinctively I opened my mouth and took him in and then started sucking on him like a baby with a bottle. He pushed himself in further and I could feel his balls rubbing against my cheek as he slowly stoked himself in and out of my mouth. His thick pubic hair smelled wonderful and tickled my face just a little as I breathed in the scent of his manhood. It was immediately obvious to me I wasn't the first one he had been with today though. His cock had the distinctive flavor that only comes from a woman's pussy and I wondered briefly whose it was, as if it really mattered.

I glanced downwards to see how my other partner was doing and I saw he was on his knees reaching for a cushion. I lifted myself up so he could push it under me, all the while not losing my grip on the cock that was deep in my mouth. With my pussy up off the couch it made it easy for the guy to move in closer to me. He lifted my inside leg up so it was resting on the top of the couch and my other was barely on the edge of the seat. The cushion was under the middle of my back, allowing my ass to rest on his lap as he guided his hard cock to my hungry pussy.

For the third time in less than an hour I gasped as a stiff penis penetrated me. He was considerably thicker than the others and I felt like I was going to split in two as he pushed it into me further. When he was about half-way in he suddenly grabbed my hips and pulled me up while at the same time ramming his cock to the hilt into me. The shock of him suddenly filling me up so full made me forget myself and I accidentally closed down on the cock in my mouth. The poor guy jumped and grimaced with pain.

"Hey, careful down there," he said to his partner, "she almost bit my cock in two when you did that!"

The guy fucking me just laughed in response and started stroking himself in and out of me at a steady pace. "Sorry mate," he said with a bit of an accent, "God what a pussy though! You have GOT to try her out for yourself."

"Well I don't know about her cunt," the first one replied back, "but she damn well knows how to suck a cock! Fuck she's incredible!"

I would have loved to have thanked them both for the compliments but with my mouth full of dick I couldn't get a word out. I reached around him and held his firm ass in my hand. He must have been a frequent visitor to the gym to get such a rock-hard butt! I used my other hand to play with my boobs as I concentrated on licking and sucking this tasty cock.

He held still for a few minutes, allowing me to use my tongue more on his head, running it around the smooth cap and tickling the hole at the top. His ass tightened as I sucked hard on it, then reaching my head up to take more of him in.

"Damn! Look at her," he said to the guy fucking me, "She wants it all the little tramp!"

He lowered himself down a little more making it easier for me to take more of him in. He pushed his cock down into my mouth until it reached the back of my throat and my lips were pressing against him crotch. His thick coarse pubic hair filled my face and smelled of sex and sweat. I fought back the momentary gag reflex I always get when a guy first pushes his cock down my throat and then took the rest of him in.

"Shit she did it!" the guy exclaimed, "The fucking whore's deep-throating me! God that feels incredible."

I leaned back to let him out just enough so that I could breath. It was good timing in that just after I sucked in a big breath of air he started to cum in my mouth. It wasn't the biggest load I had ever had by any stretch of the imagination but it was enough for me to get a good taste of him and then swallow it down as he watched. In the meantime his partner was fucking me furiously now, stroking himself in and out of me as fast and as hard as he could. I was still sucking out the last of his friend's sperm when he unloaded himself into me.

"Damn dude, are you cumming in her?" his friend asked as I sucked his softening cock softly.

Well, I could have told him that he certainly was! I could feel his crotch pressed tightly against mine, rubbing and moving against me such that his hairy groin was tickling my bare pussy like a soft hair brush. Again I was treated to that wonderful sensation I feel whenever a cock releases its warm load of sperm inside of me, that feeling of warmth like a fireworks that explodes and then fades away only to followed by another and then yet another. I had been sucking the guy's cock until his friend started cumming in me but once I felt his cum in me I let the dick drop from my mouth and I stroked it with my hand while I enjoyed the feeling between my legs. God I love it when a man cums in me and I let him know it!

"That's it, cum in me... more, yeah fuck me more." I begged, wanting him to never stop pumping his manhood in to me.

I wanted it just for the pleasure in this case, just for the wonderful warm sensation it gave me, just for the way it felt to feel his hard cock inside of me as he came. I love it even more when my dad cums in me because then not only do I feel incredible but I also get the intense emotional satisfaction of knowing my father has given me something truly extraordinary because he loves me.

For me, sex is 10% physical and 90% emotional. It's not hard to get the 10% physical part, that's pretty much just a matter of mechanical technique. For me to really enjoy sex requires an emotional element and the more of it I get, the better the orgasm it leads to. I guess that's why I don't attend a lot of parties like this one. Sure I was feeling well and enjoying myself but in these situations I always feel like there is something missing, something a complete stranger can never give me. But hey, I was here and so I was going to enjoy myself as best I could. After all, a little unattached sex just for the fun of it never hurt anyone!

I figured we had reached the end of our time but to my surprise the guy I had just sucked off wasn't through yet. He must have been on Viagra or something because he was still hard!

"I want some of that pussy now," he declared to his buddy, "Move over, sloppy seconds never bothered me."

The first guy pulled his cock out and it was only a matter of seconds before the other guy had replaced him. He slid easily into me thanks to the natural lubrication of my pussy cum mixed with his friend's sperm.

"God damn!" he exclaimed, "I can't believe she's still so tight after having just fucked you!"

His friend just laughed and shook his head as he stood by to watch. I reached over for his cock and started to pull him towards me using it like a leash. The guy who was fucking me now laughed saying, "Shit, the slut wants more cock! You'd better give her what she wants!"

I assumed he would just move over and let me suck him like I had his partner but they seemed to have this team fuck thing down. Before I knew it the guy had pulled out of me and was maneuvering me around. I didn't understand what he was trying to do at first but eventually we worked it out and soon I was being fucked in a new way for me. He was kneeling on the floor with the pillow under his knees which protect them and also lifted him higher.

I was on my stomach with my legs straddling him and he was screwing me from behind. In front of me his friend had laid down with his legs wide open so my face was buried in his smelly crotch. My arms went under his legs and my hands were on his butt cheeks, pulling him into my mouth like a warm fuzzy watermelon. Even though it wasn't nearly as hard as it was, I loved the taste of his cock, primarily because I could taste the unmistakable flavor of my own pussy. Every pussy has its unique identity and over the years I had tasted mine so many times I could instantly identify it.

Despite the unique position, it was just another good old fashioned fucking. Honestly, he may as well have been fucking an inflatable doll for all the personal attention I got. I mean like, yeah his cock was in me and he was stroking himself quickly and out of my cunt, but it was like he was just trying to get himself off and didn't care whether I did or not.

Now I'll never complain about having a cock in my pussy but at the same time I knew I was never going to cum under these circumstances so I just let him do his thing and hoped for a fast conclusion. Fortunately, despite having cum just a few minutes before, he managed to get himself off again pretty quickly. I would like to think it was because my pussy felt so good but I couldn't help but wonder if he had just masturbated if the results wouldn't have been the same.

The other guy was now flaccid and wasn't going to cum anytime soon so my mouth was just enjoying the taste of him more than anything else. In a way I almost wished they had just quit after the first time as this was rather anticlimactic to say the least. When he came he only shot a couple of small bursts into me and then as fast as he came he was out of me.

Since as far as these guys were concerned I was essentially nothing but a wet pussy to fuck and open mouth to be filled, it didn't surprise me that they didn't hang around now that they had fucked me. They left me laying on the floor on my stomach like a cast-off whore. I wiped the cum that had dripped from my mouth off my chin with my hand and then wiped it off on the couch fabric. Oh well, whoever's it was should expect a little cleanup afterwards!

6. Fun With Beth

I started to get up and once on my feet I felt a bit faint and dropped down to sit on the couch to let my head clear a little bit after my recent fucking. I blinked a few times, took a couple of deep breaths, and slowly stood up again. It was OK this time so I walked around and watched various people and groups going at it.

Then I saw Beth over in the corner of the family room, riding some guy like a cowgirl. She was facing him on her feet, knees bent and lifting herself up and down on his stiff cock. Beth had incredible breasts, 100& natural 38Ds that felt as wonderful as they looked (as I knew from personal experience!). Riding his cock like she was, they were bouncing in rhythm with her movements and looking sexy as hell. I walked over until I was next to her and smiled.

"Hey girl, having fun?" I teased her. "How many does this make for you so far?"

Beth looked over and a big grin broke out on her sweaty face as she saw who it was.

"Just my second," she replied ruefully, "Shit, I didn't think the first guy would EVER cum. I used every damn trick in the book and still he just hung in there."

We both laughed while Beth caught her breath as she continued to fuck his cock. Looking at him and then back at her, I grinned and said, "So... mind if I join in?"

Beth smiled and replied, "Sure - all yours kid! I'm sure what's-his-name won't mind."

I laughed a little at that. It was always a bit weird having sex with someone and not even knowing their name! Oh well, who cares so long as it works.

I kneeled down next to his head and then swung one leg over him so I had a knee on both sides of his head while I faced Beth. My pussy was positioned right over his face and I knew it was still glistening with sweat and cum from my last fucking. I slowly lowered myself down to his face and was rewarded by the feel of his nose and tongue against my pussy. He lapped his tongue up and down the outside of my pussy and then worked his way between my lips and then back to my clit. I groaned as his tongue danced around my clit, still oh so sensitive from my last orgasm.

Beth stopped her humping and dropped to her knees, letting her ass press down tightly to his groin and pushing his cock deeper inside of her. This also allowed her to lean forward towards me and we kissed, quickly letting our tongues explore one another. I couldn't resist reaching for her beautiful boobs, feeling the firmness and smoothness of them and marveling over what it must be like to have such incredible breasts. Her nipples were huge and when she was stimulated as she was now they stuck out like magnum bullets. Running my fingers over them, she let out a low moan. Since at the same time she was rotating her hips around his cock and grinding her ass into him I could only hope it was my attention that she was moaning about!

In the meantime my own pussy was getting a good working over. One of the interesting things about these parties was the differences in styles and techniques you get to experience in a short time span. This guy wasn't bad but he was certainly not in the same league as the last guy to have licked me. Whereas the previous guy had a snake for a tongue, this guy was more like a little stump, barely able to get into me at all. Although he didn't do a bad job with my clit, it was nothing compared to the virtuoso performance I had been given earlier.

The only thing I can say is that there is no such thing as a BAD pussylicker – anything is a far cry better than nothing! He was never going to make me cum at this rate though so I leaned back away from Beth and gazed hungrily at her crotch where I could barely see the base of his cock before it disappeared into her pussy. Beth could see the direction of my eyes and put her hand to her mouth as she giggled.

"What's the matter Kelly, haven't had enough cock yet tonight?" she taunted me.

"You know better than to ask that girl!" I said with a sly grin. "Have you EVER known me to have enough?"

Beth gave me a sly grin and rose up until he slipped out of her, flopping like a wet sausage onto his stomach. We quickly traded places and I slid his dick into me as she took my position over his face. My technique was a little different than hers. I find that standing on your feet and bending your knees can be really tiresome so if you want to go at it for more than a few minutes and you're not a gymnast then the best bet is to be on your knees. By rocking back and forth I can make him move in and out of me just as well as lifting myself up and down with only a fraction of the effort.

I especially like to sit down and put my full weight on his crotch so he presses as deeply into me as he can. Then I like to rotate my hips around his cock making him rub against the walls of my pussy in all directions. From what men tell me, they enjoy it just as much as I do and I enjoy it a LOT! Beth and I resumed our kissing and this time it was her turn to massage my breasts.

I felt a bit self-conscious after having held her boobs but then mine aren't all that bad, especially compared to how they were most of my teen years. I was always so jealous of the girls who got their boobs early. When I was fourteen I looked like most twelve year olds and it seemed I was always two to three years behind the mainstream. My mom tried to make me feel better by telling me that someday I would be glad I looked younger than I am but when you are a teenager that is little consolation.

After fucking him this way for a while he seemed to be getting a bit more agitated so Beth lifted herself off of him and asked if he was almost ready to cum. He just nodded so I lifted myself off of him and Beth and I kneeled down on both sides of him and shared his cock. We took turns licking it and sucking the head. He reached down and started to stroke himself to get himself off. Normally I hate it when a guy does that. I take it as sort of a personal insult that he assumes I can't get him off with my mouth. With the two of us though it seemed to work out OK.

Beth and I put our heads together with our mouths open and tongues out, waiting for our reward for a job well-done. He groaned and shot his first load into Beth's mouth and then the next into my tongue. The last couple didn't really spurt but instead flowed out over his hand and cock. Beth and I worked our way down his cock, licking the sperm from his cock and hand. He must have been drinking because his cum had the bitter taste guys get when they do, one reason I stay away from guys who drink a lot!

When he was finished Beth and I got up on our knees and hugged each other, kissing and tasting his cum on the other's mouth.

7. Can't Turn Down a Challenge

Well, that made it five cocks for me and even though we'd only been there a couple of hours, I was about ready to call it a night. Yeah, it had been fun and all, but I didn't see anything else for the night except more of the same and I get easily bored, even with sex sometimes!

I told Beth I wanted to leave and she looked really disappointed. I knew she usually spent all night at these and for her leaving early would be like going hunting and quitting without getting your limit while you were surrounded by easy game. I apologized to Beth but told her I was really ready to go when her face lit up and she grabbed my hand and pulled me into the kitchen.

"I don't believe it - you're bored? Here?" she said incredulously. "Well, if that's the case I think I have something just for you then."

If anyone else had said that I would have just brushed it off but with Beth, anything was possible. She led me to the entrance to kitchen where I could see seated at a table was one of the older people at the party - he looked to me in his mid-thirties or so. Unlike everyone else, he was still fully clothed and was drinking a beer. One thing I immediately noticed was the wedding band on his ring finger which he was playing with almost absentmindedly.

I looked at Beth with a questioning expression, wondering what the story was. She explained to me that his name was Martin and he had been a periodic participant at the parties for the past few years. Although never known to be too wild or outrageous, he had a reputation for being polite and concerned over his partner's needs. It was like whenever he needed to blow off some steam now and then he would show up and have a few girls and then disappear for months at a time. Apparently he had just gotten married a few weeks ago and his new wife had no idea he had attended these in the past and of course, no idea he was here now.

Evidently once things got started this time he got cold feet and had been sitting at the table all night debating whether or not to cheat on his new bride. According to Beth, he had asked the host if he could just have a few beers while he got his thoughts sorted out and from the looks of things he was still undecided.

Beth hugged me and giggled, nodding her head towards him, "Well Kelly, you're always the brave one wanting something new and different. So... up for the challenge or do you still want to go home?"

I just gave her a sly smile. She knew damn well what my response was going to be! How could I turn down an opportunity like this? I slapped her on her bare bottom playfully saying in a soft sultry voice, "Watch and learn girl. You're about to see a master at work."

Beth laughed and spanked me in return making a loud smack as her hand slapped my naked ass. We kissed and I went alone into the kitchen where I took the chair next to him. I introduced myself to him and he looked at me a bit warily, undoubtedly wondering who I was and what my intentions were. Then his eyes lit up and he smiled at me.

"Oh yeah," he said, "You're the girl the new guy fucked. Damn, you know you two were really hot! I was especially impressed by the way you instantly agreed to do him in front of everyone without even a second thought. You're a real slut if I ever saw one!"

I had already decided to be a little less aggressive and more the temptress so I bit my lower lip and gave him my best little girl look as if I was embarrassed that he had remembered. He walked right in to my web saying, "Oh don't take me wrong, really I meant that as a compliment. Please, I didn't mean to embarrass you."

It took all my willpower not to laugh. Little did he know I loved being a slut and there was little he could ever say to embarrass me. But still, that opened the door for what turned into a rather lengthy conversation. It was sort of surreal to be sitting there next to him in such an atmosphere. I could hear people fucking in the other rooms while others were talking about them and some even cheering them on. Men and women were walking in and out of the kitchen in various stages of dress - or undress if you will.

In the middle of it all I was sitting at the table stark naked drinking a diet Pepsi next to a guy almost twice my age with, based on the stack of empty cans, a six pack of Miller Lite in him while he told me intimate details about his wife and their love life. It may have been the beer, the guilt, the lust, or who knows for sure what reason but he described to me his entire sexual history from the time he lost his virginity in the back seat of his parent's station wagon (how cliche!) to meeting his wife at a company picnic several years ago.

It was obvious to me he was deeply in love with his new wife so I was having a hard time understanding why he was here in the first place. Apparently he was rather conflicted by it as well as he made several attempts to explain his thoughts and feelings. Half-way through he would stop to reset and start over again from a different angle. I eventually concluded that he truly loved his wife and probably deep down wanted to be faithful to her but after years of an active sexual lifestyle he just wasn't sure he could be happy sticking with one woman for the rest of his life.

During all this I hardly said a word as the feelings and emotions seemed to pour out of his heart. For a moment - a brief one mind you, I debated whether I should pursue this any further. What he really needed was a good slap in the face and a ride home to what appeared to be a loving and beautiful wife who wanted nothing more than to be faithful to and please her husband.

Even so, just as I was sure Beth knew would happen when she put me in this position, I really wanted nothing more than to be the one that tempted his lustful desires to the point where he would break his marriage vows just to have me for a few minutes. For me it would be like being with a virgin, knowing that he was giving me something he could only give to one person in his entire life.

There would only be one girl in Martin's lifetime that he would cheat with for the first time, only one girl that was tempting enough for him to break down that wall for the first time as he rationalized the ultimate act of marital deceit. I wanted so bad to be the girl he would remember for the rest of his life, even if he never cheated again. I wanted to be the girl he betrayed his wife for, the one he risked everything for just to possess for a brief moments of ecstasy. Needless to say, Beth couldn't have dragged me home now with a team of wild horses! I took Martin's hand in mine and looked him straight in the eyes.

Moving close to him I whispered softly in his ear, "Martin, would you like to go upstairs with me?"

Actually this would be violating one of the cardinal rules of the party. All activity was supposed to stay within the open living areas - living room, family room, dining room, and such. No private sex in the bedrooms. There were a couple of excellent reasons for the rule. First and foremost was safety. Sometimes things can get carried away and even thought the drinking was kept to a minimum and everyone was supposedly checked out, stuff happens. With people around though the odds were greatly reduced that anything would and even if it did then it could be dealt with quickly. Secondly, the whole purpose of the party was to enjoy sex with others. If you wanted to fuck someone in private, this wasn't the place. People came not only to have sex with new people but to watch it as well.

I had noticed in the past and even tonight that a few people seemed to enjoy watching more than doing. Everyone had to participate somewhat - this wasn't a free show, but there were no requirements as to number of minutes, partners, etc. Asking Martin to go to the bedroom with me was a bit risky if I wanted to be invited again. However, this was a rather unique situation and I was sure that Mike would understand once it was explained to him if it came to that.

Martin seemed to tense at my suggestion and I was worried maybe I had pushed him too quickly but we didn't have all night after all! I squeezed his hand, slowly licked my lips and then in my best little schoolgirl voice said, "You DO want me Martin... don't you?" I pouted just a little and he let out a deep sigh.

"Oh crap, you know I do," he replied. He started to say something which appeared to be a protest from the way his shoulders were squaring so I cut in saying, "Just hush. C'mon, let's go upstairs."

His shoulders slumped back down and a look of resignation came over him. I stood up and keeping his hand in mine, tugged him gently in the direction of the staircase. He looked me up and down and I guess that final review of my nude body was enough and he followed me as we quickly ascended the stairs.

I had no idea what room was whose so I just picked the first one we came to which appeared to be a guest room from the lack of furnishings and rather sterile feeling. It had a queen bed though stacked with pillows and I let go of his hand to jump up on top of it. I perched myself in the center, sitting with my legs crossed under me Indian style and a big grin on my face.

"Mmmmmmm, why don't you get out of those clothes for me," I said to him. Any lingering inhibitions seemed to disappear as he unbuttoned his shirt and dropped his pants. He was wearing black silk boxers and at first I thought he was going to leave them on. They looked sexy but now was not the time for them.

"Uh-uh buster," I teased, "Everything off and that includes the boxers! Show Kelly what you're hiding under there."

Martin rolled his eyes in mock exasperation but he dutifully dropped the boxers to the floor. His cock was hanging down, limp and unmoving. I was a little bit disappointed in that I had hoped I would have caused a little more reaction by now but men vary a lot as to what they respond to and how quickly.

That was OK with me actually as I loved starting with a man who was soft and then bring him to a full erection. It especially felt good to feel him grow in my mouth so before he started to grow and I missed out on it I got down on my hands and knees and approached him like a lioness after her prey. He was standing at the edge of the bed and I took his flaccid cock in one hand and lifted it up so I could take it in my mouth.

"Mmmmmmm," I hummed as I felt his soft dick between my lips.

My tongue played around the head and ran under the edge of it. Martin groaned and I knew at that moment whether he knew it or not that there was no turning back for him now. I only wished his wife was at the door to see her loyal husband break the sacred vows he had made, vows he had promised to keep for life but was already about to violate just a few weeks later.

I felt a glow in my pussy as his cock began to warm and stiffen in my mouth. I've always been fascinated with cocks, in particular the way they could go from a small limp piece of flesh to a large thick hard organ capable of giving me so much pleasure. I knew from long experience that men loved having their dicks sucked and would do almost anything for me to do it to them. Feeling it grow was like a testimony to me, a demonstration of his lust for me and how much I turned him on.

I knew right then that Martin was thinking of nothing but my mouth on him and the way my tongue was playing up and down his hardening shaft, teasing the sensitive spot on the back of his cock and then licking up and down the length of it. I let go of his cock and held his hairy balls gently in my hand, softly massaging them and rolling them between my fingers. God he was getting big! Like trying to judge a book from its cover, I never knew what a cock would be like when he was hard based on the soft state. Some men hardly grew while others doubled or more in size. Martin was definitely one of the latter. As his cock grew it filled my mouth until I could barely take him all in.

Finally his dick got to where in order to bury my face in his thick hairy crotch I had to take him down my throat. Most men aren't long enough to do that but those that are tell me it feels incredible, like fucking a tight pussy in the back of my mouth. I could tell Martin loved it from the way he was groaning and talking to me.

"God that feels soooooo good... suck it baby... yeah right there," he moaned in a husky voice.

I could tell when I was really pleasing him as he would start moving his hips back and forth in time with my mouth on him, driving himself as far into my mouth as he could. I opened my mouth and let the head of his cock slide back and forth on my tongue as I looked up at him. Guys seem to love it when I look at them as I blow them so I make an effort to do so.

arms were under my knees to hold my legs up in the air and his hands slipped under my little ass to lift it up off the bed. Oh yea, he was mine now and there was no turning back! He stared out in space as if someone was standing there and I could barely him whispering to himself.

"Oh God, forgive me Marie... please forgive me," he whispered softly.

I had a feeling that when we were done he was going to realize just how much forgiveness he needed because no matter what there was no way to undo what he was about to do. I was also sure that regardless of what guilt and consequences it might bring, he was always going to remember the blow job I had just given him and then how it felt fucking me knowing his wife was sitting at home thinking he was out playing cards with the guys. The poor thing probably trusted her new husband unconditionally, not even considering that the jerk might be out cheating on her already with a slut like me just a week after returning from their honeymoon. God I would have loved to see the look on her face if she were to appear in the doorway now!

Martin held his cock in his hand and rubbed it up and down my pussy, slowly working it inside my pussy lips and then rubbing the head of it against my clit. I almost jumped off the bed I was so horny by now. I said before that sex was 10% physical and 90% emotional and this was another example of that. As much as I enjoyed the physical pleasures from being fucked by the other five guys, just the slight feel of Martin's cock against my clit was enough to send me off on my best orgasm of the night.

I cried out and Martin looked down to see me cumming, wetting the bed cover under me. It was like the room went foggy as my entire body sizzled and tingled like the air was filled with static electricity. A loud moan escaped from my mouth as I begged and pleaded for him not to stop.

"That's it Martin, rub my clit with your dick... oh yeah – like that!" I cried out as he rubbed his cock head in little circles around my swollen clit.

It was like he was a fleshy electric cord plugging himself into my clit as it got even more sensitive with each pulsation of bliss it sent through me. I kept cumming and cumming as if it would never end – and I was hoping it never would! If this is what it feels like to get high on drugs then I understand why addicts have such a hard time quitting. But in this case I couldn't just pop another pill to keep it going and eventually the throbbing lessened. Fortunately I knew though how revive it and I pleaded with him to do it.

"Fuck me NOW!" I demanded.

No more cutesy schoolgirl talk. No more pouting No, it was now Kelly the slut who was in full sex mode and she needed a cock in her more than anything at that moment!

"Put it in me... damn it hurry up and fuck me!" I pleaded.

As wet and horny as I was Martin easily slid into my pussy. I felt the head of his cock push into me and my orgasm surged back to life again as my pussy was filled with his cock. I could feel the expansion inside of me and the sensation deep in my lower stomach of his cock as it violated me. Each inch that went in me seemed to drive me even deeper into this incredible orgasm.

God I loved being fucked like this! The more he fucked me the more I thought of his faithful wife sitting at home, clueless to what I was doing now to her husband, what I was taking from her, and the higher my orgasm went! I was literally crying with pleasure and tears streamed down my face as my pussy exploded from the intense emotions I was feeling.

Martin was fucking me hard, ramming himself into me and then pulling out until he almost slipped out. A few times he went too far and would fall out of me and instantly my pussy cried out for him again and I would whimper and cry for him to fuck me again. His crotch slammed into my but with a loud smacking sound that the people downstairs could probably hear and I slipped back and forth on the bed cover as he alternately pushed me to the center of the bed and then pulled me back to him. His hands clenched my ass so hard I was afraid my butt was going to be bruised but it felt wonderful.

"Cum in me," I said in a firm voice, "give it to me... fill me!"

I felt a momentary feeling of fear that he wouldn't cum in me, that I wouldn't get his sperm, that somehow his wife would still be the only one to have that. I wanted it in me as my trophy, a final confirmation of his surrender to me, proof positive of my sexuality and desirableness to men.

Martin groaned and I could tell he was getting close. "Oh fuck yes I want to cum in you!" he gasped, "Oh God... Oh God I'm cumming!!!"

He slammed his hips into me and held himself tight against my pussy as he spewed his sperm into me. As I was the only girl he had fucked tonight and his balls must have been overflowing judging from the load he gave me. He pulled out after the first two ejaculations and sprayed my wet pussy with the remainder of his cum.

After his last shot he dropped me to the bed and flopped on his back beside me, his chest heaving up and down as he gasped for air.

I laid back and closed my eyes, reveling in my conquest, feeling his cum oozing from me. The hell with the party, this was the best sex I could have asked for tonight! My entire body was still tingling from that incredible orgasm and I didn't think it could get any better. I was about to sit up when all of a sudden I felt two small hands pushing me back down and a playful tongue on my cunt! I lifted my head to look down and there was Beth licking his cum from my pussy! She looked up at me with her green eyes and smiled.

"Just so you know, I watched the whole thing you little fucking whore!" she exclaimed with a huge grin on her face. "Well, I hope that worth sticking around for! Damn Kelly, you're one naughty little slut with a capital S."

She went back to licking my pussy clean and then kissed my clit quickly before standing up. Martin was watching us , his eyes widened as he saw Beth smacking her lips after licking up his sperm from me. I turned to him and kissed him on his cheek.

"Now you go home to Marie," I instructed him, "but for the rest of your life when you fuck her you're going to remember fucking me."

With that I smiled at him and then got up to join Beth, leaving him lying on the bed. From the look on his face he was probably beginning to realize what he had just done and the reality of the consequences were just starting to sink in. Well, for the rest of marriage he could never go to his wife and claim to be faithful to her without lying about what he had done with me.

I smiled as I thought that no matter how good she was in bed, he was going to remember tonight and the way it felt to fuck me Maybe I'm being mean but for me it was like winning the lottery or earning a trophy, an experience I'll never forget myself.

So anyway, everything was cleared up last July Fourth when we ended up having our first family "orgy". I hate that word but it describes best, I guess, what happened. It's so much that I don't like saying we had sex with one another as a group, it's the implication that somehow it was perverted or naughty that I object to.

So here it was, a year later, the Fourth of July once again.

2. Dad Wakes Me Up With His Dick

I woke up like I often do when I'm home, to the feel of something warm and smooth pressing against my cheek and lips. My mind was groggy and my eyes full of sleep as I tried to open them and focus on what was next to my bed. My lips were dry so I licked them and as I did I felt something against my tongue. Blinking a few more times, my head finally began to clear and I realized what it was that was directly in front of my face - a hairy thatch of pubic hair from which a large dick was protruding. The dick that was pressing against my face, rubbing up against my cheek, like a cute puppy dog begging for attention!

The male muskiness of my father's crotch before his morning shower was almost overwhelming yet at the same time intoxicating. A smile slowly came to my face. Mmmmmmm, my morning wakeup call was right on time! Of course, the actual setting for the time of that "call" was whenever he wanted to come in my room so it was ALWAYS on time, but why quibble over details? I reached out with my tongue and playfully licked the end of his cock and smiled up at him.

"Good morning baby," my dad greeted me.

"Mmmmmmm, good morning daddy," I said, my voice a little husky yet from having just woke up.

I reached out and held his cock still with my hand, kissing just the very end of it at first, and then briefly sucked on the head. "I just LOVE my personal alarm clock," I whispered, speaking more to his cock than to him.

"Trust me Kelly, it loves waking you up as well," my dad said. He then let out a long sigh and exclaimed, "God I love watching you suck my dick! You look incredible with a cock in your mouth, like it's just natural for you."

I grinned at him as he described how much he loved me sucking his cock. Nothing made me feel better than knowing I was pleasing him and I could only imagine the kind of thoughts that must be going through his head as he watched his cock disappear inside his daughter's mouth. It must have been even better to rub it against my face when I was sleeping, then seeing me wake up and suck on it like a baby hungry for its morning bottle.

Over the years I've sucked literally hundreds of cocks, but there was just something special about this particular one. Of course, in large part that was due to knowing it was my own father's dick and not just some regular guy. It made me feel special knowing he wanted his daughter badly enough to come to her and insist that she do this to him, even though he knew that as his daughter it was my duty to so do anything he asked. Whenever I sucked my dad's cock, knowing I was satisfying his needs the way no other girl could, it made me feel more loved and respected than anything else he could have said or done to me. Well, almost more than anything... there was more to come if I was lucky..."

As I laid there on my side with my head on the pillow, my father began to slowly move his hips back and forth, driving his cock in and out of my mouth like he was fucking my pussy. At first he just pushed about half of his cock in but as he got worked up and hornier he started to fill me mouth with more and more of him.

My dad may not have the biggest cock in the world and I have sucked many that were a lot longer or thicker than his, but he was just about perfect for me. He was big enough that when he fucked me my pussy it would stretch out just enough to feel good yet when I sucked him it was small enough to fit in my mouth without making my cheeks hurt after just a few minutes. He was about an inch or so longer than my mouth alone could take so when he got to the point where he was pushing most of his cock in me, not only did his coarse pubic hair brush my face, but I could feel the tip of his cock pushing against the back of my mouth, forcing itself down into my throat.

I drew in a large breath and thought about how much I loved the feeling of his thick dark pubic hair caressing my face and the distinctive odor being created by the combination of his sexual muskiness and body sweat was getting stronger all the time. On the next thrust he reached the back of my throat and instead of automatically retreating as he had been doing, he stopped and then slowly pushed forward even more.

Realizing what he wanted, I relaxed my throat and concentrated on blocking the automatic gag reflex as I felt his dick pressing down my throat until his crotch was finally pressed tight against my face and the head of his cock was down my throat. My dad held himself in that position, wiggling his hips somewhat which moved his dick around in my mouth like it was a thick live snake. He pulled my head tightly into his crotch with his hands and my tongue worked against the base of his cock inside my mouth.

"Oh god baby, that feels so damn good!" he groaned, "That's it, take it all!"

Needless to say you can't breathe when your throat is blocked with a hard cock so after a few more seconds I had to pull back before I gagged. As horny as he was, he understood why I was doing what I was doing and he allowed his cock to draw back out of my mouth while I gasped for air. Once I had caught my breath, we repeated this cycle several times. Finally he pulled out for the last time and I turned over on my back, still panting as I fought to breath normally again.

"It never ceases to amaze me the way you can take it down your throat that way. You know, you're one hell of a little cocksucking slut!" my dad said.

Although someone listening in for the first part might get the wrong idea from what he said, I took the "slut" comment as a compliment.

"Now, move over here so I can get some of that tight teen pussy."

"Daddy, how many times do I have to remind you, I'm not a teenager anymore!" I protested, pretending to be annoyed by his forgetfulness.

"It doesn't matter," he replied, "You'll always be daddy's little girl, no matter how old you get!"

Now THAT was what I loved to hear! If my dad decided tomorrow to stop having sex with me, I would disappointed but would accept his decision. After all, the main reason I let him fuck me is for HIS benefit, not mine. At the same time, so long as he wants me I will always be his to do with as he pleases, no matter how old I get or what my family situation is. You only have one true father and as his daughter, the bible says I am to respect him and obey him.

Now that I was feeling good after what he had told me, I flipped myself over, holding myself up on my elbows as I bent my knees to keep my feet over the bed. My dad stood at the side of his bed, his hard cock sticking out proudly. He then spread my tanned legs apart and kneeled on the floor right at the edge of my bed. Putting one hand on the inside of each of my smooth thighs, he pressed my legs even further apart as he lowered his head down towards my crotch. The whole time he was doing this, his eyes never lost contact with mine and I couldn't help but squirm a bit in anticipation of what was about to happen to me.

"You want your pretty cunt licked, don't you baby?" my dad teased me, his mouth hovering just inches away from my pussy, blowing softly on me – which he knew drove me crazy!

"Oh Kelly!" he cried out softly as his hips jerked and his cock throbbed in me. "I love you Kelly," he repeated over and over as he shot one load of his cum into me after another.

This, beyond any doubt, was the most intimate and erotic moment that could ever occur between the two of us. A father and daughter, physically joined in the most intimate manner a man and woman can be, as his lust and love for her was demonstrated by the eruption of his cock deep in her womb. He wasn't just fucking me, he was mating me, wanting me not just as his daughter, but as his personal slut who would gladly satisfy his most base desires and fantasies.

A surge of emotion ran through me as the implications of what my father was doing to me raced through my mind. It was these emotions that drove me to an orgasm even more so than the physical act of him fucking me. My pussy automatically clamped down on his incestuous cock as if trying to squeeze every bit of cum from him as I moaned loudly underneath him.

Although not as intense as my previous orgasm, this one somehow seemed more fulfilling, more satisfying as I felt his cock slowly dwindle in me, with an occasional twitch as if it was trying to say it still had life remaining.

We remained in this position for a while, basking in the afterglow of the love and lust that had driven us for the past hour or so. Although my dad didn't actually say it, I knew I had satisfied his needs and fulfilled my duties as any daughter should for her father. It was like the satisfaction of a job well done except in this case I had gotten quite a reward for myself! Finally my dad pulled his withered cock out of me and kissed me on the forehead before getting up out of my bed.

"That's for being the most incredible daughter a father could ask for," he said with a smile.

Dad went to the bathroom to shower while I remained in bed, looking up at the ceiling as I thought about all that had just happened. Amazingly, as much as my pussy had just been fucked, it wanted even more and my hand couldn't stay off of it! I rubbed myself gently, almost absentmindedly, as I listened to the shower start.

3. Morning Duties

I must have drifted back to sleep because the next thing I knew I was being awakened again - except this time it wasn't my dad's cock in front of me.

"C'mon sleepy head, they'll be over soon and I need your help with some things."

I felt even groggier than I had the first time I woke up but I recognized the voice of my mom anyway.

"Let's go girl," she insisted, "Your dad's downstairs and if he can do it after that little performance than so can you!"

That was my mom alright. It was funny sometimes how she would joke and tease me about fucking my dad. Fortunately, my parents had a fantastic marriage and they loved and trusted each other totally. My mom understood her husband and his needs so it didn't bother her that he used his daughter to help meet them. She was completely secure in her position as his wife and lover and she knew that nobody, not even me, could ever change that relationship. Instead, she seemed to enjoy teasing me and joking about it after my dad and I had sex. She would call me "his little cocksucker" or "my husband's young slut" and other cute things like that but I never took them seriously as I knew she was just teasing me.

I somehow dragged myself out of bed and headed to the bathroom where I showered and washed my hair. I normally don't wear a lot of makeup when I stay home other than some blush and maybe some lip gloss and eyeliner. My hair was a disaster! What the hell, it was a holiday at home so I just pulled it back into a ponytail and let it go at that.

Back in my room, I debated what to wear and then just gave up and pulled out a pair of cutoffs and a bikini top. The cutoffs were REALLY short but I didn't think anybody was going to mind today, to say the least. The bikini was from an older suit I had worn the year before at the public pool where my favorite thong outfit was banned. My boobs had grown a bit so it didn't cover me very well but then I wasn't exactly trying to hide myself either. I really didn't like running around nude but why wear more than necessary either?

I checked myself out in the mirror and smiled. Lots of men said I looked like the "girl next door" and while on the one hand I realized it meant I wasn't some gorgeous model when it came to looks, it also meant they liked what they saw. I would have to say the image in the mirror fit that description perfectly today.

Bounding down the stairs I found my parents in the kitchen sitting at the table drinking coffee. My mom was the first to greet me.

"Well, she walks among the living," she teased, "Hungry for anything?" She looked at my dad with a sly smile and then back at me and corrected herself saying, "And I wasn't referred to his dick either!"

When I started to protest she just laughed, "Don't even TRY to tell me that wasn't on your mind; I saw how you were looking at him."

I gave a dramatic sigh as if I was being horribly wronged but couldn't help but smile a bit - my mom could read me like a book most of the time. I WAS hungry though so I grabbed a box of cereal and some milk and poured myself some breakfast while they finished off their coffee.

My mom reminded us that my Aunt Linda and cousin Kristen would be over before lunch as they always did on the Fourth. We traditionally had simple burgers and hotdogs on this day along with some salads and other condiments my mom and aunt would make. I imagined we would probably spend some time in the hot tub and then it would be steaks on the grill and eventually the town fireworks would be visible from our deck. This same routine had been followed for as long as I could remember although last year we added something new as I mentioned at the start of this story.

4. My Aunt Linda and Cousin Kristen Arrive

After breakfast I did the dishes and while my mom finished off some of her food dishes I went out on the deck and helped my dad set up the cushions and clean things up. Our house was, like most homes in Pittsburgh, built on the side of a hill such that our garage was at the level of our basement which meant the driveway dipped sharply once you turned into our house. The deck was built on top of the garage making it at the same level as the first floor. Thus it was easy to see my aunt's car arrive in the driveway below us.

I went to the railing and waved as the two of them got out of the car. Kristen headed straight into the garage while my aunt opened the back door to grab a bowl of something. I went back into the kitchen where Kristen was already at the top of the stairs and we hugged each other and squealed like little girls as we greeted one another.

Kristen was dressed in these ridiculously short cutoffs which made mine seem downright conservative by comparison. They were ripped high against the pockets and held together in the crotch by only the thinnest piece of denim. Her ass hung out provocatively on both sides and I was sure if she sat down the crotch would disappear inside her pussy slit.

On top all she had on was a t-shirt ripped apart such that it hung down just below her boobs. It was white with the words "Bad Girl" in dark script letters emblazoned across the front. The only thing keeping it from riding up and exposing herself was the fact it was so tight it may as well have been painted on. Her nipples weren't even hard and they still showed through plain as day! Her blonde hair, bleached even blonder by the summer sun, was pulled back into a short ponytail. The whole outfit looked even better with the dark tan she had and knowing her I doubted there were any tan lines to be found!

Kristen was two years younger than me, making her eighteen, but she had always looked younger than her age and with the outfit she had on and the hair and lack of makeup, she looked more like fifteen or maybe sixteen at the most. Although this bugged her when she was trying to get into an R-rated movie, at the same time she played it to her advantage with the boys who loved fucking a girl who looked as young as she did and often she would even tell them she was younger.

Not surprisingly, it didn't deter many of the older boys (realizing that "older" to Kristen was anyone over seventeen). I once overheard her tell a guy she was thirteen and he believed her - and STILL wanted to fuck her even though he must have been at least twenty five!

"Damn Kristen, you're looking fucking hot today!" my dad complimented Kristen as he entered the kitchen.

I noticed he wasn't even pretending not to stare at her and who could blame him - she DID look pretty damn hot.

Kristen just grinned at him and then reached up on her toes to kissed him on the cheek before heading up to my bedroom with me.

5. Playing With Kristen and My Computer

No sooner were we in my room than she jumped up on my bed and turned around to face me, sitting Indian style with her legs crossed underneath her. Needless to say, as I had anticipated, the shorts surrendered without a peep, exposing her shaved pussy lips on each side of her crotch. There was more of her ass on display than covered but when you had an ass like Kristen's, why not let people see it?

"Feeling horny today?" she asked with this terribly naughty look on her face. I grinned mischievously at her and she laughed saying, "Ohhhhhhhhh, I see, he already fucked you this morning, didn't he?"

It was more of a statement of fact than a question. She shook her head ruefully as she continued saying, "You know, it's been over a week now since your dad did me," she said, "I guess with you home he must be getting enough young pussy."

I just shrugged my shoulders and lifted my hands as if to say there was nothing I could do about it but inwardly I couldn't help but feel a little pride knowing my dad preferred me over her, especially considered what a hot little slut she was - and Kristen WAS a slut in every sense of the word. I at least made an effort to appear "nice" in public, especially since I planned to try to get a teaching position around here someday.

Kristen, on the other hand, didn't seem to care at all what people thought about her and if anything, she seemed proud of her reputation and flaunted herself without any shame at all. Her mother certainly didn't seem to mind. If anything, she even joined in with a couple of Kristen's hotter boyfriends so they made quite a pair. Aunt Linda was divorced so it wasn't like she had to worry about a husband or anything. I didn't see anything wrong with her lifestyle. She was happy and that's what counted in my book.

"So, get any new dirty pictures for me lately?" Kristen asked.

Although Kristen wasn't into chatting and such with strangers on the Internet like I was, she got a kick out of what people said about her based on what I told them and what they read about her in my diary. What really made her hot was when guys sent in "tributes" to her. They would print out a photo of her that I sent them and then jerk off and cum on it. Some guys just took pictures of their cock shooting sperm on her although most would just send back her photo covered in cum. Both of

I opened a video file and we saw a video of computer monitor with the face of her mom full size on it. In front of the monitor you could see a guy holding his cock, masturbating to her picture. Suddenly he started to cum and Kristen gasped as his cum spurt out all over the monitor, covering the photo of her aunt with cum that then dripped down the face of the monitor.

"I don't believe it - what a MESS!" Kristen said. At the same time, I noticed she was staring at it pretty intensely so I played it over again.

"Damn, that is SO hot," Kristen whispered from behind me, "I love the way he cums all over my mom's face. Can you imagine the nasty thoughts that must have been going through his mind when he was doing this?"

Just then who should appear at my bedroom door but my Aunt Linda. I was about to close the window with her pic on it but she was already in my room and saw it.

"What the HELL is that?" she asked, "Is that... God, is that someone jerking off on that old picture of me?"

Kristen and I both just grinned. I knew my aunt wouldn't mind but at the same time she was probably wondering what was going on so I explained to her about the tributes guys sent me.

"Well, at least you send out some decent photos of me," she said. Turning to leave the room she paused and said, "Well, I just wanted to see what you two were doing - don't let me interrupt you anymore!"

With that she left, shaking her head and I could just imagine what she would be telling my mom. Since my mom had already seen most of my collection, it wouldn't be news to her. In fact, she had been the one to be "honored" by a few tributes as well.

I turned and saw Kristen pulling her shorts off. "Now what are you doing?" I asked her, as if I didn't already know the answer.

"Sorry, I was horny enough as it was when I got here but now... well now I simply HAVE to do something about it. You gonna just stand there gawking or what?" she responded.

Well, why not? I dropped my shorts as well and the two of us quickly took up our usual positions at opposite ends of my bead, leaning against the railing with our legs apart so we could watch each other masturbate. Kristen pulled her t-shirt up over boobs and played with them using one hand while her other worked between her legs. Leaving my bikini top in place, I used both hands on my pussy, one to toy with my clit and the other to work inside my pussy. We were both watching the other as we got ourselves off.

"God, can you imagine what those guys would be doing if they could see us now?" Kristen said as she grinned at me.

I just shook my head at her thoughts and focused on her pretty pussy as my clit reacted to my fingers. We were both pretty horny after watching the videos and seeing the tribute photos so I didn't figure it would take either us very long to get ourselves off.

As it turned out, we took even less time than I expected as Kristen's eyes rolled up into her head and she moaned loudly while her fingers rubbed over her clit in a circular motion as fast as she could move them.

"Oh shit," she moaned, "That feels so damn good."

My orgasm was hitting me now as hers built higher. There wasn't much better than cumming together with your cousin in a 69! We were both "gushers" as compared to those women who claim to be "squirters" when they cum. Must be in the genes, I guess, as both of our mothers are the same. I could feel myself cumming as her pussy juices covered my face.

Mmmmmmm, she tasted so incredibly sweet! Overall, it was about the same as my pussy tasted and I eagerly lapped up every drop my tongue could reach. Her tongue was doing the same and I could feel it up and down my pussy like some puppy was licking me.

Exhausted, she fell to her side and we both laid there, our heads next to the other's pussy, gently running our fingers over each other's hyper-sensitive pussy and clit. I loved the way her pussy looked after she had cum, her lips all swollen and wet and her clit practically a miniature penis it was so hard and swollen!

Finally I twisted around and we hugged each other and gently kissed. Both of our faces were covered with the other's pussy cum and I could only imagine the smell of sex that must be permeating my room by now.

"Well cuz, THAT was a nice way to start the day off," Kristen giggled, "Too bad your dad didn't come up and join in!"

We hugged and I whispered softly in her ear, "That's OK, we'll get him later!"

We both giggled again like two little girls sharing a private secret, even though it was no secret at all, at least so far as our family was concerned. For some reason I found myself wondering what my pastor would say if he knew what Kristen and I had just done - or what our plans were for my dad later? It's not that I felt guilty about it, not in the least. It just seemed such a shame that we had to keep something secret that meant so much in our lives.

We both went off to the bathroom and washed ourselves off. We would be hitting the hot tub shortly so I suggested that we skip the shower. Actually, I wanted us to get downstairs with our parents and I had a feeling that if Kristen and I took a shower together that it might be a while before we were finished!

6. Memories Lead to My Dad's Dick

We both dressed and headed downstairs where we found our parents sitting out on the deck eating lunch.

"I thought I told you to get Kelly and bring her down, not get her off," my Aunt Linda teased.

Kristen and I both tried to act innocent, as if nothing had happened but our moms would have nothing to do with that.

"Don't try that look on us," my mom said, "It may work on your dad but you can't fool your mothers!"

After we ate, it wasn't long before all of us were soaking in the hot tub, nude of course. Unless someone was visiting I can't remember ever having worn a bathing suit in our hot tub, even as a little girl. It's true, when nudity is not taboo or treated as something to be ashamed of, it loses the sexual connotations that most people seem to assign to it in such situations. Because it was "normal", it was also something I didn't try to flaunt.

Although nothing would have been said I ran around nude in the house, in reality it was something I very seldom did. For me, I prefer wearing SOMETHING, like one of my dad's dress shirts in the evenings and during the day some form of shorts and a cami top. When it's colder maybe a sweatshirt replaces the shirt but you get the picture.

At the urging of our mothers, Kristen and I took turns telling about some of our hotter sexual adventures. Both of our mothers seemed to live vicariously through their daughters' adventures. Kristen once told me that her mom loved hearing about her dates when she got home and my mom was no different. My dad even got a kick out of hearing about them as well although typically he heard everything second-hand from my mom or Aunt Linda.

Well, today he was getting them first-hand and it was a little erotic to see his cock getting hard as we each tried to outdo the other when it came to recalling details and how we felt at the time. I had a suspicion that Kristen was embellishing hers a little bit but I was doing the same so I couldn't complain.

After a few rounds, my dad was obviously getting horny as hell. Aside from the obvious, the big bulge between his legs, he started to interrupt us to recall once some his own favorites. Finally he started to talk about what had happened exactly one year before on this same deck, the first time the five of us had been together in a sexual way.

"Shit Kelly," he laughed pointing his finger at me, "I can still recall the look on your face when Kristen started sucking my cock. I can't recall EVER surprising you that way - before or since."

Even though I was already flushed from the heat of the water I could feel my face redden. "Well dad, it's not every day a girl finds out that her daddy's been fucking her cousin for almost a year and never said a word about it!"

My cousin giggled at that and I turned to her pretending to be angry at her. "Yea, go ahead and laugh you little slut. Knowing you, I bet you loved fucking my dad even more knowing I didn't have a clue what was going on!"

Kristen just laughed all the more as she knew I was only teasing her. "Yea," she said with a huge grin, "Guilty as charged! But still, it was better once you knew and we didn't have to hide it from you."

Kristen slid over in the tub so she could sit next to her my dad. Her hand dipped below the frothy water where I knew from my dad's reaction she had quickly found his cock.

"Yep!" she exclaimed, "I have to agree it's nice to just reach down and stroke him while you watch." She looked up at my dad and grinned, "Hmmm, from your reaction I think you like it too, don't you Uncle John?"

My dad smiled her and then looked over at me with a smile, "Well Kelly, are you just going to sit there and let your cousin have all the fun or what?"

I wasn't going to let THAT go without a response so without another a word I slid off the seat and dived underwater where I took the head of his cock in my mouth while Kristen's hand held his shaft in place. I sucked it hard and then popped back up to get some air. The aftertaste of the tub water was in my mouth but I just ignored it.

"Well," I said gazing into his eyes, "Does that answer your question?"

Not to be outdone, Kristen went under for a little oral action of her own. My dad groaned as I saw her blonde hair floating to the top of the water while her head bobbed up and down on his cock.

"C'mon dad," I encouraged him, "sit up on the edge so we both can do it."

As soon as Kristen popped her head out of the water my dad lifted himself up and sat in the corner on the edge of the hot tub with his legs still in the water. His pubic hair was plastered down flat around the base of his cock and he looked so hot and sexy sitting there naked with his erect cock sticking up into the air. I turned to Kristen and she looked at me and we both grinned before each of us simultaneously reached out for the other and hugged. Her wet nude body felt wet and slippery to me and we kissed long and hard, our tongues touching and exploring the other's mouth.

I looked out the corner of my eye to the opposite corner where our mothers had been sitting quietly, watching their daughters playing with each other. It must have reminded them of their teenage years as my mom use to tell me how they would spend all night kissing and fondling each other in their bedroom.

Just as that thought went through my mind I heard my mom say to her sister, "Ahhhhhh, isn't that SO sweet! I just love seeing the two of them together, don't you Linda?"

My Aunt Linda responded with a sly grin on her face, "Yeah Mary, brings back some fond memories, doesn't it?"

"Well, maybe some fondling memories!" my mom joked as she reached out to her sister. They hugged and kissed while Kristen and I did the same. My dad just watched, stroking himself as he did. I guess it must have been quite a turn-on for him to see two generations of women playing right before him. I reached my hand over and pressed his hand out of the way so I could have his cock for myself. God was he hard!

"Mmmmmmm, Kristen..." I said softly, "I want to watch you suck my dad."

Well, Kristen didn't have to be asked twice, that's for sure. She winked at me and took my dad's cock in her mouth and started bobbing her cute blonde head on him. God she looked so hot sucking my dad's stiff dick!

I reached underwater between her legs from behind and started playing with her pussy. She immediately spread her legs apart to let me have easier access and my fingers slid over her slick hairless pussy. I worked my finger between her pussy lips and up into her cunt. She looked back at me with my dad's cock in her mouth and I could see she was trying to smile at me.

7. The Moms Join In

My mom and aunt were still watching us as they lightly fondled each other. An idea came to my mind and I put my mouth close to Kristen's ear and said, "Hey, I've got an idea... Let's each lick the other's mom." Kristen didn't stop sucking my dad but instead looked up at him as did I. He just grinned and said, "Why not? Go for it!"

Kristen and I turned to our moms, who hadn't heard what I had said with all the noise of the hot tub. We slowly moved towards them, grinning from ear to ear and they knew something was up.

"Alright, now just what are you two up to now?" my aunt said with a smirk.

It became obvious what our intentions were as I approached my aunt while Kristen did the same with my mom. We put our hands on their knees and then looked over at each other, each of us grinning with anticipation. As one, we spread them apart and moved in closer between their legs. I suppose it goes without saying that neither of them resisted one bit! My mom looked at us and then at her sister, her face beaming. "You know sis, I think our nieces have something in mind for us."

The two older women each lifted themselves up and sat on the edge of the hot tub, a similar position as my dad who was on the opposite side. I quickly glanced over my shoulder to see what he was doing and was pleased to see he was stroking himself as he watched the four of us, the four women closest to him, getting ready to have some fun of their own.

Unlike their daughters, both women had quite hairy pussies although they trimmed them enough to keep the hair from showing around their bikinis and thongs. They also trimmed themselves to keep it from being too long and creating a bulge in their bottoms. I have seen the most conservative girls sport the most obvious growth of pubic hair through their bikini bottoms, especially when they just came out of the pool. I know some of them thought that girls like me who shaved themselves did it just to be sluts but really, who was being the exhibitionist, me who kept a nice, clean appearance, or girls like them who made it obvious what was underneath?

Another similarity to my dad was that their crotches were dripping wet from the tub which had the effect of plastered their thick pubic hair down tight, making it easier to see their pretty pussies underneath. With their legs now spread wide apart, I knew they were waiting for us to get started. Just before I did, I glanced upwards and saw them exchanging grins and I couldn't wait any longer no more than they could. Kristen gave me one more wink before I saw her head disappear between my mom's long legs and I quickly did the same with her mom.

Aunt Linda's pussy tasted at first like hot tub water but as my tongue worked its way into her pussy the flavor changed more and more to that of her beautiful pussy. It really WAS beautiful. The layers of her pussy lips, the way her clit was already hard and poking out from under its hood, the subtle opening of her pussy hole hinting at what lay inside, all were miracles of God so far as I was concerned. It seemed impossible that beneath those moist layers of skin lay more nerve endings than anywhere else in her body, each one of them now waiting for me to stimulate them with my mouth.

My tongue licked over and around her pussy, teasing her at one moment and then trying to plunge inside of her the next. I could feel her legs tense up under my hands when I would hit an especially sensitive point, keying me to remain there until she would gasp or moan out loud.

Kristen must have having a similar impact on my mom as both women gasped and I looked up to see them laying their heads back as they enjoy what their nieces were doing to them. My nose pushed up against her clit and I rubbed it around and around it as my tongue pushed its way onto her. My arms rested on her thighs as the water supported me up and I floated just off the bottom of the tub as I continued to lick my aunt.

"Mmmmmmm, so what do you say Mary, how do you like the way I taught my daughter to lick pussy?" my aunt asked my mom.

"Almost as good as her mom!" my mom responded with a laugh.

I could count on one hand the number of times I had actually seen the two of them together, and still have some fingers left over. Watching two sisters, each around forty years old, still enjoying each other after having been doing each other for almost twenty years, was one of the most sensual and erotic sights I have ever seen. At times I tried to imagine them when they first started, just eleven and thirteen, experimenting in bed together, exploring each other in ways they probably didn't even quite understand yet.

As the older sister, my mom was surely the aggressor at first but my aunt seemed to be the dominant one now. Sort of the same way it was with Kristen and me. Being a couple years older I had a head start on her but now she was the "wild" one, urging me on to try and keep up with her at times.

"First things first... a little cock sucking from each of my favorite ladies," he said, a broad grin on his face as he rubbed his hands together like a little boy about to open his Christmas presents.

My mom was the first, opening her mouth as she supported herself on her hands and knees. For a moment I was reminded of the first time I had ever seen my parents having sex. As open as my family was about sex in general, including masturbation, the key to remember was that all of it dealt with how we acted as a person. How you dressed (or didn't) didn't directly impact anyone else so as long as you were clean and maintained good hygiene, it really didn't matter. When you get down to it, masturbation is a personal thing so whether you did it or not, where you did it, and whether or not anyone saw you, was really up to you as well since nobody else was directly impacted. So while I tell people I was raised in an "open" atmosphere, it was really just about yourself, not anyone else.

Sex was something else. My parents certainly didn't hide the fact that they enjoyed one another intimately, they just never did it in front of me or where I could see them. It was something special they reserved for themselves, especially since I wasn't directly involved. It wasn't until I started having sex with them that they allowed me to see them making love although even then, it wasn't like they went out of their way to put on a show for me or anything.

If there was anything my parents taught me, it was that making love (I'm not talking about fucking but rather the act between a husband and wife) is deeply personal and something that is shared equally between a man and his wife, an act of mutual love and respect that defines a marriage.

Seeing my mom's head bobbing on my dad's cock out here on the deck took me back to that night years ago when I arrived home early from a party and saw them making love in the hot tub through the window in my bedroom. My bedroom overlooked the deck and with the lights off, they had no idea I was watching – or so I thought at the time.

It was one of the most beautiful sights I had ever seen, nothing like the type of sex I was having with my boyfriends. Seeing the love expressed between them, the intimacy and respect, was almost overwhelming and it was then that I realized I wanted to be with them in that way. Although I did indeed start having sex with them not long afterwards, I still have never quite felt my father was making love to me in the way he did to my mom. He fucked me and I know he enjoyed it immensely, but there was something special in his eyes when my parents made love.

That look was in his eyes even now as his hips seemed to almost instinctively respond to her mouth on him and he pumped himself gently in and out of her mouth. I started to squirm as I wanted to have some of it for myself and my dad must have noticed as he chuckled and pulled his cock from my mom's mouth.

"Sorry hun," he said to my mom, "Somebody's getting a little antsy over here."

I grinned up at him as I opened my mouth like a baby chick waiting for its mother to deliver the worm. In this case the worm was my dad's hard dick and he held it in one hand as he directed himself into my waiting mouth. Mmmmmmm, it was MY turn now!

He didn't stay with me quite as long as with my mom, I guess he wanted to give all of us some attention without having to wait too long. After me it was my cousin's turn and I could only shake my head in mock disbelief as she literally attacked his dick. God that girl could suck cock!

My specialty, if you could call it that, was the deep, long strokes that would even extend down into my throat. I loved to hold a guy's cock all the way in my mouth for as long as I could hold my breath, feeling him pulsing and throbbing inside of my cheeks and tongue. Kristen, on the other hand, was all about hard and fast. Her head bobbed on him like a jackhammer, going about half way down his cock each time. For a moment I was afraid she was going to twist her neck or something!

My Aunt Linda was last in line and as if to make up for her wait, my dad let her suck him the longest. There was always something unique about seeing my dad with my aunt. It wasn't the same love that he showed my mom but there was still some emotional attachment that was special between them. It was almost more like the respect you see between two athletes, each aware of the other's special talents and although assured of their own, still respecting the other as an equal. I guess when you have been with someone for as long as my dad has been with my aunt, you can't help but form a special bond.

One pass seemed to be enough to satisfy his oral needs and he walked around behind us. It was almost like one of those movies where the drill sergeant was inspecting the troops except instead of checking out our uniforms and weapons, he was checking out our asses and pussies!

"Now THIS is what I call one fine sight," my dad declared, "Four of the best pieces of ass a man could ask for!" I heard him smack somebody's butt and from the resulting squeal I knew it was my aunt's.

"Damn Linda, I guess all those real estate 'commissions' must really work," he teased her, "Easy to see how you keep breaking records flashing that cute thing around!"

Kristen was next and I heard her giggle as I imagined he was probably fondling her butt by now.

"Yep, like mother like daughter," he observed, "Hate to say it Linda but your daughter has an even finer ass than you did at her age."

Kristen giggled and my aunt pretended to protest.

"I think you've forgotten a bit over twenty years," she said, sounding a little miffed and I couldn't help but wonder if it was really just all a put-on.

Aunt Linda was quite proud of her body, even these days as she wore some truly suggestive clothing when she showed houses. As much as she loved her daughter, I could easily imagine that she wasn't too keen on having anyone say Kristen was hotter than she as at the same age!

His hand groped me next and I felt his finger run down the crack of my ass, over my asshole and then down to my wet pussy. He pushed it inside of me just a little and I moaned softly as I wiggled my butt for him.

"And then there's Kelly, dear sweet little Kelly," he sighed, "what more could a father ask for?

It pleased me that he seemed happy with me but I would have preferred he make a few more comments, especially about my ass. Growing up was never happy with my boobs and it seemed forever before my body took the right shapes but my ass was always the one part of me that I was the most proud of. Kristen's was really cute and overall, she had the better overall package but I would still put my butt up against anyone's (figuratively and literally!).

My dad moved over to my mom and without a word, he took his cock and pushed it into her waiting pussy.

"Of course, then there's Mary, the love of my life," he said softly, lovingly, as he started to stroke himself in and out of her.

What more did he need to say? Although my mom did indeed still have a great ass for her age, I don't think it would have mattered to my dad what it looked like. She was his wife and he loved her unconditionally, period. It may sound materialistic and shallow, but I wouldn't be surprised if he stopped fucking me if I was to gain a lot of weight and not look hot for him anymore.

My dad certainly didn't care what her motives were -he just seemed to love fucking her and who could blame him? I bet just about any guy his age, if offered the chance, would have done her too!

Again, my aunt was last and again, it was interesting to watch the interplay between them. It wasn't the same as when he fucked my mom, but it was worlds apart from when he had just done his niece. No wonder she had to divorce her husband. I could see where having to choose between her family ties and just him she was left with little choice but to let him go.

Once he had done each of us, it then became almost like some scene from a porn movie. He would slip into each of us, stroke a few times and move to the next like it was literally a fucking assembly line. A question that had to be going through each of our minds was, who would he finish in? For that matter, would he even cum in one of our pussies or what? It was really all about him at this point.

I noticed then that none of us were even touching ourselves as I would have thought we would in such a situation. It was like we were there for his amusement only. Actually, it wasn't too surprising at all when I looked back at it later. It was one of the reasons I am not a big fan of group sex affairs. They never seem to be as intimate or personal as 1-1 or at most, a threesome, goes. That was the case today it seemed; we were there to please my dad and although it wasn't like it wasn't enjoyable or anything, just a difference in the entire outlook. Meantime, my dad was certainly having a blast!

He was fucking my aunt once again when the time came. He quickly pulled out of her and scurried in front of us, gripping his thick cock in his hand, stroking it as if to keep him on the edge of whatever he was about to do.

"Gather around ladies," he invited us, "There's enough for everyone!"

The four of us moved in and managed to get all of our heads together in front of his crotch.

"Oh fuck, I'm cumming," he groaned as his cum began to squirt out. The first load caught Kristen right between the eyes and she had to shut them to keep it from getting in. The next was mine, striking me on the right chin and nose. The third barely reached my mom's chin and the next few he had to put his cock up against my aunt's tongue and shoot it out and over her tongue.

Ever the one to take advantage of a situation, Kristen pushed her way forward and with her eyes still closed, took his dick between her lips and sucked on him like she was trying to get more cum for herself.

"C'mon girl, share a little," I whined.

"Now girls, don't fight over it," my dad said, sounding quite proud of himself. I guess he had to be. Other than a fake porn movie, how many guys got to experience four naked women taking his cum, even fighting over who would get it? For most guys it would always be nothing more than a fantasy but for my dad, he was lucky enough to have his dream come true. Under the circumstances, how could he sound anything other than a bit boastful?

By the time I had his dick in my mouth he was already starting to shrink down but a couple of drops of sperm were still left in him for me to suck out. I used his cock like a squeegee to push the cum that was dripping down my cheek into my mouth and swallowed it quickly down.

"Here Kristen," I heard my aunt say, "wipe that out of your eyes."

She handed her daughter a towel and Kristen used it to clean the cum from her face before handing it to me so I could do the same. Our mom's had their own towels and my dad stood back like a cock ruling over the roost as his women cleaned off the results of his orgasm.

"Now THAT'S what I call an anniversary," he announced, leaning over to kiss my mom.

9. The Rest of the Family Stops By

Just then the phone rang and my mom hustled to the kitchen. My dad slapped her naked bottom playfully as she went by and she wagged her finger pretending to scold him. The rest of us rearranged the cushions and I was about to get back in the tub when my mom hurriedly returned to the deck.

"That was Shari," she announced, referring to one of my aunts on my dad's side, married to his younger brother, "They're on their way over!"

She looked accusingly at my dad and said, "So when were you planning to tell me about this?"

My dad looked sheepish, almost like a little caught with his father's Playboys.

"Sorry, Jim called earlier this morning and I was about to tell you when Linda and Kristen arrived... and then I sort of forgot," he tried to explain. "Hey, don't blame me, I'm not the one that started all this!"

My mom just rolled her eyes and looked upward as if seeking relief from heaven.

(Jul 06) Chapter 89: Babysitting Husband

Story codes: MF F-solo oral adultery
Me (20)
Keith (29)

Unlike most girls when they get to my age, I still enjoyed babysitting. I just don't understand why anyone would want to wait tables at minimum wage when you can get twice the pay (in cash) by taking on a job where more than half the time the kids are in bed? In addition, there are side benefits in that most parents with kids at this age are not that old meaning the husbands can be quite... well, interesting. Usually that just means some teasing and flirting but in this case it went a little bit further.

1. Babysitting For Keith and Kathy

Even though I'm going to be a college junior next semester I still baby-sit a lot. There are plenty of parents who want an older girl for their kids and more than willing to pay the bug bucks for the security of knowing a supposedly more mature girl is taking care of their kids. I can't blame them; personally I can't imagine entrusting my future children in the care of some hormonal fourteen year-old princess who will spend most of the time on her cell phone than paying attention to the kids. I'm not being harsh, just recalling what I was like way back when I was that age!

In a few cases I think it's less about security and more that they're afraid to let go of the apron strings and let their kids stay home alone. These sort of people insist on having someone older in the house even though the kids are (at least in my opinion) plenty old enough to take care of themselves. I have actually "babysat" thirteen and fourteen year boys and girls! Needless to say you can't hire a fourteen or fifteen year-old girl to watch them.

Take the case of Keith and Kathy who are 29 and 26 respectively. Both work as real estate agents which was how I got connected with them in the first place. My Aunt Linda is also a realtor and one day she overheard them complaining about the low quality of some of their babysitters and so she gave them my name and number.

They didn't even flinch when I quoted my rates even though they are at least twice those of the younger girls.

As realtors, Keith and Kathy sometimes have to meet clients in the evenings or on weekends, often on the spur of the moment. In such times they often had problems getting one of their regular babysitters so they would call me to see if I was available to watch little Ashley. At three years old, she was an absolute doll baby and I always looked forward to taking care of the little angel.

As it worked out Kathy and I got along great. She really wasn't all that much older than me so it was more like we were friends than the typical mom and babysitter relationship. She was always saying how we should go out for lunch or something but with our schedules as full as they were, that just never seemed to happen.

Kathy seemed very sweet, your stereotypical girl next door from the Midwest who married her high school sweetheart. Although personally I thought she spoiled Ashley a little too much, who was I to say anything being an only child myself and oft accused of being spoiled rotten? No doubt my babysitters had thought the same about my mom when I was Ashley's age and I think that I turned out OK.

There was one other reason I enjoyed babysitting for them, and it wasn't something I could ever tell Kathy. There was something in the way her husband Keith looked at me whenever Kathy wasn't around that made me tingle just a little in all the right places. Whether she admits it or not, EVERY girl notices when a man has his eyes on her and Keith wasn't very good at hiding his interest in me - or to be more specific, my ass and boobs. Sometimes I honestly wondered if he had any idea what I looked like from the neck up! Naturally I encouraged him a bit by wearing suggestive outfits such as my short cutoffs in the summer or tight jeans in the winter along with a tight shirt or cami that emphasized my boobs. Just leaving a few buttons undone or a teasing look is all that is needed sometimes to get the desired results.

Kathy seemed rather oblivious to the little game I was playing with her husband. It was probably the same with the other girls who babysat for them as well although I would like to think I pushed the line a little more than most. It was just all innocent flirting anyway so far as I was concerned. The two of them seemed quite happily married and so far as the way Keith looked at me, well, MOST men did so for me it would have more unusual if he hadn't!

In comparison with me, Kathy was conservative although not overly. A pretty brunette, she kept up with the latest fashions but didn't go overboard. We were about the same height although she hadn't quite shed all her weight after pregnancy. It's not like she was fat but her thighs and hips seemed to be hanging on to whatever they could despite her best dieting efforts.

As a realtor, I guess she had a different approach when it came to selling houses than my aunt did who relied on her sexuality and flirting (or whatever else was necessary) to get the sale. My Aunt Linda was the type that wore slinky outfits and all but threw herself at the guys - whether or not they were married. From what my mom had told me, more than a few of her sales were finalized in the bedroom rather than the kitchen table - and not always with just the husband!

2. What Do Babysitters Do When They Are Alone?

One day Kathy called me first thing in the morning to see if I could sit for Ashley. As usual, it was a last-minute request but I loved sitting Ashley; she was always in a good mood and never gave me a hard time. It was about a mile or so to their house but it was a nice day so I decided to walk, arriving at their house just before noon.

Kathy answered the door with a look of relief on her face and quickly explained to me what was happening. Apparently there was a couple from out of town who only had a few days to find a house so they couldn't waste any time. As Kathy gathered her briefcase and purse, she apologized over and over for the late notice. She warned me that it would probably not be until almost dark before she returned unless a miracle occurred and they found the house of their dreams earlier.

Before she left, I asked what time Keith would be home and Kathy frowned, explaining to me that Keith was out of town at some convention. He wasn't going to be back until Friday night which was still a couple of days away. What surprised me was how she sounded a bit peeved at him, muttering something about hoping he was having a good time while she was stuck taking care of everything at home AND trying to keep her job. I didn't say anything, figuring it was probably best not to get in the middle of a domestic crisis.

Kathy stuffed her laptop into her briefcase and turned as she tried to put on a happy face for me. "Well, how do I look?" she asked.

I gave her the once over and smiled. She really WAS pretty cute, even if she could use a little more time on the Stairmaster and fewer fast-food lunches with clients. As I mentioned before, it wasn't that she was fat, just a little more than necessary around her hips and thighs. The outfit she had on did a nice job of smoothing it all out. She wore a sharp pair of black pants with a matching black jacket that had a wrap tied in the front. A bright pink cami underneath covered where most girls would've been showing off their cleavage.

"You look great," I encouraged her, "Now get out of here and sell them a house!"

Kathy sighed and shook her head, checking out her purse one last time as she hurried to leave. "Thanks so much for helping out Kelly. I really don't know what I would have done without you today. You're a life saver!"

Kathy gave me a friendly hug, kissed Ashley goodbye, and headed out the door with a wave towards Ashley. For the next couple of hours I entertained Ashley. At just three years of age she already had quite an impressive doll collection and she loved dressing them and pretending to be their mommy. Predictably, in the middle of the afternoon she started to act a bit cranky and I knew she was due for her nap.

Ashley's bedroom was down the hall from the family room where we'd been playing so I lead her by the hand to bed and then sat next to her for a few minutes. She fell sound asleep almost instantly and from past experience I knew she would be out cold for at least an hour or two so which gave me some time for myself. THIS was what I loved about babysitting - getting paid to do whatever I wanted!

As this wasn't the first time I'd babysat for them, I'd already checked out the house and knew exactly where to go - their bedroom. Actually, I make it a point to check out every home where I sit. Believe it or not, in my experience almost everyone has something hidden somewhere that's interesting. Sometimes it's the husband hiding things from his wife (you wouldn't believe what I have found on some people's home computers!)

Some wives have the most incredible lingerie collections. A few couple are secretly kinky - the bondage stuff and leather, which never has really turned me on. A few time I have gotten lucky and found pictures, and even videos, or what could be called the "Bedroom Olympics". Usually it's just the husband taking photos of his wife but there have been a few more adventurous souls who apparently get off taping themselves having sex.

As nice as couple as they appeared in public, Keith and Kathy were a little more adventuresome in private. Her top drawer was filled with a marvelous collection of teddies and baby doll negligees. Nothing weird or kinky but very sensual. But that wasn't my most interesting "find". With their Mr. and Mrs. America outward appearance, I bet the neighborhood would've been shocked to learn that that Kathy and Keith enjoyed making home videos - and NOT the type they showed at family reunions!

Now whenever I'm alone in their house, I make it a point to check out his top dresser drawer which is where he keeps their "collection". So far it consisted of half a dozen videos. All but one of them was just him taping her in her lingerie and then stripping it off for him. The sixth one was my favorite. In that one she starts out sucking his cock and from there they fuck until he finally cums all over her boobs. I remember the first time I plugged it in the VCR and saw what was on the tape. God, I was wet almost instantly!

The fact the tapes weren't hidden all that well wasn't surprising. With Ashley being only three I'm sure they weren't worried about her finding them and of course they probably never have even dreamed that their babysitter might go looking thought their personal things! (Warning to parents - most of the girls I know DO look through your stuff so keep it in mind and act accordingly!)

With Ashley safely in bed, I went to their bedroom and opened up his dresser drawer. Unfortunately, any hopes of finding a new one were dashed. Oh well, I knew which one I wanted to see again I picked it out and headed down to their family room where the big screen TV and VCR were.

On the way I checked on Ashley and was pleased to see the little doll was sound asleep. Someday when I have a girl I pray that she is as well behaved as this one. What a little angel!

When I tried to put the tape in the VCR it wouldn't go in which was when I realized that there was already a tape loaded. When I ejected the tape, I realized what it was and my heart skipped a beat. No Barney crap here, that was for sure. It had the same type of label as they used for their other "personal" videos and I smiled when I saw it was labeled with the date of this past weekend. Hmmm, I wondered if they had a nice going away session before he left?

Setting aside the older tape, I reloaded the new one back in and hit the PLAY button. As the VCR cranked up, I backed up and sat on the edge of the couch as I watched the TV. At first it was just black and then someone must have turned on the lights and the camera moved into the right position. From the looks of things, it must have been on a tripod next to this very same TV because the couch I was sitting on was in the center of the screen. Nobody was in the picture yet but I could hear voices barely in the background.

Then Kathy appeared, dressed in a sexy baby doll negligee that didn't hide a thing! It was sheer pale pink and clasped together with one hook in the center with matching sheer panties that made it easy to tell that she didn't shave. What made it hot for me was her complete lack of embarrassment or shame. I've seen a couple of other couples tapes and in both of them it was obvious it was the husband's idea and the wife was being coaxed into doing something she wasn't thrilled about - at least at first. In this case, Kathy was certainly wasn't shy!

Kathy looked really hot and it was hard for me to imagine that this was the same sweet, "innocent" woman I had just been talking to a few hours before. Her boobs were large but didn't sag all that much and she had the most incredible nipples that poked through the thin negligee like pencils. Her hair, normally tied back or in some other conservative way, was down past her shoulders and flowed as she twisted and turned for the camera.

What really caught my eye was Kathy's hot ass. She loved to wiggle it and show it off for the camera and from the way the camera zoomed in tight on it, Keith obviously loved it as well given the time the camera was fixated on it.

After a rather quick strip tease, Keith made his on-screen appearance. He was already nude and his dick was as hard as a tree branch. They didn't mess around with a lot of foreplay so it wasn't long before I was watching sweet little Kathy being fucked like a cheap whore by Keith right in the middle of their family room!. It started with Kathy on her hands and knees with Keith fucking her from behind on one knee. As always, I was instantly wet as I watched them and my tongue ran over my lips looking at Keith's cock. God, it looked absolutely yummy as he slowly pushed it in and out of his wife.

As I watched more of the video, it suddenly dawned on me that Kathy must have been watching this while Keith was gone and had forgotten to take it out when she was finished. I looked around and tried to imagine where she had masturbated while she watched herself being fucked by her hunk of a husband.

Looking at the couch cushions, I licked my lips as I imagined her laying there with her hand between her spread-open legs, fondling that hairy little pussy of hers. Was she was dressed while she watched or did she wear something from that sexy collection of sexy lingerie she kept in her dresser? Hmmm, maybe she wore the one she was wearing at the start of the video.

With that thought in mind I hit the PAUSE button on the remote. Hurrying back to their bedroom, I rummaged through her lingerie drawer as the 1sweet scent of her sex filling my nose. I felt a tingle between my legs when I pulled out a sheer pink one and realized it was just the one she had been wearing in the video! Well, either she hadn't been wearing it earlier when she was masturbating or must have done laundry soon afterwards.

With the outfit in hand, I hurried back to the family room where it only took a few seconds to strip off my shorts and top. Standing there nude in the middle of the room, I put on the lacy negligee and hooked it together between my boobs. Surprisingly, it fit fine! The panties fit as well as these outfits are typically sold to cover a range of sizes.

There was a mirror over a table by the wall and I walked over to took a look at myself in it. Damn, the entire outfit was so sheer I may as well have been wearing nothing all. The baby doll top only came down to my midriff so without the panties, my pussy would have totally uncovered but that wouldn't have been so bad. There was only a single clasp holding it together between my boobs which meant it didn't do much to cover them either.

Resuming my place on the couch, I pushed the PLAY button on the remote. As I stretched out, I wondering if this was the same position Kathy had been in when she was watching this very same video. Next to the TV were several wedding pictures of Kathy and Keith.

It was hard to imagine such the sweet and perfect looking couple in that photo could be the same two people fucking like horny rabbits on the video. Actually, it wasn't so amazing they were fucking, they HAD produced Ashley after all. What was hard to believe was that they TAPED it! Kathy always seemed so sweet, maybe even a little naive at times. Who would have known she had this side to her?

As I continued to watch the two of them fucking, my hands wandered down between my legs and I spread apart wide on the couch. Dam, these panties simply HAD to go so I quickly slipped them off and dropped them to the floor. They were already a little damp in the crotch but not so much that it was too noticeable. My pussy was already soaking wet and I spread my pussy lips apart so my other hand could rub my clit, moving up and down my pussy slit to wet my fingers so they could slide more easily over my sensitive clit which was becoming harder by the minute.

Frankly, I don't know what was turning me on more, watching this hot couple fucking or doing myself while I wore her nightie! All I knew was that the combination of it all was making me horny as hell and I masturbated furiously.

When I masturbate with the intention of cumming as quickly as possible, it usually doesn't take me long to reach my goal and this afternoon was no exception. Ashley was asleep upstairs but I didn't know for sure how long that would last and then of course, there was always the possibility of Kathy coming home early for one reason or another. I was pretty confident I would hear her car pull up in the driveway but it wouldn't hurt to get myself off as soon as possible.

My own moans began to drown out Kathy's on the video and soon I wasn't even watching as I closed my eyes and relished the surges of pleasure that my pussy was generating. It was moments like this that I live for, for the intense feelings generated inside of me when my orgasm hits me.

My pussy cum began to literally pour from my cunt as I humped my hips up and down, imagining it was me that Keith was fucking and not Kathy. Oddly enough, the thought that I had better flip the cushions when I was done crossed my mind but disappeared quickly.

I was cumming so hard that I never noticed the slight movement at the door...

3. Caught Masturbating By Keith

"Whoa!... Now THIS is what I call a nice homecoming!"

My orgasm was at its peak and there wasn't much of anything that could stop me once I got to this point. As much as hearing a voice in the room should have shocked me and brought me to earth, I simply couldn't take my hand away from my pussy. I HAD to finish, I HAD to make myself keep cumming. You may as well ask an addict to stop getting high as ask me to stop my orgasm, especially one as intense and pleasurable as this one. Besides, it was probably just a voice from the video anyway as nobody should be entering the house, let alone a man.

Actually, I don't even think it really registered with me that someone might be in the room. I was too caught up in my own emotions and the incredible surges of pleasure that were emanating from my pussy and flowing out every pore of my body. Besides, I didn't hear anything more and with my eyes tightly closed, I used my left hand to take over rubbing my clit and put two of the fingers of my right hand deep into my soaking wet cunt.

"Fuck me... oh yeah fuck me Keith," I moaned softly, dreaming it was me in the video being nailed instead of Kathy.

My imagination was running in overdrive, picturing her watching me now, seeing me in her sexy lingerie, masturbating as the video of her being screwed by her husband played on the big screen TV in front of me. God, what would she say if she heard me begging her husband to fuck me? For that matter, what would HE say?

Thinking of them watching me just made my orgasm all the more intense as it just kept going on and on and on. Poor men, they just cum for a few seconds and it's like, game over, go to sleep. I loved being a woman, the incredible feelings I get when I orgasm, especially when it just seems to never stop, driving me insane with the sheer pleasure that it gives me. As my mind exploded, all I could think about was how I wanted her to watch her husband fuck me, for Mrs. America to see Mr. America screwing their babysitter. What would she say when he came in me, when her high school sweetheart betrayed his vows to her right in front of her, not caring what shame and horror she was feeling.

"Cum in me Keith, that's it... cum in me," I groaned, imagining his cock swelling inside of me, releasing his sperm deep in me, imagining the look of shock on Kathy's face as she realized what her husband had just done to me. To take her husband's sperm, to have him mate me in front of her, to show her how much more he wanted to fuck me than her, was all I wanted.

As much as I would have liked it to go on forever, my orgasm began to slowly wind down. I pulled my fingers from my pussy and licked them like a couple of popsicles, savoring the sweet taste of my pussy cum. Some of my friends think it's gross to taste your own pussy but I have always loved the smell and taste of my own pussy, even back when I was only eleven and just starting to explore and learn more about myself. My left hand cupped my crotch, pressing against it without stimulating any one area too much, just feeling the warmth of my pussy as it throbbed and involuntarily convulsed now and then. God I felt so incredibly good at this moment; what could possibly make it any better?

The world around me started to come back into focus and it was then I heard a shuffling sound behind me. My heart skipped a beat as I looking back over my shoulder to see who was there. God, did Ashley get up early? Did she see what I had been doing? Even worse, did she see her parents on the TV? How was I ever going to explain this to Kathy?

Those thoughts flashed through my brain in an instant so you can only imagine the look of total surprise when I saw who was actually behind me. There was Keith, standing there with a grin stretching from ear to ear with his arms crossed. Oh my god, how long had he been watching me? How embarrassing to be caught masturbated on their couch, wearing his wife's lingerie and playing their private video on the TV!

"Now don't let me stop you from anything important," he said with a bit of a chuckle.

I bolted upright and sat there with my legs crossed and my hands covering my breasts, feeling like a little girl whose brother had walked by while she was dressing.

"Oh come on," Keith chortled, "Don't give me this innocent little girl routine. Shit, I've been watching you for the past twenty minutes, ever since you came down from the bedroom."

No wonder I hadn't heard him come in. God, talk about incredibly bad timing! He must have drove up and come through the door while I was in their bedroom searching though Kathy's lingerie. How could I have not noticed him when I came back down? Well, the reason was obvious, I guess, given how horny and distracted I was at the time. Even so, God, I couldn't believe he had been watching me the whole time!

"You know damn well I love looking at you when you come over but I have to admit, THAT was the sexiest thing I've seen in a long time!" he said. He was obviously trying to calm me down but didn't seem to realize he was having the exact opposite effect.

"I just have one question. Would you have done it if you knew I was watching?"

God, how could he ask me THAT? I knew what the answer was - of course I would have! At least, I like to think I would have. But how could I admit to it without sounding like some sleazy slut? My dad has always told me that I will never make it as a poker player and once again my face gave me completely away.

"Hmmm, that's what I thought but it was fun sneaking a peak anyway," Keith chuckled.

My emotions were on some kind of cosmic roller coaster now. On the one hand, my pussy was still in full horny mode, not quite settled down from the fantastic orgasm I had just experienced. On the other, I was still somewhat embarrassed at being caught by Keith. It wasn't that he saw me masturbating, I could have explained that away easily. But to be caught doing it while wearing his wife's negligee and watching a video of the two of them having sex, now THAT was a stretch, even for me.

For lack of anything better to say, I asked, "Uh, Keith, what are you doing home? I thought you weren't getting back until this weekend?"

Keith rolled his eyes at my transparent attempt to change the subject. "Don't look so surprised, it's pretty obvious what you were thinking," he said with a bit of a chuckle, "To answer your question, the conference ended early due to some screw-up with the main speaker's schedule so I figured I'd come home and surprise someone. I just hadn't figured that someone would be YOU."

Keith paused for a second and I realized he was staring unabashedly at my naked body. It was a sign of the state of shock I was in that the idea of doing anything else with him never even entered my mind. Instead, I instinctively tried to cover myself with a pillow from the couch.

Keith moved in a little closer and I clutched the pillow even tighter to my body. What was on his mind anyway?

4. Doing Keith a Favor

"Tell you what," he offered, "I won't tell Kathy about your little secret if you do me one favor, OK?"

I had a nasty suspicion just what THAT was going to be. Whenever a man made that sort of suggestion to me it meant only one thing - he was going to use this as a bribe to fuck me. Not that it would have been such a bad thing, not from the way I watched him doing Kathy on the video at least. The problem was I'd been at such an emotional high for one minute and then completely crashed the next, leaving me now a little confused and disoriented.

My mind seemed to be a compete mess as I didn't know whether to grab my clothes and run out of the room or what. As much as I had dreamed of Keith fucking me, that's all it was until now - dreams. Kathy was such a sweet wife and friend (even if she DID act like a whore when she was getting fucked) that I wouldn't feel right doing her husband, no matter how much I might enjoy it.

I didn't say anything in response so I guess he took that as permission to continue. Actually, I was quite surprised at what he offered.

"Needless to say, it was really hot watching you playing with yourself," he confessed, "But you didn't know I was in the room. Now I want you to do it again, but this time for me."

Wow, so Mr. America was a perverted voyeur at heart. Then again, maybe he WAS Mr. America and didn't want to cheat on his wife but wasn't going to pass up the opportunity to catch a private show. For a moment I caught myself almost wishing he HAD asked to fuck me. Now I was left to wonder if he didn't find me sexy enough to want to cheat on Kathy. Did he want his cake and eat it too? Was he looking for just want the cheap thrill of seeing me masturbate but still stay faithful to Kathy? Did he think I was going to perform for him like a trained seal without the satisfaction of having him cheat on his wife with me afterwards?

A surge of anger filled me and suddenly I felt this tremendous urge to rip off her damn negligee and burn the tape. God, I couldn't believe he would pick her over me! How dare he? Well, if he wanted to see me masturbate, I'd show him just how hot and nasty I could be! He would see that I was sexier than Kathy, that I could be more of a slut and freak than she ever dreamed of being. Then, when he was all hot and bothered and begging to fuck me, I would get my revenge and tell him "no", leaving him all hard and horny, wishing he could have me and regretting he had ever considered staying faithful to his wife instead of fucking me when he had the chance.

Had we gone on just flirting it would have been one thing, but here he was with practically an open invitation to fuck me and he was turning me down!

Determined as ever, I stood up and dropped the pillow to the side. The clasp between my breasts was quickly undone and I dropped the negligee on the floor next to the panties. I pointed the remote at the VCR and stopped the tape and then turned off the television so now the room was deathly quiet, like a funeral service was in progress.

"OK, if that's the way you want it... sit at the end of the couch and watch me," I said in a naughty tone of voice.

Keith chuckled and instantly agreed. As he sat down I noticed that he had to maneuver his pants a bit as apparently the bulge in his crotch made it uncomfortable to sit at first. I laid back with my head on the arm of the couch, putting one leg up on the back of the couch and the other draped over the side with my foot barely touching the floor. This has the desired effect of spreading my crotch open wide for him, giving him an completely clear view of my bare pussy and clean asshole. I was still completely wet and my pussy lips were spread apart slightly, waiting for attention. I put one finger at the top of my slit and traced little circle around me.

"Soooooo... do you like watching me play with myself, eh Keith?" I asked him in a little girl voice.

Keith has rubbing himself through his pants and I made a mental bet with myself as to how long he could hold out before he let something loose. His tongue licked his dry lips as his eyes were fixed at the sight between my legs. He never once looked up at my face, his eye were fixed on my pussy.

"God I love your pussy," he murmured, almost to himself more than me.

"I love to watch myself play with my pussy in the mirror, " I teased him, "Will you be my mirror today Keith?"

My fingers were wet again with my pussy juices as I played with my pussy hole and then my clit. Keith just grunted when I teased him and sure enough, he started to fumble with his belt and pants. He finally got them undone and quickly pulled his pants and underwear down to his ankles. His shoes were still on so he just left them bunched up and grabbed his cock as he continued to stare at my crotch.

With Keith watching, it didn't take me long at all to get back on the wagon again and soon I was moaning with the pleasure of another orgasm again. I LOVED being watched when I masturbated and this situation was so erotic I was surprised it took as long as it did. I was fingering myself and humping my hips, simulating a guy fucking me as I drove my fingers in and out of me. My eyes were closed and I actually forgot about Keith watching me as my mind erupted with pleasure as every pore of my skin seemed to be covered with intense pleasure.

"Damn, you are one HOT fucking babysitter!" I heard him say.

I opened my eyes and smiled at the sight in front of me. Keith was stroking his hard cock slowly now, his eyes still locked on to my pussy, hardly even blinking! It has always been a massive turn-on for me to see a guy masturbating when I know his thoughts are all about wanting to fuck me.

Just seeing him jerking off doesn't do it, just as your everyday porn isn't a turn-on for me either. It's the INTENT when he jerks off that makes all the difference. It's KNOWING the effect that I am having on him that makes me hot and bothered. I had no doubt in the world as to what Keith was wishing he could do at that moment. So why wasn't he going for it?

5. Keith's Daughter Interrupts

Just then I heard the sound that every parent must hate to hear at times like this.

"Daddy?" a voice called from the back bedroom, then a little more forcefully, "Daddy!?"

I looked at him and saw the disappointment in his eyes as he seemed to instantly switch gears from horny voyeur to concerned father. He quickly pulled his pants up but left his shirt out to cover his hard dick even though little Ashley would have no idea why her daddy was sporting this big bulge in his crotch, if she noticed anything in the first place.

"Coming sweetie!" he called out to her. Then he looked at me and sighed.

"Yea, I know," he said with a sigh, "Damn, just when it was getting to be fun... kids!"

He got up and headed off to her room. As for me, I stood up and gathered up my clothes and scampered off to the closest bedroom, just in case some little girl decided to make her way into the family room unannounced. Now that she was awake, there was no predicting what a three year-old would say or where she would go so any thoughts of continuing our little game were on a definite HOLD for now.

It only took a few seconds to jump back into my shorts and pull my top back on. Leaving the bedroom, I saw the pink negligee in the middle of the floor and quickly scooped it up along with the panties. Just then Keith reentered the room with Ashley in his arms.

"Daddy's home!" she announced to me, as if I couldn't see for myself. From the way she was hugging him she obviously loved her father. Too bad she didn't know what her sweet daddy was doing a few minutes before!

"Ummmmm, you better put that nightie away right away," Keith said. I gave him a pout but he just shook his head saying, "That's her favorite and if it's missing there could be some interesting questions! I will say one thing - you look a hell of lot sexier in it than she does!"

Now THAT was more what I wanted to hear from him. Reluctantly I returned the nightie to its original location. I don't know what I was thinking anyway. There was no way I could keep it without drawing her suspicion. It was bad enough that it probably smelled of my sex but it wasn't like she hadn't been fucked in it before so she probably wouldn't notice. Even if she did, I couldn't believe she would ever even consider what the REAL story was, probably more that she had forgotten to rinse it out after her latest escapade.

While I was there, I looked in the mirror over her dresser and gasped. God, I looked an absolute wreck! My hair was a total disaster so I used one of her hairbrushes to try and straighten it out as best I could. Once I was reasonably back in shape again, I returned to the family room where Ashley was still hugging her dad. She had obviously missed him a lot!

"Hi Kelly, I finished my nap!" she announced proudly with her cute little voice.

I gave her a peck on the check and started to explain to her that I was going to leave now since her daddy was home. Both of them looked glum - but for totally different reasons. Keith pulled his wallet out to pay me and handed me a hundred dollar bill!

"Oh Keith, I can't take this much," I protested. It wasn't like I really needed the money anyway and it sort of made me feel cheap that he would pay me for just masturbating.

"No, no!" Keith said as he put up his hands defensively and stuffed the bill down the front of my tank top, "I just want you to know how much I appreciated not only what you did today but for all the help you've given Kathy over the past few months.

I frowned but took the money - I may have principles but I'm not stupid! I kissed little Ashley again and turned to leave. Just as I was about to reach for the door handle, it opened by itself and who walked in but Kathy!

"Hey girl," she greeted me, "Is Keith home? I saw his car in the driveway."

I explained to her that he had just arrived and that I was about to leave. She looked past me and upon seeing Keith, squealed in delight and rushed to hug him. He explained how his convention had been changed while she excitedly told him how she had sold this couple on the first house they had looked at. They seemed to be enamored with each other so decided it was a good time to make my exit and opened the door to leave.

"Kelly," Kathy called out after me, "Hang on a second."

I paused while she came up to me with her purse.

"I forgot to pay you," she apologized.

I explained it wasn't necessary and that Keith had already paid me. She looked at Keith who just nodded in confirmation.

"Well, thank you SO much anyway for helping me out on such notice," she said as she gave me a hug. I hoped she didn't smell the scent of sex on me as I hadn't had a chance to wash off but if she did, she didn't say anything or give any sign of it.

"Hey, you're not planning to walk all the way home this late," she insisted, "Let Keith take you home."

I started to protest but she insisted and I noticed Keith wasn't putting up any arguments. Keith gave her a hug and a kiss and I followed him out to his car. Actually, it was an SUV, nothing as fancy as my dad's but still a monstrosity in its own right. I guess it's like they say, the older the boy, the bigger his toys. I jumped in from the passenger side and he backed out of their driveway into the street.

6. Keith Drives Me Home - and His Dick Into Me

"Guess it was a good thing Ashley woke up after all, eh Kelly?" he tried to joke with me as we drove down the road, "God, I can't imagine what would have happened if Kathy had come up ten minutes earlier!"

"Maybe she would have joined in?" I teased him.

"Noooooo, not a chance," Keith said, vigorously shaking his head. "As I guess you've noticed, Kathy may let it loose in the bedroom but she's not into any of that kind of stuff. I tried to bring to up once and you would have thought I had said I wanted to adopt a whore or something!"

"Have you ever cheated on her?" I asked nonchalantly.

"God no," he responded quickly, "I love her dearly and would NEVER do something like that to her."

"But what about what we just did?" I asked.

"Oh... THAT," he said, as if he had forgotten all about it. "It's not like we did anything you know."

"But didn't you want to?"

"Now don't even go there," he said, but with a big grin.

"Why, don't you think I'm sexy enough to fuck?" I asked in my innocent little girl voice.

He didn't get a chance to answer as we were almost to my place now. As he pulled into our driveway, suddenly I felt this tremendous urge to be fucked by him. It wasn't just the typical horny feeling like when I just feel a need to get laid. No, I specifically wanted HIM to fuck me. It was killing me that I had to be the one to convince HIM to fuck ME. After all, this was NOT how the game was supposed to be played. Nope, HE was supposed to want ME and then I was the one to make the decision as to whether to let him fuck me or leave him hanging. The fact he was married, and apparently happily so, only made it all the more impossible for me to resist him.

All in all, it was a matter of principle for me now, a matter of personal pride and ego. The way things were, if he just dropped me off at home and left me hanging I think I would have been upset for the rest of the night – and probably a lot longer. Actually, I wasn't sure how I would react since such a thing had never happened to me before. I was always the one in charge, the one to decide whether or not he would get to have me. Being at the mercy of Keith... well it just sucked!

As he put the truck in park, my mind went into full gear. He turned to me to say goodbye but before he could say anything I quickly pulled my shorts to the floor in one swift motion and then lifted one bare leg up on the seat, leaving the other on the floor. My pussy was there for his viewing please and I couldn't believe he would say no now.

"You never did get to see me cum again," I teased him, letting my fingers run slowly over my bare stomach and pussy.

Keith looked all around, a little panic maybe in his face.

"Kelly, what the hell are you doing? What if someone see you!" he gasped.

"Nahhhhh, my parents won't be home for another hour at least and the neighbors can't see me in here with these windows," I replied seductively, "So who's to watch... except YOU."

"But...," he tried to say but I wouldn't let him finish.

"Why don't you just shut up and enjoy the show Keith," I insisted, "After all, you paid for it!"

Leaning back until my head was resting on the door, I lifted my left leg up and behind the driver seat, hooking it on the center console while I played with myself. Actually, I wasn't paying so much attention to my pussy as I was the expression on Keith's face. Knowing Kathy, I doubted that she had ever done anything quite this voyeuristic for him ever before. I could picture him writing a letter to some porn magazine, starting out with the usual "I never thought this could happen to me..."

"What's the matter Keith, aren't you gonna play with yourself for me?" I asked sweetly.

Once again he looked around, as if certain there were a hundred telescopes trained on the two of us. Apparently he needed a little bit more of a nudge.

"C'mon Keith, show me how you play with yourself," I asked him again, "You know, I loved looking at your cock before. It looked so big and hard. I want to see it again."

Finally, the little head grabbed control from the big head and he let out a deep breath and undid his jeans. After yet another glance around us, he slid them down just below his knees and his cock popped up in the air from his thick pubic hair like an ancient idol rising from the depths of a dark jungle. God, what I would have given at that moment to reach over and suck it but the time wasn't right for that - at least not yet.

"Mmmmmmm, you have such a great cock Keith," I said slowly, seductively, "Stroke it for me while you watch me make myself cum."

The fastest way to get an orgasm is not to play with yourself faster but to put yourself in the right emotionally charged atmosphere. This situation certainly qualified. Here we were, in the remaining daylight, parked at the top of my driveway, and both of us were masturbating like we were in the privacy of our bedrooms. It wasn't anything too out of the ordinary for me but I had a feeling it was a new experience for Keith.

I scooted forward until my ass was up on the center console, lifting my butt off the seat and putting my pussy in full view for him.

"Make me cum, Keith," I begged him, "Touch my pussy and make me cum."

Keith hesitated, long enough that I started to worry that maybe he was going to be able to resist me after all. Like he had said before, mutual masturbation was one thing but to have actual physical contact with another woman was another thing entirely. Even so, oral sex wasn't really "sex" so just touching me certainly didn't qualify as adultery. He must have been able to rationalize it himself as his hand slowly worked its way towards my pussy.

"That's it Keith, touch it," I encouraged him, "I want to feel your hand on me so bad."

That seemed to do it and I felt his fingers on me, caressing me and exploring me. I didn't know what made me feel better, his fingers on my pussy or knowing that I had convinced him to at least touch me. One step at a time...

"Put your fingers in me," I instructed him, "fuck me with your fingers."

He obediently first put one finger in me and as wet as I was, was able to quickly follow it with a second. He pushed them in and out of me like he was fucking me while one of my hands played with my clit and the other reached under my top and started to caress my boobs.

"God you have such a pretty pussy," he said softly, "I've always wanted Kathy to shave hers but she keeps refusing."

Mmmmmmm, now THAT was a good sign. It was the first time he had mentioned anything about something about me that turned him on more than Kathy and it was music to my ears. It wasn't enough just to get him to cheat on Kathy; after all, any whore could do that for a hundred bucks. No, I wanted more. I wanted his lust. I wanted him to want me more than Kathy, to be willing to do anything to have me, even if it was only for a few minutes here in his truck.

What I really wanted was for him to briefly forsake his wife out of his adulterous lust to have sex with me. Sure, when we were done he would go back to her; but I knew he would always remember how for just a few moments in time, he had abandoned her in favor of me. THAT'S what I wanted from him now. Any girl can get most any guy to fuck her, but to have a place in his soul forever was the ultimate prize.

We didn't have a lot of time as I knew if he was too late getting home he would never be able to explain it to Kathy so I did what normally I would have despised myself for doing - I faked it. Yes, I faked an orgasm. It's not that hard really since guys don't seem to have a clue what one really is anyway and just think of the shows put on by porn stars. Besides, they can vary so much from one time to another that few girls really know when another is faking it.

"Oh yes, Keith, make me cum harder," I pleaded with him. It wasn't a TOTAL fake, not like some whore playing a role to please her customer. I rally WAS enjoying it, I just wasn't cumming. It didn't matter as he thought I was and that's what counted.

After a few more theatrics - guys always seem to think every orgasm requires odd body contortions and lots of moaning and gasping, a totally wrong concept by the way, and I slumped down as if I was finished. He started to pull his fingers out of me but I grabbed his hand and held it in me.

"That felt so good Keith," I whispered to him, "I want more... I want you to give me more."

Thinking I was referring to his finger fucking, he started to move his fingers around inside of me again until I looked at him and gave him a seductive smile.

"I wasn't referring to your fingers, you know" I teased him, "I was thinking more of that incredible dick."

For a moment my heart raced and I thought maybe I had pushed too hard or too fast. His fingers stopped and then he pulled them out of me quickly. Before he could think too much more about it, I twisted myself around, getting on my knees and leaning over the console. I reached for his dick which, despite any other second thoughts he might be having, was still hard and ready for action. Mmmmmmm, the cock never lies!

"Kelly... I don't think you should do that," he said weakly, his hands brushing mine away but without much vigor.

I knew token resistance when I saw it and this was even more token than usual. He just needed to resist a little to satisfy his conscience so that later, when he was feeling guilty and wondering why he had done what he had done, he could shift the blame to me. In his mind, he would rationalize it by saying it wasn't his fault that I had seduced him and taken advantage of him. Yeah, like I was going to force someone twice my size to do anything he didn't want to!

Personally, it didn't matter how he managed his guilt, it was his actions that counted and I knew once I had his dick in my mouth it would be all over but the shouting, I mean fucking. The important thing was that I had his cock in my hand now and I could feel the warmth of it in my palm as my fingers wrapped themselves around it.

"I want to suck your hard cock," I said, looking up at his face.

He was the perfect picture of a conflict of emotions. I knew from the way his lips were dry and his breathing had quickened that he wanted it but at the same time I could see the decency and shame in him trying to stop himself. Well give me a break! There was no guy in the world could say no to a girl like me who says she wants to suck his cock.

"It's OK, it's not really sex you know," I assured him, "I'm just gonna suck it."

As I mentioned previously, so far as I was concerned oral sex really isn't "sex", at least not in the biblical sense that determines whether a man is committing adultery. That said, it doesn't mean he isn't lusting for me which puts him in jeopardy with another commandment, but an adultery charge wouldn't stick. When I say I will never cheat on my husband, even with his permission, that doesn't mean I can't suck off a few of his friends now and then. I just would never let them fuck me.

Keith weakly tried to protest one last time but I wasn't listening any more as I lowered my head to his lap. My lips met the soft tip of his cock and I kissed it gently, just on the very top of the head. Then I reached out with my tongue and softly caressed the head of his cock, running just the tip of my tongue over and around him, slowly working my way further down, letting more of the surface of my tongue press against his cock as I descended. I could tell from the musky scent of his crotch he was horny for me, some things just can't be faked!

So many girls seem to think the ol' head bob is all they are obligated to do when sucking a dick. Certainly, no guy is going to push her away for it but I know they appreciate it when I take my time to put out the extra effort. Using my tongue is one of the most effective means for stimulating a guy. I have had guys that I could have "bobbed" forever and they never would have cum, and they often claimed as well that no girl had ever made them cum with just their mouth. Well, add in a little of the right tongue and lip action and so far I have never failed to make any man cum using just my mouth - a record I am quite proud of by the way!

Keith seemed to be appreciating my efforts as well.

"Oh my god, what are you doing to me?" he asked rhetorically. "Damn, I've never felt anything like this before."

Inwardly I was beaming like a girl betting first prize at a recital. Kathy didn't look the type to have sucked a lot of cocks; it wouldn't have surprised me to find out that his was the only one she had ever blown. Not so for me. First, I was fortunate to have a great tutor in my mother, plus the advantage of having sucked literally hundreds of dicks by now in my life. Practice makes perfect they say, and that certainly applies to sucking dick.

"So tell me Keith, do you like the way I suck your dick?" I asked softly, raising my head from his cock for a moment to catch my breath.

"Oh god yes," he moaned, "Don't stop... please don't stop."

It was time to REALLY show him my skills so this time when I went down on him I didn't stop three quarters down like I had been doing. This time when he filled my mouth I worked my lips and gently eased him down my throat. The gag reflex almost got me but once you're past that it's home free. Ina few moments my mouth bottomed out on his dick and my face was pressed hard against his thick scented pubic hair.

"Oh Jesus, how do you DO that?" he groaned.

I would have taken bets that Kathy had never done THIS to him before! I twisted my head back and forth and then raised my head up until just the head of his cock was between my lips. Catching my breath, I descended once again until I felt his dick filling my throat.

"Damn, now THAT is incredible!" he gasped, "God, look at you!"

His hips thrust upward against me and I felt his hand pushing me down on his cock but there was no more to take in. I felt myself getting light headed and pushed up hard to make him let go of my head so I could breathe again. Again I lifted my head off of him and brushed my hair back so I could see his face.

"I bet Kathy never sucked your dick like THAT, has she?" I asked with a sly grin on my face.

"Hell no," he gasped, struggling for breath himself, "I mean, NOBODY has ever sucked my cock that way before."

Well, I guess that meant Kathy wasn't the only one to have sucked his cock but that was OK as I would have bet the farm it was someone BEFORE he married Kathy.

"Had enough? You want more?" I teased him.

"Do you even have to ask?" he sighed. Yep, he was mine now and it was time to drive the stake in his heart.

"I promise to suck you more... later," I whispered to him, trying not to be too overwhelming. "But you have to fuck me first - NOW."

"Oh god Kelly, please don't ask me to do that," he pleaded.

I almost felt guilty as I saw the struggle that was playing out within him. Of course he wanted me, every man I was with did. But deep down I could see he still wanted to remain pure for Kathy, to be loyal to her and not betray her. There was only one small problem he face - ME. Had he asked to fuck me back in the house, I might have refused, who knows. What he didn't seem to realize was that the more he resisted me, the more it meant to me when he finally caved in; and cave in I knew he would eventually. No man had ever resisted me once I had set my sights on him and I wasn't about to have Keith break that record!

"You know you want to fuck me," I told him, "I see it in your eyes every time I come to your house."

"Hell, every guy WANTS to fuck you Kelly," he countered weakly, "but I'm married."

"Kathy will never know, it'll be our little secret," I promised, "Hey, look at me and tell me you really don't want to fuck me."

Keith's eyes rolled back into the top of his head as he heaved a heavy sigh. It was at that moment I knew the battle was won!

"God, you know I do," he groaned, "Shit Kelly, I've always wanted to fuck you."

Now that he had resigned himself to giving in to his lust, it was down to a matter of logistics. Doing it in the split front seats wasn't exactly what I had in mind and getting out to go through the back doors wasn't an option in our state of dress – or should I say, undress.

Necessity is the mother of invention so I was the first to work my way over the console and into the back seat. I can only imagine what he was thinking as my bare ass passed right by his face! Once in the back seat, I laid back and threw one leg over the back head rest.

"C'mon Keith, I'm ready," I teased him, "Get back here and fuck me."

He was a lot bigger than me, of course, so squeezing into the back seat was a little more of an interesting exercise for him but he had determination on his side. Things got sort of awkward for a moment as he literally fell into the back on top of me but he quickly got into position over me. You had to give the guy credit; once he had made up his mind he just wanted to get it over with as fast as he could without having to think about what he was doing any further.

"God, I can't believe I'm doing this," he mumbled as I once again grabbed his cock in my hand. Then I held his cock up against my pussy, waiting impatiently for him to push it into me and complete the adulterous act.

"Fuck me," I said to him, again saying those two words that every man loves to hear me say, "Fuck me Keith."

Keith didn't answer me with his voice but his cock did a lot of the talking from this point on. He pushed up against my pussy and his cock bent slightly as my tight pussy refused at first to give him entry.

"Shit, never thought you'd be so damn tight," he murmured.

Interesting comment; I guess he figured a slut like me would have a loose pussy from being fucked so many times. One thing I kept in mind was that Kathy was his frame of reference and unlike her, I hadn't had the equivalent of a bowling ball pushed out of me. Compared to her, I had to feel practically like a virgin to him.

"C'mon Keith, push it in me," I said with a hint of impatience in my voice.

Keith groaned even louder as he pressed harder against me until suddenly my pussy opened up and welcomed him home. He didn't stop pushing until he was completely in me, his cock totally surrounded by my tight pussy.

"That's it Keith, keep it there, keep it in me," I moaned, "It feels soooooo good deep inside of me."

Of course, being a typical horny man he couldn't do such a thing. Holding to the back of the seat to keep his balance, Keith began to fuck me, starting out rather quickly at the beginning, apparently not wanting to waste any time with the slow stuff to start.

"Oh yeah, that feels so good Keith... fuck me!" I cried.

He was banging me pretty hard and for a moment, I remembered where we were and wondered if the truck was rocking or moving at all such that the neighbors might wonder what was going on inside. People pretty much keep to themselves in our neighborhood so I doubted even if they noticed that anyone would do anything but you never knew. It wouldn't have bothered me so much but I was sure Keith would be horrified. I had a feeling that at this moment, that was about the last thing on his mind!

"Almost there," he moaned and I felt him positioning himself to pull out of me. I wrapped my legs tightly around him as best I could to keep him inside of me.

"No... stay in me," I begged him, "I want you to cum in me."

He wasn't thinking rationally or he would have least have asked me if I was protected; or maybe he just assumed a girl like me was, I don't know. Either way, he stayed in me without protesting any further and I felt the warm bloom of heat in me that told me his first shot of sperm was now in me.

"That's it Keith, cum in me," I urged him, "Mate me Keith, give me your sperm."

With each load he groaned and his hips thrust himself deep into me. Each time it seemed he was as far into me as he could get but the next load went even deeper. Finally he was spent and he stayed inside of me as he panted from his exertions. I wiggled my ass under him, making his cock move around in me, stirring his adulterous sperm in me like a mixing spoon.

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT feels good inside of me," I purred.

It has always amazed me the change that comes over a guy after he has cum. It's like all the sex drive shoots out of him along with the cum, leaving him befuddled and in some cases, remorseful. Such was the case with Keith as he shook his head and mumbling to himself. All I could make out were bits and pieces about him not believing what he had done, about Kathy, about his shame and guilt. Despite all his comments to the contrary, he was leaving his cock in me so I knew his little head was still in control, even though I knew it would be relinquishing that control as fast as his cock withered inside of me.

"Oh my god, I've got to get home, Kathy will be wondering what happened to me," he said with a note of panic in his voice.

He grabbed his pants from the front seat and hurriedly tried to get them back on in the confines of the back seat.

"C'mon Kelly, get dressed," he urged me, "Damn, how could I be so STUPID!"

"I don't think you were stupid, Keith," I said softly, "In fact, I thought you were great! No wonder Kathy loves fucking you so much."

I was about dressed by then, it didn't take much to get my skimpy clothes back on. He buckled his pants and zipped them up.

"Please don't talk about Kathy that way," he said plaintively, "She can't EVER find out about what we just did."

"Don't worry Keith, I will never tell her," I said with a nasty smile. "Of course, there may be a price to pay for my silence. I enjoyed this today"

"I'll pay you anything, Kelly," he said, sounding frantic, "Anything at all."

"I wasn't talking about money Keith," I teased him, reaching out to poke him in the crotch.

He understood what I meant but didn't respond as we both stumbled out on opposite sides of the truck. No sooner did I close the door than I saw one of our older neighbors across the street working on his lawn. He had often stared at me when he thought I wasn't looking and I wondered what he thought had been going on in the truck that had been parked for so long in our driveway?

He wasn't THAT old so I hoped maybe his imagination would be at work tonight and maybe jerk off a bit thinking about me. Keith never noticed him, thankfully, or he might have freaked.

I waved goodbye to Keith as he drive quickly away. I wonder how he was going to explain the sweaty smell of sex that had to be covering him when he got home to Kathy? Oh well, I was already looking forward to the next time I babysat little Ashley!

Postlude

I really hesitated as to whether or not to publish this one. There are so many ridiculous stories on-line about babysitters being fucked by either the kids or the parents that I feared this would be viewed as just another fantasy story about something that would never happen. In the end, as you can see I chose to publish it. Like many of the events in my life I have chosen to write about, this one helped to make me who I am today and if nothing else, maybe people will realize that every babysitter isn't abusing their kids or waiting for them to get home so she can jump in bed with them. Maybe all that happens in some father's fantasy, but not in real life.

(Jul 15) Chapter 90: Second Summer Sex Party

Story codes: MF FF F-solo group oral
  Me (20)
  Beth - BFF (21)

My first sex party of the summer was just two weeks ago so I was a bit surprised when my best friend Beth invited me to another one soon afterwards. While these parties were interesting, to say the least, they really weren't the type of thing I wanted on a regular basis. Fortunately, as things turned out, this one worked for me.

1. Sex Parties

At was just last summer that I first became involved with the local sex party scene. My best friend Beth was responsible for this as she was the one with a "lifetime membership" and had invited me along as her guest. In all, I attended four of these extremely private affairs last summer. While overall I found them to be fun and arousing, from an emotional perspective they left me with a rather empty feeling. I mean, in most cases I didn't even know the guy's name yet I gladly allowed him to fuck me and even let most of them cum inside of me.

Even though Beth all but begged me to attend more of them, I decided to limit myself to these few. They were more for the occasional "fun" factor than anything else. Sort of a "been there, done that" type of thing.

This summer I had no sooner returned home from school for summer break than Beth was already urging me to join in again. I put her off at first but finally gave in around the beginning of July. As before, the party itself was fun while it lasted and while I'm definitely not sorry that I did it, it wasn't exactly an emotional rollercoaster. As far as I knew, Beth was aware of my true feelings about the parties and so in the past she had always waited for a "cooling off" period before she invited me to the next one. Knowing that, I was a bit surprised when barely two weeks later she was on the phone trying to convince me to join her yet again.

"Oh c'mon Kelly," she implored me, "You had such a great time at the last time... oh admit it you slutty girl, you know you did!"

"I don't know Beth," I answered, trying to stall for time while I debated it inside my head, "It's not like I'm hurting for sex or anything. I'm pretty satisfied I guess."

Indeed, so far this had been the best summer in my life so far as sex went. Even better, much of it had been something new or unusual which always turns me on. A fun day at the lake, the wedding of the first guy who fucked me (back when I was just fourteen), the father of one of the kids I baby-sit, and several family "adventures" to mention a few. Also included in the middle of it all was the first sex party of the summer, just a couple of weeks earlier.

"Don't even TRY to pull THAT one on me, sister," Beth chastised me with a hint of laughter in her voice, "Like, I've never seen you 'satisfied'... not ever."

Well, she had me there so what could I say? It's not like I am a drug addict or anything, I just happen to enjoy sex - a LOT. Some people have accused me of being a nymphomaniac but I honestly take exception to that characterization. Like, I don't HAVE to have sex, I just enjoy having it as often as possible. Personally, I think most people would have it more often if they could and so they look at people like me and get jealous which leads them to criticizing my lifestyle when it's their own that's the problem.

The next party wasn't until Friday night which left me a couple of days to ponder it. About all the wait did was give me time to imagine what MIGHT happen. Every one of these I'd been to was unique in its own way. I can still remember my first party vividly, like it happened yesterday. You can imagine my surprise when I learn that I had to be "initiated".

Actually, it wasn't all that bad so far as initiations go. All I had to do was let the host fuck me in front of everyone to start off the party. In the end, it turned out to be a great way to let everyone get to know me right off the bat, and I really mean "know" me!

2. The Week Before the Party

Thursday night before the party I was watching TV with my parents in the family room. There wasn't anything on that interested me so I was just laying back on the couch, daydreaming about nothing in particular when my thoughts turned to the upcoming party.

Probably one of the craziest things I've done at one was last summer. There were twelve guys there and I let them fuck me one after the other, almost like an assembly line. A guy would fuck me until he was ready to cum and then I suck his cock until he came while the next guy in line had a go at my pussy.

It was the most guys I had ever been fucked by right in a row like that. None of them fucked me all that long so I wasn't sore afterwards, but my stomach churned a bit which I guess was a result of all the cum I swallowed. As if I needed to be told, I was sure that I never wanted to be porn star! Even though I probably will never do such a thing again, it's still gets me off to think back about it.

Being it was after supper and I wouldn't be going anywhere else that night, I had already changed into my standard evening wear - one of my dad's clean and pressed dress shirts stolen straight from his closet. It was a pale blue with long sleeves and tails that that hung down to my knees when I stood up. Usually I would fasten a few of the buttons in the middle just to keep it from flying around and then roll up the sleeves.

There was no need to wear panties around the house and it felt good anyway to be bare-ass under the loose-fitting material. Actually, I normally only wear panties when I'm having a heavy flow or wearing an outfit that is too short to get away without them. About the only exception is when I'm out on a date and I want to tease the guy a bit by flashing him my panties. The same principle applies to bras. Unless the outfit and circumstances demand that I wear one, they are more for show and teasing than anything else.

The more I recalled the memories of that night, the deeper my concentration became and the more I tuned out what was on the TV, not to mention my parents who were kicked back in their matching Lazy-Boys. I wiggled my butt a bit to settle into the couch better and next thing I knew my hand was between my legs. Honestly, I couldn't even remember putting it there; it was just an instinctive reaction. The shirt tails parted and fell to the sides of my hips, leaving me with easy access to my shaved pussy.

At first, I just held my crotch in the palm of my hand, pulling upwards on it to put a little pressure on me. Damn I was warm! A tingle ran through me raising goose bumps all over my body in its wake causing me to tighten my legs together to further squeeze my hand up into my crotch. Mmmmmmm, I could tell my naughty pussy was hungry from the way I felt it throbbing under my hand and fingers. My middle finger pressed in harder and worked its way between my pussy lips until it was just inside of my pussy hole, which was getting wetter by the second. My finger then pulled out, dragging the wetness up along my pussy slit. I repeated the process until my entire pussy and clit were covered with my pussy juices.

My head was filled with memories of anonymous cocks slipping in me, of hard dicks attached to guys I didn't know and never would. I moaned softly to myself as my finger pressed itself into me further, reminding me of how their cocks felt as they slid into my swollen cunt one after the other. Once again I shifted my ass around to try to get more comfortable and finally I just gave up and draped my inner leg up onto the top of the couch, exposing myself even more to make it easier to masturbate. Mmmmmmm, this was MUCH better!

With my free hand I quickly undid the few buttons that were done which allowed the shirt to fall to my sides, exposing my breasts and nipples which had already hardened into bullets. One at a time, I caressed each with my hand, pulling gently on the nipples and then letting them slip between my fingertips until they suddenly let loose and snapped back. God I loved to play with my boobs, especially my nipples which were easily aroused and so sensitive once they were.

My eyes were shut all this time and in my mind the guy fucking me was about to cum so he pulled out from me and immediately shoved his swelling cock in my open mouth. I took my finger from my pussy and started to suck on it, savoring my pussy the same as I had on his cock that day. Damn it tasted so good!

Of course, the one thing my finger couldn't do was cum like their cocks had cum in my mouth. Instead, I put my finger back into my pussy, reminding myself of the next guy in line who was now entering me and getting himself off by violating my body. My tongue wet my lips which I then unconsciously licked as I remembered how good it felt and tasted when the cock in my mouth exploded with sperm. The gooey mixture would fill my mouth and cover my tongue, sometimes even spilling out over my chin and cheeks.

Of course, everyone was watching us and I loved the look in the other girls' eyes when they saw each guy take his turn in my mouth and then cumming in my mouth. By the time I was done, my face was covered in cum, despite my best efforts to keep it in my mouth as much as possible.

By now, one finger in my pussy wasn't enough so I pushed a second in alongside the first. I slowly pumped my fingers in and out of me, as deep as I could press them inside my cunt. God I wanted to be fucked so badly - but with a real cock! Gradually at first, and then faster as it seemed to gain momentum like a snowball rolling down a hill, I felt my orgasm building in me.

Sometime when I came, it was out of the blue, like stepping in front of a Greyhound bus and suddenly being smacked hard from out of nowhere. In those case it was generally incredibly intense, like fireworks that rose quickly and then flared brightly in the sky. Just as the fireworks display dies away quickly, so usually did those type of orgasms making them extremely intense but relatively brief and fast to fade away. I would say these types of orgasms were the most common for me given the forms of sex I tend to have. When a guy fucks you there isn't a lot of time to savor a long orgasm and a quick, intense one works out best in most cases.

As it turned out, the "fireworks" version of my orgasm was NOT on the menu today. Instead, I could tell this one was going to of the more rare "smolder and burn" styles. The best way I can describe it is to compare it to starting a fire with flint. A spark starts ignites a small flame that has to be nurtured and then gradually builds and becomes a strong fire. Like a fire compared to a firecracker, this orgasm burns in me much longer and then gradually dies away, leaving its embers to smolder long afterwards.

Most of the times when I make myself feel this way is when I masturbate as it is then that I have the time and patience to touch myself in just the right way to trigger things. Other than masturbating, the vast majority of these are associated with my mom and aunt, two older women who know how to treat me the way a woman loves to be treated.

It was like a fire was now in my pussy, spreading out across my entire body until every pore on my skin seemed to be dripping flames. I was driven to drop my leg down from the top of the couch and then turned on my side until I was facing the couch, in practically a fetal position, with my hand still between my legs. During the whole time, I never stopped rubbing my hardened clit and fingering my wet pussy.

My thighs were now pressed tightly together with my hand squeezed between them, my fingers doing all the moving between them. The sexual pleasure within me was becoming so intense I wanted to cry out to tell the whole world how I felt.

Instead I bit my lower lip and moaned so softly that I doubt anyone could hear me more than a few feet away. My free hand was soon on top of my first, pressing the inside hand even tighter against my crotch.

The sheer bliss of my orgasm at this point was almost unbearable. It was one thing to run up the mountainside, hit the peak, stay there briefly and enjoy the view, and then quickly climb back down again. It was another thing to ride the slow chairlift up, and then spend the afternoon at the high altitude before a leisurely paced trip back down. Just as a person can get lightheaded if they remain at the mountain peak too long, so it was with an extended orgasm. For a moment I thought I might even pass out as my vision narrowed and things went out of focus.

It was like fighting the devil and angel in each shoulder. My little devil was forcing my hand to keep touching myself, prolonging the agony of such incredible pleasure. At the same time, what was left of my consciousness, as represented by my angel, was screaming at the top of her lungs at me to stop before I blacked out – or worse.

What made it more interesting was that anyone watching me probably would have thought that I had fallen asleep. I was laying on my side, curled up tightly like a baby, with my head tucked in against the back of the couch. The only clue would have been the way I periodically jerked reflexively as a spike of pleasure nailed me and then quickly ebbed away. Perhaps if they were close enough they might hear the almost constant low moan that was coming from somewhere deep down inside of me. If they were REALLY observant, they might even see the small but steady flow of pussy cum that was draining from me and down the back of my ass onto the couch.

Slowly, ever so slowly, such that it took me a bit to even realize it was happening, the fire in me began to consume its fuel and gradually died down. At this point I wasn't even moving, holding my head steady against my pussy, peeling the rapid pulse of my heart as it pounded inside my chest. It was like I was floating down from the peak on a balloon with a slow leak, gradually descending until finally I was back safely on the ground.

Back on earth once again, I heaved a heavy sigh and then turned onto my back. I stretched my arms and legs out straight in front of me and shook off the last feelings of the incredible orgasm I had just had. God I felt so damn good! My nasty pussy was still throbbing and pulsing, even without me touching it. Trust me on this one, had a guy been there with a real cock to fuck me, I probably would have hit the ceiling at the first feel of his cock pushing itself inside of me.

Eventually I opened my eyes and from the TV I could tell that I must have been at it for longer than I thought. The show we had been watching was long over - as well as the one after that! Damn, it hadn't seemed that much time had passed when I was masturbating but there was no disputing the evidence. I turned onto my side such that I now facing away from the couch and saw my parents were still in their chairs. It may seem odd to some people, but the thought never crossed my mind the entire time that they might be watching me.

My dad was the first to notice that I was looking at him and he just flashed a grin back at me. With his leg rest up and laying back the way he was, I couldn't see his crotch which meant I couldn't see whether he was hard or not. Somehow I suspected he was and in fact, I would have been more than a little disappointed if he wasn't.

My mom was working on some new crocheting project but she must have heard me stir as she was looking over at me as well. Unlike my dad, she didn't really seem all that interested in what I had been doing. I guess over the years such a thing becomes less newsworthy the more you see it done and this wasn't by any means the first time she had seen me masturbate. Heck, she was the first one to teach me!

"My, looks like someone's pretty worked up tonight. So what's the story miss horny?" my mom asked.

I was speechless for a second as I hadn't really expected her to say anything since she typically didn't under such circumstances. Usually it was my dad who was the one making the sly comments with the sexual innuendos mixed in.

I told them both about the party I was going to the next night and my mom just rolled her eyes and went back to her project. That didn't bother me as I knew she would be first in line when I got home tomorrow night to hear all about my adventures.

My dad, on the other hand, had his interest peaked and he asked me a number of questions about the party, none of which I really could answer. How many people would be there? No idea. What was the theme? No idea. How many guys did I plan to let fuck me? Again, no idea.

My dad looked at me with a questioning gaze and I could almost hear him asking me, "Well, what DO you know about it?"

The truth was, like all of the previous parties, I had absolutely no idea what was waiting for me. Actually, that was what was part of the appeal for me, the suspense and thrill of the unknown. Would I be fucked by just one guy or twenty?

Would they fuck me alone or in a group – or both? Would I just be with guys or would maybe some girls want me as well? Well, there was only one way to find out – go!

In the end I just shrugged my shoulders with a blank look on my face. My dad looked over at my mom who shrugged her shoulders as well. He seemed to give up on the subject and went back to the TV program he was watching, leaving me alone to my own devices (literally) on the couch.

My pussy was still throbbing like crazy. In a way, I was a little disappointed as usually when I would masturbate like this in front of my dad he would get hot and horny, providing me with a great opportunity to satisfy him. Evidently, whatever he was watching on TV must have been more important than fucking me so I decided to go upstairs and take care of myself in private so I wouldn't distract him from his precious TV program. I guess when you're not in the mood, you're not in the mood and this was one of those rare times when my dad wasn't.

I gathered up my dad's short around me and announced I was heading up to take a shower. Neither of them even bothered to respond so I just rolled my eyes and huffed dramatically before walking up the stairs. Outside the bathroom I let the shirt slide from my shoulders and I gathered it up in a ball and dropped it in the laundry chute which emptied out in the basement by the wash machine. Now that I was nude, I stepped in the bathroom and turned on the light over the sink along with the overhead fan.

The loud rustle of the fan always annoyed me and this time it seemed especially loud and squeaky for some reason. As much as it was a pain in the ass, my dad was a stickler for using it as he claimed the damp air would damage the wallpaper unless the fan was running to take it out. Well, maybe someday he would replace this old clunker and then my mom and I wouldn't mind running it as much.

I slid the door aside on the shower and reached in to turned the knob to HOT. Our water heater must have been in the next county or something because it always took ages for the water to heat up and then when it did, you could have cooked lobsters with it if you weren't careful. The instant the water started to heat up, I quickly dialed back the temperature until it was nice and hot, but not TOO hot.

Gingerly I stepped over the edge of the tub and carefully planted my feet on the bottom of the slippery porcelain. Sliding the glass door closed behind me, I turned and let the water cascade down from my head, over my shoulders and down my back and butt.

One of my favorite household "appliances" has got to be our shower massager. With more settings than anyone could possibly ever need, it was attached to a long stainless steel clad hose that allowed it to be detached and pointed anywhere you wanted – and I do mean anywhere. When we were in the store looking to buy our latest version, my dad was teasing me about never getting out of the shower if we bought this one.

To my utter amazement, the teenage clerk who was trying to "help" us started going on about how good it felt on your back. The clueless kid looked totally confused when both my dad and I started laughing. Somehow I had just assumed that everyone knew why women wanted one of these babies in their shower. We didn't want to embarrass the poor boy so we never told him the real reason why we were laughing. Oh well, maybe someday his girlfriend will tell him the facts of life – at least so far as shower massagers are concerned.

My pussy still hadn't completely calmed down from my earlier adventures and I could almost hear it calling out to me, "Kelly... I want a massage!" Well, who was I to say no to my own pussy? After all, it never tells me no when I want something from it! Turning around, I reached up and pulled the massager from its holder. It was still set on a steady stream, like any normal shower head would provide, and I directed the stream down between my legs. The hot water struck my crotch with a firm but gentle force and almost instantly I could feel that familiar tingle returning.

Under the circumstances, the easiest position for me was to lean against the shower wall tile, using opposite the side of the tub to brace myself. My right foot was planted on the bottom of the tub and I lifted my left up to rest it on the edge against the shower door track. This left the shower controls to my right which made it easy to let the hose drape down and gave much better access to my aching pussy. With my left hand I reached down and caressed my poor pussy, rubbing my fingers over its wet surface to start. Even though I knew it was coming, when my fingers passed over my sensitized clit I couldn't help but jump and let out a gasp. God I was still so responsive! Was it EVER going to calm down?

Closing my eyes to allow me to concentrate better, I used my fingers to spread apart my pussy lips and then directed the flow of water directly against my exposed cunt. The sensation of the hot water flowing over me was incredibly and almost immediately I felt myself building up once again. Between my fingers rubbing myself and the water streams striking me, it was like instant orgasm. No long buildup this time, no gradual rise until the bonfire was lit. Nope, this was automatic ignition time.

One second I was the quiet rocket on the pad, all ready to go. The next instant the countdown went to zero and my pussy erupted like it was being launched to the moon.

The transition was so sudden, so unbelievably strong, it was like someone had punched me right in the stomach. My first instinct was to bend over as I was unable to even breath for the first few seconds. Someone looking would have probably thought a bad cramp had just struck me which was exactly what I would have thought had it not been for the incredible pleasure I was also feeling throughout my entire body.

If there's one thing that truly defines the sexual differences between men and women (besides the obvious physical ones), it has to be the way we each orgasm. Admittedly, I don't have a penis and so I have no first-hand experience as to how it feels to get an erection and then spew out a stream of cum, but I have witnessed hundreds of men go through the process, usually with me as their incentive.

From my perspective, men are like balloons. Sometime I wonder if that isn't where the term "blowjob" really came from. Basically, sucking on a guy's dick has the same effect of blowing into a balloon, it gets bigger! I don't know if the balloon necessarily gets anything out of it, but men certainly seem to enjoy the process! If I stop any time before he cums, he just stays the way he is and then gradually shrinks back down again. However, if I "blow" him long enough, then it's like blowing into a balloon too long and suddenly it explodes, usually without a lot of warning.

Once it explodes, there's no going back. To carry the analogy to completion, the explosion doesn't last very long, especially when you compare to how long it took to get there. Once it's done, it's all over with a bang.

It's the same with guys. Once you reach the point of no return, they're cumming and there's not a damn thing in this world that can stop them, not even if their mom shows up just at that moment (trust me, I know!). Considering all the buildup, the grand finale is really short, a few quick spasms, a load of cum and game over. In the old days you lit up a cigarette but today he typically just rolls over and sleeps.

Even though most men claim to realize that a woman's orgasm is a lot different from a guy's, you wouldn't know it from the way they act. Attention Guys!!! Unlike you where the end justifies the means, for the girl the buildup IS the mean. The anticipation, the thrill of being naughty, the emotions, the circumstances, all of it contributes.

I find it hilarious the number of books and article written on the subject of why so many women never reach a true orgasm. Obviously, nobody asked them because the answer is really simple. For many women, just the buildup is enough to satisfy them. Ask a man if having a girl suck his cock and then stopping just before he cums is enough to satisfy him. If my experience is worth anything, the answer is pretty obvious.

Unfortunately, because men are unsatisfied when events don't lead to an orgasm, they incorrectly assume that it's the same for a woman. The worst part is that many women are made to feel guilty if they DON'T cum, as if it's some failure on their part. What makes it so sad is that many of them would be perfectly happy if the guy didn't made a big deal about whether they came or not. Is it any wonder so many women faking an orgasm? They don't do it for themselves, obviously, it's all to satisfy the fragile male ego!

That said, while for many women the buildup is great and satisfies their sexual needs, for those like me it's not always enough. An orgasm is one of the most incredible experiences any woman can have to the point they can become almost addicting. Sometimes I feel an actual physical NEED to have one. Although I have never done drugs, I imagine it is like the difference between having a headache and taking an Tylenol or cocaine. One makes you feel better and if you didn't know any better, you'd be satisfied with the results. However, once you've had a taste of the "real" stuff, then you realize just how good you CAN feel and you want more and more of it to the point where you become addicted to it.

There have been people who accuse me of actually being addicted to sex, or at least to my orgasms, but I don't agree with them. Sure, I enjoy them a LOT but it's not like I can't say no to myself, I just don't WANT to.

Earlier I had mentioned the two general "categories" of orgasm I experience, although that makes it sound all too clinical if you ask me. What I had just done to myself downstairs in the family room was a classic example of what to me is the ultimate orgasm - long and drawn out, like floating in a sea of the most unbelievable feelings of pure sexual pleasure with waves of animal lust breaking over you.

Once again, that brings up another difference between men and women. If a guy had just cum as hard as I had, he would probably be sleeping now, or at the very least his sexual needs would be temporarily met. Not me. Even after such an incredible orgasm I still wanted more.

Truthfully, I can't think of a single time when just having an orgasm eliminated the feelings of need in me. In other words, while I love them beyond words, orgasm are no "cure" for horniness. Many times I've masturbated after being well fucked by a guy. Out of courtesy I usually try not to let him know, as most guys take it as some sign that they didn't satisfy me. The point is, they made me feel good but no amount of fucking will ever totally "satisfy" me. It may take the edge off and make me feel better, but given the opportunity I'll ALWAYS take more!

So you may ask, what DOES satisfy me? Good question and hopefully by now you realize it's NOT something merely physical. Only by meeting my physical AND emotional needs can I ever hope to feel true satisfaction. Sure, an orgasm can help in that direction as the act of getting one drives much of my emotions, but it's rare that my emotional needs are fulfilled, certainly NOT by your average horny boy.

So who meets my needs the best? Easy answer - my mom. Most people would have expected me to say my dad given the incredible satisfaction it gives me to submit to him, but it is mostly by meeting HIS needs that I am satisfied. When I am with my mom we concentrate on meeting each other's needs in an equal partnership. Until I'm married, I suppose sex with my mom is the closest I'll ever come to making love with someone. So you see, fucking never satisfies a woman. Making love does.

With the remnants of my last orgasm still hanging around, this one was easy to bring about. Some women claim it is difficult for them to orgasm. Personally, I think they just don't let themselves go enough to do it. Once you learn the signs and how to encourage it within yourself, I think cumming to an orgasm isn't all that hard at all, especially when I'm as ultra-horny as I was today.

Finally I was able to take in a breath and I let it out again with a loud gasp that echoed in the bathroom. I turned the shower massager flow to my breasts and let the stream strike my hard nipples and run down my cleavage while my hand continued to work my cunt. Like a rocket after hitting apogee, I was already descending although my breathing was still like I had just finished running a mile as I fought to fill my lungs once again. Damn, that was one intense orgasm!

Ordinarily I would have washed myself off, done my hair, and maybe even shaved. Just as I had replaced the shower massager in its holder and was reaching for the shampoo, the door slid open and there stood my dad. It really didn't surprise me to see that he was nude, nor was it any revelation to see his cock was fully erect, standing out from his thick thatch of pubic hair like he was pointing a fleshy gun at and down my spine. As they dropped off the bottom of my boobs and onto my stomach, he turned his hands over and caressed each of my breasts with one of them.

"God, you're so beautiful," he whispered to me, his voice husky and deep with the lust I knew was building inside of him, just waiting to be released. "I love the feel of your tits, so firm yet so soft."

"Touch me daddy," I said softly to him, "Just tell me what you want."

"Oh baby, you KNOW what I want."

"I want you to want me daddy... show me how much you want me."

He put his arms around me and pulled me in tight to him. I could feel his strong body pressing against me, his erect cock digging into my stomach. I hugged him as well and for a moment, it was like I was his little girl again, just being hugged by my daddy, feeling safe and secure in his arms as only your father can make you feel. I loved him so much and I knew he loved me and would never allow anything bad to happen to me. No matter what he wanted of me right then, I would have given it to him without hesitation.

"Suck my dick," he commanded me in a barely audible whisper, "Put it in your mouth and suck it."

My heart fluttered at his demand. I loved it when he was direct and to the point, none of this flowery language so many guys tried to use with me. "Suck my dick" - how much more direct and to the point could he be? What really turned me on, though, was that it was my DAD who was demanding it of me.

Many a guy has asked me to suck his cock and some even try the domination thing. In this case, though, the man telling me to blow him was the same one who use to tell me to clean my room, to look both ways before I crossed the street, to stop squirming in church. Now to have my dad now see me in a sexual way, as an object of his deepest desires and lust, commanding me to perform oral sex for him, made me feel so much more grown up and mature. It was like the first time he allowed me to drive the car but so much more satisfying.

"Yes daddy," was all I said, as if I was once again that little eight year old girl obeying my father's demand that I clean my room. The only difference was that this time I was happy to obey him!

For the next ten minutes or so, I'm guessing at the time and it could have been a lot longer, I sucked my dad's cock using every technique I knew. Frankly, I think I give a pretty damn good blowjob when I set my mind to it. Some of my skills I'd been taught early on in my sexual "career" by my mom, but most of them were the results of years of experience sucking hundreds of different cocks. No two were ever the same which is what keeps it interesting and fun for me. Of course, the one I knew the best and blown the most was my dad's I knew exactly what he liked, exactly how to switch between licking him with my tongue and taking him in my mouth. I knew how far he liked me to take him in and when to just nibble on the head or deep throat his entire cock.

Best of all, I could recognize the signs of when he was getting close to cumming and know how to either back off enough to keep him aroused or when to finish him off for the grand finale. Privately, my dad has told me that I blow him even better than my mom, which is about the greatest compliment he could ever give me!

Several times he almost came and I tasted his precum. I knew if I kept pushing it that sooner or later he wouldn't be able to stop and I had more ideas of what I wanted to do with my dad than just a BJ. Holding his cock in my hand, I stood back up. My dad had turned off the water shortly after I had started sucking him which made it easier for me so I no longer felt the heat of the stream against me. I looked up at him with my best "innocent little girl" look I could muster.

"Don't you want to fuck me daddy?" I asked him softly.

My dad hugged me tightly once again and again I felt his dick digging into me, even more so this time if that were possible. His hands reached around and grabbed my firm ass, one butt cheek in each of his large hands. I felt him squeeze my ass and pull my naked body in even tighter against his.

"Oh baby... you know I do," he replied, just a gentle whisper in my ear.

"Tell me what you want daddy," I begged him, wanting to hear him say it.

I knew perfectly well what he wanted of me at that moment but it still thrilled me to hear him say it, no matter how many times I had heard him repeat it before. It was a little game I played with him at times and he usually went along with it to make me happy.

"Oh Kelly, I want to fuck you so bad," he said, a little louder as his lust grew even stronger. "I want to feel my daughter's pussy around my cock. I want you to do be a good girl, to do whatever your father tells you to."

"Then fuck me daddy," I pleaded.

My pussy wanted his cock so bad I thought my crotch was going to explode. Masturbation's great and all, but nothing beats having the real thing inside of you, especially your dad's. "Please daddy, PLEASE fuck me."

across a tight string on a violin as his hard dick rubbed against the sensitive inner lining of the opening to my pussy. When his head would almost come out of me, the increased diameter would stretch me out just enough to send a chill through me until he re-entered me again. God, this was what I had been wanting all day and I was finally getting it!

"Fuck me daddy, fuck me faster," I pleaded, rocking my ass back and forth in time with his strokes.

"Oh yeah," he groaned, "God I love fucking you, fucking my little slut."

Between my blowjob and now the feeling of my tight pussy around his cock, I knew my dad wasn't going to last long and sure enough, I could tell from the way he was pounding himself into me and the frequency of his strokes that he was ready to cum.

"Cum in me daddy... I want to feel your cum inside of me."

One of the things I loved about fucking my dad was he wasn't into the "cum all over the girl" thing like porno movies seem to have convinced guys that girls supposedly love. While most girls I know, including me, put up with it and pretend to like it because we know it turns a guy on, the reality is that I would much prefer it go where God intended it - my mouth or my pussy. Cum is a mess to clean up, especially when it gets in your hair and besides, it just feels good when a guy cums in you.

I heard a loud gasp from my dad and he pulled me back into him as he drove himself forward, trying to penetrate me as much as possible. I knew what that meant, he was cumming any second now.

"Oh god, here it comes," he groaned, "Take your daddy's cum you little horny bitch."

He didn't have to tell me that as I already knew what I wanted. I wanted my dad to cum in me, to release his sperm into me, to complete the ultimate act of incest with me - the act of mating his own daughter. I mean, he wasn't just cumming in his wife, lover, or just any old girl. No, he was now shooting load after load of his cum into his own daughter, the one girl in the world that he was most responsible for taking care of and protecting. How could he possible demonstrate his love and respect for me more than what he was doing at this very moment? What more could I as his daughter ever ask for?

He may have been my father but he was still a man, That meant his own orgasm didn't last long and it was over quickly. Just like a man, when he was done, he was done. Being he IS my dad, he did try to make an effort to appear interested in me after he had cum but I knew the truth. A few more jerks and he let his last load loose in me and it was all over. Holding himself in me for a few moments to savor our time together, he soon pulled out and gave me a kiss before exiting the tub.

I stood up and watched him dry himself off. When he was done he turned to me and smiled.

"Shit, you really ARE something else, you know that don't you?"

I just smiled as if I was embarrassed by the attention although my heart was swelling with pride at being able to take care of my father in this way.

"Well, I hope this helps you to just remember your dear old dad tomorrow when all those guys are fucking you," he said with a grin as he left to get dressed again.

It certainly did! As soon as he was out of sight I turned the shower back on. For a moment I started to reach for the shampoo but my pussy was feeling so hot and bothered after just having been fucked that it wasn't ready to quit!

"OK, one last time and that's all - you hear?" I jokingly said to my pussy. With that, I went back to work yet again. Yep, like my dad had observed, there are times when I just can't get enough!

3. Beth Picks Me Up

Friday night eventually arrived although all day I could have sworn something had happened to the space-time continuum or whatever as the clocks seemed to grind to a halt. Beth picked me up before my parents got home from work (late as they usually were) and we set off for the party, wherever it was going to be this time as I had no idea.

"Well, well... someone looks like she's been getting some," Beth teased me as I settled into the passenger seat.

"Why do you say that?" I responded, trying to act innocent.

"Ohhhhhh, you just have that glow about you," she giggled, "You know, that 'I've just been fucked' look."

I just grinned and kept my silence but she wasn't going to let it drop that easily.

"Let me guess... Daddy?" she teased me, "C'mon, fess up... did Kelly get it from her daddy recently?"

I reached over and slapped her leg playfully. She was wearing something that was supposed to be a skirt, I think, but it was so short it wasn't easily identified! That was OK with me as Beth had some of the greatest legs of any girl I knew. Looking her over quickly, the blouse she was wearing obviously had no intention of staying on too long either given it was almost sheer with only a couple of the buttons done up.

I've been jealous of Beth's boobs since I was fourteen and trying to convince my mom I was ready to move up from a training bra while Beth was already a B cup and almost a C. These days they were at least a D and probably more likely a DD, that is, if she worried about what bra size she wore. Most girls with boobs her size wore a bras as much out of practical necessity than anything - but not Beth. She loved to bounce and jiggle and it was amazing how firm she was given the size of her boobs.

"Alright, so don't tell me," she huffed, "But don't think I don't know!"

We both laughed at that. If anyone would know, it was Beth. Although I'm not the least bit ashamed of it, incest is not exactly the type of thing you advertise to the world so as a general rule, I don't discuss it with anybody outside my family. It's actually one reason I like to write about it and publish my diary as it's the only opportunity I have to really discuss it with people.

Beth has been my best friend since I can remember, yet it actually wasn't until last year that we played around together sexually. Perhaps it was the closeness of our relationship that prevented us, I don't know but anyway, even now we didn't fool around with each other all that much other than maybe masturbating when we were together. As a result, Beth was like another member of our family so even though it shocked me at the time, I guess it was inevitable that she would someday be fucked by my dad.

I say I was shocked because if anyone knows anything about me and my parents, they know that we believe in the sanctity of marriage. My parents have never cheated on one another in over twenty years of marriage and I can't believe they ever will. Both of them are in love with the other even more today than they were on their wedding night. To commit adultery, even if one of them gave "permission", was something neither of them could ever condone.

So when I watched my dad give in one day and fuck Beth in our hot tub while my mom watched from my bedroom window, you could say I was more than a bit surprised. Although he has only done her twice, and probably never will again, I guess I have rationalized it as she is "virtual" family given our close relationship over our lifetimes.

Although Beth wasn't exactly thrilled by it at the time, I later returned the favor and seduced her father until he fucked me as well. I was pretty proud of myself, actually, as he didn't want to do me at first. Well, I was sure he WANTED to, it was just he didn't think he should. Judging from the way he avoids me now, I'm pretty sure he regrets doing it but that doesn't matter to me, I got what I wanted out if it and I know he loved it at the time.

So again, if anyone knew how I was feeling, it was Beth!

4. The Party Gets Started

It didn't take long to get to the home where the party was being held. It wasn't anything out of the ordinary, your standard brick Pittsburgh house with a slate roof and manicured lawn. A couple of cars were already in the driveway so Beth parked on the street.

Getting out of the car, I noticed a neighbor across the street watching – and so did Beth. The natural tease in her took over and when she got out of the car, she let her skirt, what there was of it, ride up and reveal a thin black thong. It was nothing but a few strings in the back and in front it barely covered her pussy but it was still technically a thong. I'm sure the old fart got a good view of her in the remaining sunlight and she made sure he did before pulling the few inches of material down to cover herself.

The two of us held hands as we walked up to the home. Someone must have been watching because before we could knock the door opened and a cute couple, a blonde and rather handsome guy, greeted us. The girl looked familiar but the guy was a total stranger to me. Since I didn't make many of these parties and I knew the attendance varied, that wasn't surprising.

Beth and I stepped in and as I passed the guy, I felt a hand grab my ass and playfully squeeze it briefly. I ignored it and acted as though nothing had happened but I would have loved to have known who it was that had grabbed a feel – him or her?

So far it appeared not many people were there yet. There were two other guys and one other girl that I could see as we walked down the entry hall and into the living room. So far it looked like I was the only one not in a skirt. It's not like the shorts I was wearing were exactly conservative - my dad referred to them as "Kelly's streetwalkers". I was wearing a tube top that helped to emphasize what boobs I had. They practically screamed "she's not wearing a bra!" from the way my nipples poked through the material.

Like the other girls, I was wearing strap-on heels although mine were only about four inches whereas some of the others were almost qualified to be called stilts. All said and done, the dress code today seemed to be slutty skirts but someone apparently forgot to send me the memo. As for the guys... well, they were dressed like guys. Jeans and t-shirts were the order of the day, apparently without a whole lot of attention to fashion. I suppose in the end it didn't matter since I doubted they would be wearing them for long, but a little class sometimes goes a long way for me.

Beth and I took a place on a love seat that was unoccupied and I was pleasantly surprised when one of the guys offered to get us something to drink. Beth asked for some white wine while I stuck to my usual Diet Coke. I've never been much of a drinker, not out of any moral or ethical concerns, but mostly because I simply don't care for the taste. Beer, especially, is vile so far as I am concerned.

Now and then I might have a nice glass of wine with my parents along with dinner but that's about it. Not many people can say they've never been drunk in their lives, but I'm one of them. If other people want to drink, that's their business but nothing turns me off more than a drunk horny guy!

At first you would've thought we were at one of my parent's bridge clubs or something. We introduced ourselves, discussed the weather, local events and such without anyone committing to anything serious. About ten minutes after Beth and I arrived, two more people showed up, a guy and girl, leaving the count now at four guys and four girls. Typically, attendance at these events ran about twenty or more in total so I wondered where everyone was.

Mike stood up at this point and got everyone's attention. Knowing his name was actually pretty significant. Normally there were so many people it was impossible to even think about remembering anyone and typically we never got around to any type of introductions in the first place. With only eight of us, by now each of us knew the other's names which already made this a little more personal for me than any of the previous parties.

Everyone there had apparently been at one of these before so Mike announced that there would be no initiation ceremony. A collective sigh went up and we all laughed at our simultaneous response.

Understandably, Mike and Tanya especially looked disappointed since as the hosts it would have been their responsibility to "initiate" the newcomer in front of the rest of us to kick things off. I remember when it was my first time and I learned that I had to be initiated. My first reaction was to run out, my second was to slap Beth, but then finally I said "What the hell?" and let him fuck me in front of everyone. It turned me on and actually was a great way to get yourself involved when you were new and unsure of yourself.

Without an initiation to get things rolling and start the juices flowing (literally), it seemed a bit awkward at first, especially with a group this small. Other than Mike and Tanya, there didn't seem to be any other "couples" in the group so there was no natural pairing off or anything at first. This was exactly why I've not always found these parties to be my favorite thing to do. I couldn't help but feel like I was some cheap whore at a club waiting for a guy to pick me out from the crowd so he could fuck me in the back room.

Beth, bless her horny soul, wasn't about to wait for anything and so she took some initiative and went over to where two of the guys were drinking beers. Although I couldn't hear what she said to them, from the grins on their faces I could easily imagine. The three of them walked out towards what looked to be the kitchen where I was willing to bet that Beth was going to be finding something good to eat pretty quick.

On the couch across from me, Lizzie and Spencer started to make out so it looked like they would be busy for a while. That left two girls and one guy, including me, so I wondered how things would match up. My expectations were that they would approach me for some threesome action and sure enough, the two of them quickly moved over to stand in front of me.

"Hi Kelly," Tanya started off, "I remember you from last year - the pool party I think."

She was vaguely familiar but I couldn't quite place her but that really didn't matter. I didn't say anything so she continued.

"That's so cool because Mike and I first met at that party," Tanya continued, "He's got a great cock, wanna suck it?"

Well, I guess THAT is what is called getting straight to the point. Still, I wasn't offended as after all, isn't that why I came?

"Sure," I answered, "You going to help me?"

I reached for Mike's jeans as he moved up closer to me but to my surprise, Tanya shook her head. "Noooooo, I'm not really into that," she explained to me, "I just want to watch."

Well, if that was all she wanted, then that was fine with me. I was just trying to be polite in the first place when I asked her to share with me. I didn't blame her at all, I prefer to have a guy's dick to myself also unless it's with my mom or cousins.

After I unbuttoned his jeans, I unzipped them and pulled them down to the floor where he pulled his sneakers off with his feet and then stepped out of his jeans. Another surprise - he was wearing boxers. Most guys didn't bother wearing underwear to these parties, I guess because they figured it just a waste of their time.

Mike's were black silk so they felt really good in my hands as I pulled them down and off of him. Again a surprise (when would these end?), he was still flaccid and small. Wow! Now THAT was self-control! He raised his t-shirt up and over his head to take it off as well, leaving him standing nude right in front of me. Not a bad deal for me!

Overall I would have given Mike maybe an 8 of 10 in a body contest. He was in pretty good shape with just a hint of love handles starting to show on his waist. As for his age, I was guessing late twenties or early thirties. Of course, the thing I was most interested in was hanging down between his legs. Tanya was right, he DID appear to have a pretty decent dick! He was limp so it was hard to tell what the results would eventually be but it looked promising.

The one thing that immediately turned me off, though, was that he was totally shaved over every inch of his body except his head - and I do mean every inch. It was horrible of me to feel this way and I tried to block it from my mind but no matter what I did, I still couldn't help but look at his bald crotch. Oh well, it was still a cock so I would just have to make do.

Reaching out, I took his dick in my hand and pulled on it gently to see how far it would stretch. It was still pretty limp which gave me hope that he had plenty of growth potential. Looking over at Tanya, I saw she had taken a position on the arm of the loveseat and was sitting there watching us, not doing a whole lot herself. Taking in a deep breath, I leaned forward and took the head of his dick in my mouth and gently sucked it, licking the tip with my tongue inside of my mouth.

"C'mon Kelly, suck him," Tanya urged me.

Well, if there was one thing I really didn't need any encouragement to do, it was to suck a cock, that's for sure. Over the years I've been a little particular regarding whose cock gets inside of my pussy, but when it comes to blowing a guy, so long as he's clean that's about all I care about. Why get all worked up over what he looks like or weighs when all you care about is his cock? Frankly, I didn't give a damn about Mike as a person; all I was here for to get a good taste of his dick.

Under the circumstances, my goal was to get him to cum, not to see how long I could make this last. After all, it wasn't like his was the only cock around or anything. Holding his balls gently in my right hand, I started to suck more on his dick, pulling on it gently between my lips and licking it with my tongue. The response was even quicker than I had expected as almost instantly I felt his cock begin to grow in my mouth.

Feeling a guy's cock grow in my mouth is an incredibly erotic sensation for me. It just seems rather surreal to feel this thing in my mouth GROWING and stiffening. What turns me on more about it was knowing WHY it's doing it - because of me. Some guys take a while to get erect while others seem to have a pump hooked up straight to his dick.

Mike was definitely one of the latter as his cock seemed to grow each time my head went down on him again as I did a traditional head bob. Now and then when I would bottom out on his cock, my face would press against his bare crotch and I found myself wishing he had that bush of hair to cushion and tickle my face.

As things turned out, Mike wasn't quite as well-endowed as what Tanya had led me to believe but he was a respectable five or six inches once he got erect. Actually, that was by far more typical than all these guys claiming to have eight inch dicks. One good thing was that while he wasn't as long as a lot of guys, he as pretty thick and damn hard as well. Once he was erect it would have taken a vise and hammer to bend that cock!

I ran my tongue up and down his smooth shaft, looking over at the same time to see how Tanya was doing. Apparently, quite well for herself judging from how fast her hand was moving under her skirt. I hadn't noticed if she originally had panties on or not when we started but she definitely didn't have any on now. She had a shaved pussy as well which I guess went along with Mike. I just hoped they both kept themselves well shaved or the stubble wars might have been hell!

"Cum on her face Mike," Tanya called over to Mike, her voice sounding a bit strained and I wondered if she was about to cum herself. It wasn't the advice I would have given but then I was just the girl sucking the guy's dick so what say did I have in the matter!

Mike must have seen a few too many porn movies because just as I could feel his dick beginning to swell in preparation for his cumming, he pulled himself out and grabbed his cock in his hand to finish himself off.

"Open your mouth," he said quickly, jerking himself off furiously, right in front of me.

A ray of hope entered my mind – maybe he would aim for my mouth and not get it all over my face? In the end, that may have been his intentions judging from the way he held himself in front of my mouth. Unfortunately, it was not the will of the gods apparently as when he came he jerked so badly that he sprayed himself all over my face, hair, and body.

God! He was like a fire hose, spewing sperm all over me in what seemed to be endless streams of cum. Some of made its way into my mouth giving me a nice taste of his cum, but the majority of it missed and was now god knows where on me.

"Mmmmmmm, nice job baby," Tanya congratulated him, stepping over to take him away from me. The she bent over and I thought for a minute she wanted to kiss me but her mouth veered at the last second and I felt her tongue along my chin.

"Nice," was all she said as she lifted her head away and I saw her tongue covered with the sperm he had deposited on me just a few minutes before. Then she leaned over one last time and kissed me on the lips briefly before getting back up again.

"C'mon Mike," I heard her say as they walked away, "My turn now."

For a moment I thought maybe she meant with me but apparently she was looking to get fucked by one of the other guys. I had a pretty good idea now whose hand had fondled me when Beth and I first walked in.

5. Fucked While Cleaning Up

I need to get his cum cleaned up from me before someone else wanted to be with me so guessed it was on the other side of the kitchen and so I went in the kitchen to see. For a moment I had forgotten about Beth but when I turned the corner it was sort of hard to forget her any longer. She was naked except for her micro-skirt which was pulled up around her waist. She was riding one guy's cock who was sitting on a kitchen chair while sucking the dick of the other. Her ass was facing the guy she was fucking while he had his hands on her hips, helping her to keep it going.

My timing was perfect as just when I walked in the guy she was blowing erupted and spewed cum all over her face. Unlike me, Beth loved it when guys did that and she didn't even open her mouth to let any of his cum inside. He had a pretty good load himself and I saw globs of it in her hair. I just shook my head because I could already hear her complaining later about how hard it was getting it out. Oh well, she asked for it!

Beth looked at me with a nasty grin on her cum-covered face and I winked at her and kept on walking until sure enough, I found the bathroom. Looking in the mirror, I realized I was more of a mess than I had imagined and it wasn't until that moment that I realized that this was what Beth had seen on me when we were just together. No wonder she had grinned at me the way she had.

I started to wash myself off when the door suddenly opened, making me realize that I hadn't locked it behind me. To my surprise, in walked Mike.

"I figured you'd be fucking Tanya by now," I teased him as he apologized for intruding. Despite his words, I noticed that he wasn't making any attempt to walk out either. I also noticed that he was still sporting a decent hard-on as well. You had to hand it to him, the guy had stamina!

"Oh, she got sidetracked by your friend back there," he responded, "What's her name... Beth?"

I nodded and he chuckled saying, "Well, your friend is one hell of a nympho. I don't think I've been to a party here she wasn't there as well. Tanya couldn't resist joining in with her again, they make quite a pair you know."

Well, THAT was news to me. Beth had never mentioned anything about a regular girl-girl gig at these parties. Hmmmmmm, the things you learn about your best friend!

"So then, why are you in here?" I asked, my eyes fixed on his dick which he was starting to stroke slowly to keep it erect.

"This IS the only bathroom on this floor, you know," he laughed.

"Yeah? Then why aren't you taking a pee?" I countered.

Mike chuckled and replied, "Well, let's just say we have some unfinished business."

I looked at him with one eyebrow cocked. What was he talking about? My expression must have told him that I didn't know what he was talking about because he then proceeded to explain.

"You DO give one hell of a BJ, you know, but I didn't get a chance to screw you."

It was a little crude but effective in its own way. Looking at his erect cock, the prospect didn't seem all that bad to me either. I guess I could have teased him a bit and pretended to be uncertain but what would be the point of it all? Frankly, I wanted him to fuck me just as bad as he did. So I just did what any other horny girl would do under the circumstances.

"What are you waiting for then?" I asked, turning to expose my butt to him and then spreading my legs apart and leaning over to let him get an eyeful of my nice ass and pussy. Despite his bravado, for whatever reason I seemed to have caught him off guard; maybe he was expecting me to banter some more with him without giving in so easily. Well, it wasn't like we were at some church party after all, so why not get down to what we all came for?

"Well, are ya going to fuck me or not?"

That got Mike moving and he grinned broadly as he moved in behind me. As for me, I didn't care whose it was, all I wanted was a dick in me, the hell with any foreplay or whatever. Fortunately, Mike must have been thinking along the same lines because I immediately felt his cock pressing up against my asshole. Wrong move!

"Not there," I warned him, reaching between my legs to move his dick to my pussy.

What is it with the anal crap anyway? I have never understood why any guy would want to stick in dick in the same hole my shit exits from when a perfectly good pussy is waiting for him! I have to admit that it feels pretty good when a guy licks my asshole but I'll be damn if I will even kiss him afterwards, let alone return the favor.

Fortunately he didn't put up a fuss like some guys have when I tell them no anal. No sooner than he felt himself against my pussy then I was almost knocked off my feet as he grabbed me by the hips and rammed his cock deep into me in one hard motion. For a moment it hurt as his cock violated me without warning but that was quickly overwhelmed by the sensations created when his dick began to stroke quickly in and out of me.

"Damn, you're fucking tight," he said between grunts as he banged his crotch up against my ass with each inward stroke.

If there was one thing I was proud of about my body, it was the way my pussy was still as tight as it was back when I was sixteen. My dad said I was even tighter than Kristen, who was two years younger than me. Then again, Kristen had probably been fucked twice as much as me and she loved her big dildos whereas I preferred my own fingers. Still, it was nice to know I had something about me that was better than my cute cousin.

In retrospect, I'm not sure what this says about me, but at the moment, the only thing on my mind was the feeling of his cock inside of me. What would he have said if he knew that I really didn't even care much about who he was or anything about him other than what he had between his legs to fill my pussy with? Under the circumstances, facing away from him as he drilled me from behind was the best position as I wasn't even interested in looking at him.

Frankly, if there was some way to detach his dick from him and just use it to fuck me, that would have been fine by me! (Alright, don't say I should just use a dildo – they aren't the same as the real thing.)

Mike wasn't exactly doing anything to make this a Kodak moment himself. He was just fucking me in the purest sense of the word. Neither of us said a word to the other. This was the epitome of why I tell people I don't do sex parties that often – it was just cold, impersonal sex. Yet at this moment, that was what I wanted.

When my dad fucks me, I have to be sure that his needs are met, that his lust is fulfilled in whatever way he wants. That's not to say I don't enjoy it; of course I do. The point is that his feelings and needs come before mine. When other guys fuck me, it's just for the sexual thrill and pleasure but I still can't help but be concerned somewhat about the guy's needs. If nothing else, I would hope that when we are done his memories of me are of the best fuck he has ever had. There's also the little matter that he's certainly going to tell his friends and a girl's got to think about maintaining her reputation!

This was one of those rare times when I could just let a guy fuck me and not give a damn about him. This was sex in its purest and rawest form - unemotional and uncaring, each partner only concerned about self-gratification. The funny thing for me was that as much as I crave a good orgasm, I wasn't even trying for one now. Was it that I didn't want to give him the satisfaction?

In any case, unlike him, I don't NEED to always cum to fulfill my needs. What I DID need, though, was for HIM to cum. What good as it just to have his dick in me if he wasn't going to fill me with sperm at the end? What I wanted was to know that me and my pussy could get him to the point of no return, to that event which he couldn't stop once it was in progress, all because of sexy little me.

It was a little more than that as well. There is just something that hits my emotional buttons when a guy cums inside my pussy. I can't even imagine how much sperm has been released inside of me but it never fails to thrill me as much as it did the first time my boyfriend came in me back when I was only fourteen years old.

In my mind I imagine his dick inside of my pussy, the head surrounded by me, caressed by me and then suddenly I feel the warmth in me and I try to imagine how it must look when his sperm shoots out from the tip of his cock and spreads out inside of me. I imagine all those millions of live sperm, futilely making their way deeper inside of me in search of an egg that isn't there.

Mike was about at that point now, judging from the way he was holding himself deep in me, pressing his crotch tight up against my ass like he was trying to push his dick up to my throat. Then it happened. Mike groaned as if he was in pain as I felt him jerk behind me and that warm glow I loved so well swelled deep inside of my pussy. Mmmmmmm, he was cumming and nothing was going to stop him now until he was finished.

There was something about the finality of it, the knowledge that once set in motion this wouldn't stop until we were done, that thrilled me. It would be like watching a tidal wave heading for you on shore, knowing that it was coming and there was not a damn thing you could do about it.

Considering he had just cum not that long ago, Mike was still able to give me a respectable load of sperm. When he was done I wondered for a second what he would do next. God, the last thing I wanted to do at this point was snuggle!

Mike abruptly pulled his dick out of me and without a word, he turned and left the bathroom, leaving me bent over with his cum dripping from my pussy. I stood up and looked in the mirror. Damn, now I really looked like a mess! There was a brush next to the sink which I used to try and straighten out my hair somewhat. Splashing some cold water on my face, I dried myself of with a towel from under the sink, rubbing my face vigorously and then drawing the terrycloth over my boobs and then between my legs to wipe up his cum.

Well, THAT was interesting, to say the least!

6. Gangbanged

I gathered myself up and headed out of the bathroom and back into the kitchen. Beth must have wrapped things up with her guys as nobody was in there. I opened the refrigerator and was pleased to find my drink of choice was available – Diet Coke. Opening up the can, I leaned back against the sink and took in a long swig. The carbonation helped clean out the cum taste that was still in my mouth from my earlier BJ of Mike.

I could hear something coming from the living room but couldn't make out exactly what it was. I had about half the can down and was debating what to do next. Honestly, I think if Beth was to walk in and say it was time to go home, I would have gladly left. It had been an experience tonight and so far the party was just as I would have expected – simple and impersonal. I'd sucked a cock and been fucked adequately so what more could I ask for?

I had been in the kitchen all alone now for about ten minutes and I was beginning to wonder what was going on. Eventually my curiosity overcame me and I walked over to take a look in the living room. What I saw both turned me and yet at the same time pissed me off a bit.

In the middle of the living room carpet was Beth with the other girl, each laying on her side with her head between the other's legs. Surrounding them, seated on various chairs and the couch, were the three guys, each stroking himself as he watched the 69 show being put on in front of him. Now why hadn't I been invited to this little session?

Then I noticed that Mike and Tanya weren't in the room. Hmmm, something told me that Tanya hadn't quite approved of Mike's bathroom antics. I suppose having him walk out with his dick covered with my pussy juices might have tipped off

Tanya that he hadn't just gone in to take a pee! If that was the case, it seemed pretty stupid of Tanya considering she had to have known what a guy like Mike would be doing given the opportunities at this party. Maybe one of them wasn't feeling well either and so they had to leave but somehow I didn't think that was the case here.

When I walked in, the guys noticed me first but they seemed more interested in the lesbian show. Beth was laying such that she could see me when she looked up but she seemed too interested in the hairy pussy her face was buried in to notice I was there. I couldn't believe she hadn't invited me to this. Admittedly, I had sort of isolated myself from the party being with Mike so much, but that didn't excuse her completely.

Since the girls seemed happy with their situation, I figured the guys were fair game. A sudden urge struck me to show that I could be part of this too and I could party just as much as Beth and the other girl. Sure, I may prefer 1-1 sex when I'm on my own, but that doesn't mean I can't keep up with anyone else when it comes to sexual games. (Well, maybe not my cousin Kristen but then, who could?)

Walking over to the nearest guy, I leaned over and said seductively, "Wouldn't you rather do something besides just watch and jerk off?"

Spencer (I think that was his name) looked up at me and then ran his eyes up and down my nude body. "Whatcha have in mind?"

"Well, how about the three of you fucking me?" I suggested, "After all, it only seems fair since the girls seem to be taking care of themselves without you."

The other guys were looking over at me now, probably wondering what was going on. Spencer motioned for them to come over to where he was sitting on the couch. I switched places with him such that the three of them were standing in front of me as I sat there like a queen holding court.

All three of them were pretty good looking but their cocks were all unique. Spencer, the first guy I had approached, definitely had the biggest cock. It wasn't huge but by comparison to the other guys, he was at least an inch or two larger. Andy had the smallest dick. The poor guy must have been teased all his life. Damn, I have been laid by fifteen year-old boys that would've put him to shame! Then there was Simon, who like the Momma Bear, was in between the other two. He had the classic dick, about five or six inches at most with a bit of a banana curve to it. All of them had nice hairy crotches so that pleased me as well.

"Hmmmmmm," I stalled as I debated how to do this. Then a light went on over my head and I knew what I wanted.

"OK, here's how it's going to go down... Spencer - you fuck me while I blow Andy and Simon fucks my boobs."

Seemed simple enough to me but they looked confused. Typical guys!

"All together or one at a time?" Andy asked. He looked a little panicked and I wondered if he had ever gangbanged a girl before. With his small dick he probably was a little shy around girls, let alone do it with other guys.

"All at once, silly!" I admonished him, "Now let's get going, I'm horny."

That was certainly true. It was hard to believe a few minutes before I had been contemplating leaving and going back home. I guess I can be forgiven for changing my mind when three naked studs are standing in front of me sporting erections, each wanting a piece of me for themselves. Spencer look the most happy with the situation, which was easy to figure out since he was assigned to fuck me first.

Turning to Andy and Simon, I said, "Don't worry guys, you'll get to fuck me before it's over so don't think Simon's getting all the pussy."

From the looks on their faces, I guess I had underestimated how badly they all wanted to fuck me. Spencer, who had previously looked like the cat who had just eaten the canary, looked a little crestfallen on learning he had to share my cunt with the other guys. The other two, though, both looked noticeably happier with the arrangement.

Laying back on the couch, I started to rub my boobs and pussy to tease them a bit.

"Well, what are you all waiting for... an engraved invitation?" I teased them even more, "C'mon boys, come and get it."

The three of them looked at one another as if uncertain how to proceed. I guess they hadn't done this before at a previous party which sort of surprised me but then I didn't know what they had done in the past. Andy took the initiative and started to straddle my chest but I knew that wouldn't leave room for Simon.

"Other way around," I said, motioning for him to get on above my head. He appeared confused at first but then seemed to figure it out and he kneeled behind my head and lowered his cock to my face. His hairy balls surrounded my nose as his cock slid into my open mouth. Mmmmmmm, he smelled so damn sexy with a mixture of his male musk and sweat.

With Andy's ass covering my head, I couldn't see much else but it didn't take a psychic to figure out what was happening below. Simon took the position that Andy was first inclined to and I felt his hands on my boobs, pulling them together to surround his cock. I didn't have the world's greatest boobs and so this was not something I normally had a guy do to me, but they were at least big enough to be able to rub the sides of his cock although not nearly as much as your typically porn movie would show.

With two dicks working on me, Spencer was the last to take up his position. His hands spread my legs apart until my outer leg actually fell off the couch and then he raised my inner leg until it rested on the top of the couch. I was still pretty wet from my previous fucking, not to mention the remnants of Mike's cum in me, so he had an easier time of getting his dick in me than Mike had. He went right to work without any further fanfare, stroking himself in and out of me slowly.

It had been a long time since anything like this had happened to me. Three cocks were working me over, two of them in me and the other rubbing against my boobs. Not a bad situation to be in if you asked me! For a girl who loved cock as much as I did, this was about as good as it gets!

To be perfectly honest, it was hard to concentrate on all three of them. My attention would wander between the cock in my mouth, to the one in my pussy and then to the feeling of the other on my boobs. It wasn't like I went in a continuous circle between them but instead went from one to the other in a rather random order. Andy's little dick was easy to take in my mouth while Spencer's larger cock was making my hungry pussy respond.

Three horny guys fucking one slutty girl didn't exactly set the stage for a long, intimate love making scene. They had been stroking themselves pretty vigorously when I came in to the room so it wasn't like they were starting from scratch or anything. If nothing else, it was like they were in a race to see who could cum first!

If it WAS a race, Andy won. Actually, the boy caught me by surprise. It is a rare day when a guy cums and I'm not ready for it as there are usually all sorts of signs to warn me. Usually he starts to stroke himself deeper and faster, there is the faster breathing, and then the almost imperceptible swelling of his dick as the cum prepares to explode from him.

Maybe it was because I was distracted by the other two that I missed these in Andy, or maybe he was just fast, but whatever the reason his cum burst into my mouth so quickly I almost choked on it. Recovering quickly, I sucked hard on his cock, trying to draw every drop from him that I could. He only had a couple of large loads, followed by a few smaller ones before he pulled back from my mouth.

I knew what Andy wanted, why he had pulled out of my mouth just after cumming. Like most men, he wanted to see the fruits of his labors, to see his cum on my tongue and in my mouth. He needn't have worried; I wasn't going to disappoint him by swallowing it down immediately. I stuck out my cum-covered tongue and then blew cum bubbles between my lips. It was all a show for him as I would have been happy enough just to swallow it and get things over with.

The best thing about Andy cumming first and getting off of me was that it let me see Simon in front of me. I lifted my head enough to see his dick sliding between my boobs. It was just in the nick of time as it turned out. Maybe it was the sight of seeing Andy's cum in my mouth, maybe it was just his time, but whatever the reason it was Simon's turn. He didn't know how lucky he was! Not many guys get to cum between my boobs but in this case I made an exception and I felt the warm cum hit me on each of my boobs and then on my upper chest.

Simon wasn't exactly the mother lode of cum either but he shot a respectable load. He used his dick to spread it around my boobs, running the tip of his cock over my nipples until each was covered with sperm.

With Simon and Andy out of the way, that left Spencer. If you had asked me from the start, I would have bet on Spencer as being the first to cum. After all, his cock was fucking the ultimate cock-pleaser - a girl's wet pussy. It wasn't like he was holding out THAT much more though. Within a minute of Simon getting off of me, Spencer finally came and for the second time at the party I felt a guy's dick releasing his load in me. I guess Mike had spoiled me because Spencer didn't have near the same amount of cum but I wasn't complaining.

Unlike the other two, who had immediately dismounted once they had cum, Spencer didn't appear too willing to throw in the towel. After he had finished cumming, he kept his dick in me and actually started stroking himself in and out of me again. You had to give him credit, he was taking all the pussy that he could get.

"Sorry big boy, I promised Andy and Simon they could get some pussy too."

Spencer looked a little dejected but he accepted my decree. Reluctantly, he withdrew from me and my pussy had that empty feeling I always get whenever a cock suddenly leaves it. Fortunately, in this case there were two more waiting.

Thank god for the resilience of youth! Had my dad been one of them, he would've had to wait an hour or two usually before he was hard enough to fuck me again. Not these guys though! Both of them had just cum and yet they were still horny enough to stay hard to fuck me. Pardon my ego, but I like to think some of it had to do with the girl they wanted to fuck as well.

Andy and Simon looked at each other, sizing up the other to see who would go next. Not surprisingly, the guy with the bigger dick took control. He was about to settle in place where Spencer had been but I wanted more than just another fucking like the first. After all, variety is the spice of life! To Simon's surprise, I got up from the couch and pushed him back down into it until he was sitting on the edge. His cock was still nice and hard, pointing up like it was training itself on me like some heat-seeking missile.

"Mmmmmmm, nice cock," I murmured as I turned around and backed into him.

He spread his legs to let me in and I settled down into his lap, letting his dick slide into me in the process. With Spencer's cum in me and having been fucked twice now, he slide in pretty easily and I leaned back to push him in further.

Spencer and Andy were watching intently and I wondered if they were even breathing they seemed to be so still. I smiled at them and began to rock on Simon's dick, letting it move in and out of me as a result.

"God I LOVE to be fucked," I whispered, loud enough though to be sure they could hear me.

Simon just sat there, letting me do the work which was fine with me. One nice thing about being on top is I get to control the depth and speed of his cock in me. Another benefit of this position was I could see the other girls as well. By now, of course, they had realized what the guys were doing with me. Interestingly, they didn't seem to care! Now and then I would catch one of them stealing a peek at me but for the most part, they were more interested in licking each other's pussy than watching me being fucked.

My hands were free in this position so I put them to good use. So far I hadn't even come close to an orgasm and it seemed a waste of good cock not to cum at least once at the party. With a dick moving in and out of my pussy, I knew it wouldn't take much on my part to bring about the desired results so I just went the most direct route and went straight to work on my clit and nipples. I had to hurry because I wanted to cum before Simon and I knew he wasn't going to last much longer, regardless of the fact he had cum just a little bit before.

It wasn't really a fair race, I had all the advantages. Having two guys watching me play with myself while a third was fucking me was the icing on the cake for me. If there was one thing that beat masturbation, it was masturbating with an audience! I love it best when my dad watches me, even if he doesn't always do anything in response. Just knowing he can see me pleasuring myself, knowing what I am doing to myself, is enough for me.

As my orgasm struck, my pussy clamped down on Simon's dick and I could hear him groan with the simultaneous pleasure and pain it must have caused him.

"God damn, you're going to flatten my cock!" he squealed as my pussy cum began to flow over his hard dick.

"Shit, look at her cumming," I heard one of the others say, Spencer I think, "God, it's all over his prick."

I didn't have anything to say myself, I was just taking in the moment and enjoying myself. I forced myself to loosen up on his cock enough so I could bounce on it and I fingered myself enough to keep my orgasm peaking.

"Cum inside of me," I begged him, "Make me cum harder."

Having a guy cum in me while I was in the middle of an orgasm was about the best thing I could ask for. If anything could push me deeper into outer space, that was it!

Simon was a guy and guys are easily manipulated and Simon was no exception. What choice did he really have? He had a slutty college girl riding his cock, moaning with pleasure as she maintained her orgasm with her fingers, begging him to shoot his load in her. If he HAND'T cum then and there I would have been more surprised. Sure enough, the poor boy did as I expected and I felt my orgasm surge as his cum was released in me. God, this was heaven!

I couldn't concentrate enough to bounce on his cock at this point so I just plopped down hard on his lap and ground my ass into his crotch. I could feel his pubic hair smashed against my ass and it was like a soft brush caressing my butt. He didn't have much to give me this time but as they say, it's the thought that counts.

Once he was done I stopped playing with myself to let myself wind down faster. I probably could've sat there longer, mounted on his cock like a butterfly in a collection, but I knew I had yet another dick waiting for me and if there was one thing I hated, it was to leave a cock waiting!

I lifted myself up and off of him and for a moment I felt a bit unbalanced. My orgasm hadn't completely wound down yet and just standing up was enough to stimulate me to where I felt like I was about to collapse on the floor.

"Not bad," I managed to say, grinning at Simon, "Now it's Andy's turn."

and I worried that if he slipped I might not be able to hold myself up and would break his dick off. Can that even happen? Well, thankfully I never had to find out.

As strong as Andy was, I knew he wasn't going to be able to keep this up for long but I was willing to go along with it as long as he could. He was grunting pretty good after a few minutes and finally he must have had enough because he turned to face the couch. For a moment my heart skipped a beat as I thought he was going to drop me but what he did was basically fall forward such that I landed on my back with him on top of me

Amazingly he stayed in me throughout the entire maneuver. As they say, it's not the size, it's how you use it. Now we were back to more conventional, missionary style sex. Sure, Andy's cock didn't fill me nearly as well as the others but it did the job and in the end, that's what counts.

"That's it Andy," I encouraged him, "Fuck me harder... you can cum in me if you want to."

Given the other three guys had already left their loads in me, it should've been obvious to Andy that he was more than welcome to cum inside of me as well but it never hurt to massage the fragile male ego. Besides, I've never had a guy tell me he didn't like hearing a girl ask for it.

"Ahhhhhh," Andy groaned and I saw him close his eyes tightly and grimace as he tried to hold back for as long as possible. Finally it was more than he could bear and with a loud gasp I felt his hips push tightly into me and then jerk, his ass clenching under my hands as I pulled him into me.

"Give it to me Andy... give it all to me."

He was doing his best, you had to give him credit for that. Maybe it was some form of compensation for having such a small cock, but when he came a second time I could have sworn it was bigger than the first. When he was finished, he just stayed in me, holding himself still and I could feel his cock twitching inside of me.

I hadn't really paid a lot of attention to what was going on around me once Andy had started banging me so now that he was done I turned my head to look around. Now that all of them had fucked me, the guys were already heading off to the kitchen for another beer or whatever. Even Andy didn't stay for long and quickly pulled out to go join them. It was the ol' male sex switch again, going to OFF once he had fucked me.

My interests turned to Beth and the other girl. Apparently, they had finally had their fill of pussy and were sitting together in the middle of the floor, watching Andy and me finish up. I looked at Beth who was grinning and I just shrugged my shoulders as if I had nothing to do with anything that had just happened.

"Hey, what can I say, you guys looked like you were busy so I had to find SOMETHING to entertain myself."

Beth and the other girl laughed and I was glad to see they were cool with me. Beth got up on her knees and then worked her way to her feet and sat down next to me.

"Well Kelly, from the looks of your pussy, you certainly were entertained!"

I looked down between my legs and had to smile. She was right, I was swollen and wet with an almost steady stream of cum draining from me. For a moment I thought she was going to dive in and lick it out of me but unfortunately she didn't seem to be interested.

It was back to the bathroom again to clean off except this time nobody barged in to fuck me, much to my disappointment. When I came out I was still half expecting Beth to want to fool around some more with me and the other girl but apparently, she was happy with what she'd had for one night. My guess was that with such a small group, once she had fucked the guys and licked a girl, doing it again was redundant and so things ended quickly as compared to the larger parties where more combinations were available.

Well, I was OK with it as I sort of felt the same way. Once a guy fucked you it was sort of "been there done that" the next time unless you had plans to see him afterwards. For casual sex like this, once you had the notch on your belt, doing it again was just more of the same.

Beth and I got dressed and said goodbye to everyone. I had a feeling the three guys weren't through yet and if the last girl remained, they might get to repeat their gig they had just had with me. For guys, it didn't seem to matter how many times they fucked you, they were always ready to do you again.

When I got home, I noticed my parents' cars were in the garage so I snuck in quietly and found them sleeping in front of the TV set in their Lazy-Boys. Well, I had been fucked pretty well so there was no sense in waking them up and I quietly went upstairs to my bedroom.

I quickly stripped and toyed with the idea of a shower. I really did need one as I was sure I reeked of sweat and sex but I made the mistake of laying back in my bed once I had undressed. A wave of sleepiness rolled over me instantly and I suddenly realized how exhausted I was. Oh well, I would probably need a shower in the morning anyway assuming my dad gave me his extended wake-up call that he liked to give me on weekends.

I closed my eyes and fell asleep with dreams of cocks surrounding me, all of the cumming on me at once in a massive collection of cum that covered my entire body. Not a bad way to fall asleep after a day like today.

elementary school district. It's one of things where they are old enough to tie their shoes yet still young enough to love their teacher.

In many ways I'm a bit old-fashioned, even down-right conservative when it comes to family values. When the time is right I hope to marry the man of my dreams and live in a brick house with our two kids and a dog - but not for a while yet. At the moment I don't even want to be tied down with a boyfriend, let alone a husband!

My dad is a senior partner in a corporate law firm while mom is RN working in hospital administration so money has never been an issue during my upbringing. OK, we may not sail a yacht or live in a multi-million dollar mansion but I've always had pretty much anything I needed - and most of what I wanted (STILL working on that car though!).

Although I've never had to hold down a mundane job such as being a waitress or a store clerk, my parents have always insisted I do something to learn responsibility so I baby-sit a lot. Don't laugh - babysitting is NOT that easy and it brings in more money than most kids earn at the mall (and it's tax-free).

Speaking of my parents...

2. About My Parents

What can I say except that they are the greatest parents in the world! (OK, I'm a bit biased but who can blame me?) Unlike most teenagers and young adults I can honestly claim that the two closest friends in my life are my mom and dad. I share everything - and I mean everything - with them. They raised me in accordance with their strong religious and moral values which emphasize respecting other people and cultures while taking full responsibility for my own actions.

As essential as these things were, perhaps just as important is what they did NOT teach me - silly taboos and any sense of moral superiority.

Over the years my parent's love for one another has matured from a teenage infatuation to a solid relationship built on a foundation of genuine affection and admiration for the other. I respect them not only for how they love one another but how they treat others as well, always holding themselves to the highest moral and ethical standards.

My parents believe strongly in their wedding vows and they have always been faithful to each other. They don't swing, date other people, or anything like that. They do have a deep sense of family unity which they have in turn passed on to me.

them together. My mom never told him about her "family" relationships until he proposed after which she disclosed her relationship with her father and sister and warned him it would continue after they married. My dad accepted the situation, undoubtedly helped by the fact he was allowed to continue with both sisters even after they were married.

A couple of years later, my aunt informed her new fiance about her incestual relationships just as my mom had done, which now included her brother-in-law (my dad). Like my mom had told my dad, Aunt Linda told him that he was welcome to have sex with her sister (my mom) after they were married.

Unfortunately soon after my cousin Kristen was born her dad became jealous and demanded that my aunt stop her incestual activities. He went so far as to threaten to leave unless she turned her back on her family! As much as she loved him, she could never do that so she filed for divorce and took full custody of my cousin.

For the first sixteen years of my life I was totally unaware of the incestuous nature of my parent's lives. Of course I knew that my aunt was very close to my parents and she enjoyed a nudist lifestyle but I certainly had no idea whatsoever that my dad was having sex with her regularly! My parents understood that no matter how they felt, we still live in a society which sees incest as a sin and so they were very discrete. Not only that, they never wanted to put me in a position where I might do something I would regret later in my life.

4. Nudity and Masturbation

My parents raised me to view sex as a natural part of life, that sex is as much a part of our being which was created by God as anything else. Indeed, it is a gift from Him which, like all gifts, is intended to be enjoyed and respected. I would never say we had an "open" household in the way some people like to describe themselves. It wasn't that we were "open" about sex, it simply wasn't an issue the way it is with most people.

Another example of how I was raised is the topic of nudity. Again, I would never say we were "open" about nudity. Instead, I was taught that nudity was nothing be ashamed of but we never roamed about nude in our house – what would be the point of that? At the same time, when we were in the hot tub we never wore bathing suits. Again, it had nothing to do with sexuality but instead a simple matter of

When I left for college, without me around my dad started fucking my cousin almost immediately and they continued throughout my freshman year. While my dad also fucked me whenever we got together for holidays and such, it wasn't until the following summer that Kristen and I learned about what the other was doing with our parents. The best part of knowing was that it also opened the door for the two of us to be together more intimately.

Since then my sex life has been incredible as our family relationships are now complete (at least on my mom's side). There have been some tough periods at school when I had to make it through sexual "dry spells" (as in no sex, not the state of my pussy) thanks to the ridiculous rules my school dictates which prohibit all forms of sex. That is not to say I follow them, just that they are a nuisance.

Fortunately my freshman year included a bi-sexual roomie who became my first lesbian relationship (besides my mom and aunt who really don't count). My boyfriend dumped me shortly after I left for college and I was separated from my parents for the first time so having Brenda to sleep with each night was a life saver for me!. Karen, my sophomore roomie, is a dedicated virgin (she wouldn't even masturbate!). Not only do we not sleep together, she won't even discuss sex but at least I have matured enough to better handle the separation from home and consequent drop in sexual activity.

It's still tough being away from home and having to rely on masturbation to relieve myself but I have found ways to deal with it. This fall as a junior I will be sharing an on-campus apartment with five other girls. There are three bedrooms which means I will have one close roomie and four others. I know a couple of the girls but not all of them so it should be interesting to see how things go. So far it looks like another year of heavy masturbation!

By now you should have figured out that my incestual relationships are restricted to my mom's side of the family. When it comes to sexual relationships my parents' families have totally opposite views. My dad's side of the family tree is your stereotypical blue collar WASP family.

6. My Uncles & Cousins

Unlike my father, who pursued a high-end lawyer career, his brothers work in construction; one as an electrician and the other a brick layer. Ultra- conservative and staunch Republicans, they fly the American flag and hate the commies. They

9. Helping Out My Dad

After the service our parents were talking and they decided to have us all over to my aunt and uncle's for a pool party. It was such a hot day I couldn't think of a better idea, not to mention the opportunity it might give for me to tease my uncle. Also, Tammy had mentioned she had a new bikini so I was looking forward to seeing her in it (although OUT of it would have been even better).

We made a quick stop home to change clothes and gather some food to take over. I ditched my dress for a pair of denim cutoffs, a pink cami, and a pair of cotton sneakers. The cami, like all of mine, was at least a size too small which made it ride up to expose my midriff while at the same time my nipples poked through like I was wearing wet t-shirt. The shorts were similar to the ones Daisy Duke made famous wearing them in the Dukes of Hazzard TV show.

As I checked myself out in the mirror I wished I LOOKED like Daisy Duke as well! Oh to be blessed with long legs and huge boobs! As I headed downstairs my mom caught a glimpse of me as I passed by the kitchen.

"Hey Kelly!" she called after me, "you know your Aunt Shari thinks I let you get away with murder as it is. I'm going to hear about it all day if you wear that little number over there. Don't you have ANYTHING that fits?"

I just laughed and grabbed the picnic basket from the table and headed down the stairs to the garage. Our house was on a steep hill so the garage was level with the basement where the family room was. The deck with our hot tub was on the roof the garage such that you went out from the kitchen or dining room to get to it. Trust me, if you don't like stairs then Pittsburgh is NOT the place for you! My dad was already in the car drumming his fingers on the steering wheel as he waited impatiently for me and mom.

"For crying out loud I swear your mother will be late to her own funeral," he griped as I hopped in the back seat of the SUV.

I giggled from behind him saying, "What's the rush dad, can't wait to see Tammy in her new bikini?"

In the rear view mirror I could see his eyes rolling but no matter how hard he tried to pretend otherwise I knew he had been thinking about her ever since the little show she had put on at church. I leaned forward and reached around the driver seat and put my hand on his crotch. Damn! His cock was hard as a rock!

"Hmmmmmm, what's my daddy been doing out here all by himself?" I asked in a sultry tone. He smiled and I continued, "So you HAVE been thinking about her. Ha! Busted!!"

He laughed and look at me in the rear view mirror replying, "Now don't get jealous, I saw you looking at her ass in church just as much as I was you little slut. I bet you were soaking wet before the sermon started!"

While he was talking I had reached my hand up the right leg of his shorts and then under his boxers until I had his stiff warm cock in my hand. He was already hard, stiff as baseball bat so I started to stroke him gently.

"Hmmmmmm daddy, is this what you want Tammy to do to you?" I purred.

His eyes were closed and his head was leaning back on the headrest as I manipulated his thick cock. It was hard for me to reach him from the backseat but I had done this lots of times before so I knew how to position myself to make it easier. He started to swell and then let out a loud groan and I knew he was about to cum when suddenly we were interrupted by a voice from the passenger side of the SUV.

"Oh for god's sake, can't I leave you two alone for even a minute these days?" my mother asked rhetorically. She had just a hint of laughter in her voice to take the edge off and I knew she wasn't really upset. "Now John, get your daughter's hand out of your pants and let's get going. We're running late so you'll just have to fuck her later when we get home."

My dad just let out a deep sigh and I took my hand out without him having to even ask. God he was so close to cumming it must have been almost painful for him to have me stop. It was tempting to just continue as I knew he was going to explode any second but I knew my mom wanted to get going, even though she was the real reason we were so late.

I sat back in the seat and strapped myself in with the seatbelt. I put my hand to my face and smelled the strong musky scent of my father on it. A chill ran through me as I thought of how wonderful it would be to just stop then and there so I could suck his cock right in the middle of the driveway. Well, like my mom said if nothing else there was always tonight to look forward to! It only took a few minutes to drive to my Aunt and Uncle's home. When we had parked my mother looked over at my dad and smiled with a twinkle in her eye.

"Well, at least you aren't quite as noticeable as when we left. Did you ever bother to think about how would you explain to your brother why you were walking into his house with your dick sticking straight out from your shorts?"

I almost burst out laughing as I thought about my dad telling his brother that he had an erection while getting stroked by his own daughter while fantasizing her was fucking his brother's thirteen year-old daughter. Now THAT would have been an interesting conversation to listen in on!

10. Changing Clothes With Tammy

We went inside without knocking and my mom went straight to the kitchen to help get lunch ready. My uncle showed up with two beers in his hands and offered one to my dad. They immediately started talking sports and quickly disappeared into the den where the large screen TV awaited them. I looked around but didn't see any sign of my cousin. Aunt Shari must have noticed my eyes anxiously darting about and called out to me.

"The kids are out back on the porch Kelly. Go call them in as lunch is ready."

I made my way out the back door and found the three of them behind the house. My cousin Rick was wearing his old high school gym trunks and a light blue tank top which showed off his tanned physique to its best. He was going to be a senior in high school this coming fall and I had a feeling the girls would be throwing themselves at him even more this year. Hmmm, I knew I certainly was willing to!

Kate and Tammy were also there, sitting on a pair of lawn chairs, still in the same dresses they wore to church. I guess they figured why bother changing twice since they would be going in the pool as soon as we finished lunch.

As usual, the contrast between the two sisters couldn't have been more evident. Kate was wearing a dress that extended just below the knee and was sitting with perfect posture and her legs discreetly crossed. Tammy, on the other hand, was sitting cross-legged in the chair with her skirt not even under her ass, little cotton panties in full view. I greeted them all and told them lunch was ready.

The four of us headed back to the kitchen which had a large eating area. It was soooooo hot outside and the pool had looked so inviting I was tempted to say heck with lunch and just dive in!

Lunch wasn't anything fancy, just some sandwiches my mom had thrown together and a macaroni salad but then with the pool to look forward to, nobody wanted to be stuffed anyway. We finished quickly and after we cleared off the table Aunt Shari told everyone to get changed and meet out at the pool.

Their house was a ranch style with three bedrooms. The master bedroom was on one side of the house and my aunt and uncle headed towards it. Rick's bedroom and the guest bedroom were on the opposite side while Tammy and Kate shared a bedroom in the basement. It was pretty small and I had always wondered why they didn't get the bigger bedroom upstairs instead of Rick. Whatever the reason was, there wasn't room for two beds on the floor so they still slept in the same old bunk beds they had been in since they were little girls. Naturally Tammy as the younger one was stuck with the upper bunk.

When we were all in the bedroom the three of us started to undress. I had my bikini in a small carry bag - it didn't have to be very big to hold it. Their bikinis were laying on dresser top where they had dumped them from the last time they were worn.

Kate was always the shy one and although she didn't make a big deal out of it, she tended to turn away whenever she was dressing and today was no different. I had no idea why she was so shy as she looked great and should have been proud to show herself off.

Tammy, on the other hand, was just the opposite as usual. It was if Kate's share of boldness had been given to her instead making for a double dose. Tammy started to strip right in the middle of the room without batting an eyelash.

Needless to say, I had no problem with nudity either and so I waited to fold up my clothes until they were all off and I was naked in front of the two of them. I didn't rush putting away my own clothes and wasn't going to put on my bikini until they were taken care of.

In the meantime, Kate had put on her bottoms as soon as her panties came down and then did the same with the top, putting on her bikini as soon as she released her bra

Tammy seemed to follow my lead, undressing at the same slow pace and doing the same ritual with her clothes as I was which served to extend the time she was nude. I loved it because it left the two of us totally naked just a few inches away from each other. I noticed she was looking at my pussy and so I decided to see where it might lead to.

"See something that interests you?" I asked her in a low calm voice.

For the past few years I had been shaving myself bald. For a while last summer I decided to try a few things new in my appearance including leaving a small "landing strip" above my pussy slit. It wasn't much but most of the guys seem to like it. That

"Well, it looks like my little cousin isn't so little anymore," I replied. "Actually, you look great and I bet the boys will be falling over when they see you!"

The reality was I wanted to tell her she looked ready to fuck but I wasn't sure what her reaction would be. Besides, Kate would have freaked!

Tammy laughed saying, "No boys. Mom told me I am absolutely forbidden to wear it anywhere but here or to let anyone see me in it. It should be OK today since it's just family."

We gathered up our towels then and I just thought about what my dad was going to be thinking when he saw his little fantasy girl prancing about like a little nymph in next to nothing. Tammy would probably be shocked if she knew! Well, no more than she would have been had she known what her older cousin had been thinking about her, especially the past few minutes.

The three of us went out together to the pool where my dad and Rick were in the pool throwing a Frisbee back and forth. Uncle Jim sat on the edge watching with his legs dangling in the water and the ever-present beer in his hand. My mom and Aunt Shari were laying out on two chaise lounge chairs, trying to work on their tans and trading gossip.

Hearing our footsteps everyone naturally turned to look at us and I noticed that my dad's eyes were fixed on Tammy. Good thing he was in the pool because I had a feeling something was getting larger under his swimming trunks! I felt a little thrill myself as my Uncle Jim gave me the same look my father was giving Tammy. This was pretty cool, two fathers checking out the other's daughter - and their own nieces at that! Even Rick, who usually tried to act all nonchalant whenever I was around wasn't able to hide his interest as I stood at the edge of the pool, checking out the water temperature.

The funniest thing, though, was my mom and aunt. My mom took one look at Tammy in her surprisingly tiny bikini and gave Aunt Shari a feigned look of horror. Fortunately I was able to overhear most of their conversation.

"Wow Shari, I didn't know you let the girls wear thongs," she said in a low voice.

Aunt Shari just shook her head with a rueful look, "Well, it's just Tammy. You know Kate, she wouldn't be caught dead in something like that. Tammy begged and begged for it and I can't believe I caved. Besides, look who's talking! You've always let Kelly wear next to nothing half the time, and not just at home. Oh well, I DID tell her though that she could only wear it at home and not in front of anyone but I told her it was ok for her to wear it today since it's just family and nobody will notice."

I almost choked as I tried to keep from bursting out laughing. Either Aunt Shari was blind or clueless. Nobody will notice - yea right! My father was practically drilling holes in Tammy with his eye, especially when she leaned over to spread out her towel on a lounge chair.

What DID surprise me, though, was seeing her brother Rick paying an unusual amount of attention to her as well. Usually he avoided his sisters like the plague but today he was looking at Tammy in a way I'd never seen him look at her before. I found myself feeling a bit of mixed emotions about that. On the one hand I liked it when he was ogling me and so I was disappointed he wasn't focused on me. On the other hand it was erotic as hell to see an older brother looking at his sister in the naughty way he was at that moment.

My dad called out to me, "C'mon Kelly, get in!"

I dipped my toe in the water. It was lukewarm so I took a deep breath and just jumped in like a cannonball. The initial shock of the cool water hit me but I quickly adjusted to it. My nipples immediately reacted and if anything my swim suit accentuated the outline of my nipples making it all the more obvious how hard they became. I swam over to my dad and gave him a hug. I let my leg slip between his and I could feel the bulge in his swim suit. I whispered in his ear, "I think there is something inside your swim suit that wants out!"

My dad knew exactly what I was referring to and he just grinned at me, pushing me away but using the opportunity to squeeze my ass as he did. For a brief moment I considered swimming back and taking care of what was hiding under that swim suit but then I remembered where I was and just had to dream about it.

We played in the pool for most of the afternoon. At one point I climbed on my uncle's shoulders and Tammy did the same on my dad's. We "fought" to knock the other off and I could feel my crotch pressed up against my uncle's neck, rubbing up against him as we moved about. Tammy's was doing the same with my dad and I bet dear old dad was nursing a raging hard-on.

My uncle was holding my legs to help me keep my balance and more than once his hands "accidentally" moved up a lot higher than necessary. A few times he even let go of my lower legs and put his hands on my thighs, getting a good feel of them in the process. Needless to say I didn't do anything to discourage him!

My dad was doing the same with Tammy and I wondered if the two brothers could see the other as they were feeling up each other's daughters? Rick soon joined in with Kate was his partner. We all were knocked over at one point and Kate was the first to recover. She was evidently not thrilled to be on her brother's shoulders so she took my place on her dad's leaving me with just Rick as a partner. We looked at each other, shrugged our shoulders and he turned to let me climb on.

This was the first time I had ever been this close to Rick and I couldn't help but admire the cut of his body and the strength he had. I wrapped my legs around his head and wondered what it would be like if he turned around to face me!

The play got rougher as we went on and finally Tammy and I were going at it, each of us pulling at the other to knock the other off her perch. We both went over together and I felt her top rip away in my hands as I was going under the water. At the same time I felt my own top pulling off as she held onto it while she fell.

Next thing I knew we were both topless in the water! We were in the shallow end so when we stood up to get air we ended up standing together naked from there waist up with the other's bikini top in our hands. It was as if time had frozen as we both stood there speechless for a moment, everyone else staring at us. It was interesting to see who was looking at who. My dad was totally locked on Tammy as my breasts were nothing new to him. My uncle and cousin though seemed to be torn between Tammy and me, their eyes shifting back and forth between my 34Bs and Tammy's training bra sized mounds.

"Tammy - get your clothes on!!" her mother yelled.

That was enough to get the clock started again and we quickly put our hands up to hide our boobs. We both burst out laughing. We had each other's bathing suit in our hands and quickly traded, slipping under the water as we put them back on. Tammy looked embarrassed but I had to admit to myself I loved it and would have preferred it if I had lost the whole suit and left it that way. Kate looked horrified at her topless sister and had her hand over her mouth to stifle a gasp.

In then end nobody really knew what to say so we just continued on as if nothing had happened. That was the end of our little game unfortunately and the rest of the afternoon passed rather uneventfully. All of us girls took some time to lay out while the guys drank beer and talked sports. We helped put lotion on each other and while it never led to anything naughty just the feel of my cousin's hands running all over me was titillating.

fingers slide past her pussy hole and up the slit of her pussy until I felt her clit under my fingertips. At the touch of my finger she jumped and finally her voice broke the silence.

"Oh Kelly, that feel soooooo good!" she sighed softly.

I saw her take one hand and move it to one of her budding breasts and begin to massage it softly. I let my finger slide down her slit until it was just outside her pussy hole and started to run it around the outer rim in small circles. She squirmed under my touch and finally I began to let it dip barely inside of her and then back out again.

Each time I would let it go a little further inside of her until finally I kept in it her, my finger about half way in her like a tiny cock. In the meantime my own pussy was craving attention so my other fingers were busy giving it a nice workout as well. I masturbated the two of us as she started to moan softly and wiggle her ass under my hand.

Had we been home alone who knows where this might have led to but suddenly the bathroom door burst open and Kate stuck her head in. With the clouded shower doors I was sure she couldn't see exactly what was going on. Thank goodness as she probably would have died on the spot. As it was she could see enough to know we weren't just washing up.

"Hey you two, supper's ready," she said. The with a more curious note in her voice she added, "What the heck are you two doing this long in there anyway?"

Tammy's butt had clenched the instant the door had opened and she stood upright instantly which ended our little session together. She turned and gave me the sexiest little smile and opened the door for us to get out.

"Don't worry sis," she said with the exasperated voice of a younger sister frustrated with her sibling, "we were just enjoying the shower. After all, what else would we be doing?"

Kate was so naive and uptight about sex I doubted that she would even think in her wildest dreams that her sister and cousin had been playing in the shower together. I'm sure Tammy was thinking the same thing which is why she asked that question. It effectively ended the standoff and we got dressed for the evening. I was back in my cutoffs and cami while the two sisters both got into similar outfits although their shorts were considerably less revealing than mine.

13. In Her bedroom Alone With Tammy

Supper was fairly uneventful. Everyone was a bit fried from the sun to one degree or another, especially the adults. At one point the conversation turned to the afternoon's activities and Rick didn't pass up the opportunity to tease his little sister.

"Remember when Kelly and Tammy pulled each other's tops off? Tammy looked soooooo embarrassed!" he said looking at her to see what her reaction would be. I noticed he didn't mention anything about me being embarrassed!

"Well, hope you enjoyed the show pervert," Tammy fired back.

"That's enough Tammy," Aunt Shari said, "Rick, stop teasing your sister." Order restored, supper resumed until we were done. My aunt got up and picked up a DVD from the kitchen counter. "Hey everyone, want to watch a DVD? I borrowed this 'Left Behind' movie from the church library today."

It was just like my saintly aunt, picking up one of the most boring and crappy movies I had ever seen. The book series were poorly written and the movie was even worse with awful special effects. I couldn't imagine getting stuck watching this stink bomb again. Fortunately, Tammy came to the rescue.

"Mommmmmm! Kelly was going to show me some things on the computer. We've already seen it anyway," she pleaded.

This was news to me but I went along with it, anything to get out of this movie. Rick bailed out by simply saying he didn't want to watch it and skulked towards his room. From what Tammy and Kate had told me before about what they had found in his room when he wasn't home, he was probably going to pull out his stash of porn and masturbate all night! Hey, nothing wrong with that! The parents and Kate went in to the living room to watch movie while Tammy and headed back to her bedroom.

"So Tammy, what did you want me to show you on the computer?" I asked.

"The girls at school were talking about people with web cams and how they watched people doing nasty things. Can you show me how to see that?"

I laughed a little, "OH? And what makes you think I would know anything about that?"

Tammy looked down for a second as if she wasn't sure if she should say something. "I heard some things at school about you and mom is always telling dad what a slut you are so I just figured you would." She stopped and put her hand to her mouth, as if she was afraid she had said something wrong.

"Oh really? So what have you heard about me?" I asked with as much nonchalance as I could muster, trying to hide my curiosity.

"Well, just that you have a bit of a reputation for, um, doing it."

I wasn't going to embarrass her anymore by making her explain what "doing it" meant. I had a pretty fair idea anyway! Instead I just smiled and we sat down at her desk by her computer. It was a bit old, probably a hand-me-down from someone else in the family, one of the blessings of being the youngest. At least they had high-speed internet from their cable company. I don't think I could even use a computer today if it was on dial-up. She didn't have Yahoo! Instant Messenger installed so I showed her how to get on-line to download it.

After I installed the program and it came time to sign in, I used my account instead of my usual home account as my friend's list there was a lot more likely to have someone available to do what she was wondering about. For that matter, there was nobody on my daily account that would! As usual I was signed in automatically as invisible and I scanned through my friends list to see who was on line. As I did, I explained to Tammy how to use the program and how it worked.

I noticed there were a lot of people signed in for a Sunday night so I changed my status to "available" and almost instantly three people popped up. I have never figured out how some people can message me so fast just after I sign in! In all the time I have chatted this way I have very rarely ever initiated a conversation.

Usually I end up having to ignore the majority of people as I can't chat with more than three or four people at the same time. Tonight was a case like that and after I answered the first three people I changed my status to "Busy" and ignored the rest of the people. It makes me feel bad to do that but what alternative do I have?

I started chatting while Tammy watched, fascinated by some of the things these guys were telling me. Her eyes widened when one guy started talking about how he had masturbated earlier thinking about me sucking his cock.

"Kelly!" she exclaimed, "Do those guys really all think about you that way?"

I couldn't help but grin at her innocence. "Yeah, isn't it cool?"

"Wow, they must really think you're sexy," she answered.

"This is nothing," I replied, "You should see what some of them will do. Watch..."

One of the guys had cammed for me a number of times in the past. He had a great looking cock and loved to send me tributes of him cumming on photos of me. I decided to be a bit more forward than usual and asked him if he was horny. That that point lapping them up like a cat with a bowl of milk. I used my hands to spread her tiny ass cheeks apart and buried my face in her crotch. She had her hands under my ass, pulling me up into her face.

This time we came together, each of our cunts convulsing as the other kept on licking it. It was simple and quick yet I will remember it as one of the most incredible 69's I have ever experienced.

Tammy slipped off of me and we laid in the bed on our sides facing one another. We kissed passionately this time, tongues meeting and arms around each other. I could taste and smell my puss on her mouth and face. Mmmmmmm, she felt so small in my arms, so tender and precious. There had been times when I had dreamed about such a moment as this that I worried whether or not it was the right thing to do.

Now that I felt her arms holding me tight and the love in her kiss I knew beyond any doubt that it was. I knew neither of us would ever forget this night as long as we lived and I would forever be the first person to have sex with her, even it wasn't intercourse. She was still a virgin and I had no intention of taking that from her with some fake dildo. For that she needed a real cock and while I previously had hopes of who it might belong to, based on some things I had witnessed today I wasn't sure about that anymore.

Suddenly it dawned on me that the movie was probably about over. After all, we weren't exactly alone in the house and in a way it was a miracle we hadn't been discovered since the door didn't have a lock on it. Reluctantly we got dressed and as it turned out, just in time as Kate came in not five minutes afterwards.

"God what a boring movie!" she said with a loud exhale. "What have you two been doing anyway?"

Kate suddenly got a funny look on her face and sniffed the air like a hunting dog on the scent. "What's that smell in here anyway, it stinks!"

"It must have been that old perfume bottle I spilled," Tammy said, the first to think of something reasonable. She quickly sprayed some air freshener. I could have kicked myself for not thinking of it earlier. With all the pussy playing in the past hour the room must have smelled something fierce of female sex. I also thought of how the two of us must smell as well and motioned for Tammy to follow me out of the room.

"Wash up with me quick and put on something. If your mother smells you she won't be fooled as easily as Kate!"

14. The Ride Home

With that taken care of we went upstairs where my parents were getting ready to go. We all hugged and told each other what a great day it had been. Well I don't know about the rest of them but I know so far as Tammy and me it was certainly one that had been all that and more!

On the ride home my mother turned around in her seat and gave me a piercing look. "OK young lady, I wasn't going to say anything with your aunt around but what the hell were you and Tammy doing? I could have sworn I heard someone moaning and then the two of you appear all flushed with enough perfume on you to gag a skunk. So what's the story?"

I giggled and my mom's eyes opened wide.

"No, tell me you didn't. Don't tell us you did anything with Tammy!" My huge grin told her everything she needed to know. "Are you crazy?, she said, her voice raising at least an octave. What if she tells anyone? You're twenty years old don't forget that even if she consented you could still get in a lot of trouble."

"Oh Mary, calm down," my dad said in a reassuring voice. "You know what Tammy is like. She's destined to be a slut, no different than your own daughter. Besides, there's nothing my stupid sister-in-law is going to be able to do about it. I think it's great she at least got off on the right foot with Kelly."

My mom just rolled her eyes and sat back in her seat with a huff. Then she turned her head to my dad saying, "Well, I guess a little girl action isn't so bad. Just you know though buster, I saw the way you were looking at her today. Hell, I can't believe Shari is so blind she didn't - and I know if she had she would have said something for sure. Let's get one thing straight - you keep it in your pants with her - OK?"

I knew personally how bad my dad wanted to fuck Tammy so I could imagine the inner turmoil in him. But there was a reason they had survived over twenty years of marriage and it wasn't just because the sex was good. My parents loved and respected each other completely and neither would ever do anything to hurt the other. I knew then no matter how much he might fantasize about Tammy in the future, Tammy was never going to feel my dad's cock in her, at least not for quite a while!

That night in bed I masturbated furiously as I recalled the events of the day. I began to plot my strategy for helping her to lose her virginity. Problem was, I wasn't even sure who it should be to take it. I had some ideas but all of them had at least one flaw that made them impossible or dangerous.

Oh well, in the meantime there was always my Uncle Jim. Who knows, maybe my cousin Rick would be interested as well...

When people hear I have sex with my family they immediately seem to assume something is weird or kinky about me or even that my parents are abusive. Nothing could be farther from the truth so rather than just explain what happened this day I think you should know a few things about me so you'll better understand the circumstances. If you want to know more I have written numerous other stories explaining my past further and my views on incest and my relationships with my parents.

1. My Life at Home

I was raised in a home environment which could best be described as sexually "open" although I hate to use that word. Sex was not something to be suppressed and hidden but rather viewed as being natural and ALWAYS to be respected. Although nudity was acceptable we rarely ran around the house naked unless sunning on the deck, soaking in the hot tub or running between the bedroom and bathroom.

My parents also taught me that masturbation was a natural response to my inner sexual nature and nothing to be embarrassed or secretive about. My parents never tried to hide from me when they masturbated; if anything they encouraging me as I got older to do the same. For instance, if my father is watching one of his porn channels, I don't mind if he strokes himself. Really, why should he just sit there suffering with his erection when he can so easily address his needs?

Similarly I chat a lot on my computer, sitting on the couch in our family room while my parents watch TV or talk. Quite often I will get turned on by someone and avoided like the plague but this morning I surprised him by asking if I could tag along.

"Are you sure Kelly?" he asked me with a curious look on his face, "You'll be the only one there besides us. Jim told me that everyone was going to be out doing things today. Rick has a game and the girls will be at some party for one of Kate's friends."

"What about Shari?" my mom inquired.

"Oh she'll be there," my dad answered, "I just didn't think Kelly would be interested in going without the kids being there, especially Tammy." My dad winked at me and my mother slapped him on the side of the head saying, "Now you know what I said about her last week!" Then she turned to me with this piercing look in her eyes and suddenly her eyebrows lifted as if a light bulb had just flipped on in her head."

"Now wait just a minute young lady, what do you have going on inside your twisted little mind this morning?" she said in a tone that indicated she already knew the answer to her question.

As for my dad, he wasn't an overpaid corporate lawyer for nothing; he immediately caught on to my mother's train of thought but his reaction was substantially different. He sucked in a big breath and then sighed saying, "Oh Kelly, you're not thinking about trying to seduce my brother are you? Mind telling us just what made you suddenly dream this one up?"

I couldn't help but smile and roll my eyes. God, am I really THAT transparent these days? I couldn't believe how fast my parents deduced my true intentions but then if I am honest with myself, why shouldn't they? At this point though I still wasn't sure where they were heading so I figured I may as well go for it and find out.

"Well, you guys must have noticed how Uncle Jim is always looking at my ass and down my tops whenever he can?"

My dad tried to suppress a smirk and my mom just grimaced. Yep, they had noticed!

"Then last week in the pool, don't you remember his reaction when Tammy and me "accidentally" pulled each other's tops off?"

My dad definitely remembered THAT moment, he was staring at Tammy and my uncle was drilling holes in my chest with his eyes.

"AND, did you know he felt up my crotch while we were playing in the pool and I was riding his shoulders?"

My dad smiled broadly at that last one and shook his head. "Well Kelly, I have a suspicion that most guys would look at your ass if you give them a chance. Even though they may THINK about fucking you, it doesn't mean they would. Just because Jim let himself get carried away once in the pool doesn't mean that he meant anything serious by it. I know for a fact that Jim has never cheated on Shari, even though their sex life has been crap for years - and don't you DARE mention that to anyone by the way! It could be very awkward for all of us if you tried anything and he didn't go along with it."

My face must have betrayed my disappointment. I'd been masturbating all week dreaming up ways to seduce my uncle and now I couldn't believe my own dad, the last person I would expect this from, was the one putting a cold towel on my dreams.

I looked to my mom for support; if anything I thought she would be the one to encourage me since if I brought my uncle into our special family circle then she would have another cock for herself as well. My mom hadn't fucked another guy besides my dad in the past twenty five years and although I knew she loved my dad unconditionally, having another cock was something she certainly dreamed about.

My mom has confessed to me how she wished they had been able to have another child and that it would have been a boy so when dad was having sex with me she could have had him as well. I use to dream in bed what it would have been like to have a brother. I could never decide which would have been better - an older brother who would have taken his younger sister or a younger brother who I could teach and let him experiment with me.

My dad started to laugh. "Oh come on, don't even try your pouting look on me this morning. OK... I tell you what; you can come with me and do whatever your dirty little mind can dream up but you have to promise me one thing - if he resists at all, even just a little bit, you have to quit and pretend it was all just a joke or something."

We both jumped at the sound of a coffee cup slamming down on the table. My mom looked at him with her eyes open incredulously. "Good lord John, you've GOT to be kidding! Excuse me but just what were you planning to do about Shari? God, she would have a seizure if she caught Kelly just teasing Jim let alone anything else your horny daughter might be planning."

My mom could see that my dad had made up his mind though so she finally she gave up protesting and just shook her head saying, "Well, I had better come with you two. After all, someone has to make sure Shari is occupied."

She paused and seemed to think it over one more time and then said with a note of resignation, "Well, I just hope the two of you know what the hell you're doing."

I got up and gave my mom and dad each a big hug and a kiss, thanking them for being so wonderful and supportive. Once again my parents proved why they are the best in the world! In describing it now the whole situation seems surreal. I mean, how many husbands and wives sit around the breakfast table debating whether to not their daughter should fuck her uncle?

Even for my family this was opening up new territory since other than my one time with Tammy, nobody on my dad's side had ever been involved with us sexually. There was certainly an element of danger but the rewards were so promising it was worth it in my mind.

3. Getting Off On-Line

The ballgame, or whatever it was, didn't start until sometime in the afternoon so there were still a few hours to kill before we headed over. I decided to go up to my room and chat on-line for a while. There were a few people available and as usual, everyone started out with, "How are you?" or some variation on the theme. Ugh! I get soooooo tired of answering that question twenty times a day.

I recently was chatting with another girl who has her own web site and she even has posted a notice on her site begging people to be original and NOT ask that question. As usual most of the guys just wanted to meet and fuck me. I have spent hours writing up articles on my web site explaining my views on that but nobody listens!

Just as I was about to log off in exasperation a good looking guy volunteered to cam for me and I played with myself lightly as I watched him masturbate. I don't think I will ever get bored watching men masturbating on-line for me to watch. Seeing a guy stroking his erect cock, telling me how badly he wants me to suck it, how much he wants to fuck me with it, is so incredibly erotic for me even though in reality he knows so little about me. I'm not afraid to admit it boosts the ol' ego knowing that I'm sexy enough to excite him to the point where he cums all over himself - just for me! I can't believe that any girl, no matter whether she is a prude or a slut, could possibly watch such a show and then honestly say that it didn't turn her on - not to mention making her horny as hell.

A number of people also send me pics of their spouse and family which is also a big turn-on for me. It makes it so much more personal for me to know their families. For married men I get turned on seeing pics of the wife he is willing to betray just to be with me. I love looking at them, imagining his wife catching him fucking me, then forced to watch me seducing her unfaithful husband, watching me take his lust which should have been given to her. Sometimes I dream of being with their son or daughter too. Well, it never hurts to fantasize!

4. Showering With My Dad

After cumming as I watched him and then chatting with some other people, I decided to check out just how horny my dad still was this morning. As usual he had woke me up to fuck me but I could always go for another round! My mom had stayed in the kitchen to clean up after breakfast and was probably on the phone with a friend

I saw my dad go into the bathroom and soon afterwards the shower started. Shutting doors was not something we bothered with so by looking out my bedroom door across to the bathroom (which was directly across the hall), I watched as my naked father stepping into the shower. His cock was hanging loose from his thick cluster of coarse black pubic hair and my mouth watered at the sight of it, not to mention the twinge I felt between my legs!

I waited for him to get started with his shower and then stripped off the t-shirt I had been wearing this morning and walked silently into the bathroom. I could see the blurred image of my nude father through the wet shower stall doors and my hand instantly reached between my legs where my pussy was still wet from my recent on-line shenanigans.

I knocked on the glass shower door and asked, "Hey, want some company?"

The door slid open a few inches and my dad peeked out with a big grin on his face. "Sure! There's always room in here for my little girl!"

"Dad! I'm twenty years old now!" I protested, although not very hard.

He just smiled and said, "It doesn't matter how old you are, you'll always be my little girl." He opened the door enough for me to get in. The shower stall really wasn't all that large so it was impossible to be in there without our bodies touching. I could feel his cock pressing against my back as I leaned back against him. Damn! He was already hard!

Those were the words I craved, a compliment that meant more to me than anything. I want desperately to please my father and to hear him tell me what a wonderful daughter I was to him was the sweetest thing he could say to me at this moment. I would do anything to make him happy, give myself to him in any way he asked, anywhere he wanted me, anything to have my daddy's love.

Finally I felt his ass tighten under my hands and he pulled my head into his crotch, driving his cock even deeper into my mouth. I felt his cock surge in my mouth as a huge load of cum surged down my throat, almost gagging me with the warm sticky fluid. It was followed by another and yet another stream of his cum, overflowing my mouth already filled with his hard cock. The cum dripped out of the corners of my mouth and down to the bottom of the shower stall where it was washed away down the drain. I kept his cock in my mouth and continued sucking him after he had finished cumming.

He jumped a bit and groaned loudly when suddenly the door slid open and my mom popped her head into the opening saying, "Well I should have known. For heaven's sake can't you two EVER be in the same room without going at it?"

I let my dad's now soft cock slip from between my lips. My dad turned off the shower and I looked up at her, still on my knees holding my dad's ass with a big grin on my face, "Sorry mom... just couldn't resist."

My mom just laughed and opened the door the rest of the way. "Well, if you two are about finished, how about letting me have the shower?"

I stood up and gave her a kiss. As she opened her mouth to touch tongues I spit some of my dad's cum into her mouth. She swallowed it down and smiled at me. My dad and I got out of the shower and she closed the door to get cleaned up.

My dad smacked me on the ass playfully saying, "Well, get going and get dressed if you want to come with me!. Then he added on with a grin, "Well, on second thought, don't get TOO dressed!"

I giggled and ran off into my room where I tried to decide what to wear as I dried my hair. At first I just let it hang naturally at first and then on second thought I pulled it back into a ponytail and looked into the mirror, holding it back with one hand. Something about a ponytail makes me look a couple of years younger so I decided to keep it that way.

5. Getting Dressed

Rummaging through my dresser I pulled out a pair of denim cutoffs that should definitely attract some attention. Not only were they cut ridiculously short, leaving barely any material in the crotch and letting my ass cheeks hang out, but they were ripped in a few places in the ass which was going to let my bare butt show through since I had no intention of wearing any panties today.

I debated between a tight cami and a tube top. Each had their strong points but it seemed like everyone was wearing a cami these days so I went with the tube top. It was only a few inches wide so it didn't cover much but then I didn't want it to anyway. The thing I liked about it was I (or someone else?) could easily slide it up or down off my breasts, depending on the situation and whether I wanted to strip or just give someone access.

I finished the outfit off with my sneakers and looked at myself in the full length mirror on the back of my bedroom door. Well, if nothing else I knew my Aunt Shari would be horrified when she saw me and normally that would have been satisfaction enough. She was always lecturing my mom about for letting me dress like a slut but my mom just ignored her. Today though I had more on my mind than upsetting Aunt Shari. If Uncle Jim didn't get the hint when I wore this outfit, it was indeed a lost cause!

My parents were already down in the basement in the family room waiting for me. My mom was also in a shorts outfit with a plaid blouse which was not nearly as revealing as mine to be sure. My dad had jean shorts and a Pitt college t-shirt on so we looked like a typical all-American family heading out for a day at the park.

Both of my parents looked me over as I entered although I think with different inspection criteria. Mom just rolled her eyes, probably anticipating the lecture she was sure to get from Aunt Shari later on. My dad smiled and walked over to me, grabbing my butt with his strong hand.

"Now THAT'S what I call a pair of shorts!" he declared, "You've always had a sweet ass and these are perfect for showing it off."

6. Flirting With My Uncle

We all got in the car and drove over to their house. Shari met us at the door and as soon as she saw me I saw her lips purse and her eyes narrowed. I had the distinct feeling she was already preparing her speech for mom! She and mom went off to the kitchen while my dad and I headed into the family room where Uncle Rick was already watching TV.

My dad was leading and since the chair was facing away from the door, Uncle Rick didn't realize at first that I was with my dad. They bear-hugged and my uncle started in about how great the game was going to be and all that jabber when my dad interrupted him and pointed over to where I was hanging back at the doorway.

"Hope you don't mind but Kelly asked if she could watch the game with us," he said.

My uncle turned his head and saw me. His eyes widened involuntarily and I noticed they immediately dropped to my ass before he caught himself and said, "Sure John. Come on in Kelly! Didn't know you were interested in the game or we would've invited you in the first place."

I walked in and plopped down on one of the couches. Their family room was laid out almost exactly like ours was with two recliners positioned in front of the big screen TV and a couple of couches on the side walls. I sat Indian style with my legs crossed under me which I knew gave him a great view of my crotch. The crotch material was so narrow that if I wasn't shaved then I would have had pubic hair flowing out from each side. I smiled coyly with a glance at my dad who was enjoying the view just as much as my uncle.

"Well Uncle Jim," I said softly, "just goes to show there's a lot of things that interest me you may not know about."

I left it at that and hoped he got the message. As the game started I noticed several times that Uncle Jim was eyeing me but trying not to be TOO obvious about it. I naturally pretended not to notice but made sure my legs were always spread wide apart for him. After about twenty minutes I excused myself to go to restroom but what I really did was just turn the corner and listened to them.

"Fuck John," my uncle exclaimed, "Kelly has really grown up. I don't know how the hell do you do it. I mean, sure she's your daughter and all but you can't not see she's sexy as hell."

I could hear my dad laugh a bit at that. "Yea, and it's hard to believe her mother was younger than her when I married her."

"Yea, she does remind me of her mom back then," my uncle agreed, "Shit, remember the times we had together with the sisters back then?"

My ears perked at that. I knew my uncles had fucked my mom and her sister when they were teens before my dad married Mom but they never really said much about it. I was hoping to get more details but my uncle switched the conversation back to me again - not that I minded the subject material!

"You know Kelly drives Shari absolutely bonkers the way she dresses and teases when she's over here. She also complains that she's a bad influence on the girls, especially Tammy. So just between us, is she just a tease or what?"

My dad must have been hesitating to answer because Uncle Jim pressed him for an answer saying, "Oh come on John, we're brothers so spill it!"

"Well...," my dad strung him on for a bit longer but then he said, "she is certainly a tease as you can see today. Now don't tell Mary but she puts her mother to shame in the slut department. Believe it or not she tells us everything when she comes home from a date - and I do mean EVERYTHING. I have to tell ya, it gets pretty hot sometimes!"

Uncle Jim whistled softly. "Damn!... I have to tell ya John, if she weren't your daughter I would be seriously considering cheating on Shari. I've kept my dick at home so far but a girl like her would be worth it."

I held my breath, knowing that I couldn't stay away much longer and at the same time, this was a great opening if my father wanted to use it. Good old dad, he never missed anything. "So what does her being my daughter have to do with anything?" my dad said. A long pause passed and finally my uncle made the next move. "Ah John... are you saying what I think you are?"

I would have loved to be able to see them, to see the looks on their faces. My dad probably was looking all smug and mysterious, leading his brother on while Uncle Jim was hopefully starting to get hard at the thought of fucking me and now suddenly realizing that maybe there was actually a chance of it!

"Well, why not" my dad replied. "She's IS twenty you know, not a teenager anymore, so she can do who she wants. Besides, she thinks you're hot although god help me if I know why."

I didn't hear anything but my uncle must have given my dad a questioning look because my dad continued on, "Well, I told you she tells us everything. Remember last time we were in your pool and you had your hands between her legs? Well, that was all she could talk about when we got home. Just how high DID you reach between them anyway you sex fiend? She was really turned on is all I know!"

I figured the die was cast so no need to wait any longer. I coughed and then walked back into the room as if I had not heard a word of what they had been discussing. I noticed immediately that my uncle was sitting with his legs crossed, most likely so I wouldn't notice the hard-on he probably had at the moment.

I acted naive and innocent saying, "Um, why are you both staring at me?" I shifted my weight between my feet which had the effect of making my hips move back and forth seductively. "Did I do something wrong?"

"Oh no!" they both said in unison.

It was like catching two kids with their hands in the cookie jar but declaring they were innocent. The truth was written all over their faces. Instead of getting back on the couch, this time I laid down on the carpet in front of them with my legs bent up at the knees and spread just enough to let them have a partial view of my crotch. With my legs like this my shorts were pulled up deep into my pussy slit and it must have looked like I had nothing on at all.

Suddenly I heard Aunt Shari coming and I quickly crossed my ankles so she didn't see what I had been showing her horny husband. She was carrying a tray of chips and salsa and put them on the table between the two recliners. She asked how the game was going but was clearly bored by it and didn't hang around very long. As soon as she was gone I resumed my position, spreading my legs just a bit more to give them an even better view of my crotch.

A few minutes later it was my Dad's turn to excuse himself, muttering something about only renting it. As he walked by me he reached down and spanked my bottom. I squealed like a schoolgirl and pretended not to like it but couldn't help but giggle a bit. When he was out of uncle's sight he turned and winked at me. I knew what that meant - "go for it girl!"

Well, it was now or never. Still laying on my stomach, I reached my hand underneath me and between my legs and then started to rub myself through my shorts. I would have rather pulled them to one side and touched myself directly but the shorts were so damn tight the crotch material was already stretched between my pussy lips so I just rubbed around them. I was already pretty worked up from listening to them earlier so I was damp and easy to slide over.

It always feels good to touch myself so it wasn't long before I was squirming on floor but so far my uncle didn't say a word and I didn't hear anything except for what sounding like him shifting his weight in the chair. It wasn't long before my Dad came back. He made enough noise for me to hear him coming so I stopped playing with myself just before he entered the room again. I sat up on the floor after he was back in his chair. My uncle's face was a little red and I smiled at him coyly. Then I walked over to my dad and put my hands on my hips.

"Daddy, do you mind if I sit on your lap for a while?" I asked him.

I looked over at my uncle who had a questioning look on his face, probably wondering what a twenty year-old girl was doing asking to sit on her dad's lap.

"Sure babe," he responded and positioned himself in the chair for me.

I sat down such that I was sideways in the chair with my legs over the arm of the chair and his arm behind my back. I was actually facing away from Uncle Jim at this point so he couldn't see the expression in my face. I smiled at my dad and stuck my tongue out like I was trying to lick something. He got the message - I wanted to lick my Uncle's cock!

Mmmmmmm, I could feel my dad's cock growing under me. For a moment I considered touching it but then common sense returned as I knew that as hot as my uncle may be over me, he still was light years away from being ready to know that his brother was fucking his own daughter. After about fifteen minutes or so my dad complained that I was getting too heavy for him and I needed to get off. I protested that I wanted to sit in his lap when my uncle came to my "rescue".

"Hey Kelly, you can sit on my lap if you want to," he offered.

Bingo!! He finally made a move and my heart fluttered as for the first time today I was certain that it was going to happen! It was just a matter of time now, time to go through the little games men and women play which lead up to the ultimate moment they both want from the start but have been conditioned all their lives not to say directly.

I looked at my dad and he just smiled and shrugged his shoulders as if he had no say in the matter. Oh yea, as if he had nothing to do with getting things along as far as they were so far!

Just as had I sat with my back to my uncle when I was on my dad's lap, I did the same on my uncle's lap. I knew it would frustrate my dad who probably had hoped to watch everything but I knew my Uncle Jim was still going to be a bit shy circles on the soft skin of my inner thigh. I closed my eyes and moaned softly to let him know I was enjoying it. I tilted to the side so my hand could reach underneath my butt and press down on his crotch.

I was pleased to find that he was erect; indeed I would have been deeply disappointed if he hadn't been! I traced the outline of his cock against his shorts and saw his eyes widen. He started to take his hand off my leg but I used my other hand to put it back on my leg again. I started rubbing him through his shorts, still not saying a word.

7. Crossing the Line - Sucking My Uncle's Dick

"Uh... Kelly...I don't know about this," he stammered. Evidently he was having second thoughts. I twisted my head around and saw my dad watching our every move.

"It's ok, isn't it daddy?" I asked my dad, "Tell Uncle Jim it's ok."

"Of course babe, do whatever your Uncle Jim wants Kelly." He chuckled for a second, "After all, I KNOW what you want!"

I turned my attention back to my uncle saying, "C'mon Uncle Jim, I've seen the way you have looked at me in the past. You want me and I know it. Time to quit playing games."

I could tell from his expression that my uncle was having a fierce moral debate within himself. I have no doubt he has masturbated in the past thinking about me, especially after the "lost top" accident in their pool the last time I was there and I was sure he wanted me.

On the other hand he had two huge conflicts. First, of course, was that he was married but I knew from past experience how easily that barrier could be overcome! The bigger problem he seemed to be having was the fact that I was his niece. No matter how horny he may have gotten over me before, it was an entirely different thing to make a move on a girl whose father was your brother - and he was sitting right next you!

"John, you really sure about this?" he asked yet again.

My dad let out a deep breath in frustration. "For crying out loud I told you before she's twenty and can do what she wants. You don't need my permission. Sheesh, what happened to my sexual daredevil brother? Damn boy, Shari's got you pussy-whipped!" Uncle Jim snorted at that but my dad kept on. "Shit, don't give me that! Now are you going to fuck her or not? If so you'd better get going before your missionary-only wife decides to return!"

I've heard it said numerous times that life is stranger than fiction and boy was I getting a lesson in that today! I have dreamed of fucking my uncle for years and masturbated more times than I can remember fantasizing about how it would be the first time we did it.

Well, absolutely NONE of those dreams had ever come even close to what was happening now in real life! My fantasies centered around me teasing him or him spying on me in private, all of which eventually led to our first sexual encounter. In some of those dreams my aunt was nearby but always safely tucked away, involved in something or another that kept her away from us as long as was needed.

My parents were never involved in these dreams, at least not the "first time" ones. Well, now that it was really happening everything was upside down. My mom and aunt were in another room and could walk in at any time with little or no warning. Hopefully my mom was handling things but with my stubborn Aunt Shari you never could be sure.

My dad was acting more like my pimp than my father; practically daring my uncle to fuck me right in front of him. The whole thing was like some bizarre fairy tale which was starting to make me feel a little out of control, not a sensation I enjoy to be honest. My head was spinning as I tried to take everything in - my uncle's hand which was now pressed tightly on my wet pussy, rubbing my clit though my shorts and driving me crazy; my dad watching and doing who knows what else by now; and finally there was my mom and aunt having coffee, my aunt having no idea that her husband was not only about to commit adultery for the first time, but with his own niece at that.

To make it even worse (at least front her perspective), two of what she considered to be mortal sins were about to take place just a few rooms down from where she was!

Well, the cards had been dealt and I had to play the hand I was given or fold. Quitting was NOT an option at this point - we had all crossed the line and now there was no "the jury will disregard the pervious events" proclamation that could be made. I put my mouth to my uncle's ear and whispered the two words I knew were guaranteed to turn on every heterosexual male...

"Fuck me!" I whispered hoarsely, "I want you to fuck me Uncle Jim."

My dad was smiling. Although he couldn't hear I am sure he knew what I was saying - after all he had heard those same words himself many times and I knew they never failed to do the trick.

Today was not going to be an exception either from the response I got from my uncle! His hand cupped my whole crotch and he pulled upward, gripping my whole pussy in his hand and sending a surge of pleasure through me as my clit was compressed under the pressure of his hand. I got out of the chair and dropped my shorts as he watched. I pulled my tube top down such that it encircled my torso just below my boobs.

"So what do you think Uncle Jim?" I asked seductively. I wasn't really looking for a verbal response as the lust in his eyes and the bulge in his shorts was all I had to see. It was time to free that bulge so I unzipped his shorts.

He lifted his hips to help me to pull them down to his knees. He was wearing boxers which quickly followed his shorts revealing a nice hard cock surrounded by a lush bush of coarse pubic hair. Hmmmmmm, the family resemblance was uncanny! With the recliner down Uncle Jim scooted to the edge of the chair so his balls hung free and his cock was sticking straight out, all hard and ready for me!

I kneeled in front of him and held his cock with one hand, playing with his thick thatch of pubic hair. I cupped his balls in my other hand and gently rolled them with my fingers, careful not to squeeze them too tightly. I looked up at him with a smile on his face and he was staring at me, licking his lips unconsciously in anticipation of what we both knew I was about to do. He glanced quickly over to my dad who now had his hand down his shorts, getting himself off as he watched his daughter preparing to give his married brother the best blowjob of his life.

"Oh fuck, you can't do this!" he whispered but he didn't do anything to back up his words.

I just smiled in reply and let my mouth go to work on him. I took his head into my mouth and felt him jerk as my tongue immediately went to play over him. I believe that using my tongue is the most important element of a good blowjob. Too many girls seem to think all they have to do is use their mouth like another vagina and just stroke the guy in and out. Sure that eventually works but they are missing the one element that I'm told makes a blowjob so satisfying when done well - using the snake in my mouth to caress and toy with every sensitive area of his cock. Just as most girls (me included) love having their clit played with when being fucked, guys

Sperm was dripping from my chin so I used his cock to scoop it back into my mouth. I opened my mouth one more time to show them both his present to me as it pooled on my tongue and then swallowed it down.

Uncle Jim leaned back in the chair, panting and sweating. I wasn't finished yet, he hadn't fucked me and not only did I want it, frankly I felt I'd earned it. I stood up in front of him and reached for his head with both hands and then pulled him to my hungry pussy. His tongue reached out and licked my pussy slit, reaching my clit and my knees went weak as an instant orgasm hit me.

Uncle Jim wrapped his arms around me and pulled my pussy tightly into his face, smearing my pussy cum all over it and letting his tongue lap me like a cat with a bowl of milk. He was damn good, I had to give him credit for that! I lifted my right leg up onto the seat next to him to give him better access to my pussy and he drove his talented tongue further up inside of me. He wiggled it inside of me and I pulled his head even tighter into my crotch, trying to drive him even deeper. I could feel myself starting to cum again and I wanted it to happen badly.

"Don't stop," I begged him in a hoarse whisper, "Please don't stop now... make me Cum...oh God please make me cum hard Uncle Jim."

Naturally he couldn't answer with his face buried in my pussy but I knew he heard me from the way his tongue moved even faster and deeper into me. His nose was pressed against my clit, rubbing it simultaneously as he his tongue flicked in and out of my pussy.

I moaned, almost letting it loose but somehow remembering I couldn't as I sank into a haze of sexual pleasure. Nothing existed for me at that moment but the feel of his tongue on me. Each time it touched me was like a jolt of electricity shooting through me, giving me the most incredible sensations that I only feel during sex.

This is what drives me to sex, what makes me plead for it and beg for it if need be; what forces me to masturbate every opportunity I have. It is like a drug that sends me to an incredible high and leaves me wanting it again and again and again. My pussy gushed cum onto my uncle's face, covering his face with it and he licked it up as best as he could. Finally it subsided and I returned from wherever it was my orgasm sent me to see my uncle looking up at me. His face glistened with my cum and he licked his lips along with a huge smile on his face.

"Cum hard?" he asked.

"Oh yea," I answered, "but not nearly as hard as I will when you fuck me."

Uncle Jim looked over at my dad saying, "Are you sure John? Sorry, I just feel strange doing your daughter."

8. My Uncle Fucks Me

My dad is so wonderful! How many fathers would not only offer their daughter to their brother but proudly watch and get off at the same time? He just grinned at his brother, "Go for it Jim, remember you owe me one!"

My uncle laughed and I wondered if he realized just how serious my dad was OR how soon he hoped to capitalize on the favor his brother was going to owe him! I felt good though knowing that not only was I going to finally get fucked by my favorite uncle, but it looked like it might help my dad realize one of his dreams as well. Cool!

I turned around to show my ass to my uncle. At his age I wasn't sure how quickly he was going to be able to recover from his first orgasm but I need not have worried. His cock was rigid again and sticking up from his lap like a firm fleshy banana. Mmmmmmm, he was ready to go and so was I! I moved backwards into him and bent my knees to lower myself down to him. He put one hand on my pussy, spreading the lips apart with his fingers and the other on his cock to guide it home. I lowered myself until I felt the head pressing against my pussy and then I paused, savoring the moment.

"You ready to fuck me Uncle Jim?" I asked in a little girl voice. Then I changed to my patented slutty voice and purred, "Mmmmmmm, I know you've been wanting to. You wanted to in the pool, didn't you."

"Oh hell yes, but I think you want it just as bad you little slut," he said, "Now quit yakking and sit on my cock."

Mmmmmmm, he was definitely into it now. I loved the "slut" comment as I could never have imagined him calling me that in front of my parents before. I obediently lowered myself down, the weight of me forcing his hard cock to penetrate me. Like my dad, he wasn't especially large but he was more than adequate. I felt that familiar pressure between my legs, forcing them apart as this warm hard piece of flesh violated me.

This was always one of the best times when I am fucked, that first time a guy enters me and I feel my body resisting, trying to keep the invader out, then being overcome and yielding to it, welcoming it and absorbing it. The ridge of his cock head passed into me and then I just dropped down to drive him into me in one fast motion.

I sat on his lap, my body literally impaled on his dick like a corn dog on a stick. Looking down, I tried to imagine how his cock looked inside my pussy, looking at my belly knowing that just inside was my uncle's cock, throbbing and moving in me. I rose up again until he was barely in me and then lowered myself down again as slowly as my trembling legs would let me. I repeated this several times until I heard him groaning behind me and then speeded it up until I was literally bouncing on his lap. My ass made a slapping noise each time I hit his lap and he would grunt when I would drop my full weight down upon him.

After doing him this way for a while I lifted myself off and turned around. My pussy was screaming at me to get his cock back in it again so I straddled him and put my knees on the chair on each side of him and lowered myself down and started fucking him again. He held my ass in his hands, squeezing my butt while he sucked on my nipples, alternating back and forth between them. I had one hand on his shoulder and the other fondling my clit as I rocked back and forth on his cock which had the same effect as lifting myself up and down but without all the hard work.

I looked over at my dad and he had his shorts pulled down now and was jerking his cock faster. It was so cool to see him pleasuring himself as he watched me fucking his brother! It must have been like when they were teens except now instead of it being my mother they shared it was her daughter. The second generation had arrived and for a brief second I wondered if someday my daughter would be in this position. But that was a fantasy for another day as Uncle Jim grunted for me to get up and he traded places with me.

I laid back in the chair until my pussy was at the edge and my feet were on the floor. Uncle Jim spread my legs far apart and put his finger into my pussy, stroking it in and out of me while he jerked his wet cock. He then put two of the them in me and used them to spread me open again for his cock to reenter me. I lifted my head to watch as he rubbed the head up and down my pussy slit and tickled my clit with it. Then he pushed it into me as I watched and felt it disappear into me.

I love watching myself being fucked, knowing that he is actually inserting a part of his body deep into mine. For a few moments we are joined as one, two people coupled in a way only sex can make them. I thought for a moment about my uncle fucking me, how it was the first time I had another cock in me that was from someone in my family other than my dad. All those years of teasing and flirting and now he was finally fucking me, mating his niece. I simply felt wonderful!

Just as I thought it couldn't get better, my dad's lust finally got the better of him. He got out of his chair and stood to the side of me. He was stroking his hard cock next to my face and I reached to grab it. My uncle kept fucking me as he watched in amazement as I pulled my dad's cock to my mouth and started to suck it. This was now heaven - my dad's cock in my mouth and his brother's in my pussy.

My dad must have been close to cumming which is probably what drove him over the edge and it was only a few minutes before I tasted his familiar cum in my mouth. Uncle Jim was watching wide-eyed but he wasn't about to stop fucking me no matter how weird things got for him. My dad groaned as he unleashed his love for me.

Normally I would have taken him in my mouth but I think he wanted to show off a bit for his brother as he pulled out and shot his loads all over my face. I could feel it dripping down my cheeks and one shot almost hit me in the eye! I stroked his cock, milking every drop from him. I licked the finals drops as they emerged and smiled up at them both.

Uncle Jim was pounding me now and I knew he was about to cum soon from the intensity of his strokes and his heavy breathing. I kept fingering my clit furiously, determined to cum with him. I wanted him to cum inside of me and so I panicked for a moment, afraid he might pull out when he came.

"Cum inside me Uncle Jim," I begged, "PLEASE stay in me. I want your cum in me."

His pounding of me continued but he was able to gasp, "You protected?"

My dad helped me out on that one. "Hell Jim, she's been on the pill since she was fourteen! Give some credit man."

I was starting to cum and I wanted him to cum as well. It turned out perfectly; just as my back arched upwards from being consumed by the sexual pleasure of my orgasm, he started to ejaculate which was like putting the afterburners on for my orgasm. The most intense pleasure I can feel comes from having an orgasm but the best orgasm happens when a man starts to shoot his hot sperm in me right as I peak.

It takes perfect timing but this was one of those times when everything worked out and I groaned loudly as I lifted my hips up to meet his wonderful cock, that beautiful cock that was pouring his seed into me. I didn't care who heard me or what happened, all I cared about was making it last, making this fantastic feeling stay in me as long as possible. My hips gyrated under him, circling around his cock. My pussy gripped him hard, squeezing his cock to force every drop of semen from him.

Eventually all good things must pass and so it was with our sex. I laid back on the chair, motionless and totally drained. His cock slipped from my pussy and for just a moment it felt like a part of me was missing, as if his cock had merged with my pussy and now something had been taken away. I opened my eyes and saw my uncle standing in front of me, pulling his underwear and shorts back up quickly.

"Hurry up and get dressed Kelly, I can't believe nobody heard you!" he whispered, a worried look in his face as he glanced towards the door to the hallway.

9. Almost Caught

I sat up and saw that my dad had his shorts back on place as well. Fortunately it only took a few seconds to put on my shorts and lift my tube top back in place; just as I laid back down on the couch my mom appeared at the doorway!

"What the hell are you guy doing?" she asked, a perturbed look on her face. My uncle looked like someone had punched him in the stomach but he had it all wrong. He thought my mother knew nothing about any of this and that she was about to kill us all. She saw my uncle's look and laughed.

"Oh don't worry Jim, I know all about what's been going on in here. Why do you think they brought me with anyway? Somebody had to keep Shari busy! Speaking of whom, she'll be here in a second so behave yourselves!"

Just as my mom had predicted, Aunt Shari showed up about a minute later. She looked a bit puzzled saying, "What's going on? Sounded like someone was dying in here! How am I supposed to carry on a conversation with Mary with all this racket?"

My uncle explained that the game was going badly and that we were maybe getting too emotional but that we would quiet down for them. He was careful not to look at me as I am not sure he could have kept a straight face if he had!

Aunt Shari went back to the kitchen in a huff. Before my mom left she went over by my dad, smacked him playfully on the side of the head and said, "I can't believe you stayed in here, I figured you would join Shari and me. Couldn't resist watched your daughter getting laid, eh?" she teased.

Then looking over at my uncle, who obviously thought he was now in some Twilight Zone episode, she continued, "I mean, it's not fair you got to watch and not me." She twirled around then and left to follow my aunt.

Finally we had a few moments to ourselves after our fucking session. My uncle looked over at his brother saying, "Damn John, I can't believe your own daughter gave you a blowjob - my god John, that's incest!"

My dad had covered for me before so it was my turn to respond saying, "Heck that's nothing Uncle Jim, he fucks me every day!"

Uncle Jim truly looked shocked at that one. "What? You're screwing you own daughter? How long have you been doing that?"

I thought my dad had better handle it from here which he did, promising to tell John all about some time over a beer. We finished watching the game without anything further. I wasn't too interested in the game actually, all I could think about was what I wanted to do with Uncle Jim the next time I was over in the pool!

control was non-existent and although people may not have known the reason why, they did now that having babies with your family members just didn't work. Today such aberrations can be prevented, or at least fixed, so I don't understand why incest is not only allowed but encouraged.

In my case I am closer to my parents than any other girl I know and I can claim them to be my best friends. There are so many families with problems and with the divorce rate so high you would think maybe the idea would get across that more love in a family would only help, not hurt! But things are as they are so my dilemma was figuring out how to overcome Rick's cultural programming.

Given the number of guys I've had sex with and the ease with which I could go out at this moment and get laid if I wanted to, someone might wonder why go through all the hassle and potential problems of trying to seduce my cousin.

For me it is more than just Rick but rather the idea of bringing our families closer together. I know how wonderful it is to have my Aunt Linda and Kristen over and now I was looking forward to seeing Uncle Jim joining in so my mom could have someone else to fuck. With Tammy now at least on her way to a more sexual lifestyle, one which I hoped to encourage and develop with her, having Rick in the mix would make it really erotic.

2. Seeking My Mom's Advice

I'd been masturbating all the past week over the possibilities, especially when it came to Tammy being with her father and brother. I wanted so bad to give them the gift I had, to help them become close as a family. But it was one step at a time and for now Rick was the next brick to be laid in my plan - literally as well as figuratively!

As usual whenever I had a problem or question I went to my mother to get her advice. Over the years we have shared everything in my life and our relationship today goes far beyond that of a typical mother and daughter. I knew if anyone could help me figure this out that my mother was the one.

One morning after my dad had woken me in his special way and left for work, instead of going back to bed for a while (or chatting on-line for a few minutes to let myself settle down), I went to their bedroom where my mother was still asleep.

I crawled in bed with her and slipped under the blankets. My mother loved heavy comforters and she kept the room pretty cool so it felt good to snuggle under them. She was laying on her side, facing her edge of the bed so I slipped up against her and fit my body next to hers. The warmth of her smooth bare skin felt so good against mine. My naked breasts pressed against her back and her ass was cupped in my crotch.

I put my arm around her and held her large breast in my hand. Her nipple was hard and I wondered what she was dreaming about! I buried my face in her hair and just laid there, enjoying the comfort and security of being close to my mom. I fell asleep this way only to wake up to find my mother on top of me, kissing my breasts and running her hands all over me.

"Good morning sleepy eyes," she said in a cheerful voice. "I woke up to find a surprise in bed with me. What's the matter, didn't your dad take care of you this morning?"

We both giggled at that. She knew better than that - my dad hadn't missed a morning with me since I got home from school. I played along though, knowing what she really wanted.

"Why don't you check for yourself?" I said coyly

My mom grinned and hummed a "Mmmmmmm" after which she moved her head to between my legs. I spread them apart for her and she started to lick me while I laid my head back on the pillow and enjoyed it. Nobody knows how to lick my pussy better than my mom, not even my dad. I don't know if it's because she is just damn good at it or if somehow as my mother she just knows what is best for me. It doesn't matter, all I know is that my mom licks pussy better than any other girl I have ever known!

My mom's also a darn good teacher when it comes to sucking cocks and I owe much of my reputation to her teachings over the years. It doesn't hurt either to have a father who provides plenty of feedback and instruction to go along with it!

We spent the next couple of hours in bed together loving one another. I will always be my dad's little girl, his only daughter who strives to please her father in every way she can. With my mom it is more mutual, more like the intimacy shared between two lovers.

It's almost how I envision it will be with my husband someday, the only man to whom I will ever "make love" too. I say "man" because I firmly believe I already have that relationship with my mom. I have a hard enough time writing about my sexual experiences as it is but I find it almost impossible to put into words how I feel about would have been thankful to anyone who would have helped me get started with my dad sooner than I did. I look at the years before I first had sex with my dad and can't help but feel remorse at all the lost opportunities, not to mention the guilt I will always have for not giving my dad what would have been the greatest gift as a daughter I could have given to my father – my virginity.

I have dreamed many times of how it would have been if I had first given myself to him, the love and tenderness he would have shown, the patience to make sure every was perfect for me, that incredible moment when I felt a cock entering me for the first time, knowing it was my father's and realizing how much he must truly me to want to do this to me.

Together my mom and I came up with a plan. I wanted to be clever and give it some sort of code name like a spy novel but nothing came to mind so we just referred to it as The Plan.

The basic element of The Plan was simple and direct – throw myself at Rick! We debated the pros and cons of more subtle approaches but figured all of them had the same basic flaw in that they gave him too much time to think about it and thus the opportunity to chicken out. We concluded that a full frontal assault (pun intended of course) was the best strategy and then it was on to how to get the job done.

We thought about waiting for another pool party or something like the TV ball game episode the other day with my Uncle Jim but decided against this. I had pushed my luck pretty far and barely escaped getting caught the last time so to do it again might bring on disaster.

One thing we agreed upon and that was that Aunt Shari could not know ANYTHING about all of this or she would probably go postal. Listening to my dad tell me the things his brother had confided in him about their sex lives, it was amazing they had been able to reproduce!

The safest approach was to get to Rick away from their house in a location that was completely private. That pretty much left just one place – our house. With the logistics in place we spent the next hour or so debating how I was to seduce Rick. When we finished we were giggling like two schoolgirls, each of us talking about how we dreamed the day would go. Well, there was no time better than the present to see if it would work so why not go for it!

3. My Mom's Puts Our Plan Into Action

My mom picked up the phone and called Aunt Shari. They chatted about nothing for a while and I teased my mom, running my fingers over her and between her legs. She slapped at me playfully and I giggled, thinking about how shocked Aunt Shari would be if she had any idea of what was going on at the other end of the line.

Eventually my mom brought up the subject of some lawn work that my dad was way behind on because of his heavy work schedule of late. She sighed as she told Aunt Shari that she had signed up for some of the boys in the church youth group but apparently they were overwhelmed with requests and never even called us back.

I could hear my aunt's loud obnoxious voice through the earpiece as she ranted about how poorly the program was bring run by the new youth pastor and how someone should do something about it. After her rant though she asked my mom if Rick could help out in any way. My mom gave me the thumbs up sign when Aunt Shari said he was even free today if we needed him.

Rick must have been in the same room because we could barely make out someone protesting in the background about having plans with friends. Aunt Shari told him to shut up and get working if he wanted a car which evidently motivated him. He would be over in an hour which left us little time to get prepared. We wouldn't want him to catch us in bed together but then again...

The truth was that my dad kept up with the yard work pretty well but my mother remembered that the deck needed some dirty sections cleaned. We usually had it professionally cleaned and sealed every year but there always seemed to be patches where it needed touchup work throughout the summer. My dad had been planning to do the work soon and so the cleaning supplies were already laid out meaning everything was ready to go. So much for the setup work – now for the bait.

As part of The Plan this was of course – me. Just like when fishing, the trick was to put the bait where the fish would take it which in this case meant the hot tub. I had the perfect bikini for the occasion, one which normally I would've never worn in public but this wasn't a public pool by any means.

My mom of course wanted to watch so she set up a chair by my bedroom window, making sure the shade for the other window in my room was pulled to keep the room dark and thus difficult to see into from the sunny outdoors. It was rather ironic that she would be watching me (or at least hopefully would be) fuck my cousin for the first time from the very same window I first watched her and my dad making love in the hot tub, a moment in my life which changed everything for me forever.

There wasn't too much else to do as we waited for Rick to show up. We had decided that the best course of action would be for me to stay out of sight at the outset and let my mom handle things so I went up to my room and started chatting, something I typically did whenever I needed to pass some time away.

Before long the doorbell rang and I could hear my mom answering it and then heard Rick's voice. She thanked him for being so prompt in helping out and led him through the house to the deck off the back of the kitchen. I moved over to the window in my room and watched as my mom showed him what had to be done. My mom, who wanted Rick just as badly as I did, had dressed up in a pair of cutoffs and a bikini top with no shoes. Although not as revealing as mine, they still showed off her assets (sorry, another pun I couldn't resist) and with her boobs being so much larger she didn't need her bikini top to be as small as mine to flaunt them.

Several times she bent over to pick up something from the deck and I almost laughed as she blatantly kept her legs straight so her ass stuck out as much as possible when she leaned over. Rick was seventeen and thus horny 100% of the time and he didn't let us down. His eyes never left her ass and when she would lean over to show him how to do something his eyes went straight to her ample bosom which she made sure left plenty of cleavage in view. The funny thing was that here he was getting teased by my mom but in the end it was going to be me he was going to fuck. Well, it wouldn't be long before he found that out for himself.

My mom left him to get to work and went inside. I had to give him credit, he was an industrious boy and went straight to work, probably hoping to get finished faster so he could get to whatever party he was missing. A few minutes later and my mom was at my side, watching him with me out the window through the shades. Rick was wearing cutoff jeans which went almost to his knees and a muscle-shirt from school. He looked so handsome and strong not to mention positively fuckable.

"Mmmmmmm, nice buns," she murmured, "You don't think I over-did it do you?"

I laughed together with her, "No way, he was soaking it all up. I loved the way he stared at your ass whenever your back was to him."

My mom smiled at that. She may be almost forty but she still has a great ass and knows it. "You know I was tempted to just take him myself and do the Aunt-nephew thing myself," she said. "I bet he would have gone for it too."

I pretended to be horrified at the prospect of not having him first and then we both broke down and laughed together. My mother was just as horny as I was so once I started playing with myself as we watched Rick it didn't take long for her to join in.

For the next fifteen minutes or so we both played with ourselves as we shared the view. It was mid-afternoon and sweltering outside so it wasn't long before he stripped off his shirt and revealed his tanned muscular frame. We both moaned simultaneously and then giggled at our joint reaction.

4. Sucking My Cousin's Dick

It was time for the next phase of The Plan. I already had my bikini on so it was just a matter of wrapping a towel around me and heading downstairs. When I opened the door to the deck and stepped out, Rick look over to see who it was and when he recognized it was me he grinned and greeted me.

"Hey cousin, how's it going?" he said.

I just said something it being OK and all and then moved over to the hot tub. "You don't mind if I use the hot tub while you're working out here, do you Rick?"

"Heck no Kelly," he replied quickly. "You can do whatever. I shouldn't be too much longer anyway This wasn't very hard, I'm actually surprised your dad couldn't get to it by now."

I asked Rick to help me with the cover and we placed it off to the side where it was out of the way. I started the pump and jets and the water quickly turned into a frothy cauldron. From this point on the plan was simple - get straight to the point as quickly as possible and simply overwhelm him.

I glanced up at my bedroom window where I knew my mom would be watching but as we hoped it was too dark to see her inside. In one quick motion I dropped my towel to the deck revealing my skimpy bikini to him. It was nice to see his eyes widen and his mouth involuntarily drop open just a bit as he looked me up and down before realizing what he was doing and diverting his eyes away. While he was trying to look like he was not trying to look at me, I stripped off my suit and stepped into the tub.

As I slowly lowered myself into the steaming hot water I smiled at him and said, "Oh! hope you don't mind Rick, but my dad has a strict rule here - no swimming suits in the hot tub. Something about soap residue or something contaminating the water. Besides, it's not all that much different between this and that little bikini anyway don't you think?"

I was fully under the water by then and the bubbles kept my body from view but not before I am sure he was able to take in a good view of my naked body. He didn't answer my question and was about to turn away when I knew I needed to keep up the pressure.

"Hey Rick, why don't you take a break and join me?" I asked him. "I know you always like to go swimming with me in your pool so it's time for me to repay the favor."

He stammered for a second and then lamely said, "Love to but I can't, I didn't bring a swimming suit."

I pouted at him and shook my finger at him saying. "Didn't I just say that my dad didn't allow swim suits in here? Come on, we do this all the time so it's no big deal - really. After all, it's not like I haven't seen a naked guy before or anything."

He was still hesitating so I kept up the pressure by standing up in the tub and letting the water and bubbles drip from me. I put one hand on my hip and the other reached out to him seductively. "Now tell me Rick, don't you want to get in here with me? C'mon, let's have some fun."

I pulled my hand in and cupped my breasts with both hands, lifting them up for him. That was enough as finally he quickly lowered his shorts and underwear which was all he had left on by then. I smiled when I looked at his crotch and saw he was sporting a huge erection. He started to cover himself with his hand and his face reddened but it was exactly what I had hoped to see.

For a moment I thought of my mother watching from above and I knew where her eyes were fixed now. He may be just seventeen but Rick was already the man of the house. His cock was easily and inch or two bigger than his dad's (or my dad for that matter) and considerably thicker as well. It was all I could do to keep from jumping out and sucking it as he stood there but that would have been too much even for The Plan.

"Don't hide it for heaven's sake," I said in exasperation, "I've been waiting for a long time to get a view of that dick and it looks like it was well worth the wait! Now get in here with me so I can get a closer view."

Rick pulled his hand reluctantly from his crock, freeing his dick which immediately stuck straight up in the air. God he was hard! Even as he walked it just trembled like a tall tree in the wind. He lowered himself into the churning water slowly, gasping at the heat. Well, time to keep up the pressure so I maneuvered myself over to him and spread his legs apart so I could slide between them.

I reached down under the water and ran my hands under the backs of his legs until they were under his firm butt and lifted him up. His head almost slipped backwards into the water before he put his arms out and held onto the sides as I kept raising his hips until his cock stuck out of the water like a fleshy periscope. It looked so inviting I didn't hesitate another second and moved forward until my mouth was over his cock.

"Ever have a girl suck this before?" I asked him.

Rick was just staring at me and he vigorously shook his head. I smiled at him seductively and took his cock into my mouth as far as I could right off the bat. He was big enough that he didn't fit in my mouth but I didn't take him down my throat right away and instead held onto the bottom quarter of his rigid cock with one of my hands as I held him up with my free one. He was helping me now, arching his back to keep his hips up out of the water so it didn't take as much effort on my part to keep his cock exposed. I started to stroke his cock in and out of my mouth and he groaned even louder.

"Oh Kelly!" was all he could say, repeating it over and over as I sucked his beautiful dick.

I looked him in the eye and held his cock in my hand as I licked my lips seductively in preparation. "Watch me," was all I said as I took a deep breath and went down on him.

I felt hic cock pressing against the back of my throat but I kept going down, another couple inches to go. I kept my eyes locked on his as I pushed his dick down my throat. No matter how many times I do this I still can't get over having a moment where I think I am going to gag but when you know what to expect it makes it easier to take and I kept pushing my head down on him. His cock filled my throat and I felt it slide downwards. Finally my lips were tight against the thick base of his cock and my nose was pressed into his wet pubic hair.

I turned my head from side to side to rub his cock in my mouth as he stared at me, not even blinking. I needed to breath so I pulled up and then took another deep breath and did it again. This time he put one hand on my head and pushed me down. I felt myself getting lightheaded and I pulled my head up against his hand and sucked in a deep breath of air.

"Fuck!" he exclaimed, "I can't believe you took it all in your mouth!! That was amazing!"

"So you've never had a girl suck you before?" I asked.

"No!" he said quickly, "I never thought one ever would, just a porn thing."

I gave him a few more good strokes with my mouth and then looked up at him again, my hand running up and down his shaft in a twisting motion. "I want you to cum in my mouth now."

"You sure?" he asked but I could tell he wanted it from the lustful look in his eyes.

No need for a reply, I went down on him again and felt his ass tightening up under my hand. He moaned loudly and I held his cock an inch or so from my open mouth, waiting for his cum. I stroked his cock with my hand and aimed it best as I could for my mouth. Just then a huge stream of cum emerged from the tip of his cock and I felt it pooling on my tongue. The next load missed and hit me on the cheek while the third one was back in my mouth again.

I took him in my mouth then and sucked his dick as he spurted several more smaller loads of his sperm into my hungry mouth. When he was finished I kept sucking on him, feeling him quiver as my tongue ran circles around the head of his cock, savoring the flavor of him.

I knew some of his cum was on my face, I could feel it dripping down but I left it there for him to see. It must be something like a male dog marking a tree because guys seem to love seeing their cum on me. I prefer it go somewhere a bit more useful like my mouth where at least I get to taste it or my pussy where I get to feel it entering me and then keep it in me for a while. This time though I wanted Rick to enjoy the moment as much as possible so if that meant leaving his cum on my face then I was more than happy to do so.

5. Rick Eats My Pussy

"My turn," I said as I took his hand and pulled him up as I moved to the opposite side of the tub. Essentially we swapped places with me laying back and letting my hips float up to the surface. My bald pussy was surrounded by bubbles of air and I spread my legs wide for him. Rick looked a little apprehensive so I helped him along a bit.

"Get on your knees and hold my butt up unless you want to do this underwater," I told him. He did and I loved the feel of his large hands as they cupped my ass and lifted me up until he had practically my entire butt clear of the water!

"Just lick it," I instructed, "Don't worry about where for now, just lick it up and down."

Rick tentatively reached out with his tongue and I felt a twinge as the tip of his tongue touched me. He licked me more like a dog, just lapping me up and down without any penetration. I reached down with one hand and spread myself apart for him. He took the hint and soon his tongue was running between my pussy lips and up and over my clit. I jumped each time he went over where my clit was growing harder by the second. I noticed he must have assumed my response meant he was doing something bad because he started avoiding it. Wrong!

"Feel that under your tongue?" I asked, "Lick under the hood where you feel that bump sticking out. Mmmmmmm, that's it, that's my clit Rick and it loves your attention."

Rick was a fast learner, I had to give him that. Before long he was sucking on my clit and trying to poke his tongue up my pussy. I glanced upwards and even though I couldn't see her I knew my mom was watching. I could imagine her playing with herself as she watched Rick eating my pussy, wishing it was hers I am sure! As horny as I was it was no surprise that even with his rather amateur oral abilities he was bringing me to a climax.

I wrapped my legs around his head, crossing my feet on top of his back with his head clamped between my thighs. I groaned as I felt myself cumming, that familiar yet never repetitious feeling of the most purest of pleasures. I arched my back further to drive myself deeper into his face and I could feel myself cumming. God it felt so good! I could feel my pussy cum gushing which evidently surprised Rick as he started to pull his head back away from me. I tightened my grip with my legs and stopped him.

"Fuck no!" I cried, "don't stop now, I'm just cumming!"

Rick seemed to understand that it was ok; hell it was a LOT more than OK, and renewed his tonguing of my pussy. I wondered what he thought about it, the taste of a girl's pussy for the first time, the taste of her cum. I loved the taste of a horny pussy, especially my own. There was something delicious and naughty about reaching under my skirt to wet my finger and then smelling and tasting it, especially when I was somewhere where I "shouldn't".

Just like I had never sucked two cocks that tasted and smelled exactly the same, so it was with pussies. My mom and aunt may be sisters but I could tell the difference between them blindfolded if you let me smell their pussies. I remembered my petite cousin Tammy a couple of weeks before and how sweet she tasted and the light odor that came from her when she was hot. It was so different compared to the stronger muskier smell of my mom. From the way he was licking me I figured Rick must be enjoying my pussy as well!

6. Rick Finally Fucks Me

Once my orgasm had finally settled down enough for me to think more coherently, I unwrapped my legs from being around him and lifted his head from my crotch with my hand. I stood up and turned around. Leaning forward, I put my hands on the side of the tub and spread my legs for him to get a close-up view of my ass and pussy. I wiggled it suggestively for him and invited him over.

"Fuck me Rick," I said loudly over the din of the hot tub, "Enter me from behind."

Rick clearly wanted to if his still erect cock was any indicator but for just a moment he seemed to panic. I knew then it was more than just fucking his cousin that he was thinking about, he was indeed a virgin! It was a long time ago that I had my first virgin and since his mother was obviously never going to take it who better than his cousin to give it to? Well, maybe Tammy would have been a better choice but I admit to being a bit selfish, I wanted him!

Rick put on hand on my hip to steady himself and I looked over my shoulder to see how he was doing. He used his other hand to guide his cock to me but when he got to my butt he seemed to stop, probably uncertain as to what to do next. I reached between my legs and took his cock from his hand. Guiding it to the entrance to my pussy hole, I centered it on target and pressed back against him slightly.

"That's it Rick, right there." I encouraged him, "C'mon, you DO want to fuck me, don't you?"

"Oh yes Kelly," he moaned, "I've wanted to do this soooooo badly, never thought it would happen!" With that he pressed himself into me. At first my pussy resisted and so he pressed harder until suddenly his cock head slipped into me. Mmmmmmm, Rick was no longer a virgin!

"Don't stop," I instructed, "Keep pushing it all the way in."

I felt his cock sliding into me, feeling my warm pussy embrace it, welcoming it finally to the home where it belonged. He was big alright! My crotch felt like it was being split apart as he penetrated me deeper and deeper. He was so incredibly hard it was like having a steel stake inside of me, one that throbbed and felt so warm! His crotch met with my ass and I felt his body pressing against mine. He had one hand on each hip now which let him rock me back and forth against his dick that had me impaled.

Male instinct took over and he began fucking me, slowly at first and then building up speed. Having just cum, I figured he would be a bit more lasting this time so I let him fuck me for a while before calling for a new position.

"Time for something new," I said.

I pushed him back and out of me and turned around to face him. I sat on the seat in the corner of the tub and put one leg up on each side of the tub, spreading myself wide open for him in the process. Motioning for him to move up, I grabbed his steel pole and inserted him into my anxious pussy. He started stroking himself once again in and out of me, faster than ever. His hand held my shoulders to steady us both so I put my right hand between my legs and played with my pussy while my other hand went to my breast and massaged them, squeezing my nipples between my fingers and pulling on them.

I could only imagine how this must have looked to my horny mother looking down from above! Between his monstrous cock slamming in and out of me and my finger on my clit another orgasm was building in me and I leaned my head back with my eyes closed as the raging fire engulfed me.

God this was incredible! So many times I had looked at him in the pool and at family gatherings and wondered what it would be like to have him in me and now he was! My pussy clamped down on him and he pushed hard to get himself back into me all the way where he just held himself while I enjoyed the feel of him throbbing in me as my body simmered with the sensations that were running through it from head to toe.

As I eased up on him he renewed his assault on my pussy and was now stroking himself as fast as he could. He wrapped his arms around my shoulders and I put mine around his waist as we pressed tightly together. He was in me deep and he stayed there for motionless for just a moment when I felt his hips lunge and he shot his cum deep inside of me. I felt a bloom of heat as his sperm emerged from his stiff cock and was propelled even deeper inside of me. Another one was followed by yet another.

I love the feeling when a man releases himself in me, mating with me and shooting his sperm deep into me in that vain attempt to impregnate me. I feel the warmth inside of me and try to imagine millions of sperm cells moving inside of me, created by someone else and now living in me.

We held onto each other for several minutes that way, just our naked bodies pressed tightly against each other and we remained coupled on the ledge of the hot tub. My mother must have realized what had happened and that we were close to finishing because I heard sounds of footsteps and looked over Rick's shoulder to see my mother standing at the opposite side of the hot tub, hands on her hips and a huge smile on her face.

Rick must not have heard her soft steps and with his back to the doorway obviously didn't see her coming either so he just held onto me, periodically thrusting himself back in me as his cock shrunk and dried to withdraw from me.

"That's it Rick, keep it in me," I whispered with a wink to my mom. "I want to feel your cock pulsing inside of me."

"Oh god that felt so good," Rick said in a husky voice, "I mean, that was incredible! I didn't mean to cum in you though. Damn you're not going to get pregnant now are you?"

I pulled the cushion from the chaise lounge off and laid it on the deck, pointing at him to lay down. As he laid on his back his cock was so stiff it was pointing almost straight at his head as I climbed aboard. Sitting up high above his waist I grabbed his dick and pointed it upwards to ward my lowering pussy, guiding it in me as I kept on moving downwards.

I was so wet and swollen now that his cock easily slid into me and I dropped down hard on his lap, driving his dick deep into me. He gasped partly from my weight as it struck him and partly from the feel of his cock being rammed into me.

"My turn to control," I said as I started bouncing on his cock. I loved this position because it lets me control the tempo and the depth of his penetration in me. I sat in his lap and ground my ass into his crotch, making his cock move and twist inside of me, driving me crazy with the pleasure of it.

"Sit up," I told him.

I stayed in him as he raised up and then moved my legs so instead of being on my knees I was sitting in his lap with my legs out behind him. He put his arms around me and pulled me tightly to him until my boobs were pressed into his bare chest. The he loosened his grip and lowered his head so he could suck on my boobs while I sat there on his lap with his cock up my pussy. It was like an electric shock went through my chest as he sucked on my hard nipples.

We rocked on the cushion, driving his cock just a little bit in and out of me in the process. I sighed as a third orgasm rocked me, not as intense as the previous ones but just general feeling of elation as his cock pressed up inside of me.

"I want you to cum again," I demanded. He just rolled his eyes but his cock was still stiff in me giving me hope. I enjoy being fucked by older men but there is one area where the young guys have them totally outclassed - the ability to cum again and again! I wondered if even Rick would be able to do this again once the initial euphoria of his first fuck wore off! Oh well, I wasn't complaining, that's for sure!

I pushed him back down and got on my knees once again, all the while keeping him firmly in place. I worked my around on his cock until my ass was facing him. I leaned forward so he could watch himself in me and get a great view of my ass. Turning my head to my side, I looked back and saw him staring at my ass with his cock deep in my pussy.

"Like the view Rick?" I said in teasing voice.

"Damn it Kelly, you have such a great ass. I still can't believe I'm fucking you!" he replied.

I rocked on his cock and bounced on it, sitting on it at times and at others raising up until he was barely in me, teasing the head of his cock and then driving it back into me. I loved being on top of him and controlling his cock in me!

Rick started moaning louder and I had a feeling he was about to cum yet again! I knew what I wanted this time though and I quickly hopped off of his cock and kneeled by his side to take his cock in my mouth while I pumped it with my hand. I felt it swelling in my hand and then the head swelled in my mouth and I took his load again in my mouth. It was only a small amount but as this was his third time I was pleased just to get it. Heck, most guys can't do it twice without a break and for Rick to do it three times was nothing short of incredible!

I stood up over Rick who just laid back on the cushion exhausted. His cock was finally expended and it lay to the side a mere shrunken facsimile of its former greatness. It had served its purpose well though and my pussy was still feeling the afterglow of its efforts. I reached down to grab my towel and gave him a little wave and a smile. He looked up at me and returned the smile. God he looked so sexy on his back stark naked in the sun!

Heading back into the kitchen my mom was waiting for me. "Couldn't resist one more time, you little slut!" she said with a laugh. "God, THREE times? The boy's a fucking machine!"

I reached up and kissed her. As her mouth opened I gave the cum I had been saving in my mouth to her with my tongue. She licked it from my tongue with hers and smiled at me.

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT'S what I call a nice present!" she said licking her lips with a big grin on her face.

I twirled around her and called out, "I love you!" as I pranced up the stairs to take a shower. As I basked under the massaging stream of warm water I wondered what my mom and Rick had to say to each other when I left. I had a feeling Rick wouldn't be complaining about coming over to help out anymore!

(Aug 05) Chapter 94: My First Married Couple

Story codes: MF MFF oral first adultery
Me (20)
Richard (42) & Melissa (40)

They were pillars of the community, icons at the church. Who would have guess how bad her husband wanted me? Who would have guessed what she was willing to do to please her husband?

1. Meeting People

People are always asking me where I meet the people I date and have sex with. Although I chat a lot on the Internet, I've never met anyone I have chatted with nor do I ever intend to. I know this frustrates people but I am totally open about it. Some people choose to ignore me and push for it and once in a while I will lead them on but I don't feel guilty about it - they deserve it for not respecting me in the first place.

I chat on the Internet for fun. I enjoy talking to different people and exchanging ideas, fantasies, opinions and such. It's like the difference between playing a video game against the computer and being on-line. Interacting with other humans is always much more interesting and that is how I feel about chatting.

So where DO I meet the people you see on the sexual history chart I keep posted on my website for people to keep track of me? Well, here it where 99% of the people I have had sex with have come from, in the general order of success:

Recommendations from my friends
School (well, at least back in high school)
Church (you'd be AMAZED at how many people I meet there for sex)
Parties (just at the party, never afterwards)
Neighbors (including babysitting)
My dad's office

Escorting Service (I was the escort - I wasn't hiring anyone!)

One thing they all have in common that is different from people I chat with is that NONE of them know anything whatsoever about my sexual relationships at home. I didn't list family members above because I certainly don't look at my parents and relatives in the same way as I do the other people I have sex with.

This leads up to another reason I don't meet people I chat with. Although I post a website that contains a lot of personal information and such, I figure the odds are negligible that anyone I care about will recognize us. If I were to date people from on-line then someone outside my family would have direct knowledge of who I am, where I live, etc. which is NOT something I want anyone to know that isn't in my family (and even then only a few selected ones know.

2. Melissa Confides in Me

In this case I met Richard and Melissa at church. They are an older couple with two kids in the youth group that I was working with. Richard was 42 and Melissa was 40. Melissa was 32 when she had her first kid so even though they are older than my parents I still baby-sit their kids! The two of them keep in shape though and most people are surprised to hear their real age, figuring them to be at least five to ten years younger. Actually, my mom suspects that Melissa has had a little modern technology when it comes to keeping her figure but I don't see anything wrong with that.

One night after youth group I was helping Melissa put things away in one of the classrooms. We were alone and most of the people were out in the main gathering area. Melissa started to say something to me and then seemed to change her mind and went back to work. This repeated several time until the last time we both burst into laughing over it.

"Melissa, is there something you want to ask me or whatever?" I finally managed to ask after we calmed down.

Melissa took a big breath and motioned for me to take a seat. We both sat in those ridiculously small chairs they put in the preschool classrooms. Melissa took my hand and I looked at her with a quizzical look.

"Ummmmm... I hope you don't mind me discussing this with you Kelly," she started out, "Just let me know if this make you uncomfortable and I will drop it," "Sure Melissa, but you can say anything to me," I replied.

Melissa took yet another deep breath and started over yet again. "I was in the kitchen earlier tonight and there was a bunch of the young boys talking. They didn't know I was in there and I was about to shoo them out when I overheard what they were talking about. They were talking about you Kelly, and I hate to say this but not very nicely either."

I looked at her intently as if I had no idea what she was talking about, I had a good idea what boys she was talking about but they were only fourteen to fifteen years old. Sure they all looked at me whenever they thought I didn't see them and more than a few times I had seen them with a small bulge in their pants while I was teaching them but to be honest, I didn't mind it a bit!

Actually I thought it was kind of cute that they were turned on by me and I could only imagine the masturbation sessions that probably took place when they went home later. Although I had a bit of a reputation with the boys at this church during my high school years (that I was a quite proud of by the way!), this was the first time I'd heard that it had continued down to these kids!

Melissa looked upset though, probably thinking I would be hurt by what she was going to say. "My goodness Kelly," she said with her hand over her mouth, "They said when you went to school here that you were having sex with almost every boy in your class! Well, they DID talk mostly about oral sex but still, sex is sex!"

Melissa paused to gauge my reaction. I just sat there listening so she continued on saying, "Then they talked about the clothes you wear around town and I couldn't believe the nasty things they said wanted to do to you. Finally I couldn't listen anymore so I made some noises and it scared them away."

Melissa looked at me in the eyes, "Is any of that true Kelly? I have to admit that I have always thought you dressed a bit... well let's just say... inappropriately at times but I can't believe a good girl like you could be the slut they were making you out to be. My goodness, all of the parents here just adore you and you do such a great job with the kids. Richard and I have trusted you to baby-sit our kids for years now!"

With that she stood up with her arms crossed. She just shook her head in disbelief and then looked at me solemnly saying, "Well, no matter what you did back then, I assume that now that you are going to such a nice Christian college that is all behind you now. I mean, it IS, right?"

I couldn't help but smile mischievously at her and she knew instantly what I meant by it. Her face turned red as she blushed and looked away from me. "Oh my god Kelly," she said, "Your parents are such wonderful people, I can't believe they condone that kind of behavior!"

"Well..." I said, "I don't hide anything from my parents."

I expected Melissa to faint at any moment but instead she just went silent for over a minute. I wasn't sure where this was all leading so I just sat there quietly waiting for her to continue. When she finally broke her silence she turned to me with a look that took me totally by surprise. She was smiling at me! Well, if that surprised me it was nothing compared to how I felt when she made her next remark.

"Well, I have to admit I was sort of hoping you would say that," she said softly. Her smile became a bit naughtier as she saw the surprise in my face. She licked her lips and said, "Kelly, I were wondering if you would ever be interested in being with an older couple?"

"Being with?" I asked innocently. I knew full well what she was implying but I wanted to hear her say it.

Melissa put her hand on mine as she answered. "You know what I mean Kelly... Richard and me."

Now THAT is what I call coming in straight out of the blue! Wow! I had indeed always fantasized about doing such a thing with a married couple but so far never had the opportunity. (I don't count my parents since we don't have sex out of lust as this would be.) Well, once I had done it with my neighbors but they were swingers and it wasn't like it was anything too terribly naughty.

THIS, however, was totally different. Richard and Melissa were pillars of the church community and although Richard had sneaked a peek at my ass a time or two, every guy in church did so I never considered it any big deal. In all the times I had babysat I had never gotten anything even remotely like a hint that they were interested in any such thing with me - anyone else for that matter.

Like everyone I babysat for, I had poked about their house a bit when the kids were gone and they were one of the few homes where I never found any pornography, sexy lingerie, "personal" photos/videos, or anything like that. They may have just done a better job of hiding it but I doubted that this was the case in their situation. Of all the couples at church their age they would probably be the last one that I would have expected this to come from.

I was quiet while I contemplated all this and Melissa must have thought it meant I must have been upset by what she said. "Oh god, I hope I didn't offend you Kelly," she said with a worried look on her face. She let out a deep sigh and her face was beet red. "Oh dear, this is soooooo embarrassing," she said softly, "I can't believe I said that."

"Oh no!," I quickly responded, "You just caught me by surprise. I mean, it's just that I never would have dreamed that you and Mr. West were into this sort of thing."

"Richard," she corrected me, "please call him Richard and no, we really aren't into 'that sort of thing'. Truth is, we married each other as virgins and neither of us has ever had sex with anyone else. Trust me on this one - he has NO idea that I am talking to you about this! It's just that after I had the kids and with all the stuff we are involved in, we just don't do it that much anymore and when we do it's become sort of stale and routine. Oh Kelly, I wanted to bring some spice back into our lives. It would just be for one time, just something to get us started again. This is so embarrassing but I'm desperate Kelly, I still NEED sex."

Well, I could certainly understand that. After all, my mom and aunt were about her age and their sex drive certainly hadn't diminished one iota from what it was when they were teens! I took her hand and smiled at her as I asked, "So tell me Melissa, exactly what were you thinking about doing?"

Melissa let out a deep breath and seemed noticeably relieved. "Well," she sighed, "Until tonight I had considered a number of things, everything from hiring a call girl, going to a swingers party, even just getting some porn flicks. But so far nothing seemed quite right and I have been at a loss until I overheard those boys and right then I knew instantly what the answer was! Oh Kelly, I just know Richard would go wild if someone like you were in bed with us and frankly I have always had a touch of curiosity in that area myself. Plus we know you so well it wouldn't be like we were inviting some hooker to be with us. The more I thought about it tonight the more it just seemed perfect. Like I said, it would just be for one time, think of it like a jump start for our dead sex battery. I just know that once we get the old engine started again everything will be OK."As wild as this all sounded, I couldn't help but feel a twinge of guilt. What she was saying had me wet already just thinking about it but at the same time I want to be sure it was the right thing to do. "But it's so beautiful what you two have," I protested. "How many couples today can say that they have only had each other? That is soooooo special! Are you SURE you wouldn't be losing something even greater than what you may gain?"

Melissa shook her head vigorously as she replied, "Kelly, if he doesn't start having sex with me more I am going to have to go find someone who will and THAT would be much worse. I'm trying to save our marriage, not destroy it. The way I see it either of us would be cheating, you would be more like a counselor helping us in a... well more physical way than most."

We talked some more and eventually I agreed to do it with them. We worked out a date and arranged for me to be there ahead of time. She wanted to surprise Richard by making him think they were going out for a romantic evening at a nice hotel only he wouldn't know what waited for him!

3. Thinking Things Over

That night as I lay in bed I found myself thinking about all we had discussed at church and I wondered if it was going to be as innocent and easy as Melissa thought. What she didn't know was that my fantasy about being with a married couple was NOT exactly about helping them. Noooooo, quite the opposite! My dream fantasy was that the wife would want me at first but then she would be devastated when she saw how much her husband loved fucking me more than her.

However, in this case I liked Richard and Melissa so much I couldn't see myself doing anything to harm their marriage and besides, half a fantasy fulfilled is better than none! Oh well, I would just have to see how it goes. Even though I had promised Melissa I wouldn't tell my parents, I never keep any secrets from my mom so the next morning at breakfast I told my mom about what Melissa had asked me to do. Her eyes widened and a sly smile came to her.

"You have GOT to be kidding," she laughed, "Richard and Melissa! No way!" She shook her head in disbelief. "They are the ones always preaching to the kids AND the parents about sexual immorality and how our society has become so corrupt and decadent. Don't worry, I won't say anything but it's going to be damn hard keeping a straight face next time I see them. Just wait until I tell your dad... you know he thinks Melissa is hot don't you?"

I just grinned at that last statement. My dad loved my mother totally and I knew without any doubt whatsoever that he would never cheat on her no matter how hot he thought another woman was. That was one of the key values I had learned from them growing up - respect for the sanctity of marriage. My mom and dad were so in love and so confident of the faithfulness of the other that one could openly discuss such thoughts and feelings without offending the other.

I knew that when I was married I would follow the example they had set for me and only have sex with my husband and family. I knew that at times it must have been difficult for them but the results of such a faithful marriage were more than sufficient proof of the rewards it brought. Even swinging where both partners agreed it was OK for the other to have sex with someone else was not acceptable for my parents since they knew someday it would come back to haunt them.

Deep inside I respected Richard and Melissa for maintaining their wedding vows all these years and it almost seemed a shame to be the one to help them break them but that would be their choice in the end so I felt no real remorse. I only hoped they didn't either once they gave it up and then realized that they could never reclaim it.

4. Getting Ready at Home

On the day we had arranged Melissa picked me up early in the afternoon and we drove to a nice Hilton hotel situated near a major industrial park not too far from where we lived. She checked in and gave me one of the key cards. We went up to the room and found it to be a beautiful suite with a separate living area and master bedroom with a king size bed and a Jacuzzi! Melissa looked around one last time before we left and took my hand.

"Oh god Kelly I'm so excited!" she said looking like an innocent schoolgirl instead of a mother of three. "Richard is going to be so shocked when he walks in and finds you in here! I tried to figure out this week if he knew your reputation with the boys but he didn't seem to have any idea but I DO know he has sneaked a peek at you at church and at church camp - especially when you were at the docks in your bikini!"

Melissa laughed and shook her head, "You know, he may be over twice your age but that doesn't mean he doesn't have the same fantasies every man has."

We stepped out and as she closed the door she lifted her finger as a thought struck her. "Oh Kelly, I almost forgot. Can I bring a camera?" I almost laughed but I kept my composure. This was getting a bit kinky now! "Sure, you can take a video for all I care."

She gave me a peck on the cheek and for a minute I felt a bit guilty. She seemed so excited about this and was so naive in thinking this was going to SAVE her marriage. I didn't want to ruin their marriage - not exactly good publicity for me, but I seriously doubted tonight was going to help anything!

When she dropped me off at home my mom asked me how things were going. I told her about the room as she just shook her head in amazement. "Wow, STILL I can't believe the West's would ever do such a thing. So Richard doesn't even know anything about it. I just can't imagine straight ol' Melissa planning such a tryst!"

I nodded my head in reply. My mom lifted my head by the chin so as to look me right in the eye.

"One last time, do you really know what you're doing girl?" she grilled me, "I mean, this could turn very ugly and I don't think you want to be named as the 'other woman' in a divorce proceeding."

I had to admit that this was still bothering me too, But on the other hand it was such an incredible opportunity so how could I pass it up? My mom finally sighed and relented but I could tell she had some reservations.

I went up to my room and debated what to wear. It really didn't matter what I wore to and from the hotel as nobody would be seeing me. No, the big question mark concerned my lingerie drawer. I finally picked out a baby doll nightie that was pink and sheer as could be with matching lace panties. A long white sheer robe that hung to my ankles seemed appropriate. Since tonight was fantasy night I picked out a pair of three inch white heels.

I laughed as I put them in my bag. I mean, what demented person first came up with the idea of wearing heels to bed? Men seemed to love it though and I just had this feeling that Richard was going to like them on me was well.

I took a nice long shower, masturbating as usual in the shower me as I dreamed about the approaching evening. I then filled the tub and soaked for almost an hour as I added sea salts and fragrances to the water to let them soak into me and make me smell good for the upcoming night. I carefully shaved myself as I didn't want any nicks tonight spoiling the view.

I leaned my head back against the tub as I ran my hands up and down my freshly shaven legs and pussy. Mmmmmmm, they felt so smooth and soft! Just my nipples rose above the soapy water, two hard bullets rising like little mountain peaks above the clouds. As the water moved they were stimulated and sent a tingle down my spine and legs that made me shiver. Really, I could have laid in there all night! My eyes were closed as I slowly played with myself when suddenly my reverie was broken by the sound of my dad's deep voice!

5. Getting the Room Ready

When I arrived at the hotel I went straight to the suite. Walking thought the double doors I felt a sense of anticipation not to mention just a little bit weird. The room was so peaceful and calm that it was hard to imagine what might be happening here in just hour or so. The place was huge compared to most hotel rooms I had seen and even had a video player for the TV set. I was tempted to turn on the TV but I was afraid they might hear it when they came to the door and that would tip Richard off that something was going on.

I put the CD player out of site in the living room and then I set out my lingerie and stripped off my jeans and blouse. Standing there naked I then walked over to the big window looking out over the hillside. Some guys were jogging up the road leading to the hotel and I wondered if they could see the naked girl standing in the window! It would have been fun just to stay that way and great them at the door stark naked like this but that wasn't our plan so I went back and put on my lingerie.

After slipping it on I looked at myself in the bathroom mirror. It was quite the transformation and if anyone who had seen me when I came in the hotel were to compare me to how what I looked now I was confident they would have been amazed! White high heels instead of shoes, my baby doll negligee instead of a blouse, and a sheer robe in lieu of jeans. Hmmmmmm, from "girl next door" to slut in less than five minutes!

I hid my clothes away in the bottom dresser drawer and then fixed up my makeup as well as putting some perfume on - a little bit all over, and I mean ALL over. A touch of lipstick, a little rouge, some eye shadow and liner. Nothing major but just enough to hide the little things we all wish would disappear and enhance the things we like about ourselves.

I looked in the bathroom mirror again and smiled. I was willing to bet Melissa really had no idea what was waiting for them! If she was expecting the "innocent girl next door" I worked so hard to be at church... well was she in for quite a surprise!

Looking around I tried to decide where to wait for them. Remarkably, we had not covered that when we laid out our game plan for the evening. Should he see me immediately or let them come in and get comfortable and then pop the surprise? I decided on the latter. Let him think this was their romantic getaway and then see the look on his face when he realized I was part of the package!

It was time for them to show up and if there was one thing I knew about Melissa, she was always on time. Even though I had made sure I arrived early, it was really more for me than her. Sure enough, on the dot I heard voices outside the door. I scurried to the bedroom as the door unlocked and the two of them entered. I went into the bedroom bathroom and listened, feeling a little naughty as if I was some voyeur listening in on two lovers. Only problem was, it wasn't two lovers as I had expected.

6. Richard and Melissa Arrive

"I still don't know why you spent all this money to stay in a hotel only twenty minutes from home Melissa," I heard Richard griping. "I mean look at this place, you must have spent a fortune for it! Not to mention the sitter for the kids. Damn it, what's into you tonight anyway?"

Poor Melissa! I felt my heart breaking as he went on about how she was always spending too much money. I knew how badly she had wanted for this night to go well and here he was just making a mess of everything she had worked so hard for. Well, small wonder their marriage was on the rocks!

I heard Melissa trying to coax Richard into enjoying the night. "Oh please Richard, I love you and we need this. I just want some romance back in our lives. You use to do the sweetest things for me and now it's just basketball practice, church meetings and work. Honey, I just want my sexy husband back."

"Oh get a grip Melissa," Richard came back to her. "You know that since I started taking those blood pressure pills I can't get it up anymore. C'mon, we have a good life, good kids, good home. What's so bad about that?"

Melissa was getting upset now I could tell from the tone of her voice. "Well, you don't seem to have a problem 'getting it up' watching those porn flicks on cable... yeah I know what you do at night after I go to bed. Well, if that's what it takes then I have a little surprise for you."

That was my cue. I knew the code words were about a surprise for him but all the stuff about impotence and porn was a shock. Damn, what WAS I getting into? Melissa hadn't bothered telling me a few important details! Anyway, I was here so why not go for it so I stepped into the room and saw them standing in the middle of the living area. Richard was facing away from me so it was Melissa who first saw me enter the room. She smiled at me but her eyes widened when she saw how I looked.

I'm not sure what she was really expecting but I think I exceeded her wildest expectations. Richard saw her looking at something behind him and he turned around. He saw me and his eyes widened as well but his mouth about hit the floor.

"Kelly???" he stammered, "Is that YOU?" He looked back at Melissa with a face filled with shock and amazement at the same time, "Melissa, just what the hell is going on here?"

Melissa kissed him and replied, "Oh honey, I told you that we needed some spice in our sex life and Kelly has graciously volunteered to help." She looked at him with a sly smile, "Besides dear, I know you think she's hot."

Richard was now totally off balance. On the one hand I know he wanted to stare at me as I walked in closer to them, slowly swinging my hips sensuously and licking my lips. On the other hand he didn't know quite what Melissa was expecting him to do and under any other circumstance he knew she would be smacking him for looking at me like that. I was up to them now and I threw my hair back and ran my hand up his arm.

"It's OK Mr. West," I said in my sexiest voice, "Melissa recently found out I have a bit of a sexy side to me and she thought maybe you might like spending an evening with me. Don't worry, nobody else knows, this is just between us tonight."

Richard was just staring at me with his mouth hanging open. I ran my fingers through Melissa's hair and then slowly down the front of her dress between her breasts. "You know, you have a pretty wonderful wife who really loves you. Not many wives would give their husband such a gift. Now why don't you just have a seat and enjoy..."

7. Putting on a Show For Richard

I pushed him backwards and he hit the couch and dropped to his knees. Melissa snuggled up next to him with her arm around his neck and her breasts pressed against him but his eyes were fixed on me.

I pulled out my stereo and started the CD player. I knew just the song to get him started, I even have the lyrics on my web site. I dropped the robe and carefully stepped up onto the coffee table in front of them like a stripper on stage as the music started and the most sexiest voice began to ask him naughty questions like, "Doncha wish your girlfriend was hot like me?" and so on.

I began to slowly gyrate to the music, teasing him and taunting him at the same time. My negligee was so sheer it may as well been off but every girl knew that it was the act of stripping that was far more sensual than merely being naked. I would thrust my hips at him like I was being fucked when the music hit a hard note and his mouth just hung open further as he stared at me.

About halfway through the song I turned away and slowly lowered my panties, not bending my knees so as I got them to my ankles my ass and pussy were in full view for them. I tossed him my panties and he held them in his hands, looking at Melissa as if asking her permission to smell them. Melissa was staring at me too, probably wondering where in the world this sexy slut had come from! She wanted Richard to get hot but I don't think she expected anything THIS hot.

I slowly stripped off my negligee with about minute left in the song and paraded myself in front of them. With thirty seconds or so to go I got off the table and stepped between his legs and started to fondle myself in front of them. As it ended I got on the couch on my knees so I was in his lap and bounced on his crotch as if I were fucking him. Well, he may have been on medication but there was definitely some action going on down there!

The CD music shifted to some soft instrumental music that was just enough to maintain the mood without overpowering everything else like the first song had. I gave Richard a lap dance as I slowly swayed to the music. I grabbed his hands and put them on my hips as I ground my bare pussy into his crotch.

He was wearing pants but I could have sworn I could feel his bulge getting a bit bigger. At first he seemed hesitant to touch me, still not sure what he could do with this naked young girl on his lap while his wife had her arms around him at the same time.

"Oh God," he groaned, "I can't believe this is happening. It CAN'T be happening! Kelly, what would your parents say if they knew about this?"

I licked his cheek and whispered seductively in his ear, "Mmmmmmm, don't worry about them, Mr. West... I've seen the way you look at me in church... I know you want me.."

Richards eyes looked up to the ceiling and he let out a deep sigh. "OK Melissa," he said softly to her, "Are you SURE this is what you want?"

Melissa pushed up closer to him and replied, "Yes Richard, take her. I brought her here to be yours for whatever you want tonight. Just let me be here with you."

8. Richard Takes Me

I had a sneaky feeling that somehow that last part was probably something Richard would have rather not heard but if that was the price he seemed willing to pay. He leaned forward and started sucking my nipples and his hands moved behind me and grabbed my ass. To my surprise, Melissa actually reached out to touch me as well, running her hand along my bare leg and then up and down my back. It was actually more erotic for this forty year old soccer mom to touch me than her dirty old husband!

It did feel good to have him suck my nipples though and I would never turn down anyone who wanted to play with my ass so I was doing OK for now. I reached down between my legs and put my hand on his crotch. Yep, there was definitely something going on down there!

I unbuckled his pants and unzipped him while he continued to suck on my boobs. Melissa was just running her hands gently all over me as she watched every move I made. As I reached into his underwear, searching for his cock as I looked over at her and saw her wink at me. I slid down off his lap and kneeled in front of him with my hand still holding his cock.

Melissa helped me to take his pants off and he was soon sitting on the couch bare-ass with his shirt still on. I started strolling his cock while Melissa removed his shirt. I was about to start sucking him when suddenly Melissa gasped.

"Hold on Kelly, I forgot something!" She ran to her suitcase and pulled out a video camera. Ahhhhhh, she had forgotten to tape us. Hmmm, too bad she missed my stripper routine! She quickly put up a tripod and started the recorder. She got back on the couch again and smiled at me saying, "OK Kelly, go of it!"

I didn't need any more encouragement to start sucking a cock - any cock for that matter. Richard was going to be a challenge though. I don't know what his medication did to him but it sure seemed to be stifling his erection! By now I would expect any guy I was with to be hard as a rock whereas Richard was not even about half-way there.

Well, I always was up for a challenge and this looked to be a tough one that would test my oral sex skills so I took him in my mouth and felt the softness of his cock. Actually I liked to start with a cock in this condition and then feel it grow and harden in my mouth. Knowing it was my mouth that was making him change was just plain sexy as far as I was concerned.

His crotch was extremely hairy as was most of his body. I also had a feeling he had not showered either before coming over because his crotch odor was really strong - a mixture of smelly sweat with the musky odor that comes when a guy has sex. He tasted ok though which was important and his head was nice and large, another feature I appreciated in a cock. I took his while cock in my mouth and sucked it, running my tongue around it and teasing it.

"Oh god that feels so good!" he gasped in a husky voice.

His cock was actually responding now and I could feel it getting harder and longer with each minute. I had a feeling it was as much the fact that a twenty year old "innocent girl next door" from church was sucking him as it was my skills. Sex was as much mental as physical and I knew that with his condition I could be the best cocksucker in the work but if he wasn't turned on it would not matter. The key was to meet his mental and physical needs so while I was sucking his cock I worked on feeding his emotions as well.

"You like me sucking your cock Mr. West," I said in my little girl voice as I stroked him with my hand.

I deliberately called him Mr. West instead of Richard to emphasize our age difference and make him think even more about the fact I was less than half his age. I sucked him a few more strokes and then looked up at him again with a sly smile.

"I bet when you see me in church you wished I would do this to you, didn't you. Mmmmmmm, I saw you looking at my ass last Sunday; you wanted to fuck me didn't you Mr. West?"

I went back to sucking him but I made sure I looked at him the whole time, letting him see my eyes as he felt my mouth on his stiffening cock. He was responding nicely and I wanted him to get even more horny than he was which meant getting more senses involved. I had him listening to me and, of course, feeling my mouth on him, now I had to get him talking.

"Tell me how bad you wanted to fuck me Mr. West. When did you first want me?"

"Oh you nasty little bitch," he said in a rough tone, "Every guy in church knows you're nothing but a tease and a slut. Running around half dressed on retreats, coming to church without underwear, screwing every boy in your class. I've been wanting you since I saw you in that slutty bikini at church camp years ago. God I've dreamed so many times of you doing this!"

"Ohhhhhhhhh," I moaned as he entered me.

I was thrilled to think that I was the first pussy he had ever felt other than his wife's. Technically he was now committing adultery as he was breaking the vows he had made to his wife so many years ago, vows he had been faithful to despite everything in their marriage.

"God your cock feels so big inside of me, fuck me Mr. West, fuck me fuck me fuck me!"

Richard seemed more than happy to accommodate my request. I bounced on his lap, making my bare ass smack on his thighs each time I ground my pussy down on his cock. Melissa was watching each stroke her husband was making in me. I looked at her and told her to sit at the end of the couch. When she did I got off his cock and laid down on the couch with my head in her lap. I put on leg off the edge of the couch and the other I draped over the top of it which left my pussy wide open for him. I looked up at Melissa and smiled at her.

"Tell him to fuck me Melissa, tell him to screw me, to fuck me harder... tell him!" I commanded her.

She hesitated at first but then she looked at her husband with this huge hard-on and a look of pure animal lust on his face. She was seeing him in a way she had not seen in many years, if at all. I wonder if even when they were young if she had ever been able to drive him to this level of sexual hunger and desire. He was going to fuck me now no matter what either of us said but I still wanted to hear her say it.

"Yes Richard," she said softly, "fuck her."

"Louder," I insisted, "Tell him know how bad you want to see him fuck me. Oh Melissa, just look at him stroking himself, look at your husband now."

Melissa hesitated but in the end she couldn't resist me. "Fuck her hard Richard!!!" she said in a much louder voice, "Oh please, please fuck her Richard, fuck her for me."

Richard got on top of me as he held his cock in one hand to direct it to my cunt. I felt the big head pressing against me, trying to find my pussy hole so it could force its way into me. I felt a thrill in me as I realized that at this point I wasn't in control anymore, that from here on there was no stopping Richard. He was going to fuck me again on his terms this time no matter what I did - there was nothing I could do to stop him! I lifted my hips to make it easier for him and cried out with pleasure as I felt him push himself into me, spreading my pussy apart as his cock violated me.

As he started pumping his cock in and out of me, it was like he was in another world, slamming himself in me, groaning with his eyes rolling back in his head. He was ramming himself so hard into me that I was pushed up onto Melissa's lap. My boobs bounced with each blow as he rocked me back and forth while he fucked me harder and harder.

"That's it Mr. West, fuck me hard," I cried out to him, wrapping my legs around him and pulling him into me. "Show Melissa how good you can fuck me, show her how much you want me."

Melissa's eyes widened a bit at that but her eyes were transfixed on my pussy as she watched her husband's cock disappear inside of me and then reappear all wet with my pussy juice. He was hard as a rock now and I wondered when the last time she had seen him like that. How did she feel seeing her husband fucking me when for years he had been unable to do it with her? I loved the feel of his cock in me but seeing her watching was what was making me cum! I moaned loudly as my orgasm hit and my pussy gushed over his cock.

"Oh god I'm cumming!" I moaned.

My back arched and I thrust my hips against his crotch to drive him deeper inside of me while the fireworks exploded in my pussy sending shock waves throughout my entire body. I couldn't believe it, I was fucking this old guy right in front of his wife and cumming so hard!

Richard didn't wait for my orgasm to subside but instead just pulled out of me and leaned back, motioning for me to turn over as he said, "On your knees slut, I'm going to fuck you from behind."

I turned over and got on my elbows and knees with my legs spread apart so my soaking wet pussy was wide open for him to see. I reached under and between my legs and thrust two fingers in my pussy. Melissa was on the couch in front of us, still fully dressed as she watched her loving husband turn into the lust- crazed maniac, fucking me without even looking at her anymore.

I looked at her and saw she was watching his face, probably wondering what was really happening. Richard put his cock against me and I pulled out my fingers and licked my pussy juice from them as Melissa watched. Then he thrust himself quickly inside of me again, slamming his crotch into my ass so hard I almost fell forward into her lap!

"Damn you're SO tight," he groaned, "just like I always dreamed you would be."

I smiled at that while Melissa frowned just a bit. Richard's inhibitions were disappearing even more the longer he fucked me and I loved hearing him say how much he wanted me even before tonight. I knew every guy in church would fuck me given half a chance but it still felt good hearing it. Especially with his wife right there in front of us!

His motions were getting even faster and I knew he was getting ready to cum.

"Cum in me," I begged him, "I want to feel you cum in me. Please Mr. West, give me your sperm!"

"Richard!" Melissa exclaimed.

She couldn't keep silent anymore as things were evidently going way beyond what she had expected. "Don't cum in her, you CAN'T do that!"

She looked down at me, pleading now, begging me even saying, "Don't let him cum in you Kelly... PLEASE!"

I could barely talk with the banging I was getting so I just smirked at her as I gasped, "Too late!"

She had asked for this and I wasn't about to pass up the opportunity to feel him cum inside of me. He was about to give the most precious thing he could give to his wife and I wanted it for my own - and I wanted her to see him give it to me.

At that moment Richard let out a loud groan, "Oh fuck it, I'm cumming!"

He thrust one last time into me and held himself still inside of me as his cock began to spew his cum deep into my waiting pussy. It must have been building up for some time now as it felt like he was exploding in me! One after another he let loose a hot stream of cum and I felt each like a heat bloom inside of me. Each time I felt that sudden warmth in me which quickly died until the next one arrived I thought of his sperm shooting into me.

My God! He was actually mating with me, something he had never done with any woman other than his wife in his entire life. I gasped as I watched Melissa curl up on the couch with her hand to her mouth, seeing her beloved husband doing the ultimate act of betrayal to her.

Finally Richard's cock was spent so he pulled out of me and collapsed on the couch. I loved being fucked by older men but the only problem was that once they came it was game over! I turned around and kissed him on the cheek. We had not actually kissed yet and to be honest, I really didn't want to kiss him on the mouth.

9. Melissa Joins In

He laid back against the arm of the couch and just sighed as he struggled to catch his breath. I laid there with my head still in Melissa's lap. I could feel his cum dripping down from my pussy to my ass. Looking up at her, I smiled at said, "Lick his cum from my pussy."

Melissa's eyes widened like saucers and she took in a sharp breath of air. "Hell no, you betrayed me Kelly. I wanted my husband to want me more, not you. You fucking little bitch."

I twisted around so I was laying down but facing her now. I had one leg on the couch above her head and the other hanging off the side so she had a clear view of my cum drenched pussy. "He's all yours now Melissa and I think he will fuck your brains out later tonight after this. Look at my pussy... see his cum?... I want you to lick me."

I gyrated my hips to move my pussy around for her and I could see the lust in her eyes coming back. She had never even kissed a girl in her entire life and now one was asked her to lick her husband's cum from it so it was understandable for her to be hesitant. I looked back at Richard who was watching intently.

"See, he wants to watch you lick me," I assured her, "Show him how hot you are."

Melissa looked overwhelmed with everything and her shoulders slumped. She was still fully dressed as she leaned down towards my pussy. She reached out and touched me, using her finger to spread his cum around my cunt and then played with my clit just a bit. I was still super sensitive there and almost jumped off the couch as she hit me right in the perfect spot.

"That's it Melissa, you know what I want," I whispered to her seductively. "Show Richard how you want to be licked, show him how to lick a girl's pussy."

Melissa slowly lowered her head further until she gingerly stuck her tongue out to just touch my cunt. Then she started to slowly lick my pussy up and down from my clit down to my pussy hole. I watched as she licked her husband's cum from my crotch and then she pushed her tongue deep inside of me as far as she could press her face against my soaking wet pussy.

I grabbed my boobs as she put her hands under my ass, gripping my butt in her hands as she lifted me up into her face. God she was making me feel soooooo good! I wanted to cum so bad on her face and I knew I was almost there.

"Make me cum Melissa," I begged her, "eat my cunt!"

I gushed as I came and Melissa kept her face tight against my pussy, letting my pussy juices cover her face as she tried to lick it up at the same time. Richard was watching the whole time as his lovely wife licked the same pussy he had just fucked a few minutes before! My back arched as my orgasm reached its height and it was like I was on fire from the tips of my toes to the last strand of hair on my head.

I groaned and moaned loudly as she kept her face on me, kept teasing my clit and driving me even higher than I thought I would go. When I finally came down I was exhausted and I laid there breathing heavily while she watched me from between my legs.

"Not bad for an old soccer mom, eh?" she teased me with a smile. She looked over at her husband who I saw was now stroking his cock which was back to about half-mast. "Ready to go again?" she asked him in a husky voice.

I took this as my cue and I got off the couch and quickly left to go back to the bedroom. I didn't bother showering or anything, I just wanted to leave as quickly as possible so I threw on my clothes and headed for the door. My stereo was still playing but I knew Melissa would get it back to me. I then remembered the camera - would they let me see it later? I certainly hoped so!

I glanced at the couch and saw Richard was undressing Melissa. Well maybe it would work out for them after all. I actually hoped so. They were such decent people and did so many things for other people that I was glad to help them out this way. Not to mention I had a great time too.

In the week and a half since then Rick has fucked me almost every day! He's as horny as a seventeen year-old boy can be and anyone who knows me knows I am not exactly shy about pushing the limits so we had some crazy times. Besides out first time on our deck, some of the places we have done it are in his bedroom - with his ultraconservative prudish mother in the house who would have killed us both if she had ANY idea what was going on, his car at the mall parking lot, a MacDonald's restroom (THAT was a quickie if there ever was one!), and just yesterday in my bedroom (with my mom watching through a crack in the door).

I am sure it comes as no surprise that Rick was not the first guy in my pants and that my relationship with my parents is anything but typical. Actually, Rick was the twenty fifth guy since my first time over six years ago when I was just fourteen and gave my virginity to my boyfriend in his basement. Yeah, I keep score - after all, that's what a diary is for!

Actually I've been fucked a lot more than that over the years but most of the other times were at parties and such where I let multiple guys do me. Although such events are physically enjoyable, most of the time I leave without knowing their names and so I really don't count them no more than I count a blowjob as sex.

Indeed, I'm a bit picky when it comes to who I let fuck me which is why I've only averaged about four to five new guys a year. That may be a little more than average but I don't think it classifies me as a nymphomaniac either.

When it comes to blowjobs my standards are a LOT lower, in general simply, "Is he clean?" and "Does he have a cock?" I haven't bothers keeping score of those since most of the time that's all I allow - no touching me or anything else.

For me a good blowjob is a great way to spice up a date and besides, most people don't even consider it sex anymore. Now when it comes to me letting a guy under my blouse or in my pants... that is another thing entirely! I figure that if I am going to let a guy go that far I may as well let him fuck me.

Until just recently, my dad was the only guy in my family to have an entry in my diary. Unfortunately, we didn't get started though until I was already sixteen but since then my mom, her sister, and my cousin Kristen have created a delightful incestual relationship that we have been careful to keep a secret from my dad's more conservative side of the family.

My mom was actually my first girl to have sex if you don't count the times I masturbated together with my girlfriends but we never touched each other. Although I like being with a girl, so far I have only been with a total of eight women - half of excited when I saw my mom later and we quickly drew up a game plan for the next day. I couldn't wait for morning to arrive.

3. Horny Mother and Daughter in the Morning

The next morning found me laying in my bed, trying to catch a few more winks after my usual sendoff for my dad before he left for work. The weather had been hot and muggy for days so even though the air conditioning had been working overtime, I was still sweating a little although in fairness to the poor A/C unit, most of the heat buildup in me had nothing to do with the room temperature!

I turned on my side and squeezed my hand between my bare legs. I thought about how good he had felt in me this morning and my fingers easily slid over my still swollen clit, slipper and wet thanks to the cum he had left behind in me. I hadn't really intended to get myself started again but the feel of my fingertip on my sensitive clit sent a shiver all through me and I curled almost into a fetal position as suddenly I went from hot and sweaty to chilly with goose pimples all over me.

I gripped the edge of my bed with one hand while I slowly masturbated with the other. My dad's cum was slowly seeping from me and I pulled it up my pussy slit to spread over my clit. Wetting my finger, I put it into my mouth and sucked the slippery goop off my finger and licked it clean with my tongue. God I loved the way my cunt tasted when it was mingled with my dad's sperm! I curled my finger and slid it into me, followed by a second and then a third. My thumb moved over my clit while my fingers reminded me of my dad's cock as I pushed them in as far as I could. My little finger was wet from rubbing against the outer lips of my pussy so I let it slip down until it was toying with the outer edges of my asshole. It was so tight that even my tiny little finger had a hard time opening it up but I was able to drive my little finger up into my ass.

I could feel my other fingers in my pussy as I pushed my little finger deeper up my asshole. I usually only did something like this in the shower but damn I was feeling so horny and hot again! Between having just been fucked by my dad and dreaming about what I might do later at Rick's house, I was suddenly overwhelmed with animal lust and sexual energy. I drove my little finger all the way up into my asshole and my butt cheeks clenched tightly at the feel of this foreign invader between them. My other fingers were still fucking my wet pussy while my thumb continued to rotate around my hard clit making it send out waves of passionate pleasure that radiated down my legs and up my torso to the top of my head.

My orgasm was so intense I never noticed my mom entering my room and suddenly you my surprise I felt her soft smooth body pressing up against me from behind. Her firm boobs squeezed up against my back while her tongue ran up and down my neck. All the while her hand ran itself all over me, tracing her long fingernails over the sensitive spots on the side of my face and forehead.

"Mmmmmmm, sorry to interrupt honey but you looked so hot I couldn't resist," she whispered in a voice husky with lust. "Cum harder for me... show your mommy how you can make yourself cum baby... that's it Kelly, cum for me."

I didn't skip a beat as she kissed me and fondled my nude body. I pulled my fingers out of my pussy and asshole and started rubbing my soaking wet bald pussy furiously. My mom's put her arm around me and caressed my boobs in her hand, squeezing them just enough to drive me nuts but too hard. God she knew exactly how to and where to touch me!! Well, who would know better than my own mom, the woman who gave me life and to who I owed so much to?

I turned over to face her and her hand replaced mine as she fondled my wet pussy. My orgasm had been starting to wane but her hand on me immediately drove it to a peak again and I put my free arm around her and pulled her close to me. We kissed gently as I writhed in her arms on the bed, trying to contain myself but unable to do so as my orgasm reached even higher than the first time.

"Oh god mom, I love you soooooo much," I said, tears streaming from my eyes as the intensity of the love and emotions I was feeling right then completely inundated me.

"Don't stop... Ohhhhhhhhh PLEASE don't stop now." I humped my hips and crotch hard into her hand like I was trying to fuck a guy.

Damn, would this orgasm never end? Well, I certainly hoped not! My mom was a pro when it came to knowing exactly how far to push me and when to relax a bit so as to maintain me on that razor's edge between collapse and uncontrolled fury. My pussy was gushing cum now, flooding her hand and soaking the sheets as I came and came and came. Barely able to breath, it was like I was in another world. My bedroom was filled with this foggy haze and I could barely hear even her as she told me how beautiful and hot sexy I was I

"OH GOD!" I screamed as finally I couldn't hold it in any more. "OH FUCK ME!" I cried out at the top of my lungs.

I convulsed and straightened out completely, becoming stiff as a board as a tidal wave of ecstasy almost drowned me. I couldn't breathe, my lungs felt paralyzed and even the hairs on my head felt a tingle like electricity. Finally just in time I let out a whoosh of air and then sucked in a huge breath as my vision had begun to narrow and I probably would have passed out if I hadn't breathed. Exhausted and panting for air, I collapsed in my mother's arms, totally spent and unable to move even a finger as my pussy throbbed.

"Yesssssss... that's OK Kelly... you're still my little baby girl," she said in a soothing and motherly voice as she ran her fingers through my hair.

I laid my face on her breast and let her cuddle me like she did when I was a child, feeling safe and secure in my mother's loving arms. We laid like that as I fell sound asleep and it was an hour later before that I woke up to find her still holding me, still gently stroking me, talking lovingly and softly to me like I was her little baby girl again.

I laid there with my eyes closed for a while, listening to her as she sang a lullaby to me in a soft, gentle voice. I felt like I was eight years old again, laying against my mom in her bed, feeling her warm softness against me tender young body, feeling so utterly loved and secure. Finally I stirred and she realized I was awake again.

"Mmmmmmm, that was nice, wasn't it honey?" she murmured to me. Her fingertips slowly ran up and down my side from my neck down my hips and over my legs, sending a tingle through me and making me jump when she hit a ticklish spot. I looked up at her and kissed her softly. "Oh mom, I love you so much!" I said, tears again flowing from my eyes as I realized how fortunate I was to have a mother like her, one who loved me as much as she did, one who made me feel so delightful, so fulfilled, so happy. She just smiled and wiped my tears away.

"Come on sleepy head!" she said suddenly, "We've got a big day ahead of us!"

I looked over at my clock on the dresser and couldn't believe it was already almost 10:00! I had the shade pulled and so didn't realize the sun was already blaring outside. I knew my aunt and cousins would have left early to get to the outlets when they opened so if we were going to get over to Rick's I had better get going.

4. Getting Ready

I jumped into the shower while my mom took advantage of the time to remain in my bed and pay a little attention to herself. By the time I was out she had evidently finished and was in her room rummaging through her dresser. As I dressed she stopped by and held up two bikinis. Once was a bright red thong which had practically nothing for material in the ass except for a quarter inch strip of material that was certain to be pulled up her ass crack from the moment it went on.

The other was also a thong with a little more fabric but a killer bikini top that tied together with strings making it extremely easy to remove should the need arise. The second one was bright yellow and a bit sheer so with her bushy pubic hair I was thinking that it would show through the material, especially if it was wet! This was exactly why I shaved, well one reason at least.

Too many outfits these days showed whatever hair you had but if you kept your pussy bald it didn't appear as blatantly obvious that you were showing off. Not only that but for whatever reason guys seem to love a shaved pussy. I know most won't admit it but my personal theory is that it's because they like to fantasize going back to their teenage years and dream about fucking a hairless little pre-teen virgin!

"So girl, which one do you think Rick would like the best?" she asked, holding one in each hand to the sides of her. She was still nude so I couldn't help but giggle.

"The one in the middle," I replied with an impish grin on my face, enjoying the sight of her still nude body.

She hesitated for a second and then shook her head at me as she realized what I meant. "Oh come one, you know he'll see me naked but until then, which one will turn him on more do you think?"

It was not that easy to decide but finally I pointed to the yellow one. Mom had a nice ass for her age and the red one would have left it hanging out nicely but I thought it might excite Rick to see her dark pussy through that sheer bikini. Every stripper knows that it turns on guys more to NOT see everything but just enough to get a hint and then let the imagination do the rest. Few girls can compete with a guy's imagination so why not put it to work for you? My mom flashed a smile, twirled around and headed off to her room to get dressed. Apparently she wasn't going to shower and was just going to let the odor of me stay on her like a sexy perfume. That didn't bother me as I loved the smell of me on her or dad.

As for me, I didn't bother picking out a bikini as I intended to get what I wanted from Rick as quickly as possible in order to leave plenty of time to let my mom have her fun. I smiled as I thought of him at home, probably jerking off at this very minute as he thought about me coming over and what he planned to do to me when I was there. Hmmmmmm, imagine how hard he would be stroking if he knew what my REAL agenda was for the day!

5. Rick Fucks Me

My mom drove us over to my aunt and uncle's house. I went in the house first and she hung back so that Rick wouldn't know she had come with me. The garage door was open and I went in the inside door into the laundry room and then the kitchen but Rick wasn't there! I went to the patio doors and looked out at the pool but I didn't seem him there either.

I was about to turn around when I nearly jumped out of my skin as a voice suddenly said, "BOO!" Rick must have sneaked in behind me and now was laughing his ass off as I tried to regain my composure.

"That wasn't funny," I said softly, pretending to pout. Rick wasn't having none of that though.

"Oh fuck you Kelly," he laughed.

"Promise?" I shot back with a wink.

Rick rolled his eyes, "Sure. C'mon, let's get out to the pool and I'll do you there if that's what you want."

He opened the patio door and led the way. All he had on were some loose gym shorts and I followed behind him admiring his muscular tanned body with special interest in his tight ass which even the baggy shorts couldn't hide. I ran up to catch him and squeezed his butt playfully from behind. He laughed and slapped my hand away.

It was just after noon and the sun was intense. I knew the pool water was warm enough by this time of year not be a shock when you entered it so I couldn't wait to jump in! Kicking off my sneakers I quickly dropped my shorts and pulled my t-shirt up and over my head, leaving myself naked next to him. He started to reach for me but I twisted out is his grasp and jumped feet first into the pool. The initial feeling of the water against my naked body was exhilarating and I surfaced to look back at him.

"I'm not going to be so easy today buster!" I teased him, "If you want a piece of me you'll have to catch me first!"

Rick just grinned at my challenge and slipped off his shorts. I couldn't help but lick my lips as I saw his cock was already rock hard. It was nicely curved such that it stuck straight up as if at attention. I have never figured out how guys can deal with their cocks when they get so big and stiff. I mean, how do they walk? Oh well, I was just happy they had them!

Rick dived in but I had already started to swim away so when he surfaced I was halfway across the pool from him. I am a pretty good swimmer but the pool was only so big and he was a lot stronger than me so it wasn't long before he had me cornered in the shallow end.

"Got you now you little slut," he said with a grin. "Hmmm, now what was that about me promising to fuck you?"

"Words, words" I teased, "I want some action!"

He lunged forward and I almost dodged him but he was able to grab me by the ankle as I tried to avoid him. He roughly pulled me back to him and reached down to grab my other ankle. I was left on my stomach, paddling as I fought to keep my head above the water. The water was just deep enough I couldn't reach it with my hands but the ladder was right in front of me.

I grabbed the chrome bars and was left stretched out as I held onto the rails with my hands while he pulled me back by the ankles. He loosened up for a second and I started top sink and then he pulled me back again. I felt his cock between my legs this time and then he pulled my legs tight against me and I realized he had moved forward until he was right behind me. Then he seemed to have second thoughts and moved back again. I felt my body twist as he flipped me over on my back. He released my ankles and put his hands under my ass, lifting my up and partly out of the water. I looked down at my freshly shaved pussy glistening in the bright noon sunlight. My nipples were hard and erect as well, begging for attention.

"Damn, that's one inviting little pussy!" he said as he stared down at my shaved cunt.

I rolled my eyes and said, "Well don't just look at it silly, eat me!"

When it came to anything sexual, he didn't have to be told twice, that much I could say for him. He held my ass up in his hands and started to eat me like he was holding half a watermelon. Rick had claimed the first time he fucked me that he had not eaten pussy before mine but I didn't believe him for a second. Nobody is THAT naturally good - obvious he had had some instruction and practice along the way! He knew just how to slide his tongue up and down my pussy slit and exactly how to run it in circles around my clit to tease me and get me going - as if I needed any more incentive!

I looked over at his shoulders as his face was buried between my legs and I could see my mom watching us from behind the patio doors. I was wondering how long she was going to wait. After all, even if he didn't know it yet, today was really supposed to be her day with Rick and as much as I was enjoying it so far, I wanted to see my mom with him even more!

Rick's tongue suddenly pushed up into me and I gasped as the pool water lapped at my ass while his tongue penetrated me. Rick had an exceptionally long tongue or at least he was able to stick it out farther than most guys because it felt almost like he was fucking me with it the way it was able to go up so far inside of me. His hands squeezed my butt as he shook his head between my wet legs, rubbing his nose against my clit while he tongue fucked me. It felt so good I forgot all about my mom watching me so it was a surprise when I felt a shadow over me and looked up to see my mom standing at the edge of the ladder wearing nothing but that wild yellow thong bikini.

6. Mom Watches Rick and Me

"Well, well... what DO we have here?" she said in a teasing voice. "Looks like someone really knows how to eat some pussy!"

Rick looked up and saw my mom. It wasn't like the first time she had watched us having sex so he was shocked the way he back on our deck when she appeared while I was riding him. I think he WAS surprised for no other reason that she was there at all since I had never hinted to him that today it was going to be anything but me.

"Wow Aunt Mary, that is some bikini! How come you never wore that here before?"

He was just teasing my mom and we all knew it. Rick knew as well as anyone that his frigid mother would have had a stroke if my mom were to ever wear anything like that in front of her, especially if Uncle Jim was around. She got all prissy even when I wore my more conservative bikinis which actually covered the majority of my ass and most of my boobs.

and stood there looking so beautiful in the bright sun. It was enough that Rick stopped licking me and stood up to look at her.

We both stared as she performed a perfect dive headfirst into the pool. Her momentum took her underwater the length of the pool until she surfaced right behind Rick.

7. Mom Sucks her Nephew's Big Dick

Pulling her wet hair back she moved in behind him and put her arms around his waist, reaching down to grab his cock.

"Mmmmmmm," she purred, "nothing quite like a nice hard teenage cock. God it's been a long time since I had one of these in my hands."

I pulled away gently and Rick took the hint, allowing me to drop down to my feet so I could stand at the edge of the pool. Rick just stood there like a statue, as if he was afraid that if he moved he would wake up from this wet dream. My mother moved up tightly behind him and pressed up against him, her hands never leaving his crotch as she stroked his stiff cock slowly with a playful smile on her face.

My mom looked over his shoulder and winked at me. I barely kept myself from laughing; poor Rick had no idea before how horny my mom was for him but he was starting to find out! I lifted myself out of the pool and sat on the edge with my legs hanging in the water. I leaned back on one arm and spread my knees apart as my free hand worked its way down between them. My forefinger run up and down the wet slit of my pussy, sliding easily between the slippery flesh and over my clit.

Rick was watching me as my mom ground her crotch into his bare behind. She still had her bikini on which just made it all the more hot for me watch as she continued to put her arms around this handsome nude teenage boy. It was hard for me to see below the surface of the water but I could see just enough to let my imagination do the rest.

Rick finally relaxed enough to turn around and face my mom. She must have been conscious that I was watching and knew that I would like to see what was going on so she twisted the two of them such that I had a side view of what happened next. My mom dipped down under the water and I could see her head move up tight into his crotch. Judging by Rick's reaction I knew she had his cock in her mouth!

Rick looked up at the bright sky and his eyes closed as a look of sheer pleasure came to his face. I bet it was the first time he had ever been blown underwater and getting from my mom I knew had to make it extra special. She stayed under for at least ten or fifteen seconds and then popped back up to the surface for air. She stood up and looked up at his eyes, her hand stroking his cock underwater.

"So, does my hot young nephew like his dick sucked?" she asked in a teasing tone. "Tell your favorite aunt what you want."

Rick hesitated for a few moments. Obviously each of us knew what he wanted! I bit my lip as I rubbed my clit and listened for his reply. Rick took a deep breath and like a good horny teenage boy, swung for the fences.

"I want to fuck you Aunt Mary!" He paused, looked over at me and then back to her.

A smile came to his face as his confidence grew. I think somehow he had caught on to the fact that he was the one actually in control. "Besides, that's what you want too isn't it? You want a piece of what your daughter got."

My mom turned her head to me, "Now THAT'S what I call a nephew!" she called over to me. She gave him a push on the chest with both hands, almost knocking him off his feet. "Well let's go tiger, get up on the edge of the pool! You talk big; let's see if you can deliver."

Rick obeyed his aunt and to my surprise and delight, he chose to sit right next to me. I looked down and saw his hard cock was still pointing up like a flagpole as stiff as ever. It was certainly tempting and I felt a flutter in my stomach as for a brief moment I considered trying to get to it before my mom did but my mom was already there waiting for him.

Putting one hand on each of his knees, she spread them apart and moved between his legs. Her hands moved around him to grab his butt and she lowered her head to his crotch and licked the tip of his cock with her tongue. She ran her tongue around the head in slow circles and then slipped his cock into her open mouth, slowly moving down farther and farther until her face met the wet pubic hair plastered to his crotch as the base of his dick. Her lips closed down on him and she twisted her head around his shaft as she slowly raised back up and let him slip from her mouth. This was repeated several times and Rick was in ecstasy, groaning with pleasure each time her head bottomed out in his crotch.

"Ohhhhhh Aunt Mary... god damn that feels so good... oh yeah, like that!" he moaned.

I got a kick out of him calling my mom "Aunt Mary" as if they were having a casual conversation. Somehow it sounded almost naughty, like somehow she was taking advantage of him. Well, from the way he was breathing hard and flexing his hips against her mouth, I wasn't sure who was taking advantage of whom!

My mom's wet hair was hanging down making it hard for me to see her mouth on him but I had more than enough experience to know he was just another stroke or two away from bursting. My mom must have recognized it as well because the next time she took his whole cock in she stayed down and shook her head back on forth on him. His hips rose up and a long groan escaped as he came in my mom's mouth. I could see her trying to stay on him, some cum leaking between his cock and her lips down to his thick wet pubic hair.

Rick bucked up against her face as he shot more loads into her and she had to lift up to get some air before she gagged. As her mouth opened to release him a pool of cum escaped and dripped from her lips. She looked up at him and a drip of cum stuck to her chin and hung down like a sexy beard. She pursed her lips and pushed more cum out between them, blowing bubbles with it.

Then my mom did something that surprised even me. She moved over to where I was frozen in place, the finger in me motionless as I was transfixed by the site of my mom sucking him off. God did she ever look sexy! I was wondering what she was thinking when she leaned over and kissed me, his cum on her face sticking to mine. Our mouths opened and she pushed the remaining cum in her mouth into mine and I tasted his salty sperm.

We both looked out of the corners of our eyes at the same time over at Rick where I saw him watching his aunt and cousin kissing and exchanging his cum. He was stroking his wet cock and I could only imagine what nasty thoughts were going through his teenage mind!

8. Rick Fucks His Aunt

My mom reluctantly pulled away from me but I knew it was only because she had more in store for Rick. She climbed the stairs out of the pool and stood behind him. She was still wearing her bikini but that was about to change. Mom quickly slipped it off and stood there in the brilliant sunlight, her wet body glistening like a gem in the sun, water dripping from her pussy as it drained from her body.

Walking over to the nearest chaise lounge chair, she pulled off the cushion and threw it on the concrete behind us. Rick and I were both looking at her with lust in our eyes as she got down on her knees and then fell forward onto her elbows leaving us with a straight-on view of her beautiful ass.

Mom may have been 39 but many a twenty-something girl would have killed to have her butt! She shifted her weight and spread her knees apart so her pussy was clearly visible and then reached under and between her legs to start playing with herself. Inserting her finger into her pussy, she pushed it all the way in and then looked back around her shoulder at Rick to make sure he was watching.

"Damn Rick, are you going to just let me masturbate?' she taunted.

She turned her head back and fucked herself faster with her fingers, as if to say to him if he wasn't going to do anything then she as willing to take care of herself. Rick responded by moving over next to her and kneeling at her side. He started to run his hands over her stomach and moved up to her large breasts.

My mom's breasts were 38Ds and while not as firm as they were twenty years ago, they were still in pretty good shape like her ass. My dad claimed to be torn between who had the better boobs, me or my mom. She was obviously the choice of the tit-men while I had the smaller but more perky ones for the guys who liked the teenage look.

I doubt Rick had ever felt boobs as big as my mom's before and soon he had one in each hand, squeezing them and pressing them together. Leaning over, he took the nipple on the closest breast in his mouth and started sucking on it. Rick took both hands and cupped her breast between them, pushing it up as he sucked on her erect nipple. My mom loved her breasts to be played with and she moaned loudly as he sucked on her like a baby boy.

"Harder!" she moaned, "Suck it harder... that's it, bite it if you have to."

Mom was still playing with her pussy while Rick was licking and sucking her breasts, one and then the other, switching back and forth between them. Her nipples were like magnum bullets as he ran his tongue around them in circles and then put them between his teeth and gently shook his head to pull on them. I noticed his cock was pressing into her side and he was humping her with it, rubbing his sensitive cock against her smooth skin. He was practically masturbating! Then he started to move up as if to kiss her but she quickly turned her head away with her lips tight together.

"Sorry, no kissing," she said, "I AM your aunt, you know, not your lover. Now are you going to fuck me or what?"

I turned to face them so it would be easier to watch. Rick started to move around my mom but she twisted herself over and got on her elbows and knees such that her ass and pussy were right there for him. She moved one arm back and started to play with herself while we watched, quickly inserting one finger into her pussy and stroking it in and out of herself. Damn her ass looked so hot sticking up in the air like that!

I would have loved to have kneeled behind her and plunged my face into her crotch and eaten her in front of Rick but he wasn't wasting any more time the horny bastard! Rick kneeled between her legs and took his cock in his right hand while he used his left to spread her ass cheeks apart.

My mom took her finger out of herself and spread her pussy lips apart to make it easier for him. This also helped Rick since Mom didn't shave and her wet pussy hair was plastered down in a thick matt against her cunt. Rick scooted forward until his cock head was up against her pussy hole. As he started to push I could see her pushing pushed back, driving him quickly inside of her.

Rick then grabbed her hips and pulled her back into him as he rammed his cock forward until his crotch bottomed out against her butt. Instantly he started stroking himself fast in and out of her, fucking her hard from the start without any further fanfare.

It was incredible watching my cousin fuck my mom! After all, this was the first time I had ever seen anyone else besides my dad do her and for it to be this young horny hunk made it all the more erotic. I was still masturbating myself and soon was on the edge of my own orgasm as my mom was having one of her own. I hoped hers was as powerful as mine was and if anything I was sure that with a cock in her it was even more so for her. I only wished he was in me instead!

I tend to be the "quiet moaner" when it comes to orgasms. I guess that comes from having sex in so many public places and having to be more subtle when I came. Face it, you really can't cry out "Fuck me!" in the middle of a movie theater! My mom, on the other hand, was what guys call a 'screamer". When she would cum there was no doubt about it and today was no exception. Rick was pumping her like a madman when she started yelling at him and crying out.

"Oh god fuck me!... fuck me harder dammit... OH MY GOD... fuck me you bastard," and on it went as her orgasm peaked.

I can remember many a night as a young girl listening to my parents making love. Although they had kept the door closed when they did until I started fucking them, even a little girl didn't need to have it explained to her what was going on behind that door when she could hear mommy screaming for daddy to fuck her!

Rick was about to cum as well and I feared he was going to pull out. This I knew was the last thing my mom would want. There was no danger of anything happening since she couldn't have any more kids after the problems she had with me so I couldn't help but interrupt.

"Stay in her Rick," I urged him, "cum in your Aunt! Show me how you can fuck my mom Rick! Show her how you fucked her daughter!"

Rick looked over his shoulder at me and cocked his head in an "oh well!" expression. He pushed himself as far into her as she could and then started to cum in her, pumping my mom with one load of cum after another. I knew she could feel him cumming in her from the way she resumed her outbursts when her orgasm rose back again from the warmth of his cum being released inside of her.

"Oh fuck yes!" she yelled, "Screw me Rick, cum in me, fuck me!"

It was wild! I had never seen my mom like this in all the times she had fucked my dad. I don't know if she was just channeling his youthful energy or what but she was like a mad woman, throwing her head back while she cried out for him to keep cumming. She was rocking violently back and forth against his cock which somehow seemed to be staying just as hard as ever, even after having cum twice now.

Finally she collapsed on her elbows as he leaned forward onto her, trying not to dump all his weight upon her. Well, well, apparently even a young stud can get tired if he fucks hard and long enough!

9. Aunt Shari Comes Home

I had some ideas about what he could do with that still hard cock when suddenly I heard a sound coming from the direction of house. Oh my god, the garage door was opening! I caught a glimpse of my aunt's SUV coming down the street and then disappearing in front of the house. Damn, they must have come back early for some reason!

I yelled at the two of them that his mom was back and the look on Rick's face was priceless. As desperate as I was feeling I couldn't help but laugh at the expression of sheer panic. His eyes were like saucers and his jaw dropped as what was probably his worst fear in the world was being realized. My mom looked concerned but kept her wits about her.

"Hurry up you two, get dressed!" she urged, "Rick, get back in the pool and Kelly you sit over at the table."

She hurriedly put her bikini on which had dried somewhat in the sun and didn't show through as much now. She threw the cushion back on the chaise lounge frame where she then laid on her back as if she had been sunning. Rick's cock was still hard and poked out from his trunks like a tent pole. You had to give the boy credit; as panicked as he was he wasn't losing an ounce of that erection!

Rick jumped into the pool and stayed close to the side where he could hide his obvious problem. Fortunately for my mom and me, we didn't have such an obvious sign of our horniness and the flush look on our faces could easily have been taken as being from the heat of the afternoon sun. We were in place when the back patio door opened and my aunt called out to us.

"Hey, I didn't know you were coming over Mary. Hang on and we'll join you!"

I looked over at my mom and she gave me a wink. I looked at her in that skimpy bikini and wondered how she was going to explain that to Aunt Shari. She had never worn anything even close to it before and even had a couple of one-piece suits just for when we swam here. If it upset Aunt Shari when I wore a skimpy bikini, I wondered what she was going to say when she saw my mom, especially with her son around!

Well, we were soon to find out as within a few minutes she and my two cousins joined us in their swim suits. Aunt Shari started to explain how the air conditioning in the SUV had broken so they decided to come home when I saw her eyes widen as she realized what my mom was wearing.

"Uh, Mary," she stuttered, "is that a new suit? I don't think I've seen it on you before."

My mom replied with a sly grin, "I was just trying to get a better tan for a new dress John bought me. It has a low cut back and I didn't want any tan lines showing."

I don't think my aunt bought that for even a second but then my mom suggested the two of them go into the house for some ice tea. That left the four of us by the pool. The problem was that while Tammy and Kate had their suits on, I didn't have mine with since I hadn't expected to need to wear one!

Somehow we got through the rest of the afternoon although Kate kept asking Rick why he was hanging around the edge of the pool. The poor boy must have finally calmed down because he eventually got out of the pool without too visible of a lump in his suit.

Tammy was looking hot, even in a relatively conservative two piece suit but there wasn't going to be any hanky panky between us today with Rick ad Kate there. I couldn't help but wonder what might happen if Kate would go away but she hung around like glue.

We finally all went in the house and my mom and I said our goodbyes. She and Rick locked eyes for just a second longer than usual but I doubt his mom caught it. I knew that this wasn't going to be the last time Rick got to fuck his aunt and older cousin!

(Aug 17) Chapter 96: Third Summer Sex Party

Story codes: MF FF FFF group oral
Me (20)
Rick - cousin (17)
Beth - BFF (21)

I figured what the heck, why not go to one more? This time, in addition to the eight guys that fucked me, I had my first lesbian party sex featuring my best friend Beth and two other girls.

1. My Past Sex Parties

It had been more than a month now since the last time my best friend Beth was able to talk me into going with her to one of her sex parties. It wasn't like she hadn't tried, believe me. Sometimes it seems that she spends half her evenings at the crazy things!

As for me, I have never understood the big attraction. Sure, they're fun to go to every now and then but so are lots of other things and I don't do them all the time. I guess I'm just more conservative and not a party girl like Beth or more cousin Kristen. Kristen goes with her quite a bit, but we really don't talk about it much other than a hint or a knowing look now and then. Actually, I hear more about Kristen's "extracurricular activities" from my mom who gets her information from Kristen's mom, who has always been quite proud of her daughter's exploits.

Every party Beth has taken me to over the past two summers has been unique in its own way, yet there is a common thread that runs through all of them, at least for me. Of course at each one I have sex with any number of guys in a variety of locations and positions - that's the whole point going after all! What I am referring to is a common denominator where the sex has always been with men, never a woman.

It's not that I don't like sex with girls - THAT certainly has it's time and place. It's just that from my perspective, being fucked by a guy seems more suited to this type of situation. I mean, so far in my life sex with guys has revolved around various forms of fucking and getting off without a great deal of intimacy. Sure, I've had crushes on a few boys but looking back, that's all they were.

Thus you could say I liked being fucked by a guy for my own pleasure. I'm not afraid to admit that it's quite an ego booster when men fall over themselves to have me, including cheating on their wives and girlfriends. Although letting my uncle fuck me is more out of a sense of family obligations than actual attraction, I still enjoy it or I wouldn't let him do it. My father has been the only man in my life with whom there has been any sense of an emotional bonding, but that should be obvious.

In contrast to being with men, many of whom I have no idea even what their names were, my lesbian experiences have involved women I am close to, such as my mom and aunt, or my younger cousins Tammy and Kristen. Outside my family, the only girls I have done it with has been people I am close to, like my college roomies Beth and Jen, my mom's friend Tammy or my best friend Beth. So you see, lesbian sex is much more intimate and emotional for me, not something I would normally think about doing with stranger at a party.

There have been a few notable exceptions, but very limited. To put it in perspective, in my life so far I've had sex with 139 different men (100 of those were at parties so someone were to ask me I would normally say I've had sex with 39 men) but only 19 girls. Of course, I don't count slumber parties when I was in high school where we masturbated together, that was just typical girl stuff and in any case, it didn't involve any sexual contact with other girls.

2. Sunday Morning - Masturbating Before Church

So now it was the middle of August and the weather was typical for that time of year - hot and muggy. It was Sunday morning and I was concentrating on what to wear to church. One look out my bedroom window and I knew from the clear ski and bright sun it was going to be another scorcher.

While most of our church is air-conditioned, the sanctuary is huge and being built over one hundred years ago, not well insulated so air-conditioning was never installed. They kept lots of fans running, especially on days like today, but all it did was move the hot air around. If I had my druthers, I would just throw on a pair of shorts and a bikini top and stay cool but it WAS church and I was raised that a certain decorum applied. I mean, it's not like the old days where people wore suits and long dresses, no matter what. But still, our family "dressed up" for church and for me that typically meant a dress or at least a skirt and nice blouse. No shorts, jeans, etc., at least not for services.

My dad was out of town for the weekend which meant no "wakeup call" for me this morning and I was definitely feeling even hornier than usual as a result. It's funny how you can take something for granted and it's not until it's gone that you realize how much it means to you. It felt strange just waking up on my own and getting out of bed without having first taken care of my dad's needs. I thought about him in his hotel room and wondered if he was jerking off thinking about what he was missing this morning. To be honest, I was hoping he was and that meant he missed me!

Having just gotten out of bed, I was still nude as I stood in front of my closet. Typically I don't bother putting anything on until I have finished in the bathroom since it was right across the hall from my bedroom. Like, what would be the point to through on a shirt or something just to drop it again a few minutes later?

I started sleeping in the buff back when I was barely twelve. At the time, it was more that I was wanting to act grown-up and be like my parents than anything else. Over time, once I got accustomed to it, it got to the point where even a light negligee felt restrictive when I was in bed. There is just something about the feel of cool sheets against your bare skin that feels good at night. Besides, I've never understood the reason for covering yourself up in bed. It's not like I run around the house nude or anything but when I throw back the covers, the night shirt doesn't come off until just before I slip between the sheets.

Turning slightly, I looked at myself in the mirror mounted on the closet door and did what every girl does when she sees herself in the mirror - criticize myself! While I certainly am not fat, I can't claim to have the petite figure of my cousin Kristen. My boobs are finally respectable and perky without any sag but when I compare them to my best friend Beth's, it's easy to understand why when we are together the boys always look at her chest first.

My fingers pinched the nipples on both of my breasts and pulled on them before letting go and allowing them to snap back. They tingled a bit and I smiled as they responded, growing harder and more pointed as I toyed with them. While I may not have always had the most spectacular boobs, even in a training bra my nipples have always been extremely sensitive and responsive to even the slightest attention. Just wearing a loose blouse that rubs over my nipples as I move is enough to get them poking out like bullets from my chest.

me except these were flames of pleasure. My bedroom disappeared and I was consumed by pure lust, my body aching for a cock to be in me. I could feel my pussy cum pouring over my hand as I kept my fingers in my pussy, stroking them in and out like a dick was in me instead. Just as I thought I was going to pass out, a giant gasp erupted from me and I took in a huge breath of air.

"Oh god!" I moaned over and over as I shook like I was freezing to death. It was like I was quivering like a guitar string that had been plucked, except that it was my fingers playing over my pussy that was producing the sensational music inside of me.

Finally I couldn't even stand anymore and I slid down the door until I was sitting on the floor, my legs spread wide apart and now both hands pressing against my crotch. I had two fingers in me with the other hand pressing them tighter inside of me. I was exhausted, unable to even move my hands.

"Hey! We have to be at church in a half hour silly, couldn't this have waited?"

I forced my eyes open to see my mom standing over me, hands on her hips. She was dressed and ready to go and here I was, still naked and sitting on the floor with my fingers up my pussy, caught like a kid with her hands in the cookie jar.

"No... it couldn't'," I protested.

"Well, quit playing with yourself and get going, we're going to be late."

It was tempting to just get dressed and go to church smelling like sex but I knew that wouldn't go over well with some of the people there. I took a FAST shower, being careful not to get my hair wet and quickly got myself ready. Fortunately, I have never been one of those girls that takes two hours to get ready so in twenty minutes I was bouncing down the stairs to join my mom.

"You know, you're not twelve anymore Kelly," my mom chided me, "Someday you are going to have to learn some self-control!"

It was the same speech she had given me a hundred times, just in a different format, so I ignored it for the hundredth time as well. I mean, a girl's got to do what a girl's got to do!

"Hey Kelly, I'm gonna fuck Beth during Sunday School - wanna watch?" he said, almost choking on his words with his excitement. "You're going to fuck Beth? Here? Now?"

"Yeah, I know, I wasn't supposed to tell you but I couldn't resist once I saw you."

"So... is that why you were so horny that you fondled my mom's ass right smack in the middle of the parking lot?"

Rick grinned sheepishly and said with a wicked smile, "Oh, you saw that. Well, she DOES have a nice ass you know."

I had to concede that point to him as my mom did indeed have a great looking ass! Not to mention boobs that still were hanging in there and not a line on her face or thighs.

"So... does Beth know you're planning on fucking her?" I teased him. Really, I was having a hard time believing him as Beth had never told me she was doing anything with him.

Rick rolled his eyes at me in exasperation. "Very funny - gimme a break, Kelly."

My mom was calling after me by now so I just giggled at him and ran off to catch up with the rest of my family. My parents attended a session intended for married couples while I split off to the college group. Just as I was about to go into the room I looked down the long hallway and saw Rick poking his head around the corner, gesturing with his arm to come down and join him.

Out of curiosity, more than anything, I decided to see what he really wanted as honestly, I still thought he was just jerking my chain with all that talk about fucking Beth. Beth was my best friend and I couldn't believe that she was screwing my cousin and hadn't told me about it.

Beth was the only person outside my family that knew about my "special relationships" at home and indeed, was the only girl my dad had ever fucked outside our family since he married my mom over twenty years ago. That alone should tell you how close of friends we were and how much a part of our family she was considered to be. Thus it was unimaginable to me that Beth would have been fucking Rick before now and not telling me about it.

"Move your ass and get in here," Rick hissed at me as I approached.

He was leaning out of a doorway leading to one of the older rooms in the church. These days it was now pretty much used for storing junk and not much else. Indeed, I couldn't even remember being in it before.

"Hide over there - Beth should be here any minute," he said in a low voice, as if he was afraid he would be overhead.

Being at the end of the hallway in this relatively unused part of the church, the odds of THAT were pretty remote. Heck, I hadn't even been down here in years myself.

Rick was pointing towards a pile of boxes stacked against one side of the room that were labeled as having the various props for our annual Christmas pageant. In front of them was a clothes rack filled with costumes for the same pageant. So this is where they kept all that stuff! Rick pulled the clothes rack out far enough for me to hide between it and the boxes. Just in the nick of time, too, as it turned out. No sooner was I squatting down behind the clothes, peeking out between the costumes, then I heard a familiar voice - my best friend!

"Alright, let's get going before someone catches us down here," I barely heard her whisper.

At first I couldn't actually see her or Rick but then someone closed the door and they moved over to an empty table which was almost directly in front of me, giving me virtually a front row seat to whatever was about to happen.

Beth was dressed rather conservatively - at least compared to her usual outfits. It was just a simple floral dress that came to just above her knees with thin spaghetti shoulder straps and a "peasant girl" style bust. God I loved her boobs! I'd been jealous of them since I was just twelve, when she was already into a B cup and I was in a training bra. Today they were a full D cup but didn't have the sag and droopiness most bigger girls had to deal with.

Her long brunette hair was hanging down to the middle of her back, nothing special other than the hours of combing in her bedroom I knew she spent. From her flushed appearance and the way she kept staring at his crotch, I knew my best friend well enough to know she was one horny girl at the moment. Well, that made two of us!

"You're late. I was afraid you weren't going to show up," Rick whined slightly.

Beth moved in closer to Rick and pressed her hand on the growing bulge in his pants. "And miss out on this?" she responded seductively, "Mmmmmmm, not on your life."

God, was I getting turned on! It's not like I hadn't seen Beth with a guy before. Beth was a charter member of a local group that met frequently for private sex parties and she had invited me to a couple already this summer. Beth was heavily into the group sex scene, much more than me. Although the two of us have been best friends forever, even fucking some guys together, we had never fooled around with each other until this past winter. The most amazing thing about Beth, so far as sex goes, is that my dad has fucked her as well – twice actually.

I say amazing because my parents are VERY strict when it comes to adultery. Neither of them has cheated on the other since they were married which I believe has been a major factor in the success of their marriage. My parents have taught me that once you're married, sex with anyone outside your family – even with the consent of your spouse, is forbidden, a violation of the Ten Commandants (you know the one – Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery). Given their strict interpretation and the lectures they had given me growing up on the subject, you can imagine how shocked I was when my dad joined me and Beth in the hot tub and then fucked her while my mom looked on from my second floor bedroom window. I guess it just goes to show how close Beth and I are that my dad considers her as another virtual daughter. My only issue is that she doesn't know about MY relationship with my dad – something I hope someday I can share with her.

Since Beth didn't know my family practiced incest, there was no reason she would even suspect that Rick was fucking both me and my mom on a regular basis. Well, I should say it was more my mom a lot more than me but that's a technicality. Even so, I was a little curious as to why she hadn't told me before this that she was fucking my cousin. It's not like anyone could blame her for wanting him. Rick was quite a hunk and from what I've heard, over half the girls in school either had been fucked by him or WANTED him to.

So as I said, I've seen Beth in action plenty of times before but there was something different about seeing her with Rick that was different. Maybe it was nothing more than the voyeuristic element, the "peeping tom" thrill that came from watching her without her knowledge, I don't know. Whatever it was, seeing her squat down, pull his nice cock out of his pants, and without hesitating for a second start sucking his cock was making me wet as hell!

Rick groaned as Beth took his dick deep in her mouth. I couldn't help but smile to myself, though, thinking that it didn't take much to get a guy off – especially a guy as young as Rick. I knew Beth a LOT better than he did so I knew she wasn't nearly as into giving head as I was. For her, it was just something that a guy expected and so she did it more out of some sense of obligation than anything else.

Beth loved to be fucked more than anything - and by as many cocks as possible at the same time. I guess that's why she loves her parties as there she can have three of four guys at once. Although I am unwavering when it comes to anal sex (as in NONE), Beth loves it and has told me (actually more like bragging) several times about her experiences with double penetration. Of course, having a third or fourth cock to suck while two guys were fucking her ass and pussy at the same time was just icing on the cake for her.

With all that, it didn't surprise me that Beth only sucked his dick for a couple of minutes before some internal alarm clock went off. Her cocksucking duties fulfilled, she sat back on the table top, legs spread wide apart. I couldn't help but smile as it was about as unladylike a pose as you could imagine, more like watching whore in one of my dad's porn movies opening up for her sex scene.

"Alright now, I want that fucking dick in me," she said in a commanding tone. There was little doubt who was running the show here!

Rick wasn't saying anything at this point. He was so hard and horny the only thing his mind could cope with at this moment was whatever it took to fuck this sexy girl exposing herself in front of him. As he stripped his pants and underwear off, Beth lifted her dress to reveal her pretty pussy underneath. Yep, that was typical of my best friend, showing up for church without any underwear on!

By now I had lifted my own skirt up and pushed my panties off to the side, letting my fingers have access to my own pussy which was practically dripping to the floor by now. My fingertip brushed up against my clit and it was all I could do to keep from gasping out loud as it was like being poked by an electric prod. It hadn't been all that long since I had masturbated at home and the poor thing still hadn't completely calmed down. As I watched Rick slip his big cock into Beth's open pussy, I slid my own finger up into me, imagining he was fucking me instead of my lucky best friend.

"Ahhhhhh, fuck!" Beth moaned, wiggling her hips as Rick pushed himself deeper inside of her, "Stuff it in me! Shove that cock up my pussy!"

Rick pulled her straps off her shoulders and pushed the dress down to expose her monstrous boobs. Even from across the room I could see how hard her nipples were! My hands felt my own boobs through my top and I sighed silently as my breasts tingled from the attention. God I would have loved to rub our boobs together!

immediately dropped to her knees in front of him. She held her face up, looking at him with her mouth wide open and tongue hanging out like a puppy waiting for a treat. She didn't have to wait long as Rick jerked himself off with just a few strokes and then my eyes widened as I watched his sperm spew from the tip of his swollen cock, landing all over her face and hair. Miraculously, it didn't appear that any made it on her dress which was always a concern of mine, especially when I was doing it somewhere where I would have to go back in public after being fucked.

When he stopped shooting cum, Beth took his spent cock in her hand and used it to rub his cum all over her face, spreading it like some facial cream over her cheeks, chin and forehead. Her entire face shown in the dim light with its covering of messy cum.

Rick was still panting from his exertions and I saw his firm butt clench involuntarily as she took his sensitive dick again in her mouth, suck every last of the cum from him. Satisfied she had all he had to give her, she dropped his dick with a smacking sound from her lips. Then she looked at her watch and stood up with a broad smile on her face.

"Now THAT'S what I call a church lesson!" she said with a grin. She looked over to where there was a full length mirror and frowned at what she saw.

"Good God, I can't go out looking like THIS!" she said, more to herself than anything.

She twisted around, looking for something to wipe herself off. Her boobs were still hanging out as she hadn't bothered straightening up her dress yet. That's my Beth, never missing a chance to show off those tits, even if it was just my cousin there to see them (or so she thought).

Then, to my horror, she seemed to see something in the clothes rack in front of me and started to head my way. I crouched even lower and she never seemed to notice me as she reached for one of the robes and used it like a towel to wipe Rick's cum from her face. In my head I thought to next Christmas and wondered which sixth grade shepherd boy was going to have my cousin's cum stains on his robe when he donned his costume for the pageant!

Rick had pulled his pants back up but his cock was still firm enough to push out against the fabric. He certainly didn't seem to mind, assuming he was even aware of it, and I guess it really didn't matter one way or another. From my experience, it seemed like most guys his age were walking around with erections half the time anyway!

For a moment I contemplated how I could take care of his "situation" and my pussy gave a sharp twinge at the thought of his dick pushing its way up into me but common sense stayed in control. It wasn't that I was worried that Beth would be embarrassed or anything like that because I saw my cousin fucking her. My real concern was that it might lead to some difficult questions about whether or not I was letting him fuck me as well. I wasn't very good at lying to Beth – she knew me too well to even try!

Once Beth had her face cleaned off she took out some lipstick and powder from her purse and made some quick adjustments in the mirror. I couldn't help but smile as I noticed she STILL hadn't bothered covering up her boobs. Well, if I had boobs like hers, I would be showing them off as much as possible as well.

Finally, Beth stood up and straightened out her dress and pulled the top back up and over her beautiful boobs. She had to know Rick was watching her every move, which was probably why she made such a show over it. As she made her way out the room, she patted Rick's crotch like someone would pet their puppy when it was being good.

"You know Rick, anytime you want to fuck me, all you gotta do is ask," she murmured with a naughty grin on her face.

A smile came to my face as I realized she had taken the words right out of my mouth. Yep, my cousin could fuck me anytime he wanted as well! With that she left and as soon as Rick was sure she was gone, he motioned for me to come out.

"Well, what did ya think?" he asked, sounding more like a little boy seeking approval from his mommy.

"Hmmm, not bad I guess. I just want to know why you didn't fuck me instead of her," I said, pretending to be a little upset with him, although maybe not pretending as much as I first thought.

"C'mon Kelly, gimme a break," he begged, "It's not like we've been doing it for that long, you know."

"Oh really? And just how long have you been screwing my best friend?"

Rick hesitated, as if he was afraid to answer. Then he finally responded in a low voice saying, "Ummmmm, I guess it's been a couple of years now."

Damn! How had Beth kept this from me all that time? That little slut! God, he was only fifteen back then as well.

"Well, just so you know, I expect to get it more than her from now on – understood?"

Rick just grinned stupidly. I suppose any seventeen year-old boy would do the same if his older cousin was insisting that he fuck her more than her best friend. Heck, I think he would be more than happy just being able to fuck me period! To be perfectly honest, it wasn't his enjoyment that I was concerned about anyway - I wanted it just as much as he did.

4. Beth Invites Me to Another Party

As much as I was tempted to give him a quickie BJ, it was getting close to the start of the church service. We had to get moving if we were going to meet our families in time to sit together. Our parents were waiting, rather impatiently I might add, outside the sanctuary when we showed up and without a word they turned and let the usher seat us in our usual pew. I was at the end with my mom next to me so when leaned over to whisper in my ear, it would have been hard for anyone to overhear her.

"What's with you two anyway? Rick's got that smile on his face and you're all flushed." She hesitated and then looked me in the eyes and continued, "Oh for crying out loud, were you two just fooling around?"

I couldn't help but giggle just a little and then I turned to her to answer, "Not me... but you'll never guess who was."

My mom looked me in the eyes with curiosity. Trying to keep quiet as the service was about to start, she gestured as if to say, "Well, then spill it girl!"

Just then Beth and her family were coming down the aisle and I rolled my eyes in the direction of Beth. My mom's mouth dropped openly momentarily before she caught herself and regained her composure.

"Really?" she whispered in a barely audible tone.

I just nodded and smiled as Beth passed by us and our eyes met. There was a twinkle in her eyes and I felt a little twinge in my pussy again as I could only imagine how good her freshly fucked pussy must be feeling about now. Without any panties, I wondered if any of Rick's cum was going to drip down her legs. God, I could only imagine what people would say then!

Beth and her parents took a seat further down so my eyes switched to my cousin's crotch and it took all the willpower I had not to reach over and unzip his dress pants, pulling his dick out and sucking him right in the pew in front of everyone! God I was SO horny now, even more than usual. Yep, THAT would have caused a scene alright! My squirming and crossing of legs must have attracted my mom's attention as she leaned over and whispered in my ear,

"Horny?"

I just smiled at her and licked my lips just enough to let her know she was right on the mark. As our praise team took over and the sound level rose, and I looked around, wondering what people would think if they had any idea at all what my thoughts were at that moment!

Over the next hour or so, somehow I made it through the service without playing with myself - or someone else. Afterwards, as we made our way out to the parking lot, I found myself walking next to Beth.

"Hey girl, you're looking really hot this morning," I teased her, "Hmmmmmm, if I didn't know better I'd say someone got laid this morning."

Beth giggled and that twinkle reappeared in her eyes.

"Well, you never know..."

"Oh my god, you DID get laid, didn't you," I gasped, as if I had no idea what had happened earlier. "Who was it?"

Beth just smiled and didn't say a word, obviously she had no intention of telling me so I let it drop. Then just as quickly, she looked around to be sure nobody was nearby and then turned to me and whispered in a conspiratorial tone.

"Hey Kelly, there's a party Wednesday night - wanna come?"

Well, at least I didn't have to ask what KIND of party it as, With Beth, there was only one kind - one of her group sex parties.

"Nawwwwww, I don't think so," I said, trying to worm my way out of it.

"Oh come on Kelly, don't be such a spoil-sport all the time, loosen up and have some fun!"

I knew it was hopeless to talk her out of it so I just shrugged and we were on for Wednesday night. We hugged and I got in the car with my mom.

"Well, did she say anything?" my mom inquired.

I spent the rest of the short trip home telling her as much as I could remember. She just kept shaking her head as I went on.

"I should have known something was up when he squeezed my ass," she said with a hint of a laugh.

We let it go at that but I imagined she told her sister about it before the day was over. Given the two of the shared about everything - including a husband and a daughter, this wasn't something to keep secret.

Now as much as I try to claim that I don't really get off from Beth's parties, I have to admit I was horny as hell for the next three days waiting for it. It was like I crossed the lone and decided to go for it, everything took on a different context. God, I must have masturbated a dozen times, not to mention almost attacking my dad when he got home from his trip Monday night (not that he minded!). Thus by the time Beth picked me up Wednesday night I had worked myself up to such a state that I think just about anything would be OK with me this time.

5. The Party Gets Started With an Initiation

This was going to be my third party for the summer. While that seemed a lot to me, I knew Beth sometimes did three in just one WEEK! In any case, I knew what to wear - and what not to. Actually it was pretty obvious when you thought about it as the idea of the party was to have sex and everyone there knew it. Thus there was no need for underwear and such since it was just going to come off right away anyway. In fact, this time the only thing I was wearing was a short skimpy sundress. It was pale yellow and fairly transparent, letting my nipples show through plainly. With the sun behind me it didn't leave a lot to the imagination, that's for sure. Even in normal light, if I had not been shaved you could have seen the darkness of my pussy through the fabric as well.

Beth was dressed almost as simply, but in her case she had on a pair of denim shorts and a super-tight tank top she grew out of years ago but showed her boobs off nicely.

We arrived at a house which was considerably smaller than the ones we had gone to in the past. I was curious to find out how they were going to deal with it as I suspected there wasn't a large family room or even a dining room for people to spread out.

That pretty much left just bedrooms which was unusual since one of the cardinal rules in the past was that all sex had to take place in a public area of the house. That was as much for personal safety as anything else. Even everyone was supposed to know the rules, sometimes people can get carried away when the sex gets heavy and nobody wanted any problems.

We must have been the last to arrive because as soon as we came in, the host announced for everyone to gather in the small living room. For a small house I was surprised at the size of the group. I quickly counted up the people and found there to be a total of twenty - ten girls and ten guys of course, balanced as always. That is, from a chromosome standpoint as you never knew about the actual sexual orientations.

As I learned so vividly my first time at one of these parties, whenever someone was attending for the first time there was a surprise waiting for them - an initiation. It wasn't really all that bad, especially when you took into account WHY people were there. Basically, the person had to let the host (or hostess if it was a guy) fuck them in front of everyone else.

I can still remember my own initiation vividly. Beth hadn't given me a clue what was going to happen and my initial reaction was a bit panicky. The host was great, though, and had me suck his dick for a while after which he drilled me like an oil rig right in the center of the living room. At first I was a bit apprehensive, from the surprise I think more than anything. Once I got into it, I found I truly enjoyed it, especially the audience aspect of it.

Most of the parties I had attended didn't have anyone new and in the ones where there WAS an initiation, it had always been a girl. Thus it was a pleasant change of pace to learn that tonight the newcomer was a guy! At first it seemed a little odd and it was then I realized how conditioned I was with regards to the roles our culture assigns to us. For instance, when a girl was new and thus effectively was "dominated" by the host, effectively she submitted herself to him for his pleasure and the enjoyment of the rest of the group.

Now THAT seemed "normal" to me, based on the cultural norms I was raised in. Now that the shoe was on the other foot, though, it seemed awkward having the guy submit to the hostess. It made me think as I watched, that why it is a turn-on for most people to see a girl give herself to a guy yet when a guy does it to a girl we consider him weak, kinky or even "pussy-whipped"?

In the end, I guess it didn't really matter as far as I was concerned, at least. It was funny to see the look on his face when he was informed of what was about to happen. Most people come to these parties for the first time nervous enough as it is. Then to find out the first order of business is to be publicly fucked, well, that is almost too much for a few of them to handle.

This guy appeared ready to bolt until the girl who brought him (his girlfriend?) convinced him it was OK. What was he thinking anyway when he came, that we would serve tea and chat about politics?

Knowing everyone enjoyed the initiations but at the same time, were anxious to get things rolling themselves, the hostess and new guy quickly stripped naked. The typical thing to start out with would have been a blowjob but in the case it was the guy getting initiated so she made him eat her pussy to get things rolling. Someone tossed her a pillow and she laid on the carpet in the middle of the room with the pillow under her ass, making her pussy elevate up and easy for everyone to watch and evaluate his pussy licking skills.

I wasn't holding my breath for anything spectacular. One of the reasons I don't push much to have a guy lick me is the general poor quality of pussy eating skills that most guys have. Oh sure, EVERY guy thinks he is God's gift to women when he starts in between her thighs but I guess that is our fault as women in that we allow them to think that. Truth is, I would rather masturbate than have the average guy lick me.

Now girls are a different story but that's to be expected. After all, a girl knows what a girl wants. It's for that very reason I have never understood why guys don't like to suck dick. After all, they must certainly understand better what feels good and I would think the typical guy could suck another guy off far better than most girls can. Oh well, I guess that will remain a mystery for me.

The new guy seemed to be average and I had to give the hostess an Academy Award for her performance. Things picked up when he moved up on top of her kneeled between her legs, pulling her feet up and over his shoulders so her pussy was lined up with his dick. He had his arms around her legs as he fucked her and the harder he pumped the more he seemed to be able to ignore the audience around him. He had a decent sized dick and the hostess seemed to be enjoying it.

I found myself watching his girlfriend almost as much as I did the couple on the floor. It wouldn't be the first time someone decided to bring their boyfriend or girlfriend along with, thinking just because they enjoyed the group scene that swinging with their partner would be fun as well. Usually it worked out but I knew of several cases where seeing their partner being fucked by numerous other people – and enjoying it, was too much for their egos. It seemed sort of hypocritical to me. After all, it was OK for them to be fucked a dozen times over so why not their partner?

It only took him about five minutes or so of steady fucking before he was cumming. He pulled out just before and sprayed a line of cum that reached from her chin to her navel with the first shot! I had to give him credit for range, if nothing else! The next couple of shots landed on her boobs and stomach with the remainder sort of dropping out onto her hairy pussy.

Laying on her back still, covered with the new guy's cum, the hostess announced the party was ready to start and so everyone jockeyed for their initial positions - literally. I had been curious earlier about how so many people would fit and indeed, in this case they spread out to all the different rooms of the house. Normally I didn't see much of the homes other than the living rooms, family rooms and dining areas.

6. Having Fun at the Party

I found it interesting that the house had a couple of rooms that were obviously for the kids of the hosts. I hadn't noticed them wearing a ring before but I guess that didn't mean anything when it came to children. There were some family pics hanging around and from the looks of it, their kids were still quite young, a boy who looked to be around eight and a girl I was guessing at around five. No wonder they were out for the night - WAY too young for me to get involved with them.

Over half the people stayed in the living room, though, and with the limited space tonight it turned into more like an orgy scene than normal. Usually the parties had groups of anywhere between two and five people, fucking and then splitting off to form new groups.

Tonight I found myself in a group of sixteen and it appeared the intent of everyone was to stick together as one group, at least for the time being. I wasn't too sure how this was going to play out but I figured what the heck - why not try? Looking around, I noticed that Beth had disappeared so I figured she must have gone to a more "private" setting. It surprised me a bit as I would have expected Beth to be drawn to this like a bear to honey.

I found it interesting that nobody actually said anything yet we all started to undress as if an unspoken command had been issued. For me it was simple, I just pulled my sundress up and over my head, and hung it up over a hook in the entryway. When I returned to the living room, everyone as nude or almost there and a few of the guys were already well on their way to a full erection.

The guys ranged in size but nobody seemed to be extraordinarily large - or small for that matter. The typical size seemed to be around five or six inches with a couple looking maybe to grow into the six or seven inch range. Overall, most of them were not bad looking although one of them I had to wonder how he managed to get in with the scruffy beard and generally unsavory looks.

As for the girls, well what more can I say than they were all sexy as hell. There's no more of an even playing field than standing in a room naked alongside seven other women. No clothes to hide behind, just your nude body on display for everyone to see and criticize. (Face it, we all do it. The only reason most women watch Miss America is to put down the contestants). Most of us were shaved totally with a couple of "landing strips" here and there. The remaining ones were on the hairy side but still neatly trimmed so they didn't look like something was nesting between their legs.

My boobs were probably in the mid-range of those on display, not the biggest by a long shot but still respectable when compared to a few smaller girls. My final assessment was that as a group the girls were a LOT hotter than the guys!

What exactly happened the next hour or so I can't really say. It seems like everything is a bit of a blur when I look back on it, sort of like trying to remember a dream just after you wake up. Snips and pieces of it are in my memory but try to put it all together into a coherent timeline and... well, just forget it. The best thing I can compare it to was that it was like living out a wild orgy scenes from one of my dad's all-time favorite porn movies - Taboo.

One that that made the orgy scene different from most groups I have been with was that I don't think any of the guys fucked me for more than a few minutes at a time before the next one moved in to replace him. Note that I literally meant it when I said "move in" in that one guy would pull out and as quickly as possible the next one would replace his dick in my pussy. What made it more interesting was that each guy wanted me in a different way - doggy, missionary, cowgirl, etc. It was definitely a guy thing, with the men calling the shots and the women doing whatever they told us to do.

Overall eight guys did me, at least that how many were there. It's hard to know for sure because I know at least a few of them did me more than once. It was also hard to tell all the time who was doing me, especially when I had my head buried in some guy's crotch and the guy fucking me traded off with someone. I know at least two of them came in me and a couple of others came either in my mouth or on me.

As a result, after an hour or so I was a complete wreck. I could feel the clots of dried cum in my hair and my body was literally covered with sweat and cum. The vast majority of my time was spent with the men although a couple of pussies appeared in front of me at times, one of them covered with cum. Lord only knows who it belonged to but it tasted pretty good, which is what counts, especially being mixed in with her pussy wetness.

It must have been well over an hour by now since things got rolling and I was already exhausted. You had to give the guys credit as I knew at least of couple of them had cum twice and they STILL managed to get it up again. Under normal circumstances I can almost always outlast a guy but today was anything but normal.

I was on my hands and knees, rocking back and forth such that my ass would meet up with the crotch of the guy behind me as he fucked me. I could feel his hands on my hips, helping to rock me back and forth in sync with his thrusts. My head was dropped and my eyes closed as I concentrated on the feeling of his hard dick in my pussy.

God, even after over an hour of almost non-stop fucking, it still craved more! It felt so wonderful to feel him pushing himself into me, filling my messy cunt with his dick. This guy was one of the bigger ones and I could feel his dick pushing up even higher into me than the last guy, stretching me apart and drilling deep into me.

"How's it going girl?"

Well, someone was speaking to me so it was only polite that I raise my head and open my eyes for her. As it turned out, I banged my head into her boobs instead.

"Hey, I know you want my boobs but watch it girl!" she chuckled at me.

My eyes focused and I saw it was Beth kneeling in front of me. She was nude, needless to say, and had that "I've just been fucked" air about her (and smell!). I grinned at her as I continued to rock forward and backwards.

"Damn, looks like you guys have quite a thing going here," she marveled, "I don't suppose you would be up for something more... say something more intimate?"

It was hard enough just to breath let alone try to respond in any verbal way so I just nodded my head at her.

"Hey buddy, you ready to cum yet or what?" Beth asked the guy fucking me from behind.

"Almost there!" he grunted almost unintelligibly, "God damn it, I'm not stopping now."

Just then I felt him pull out of me and he groaned loudly as I felt his cum splattering all over my bare ass and lower back. Damn, another wonderful mess to clean up. I suppose at this point it really didn't matter given the filthy state I was in but it was the principle of the matter. Why in the world would a guy want to cum on my body when I was more than willing to let him shoot himself off in my pussy or mouth? Heck, in this case I couldn't even SEE the results, let alone taste them or carry them away inside of me. What a waste of perfectly good cum!

He didn't hand around once he shot his load and Beth pulled me up to my feet as soon as he had finished.

"C'mon, he's done so let's go back to the bedroom and have some REAL fun."

7. Nothing But Pussies

I followed her down the hallway to what appeared to be a young girl's room, maybe eight to ten years old judging from the posters and the way it was decorated. Inside on the bed I saw two other girls, including the hostess who had been fucked by the new guy at what seemed to be ages ago.

"Sorry, girls only!" Beth said to a guy trying to make his way in from the hallway along with us.

She closed the door behind us and I had a feeling right off that this was going to be something different, something VERY different. If I was with three other guys, that wasn't hardly worth writing home about but three girls? Now THAT was a different story entirely.

The two girls were in a 69 when we came in, with one on top and the other directly over her. They both looked up from the pussy they were licking to see who it was and once they recognized Beth, they went back to their mutual pussy licking. I wondered if Beth had made it a threesome earlier but she didn't say anything and I wasn't asking.

"You know, I've been craving your sweet cunt from the moment I picked you up tonight," Beth whispered in my ear.

I felt her lips on my earlobe and then her tongue explored, kissing my ear and running her tongue all over my smooth neck and the side of my face.

"God, you smell so nasty!" she giggled, "Mmmmmmm, let me guess... Scent de' Whore'? What do you think?"

I just grinned at her lame sense of humor. Beth may have a great body and be one hell of a fine fuck, but when it came to academics and humor, let's just say she's "challenged". Oh well, when you have a body like hers, who needs to be smart?

I closed my eyes and just stood there naked in the middle of the room as Beth began her magic on me. I loved the way her fingers felt as they ran through my hair, pulling on it a bit when they encountered a clot of sperm that had found its way there. She was in back of me, at first pulling my hair aside so she could kiss my neck and running her hands all over my bare back, until she was low enough to fondle my little ass. Gradually her hands worked their way around me, cupping my boobs and gently pinching my sensitive nipples, causing me to quiver slightly as tingles ran through me like small electric shocks.

"God Kelly, you feel so good," she murmured in my ear, "So warm and soft... I LOVE touching you this way."

That was fine with me; in fact, she could have touched me that way for the rest of the night! Gradually she maneuvered me over to the bed, where she pushed me backwards into it such that I was sitting on the edge, away from the girls who were still at it in their 69 position. Beth kneeled between my legs and I could feel her as I watched her hands work their way from my knees to my beckoning crotch, gently caressing the sensitive inner sides of my thighs.

Looking down at her, Beth was looking up at me and our brown eyes met and we both knew what was about to happen. Other than my mom, nobody could lick my pussy better than Beth and on a good day, she might even be a little better.

"Lick me... please," I said softly to her.

Beth was more than ready by now and she plunged her head into my crotch, taking my pussy in her mouth and running her tongue up and down my pussy slit. Using her fingers to spread my pussy apart, she used the tip of her tongue to tease my clit, running around in tight little circles and then just lapping up and down like a cat licking itself. Periodically she would dip down and gently grab my clit between her lips, massaging it with her mouth until I was writhing with pleasure. My legs were shaking so bad that it was a good thing I was sitting down on the bed or I would have fallen down.

"Oh Beth... Oh Beth," was all I could say, repeating it over and over between my moans of pleasure.

I wanted to tell her how wonderful she was making feel, how incredible her tongue felt on me, how beautiful and sexy she looked with her head lodged between my thighs and her hair spread out over my legs. She was absolutely stunning with her face covered with my pussy juices and her nude body kneeling in front of me. I wanted to run my hands over her spectacular naked figure, over her bare back and tight ass.

Yes, there were lots of things I wanted to say and do but instead it seemed all I could do was lay back on the bed and watch my best friend lick my pussy, driving me to one orgasm after another. Her face was drenched with my pussy cum but she certainly didn't seem to mind as she kept her face on me, almost relentlessly as she never gave me a break. Finally I just collapsed, my arms to my side and my head against the back of the bed, unable to move or even say anything.

"Looks like someone's feeling good!" Beth said, raising her head from my crotch finally. My clit throbbed like a drum beating. For such a little thing it felt like my entire body was under its control and all I could do was lay still and let it do whatever it wanted.

Beth moved up on the bed next to me and draped her leg over me, rubbing her pussy up against my upper thigh, almost like a dog humping me but slower and more deliberate. I could smell my pussy on her face as she nuzzled up to my neck, kissing me gently and licking my ear. Her hand roamed over my bare body, making goose bumps rise all over me as her fingers teased my nipples and her hands massaged my boobs.

"Mmmmmmm, you feel so good," she murmured, "Oh God, you are SO beautiful Kelly."

Gradually I caught my breath and was able to respond to her. Turning towards her, we embraced and I felt her larger boobs pressing against mine. Her nude body felt so warm and smooth against mine. Guys feel so cold and hard when they lay next to me but having Beth was entirely different, she felt like a comfortable warm blanket against me.

"I love you Beth," I whispered to her.

Meanwhile, there were two other girls in the bed with us although with all that Beth had been doing to me I had totally tuned them out until now. As Beth rested her head on my shoulder, pressing her body up tight against me, I looked over at the other side of bed to see what had been going on over there. Needless to say, they weren't exchanging recipes! The two were still in your basic 69, laying on their sides with their upper legs lifted up and over the other's head. At first it didn't seem like they were even moving but then I saw one of their heads repositioning.

"Wanna join them?" Beth's voice broke me from my steady gazing at the other girls. Actually, I hadn't even thought about doing such a thing as it felt perfect just having Beth in my arms. Yet once she mentioned it, it seemed like the natural thing to do. I mean, I could be with Beth most anytime but how often do I get the chance to be with a couple of other hot girls I had never met before? The two of us kissed briefly and then we got up and moved more onto the bed.

"Mind if we join in?" Beth asked.

The two of them rolled in opposite directions such that they were on their backs. The smiles on their faces said more than anything else they could. Beth and I looked at each other. She had a nasty grin on her face and I knew she was ready to go so I just nodded to her and we made our moves. She took one girl while I took the other. We each climbed over our girl and without much fanfare, just went down on her while our pussies hovered over their faces.

My girl was shaved around her pussy lips while keeping a large triangle of hair above it, trimmed down to maybe a quarter to half an inch. Her pussy was wet from being licked by the other girl and her clit was enlarged. When I touched it with my tongue I felt her body tense under me and I knew she was pretty horny. Then I felt her mouth move up against my pussy and her tongue explore me. She was rather simple, just lapping her tongue up and down my slit like a puppy dog was licking me.

Turning me head slightly, I could see Beth's head buried in the crotch of her new partner. For a minute I felt a pang of jealousy, wishing it was her tongue on me again. It wasn't exactly a bad situation, though, as I drew in a deep breath and savored the aroma of her dripping cunt. Some girls don't keep themselves as clean as they should but she was obviously not one of those as her pussy smelled like heaven! It also reminded me of my cousin Kristen, who always seemed to have a great smelling cunt.

For the next half hour or so, we played around on the bed. We finished in a circle, each licking the girl in front of her. Honestly, I enjoyed it but it wasn't the most thrilling thing for me. For me, being with a girl is so much more intimate, that it isn't the same when it's with a stranger. I mean, being fucked by a guy, any guy, is enjoyable at the very least and I don't even care sometimes if I see his face or not. But when I'm with a girl, I like to know about her, be more personal with her. So when we were done, I was feeling pretty good physically but something was missing emotionally.

Beth and I left to find out clothes. A few people had left but most of them were still going at it. I had never stayed at one of these to the end so I had no idea how long they would keep going. As for me, I was satisfied and ready to go. Somehow I had the feeling from the way Beth was looking at the guys that she wanted more though.

The ride home was pretty quiet. I think both of us were pretty exhausted, physically and mentally. When Beth pulled into our driveway, she leaned over and we kissed goodbye.

I waved her goodbye as she drove off and went back in the house. It was pretty late but my mom was still up. It seems no matter how old I get, mom still worries about me. Oh well, that's why I love her so much. My dad was sleeping in his chair, snoring a bit. The two of us went up to the kitchen and sat at the table while I told her about the night's events.

As I told her, it seemed almost impossible I'd just done what I was describing. I could only imagine my dad's reactions when he learned about everything in the morning!

(Aug 24) Chapter 97: Sex With My Youth Pastor

Story codes: MF nc oral adultery
Me (20)
Pastor Ken (26)

Not every sexual experience I have has been positive although I tend to only write about the ones I enjoyed. Yet the "negative" events in our lives are often the ones that truly shape us and make us who we are. This was one of those events for me.

1. Working With the Church Youth

This story may not be to everyone's taste if you're expecting something along the lines of most if my other diary entries. If you decide to read further, don't complain to me - you've been warned!

All my life my family has attended the same Presbyterian church. It's fairly typical of the old large protestant churches with about two thousand members on the books and maybe three to four hundred who attended regularly. Christmas and Easter the place is jammed but in between the attendance is much more sparse even though we still need two services to make it comfortable. The Sunday services are well organized and are usually quite boring with none of the arm raising or theatrical oratory that many new churches offer today. To be brutally honest, in many ways our church is really more of a big social club which includes just enough religion to appease everyone's conscious.

Church has always played a central role in my life and I was been involved in a number of youth programs throughout my childhood and high school years. Now that I'm in college, I still remain involved in various bible studies and serve as a helper to the youth group leaders. It's fun most of the time and challenging in many ways. Our big night of the week, like most churches, is Wednesday night when everything is catered to the kids and we make our biggest outreach to the community.

If you've been reading my diary entries, especially my fantasies, then you're also undoubtedly waiting for me to spill my guts about a few other things so here it is. The kids I work with range generally from twelve to fifteen years of age. This doesn't make me that much older than them and frankly, it's hard sometimes to look at them and not feel a twinge of temptation. I have written a fantasy story about being with a couple of the ones that really make me horny and even shared some pics of a few of them with guys I chat with as we discussed my secret lust.

The truth is I've NEVER touched any of them inappropriately (and that is defined as their parents would interpret it so don't try stretching the definition); nor can I imagine EVER actually doing so at any time in the future. Despite my personal views on sex and morality, I understand that most people have different attitudes and I respect that although I wish it went both ways. The guiding principle for me is that these parents entrust their kids to me and expect me to enforce their rules and morals, regardless of my own. This is a trust I take seriously and one which, no matter what thoughts might cross my mind, I would NEVER violate.

It's always fun to fantasize, though, and I just hope people are mature enough when reading my diary to understand there is a BIG difference between fantasy and reality. Unfortunately some people don't seem to be able to comprehend that and even worse there are those who can't keep them separate in their own lives which is why sex offenders need to be put in jail.

I should say that there has been one exception so far for me and that is my cousin Tammy who was barely thirteen the first time we did anything together (I was twenty). At the time we just played and masturbated together. Given she is still a virgin, it can't be said I led her TOO far astray. I can rationalization my behavior in this situation because she is my cousin which makes it a family affair more than anything.

Like most people, I enjoy a healthy fantasy life which I use as an outlet at times. I'm not afraid to admit that I get a certain sense of guilty pleasure when I chat on-line with fathers and we fantasize about doing things with their wives and kids. I get turned on when a guy first breaches his internal barriers, steps out of his normal comfort zone and actually begins to discuss his thoughts about doing naughty things at home.

My opinion is that most people have these thoughts but they just don't express them so I don't think anything I do is going to convert a father into a child molester! In any case. I'm not so naive to believe that they would actually do what we talk him taking a good look at it. What is it about guys that they somehow think they can stare at a girl without her knowing it (even if she doesn't appear to - trust me, she does). Well, here's a news flash for you guys! EVERY girl has a first time experience and I don't mean anything to do with her virginity. What I'm talking about is the first time she notices a boy (or man) looking at her in "that" way - as a sexual object rather than a person. It may be a boy her age but more likely it's an older boy and possibly even an older man. After growing up innocent of such experiences and perhaps not even realizing how others are starting to see her, this can be traumatic for some girls.

I remember what an emotional experience it was even for me when I first realized that an older man in church was looking down at me with this hunger in his eyes, giving special attention to my little ass. He was looking down my dress and I didn't even have anything to look at yet! He was like a wolf drooling over a lamb and I wasn't sure how to feel - scared or excited that I was getting to the stage where a man could see me that way.

3. Talking to My Mom About Pastor Ken

After I went home after church I sat down and discussed it with my mom. Fortunately I was raised by parents with whom I have never been afraid to discuss anything and this was one of those times my mother's counsel was needed badly. I remember telling her about how he had looked at me like I was a thing, like something in a zoo. My mom explained everything to me and tried to make me view it as compliment more than anything. She explained that men sometimes allow their lust to drive them to do things they can't even explain themselves.

For now though she just advised me to flirt with them and pay them back by driving them crazy with their desire to have me - but yet never would which is the ultimate revenge! I took her advice to heart and to this day I count it as the highest compliment a man can give me when he gives me "that" look.

Well, Pastor Ken was certainly the master of "that" look and he gave it to all the hot teenage girls - even a few not quite qualifying for that title in my opinion. Naturally I told my mom about it and we agreed that so long as all he was doing was looking, what was the harm?

Of course the last thing our church needed was a pedophile for a youth pastor so I kept an eye on him. It was as good an excuse as any since keeping an eye on Pastor Ken was actually quite an enjoyable chore for me. As I said before, more than a few times I've returned from church only to quickly changed out of my clothes and lay in bed naked, fondling myself as I imagined being with him. My mom caught me once and teased me from the doorway.

"Hmmm, so let me guess, just home from church and horny as hell... Pastor Ken wouldn't be on your mind again, would he?" she taunted me.

My bed faced the door so I spread my knees further apart to allow me to see her between them while my fingers remained on my pussy.

"Oh Mom!" I whined and she laughed at my pitiful protest.

She continues to watch me from the doorway, allowing me to finish my latest fantasy about how he was fucking me on the church altar. That was how I always envisioned being with him - somewhere in the church, usually with something happening elsewhere in the church that we could hear going on as he fucked me. With my mom watching I came especially hard as I loved to show off for her and besides, I knew she enjoyed seeing me masturbate.

4. Getting to Know Pastor Ken

Over the course of the summer I got to know Pastor Ken and Cheri even better and had a couple of meals with them. There were always other leaders with us so it wasn't like it was a personal dinner or anything but I still got to talk to them on a more social basis and not so much church-related.

Pastor Ken expressed an interest in my college studies, especially since I was attending a strict Christian university, and we spent a lot of time comparing notes between mine and a similar one that he had attended. We both got a good laugh especially in comparing the morality requirements. At my school they are called "Lifestyle Guidelines" whereas at his it was "The Pledge". His school was even more strict than mine in that he had to actually sign a document pledging not to engage in certain activities and agreed to discipline including expulsion for any violations.

For me, we have "guidelines" under the pretense that they aren't mandatory. Of course, attendance at school is not "mandatory" either so there was an implied threat that if you don't follow the guidelines you can't attend school there.

Things got more interesting when we started to compare how well we actually followed the rules. It started out innocently enough - more about drinking and dirty dancing than anything else. Then it got to the point where our confessions got a bit more risqu,. Although we didn't go into the details TOO deep, but by the time we were done we both knew the other had no respect for the "no sex" and "no immorality" sections of the rules.

I found this especially interesting for him given his intent to be a pastor but then I guess that was being unfair. After all he was a man and all men are animals deep down; it's a question of how house-broken they are! It wasn't until I laid in bed that night with my fingers pretending to be Pastor Ken's cock in me that I thought about the longer term implications of our little confessional. Although neither of us directly said it, the implication was that we both shared an interest in recreational sex and that that interest for him had not diminished after school - or even after marriage!

Hmmmmmm...

After that my mom and I had another of our little mother-daughter talks when I told her about my discussion with Pastor Ken and how he seemed to be eyeing me more openly now. In fact, once he even patted me lightly on the ass as he told me to go help someone which would have been rather innocuous except the last pat was more of a grab! He turned away and I didn't get to see his eyes afterwards but it left me wondering...

My mom, as usual, was ever my guardian angel who helped keep me grounded and out of trouble. She expressed concern over me even considering getting involved with Pastor Ken, not so much because he was married since she knew my infatuation with cheating husbands, but more because of the potentially damaging personal consequences should anyone at the church ever find out. That included her and my dad since they would be drawn into whatever scandal might erupt from the newly married pastor screwing one of his college leaders - something that many people would see as wrong on so many levels but just makes it all the more exciting and erotic so far as I am concerned.

In the end, my mom didn't outright tell me NOT to do anything with Pastor Ken (like she had with my cousin Tammy after our recent little get-together); but she warned me to be especially careful and discrete, not exactly my strong points unfortunately. That was good enough for me. With my mother's blessings (well, she didn't exactly say "no", did she?) I felt confident in going forward and seeing where this little adventure might end up.

Normally when I think a guy is interested in me, especially the married ones, I go straight for the jugular, putting him in a position where he has to admit his desire for me or face the consequences of his flirting becoming known to his wife.

In my experience, 99% of them don't make the first move out of fear of being denied and then reported, not because they don't want me. Thus by me being more forward, it eliminates the awkwardness and lets us get down to business as quickly as possible. Pastor Ken, though, was a case where I was going to have to be a little more subtle than usual which should prove interesting for both of us.

One the one hand I figured Pastor Ken would never initiate anything the way things were going unless I gave him more incentive to do so. On the other hand, I didn't want it to be where if someone were to find out that he would try blaming me for coming on to him. Even though such an excuse would not save his career, it would do exactly what my mother was afraid of and put the spotlight straight on my family.

Somehow I had to find a way to make Pastor Ken seduce me. Actually this shouldn't be too hard given he was already interested. Plus, from the way our last discussion went it would not be the first time he broke his pledge to someone about sex. OK, I'll grant that a marriage vow is a bit more binding than a collegiate pledge, but the principle is essentially the same.

5. Teasing Pastor Ken

The next time I saw Pastor Ken was at the Sunday morning service so I made sure to wear a flouncing sun dress where the material was so light it swirled around my waist with a twist of my hips. From the way my dad looked at me and winked when we got in the car, it must have looked good on me.

I winked back as my mom was in the car already. She must have told him about my new mission which didn't surprise me since she always told him everything we discussed. Dad's wink was his little way of saying, "Go get him girl!".

I made it a point to seek out Pastor Ken a couple of times that morning on the pretense of planning for the next Wednesday night activities. The last time I dropped a quick line to start the ball rolling.

In my best schoolgirl imitation I asked, "Pastor Ken, do you think we can talk about a problem I'm having at school? I thought a lot about our last talk and now I've been wondering whether or not I should get your advice."

Pastor Ken touched my bare shoulder lightly and replied, "Of course Kelly, you know you can come to me anytime you need something. Would you be able to come in a bit early though? I have a meeting scheduled right after the Wednesday service."

I agreed and over the next few days I spent most of my spare time dreaming and masturbating about me and Pastor Ken. Wednesday morning I even caught myself thinking about him in the morning while my Dad and I were having our regular sex before he went to work. When my dad came in me for just a moment I wondered how it would feel to have Pastor Ken cum inside of me but quickly banished the thought and focused on my dad's cock in me.

When Wednesday evening finally arrived I went to the church early and arrived at his office a little earlier than we had agreed upon. It was empty and so I settled down to wait for him. after much debate I had finally chosen to wear a skirt outfit. Whatever I wore had to be presentable afterwards and the church was a little strict about wearing anything TOO revealing to church activities.

For many years they had enforced a one-piece swimsuit policy on girls until finally everyone simply revolted and ignored it. Of course thongs and risqu, bikinis are still taboo, but every year it seems that the rules get stretched just a little but further. Personally, I would have loved to have worn a tight sheer cami without a bra but that would have surely drawn the ire of the religious fashion police so instead I picked out a white blouse that was about a size too small for me.

The bra was still missing though, something I refused to wear except under the most extreme circumstances. My boobs were a lot more ample than they had been back when I was sixteen but nobody ever said anything to me although the senior pastor's wife, who serves as the chief morality cop, had given a few of my outfits the evil eye over the years.

I looked at the clock and it was still about ten to fifteen minutes before our appointed time so apparently he wasn't going to show up early - bummer. I looked around the office and saw pictures of him and Cheri everywhere. Some were of them alone while others had them together. Most looked to have been taken before their wedding based on the location and weather.

Pastor Ken looked hot in them all and I found myself looking at one in particular on the table next to the chair I was in. He must have been at some southern beach and it showed him coming out of the water soaking wet and dripping water, the waves behind him and the sun showing off a deep tan over his rock-hard body. It looked like it could have come straight out of a magazine advertisement for some men's product.

I imagined myself on the beach, beckoning him to come to me as I laid on the hot sand with nothing on but a terry beach towel under me. Of course, in my dream he wasn't wearing the swimming trunks he had on in the picture, but instead was slowly approaching me like a Greek god emerging from the sea to take a mere mortal for his sexual pleasure.

My hand slipped under my skirt and I pulled my panties over to the side and started to masturbate. My finger reached inside of me as I imagined him taking me and forcing himself upon me, driving his god-like penis deep inside my mortal womb. God I was so wet and horny! I put another and then yet another finger in me as his cock grew and swelled within me. Using the palm of my hand, I massaged my clit while my fingers fucked me faster and faster.

I could feel my orgasm beginning to emerge and was almost there when suddenly I heard a noise like a door closing and I quickly pulled my finger out and straightened out my skirt. I managed to sit upright just as Pastor Ken came through the doorway. I knew I had to be flushed but hopefully in the dim light of his office he wouldn't notice. My fingers were still wet though but fortunately he didn't try to shake my hand but instead gave me a brief hug and sat down in his office chair behind his desk.

"So what's the story Kelly?" he asked, "I'm glad you felt comfortable enough to come see me. To be perfectly frank, I've been wanting to talk to you as well so your timing was perfect."

I drew a deep breath and started to relate to him a totally watered down version of my dilemma at school with sex - or the lack of it. I didn't tell him anywhere close to the number of guys I had been with or the number of times I was accustomed to being fucked when I was home, but I did allude to the fact it was a substantial number.

When I had finished I was on the edge of my chair so I pushed myself back and crossed my legs. My skirt rode up to my ass but I made no effort to do anything about it or even pay any attention to it one way or the other. His eyes shifted briefly and I know he took in a good look of my legs and ass but he didn't say anything. He took a few seconds to absorb everything and then it was his turn to take a deep breath. I was a little surprised at his reply though as it wasn't exactly what I had expected him to say - not in the least!

6. Losing Control of the Situation

"Well Kelly, as I said there were a few things I needed to discuss with you. Frankly your admission about sex at school doesn't surprise me at all. From our conversation the other night plus a number of little things I've heard about you since I came here, I assumed you weren't exactly a virgin. Honestly, the church may not agree with my position on this but really I don't care if you are or not."

Pastor Ken paused for a moment and stared at me as if trying to gauge how I was responding. I did my best to stonewall so he continued, "What I AM concerned about is your conduct here at church. You must know that the young girls here all look up to you and I'm sure you know a lot of the boys do too - except they're trying to look up to you in a different way - like up the skirts such as the one you're wearing tonight. Tell me, do you think it's right for someone like you to have such an influence on them?"

Wow, that speech certainly caught me off guard! I quickly debated a response and blurted out the first thing that came to my mind.

"Well, I've seen you looking at the girls enough yourself!"

For just a moment he looked a bit startled but he quickly recovered his composure saying, "Well, I guess we seem to have some common interests. The question is, can we both separate our fantasy world from reality? I am not going to BS you and tell you I don't find some of them attractive, but I would also hope you know that nothing would ever happen, no matter what the circumstances. What about you though? Can you say the same if the opportunity should ever arise?"

"Well... I guess that would depend on what other outlets I had," I answered coyly back to him.

My initial shock had passed and I was trying to take back the initiative. I switched legs but without straightening out my skirt causing it to end up higher than before to the point my panties were starting to be revealed. If there was ever an opening for him, this was it. Thankfully he took it - or so I thought.

Pastor Ken got out of his chair and took a seat in the one next to me. With his hands folded between his knees, he look down thoughtfully at my legs and ass, not even trying to pretend he wasn't staring at them.

"You know Kelly, this is EXACTLY what I was referring to. What do you think it tells the boys when you sit with your skirt up like that? I've seen you tease them like this a number of times. I take it you're accustomed to getting your way by using your sexuality, am I right?"

I clasped my hands over my knee and intertwined my fingers, using my weight then to rock slightly in the chair.

"I don't really care what the little boys think," I said as I licked my lips seductively, "I only care what the big boys do."

He twisted in the chair until he was facing me. He unfolded his hands and put one on my hands on top of my knee saying, "Don't think you're playing me Kelly. I know for a fact you know EXACTLY what the big boys think when you do this. It's been a while, though, since I've had to deal with one of your kind."

I looked at him with a questioning gaze, "My 'kind'?" I asked.

"Oh come off it Kelly, you know what I mean. We're both adults so let's stop playing around," he said in a suddenly forceful tone, one that I had never heard from him before.

Then I saw it - The Look. The difference was in this case he went beyond just leering at me. His hand started down my legs and dipped under my skirt until he was groping me with his fingers at the start of my crotch.

"You're a predator, a lioness among the lambs, consuming whatever game you put your eyes on, accustomed to the whole world bowing at your feet doing your bidding. Oh yes Kelly, I know you. You're may be a slut but you're a complicated one. You flirt and tease, leaving most men helplessly grasping for you long after you have whisked out of their reach. You came here tonight like a vampire on a blood hunt, to draw me into your web of lust and sex like a black window, expecting to leave your prey stunned and helpless."

This was getting weird. I had never heard anyone describe me in these terms and yet I could relate to what he was saying. His voice was firm and deep, like a sorcerer chanting a spell and indeed he was casting a hex over me as his hand worked its way between my legs. Without thinking about it I uncrossed them and unconsciously spread my thighs apart just enough to let his fingers move in from the top of my panties down until they were playing with my pussy.

"I noticed your scent as soon as I walked in here, as I'm sure you wanted me to. You were preparing yourself to seduce another helpless victim, to take him like a well-planned hunt with me as your trophy. Well, let me tell you something Miss Wells, there WILL be a trophy mounted tonight but it won't be my head. You see, I'm the one in charge now and you'll do exactly as I say. Do you understand me slut?"

I felt contrasting emotions, both fear and yet overwhelming lust. He was like he wanted me to be his slave. It wasn't that I would be submitting myself to him, but rather that he would be taking me. My head throbbed and I felt like I was in a daze as I obediently nodded in agreement. Even so, it wasn't enough for him to take control, he wanted a conquest.

Suddenly, without warning, he clutched my panties and literally ripped them apart, tugging them off of me in shreds. Then, cupping my pussy in his hand, he literally lifted me off the chair as he pulled upwards on my crotch. I wanted to cry out but at the same time I felt an incredible surge from my pussy as it responded to the pressure.

"I asked you a question slut," he hissed, "I expect an answer, not some weak nodding of your head. So let's try this again. Do you understand me slut?"

"Yes," I said meekly. Did I just say that? What was going on here? It was like someone else had taken control of my body and mind and I was looking in like a bystander as this stranger responded to him.

"Yes what?" he barked at me, his fingers sliding into my pussy.

"Yes Pastor Ken," I cried out as he roughly shoved two fingers deep inside of me, "yes I understand you."

I let myself slide down on the chair such that my pussy was at the edge where he could see and reach me better. He rammed a third finger in me which was still dry and so it hurt me slightly as it forced its way into me the first time. I cried out involuntarily from the sharp pain but it quickly receded as his fingers stimulated my pussy. My mind raced as I tried to understand what had suddenly come over me!

"That's for moving without my permission bitch," he said sternly. "From now on you don't do anything except what I tell you to do. Understand?"

"Yes Pastor Ken!"

Well, he couldn't say I wasn't learning fast! Normally I prefer a guy to be in control, or at least THINK he is control so submission in this manner was not one of my strong suits. My mind was still racing when he pulled one of his wet fingers from me and started to trace circles around my asshole. Then suddenly he slipped it into my ass! It hurt at first but then he started stroking all his fingers in and out of me, one in my ass and the other two still in my pussy. I could feel them rubbing each other through my flesh inside of me and it felt, well it felt different is all I can say. On the one hand it physically felt great but the thought of his finger in my ass where I had recently crapped just wasn't a thought I wanted to have.

I guess that's why I've never been into anal sex; I just have this cleanliness thing that says anything in your asshole can't be too clean after it comes out. Well, Pastor Ken obviously didn't care how I felt about it. He wanted to do it and so he did it whether I liked it or not. At this moment I was afraid to tell him to stop!

Just as quickly as he started he slipped his fingers from me and stood up. Moving my legs apart he stood between them and unzipped his pants. He reached inside and pulled out his cock which surprisingly, was still flaccid - not quite what I expected after playing with me the way he had. Most men by now would be erect as the Washington Monument but not Pastor Ken; he obviously needed more encouragement.

"Suck my dick you fucking slut," he commanded me. "C'mon dammit, hurry up. I don't have all night you know."

I reached to grab his limp cock but he slapped my hand sharply, making it sting as a red mark immediately began to show.

"Did I tell you that you could touch it bitch?" he scolded me. "Disobey me again and you'll have to be punished."

I wasn't sure if I wanted to be punished or not. I had never been into the master-slave thing in the past and definitely never into pain so somehow or another I figured I had better be a good girl. His cock was dangling just inches from my mouth so I reached forward and took it between my lips for the first time. His crotch smelled strongly of sex and not just his male odor either. My nose picked up the distinct smell of a woman's pussy and I looked up at him with an inquisitive expression. He anticipated my question, always a step ahead of me it seemed.

"That's right, I fucked Cheri just before I came over here. I wanted you to smell her on me and then mix your scent with hers, like an animal marking her territory over that of the competition, claiming it as hers. Mmmmmmm, that's better, keep sucking my cock like that. Damn you're such a fucking whore."

His cock was slowly hardening in my mouth, a sensation I loved but rarely get to experience a most guys are already hard long before I start giving them a blowjob. Pastor Ken was limp when I started and so I was able to feel the first pulses of blood as it started to fill his dick and stiffen it. It didn't take long for him to become fully erect and as he grew I started to suck him faster and harder but he put his hands on my hand and held me still.

"That's enough of that," he said harshly, "You're not getting my cum THAT easily bitch. Now get up and bend over that chair."

He stood over me with his feet planted and arm out as if he was prepared to "punish" me if I didn't react fast enough. I meekly obeyed his instructions, putting both hands on the seat of the chair which was still warm from my bare ass sitting on it. He grabbed me by the hips and roughly positioned me as he wanted me. Then he slapped my ass with one hand, not too hard at first but then more sharply. I could hear the smack as well as feel it and the next couple were really hard. Damn, I was going to be sore later!

"Ouch! That hurt!" I finally cried out as he spanked me especially hard.

I was rewarded by an even harder slap that hurt even more. My butt must have been beet red by now and it tingled with pain. I had never actually been spanked this hard before and was about to say something again about it but then thought better of it.

Pastor Ken certainly wasn't the Pastor Ken I'd been dreaming of all week, that's for sure. In fact, I wasn't sure WHO this imposter was behind me, but I knew I was under his control for now and I had better put up with whatever he wanted or who knows where this could lead? As if for good measure he used his other hand to smack the other cheek and from the sting it left behind I had images of a red hand print centered on my butt cheek.

With my punishment completed, I felt one hand spreading my pussy apart and then the head of his cock pressed against my pussy. There was no playing around or slow motion entry the way I normally loved it but rather in one swift hard motion he shoved himself all the way into me until his crotch smacked against my ass. I could tell his cock hadn't been perfectly lined up when he pushed at first. Had he taken his time his cock would have centered itself and slipped easily into me as for God knows what reason, I was soaking wet. Instead he pressed hard against the side of my hole until his cock must have sprung like a bent bow and forced its way into me.

Like his finger in my ass, it didn't hurt all that much but was still something I wasn't all that thrilled about. I had little time to commiserate because he started banging me like a dog in heat. His cock rammed its way into me and then he would quickly pull it all the way out and drive it into me again. Surprisingly, I found it was actually quite pleasurable - and all the more as he fucked me harder. Despite my fears he might do something if I spoke out, I moaned softly as his cock violated me over and over again.

"You like that don't you?" he asked between breaths, "You like to be fucked hard, to have a cock bang that tight pussy. Well, this is for me bitch, just for my pleasure and so don't you forget it."

He was stroking in and out of me like a madman now, his balls slapping against my ass and I could feel his pubic hair tickle me. Once again I was about to cum when he pulled out! Damn!! I looked back over my shoulder, dying for him to get his cock back in me and make me cum.

As it turned out, he wasn't going to give me that pleasure. He stroked his cock with his hand until he came and I could feel his warm sperm hitting my ass, coating it with load after load of his adulterous sperm. When he was finished, he spread it around with his cock, smearing my entire ass with his cum.

"How's it feel to get so close and then have it taken away from you bitch?" he asked rhetorically. "Now it's your turn. Time for you to get a taste of what you've been doing to all those men you love to play with, toying with them and teasing them, making them think they have a chance with you and then ripping their dreams away without a shred of remorse. How does it feel to almost be there and then see it slip from your hands?"

He pulled my skirt down and used it to wipe his cum from my ass. Well, so much for that outfit! Picking my ruined panties from the chair, he had me stand up and he stuck them down the front of my blouse. I started to say something but he put his finger to his lips, motioning for me to be quiet.

"No... not another word Kelly," he said in a softer voice but still firmly in control. "I want you to go home now; you can't go to church in that outfit anyway."

Like a light switch being flipped from one position to another, the wild monster that had all but raped me a few minutes before was replaced by the sensitive Pastor Ken. His face softened and he kissed me on the cheek.

"I hope you learned a valuable lesson tonight Kelly," he said softly. "Not every man is out there for your pleasure. Those little boys and girls out there aren't small animals under the domain of the lioness, ready to be taken at her whim and pleasure. There are consequences for your actions, unexpected results, unintended penalties. I don't expect us to talk about this night ever again and what we did here tonight will never be repeated to anyone. Like I said, I've known girls like you before and believe it or not I had your best interests at heart tonight. I knew from the moment I first met you what you were - you simply radiate sex even when you don't try.

From what I observed and heard about you afterwards, I knew a night like this was inevitable and it was just a question of when and where so when you asked to meet me I didn't take a rocket scientist to figure out what you had planned for this evening. Without going too far, and face it Kelly, some men would have gone a LOT farther than I did tonight, I wanted you to discover that you can't control every situation or every man. Now go home little girl."

I was overwhelmed at that moment and burst into tears. I had never had anyone talk to me this way before and deep down I knew he somehow knew me better than I did myself.

He put his arms around me and hugged me, like a grandfather instead of a relatively young man only five years older than me. Then he put his hand on my chin and lifted my head until our eyes met.

"If there's ever a day Kelly you decide you need to talk about your life; if you ever reach a point where you question whether what you are doing is really what God wants for you; if you just need someone who can talk to you and be totally honest and frank about how the lifestyle you have chosen is truly affecting you; just know that I am here. Don't ever make the mistake though of thinking you can seduce me or control me - I recognize the beast in you and you can't hide it or disguise it from me. Good night Kelly."

With that he turned and went back to his desk. I wiped the tears from my eyes and walked out of his office, never looking back. I remembered my panties and quickly dropped them into a trash container and hurried out to my car before anyone saw me.

7. Back Home

I drove home in a daze, arriving in my driveway suddenly and not remembering how I had gotten there. I noticed my dad's SUV was gone so one or both of them must be gone and it turned out to be my father as my mom was in the kitchen having some desert when I walked in. One look at my disheveled outfit, messy hair and tear-streaked face and she instantly jumped up and hugged me.

"Oh god Kelly, what happened?" she cried, "What did that bastard do to you?"

I broke down in tears again and sobbed onto her shoulder as she hugged me tightly. What was I going to tell her? I wasn't crying from the fucking he had given me, the spanking or the slap on my hand which was still red. I think I was crying because I had looked into a mirror and wasn't sure if I liked what I saw. I was shocked that I could be read so thoroughly by Pastor Ken, that he could know me so intimately.

It's hard to think of yourself as being unique and different and then out of the blue have someone classify you like a bug in a museum collection, especially when you find that you fit so neatly in the display case.

My mom and I talked for hours that night. I knew that I would be talking more to Pastor Ken though. My mother relates to me as a woman but we are too much in love for her to strip me down into pieces the way Pastor Ken had done so quickly and skillfully. Once the shock wore off I, I realized that I wanted to hear more about myself from someone who could look into my soul and extract my inner being, only to throw it in my face to be questioned and debated. I doubted I would be changing my outlook on sex but it never hurts to understand yourself better.

So... what do you think? Do you know yourself? Are you ready? To paraphrase those immortal words of Jack Nickelson, "Can you handle the truth?"

Me (20)
John - my dad (40)
Mary - my mom (39)
Uncle Jim (39)

End of summer and one last chance to be with my family. I was expecting my parents to give me a special goodbye but having my uncle show up threw in something extra!

1. Mornings With My Dad and More

I woke up in much the same way as I had every morning of my summer vacation, to the sensuously wonderful feeling of my loving father's hard cock in me. The very first morning after I had arrived home for summer break he had woke me this way and so we made a pact right then and there that we would start every morning this way before he went to work.

Although there were a few times when one of us was especially tired or not necessarily in that horny of a mood, we stayed true to our promise. Even on those days by the time we were finished both of us felt better! So it was that the first thought to enter my groggy mind this morning was that we had done it! My dad and I had fulfilled out little contract by not missed a single morning the entire summer.

If you want to be technical, I guess it could be argued he didn't actually fuck me EVERY morning as sometimes he just masturbated while he watched me sleeping so that when I finally woke up I found myself covered with his dried cum. At those times I would smile to myself and then lay back to masturbate as I dreamt of him stroking himself looking down at his twenty year-old nude daughter as she peacefully slept.

When we were done he would leave for work while I basked in the warm afterglow that arose from the knowledge that my father loved me so much that he wanted to be intimate with his daughter in a way possible only through. I mean, what to be interesting to see how these relationships would evolve and I especially found myself wondering what it would be like to be fucked by a father-son combination? Hopefully someday soon I would find out but little did I know as I laid in bed with a warm load of my dad's fresh cum deep inside of me that before the day was over I would find out!

2. Contemplating School

Today was one of those days you can't wait for and then hate when they arrive. I love school and looked forward to returning but on the other hand it meant leaving my family. I love my parents dearly and would just as much even if there wasn't a sexual side to our relationship. Of course, when your parents are your best friends in the whole world AND also your favorite sex partners it makes it all the harder to leave home! On the other hand, I was going to be a junior this year which meant I was finally going to get into the meat of my education as an elementary teacher.

I also had a lot of friends at school who I was looking forward to seeing again. Perhaps the highest on that list was my old freshman roomie Brenda with whom I had shared so much (including her brother!). My sophomore roomie Karen was sweet and considerate but even though she was gorgeous and sexy as hell she was a steadfast virgin who was adamantly opposed to sex in any form before marriage - even masturbation. She was going to switch to a closer college so I wasn't expecting to see her again.

Now I found myself wondering what life with my new roomie would be like this year. I figured she had to be something in the middle of my two past ones since they had been such opposite extremes. This year instead of a dorm I would be staying in an on-campus apartment with five other girls. Even though it was just across the street from my last dorm, having my own apartment with no RAs watching my every move was going to be great.

I had already said my goodbyes to most of my friends and for the most part was packed and ready to go. My mom had given me her Avalon to take to school and it was filled with all my stuff. She had a new BMW so don't think she was being TOO generous! I had not really made any plans for today other than some last minute packing. So far as I knew there was nothing special planned by my parents either. I had spent the previous night at my aunt's house along with my cousin where the three of us enjoyed a final summer night together.

3. Back to being Fucked By My Dad

Well, I guess I got sidetracked from my story. It was early Friday morning and I woke up to the feeling of my dad's hard cock pushing its way into my pussy. I was on my back as my eyes opened to see my father's face in front of me with a wide smile and a twinkle in his eye. I lifted my head off the pillow enough to look down between my legs where I saw his cock was about half-way inside of me and disappearing more with each push of his hips. I sighed softly and unconsciously lifted my hips upwards to meet his thrusts, helping to drive his cock deeper inside of me.

"Good morning baby," he whispered in my ear as his tongue licked the side of my neck. He knew I loved the feeling of a wet tongue running over my neck and face. "Mmmmmmm, I was hoping to get all the way in before you woke up."

That was something that he only accomplished a couple of times during the entire past summer. Most of the time I woke up either when he entered the room or first touched me. It was rare for me to remain asleep once he started touching my pussy with his cock and even in those few times I almost always woke once he started to violate me. I had to be really tired for it to get as far as it did this morning which wasn't a surprise given the amount of sleep I had the previous night at my aunt's house! There were only two times all summer when he actually had his cock buried to the hilt in me without waking me and we were both turned on afterwards when he described to me how he felt fucking me while I was basically unconscious!

My nude body was much more awake than my mind was as his hands moved over all over me, caressing me softly in his large hands. He cupped my breast and squeezed my boob gently, massaging it and teasing my nipple between his fingers. Then he slowly moved down, tracing circle on my stomach and then moving between my legs until he reached my clit. My body jumped uncontrollably as he rubbed it with his finger.

"Mmmmmmm, somebody's horny this morning I think," he teased me. "You were already wet before I even touched you. God you're such a dirty little slut!"

As he rubbed my clit his dick was sliding in and out of my soaking wet pussy, first pushing deep inside of me and then slowly withdrawing until just the swollen head was in me. He would hold himself there, making my cunt cry out for him to come back inside and then slowly push himself against me until I could feel the base of his cock pressing against my pussy. When he was deep in me I wiggled my hips up

He sat up with his legs over the side of the bed and I could see he was really going to go.

"Please daddy," I begged, "Please fuck me again. I need you so much, I love you so much. Please let me show you."

I sat up quickly and reached for his cock before he could stand. It was slippery with the mixture of our cum and was already pretty soft. It wasn't often that my dad could cum twice in a row but I was determined to at least have a try at it this morning. I knew this was going to be the last time for a while that I got to have him like this and I didn't want it to end this quickly.

My dad looked at me and sighed, "Oh Kelly, are you really THAT horny this morning?"

I just smiled and slipped off the edge of the bed so that I was between him legs, kneeling in front of him, never letting his cock slip from my hand. I took him in my mouth and started to suck on his soft cock. God he tasted wonderful! I loved his cum and I loved the taste of my pussy so mixing the two together and then using his cock as a serving tray was the ultimate snack! His dark thick pubic hair was wet with my pussy and I could feel it rubbing against my face as I took him all in and buried my face against the base of his smelly crotch.

My arms reached around his hips and I held his ass in my hands. He groaned loudly as my tongue circled around the head of his cock inside his daughter's mouth.

"Oh baby, you're such a good little cocksucker," he said loudly as he held my head in his hands, pulling me into his crotch. I was so proud that my father felt that way about the way I sucked his cock. My mom had taught me early on what he liked and since then I had learned a few tricks of my own. It was all paying off this morning as I felt the throbbing begin in his cock and knew that he was going to get hard again for me!

Slowly it grew thicker and longer again. For me this was always an incredibly erotic moment when I sucked a guy. To feel a cock grow in my mouth was so sensuous! Knowing I was hot enough to make a man react this way, knowing he lusted for me, that all he could think about was how bad he wanted to fuck me, that he was turned on by me such that his cock had no choice to react this way, made me feel like the sexiest girl in the world at that moment.

It didn't take long before my dad's dick was once again fully erect and hard as wood, filling my mouth until it had to go partially down my throat in order for me to get it all in. Now that he was hard I wanted him back in my pussy so I stood up and turned away from him. Looking over my shoulder I wiggled my ass seductively at my dad and gave him my little girl pout.

"See anything you want daddy?"

My dad just grinned. His cock was standing straight up from his lap and I couldn't wait to feel it back in me again. My father reached out for me, grabbed me by the hips, and then pulled me back to him saying, "Oh god Kelly, you have the sweetest little butt. Sit on my cock and let me watch that tight ass while I fuck you."

I reached between my legs and held my dad's warm dick to direct it to my pussy as I lowered myself onto his lap. I felt the head pressing against me and I wiggled it just enough to let it slip between my still wet pussy lips. I heard his suck in his breath as I let my weight press down on him and he slid back into me again. His hands squeezed my hips and I felt him pull me down onto him.

I could feel his hair legs against my bare butt as I ground my pussy onto his dick, rotating my hips in a circular like I was trying to screw his cock into me. I guess that is why people call this "screwing"! My hands were on my knees as I rocked forward and then back on my dad's cock. I don't think my dad was sorry I had kept him from being on time to work!

"Ohhhhhhhhh, Kelly," he kept moaning over and over as I literally bounced on his lap as I fucked his cock.

His hands had moved to my butt and he was squeezing my ass and rubbing it as he watched his cock appear and then disappear again into his daughter's pussy. "Damn your ass feels so smooth and firm!"

"Cum in me daddy!" I begged him again, "Give it to me one more time... show me you love me daddy."

4. Mom Watches

Just then I heard something from the direction of my bedroom door. I looked over to see my mom standing there! Judging from the tousled hair and sleepy eyes, she must have just woken up. She must come here straight from bed as she was still nude and as always I was struck by how beautiful and sexy my mom was. I wondered how long she had been watching because she was rubbing her pussy slowly with her right hand as she leaned against the doorway. When she realized that I had seen her a smile came to her face.

the aftermath of a good fucking! He kissed me on the cheek and gently pushed my mother to the side.

"All yours," I barely heard him whisper to her as he winked back at me. He raced to the bathroom for a quick shower. Late as he was there was no way he was going into the board room late smelling like he had just been fucked!

5. Me and My Mom Finish the Morning

I laid back on my bed with my legs apart as my mom came into my bedroom. I smiled as she silently crawled up onto my bed and kneeled between my legs. She reached forward and stroked my cum covered pussy with one finger, scooping up a mixture of her husband's and daughter's cum and then licking it seductively off her finger.

"Mmmmmmm, soooooo good," she murmured. "Did my horny little slut of a daughter get enough this morning?"

Well, it is safe to say that there was no way in hell as I looked down between my legs and watched my nude mother licking my cum from her fingers that I was going to say I had! My answer to the question was to raise my hips up so she had a better view of my shaved pussy. She understood perfectly! I watched as she put one hand on each of my thighs and lowered her face between them until I felt her tongue caressing me.

We spent the next hour or more together in my bed. For that short time my mom and I loved one another as only true lovers can. I love fucking my tongue, don't get me wrong, but there is no more intimate and loving time in my life than when I am alone with my mom and this morning was even more intense than usual. Maybe it was that my dad had just fucked me, maybe because we knew we would not have time alone like this for quite a while again. Whatever the reason the two of us were totally spent by the end and we just laid together in each other's arms, our sweating nude bodies pressed tightly together as we kissed softly.

Finally she got up and took a shower leaving me to lay back in my bed, the sheets soaking wet with cum and sweat and room filled with the scent of our love. I closed my eyes and was overwhelmed with emotion as I realized how much my parents loved me and I them. Tears came to my eyes as I knew I would be leaving them shortly and wouldn't be able to share my love with them like this.

I heard my mom finish her shower so I wiped the tears from my eyes and went in to clean myself up. By the time I had finished my shower and had gotten dressed it was already almost 11:00! Returning to my room, I picked out a slutty pair of denim shorts and a cami that was at least a size too small. Naturally the panties and bra stayed in the drawer!

My mom poked her head in my room and gave me one of her patented motherly smiles I always loved to see. "Hey sexy, let's say you and I go for a girl's day out?"

That sounded great and I hugged her tightly. My mom is without question my dearest and best friend in the entire world and I love to spend any moment with her I can. I lifted my head to face her and out eyes met. She looked so beautiful with the afterglow of our sex still flushing her face. God I loved her soooooo much!

We kissed again standing together in each other's arms in the middle of my bedroom. My heart was pounding as her tongue touched mine and her hands grabbed my ass through the tight shorts I was wearing. Her breasts pressed against me and our passion erupted like a flame as our kiss lengthened. Finally we broke apart and she smiled at me lovingly.

"We'd better get going or else we'll back in that bed again!" she said with a giggle. If she hadn't pulled away and led me downstairs by the hand our girl's day out would have probably changed to a girl's day in bed!

6. Out on the Town With My Mom

It was getting close to lunch time so the first thing we did was look for a place to have a light snack for lunch. I love Pittsburgh and especially my home town where there seems to be a multitude of small diners that look like little holes in the wall but serve up some great food if you know where to go. Having lived here all our lives, we knew a few favorites and so we grabbed a couple of salads and some ice tea before heading off to do some serious damage to my dad's credit cards.

We found our way to one of the more expensive malls in the area which had a number of specialty shops filled with the latest fashions and cosmetics. For the next few hours we both had fun trying on clothes, smelling new perfumes, and of course buying a few choice items.

Both my mom and I picked out some sexy negligees and I had a feeling we would be getting a chance to model them before the day was over. Actually my dad was pretty good at picking out sexy lingerie which I guess wasn't surprising. After all, lingerie is for men and so I guess who better to select it than a man?

I say it's for men because if I had my way I would just go to bed nude and get it over with. But men are wired differently and seem to love the visual stimulation of a woman wearing a naughty outfit and the sensual joy that comes from getting her out of it. Face it, some of those damn outfits are downright uncomfortable! I wonder what a guy would say if he knew I was more interested in getting that damn teddy out of my ass crack than anything else when I am stripping it off! Oh well, a girl's got to do what a girl's got to do! The things we put up with to please our men! After we filled the car with shopping bags and in the process setting back my dad's budget considerably, we headed off to a small coffee shop for a couple of espressos. The two of us sat at a table near the front and we both giggled like teenagers at the looks we were getting from some of the men that came in. Although not necessarily dressed to kill, we both wore shorts that showed off our legs - and my mom's legs were still pretty damn good yet!

I wondered how many of them realized we were mother and daughter, especially given the way we liked to hold hands and look at each other in a way most mothers and daughters don't. It was fun to flirt and I never missed an opportunity. Like mother like daughter I guess! Finally it was getting close to the time my dad would be getting home and during the day we had made plans for his arrival so we got back in the car and headed home. It had been a great day and it made thoughts of leaving the next day all the harder for me.

7. A Surprise Foursome

We were both relieved for once that dad was late getting home - as usual. We quickly grabbed out bags and headed upstairs where we pulled out our new purchases. My mom had selected a totally sheer black teddy. It was so simple in style that it looked super sexy, just sheer black that molded to her like it was painted on and left absolutely nothing to the imagination. With it she had bought a set of fishnet stockings that reached to mid-thigh which added another element of sensuality to her outfit. The outfit was capped by a set of four inch spiked heels which just looked nasty! God she looked sexy!

For myself I decided to go with the innocent little girl look, picking out a sheer pink nightie with a matching sheer thong that barely covered my pussy let along

My uncle replied, "Hell, it was enough of a surprise when you asked if I would be interested in fucking Mary again after all these years. God this brings back memories!" Then he looked at me in my sexy outfit and whistled. "I was hoping to get another shot at her before she left for school. Damn girl, you sure know how to show off that body!"

My dad put his arm around me and rubbed my breasts with his other hand, cupping them and then lifting them up like a storekeeper displaying his wares to a customer. "Yea, she's my little slut. Sexiest daughter a father could ask for."

He kissed me and ran his hand up between my legs, giving my pussy a quick feel as it passed over my crotch. "That's enough yakking, time for some serious fucking!"

Hearing my dad, Uncle Jim stopped his humping causing my mom to slap his hairy chest playfully, "Hey! What the hell are you stopping for? "

Uncle Jim looked puzzled for a second. "Sorry... I just figured you would be getting off to be with John so that I could fuck Kelly."

It was my turn now to laugh. Obviously my dad had yet to tell him that I did more than just blow him! I gave my uncle a seductive grin saying, "Oh don't worry Uncle Jim, you'll get your chance but my daddy always gets me first !"

Uncle Jim gave a hearty laugh and resumed his humping under my mom. "Shit John, why didn't you tell me you were screwing her? God and to think I thought it was wild that she gave you a BJ at our house that time! You're kidding, right? I mean, you don't really fuck your own daughter do you?"

My dad and I just ignored him for the moment and we kissed standing there as I held his rapidly growing cock in my hand. There was plenty of room on the bed for all of us so my dad got up and laid next to his brother. I dumped the thong right off the bat but left on my nightie and started sucking his cock in a 69, lowering my pussy to my dad's face to let him lick me.

It's always hard in such a situation to know what was feeling better, his tongue on my clit or the feel of his pulsing cock in my mouth. Well, there were certainly less pleasurable dilemmas to be in, that's for sure! When my dad was good and hard I climbed on top to match my mom's position. We both loved cowgirl although we used different techniques.

My mom prefers to be on her toes and bend her knees, using her leg muscles to lift herself up and down on the guys cock. I liked this method for her because it was easy to watch my dad's cock fucking. As for me, I find it terrible tiring and my my mom's ass to raise her hips up. I lifted my head for him and watched up close and personal as he entered her.

I went back to licking her pussy while his cock slide back and forth right in front of me. In the meantime my uncle was straddling my mom's face, a knee behind each shoulder with his crotch right over her and his hairy balls hanging in her face. She was getting quite an eyeful of his ass and balls I bet.

I could feel his cock press up against my wet pussy and then felt that wonderful sensation of my pussy being stretched to accommodate an invading penis. My mom's tongue also went back to work and the four of us all just enjoyed the sucking and fucking. God it felt good! Having another guy with my parents added a whole new dimension needless to say!

It wasn't long before my dad made the announcement, "Switch!". I felt my uncle's cock slip out of me and watched my dad pull out of my mom's pussy. It was only a few seconds though before we were back in operation again, this time with my dad fucking me and my uncle's cock right in front of me instead.

This went on for a while and again my dad made an announcement, "Rotate!" I couldn't help but laugh at that one, it just sounded funny but I knew what he meant. This time the guys stayed where they were but it was my time to lay in the bed with my mom on top.

Not only was this different from the perspective of how her pussy was presented to me, I got a whole different view of the guy. On top I was looking down on his cock whereas on the bottom I was looking up. We started with my uncle fucking me and my dad fucking my mom which meant my dad's balls were rubbing my face as he pumped himself in and out of my mom.

By now he was getting hot and sweaty so his balls smelled strongly of his male odor as they brushed past by nose. It was easy to tell that my mom was loving it from the way she was squirming under my tongue. It was hard to keep it on her though the way everyone was shoving and pumping! In the meantime my uncle's cock was splitting me apart and I could feel the penetration of his cock deep in me. I felt my first orgasm starting to rise up inside of me and I moaned as my uncle pumped me faster.

"That's it Jim," my dad panted, "I think she's cumming!"

I barely heard him as by now I was in the midst of a full blown orgasm and when that happened there was only one thing on my mind - my pussy and the incredible waves of pleasure that flowed from it and took residence all through my

My dad had always assumed his brother was faithful to his wife and never even brought up the subject out of worry that his relationship with my Aunt Linda might cause issues. I had a feeling that Uncle Jim and possibly even my cousin Rick were soon going to be finding that life in the Well's family had a whole lot more opportunities than they ever realized! I was thinking about how my next Thanksgiving holiday was going to be when my dad once again took on the role of director of our little play.

"Hey Jim, you've got to see this. Watch the ultimate mother-daughter position."

I knew right away what he was talking about. In reality my parents and I had very view threesomes. It wasn't that we only had sex when one of the others was away, it was just that normally all three of us didn't get involved. Usually my parents made love in their bedroom. and when I was young they would close the door. Even when they masturbated they didn't close the door so I knew that whatever they were doing was a very private thing between them and they just wanted to be alone. I never took it as hiding anything from me but more just something between the two of them.

I guess that is why the first time I saw them having sex in the hot tub had such an impact on me. I always knew what they were doing but it wasn't until I actually saw them in the act that I realized I wanted to be involved with them, to share my emotions and love in such an intimate and loving way.

The cool thing was that once I started having sex with them they stopped shutting the door. Even though they never objected the few times I watched from the door, I usually left them alone assuming it was their time and they deserved to have it to themselves. Even the time I watched from the door it was just for a short time as I didn't view my parents' sexual activities as entertainment.

Outside the bedroom it was different. If we were all watching TV and my dad wanted me I would just climb up on his lap in his recliner and we would do it right then and there. If mom happened to be there then she just let us go although I know she was please whenever her husband and daughter got together.

Sometimes my aunt would be horny and would come over to fuck my dad so it depended on what we were doing at the time as to where they did it. Again, if we were watching TV she might just mount up and go for it but sometimes my dad and her would go off somewhere more private.

The bottom line was sex was something we shared and there really were no hard and fast rules about it. If I feel like masturbating, I did. It is just that simple. If was through he just sat back on his heels and admired his handiwork! "Mmmmmmm, nothing like two pretty pussies covered in cum."

After that we usually tried to include the position any time we did all get together and my aunt told me once he did it with her and Kristen as well. She wasn't especially fond of it saying it felt like something out of a porn movie which made me laugh since that's exactly what it was!

My mom and I "assumed the position" and my dad was the leadoff man. My uncle stood off to the side of the bed, stroking himself slowly as he watched my dad demonstrate his technique. He wasn't very patient though and it wasn't long before he was tapping my dad on the shoulder like a guy on the dance floor wanting to cut in. My dad was nice though and pulled out of me to make room for my uncle.

Uncle Jim was a natural and he even tried showing off a bit by seeing how fast he could go between the two of us and a few times it was funny when he missed our pussies entirely with a rapid switch and ended up fucking the air. I tried to stifle a laugh when I felt his cock slip between me and my mom instead of nailing me.

Finally I moved over to lay at the side of my mom and then we turned over and assumed a doggie position for each of them. My uncle took me while my dad took my mom as they put their hands on our hips and started fucking us both from behind. For a while they actually stayed in synch with one another causing my mom and me to moans together as well. When they started getting close to cumming though it was a different story though as each assumed the most natural pace for themselves. It was like they were competing to see who would cum first and then my uncle was the first to cum. He groaned loudly as he pressed himself deep into me and began to spurt his cum into me.

After I felt his second shot in me I heard my dad cry out and my mom gasp as the first of his loads were released in her. The two brothers then came together then with my dad finishing first followed closely by his brother.

My mom and I looked back at them smiling and the two guys gave each other a high-five with their cocks still inside of us. "It's been a long time brother!" my uncle said in a voice husky with sex. "To think I thought screwing two sisters was hot, well I never dreamed I would be fucking Kelly in front of the two of you!"

My mom laughed at that, "Oh???? Does that mean you wanted to fuck her but just not in front of us then?"

My uncle chuckled, "Well Mary, you have to admit, she runs around like a hot little slut so can you blame me?"

We finally ended up lying together on the bed, my mom and me in the middle with my dad outside of me and my uncle outside my mom. She and I were on our sides with one leg draped over our guy pressing our pussies up against their hips and our breasts against their sides. We were so tight together so I could feel my mom's ass pushing up against mine.

I laid there feeling a sense of fulfillment and general satisfaction as I played with my dad's cock absentmindedly, just running my fingers around it and twirling his pubic hair around my fingers. It felt so good to be together like this as a family on my last night home.

I only wished that Aunt Linda and Kristen had been able to make it but they had made arrangements for the weekend a long time ago. I wonder if they had known what our plans were if they would have somehow found a way to stay home another night? I bet they would have!

Perhaps the only regret I felt was that my Uncle Jim was alone. I had no doubt that in the future his son would be more involved but it was sad to think that Aunt Shari and the girls weren't a part of our inner relationship.

Now Tammy... well who knows about Tammy but Kate and Aunt Shari are probably lost causes. I couldn't help but feel a sense of sorrow that my aunt not only was missing out on what could have been an incredible relationship but she was depriving her husband of it as well. Sure Uncle Jim got to be with the rest of us but he would never know the sense of love and fulfillment of being together the way my family was at this moment.

Oh well I guess, I was happy for what I had and I couldn't imagine a greater place to be right now than between my parents in bed. What a way to spend my last day of summer break!

(Sep 03) Chapter 99: Beth Joins the Family

Story codes: MF MFF FF oral inc father daughter
Me (20)
John - my dad (40)
Beth - BFF (21)

My dad had fucked my best friend a couple times but she still didn't know that he did me too. Was it time for her to find out?

1. Beth and My Dad

One of the things I've always admired about my parents was the love and faithfulness they have towards each other. Since their marriage neither has ever cheated on the other and if anything, I think they love each other more now than the day they were married, certainly in a more way. People seem to think that because of the sexual nature of our family that they "swing" or otherwise have some weird sex life.

Nothing could be farther from the truth. My parents believe strongly in the sanctity of marriage and that sex outside of marriage, even if consensual with the other person, is still adultery and adultery is a sin (one of the "top ten" at that!). Of course, my parents also believe that sex with members of their immediate family is not outside of marriage or "cheating" which is why my dad never stopped fucking my mom's sister and in the past few years has sex with me and my cousin. My mom was sort of stuck though in that none of the men on my dad's side of the family knew about his sex life and it wasn't until I broke the ice with my uncle and cousin that she started having sex with them.

So anyway, enough of all that. The point is, for over twenty years of marriage my parents have had one of the most wonderful marriages anyone could ask for and I feel so thankful to have been a part of it.

Then last year something happened that made me think twice about it all. My best friend in the whole world is Beth. We have been best friends since before we knew what best friends were. As we entered our teens we both realized we loved sex although we never did anything with each other. Although we never discussed it, we just avoided it and I think deep down we both knew that having sex would change the special bond between us. Who knows, it might make things even better but neither if us was willing to take the risk. We both had our sexual lives which varied actually quite a bit but it gave us something to talk about, that's for sure. Beth even introduced me to her world of sex parties although I had to admit that I wasn't into them nearly as much as she was. Sure they were fun but it was just that - something to do for fun now and then.

The only thing I never shared with Beth was when my dad first fucked me. Sex with my parents was something more intimate than anything in the world, something so much so that I didn't even want to share it with Beth.

Then came Thanksgiving Break during my sophomore year and to make a long story short, we had sex for the first time. As amazing as that was, what happened next was even more so. My parents saw us in the hot tub going at it and before it was all over my dad actually fucked Beth right in front of me. Of course, he didn't fuck me and Beth had no idea how much I wanted him to as I watched but I was a bit overwhelmed at how my parents had agreed for him to do it.

In the end I rationalized it as she was like one of the family after all these years we had known each other so it was OK for my dad to fuck her. It just made me realize though for myself that when I got married how important it was to stay faithful to my husband. Things just get too complicated once you open the doors to adultery - no matter how well intentioned!

My dad had sex with Beth once again a month later and that was the last time (at least so far as I knew and my parents had never lied to me about such things so I trusted that they would have told me if he had).

2. Playing With Beth

I was about to start school again for my junior year now with Beth and I spending our last times together for the summer. It had been a fun summer with her taking me to a few of her parties. Now that we knew we could be together more intimately without hurting our friendship we tended to spend more time alone together instead of with a bunch of strangers which suited me just fine.

I noticed during the summer when we would get together in the hot tub that my dad looked at her in "that way" but for whatever reason he never did anything with her which also suited me just fine. It was so hard to see him fuck her and not get anything for myself!

Beth and I were up in my room, having some fun with a few guys online. Although Beth was not the "chatter" I was, she would sometimes watch me as I chatted with all the people who contacted me. Of course Beth didn't know anything about my website and I was careful to avoid the subject of incest when I chatted. At the moment some guy was jerking off for me, holding up a picture of me and my cousin while he did. Beth looked at me and laughed.

"God Kelly, I can't believe you sent him those pics of you!" she said with a giggle. "Oh look - he's cumming!... Oh wow, he's squirting on you and Kristi!"

I loved it even more than she did. There was just something sexy about seeing a total stranger get so horny over me that he would allow me to watch him masturbate and then cum on a picture of me. Of course, he wanted me to cam for him but I knew better than that. It's all too easy to capture web cam images and given the bad experiences of a friend of mine I wanted to control what pictures of me people had. Who knew where they would end up?

I looked over at Beth and she was playing with herself. We both had on just our bikinis and there was precious little material between the two of ours. I loved watching Beth masturbate and I was pretty horny myself so I started playing with my pussy as well. Before long we forgot all about the horny guy jerking off and made our way to my bed. We got there but the bikinis never did as we both jumped on the bed totally nude.

Beth was blessed with boobs that were incredible and as we held each other close I could feel them pressing against my smaller ones. My nipples fired off shocks through me as hers touched them and we kissed passionately as only best friends can. It wasn't so much sexual as two people totally trusting the other, wanting to share themselves with the other.

We didn't say anything - there were no words necessary. We both knew what the other wanted, what the other needed and wasted no time in doing it. We quickly got into a 69 with each of us on our side, our upper leg lifted to let the other lick a pussy. God she knew just how to lick my pussy! Sure other people could lick my pussy and make me feel good. Nothing was as emotionally fulfilling as to have my mom or dad's head between my legs but with Beth it was different. She was simply the best at giving me the most pure pleasure from oral sex!

3. Dad Fucks Beth in Front of Me and My Mom

We were so absorbed that I doubt an earthquake could have disturbed us so when I looked up for just a second I was surprised to see my parents standing at the door to my bedroom, smiling as they watched me and my friend enjoying one another. I smiled at them and went back to Beth's pussy, licking her big lips and sticking my tongue down into her pussy hole as far as I could reach. My parents often watched me having sex with a boyfriend so it was not big deal for me that they were now. What DID surprise me was what happened next...

I was licking Beth when suddenly something pushed itself in front of my face - it was a hard cock! I looked up and saw my dad standing there stark naked with his dick pressing against Beth's wet cunt. She was on her side with her ass facing the side of the bed so with her leg up for my head he had been able to push up against her butt and get his cock in position to fuck her. Looking to the door my eyes met my mother's who just smiled and shrugged shoulders. Beth look up from my pussy and grinned at my dad.

"Mmmmmmm, hi Mr. Wells," she said in a seductive tone, "It's been a while... so you going to just stand there or fuck me?"

It was surreal to say the least. I had thought this wasn't going to happen again and now it was - and right in my own bed with me right there! Hell, he could have waited another day and fucked her after I left for school rather than making me have to see her getting fucked and not get any for myself! With anyone else my dad fucked I was able to participate so it didn't bother me like it did now. Crap, I wanted to be fucked too! Beth rolled over on her stomach and lifted her hips up with her legs spread. She reached under her stomach and used her fingers to spread her wet pussy lips apart for him. I felt obligated to support him so I sat back in the bed and started playing with myself like I was being turned on.

"C'mon Dad," I said with the best smile I could muster, "fuck her."

My dad got up into my bed and kneeled behind Beth, working his way between her legs holding his hard cock like it was a weapon. I watched as he pressed it against her pussy and despite everything I felt good for him as I watched his cock disappear inside of her.

"Oh god!" Beth moaned, "Fuck me Mr. Wells, fuck me!"

4. Beth Learns the Truth

I looked over at my mom standing there in the doorway. I couldn't understand how she could watch. How could she let him fuck Beth and not me? I decided then and there that this was not going to go on, that I was not going to hide anything anymore. If my dad wanted to fuck Beth then she had to really become part of our family. That also meant she had to know all about our family and that meant what my real relationship was with my dad.

I took a deep breath and got on my hands and knees next to Beth so my ass was up in the air along with hers. Beth looked over at me, grunting as my dad fucked her but looking at me with a quizzical look. I grinned at her and then looked over my shoulder at my dad who was also apparently confused by what I was doing. Well, not for long...

"Alright dad," I said in a strong voice, "It's time to show Beth what a good daughter I am. Fuck me dad!"

Beth's eyes widened like saucers and I just grinned at her even more. My dad kept fucking Beth though, as if he had not heard me.

"Dad!" I whined, "it's my turn - fuck ME dammit!"

My dad stopped and the room was suddenly quiet. I saw him look back at my mom who just nodded and I saw her lips form the words, "Fuck her John," as if she was afraid to say it out loud.

My dad looked at her, then at me and then back at her again. Finally he just shrugged and then leaned back, letting his cock slide from Beth's wet pussy. He moved in behind me and I felt him push his head against me, pressing harder and harder until it entered me. As many times as I have been fucked there has never been anyone who makes me feel the way my dad does when he first enters me. It's and then suddenly my pussy felt the warm sensation of his sperm being released into me.

"Ohhhhhhhhhhhh," he moaned as his hips convulsed while he came in me, shooting one after another shot of sperm into his daughter. I watched Beth and smiled saying, "He's cumming in me Beth!"

It was incredible to have my best friend watch me fuck my dad. For the first time in my life someone other than my immediate family knew about me and my dad. It felt good to finally not have to hide this from the one person with whom I shared so much else. My dad pulled out of me and sat back on his rear, his softening cock covered with a mixture of his cum and my pussy juices.

"Lick my pussy Beth," I whispered to her. "Lick my dad's cum from my pussy."

I knew she had no problem with him cumming in her mouth - THAT was for sure from past experience. I also knew she loved licking my pussy so it was only natural that she should like liking his cum from my cunt. After all, she was getting both at the same time! I could feel her face pressing against my ass, her nose between my butt cheeks as her tongue lapped up his cum as it drained from my pussy. She licked my clit and that was finally enough to make me cum. I moaned loudly as the culmination of the past few minutes finally erupted in an incredible orgasm. God, it was so incredible - seeing him fuck Beth, then having him fuck me in front of her, then having her lick his cum from me. Not to mention my mom watching the whole thing!

I collapsed on my stomach as my orgasm slowly died down. Beth laid next to me, draping her naked leg over me so her pussy was pressed up against my hip. I turned my head and we kissed. Mmmmmmm, she tasted like pussy and cum! I recognized my pussy taste and it was so erotic. My dad silently got off the bed and went to my mom at the door where they hugged and kissed. The disappeared and I had a feeling my mom as about to have one incredible fucking!

Beth got up we both sat on my bed with our legs crossed under us.

"Ok girl," she said with a sly grin, "So spill it. I have a feeling there's a lot you haven't been telling me!"

I took a deep breath and for the next hour is so we discussed the importance of incest in my family and what role it played in making us so close. Beth just listened mostly, periodically asking a question or repeating something I would say. I told her about my mom - which REALLY made her eyes open, especially when I confessed she had been the first girl I had been with. She smiled knowingly as I described my relationship with my cousin Kristi - she said she had a suspicion something was going on between us but she had not realized it had been THAT. So far as my uncle and cousin went, that didn't seem to faze he after everything else. When it was over she threw herself back on my bed, facing the ceiling and letting out a deep breath.

"God Kelly, I mean... I still can't quite believe it. No wonder you looked sort of pissed off when you dad started fucking me today."

"Sorry Beth, at least now you understand," I replied. "I feel so much better now that you know everything. It's been so hard not talking about this with you."

I leaned over and kissed her. I could hear my parents in the next room as they made love and I smiled. I always enjoyed listening to them, not for anything erotic or sexual but in the satisfaction it gave me knowing my parents were in love. Beth and I spent the next couple of hours in bed, two friends just enjoying their last time together for a while. There's nothing like a best friend!

2. Consoling Jeremy

Well, on this particular night Jeremy and I had done our usual "smile and peek" routine and now I was watching him from across the room as he tried to start a conversation with one of the girls. Knowing how shy he was it must have taken an incredible amount of courage for him to even say hello to her so I was praying inwardly that she would at least be nice to him. She wasn't all that hot herself and I know she didn't have a boyfriend so hopefully he had a shot.

My heart sunk though as the little bitch brushed him off with a "Go away dweeb!" and then to make matters worse she laughed at him and went over to tell a group of girls about what he had done. They all looked over at him and giggled and pointed at the poor kid. Jeremy looked soooooo embarrassed and I felt a pang in my heart for the poor kid. Most teenage girls are just mean by nature and I was about to go over and give her a piece of my mind when I say Jeremy quickly walk out of the room with a crestfallen look on his face.

I followed him out of the room just in time to see him duck into one of the darkened rooms at the end of the hall. I quietly went to the doorway and listened. The poor boy was crying little sobs and I knew I had to do something for him so I silently entered the room and in the light of the outside street lamps I see him clearly as he sat at one of the tables with his head down in his folded arms. He was trying to be quiet but there was no mistaking the soft sobbing sounds emerging from him as his shoulders shook. I reached out to put my hand on his shoulder and he almost jumped out of the chair as I touched him gently.

"Who is that?" he exclaimed. Turning around he saw it was me and he quickly wiped his face saying, "I'm not crying Kelly, I just had something in my eye."

It was all I could do to keep from laughing at that pitiful excuse but I knew that would've been the worst thing I could've done to him. I pulled up a chair and sat down next to him. I reached out and took his hands in mine and leaned over towards him.

"Oh Jeremy, I'm soooooo sorry," I said softly, "You know, don't pay attention to those mean girls. They really don't intend to be mean to you, they just haven't learned yet how it hurts people when they act like that."

Jeremy slumped in his chair. I could see the tears forming once again in his eyes and one ran down the side of his face. He didn't even try to brush it away this time as he sobbed, "The girls all hate me Kelly... I hate me... I hate the way I look... I hate the way I act. She was right, I AM just a dweeb."

I scooted my chair even closer until our knees were touching and put my arm around his shoulder and pulled him next to me. "No Jeremy," I whispered, "You're a handsome young man and I think you're wonderful.

Any girl would be lucky to have you as a boyfriend and someday that girl will realize what a mistake she made turning you away."

Jeremy shook his head saying, "You're just being nice to me Kelly. I know different. I haven't even kissed a girl and I'm going to be seventeen soon! I'm such a pathetic loser."

3. Building Jeremy's Self-Confidence

At that moment I wanted to make him feel better, to restore his confidence and make him realize what a good boy he really was. I hated seeing him this way, his self-esteem crushed and confidence in the tank. I didn't even think about his age. After all, he was almost seventeen and was taller than me! Besides, this wasn't for me, it was for Jeremy.

I smiled at him and softly said, "Do you really want to kiss a girl Jeremy?" I paused as he looked at me curiously and then continued, "I mean, would you like to kiss me?"

Jeremy's eyes widened like saucers. "You?" he stammered, "I mean, you want me to kiss you?"

I knew he would never say more so I just leaned over and kissed him gently on the lips. He was as stiff as a board and his lips were tightly closed but he didn't pull away either. After a few seconds I leaned back again and smiled at him saying, "Now that wasn't so hard, was it?"

Jeremy licked his lips and stared at me as if he didn't believe that I had actually kissed him! I kept a smile on my face as I leaned forward again and put my face up next to his. "Relax, nobody ever died from kissing a girl."

Once again my lips met his and this time they softened up a bit and then he pressed back against me. I opened my mouth just enough to let my tongue touch his lips but he kept his mouth tightly closed.

"Open your mouth a little Jeremy," I said softly, "let your tongue touch mine."

sure! Besides, my boobs weren't all that huge and I thought they looked pretty good without any support.

Jeremy was obviously happy with them and his eyes hardly even blinked as I released his hands and slowly started to unbutton my blouse. He kept licking his dry lips as one by one the buttons were undone until finally they were all loose and my blouse hung open on me. I felt a tingle run through me as I sat there in front of him, ready to expose myself to the boy. God, was I really going to go through with this? I felt so horny though that any doubts didn't make me even hesitate a second as I took his hands and pulled them up to my boobs, letting him touch them through the material.

"I know you've been wanting to touch me, Jeremy," I whispered, "I see the way you look at me, just like all the other boys do. Now you can do what none of them have - touch me Jeremy. Go on - it's ok."

Jeremy gingerly pushed his open palms against my boobs, pressing them against my nipples. He gently squeezed them as if he was afraid to hurt me.

"You can squeeze them Jeremy," I encouraged him, "Don't worry, I like it when you do that."

Jeremy got a bit more aggressive as he realized I was not going to stop him as he played with my boobs. I pulled my blouse to the side so his hands could be on my bare skin.

"Grab my nipples Jeremy," I whispered to him, "Pull on them with your fingers."

He was a quick learner and I felt his fingers on my nipples and my pussy began to throb as my boobs responded to his attention. My nipples were hard as bullets now and as he played with them it was like they were sending out little shocks through my boobs and chest.

"Suck my boobs Jeremy," I said.

Jeremy wasn't hesitating any more now. His head moved down to my chest and he took my right nipple in his mouth. God it felt so good for him to suck my boob!

"Harder!" I said with a little more force, "Suck it harder."

I gasped slightly as he did exactly that, pulling my nipple until it hurt just a little. I looked down and watched him sucking my boob like a baby on a mother's chest. My hand was on his leg and I moved it up to his crotch and pressed my hand between his legs. Damn, he was so hard!

My other hand held his head to my breast as he tried at first to pull away when I first touched his cock through his jeans. He seemed to get the message though and

I could feel him relax a bit and allow me to massage his erect cock through his pants. I imagined his teen cock waiting for me and I wanted it so bad!!!

4. Enjoying Jeremy's Cock

"Pull your pants down for me," I told him.

This time he did hesitate and I saw him glance at the open doorway. "Don't worry, nobody knows we're in here. Hurry up Jeremy, we don't have much time. C'mon, just DO it."

I played with my boobs as I watched him undo his belt and jeans, unzipping himself and then pulling them down to his ankles. He was wearing white underwear which he left on though.

"Underwear too Jeremy," I prodded him, "Mmmmmmm, you have no idea how long I have waited to see your hard cock."

I am sure no girl had ever said that to him and before this was over I knew he was going to hear a few more things for the first time. I felt so hot talking to him like that knowing I was the first to do it. It didn't hurt that when he pulled down his underwear his hard cock sprang up like a hard banana, sticking straight up in the air like a tent pole. I was pleasantly surprised to see he was as big as most men who had fucked me, maybe even on the larger size. Damn, if the girls in his class could get a glance at this maybe they would think differently about him!

Jeremy had a nice thick thatch of pubic hair and he stood there with his pants and underwear down to his ankles, uncertain as to what to do next. I didn't waste any time - I wanted that young cock! I held him in my hand and I felt it swell as I gently stroked him.

"Mmmmmmm, you have such a wonderful cock Jeremy," I purred as my hand reached down and caressed his hairy balls.

God was he stiff!! His cock was quivering and I could hear his breathing quicken as my hand held him. I reached behind him and felt his ass with my other hand. He had such a hard butt! I ran my hands over his buns as I held his cock in my hands.

"Do you want me to suck your cock Jeremy?" I asked in a small voice.

His eyes widened once again and he nodded. That's wasn't good enough for me though, "Tell me Jeremy... tell me what you want me to do."

"Oh Kelly," he gasped, "That feels so good."

I just waited for him to continue, admiring his nice ass and big cock. Finally he whispered what I wanted so badly to hear. "Suck me Kelly. I want you to suck me."

My face was just inches away from his cock at the time and I could smell the faint odor of his crotch. I could see the outline of his hard dick in the dim light and for just a moment I hesitated. God, what was I thinking anyway? If someone caught me sucking his cock I would be kicked out of school and who knows what else - maybe even arrested. It was foolish of me to even have gone this far but I still had the chance to put a stop to it all.

My breast rubbed against his leg and my nipple felt like it was on fire making my pussy twinge even more and that was all it took. I wanted it now, I wanted to be fucked by Jeremy - hell I NEEDED to be fucked by him. Forget the rationalizations about helping him through a bad night, I wanted to be fucked and fucked by this young man. My pussy was almost hurting from the lust it was generating within me and so I took a deep breath as I leaned forward and took him in my mouth.

Jeremy gasped as my tongue played around the head of his hard cock and then I took him all the way in my mouth until my lips were at the base of his dick and his pubic hair was smashed against my nose and cheeks. I was in heaven! He tasted so good and my nose was filled with his musky male scent. My mouth was filled with his cock and I could feel the head of his cock against the back of my throat as I twisted my head around his cock.

"Ohhhhhh," he moaned and I quickly looked up at him to try to make him keep quiet.

I stroked his cock in and out of my mouth just a few times but it was just too much for him to take. His cock surged and suddenly the first shot of cum was in my mouth. His cum tasted so good - fresh and salty without any bitterness! The first load was quickly followed by several more as his hips convulsed and he instinctively clenched his ass and pushed himself deeper into my mouth.

I took it all and when he was finished I lifted my head up to him and swallowed it all down in one big gulp. I could still feel some of it sticking to my tongue and I swished it around in my mouth until I was able to swallow the rest down.

"Mmmmmmm, your cum tastes soooooo good Jeremy," I whispered in a husky voice to him. "Did that feel good?"

Jeremy was struggled to catch his breath but he managed to pant to me, "Oh Kelly, I never dreamed it would feel THAT good!"

5. Taking Jeremy's Virginity

My mouth was back on his cock now and he was still as hard as ever. God I love the endurance of a horny teenage cock! A drop of cum emerged and I licked it off and then lifted myself up to look him in the eyes. "Do you want to fuck me Jeremy?" I asked softly.

Jeremy's face betrayed a look of panic and uncertainty. "What's the matter Jeremy?" I asked him, "Don't you wanna fuck me?" Jeremy responded in a voice so low I could barely hear him, "I've never done that. I... I don't really know what to do."

I stood up in front of him and held his head in my hands. "Don't worry, I'll take care of everything," I said in a nurturing, reassuring tone.

I undid my jeans and dropped them to the floor, stepping out of them and leaving myself bottomless with just my unbuttoned blouse on. I reached down and ran my fingers over my bare pussy.

"Do you like my pussy Jeremy?" I asked him gently.

Jeremy could only nod, his eyes were locked on my pussy as I ran my finger up and down between my wet pussy lips. I sat down on the table with my ass barely on the edge. Leaning back, my hips lifted up to show him my hungry pussy, already wet and waiting for him. Spreading my legs apart I used both hands to open my pussy for him.

"Come over here now," I told him, "Look at my pussy Jeremy - see how wet it is? Mmmmmmm, see how bad it wants you?."

Jeremy stood up and shuffled over to me since his pants were still around his ankles. He still had his shirt on but his cock was sticking out from under the shirt tails and I licked my lips in anticipation of what he was about to do to me with it. When he was within reach I grabbed his cock in my right hand as I used the fingers of my left hand to spread open my pussy lips.

I gently tugged on him to pull him closer to me until his cock was pressed up against me. I guided the head up and down my pussy slit and then used it to massage my swollen clit. God it felt soooooo good! I placed the head up against my pussy hole and looked up at his face. Instinct began to take over and I could feel him pushing gently forward, his cock wanting to enter my pussy where it knew it belonged.

"That's it Jeremy," I encouraged him, "Now fuck me... Push your cock inside my pussy... Mmmmmmm, watch it now – watch your dick disappear inside of me."

Jeremy pushed himself forward and I guided his cock into me. His cock head spread my pussy hole apart and then it forced its way forward until the head was completely inside of me. No matter how many times it happens, I always love this feeling – the first moment when a cock has just entered me. It is like no other feeling in the world and almost impossible to describe. On the one hand my most private area is being violated, taken advantage of by some outside entity intent on forcing its way inside. On the other hand my pussy is welcoming something it needs to make it complete, as if an emptiness is being filled and a lustful hunger satisfied by the one and only thing that it truly wants – a hard male cock.

Then on top of everything I felt a naughty thrill as I realized that Jeremy's virginity was now mine, that I was the first girl to have sex with. What a thrill to know that no matter what happened in his life or who he ever married and made love to in the future, I would always be in the back of his mind as his first girl – the first girl he fucked and no woman could even take that place in his heart.

"Ohhhhhh Jeremy," I moaned as softly a I could, "your cock feels so good in me. Push it in deeper... fuck me Jeremy... oh please fuck me."

Jeremy didn't say a word but he did as I asked, pushing his way deeper inside of me. I could feel his cock sliding inch by inch into my wet pussy, rubbing against the walls of my cunt and filling me with his manhood. Finally his cock was in me all the way and the base of his crotch pressed up against my pussy. His thick coarse pubic hair pressed tightly against my bare pussy, tickling it perfectly like a brush moving against me.

"That's it Jeremy," I encouraged him, "Mmmmmmm, how does it feel to fuck a girl?"

"Oh Kelly," he groaned, holding himself in me. That seemed to be all he could say, just my name over and over.

"Lift my legs up," I said to him. He reached under my thighs and I helped him lift my legs up until they were on his shoulders, one on each side of his head. I grabbed the edge of the table to keep from being pushed backwards as he pressed harder into me. I could feel his young cock throbbing in me and I wiggled my hips to move him around in me.

"Stroke it in and out now Jeremy," I instructed him, "Oh Jeremy... fuck me with your wonderful cock."

As much as I would have loved him to fuck me longer and in different ways, I knew he wasn't going to last long though, even though he already cum just a little earlier, and I was right. One thing I know and that's when a man is about to cum!

"Oh god, I think I'm going to cum again Kelly," he moaned softly.

He started to pull back to take his cock out of me and so I dropped my legs to wrap them around him and stop him from pulling out of me. Just as quickly reached out to him and pulled him in closer to me. At that moment all I could think about, all I wanted, all I NEEDED, was to have his young cock erupt in me, to release his sperm deep inside of me. I wanted to be the first girl he gave this wonderful gift to, the most personal part of him he could share with a girl in the most intimate way possible.

"No Jeremy, no!!," I gasped, "Don't take it out... Cum in me, oh yes I want you to cum inside of me."

It was a moot issue at that point as Jeremy couldn't hold it back any longer to argue with me. His cock erupting and the first spurt of cum emerged inside of me. Instantly I felt the bloom of heat blossoming inside of me that always characterized the feeling of a warm cum as it was released in me. I imagined how it must be have been spraying out of him, shooting deep inside my womb.

"That's it Jeremy," I moaned, "Cum in me more... oh god yes!... cum deep inside of me."

He pushed forward, driving himself in me as far as he could while unloaded himself in me just as I wanted him to and when he was finished he fell forward against me. I pulled him into me with my legs and I could feel the throbbing of his spent cock inside my ultra-sensitive pussy. It was the type of moment that you wish could just go on forever, physically pleasurable while at the same time an element of danger since literally anyone could walk in right now and see what we had just done.

I suddenly imagined his mother stepping in to see her son panting as his cock pulsed inside an older girl's pussy, a girl who had just taken her dear son's virginity! It wasn't really all that far-fetched as his mom was at the church right now helping out in the kitchen! It didn't matter at that moment. I didn't care what the consequences might be, I just wanted to hang onto this feeling as long as I could. Jeremy started to pull out but I clutched him to me.

"Stay in me for a minute," I whispered to him, "Just hold still and let me feel your cock resting inside of me with your cum."

(Oct 28) Chapter 101: Potential Boyfriend

Story codes: MF oral
Me (20)
Larry (26)

Everyone is always asking me if I have a boyfriend. Well, I have always had LOTS of boyfriends, but when it comes to boyfriends, that's a different story. Finding one while at school is especially difficult under the circumstances, so when an opportunity arose, I went for it (or should I say, him).

1. Meeting Larry

When deciding to go to a religious university for my teaching degree, I knew there would be compromises. On the positive side, I love the beautiful campus, the personal relationships with the faculty, the outstanding academic curriculum, and the Christian atmosphere. On the other hand, the rules are extremely strict, especially regarding personal conduct including sexual promiscuity. Overall, I still think I made the right decision although there have been times when I have gotten so horny I thought I might explode!

Most of my life on campus revolves around school and church activities. Classes and homework takes up most of my time as I try to maintain a good GPA. I'm also heavily involved in the women's bible study ministry on campus as well. In addition, I have an active role in the youth ministry at the church next door to the campus which takes whatever spare time I might have available.

As busy as I am, I still like to get out now and then although the night life in a small mid-Ohio town is not exactly like it was back in Pittsburgh. Technically, the school's rules apply to us 24/7 so you still have to be careful what you do off-campus as there are plenty of little snitches who would turn you in if they saw you drinking or fooling around. The drinking part doesn't bother me unless they ban Diet Coke but sex is another story entirely. Now that I have a car in campus it makes life a lot easier as I can drive to the malls and movie theaters whenever I want instead of having to bum rides all the time.

Given 99% of my life is spent there, most of the guys I meet are from either school or church. Guys are guys, even at my school, so I know they're interested in me but we all have to play the game where we pretend we're all innocent naive virgins, uninterested in the "ways of the world". Yeah right! I don't doubt for a second that the vast majority of them go back to their rooms at night and masturbate just like I do! Still, it makes it difficult to flirt with any intent of going further.

One day I was shopping for some snacks and such at the local Kroger grocery store. Believe it or not, shopping at a grocery store can be a lot of fun - under the right circumstances. Back home I like to go with my mom or cousin. We dress up in short shorts or tight short skirts and tease the poor husbands stuck trailing their wives, wandering slowly through the aisles like sheep being led to slaughter. I don't feel back teasing them to death. Hopefully it even helps them get through the day better.

Today I was wearing just my jeans and a school sweatshirt. The jeans were as tight as I could wear them which caused them to show off my ass nicely. The sweatshirt, with our school initials and mascot, countered the naughty jeans by practically announcing, "she doesn't put out". Admittedly, it sent a confusing message to the guys but in truth. In this case it didn't really matter since for once I was only interested in shopping and really had no intention of goofing around.

My original shopping list had only a few items so I was carrying one of those little baskets instead of pushing a cart. When I came upon the aisle with the drinks, though, I saw there was a great sale on my favorite drink - Diet Coke. I started to lift one of the big packs and tuck it under my arm when I slipped and the box crashed to the floor, breaking open and spreading cans all over the place. God, I was SO embarrassed! It seemed like EVERYONE in the store was staring at me.

"Need some help?"

I looked around to see who was talking to me and my eyes met those of your stereotypical tall, dark, handsome stranger! It was practically a scene ripped from some cheap movie. He looked to be in his late twenties (I found out later he was 28) and to my surprise, he was black. The only reason I say "surprised" is because in this town, diversity was still a foreign concept. Even at my school, we had far more foreign students than black students.

"Thanks, I've got it."

I tried to gather up the cans but when I lifted the broken case it completely fell apart this time, allowing all of them to fall to the hard tile floor again in a crash. This time, there was no doubt in my mind that everyone in the store must have heard it! My face felt flushed and I would have crawled into a hole if there had been one available.

"Don't worry, it's OK. Here, let me help you this time."

It was the same guy but this time he had a pleasant smile on his face. It wasn't like he was laughing at me but rather more amused. I was too embarrassed to turn him away this time and he quickly scooped the cans up and dropped them into his shopping cart.

"Thank you so much," I said, slightly out of breath from the whole affair.

"Here, let me carry one of these out for you."

I nodded in acceptance. Sometimes even I can overcome my stubbornness. Besides he was pretty good looking and well dressed. To be perfectly honest, the fact that he was black also gave him a bit of intrigue. Personally, I don't perceive myself as being racist or such, it's just that during my life I've had limited opportunities to interact with black men. At the same time, I wasn't sure if I ready to become another white girl - black guy couple (why is it that's never the other way around?) for people to stare out and talk behind your back.

We made our way to the self-checkout area where I paid for my stuff which Larry (he had told me his name on our way to the front of the store) then offered to carry out to my car. It was easier to accept than protest so I just led the way to my Avalon which was parked near the exit door. Larry placed the groceries in the trunk and I turned to thank him.

"Thanks for the help Larry, it's not often a guy offers to help a girl these days."

"Well, it's not often a guy gets such a golden opportunity to help a girl as pretty as you."

Note to guys: compliments and ego-building comments are ALWAYS appreciated. I couldn't help but blush a little and look down to the ground. Then I opened the driver's door and turned to get in my car, figuring that was the end of it.

"Hey, can I take you out to lunch?" Larry offered. "That is, if you haven't eaten already."

I hesitated for a minute and tried to quickly weigh the pros and cons of his offer. He DID seem like a nice guy and he was just offering lunch, not a date, so why not? Then again, I really had no idea who he was. In the end, the free lunch was the overriding factor so I agreed and we decided to meet at a local Chinese restaurant. It was a regular sit-down style with good food, not one of those all-you-can eat pig-out joints with the bland crap.

It was only a short drive to the restaurant and on the way over, I looked around me to see if I could identify him in his car but without success. I couldn't help but wonder what I was getting myself into. Would this just be a nice lunch without anything afterwards or would he expect some form of "payment" from me afterwards like so many guys seem to expect. Not that I would necessarily mind it, judging from the way he was built! Even though it makes me feel guilty to admit it, I DID wonder a bit to myself if there was any truth to the legends of black guy cock size!

When I got to the parking lot there was no sign of Larry so I wondered if I had been stood-up. It didn't seem likely as he just didn't have that type of air about him. Stepping into the restaurant, I saw that he was already there and I shook my head in disbelief. How in the world had he gotten here so fast? Larry greeted me as I entered and the host took us to a booth.

"Hey, you made it! I was afraid you might chicken out."

I gave him a questioning look as we were seated on opposite sides of the booth.

"C'mon, you can admit it, you weren't sure about having lunch with a black guy."

Once again I felt my face flush with a hint of embarrassment and he knew from my reaction that his remark was on the money.

"Hey, don't sweat it, it's only natural given the little WASP island you go to school at."

Even though he was right, it seemed a little presumptuous on his part. I let it go, though, and for the rest of the next hour or so we had an excellent lunch and a pleasant conversation. At one point I couldn't help but grin a little and I could see the question in his eyes.

"OK, so what's so funny?"

"Well, I guess I didn't expect you to... well, talk this way."

Larry laughed softly, as if I had just asked him if the color of his skin was permanent or some other silly racial question.

"Well, not every black guy sounds like he's from the hood, you know babe," he tease me.

"I know," I said, trying to dig myself out of the hole I had made for myself, "It's just that if I closed my eyes, you know, you would sound..."

"Just like a real guy?" he finished my sentence. "Well, allow me to let you in on a little secret. Black guys ARE real guys."

I felt like a racial bigot. The more I talked the deeper a hole I seemed to be digging for myself.

"Oh, and while we're on a roll, yes, it IS bigger," he teased me.

I couldn't help but cringe a little at that. Was I really appearing THAT naive to him? Thank God he didn't know everything I was thinking. For instance, since when was a black guy named "Larry"? It just didn't have the right "ring" to it and once again, I kicked myself as I realized that once again my inherited racial biases were showing up.

We finished lunch without any more embarrassing moments and overall, I had to say I had a pleasant time with Larry. When the bill came, he paid it without making a big deal of it which I was thankful for given my wallet was a bit bare at the moment. As we exited the restaurant, I thanked him for lunch and turned to head back to my car, figuring that would be the end of it.

"Hey Kelly," Larry called after me, running up to catch me before I got to my car. "Can I see you again?"

It's amazing how many thoughts can go through your mind in a split second. Not once during lunch had I seriously considered doing anything more with him. Oh sure, I had imagined what it might be like to be fucked by a good-looking black stud but that was just idle imagination at work, nothing different than any other time when I daydream. When he had made the comment about being bigger, I DID wonder for a moment how big his cock really was and what it would be like to suck it. There's a long step, though, from just playful imagination to actual doing something with someone.

"What did you have in mind," I responded, stalling for a moment to think some more.

"Hmmm, I was thinking dinner and a movie to start."

"To start?"

"Oh no, don't worry," he protested, "I meant to start our first date, not to start the night out. I know you're not that kind of girl."

It was all I could do to keep from crying out in pain when I bit my tongue hard not to laugh. Little did he know, but I WAS "that kind" of girl! The only question was, was he "that kind" of guy?

"Well... how about Saturday night?" I offered.

He agreed and we made plans for him to pick me up in front of my apartment. He knew where the campus was and it was easy to find your way to our building so everything was set and we parted way without so much as a kiss.

2. Fooling Around at Dinner

Saturday came quickly and as the afternoon passed I got ready for my date. My roomie, Jen, was curious of course and pumped me for information. I told her all about the grocery store incident and lunch but left out one crucial detail, which I am sure you can guess.

"And he's HOW old?" Jen questioned me.

"Twenty-eight, but he doesn't look that old."

"Where does he live?"

"He never told me."

"Did you get his phone number?"

"No, and he didn't get mine either."

"So let's see, you don't know his last name, where he lives, or his phone number. Geeze Kelly, what DO you know about him?"

She had me there. The truth was, I didn't know much at all about this guy. After our lunch, I realized that most of our conversation had been about me with him doing very little of the information giving. God, what if he was some unemployed nut-case?

In any case, I decided to stick with it. When the time came, the outfit I chose was fairly conservative - jeans, a plaid cotton blouse and a bra. Yeah, don't be so surprised, I chose to wear a bra. It wasn't so much for modesty as it was to determine his intentions. Going braless with this blouse, as tight and thin as it was, would have been pretty blatant and given him a clear signal as to my "availability". The outfit as a whole was not TOO conservative but just enough not to elicit any commentary from my roomies. It wouldn't do to have them see me in one of my sluttier outfits!

I was still working on my hair with my curling iron, trying to coax some body into the straight and limp strands of hair, when the doorbell rang. If it was him, then he was about five minutes early. Jen went out to check and she came running back in and shut the door.

"Kelly, your date's here," she announced. Then she put her hands on her hips and gave me a solemn stare. "So just when were you going to tell me?"

"Tell you?" I repeated back in my most innocent tone.

"Don't give that Kelly," she reproached me, "You know darn well what I mean."

"Ohhhhhhhhh, you mean that he's black?" I asked, as if it was the first time I had thought about the matter of skin color.

"Well DUH!" Jen exclaimed.

"Hey, it's not like we're getting married or anything," I protested mildly. I turned off the curling iron and grabbed my jacket and purse.

"You're not prejudiced, are you Jen?" I teased. It was unfair, just as that line of response always was because it put the responder in an awkward position, sort of like asking a guy if he had stopped beating his wife.

Jen just glared at me as I blew her a kiss and went to meet Larry outside the front door. He was the perfect gentleman, holding the car door open for me and then closing it behind me.

It was almost an hour to the movie theater and I had no idea where we would be eating along the way and he didn't offer me any information. Along the way we chatted and I learned a little more about him. He worked in the manufacturing section of a large company in town and specialized in testing the final products. He wasn't a native of the area, having just moved in from Houston about three months ago. In that time, he hadn't met many girls and had just a few friends, mostly work-related. We seemed to share many things in common when it came to our religious and political beliefs (yes, we DID talk religion and politics). He attended a church in a nearby town that was mostly black.

One thing I liked about Larry, so far as a date went, was that he was in charge and didn't put the burden on me to direct the events of the evening. Although he eventually told me of his plans, it was more for my information than my input or approval. I am sure that had I disagreed with his choices he would have listened to me but since I didn't we spent the evening as HE had planned it.

To my surprise, we went to a Japanese steak house where we joined in with six strangers to watch our meal cooked in front of us. It definitely was NOT some small, intimate meal where he might make a pass at me. We sat at the end of the table without backs to the wall which prevented anyone from seeing what went on under the table yet the meal was half over and he had not even "accidentally" bumped me. Wow, I couldn't even remember the last time I'd been on a date and a guy had kept his hands off of me for this long! In a way, I was starting to wonder if this was just going to be a platonic event. It wouldn't have been bad if that turned out to be the case.

Larry was funny and managed to keep up a never-ending conversation without seeming overbearing. He had everyone at the table laughing with his jokes. I DID notice a few glances now and then from a couple of the people seated with us. They were all white and I wondered what they thought of a mixed couple dating? In its own way, it sort of thrilled me that they should thinking that way, as if I was being a little naughty in the process.

The chef was about finished when Larry finally made his first move. We were working on the shrimp when I felt something on my thigh and a bit of a pleasant chill struck me when I realized that it was Larry's hand touching me. It was more of an exploratory gesture, a trial to see what my reaction would be. Not wanting him to get the wrong impression, I just smiled at him and put my hand on top of his, pulling it a little higher up on my leg to signal my interest. Nobody could see anything so after a few seconds, I pulled it in tighter so his hand was pressed against the inner side of my upper thigh.

"Hmmmmmm, I was starting to think you were really the prim and proper little catholic school girl," he whispered to me.

I just grinned at him and pulled on his hand once again, this time bringing the side of his hand up against my crotch. I tightened my legs together, pinching his hand between my legs. He responded by squeezing my thigh and pushing his hand up against my crotch. Instantly I felt myself respond and a tingle ran thought me like a blast of cold air.

'Trust me Larry, there is NOTHING prim, or proper, about me."

Given how our time so far had gone, this was sudden course change and I wondered for a moment if I hadn't gone TOO far. Then I looked down at Larry's lap and my heart skipped a beat at the size of the bulge his pants were trying to contain. Maybe this evening was going to be more interesting than I had originally expected!

Larry chuckled softly and then pulled his hand out from between my legs so he could continue eating. Eventually we finished and he paid the bill. I grinned as he held his coat in front of him as we walked out.

"What's the matter Larry, spill something on you?" I teased him, nodding at the coat he was holding at his waist.

"Like you don't know," he said, shaking his head at me in mock exasperation.

3. Movie Snacks - Popcorn and a Dick

We got in the car and I looked over at him once we were seated. Yep, he had one promising bulge going on between his legs!

"Hmmmmmm, looks like someone has something on his mind he hasn't told me about yet," I scolded him softly.

Larry actually looked a little embarrassed. Poor guys, when they get horny there is nothing they can do to hide it. As for me, my pussy was dying for his dick yet there was no way he could look at me and know. Such differences are what give girls an incredible advantage in little games like this.

As Larry drove to the theater, I debated whether I should do anything more or wait and see what developed. Ordinarily I would have reached over the center console and started playing with his cock through his pants, eventually leading to a blow job while he was driving. It was a rare date, a VERY rare date I should say, where I didn't at least suck the guy's dick and I didn't see why this should be an exception. At the same time, I was interested to see what Larry's plans were for the evening. Sometimes it's nice to let the guy think he's in control and see where it leads - so long as it ends up where I want it to go.

We talked about dinner and neither of us mentioned another word on what I was sure both of us wanted to talk about. It was only about ten minutes to the theater which didn't leave a lot of time for much of anything. Once there, Larry bought tickets for a movie that had been out for a while and my first thought was to wonder if we would be the only ones in the theater!

After he bought some snacks and a drink, we made our way to the theater where we weren't the only ones but pretty close to it! All of the theaters here were of the newer "stadium" style seating and we found some seats near the top center which put us several rows above the other couples. There were no kids and by the time the film started, a total of maybe twenty people were there, with none close to us.

Sitting next to Larry, it reminded me of some of my first dates back when I was in high school. I could remember vividly sitting next to a boy, wondering what he was going to do, of anything, and if he did, how I would respond. My first blowjob was given in a theater much like this one and I had even let a couple of guys fuck me during a movie. Looking back, I can't recall a single date with a movie where I watched the entire thing! Feeling Larry's shoulders against mine, I wondered if that streak would end tonight or continue on. Fortunately, it didn't take long to find out!

Once the eternal previews had finished and the movie started, Larry put his arm around me and held my shoulder with his hand. He didn't say anything and looked straight ahead so I leaned into him more as a sign of my acceptance. Unlike some of the theaters back home, this one didn't let you raise the arms up between the seats (a really cool feature which was what allowed guys to fuck me back in high school) so we were stuck with this thing separating us. Well, we weren't in high school anymore so there wasn't any need to play the same games of tease and provoke like I did when I was a young teen.

I twisted in the seat so I could reach over the arm rest and put my hand in his lap. My palm pressed down on his crotch and I was pleased to feel the firmness under his pants. With one hand, I tried to undo his pants but it was difficult so he used his free hand to help me and before long, his belt was unbuckled and his pants were undone with the zipper pulled down. I slipped my hand under the elastic of his boxer shorts and immediately my fingertips came in contact with the head of his dick. I pushed my hand in further until I could wrap my fingers around his hard smooth shaft and I took a deep breath as I held his warm cock in my hand, feeling it swelling and pulsing with his heartbeat.

"Mmmmmmm, nice cock," I whispered to him as softly as I could.

Larry's eyes were glancing around to see if anyone was looking our way but the movie had just started so everyone was engrossed with the opening scenes. With his free hand he pulled the elastic band down, allowing his dick to pop free out into the open. In the dark it was difficult to see but there was enough light from the projector to let me get a good idea of his dick. Two things struck me immediately. First, he WAS on the bigger side of the scale although not abnormally large. I would say maybe one to two inches bigger than my dad's cock (which I consider to be average) and about half again as thick.

The really interesting thing for me, though, was that he was uncircumcised. Although I had seen uncircumcised cocks in my dad's porn videos and at parties, I had never really had a good chance to explore one, let alone suck one for any length of time. I know that at a couple of parties I have been fucked by, and even briefly sucked, an uncircumcised cock but never on a one-to-one basis. As erect as he was at the moment, most of the foreskin was pulled back to reveal his head but I found that I could stroke him and pull the foreskin up until his head was covered again which was really weird.

Again, I had this feeling of being a young teen, touching her boyfriend's cock for the first time, nor completely sure of what to do with it. Well, these days I certainly knew what to do with it but the thrill of the unknown was still there. I could even smell his crotch now, the thick musky scent of his sex growing stronger as I stroked him slowly.

For a while, all I did was stroke him slowly, periodically running my fingers up and down the shaft or reaching between his legs to play with his hairy balls a bit. It had been a while since I had a dick in my hands and for the time being, I just savored the feeling of having a thick long dick in my hands. Larry certainly didn't seem to mind!

The more I stroked Larry's dick, the more I wanted it in my mouth. The damn armrest made it all but impossible to lean over and suck him without notifying the entire theater of what I was doing. Since I was wearing jeans, kneeling on the floor wasn't THAT bad of an option, even if the concrete floors in these places weren't exactly clean as my mother's kitchen floor.

Funny how things change as you get older. Five or six years ago I wouldn't have given a second thought to dropping to the floor to suck a guy's cock, no matter how disgusting or filthy it was. What had happened to that wild girl? Had I really gotten that conservative and depressing as I grew up?

Well then, the hell with it. I wasn't going to let myself become what so many girls allowed as they got older. I wanted to continue to have fun and be free in body and spirit. With a sense of moral determination, I slid off the chair to my knees on the floor as quietly as I could. I looked up and saw Larry watching me with a look of curiosity on his face as if he couldn't believe what I was doing.

With a grin, I used both hands to pull his pants down just enough to free his cock without him having to hold his boxers down for me. Larry was looking all over now, trying to be sure nobody was watching. I didn't really care at this point as my mind was focused entirely on the delicious sight not a foot in front of me - a hard, hairy dick.

Licking my lips a few times, I leaned up and forward and pulled his dick toward my face with my hand until I could put the tip of his head between my lips. At first it felt a little odd against my tongue. With as any dicks as I've sucked in my life, I probably know my way around one as much as most guys - more so if you look at it from how one feels in your mouth! The feeling of his foreskin against the tip of my tongue took some getting used to but when he was really hard it was just like any other dick.

Larry pulled my hair back and held it behind my head so he could watch me suck his cock in the dim light. I looked up at him as best I could while I bobbed on his cock. One of the things I learned early in my "career", if there was one thing guys liked better than watching themselves getting a BJ, it was seeing a girl's eyes looking up at them as they did. While I am not quite sure WHY this is, I DO know it turns them on something fierce so I try my best to look up at hem whenever I can.

Sucking his cock was doing more than just getting Larry hard – my pussy felt like it was on fire. Kneeling like this pulled my jeans up tight into my crotch, pressing against my clit and nurturing the feelings it was creating inside of me. God I would have loved to forget about everyone else and just crawl up on his lap and sit down on this wonderful dick! It wasn't the fact that they would see me that stopped me; if anything that would have just made it all the better. Common sense told me that we would be kicked out at best, or maybe ever arrested at worst.

If his cock couldn't fuck me, the least I could do was play with myself. I tried running my fingers over the stretched denim between my legs but it wasn't doing the trick. Holding his cock in my mouth, I took my hands off of him and reached down to undo my jeans. They were so tight I hadn't bothered with a belt so all I had to do was unbutton them and slide down the zipper. Sounds simple but it would have to be during one of the quiet portions of the movie and the zipper seemed unnaturally loud when I pulled it down.

In the theater, nobody could probably hear it but to me, it sounded like it was playing over the speaker systems! I pushed down hard to drop them off my hips and down to my knees so I could still kneel on the denim rather than the floor. Now that I was "available", my right hand slipped between my legs while my left returned to help me blow Larry's dick.

God, was I wet! I had a nasty suspicion I was going to be the one holding a jacket in front of me when we left. The crotch of my jeans must look like I wet my pants! My clit was already hard and swollen and when my finger touched it I almost bit Larry's dick I jumped so hard. As I ran my finger over my pussy slit and my tongue up and down his shaft, I imagined how it would feel had it been his cock in place of my finger, my wet pussy lips caressing him as he slid his shaft back and forth between my legs.

I pulled my head back until I just had the tip of his cock in my hand while I placed my fingertip at the entrance to my pussy. Slowly, as slowly as I could bear to go, I took his dick in further into my mouth while at the same time pushing my finger into my pussy. My finger helped me to imagine how it would feet to have his dick push into me while at the same time my mouth simulated a pussy for his cock. The further I took him in with my mouth, the more I pushed my finger inside of my pussy.

As I took him in deeper, I felt his cock head pressing against the back of my throat as my finger was in me as far as I could reach with it. I took as deep of a breath as I could and relaxed my throat as I descended even further onto his dick. No matter how many times I do this, the immediate reaction is to gag. Fortunately, with practice I have learned to overcome that initial reflex and relax enough to take a guy's cock further down into my throat. Larry's dick was pretty fat though, and I felt like I was being choked as I pushed my head down further. I was tempted to pull back up when his hand was on top of my head and he pushed me down even further onto his dick.

"That's it, take it all in," I barely heard him whisper. With his help I bottomed out and my face was pressed into his coarse pubic hair, my nose filled with the odor of his crotch.

"Fuck, that feels so damn good," he said with a hint of a groan in his voice.

Basically, having a dick down your throat is like plugging your breathing and as much as my finger was getting me hot between my legs, I wasn't able to hold my breath for long so I pushed my head up against the pressure of his hand. Thankfully he relented and allowed me to pull up so I could breath. I have guys get so carried away when I deep throat them that they forget I can't breathe and they hold me down on them, sometimes with both hands. Once I had to actually bite down on his cock to get him to realize the problem I was having!

I repeated the maneuver a few more times until I was too out of breath to do it again. During that time I still had my hand on my pussy but it was more the absent-minded type of touching, like when I watch TV or something and forget what I'm doing. Deep-throating a guy's takes all your concentration!

As I sucked and licked his cock again, I went back to work on myself, fucking myself with my finger and then playing with my clit, rubbing it with my fingers held together. God it felt so good to touch myself! As a little girl my mother would tease me that I was going to "wear it out" if I kept touching myself so much but thankfully, her dire warning never came true. If anything, the more I played with it, the more it wanted! Although I would never consider myself a slave to my clit the way guys are to their dicks, I would have to admit that it DOES exert a lot of influence over me.

The only question at this moment was who would cum first - Larry or me. Personally, I was trying to be first as I knew once he had cum things would change. He was no teenager anymore and I doubted that he still had that teenage Energizer Bunny ability to keep going and going and going! Some young guys amazed me with how they could cum and then go right back to fucking me again. Then you have the older guys, like my dad, who may need HOURS before they are ready to have a go at it again. I doubted Larry was at that stage yet but odds were, when he came it would be game over for him for at least a while.

Fortunately, I had control over both his cock AND my pussy so it wasn't a fair contest. When I would feel him begin to stiffen and his hips begin to lift upwards, I would back off his cock just enough to keep him on the edge without going over. A few times some pre-cum would leak out but I knew how to keep a guy going without ruining things. Meanwhile, I was masturbating myself for all I was worth!

There are times when just feeling my pussy respond and making the guy cum is enough for me, although usually before the night is over I will end up masturbating to make up for it. Tonight was NOT one of those nights. I wanted to feel my orgasm welling up inside of me like a pot boiling to the point where it overflowed. Nothing in the world felt quite like an orgasm and nothing in the world could give me the same sheer physical pleasure I got when I came. Finally, it happened.

As my pussy began to tighten down on my finger and the feelings of pleasure began to surge through me, covering every inch of me inside and out, I moaned as I held his cock between my lips. The humming sound against his cock must have felt good because he was moaning softly as well, just loud enough for me to hear. The wetness spilled out onto my hand as my cum was released, covering the palm of my hand with its wetness. The urge to just drop my head in his lap and let out the loudest moan possible almost came through and I barely stifled it in the nick of time.

Maybe it was the feeling of me moaning with his dick in my mouth because it wasn't like I was actively blowing him when Larry came in my mouth. I was still dealing with the sensations from my pussy when suddenly my mouth was covered with cum as he pulled his shaft from my mouth and directed his streams of cum over me like a fireman. I could feel his cum strike my cheeks and forehead yet somehow he managed to keep it out of my eyes. The last few drops he left on my outstretched tongue and I tasted his thick warm cum. Mmmmmmm, I loved it! Lord only knew how I looked, though, as I had no idea how much cum he had shot all over my face.

With my own orgasm finally dwindling, I tried to pull up my jeans but it was impossible in my kneeling position. The only option was to sit back in my chair and pull them up with my legs outstretched in front of me, just as I did on my bed back at my apartment. I looked over and saw Larry had easily pulled his underwear and jeans back up and he turned to watch me struggle with my jeans, It didn't help they were at least a size smaller than they should have been!

As I finally got them back in place, I realized he hadn't even touched me. Well, that wasn't so unusual actually for me. Most of my dates included a BJ but I didn't always let the guy touch me. Don't ask me why, but somehow blowing a guy doesn't seem nearly as intimate to me as letting him touch me.

Even in the dark theater I could see my crotch was dark with my pussy juices. Yep, it was going to be jacket in front of me time on the way out! Of concern at the moment was what kind of mess my face as in.

"Here, you can use this," Larry whispered as he handed me his handkerchief. Now THAT was sweet of him!

I wiped what I could off of me until I was reasonable sure that I had gotten all of it. I didn't see any on my shirt, thank goodness! I licked my lips as the aftertaste of his cum filled my mouth and covered my tongue.

We still had about half the movie to go and the rest of the time we actually watched the show. It wasn't all that good and I was happy I had spent the first half doing something MUCH more enjoyable. When it was over and the lights came on, we got up with the rest of the people. As we walked out, I noticed a few people looking at us and when they were ahead of us, one couple was whispering between each other and then the guy looked back at me. The girl jerked his arm to pull him back and looked pissed off at him. Whether she was mad because he was looking at me or maybe it had something to do with me being with a black guy, I wasn't sure. Either way I thought it was pretty cool though!

We both headed to our respective restrooms and when I looked in the mirror, I had to hold back a gasp and I realized why people had been staring at me. While I had done a pretty good job on my face, there were a couple of nice loads of cum stuck in my hair over my forehead. My cheeks puffed as I let out my breath in frustration. It wasn't like this was the first time such a thing had happened and you would think that by now I would learn to check myself out BEFORE the movie ended when the restrooms were empty. Since nobody knew me it didn't bother me. If anything, I would love to have heard what they said about me when they were out in their cars afterwards!

My purse had a comb in it so I pulled it out and was just starting to work it through my hair when someone came out from the one of the stalls. I had no idea anyone was in there with me so it caught me by surprise with my hands over my head pulling the comb through my hair. It was an older woman, maybe in her forties, and she started to say hello or something to me as she washed her hands when she realized what I was doing. Ah yes, a Kodak moment! At first I don't think she quite understood what it was that I was trying to get out and then a look of recognition came over her face as I looked at her with a "something wrong" type of expression.

"Well I never!" she gasped as she hurriedly dried her hands. She headed out but before she got to the door she turned and huffed dramatically, "You girls today... you're all so disgusting. You should be ashamed of yourself, you nasty little whore."

With that she glared at me and left. I figured the hell with it and fluffed my hair up enough to cover most of the mess and headed out where Larry was waiting for me in the hallway.

"What happened in there?" he asked, "Someone came out and you should have seen the expression on her face!"

I just took Larry by the arm and headed out of the theater. When we got to the car I explained to him what had happened and used the vanity mirror to work on my hair again.

"Sorry, didn't mean to cause you so much trouble."

"Well... you COULD have just cum in my mouth," I said, trying to sound exasperated. Larry just laughed, seeing right through me.

"OK, so next time a girl blows me in the movie theater, I'll be sure to aim for her mouth."

We both laughed at that and he drove off. When he dropped me off, I debated for a moment whether or not I just be a little more forward and suggest going to his place but it WAS just our first date so I guess a LITTLE bit of proprietary was in order. I mean, we hadn't even kissed yet so I guess fucking could be perceived as being a bit ahead of things. After all, I didn't want him to think I was THAT kind of girl!

(Nov 05) Chapter 102: Football Party

Story codes: MF group oral exhib
Me (20)
Larry (26)
Bill (26)
Gary (30)

A little over a week ago I met Larry and we hit it off. I thought he was just a regular handsome black guy but it turns out he had a kinky side as well, especially when it came to being loyal to his friends.

1. School and Larry

Going to a religious school has its benefits. The faculty treats you like a person, not a number. The general atmosphere is pleasant and focused on my Christian faith and learning. Overall, I would have to say I have no regrets making the choice I did, especially when I compare my daily life with that of my cousin Kristen, who chose to attend a public school closer to home. Then again, she gets laid most every day and goes to all the parties she can handle while most of the time while I'm at school, my only source of sexual relief is my own two hands.

It's not like everyone here at my school is a virgin, saving themselves for marriage. Everyone has the same needs and desires. The difference is we all had to pledge to follow a strict set of Lifestyle Guidelines that, among many other things, forbids any sexual conduct. As a result the peer pressure is incredible and more than one girl has been expelled since I've been here when she was turned in for violating the rules.

As a result, I have shied away from any "personal" relationships and stuck mostly with group dates and school-sponsored activities. For someone accustomed to sex like I am, now and then the "hunger" can get overwhelming and finally it's like a dam bursting. It's happened to me a few times and during such times I've probably gone a bit overboard - working an escort, stripping at bachelor parties, etc. which relieved the pressures inside of me but almost always caused me to at least question my actions later.

Frankly, if the school officials would just recognize that sex is a normal activity between consenting people and allow us a bit of freedom, such lust and desire wouldn't build up to the point where I seem to forget what I'm doing and just lash out for anything to relieve me. So see - it's their fault, not mine!

My first year as a freshman would have been positively unbearable had I not been lucky enough to have a roomie who liked girls. In contrast, as a sophomore I actually had a virgin for a roomie who didn't even believe in masturbation! Back then I was still learning how to deal with not having all the sex I wanted, which led to some bizarre results.

Before you judge me, be real and try to understand my situation. If you start having sex at fourteen and then did it almost daily until you went to college, wouldn't you find it an adjustment to go cold turkey! It was the second semester of my sophomore year that I really went crazy, to the point I actually signed up for an escort service. Fortunately I quit early on before I was seriously hurt.

Now that I'm in my junior year of college, I feel I've matured a lot since I first started here as a lowly freshman. One of the major areas where I've changed has been how to deal with a lack of sex. Of course I still crave it as much, if not more, than I ever have. The point is, I'm not a teenager anymore and I can control myself better, at least I like to think so. There ARE still times, though, when my thoughts wander and naughty ideas come to mind.

A week ago I was shopping for some snacks and such at the local Kroger. To make a long story short, I needed some help and a helpful guy assisted me and later we went to lunch. That led to a date where I sucked him off in the theater but drew the line at letting him fuck me. After all, it WAS out first date!

Larry was calling me the very next date and this time we didn't bother with the pretense of dinner and a movie or anything like that. We went straight to his apartment and I all but threw myself at him I was so horny. Since then we've been seeing each other every day. I like to think of him now as my boyfriend but I suppose some people might say we are just fuck-buddies. Does it really matter?

Oh... did I mention Larry was black?

2. Making Larry an Offer

Saturday night I was over at his apartment again. We had just finished another round of incredible sex and I had thrown on one of his shirts from his closet, just like I would have done had I been home with my dad. Of course, Larry didn't know anything at all about my home life - at least not about the incest part of it. It would have been interesting to get his response had I told him but I had been taught long ago to NEVER share that piece of information with ANYONE outside our family.

I was in the kitchen, looking through the refrigerator for something to snack on. As I leaned over, my ass poked out and even though it was covered by the tails of his shirt, it must have presented a tempting target as he smacked me on the butt with the flat palm of his hand. It didn't really hurt but it DID make a loud slapping sound.

"Hey! What was THAT for?" I teased him, turning around to face him and pretending to pout.

"Well, you've been a naughty girl and deserve a spanking."

I snuggled up to him and put my arms around him. He was still naked and I could feel his cock pressing up against my stomach. Even though he wasn't hard, I could still feel it against me and immediately thoughts of having it back in me came to mind. God I loved being fucked by Larry!

Larry kissed me on the forehead and patted me lightly on the bottom. One of the interesting aspects of our "relationship" was that while we had fucked and sucked, so far we had never kissed, at least not a REAL kiss. Maybe neither of us wanted to be that close or intimate, just happy with the fun we were having. Oh well, I wasn't complaining!

"Well... I guess I can forgive you... but you have to do something for me."

I wiggled up against him, making his cock rub against me. "Hmmmmmm, as long as it involves your cock and my pussy... anything you want."

"Well, it sort of does."

Larry explained to me that he was having a couple of friends over the next day to watch the football games on TV. Long story short, he wanted to know if I would "entertain" his friends.

"I see," I said slowly, "and by 'entertain', does that mean what I think it does?"

Larry chuckled and reached his hand under my shirt and cupped my pussy. I was still a bit sensitive from the fucking he had just given it and his cum was still draining from me. "Yeah, like you're going to tell me you wouldn't want to do it," he laughed at me, "Give me a break Kellygirl, you're the nastiest slut I've ever known."

I grinned up at him with that remark. It WAS a compliment when you thought about it.

"Well, if I'm such a nasty slut, then why aren't you fucking me right here and now?"

Larry didn't say a word but literally ripped his shirt off of me, leaving me naked in the middle of his kitchen. I smiled at him as I knew what we would be doing for the next hour or more!

3. Thinking About Larry

Later that night when I returned to my room, I took a shower and washed my pussy. A sense of satisfaction I hadn't felt in months came over me as I cupped my pussy in my hands and dreamed of all the times Larry had fucked me in the past few hours. The guy was like a machine! Even though he was 28, he still had the stamina of a horse!

Lying in bed, I played with myself gently as I imagined how it was going to be with his friends the next day. Larry had warned me that they knew nothing about me and that I would be a surprise for them when I showed up. He claimed they would be turned on by everything but I had to admit to being a little bit concerned. I had been in situations similar to this before only to find out that it is one thing to boast about your supposed sexual exploits with your drinking buddies but it can be something entirely different when it comes to putting your cock where your mouth is, if you know what I mean.

Sunday morning means Sunday School and church so I was up early to get ready. Looking back now, I have absolutely no idea what was preached as all I could think about in the service was what was going to happen in the afternoon. More than once I caught myself as my hand instinctively dropped to my lap and I all but started to masturbate right there in the pews. Now THAT would have livened up the service! During the part where people offered praises and concerns, a naughty thought came to mind and I imagined standing up and offering a praise for my boyfriend's black dick that had fucked me at least a dozen time in the past week!

For some of the people in this rural Midwestern community, I think it would have been more outrageous that I was dating and fucking a black guy more than anything. Prejudice here runs high and it can be seen even when it's not heard. All you had to do was count the number of black families that attended our church to get a quick feeling for people's attitudes. Larry was the first black guy I'd been serious with and it sort of thrilled me in a voyeuristic way to see people stare at us and whisper to one another when we would go out together in public and hold hands or hug.

It wasn't that I had anything against dating black men, this was just the first time the opportunity had come about for me. Personally, I don't get what the big deal was. Well yes, Larry DID have a nice cock but then it wasn't any different from many others I've had (OK, there IS the skin color but who cares when it's inside of you?) When I sucked his dick it responded no differently than any other cock and when he fucked me and came in me, I loved it just as much as any other time. Maybe he got off screwing a white chick but he never made any such mention of that to me.

4. Larry and His Friends Fuck Me

Since I knew now where Larry lived, I just drove myself over once I had changed clothes after church. There more cars than usual on the street so I guess his friends were already there. Larry met me at the door and gave me the once over. I stood there with my coat open as he took in my short skirt and camisole that I was wearing underneath. My bare legs were helped by the four inch heels I was wearing and my boobs were clearly outlined under my cami as I wasn't wearing anything else underneath. As for what was under my skirt, he would just have to find out for himself!

"See something you like?" I teased him.

"Damn, looking good bitch!" Larry said as he opened the door for me to enter.

He took my coat like a gentleman and hung it in the closet. I stood there wondering what was coming next. Usually this was where we both just stripped and went at it – neither of us was much into foreplay the past week. I could hear the game on the TV in the living room and the sounds of other people as well so obviously somebody else was here.

"C'mon in and meet the guys," Larry said, pulling me by the hand.

I guess I shouldn't have been surprised but it still caught me off-guard to see that one of the guys sitting on the couch was also black. I don't know why I wasn't expected one or both of them to be black, maybe it was that Larry didn't act "black" when he as around me. No funky language or other actions like you see on TV all the time. If I had been blind, I would have thought he was just another guy on campus.

"Hey guys, meet my new girlfriend, Kelly," Larry said.

Then he introduced me to Bill and Gary. Bill was the younger and later I found that he was twenty six while Gary was already thirty. Bill had a darker complexion than Larry whereas Gary was 100% Caucasian, to the point he looked pale. Both were single and were from the Columbus area. Now I knew what it felt like to be a prize heifer at the fair from the way Larry was showing me off. The guys were commenting on me as if I wasn't even there, remarking about my boobs and legs especially. Inevitably, one of them looked at my ass.

"Damn Larry, nice booty too... for a white chick!"

I pretended to be embarrassed by the attention but in reality I was loving it. What girl doesn't like to hear three guys talking about nothing but her, even if it WAS to comment just on her looks? Of course, so far they had no idea what Larry had in mind. I could only imagine what they would be saying if they knew THAT!

The three of them went off on some discussion about the game in progress, ignoring me for the moment. I took the time to have a seat and size up the guys. Given I had a feeling there was pretty good chance I would be fucked by them before the day was over, it seemed appropriate.

Bill was rather short with longer hair but he was in decent shape and seemed to be well educated, just from the way he spoke. Gary, on the other hand, was at least six feet tall and must have weighed about 300 pounds. Let's just say he was a big boy. His head was shaved and unfortunately, he was one of those guys with the lumpy skulls who could have used a little hair to even things out. Both of them were wearing baggy jeans and sweatshirts. Unlike Larry, who generally wore nice dress shoes, they had on sneakers which looked like they must have cost a bundle. All in all, I would say of the three of them, I had the best in Larry by far!

"Hey bitch, grab me a beer, would ya?" Larry called over to me from where he was still debating some player with the guys.

I just shrugged and walked into the kitchen and grabbed a bottle from the refrigerator (it had a LOT more than it did yesterday!) and brought it back to him. Handing it to him, he thanked me and then Gary started to laugh and poked Larry.

"Hey bro, you've got your slut trained pretty good!"

I huffed a bit and crossed my arms, looking at Larry to say something. When he finally did, it certainly wasn't what I was expecting!

"What can I say? Shit, this ho will do anything for hard black cock."

My eyes opened wide and my mouth must have dropped wide open as I stared at him. What happened to the nice guy who was such a gentleman to me, at least when he wasn't fucking my brains out? Bill and Gary hooted and high-fived Larry who seemed quite pleased with himself.

"I beg your pardon? What did you call me... a ho?"

Larry winked at the other guys, clearly enjoying himself.

"C'mon bitch, you know you want it. Show my guys what you got."

There are those days when things don't go as you planned and you have to make a decision - give it up or adapt. Although I had assumed Larry was expecting me to put out for his friends, I had thought it would be something that would develop over the course of the afternoon, maybe a little teasing at first and pretending to be hard to get. At no time had I imagined things would start right out with Larry all but demanding that I whore myself for him and his friends!

Well, either I said the hell with it and went home, and probably never see Larry again (or his wonderful cock), or I play along and see where it went. If anything, it promised to be something unusual for me so maybe it wouldn't be so bad. Besides, as horny as I had gotten myself all morning, if I DIDN'T get laid this afternoon... well, I didn't know what the hell I was going to do. In the end, more than anything else it was the intense craving in my pussy that drove my decision. I needed to be fucked and it didn't really matter all that much to me what I had to do to get it.

I put my hands on my hips and stared at Larry's crotch.

"Well, what if I DO?" I asked seductively, "Whatcha got for me?"

They were all getting worked up now and his friends were urging him to "pull it out". Larry laid back against the couch, and then he unzipped his pants.

"Why don't you find out for yourself bitch."

"Mmmmmmm..." I groaned as I leaned over to reach into his pants. My skirt was pretty short to start and leaning over while keeping my legs straight caused it to ride up to where they got their first look at my bottom. I was wearing a white thong which rode up into my ass crack and barely covered my pussy but it was still there, trying in vain to hide anything under my skirt.

"Yep, like I said, damn fine ass!" Gary announced.

In the meantime I was reaching into Larry's jeans. They were plenty loose and he wasn't wearing any underwear for once so it was easy to grab hold of his dick and pull it out through his zipper opening. It was still pretty soft but hard enough not to just flop over.

"Mmmmmmm, love your cock," I purred like a naughty kitten as I stroked it slowly in my hand.

"Yeah, she wants it," Bill crowed, "Look at that ho, she wants to suck that black dick."

Well, he WAS right about one thing; I DID want to suck Larry's cock. I kneeled down between his legs, not bothering to pull my skirt back down but instead letting it ride up to keep my all but bare ass in view. I took Larry's cock I my mouth and started a pretty much standard BJ on him, just bobbing up and down slowly on his cock. I didn't have to look over to know the guys were staring at me. God I loved to be watched! If there was one thing that turned me on more than sucking cock, it was being WATCHED while I sucked cock.

"That's it, suck it harder," Larry groaned as I went to work on him.

It certainly didn't bother him to have his friends watch his dick being sucked. Somehow I had a feeling I wasn't the first "ho" for them. It didn't matter, I knew I was going to be the one they remembered in the future!

"Damn, look at her playing with herself!" Bill said to the others.

Indeed, I had my free hand between my legs and had pushed my thing to the side so I could get to my bare pussy. I had my middle finger deep I my already soaking wet cunt and used the palm of my hand to rub my pussy as I fucked myself with my finger.

Looking at them out of the corner of my eye, I lifted my head off of Larry long enough to turn to the others and grin.

"Well, if nobody else is going to take care of my cunt, then I guess I have to!"

The three of them laughed and teased each other. Bill, however, seemed to be the lonely one to really listen to what I had said. I saw him getting up and loosening his belt and undoing his jeans.

"Sounds to me like Larry's bitch needs to be fucked by another big black cock!"

"Oh yeah, so what are you getting up for?" Gary teased him.

Bill just ignored him and I could feel him fumbling around behind me and then there was the unmistakable feeling of his hard dick pressing between my ass cheeks. I wiggle my ass against him, tempting him to fuck me. My pussy was screaming out for his dick. Well, it would have been happy with any dick about then for all I cared. Really, the only thing I wanted at that moment was to feel his cock inside of me!

"Fuck her!" Gary encouraged Bill, as if any of that were needed.

For Bill, it was just a matter of getting into place, pulling my thong down to my knees and spreading my ass apart with his hands to expose my wet cunt. I had no idea of how big his cock really was as he had pulled it out after he was behind me. Well, I was about to find out!

"OHHH!" I cried out as best I could with Larry's dick in my mouth.

Bill had shoved his cock into me without much more warning and my pussy was already responding. The thick head split me open and it was followed by the shaft of his dick as it disappeared into my pussy like a snake going down a hole. It was all I could do to concentrate on Larry's cock as Bill began to stroke his dick in and out of my pussy.

"Fuck, she's damn tight!" Bill exclaimed, "Damn Larry, you need to fuck this bitch more - she's had too many white-boy dicks!"

Judging from the feel of him in me, and you could say I've had my share of cocks to compare him with, Bill wasn't anything extraordinarily large but he was more than adequate. I wiggled my butt against his crotch as he thrust himself as deep into my pussy as he could. As he held himself in me, I squeezed down with him using my pussy. Bill groaned as his dick must have felt it was being held in a fleshy vise.

"Oh fuck, you're going to flatten my cock!" he protested! "God damn, that's one hell of a pussy!"

I released him and then pumped his dick using my pussy, pressing down on him and releasing him like my pussy was milking his dick. It was like I was in a haze. Even in my wildest imagination I hadn't thought things would progress so fast. God, I hadn't been here ten minutes and already I was sucking my boyfriend's cock while one of his friends was fucking me from behind. Everything was becoming a blur as Larry took my head in his hands and started to pump me up and down on his cock.

"Watch this dudes, she can take it all!" Larry boasted.

Well, it was a good thing I could because one way or another, it was going to happen. Larry's hands grabbed my head firmly and literally shoved me down on his cock, like he was thrusting a melon down on a spike. I felt his dick force its way into my throat and for a horrible fraction of a second, I thought I was going to puke!

Normally I get a chance to prepare myself and relax my throat to help it take in a guy's cock. If anything, this was just the opposite - relaxed the last thing my throat was! It didn't matter as with the force he pushed down on me I couldn't have resisted even if I wanted to and now my face was pressed against his musky crotch. With Bill still slamming into me from behind, I felt myself rocking on his dick, my nose rubbing up against his smelly pubic hair.

Fortunately he had enough sense to let me back up for air. Gary was grunting and making weird noises as he cheered on his friends. Finally he must have reached the point where he couldn't just sit by and watch as he undid his pants and pulled them down to his ankles. Well, so much for the concept that BLACK cocks were the biggest. My God, Gary the white guy had a huge dick - and it was hard as a rock! My eyes widened as I watched him grab his thick shaft at the base and even with a hand as large as his, it still didn't conceal even half of that monster. I was guessing maybe nine or ten inches, one of the bigger ones I have ever seen outside one of my dad's porn movies. I wondered if my hand would even fit around it!

"Alright Larry, let's see if your little ho can take THIS dick!" Gary boasted. Of the four of us, the one who was the most concerned was ME. I've had a couple of big dicks in my life, but not in quite a while had I seen one like this.

I lifted my head off of Larry's dick but Bill didn't seem as willing to quit. Being on my knees, I didn't have a lot of leverage to do much about it either.

"Fuck off Bill!" Gary yelled, "Let me have her for a while."

Well, you don't argue with a guy the size of Gary, that's for sure! Bill pulled out of me leaving me kneeling on the floor, not quite sure if I was ready for what was about to come. Standing up, I let my thing drop to the floor and I gingerly stepped out of them, keeping my heels on. I still had my cami on, apparently none of these guys were big tit fans, and lifted my skirt to reveal my bare pussy, all wet and puffy now from having just been fucked by Bill.

"Get over here," Gary growled, reaching out for me.

I looked at Larry with sort of a plea in my eyes as if to say, "do I have to?". He just shrugged his shoulders and stroked his cock in front of me, apparently just as interested in seeing me take Gary's cock as the others were. I moved over and stood between Gary's legs and reached out to grab his dick. My god, my hand barely went around it! It throbbed like there was a beating heart in it (well, I guess in a way there was) and it felt hot, almost like it was burning up.

"Wow, now THIS is what I call a dick," I whispered hoarsely but loud enough for them all to hear me.

"Think you can take it?" Gary said with a grin, "Don't be afraid to say no, most girls can't."

"Damn it," Bill gushed, "her pussy's so damn tight I don't think she can."

I gave Bill a nasty look and then I grinned maliciously at him. "Oh, and what would you be willing to be that I can?"

Bill just laughed and then he said, "I'll let you suck my dick if you can."

I just rolled my eyes and shook my head over that one, as if it was the stupidest thing I'd heard - which it was. I hiked up my skirt and then huffed and said the hell with it to myself. Reaching to the side, I unzipped it and let it fall to the floor and kicked it over to where my thing was laying. Now I was left with my cami and heels, a combination which seemed to please Gary just fine! Climbing up on the couch, I straddled his lap and stood up as high as I could on my knees. Even then my pussy barely cleared his erect dick!

"You ready?" I asked Gary with a nasty grin.

"Born ready bitch," he growled in response, "Let's see what you can do."

With a deep breath I grabbed him by the shoulder with one hand to steady myself as I held onto his huge dick with the other. It was probably unnecessary to guide him in. He was as stiff as a flagpole and it certainly wasn't hard to miss! Usually once I've been fucked the first time, the next time the guy's cock would just slide right into me. Well, that wasn't going to be the case tonight, that was for sure. As soon as Gary's cock head started to penetrate my wet cunt, I knew I was in trouble.

"Oh shit," I couldn't help but blurt out as I started to spread apart for him. It was like I was having a baby - except this one was trying to get back in!

"You can do it Kelly," Larry encouraged me.

I looked at him and raised my eyebrows as for the first time I began to wonder if I really could. God, I had never felt anything stretch me apart this far before!

"Ohhhhhhhhh!!" I moaned loudly as I lowered myself another fraction of an inch down onto him.

There was no faking this time, I was REALLY moaning and it wasn't like it was from the pleasure either. God, it was like being fucked for the first time only more so. For a moment I lifted myself back off of him but before he could say anything I dropped back down again for another go at it. If I could only get the head in me, the rest would be easy - relatively.

"Ughhhhh!!!" I groaned as I circled my hips around his fat dick, trying to literally screw his fat cock into me.

Finally, I decided it was like taking off a Band-Aid; the longer you stretched it out, the worst it felt. With a look of determination, I held onto both of his shoulders and gave my hips a quick downward thrust. A piercing pain shot through me and I thought I was going to cry when suddenly it was in me; his big fat cock head was finally in me! Instantly the pain disappeared and was replaced by this incredible sensation of pleasure, unlike anything I had ever quite experienced before. Never had my pussy held a cock head as big as this before and it was creating the most unusual feelings in me as I felt my pelvis stretch apart as if my legs were going to split apart.

"Damn, she's doing it!" Gary announced gleefully to the others, "The little bitch actually has it in her!"

I felt a surge of pride at being able to take him and I allowed more of him to enter me as I slowly slipped down until my ass met the base of his shaft. His dick was so far up in me it was pressing against my cervix, like he was up in my stomach almost. Never had my cunt felt this full of cock before!

"Ride it baby," Gary said in a husky voice. I couldn't help but notice it was the first time had hadn't referred to me as a bitch or whore or something like that.

Once he was in me, I wasn't about to let him out and do THAT all over again. Riding his cock was a unique experience indeed. Normally when I bounce on a guy's dick I have to be careful not to rise up to far or he flops out of my cunt - something that tends to ruin the moment. With Gary, he was so big that even when I got up on my knees he was still a little bit inside of me. Without making a concerted effort, he wasn't about to pop out no matter how hard I rode him!

Bill wanted to get back into the game and he moved in behind me. I had a bad feeling about what he had planned and Larry musty have realized the same thing I did.

"She doesn't take it in the ass," Larry warned Bill.

I was pleased that finally Larry was sticking up for me. Bill didn't seem too happy about it but he listened to Larry and backed off.

Riding Gary, I was happy to be on top where at least I could control the tempo and penetration. God, I couldn't even imagine if he as screwing me from behind or on top of me! As it was, I was enjoying his big dick more with each passing moment. How many times have I chastised guys for worrying about cock size, telling them not to sweat it as it really didn't matter. Well, 99% of the time that was true, size didn't matter. It was only when you went to the extremes, either a really small cock or a really large one, that I noticed anything significant. Well, Gary was certainly at one end of that extreme range! I had to say, when you have a dick the size of his in you, size DOES make a difference.

I wasn't going to get off of him until he came. The last thing I wanted was for him to want more and come to me looking to suck this monster dick. There was no way it was going down my throat and even taking a cock that size in your mouth was an adventure. Nope, Gary was going to have to cum inside of me before I relinquished his fabulous dick.

Gary's hand cupped my ass, one cheek in each hand and he helped me to get the right rhythm to make him cum. I looked down between my legs and it made my heart skip a beat to see this monster dick disappearing and then reappearing from my cunt. It was almost surreal as it didn't seem possible such a dick could fit into me. If it hadn't been for the feeling of fullness inside of me I might have thought I was seeing things instead.

"Fuck me Gary... cum in me."

"Yeah! Listen to her, she wants it Gary!" Bill cheered his friend on.

I looked over to see Larry was still stroking himself, watching his new girlfriend getting fucked by his friend's giant cock. Larry wasn't packing exactly a miniature model between his but he had to feel a little inadequate. I mean, what guy wouldn't when comparing himself to Gary's monster dick? I smiled at him as best I could under the circumstances. As good as it felt, I was a long way from an orgasm and right now, I just wanted Gary to cum in me and get it over with.

Faster and faster I pounded his dick as my pussy became more accustomed to the huge creature that was invading it. The whole couch was creaking as I rode him like a bucking bronco, pounding myself down into his lap when I took him in.

"C'mon, cum inside of me," I begged him between the moans that seemed to be streaming from my mouth nonstop. "I want to feel your cum deep inside my pussy."

He was getting close based on the way his eyes were starting to roll back into his head and the conversation came to a standstill. We were both concentrating on one thing - his dick inside of me. Finally he groaned and started to pant and then his hands pulled down on my waist, driving himself as deeply inside of me as he could.

"Oh fuck!" he groaned even louder as I felt his first load erupt DEEP inside of me.

God, it was so high inside of me, more so than anything I had ever felt before. He must have been spilling a river of cum into me from the way the intensity of the heat bloom in me would explode and then linger on for what seemed forever.

Over and over streams of sperm erupted from his cock's head just to emerge inside of my hungry pussy. Damn, how much cum did he have? I don't know exactly how many times he erupted but it had to be at least ten I would say. God, I could just imagine the mess my pussy was at the moment!

Finally he moaned softly and it was like he collapsed but with me still mounted on top of him. He was breathing so heavily and his face was so red that with his weight I started to wonder if the poor guy was going to have a heart attack or a stroke. Fortunately he survived (imagine the headlines in the local news if he hadn't!) and eventually I slipped off his dick.

Even with it being only half erect, it still felt like I was pulling a long sausage out of me! It flopped down against his lower stomach and I hovered over it. I concentrated and squeezed down on my pussy, forcing his huge load of sperm to emerge from my pussy and drip down onto his cock. Then I lowered myself back down again and slide my pussy up and down the length of his dick, which even now was longer the average guy when hard. I felt his shaft rub up against my clit and the slippery mixture of cum over his cock made it glide easily under me and between my pussy lips.

"Mmmmmmm, that feels soooooo good," I moaned gently as I closed my eyes.

It wasn't like looking at Gary was a big turn-on. A big beer belly and floppy man tits did away with any hope of that. Yet with my eyes shut and concentrating on the feel of his cock sliding up and down along my pussy, it was actually not a bad experience at all. My pussy felt like it had been thoroughly fucked, I could definitely say that, but that didn't seem to matter to the other two guys.

"Alright, alright, that's enough of that," Bill growled, "My turn again."

Oh well, it wasn't like he was going to stretch me out any further or anything so what the hell? A girl can NEVER get enough cock. I put my weight on my left knee and essentially flipped over so I was sitting on the couch next to Gary. Well, if he wanted a whore then a whore he would get! I laid back and raised my legs straight up in the air, heels and all. Slowly I spread them apart, revealing my cum drenched pussy to him.

"Wanna eat my pussy?"

"Hell no!" Bill sneered, "No way I'm eating cum."

Well he may not have wanted to taste another guy/s cum but he certainly didn't seem to have an aversion to putting his dick in it. Grabbing my ankles, he lifted me up until my ass was off the couch and my pussy was level with his dick. I had to keep my arms to my side with my hands on the couch to keep my balance as he thrust his dick into me again.

After being fucked by Gary, I think a horse could have fucked me without causing me any pain so Gary's little cock was a piece of cake. Apparently, he didn't mind that I was a little looser than before as he started to pump himself in and out of me.

"Oh yea, now THIS is what I call having fun," Bill cried out as he thrust his hips into me to drive his cock even deeper.

The fact he wasn't half as big as Gary didn't make as much of a difference as people might image. Sure, the feeling of being literally stuffed with cock wasn't there, but my pussy still gripped onto his dick and he was still able to stimulate me where I needed it most. Hell, a guy with a one inch cock could have done it. Most of the pleasure a girl feels is in the first inch or so of her pussy and so long as he can get in that far, it works out fine for me. The longer the cock, the longer the stroke and the more it stimulate me. Think of it as a bow on a violin. Sure, a short bow can create the note but the long bow lets it glide over the string longer, producing a more powerful tone.

Bill had been stroking himself the while time Gary was fucking me. Together with the time had been fucking me before, it wasn't like we were starting from scratch. In any case, Bill did not impress me as the kind of guy that cared about the girl anyway; he as just in it for his own pleasure and the hell with the girl. That was obvious when less than five minutes after he started fucking me, the guy was already shooting his load.

"Yeah bitch, take some REAL cum in that cunt now," he gasped as he unloaded himself in me. "Time for the good stuff - once you've had black there's no going back!"

Well, to be honest it didn't make a hill of beans to me WHAT color his cock was, the sperm all looked the same to me and it made my pussy feel just the same as well. I wasn't exactly impressed by his "real" cum. A few shots and he was through. Big deal!

No sooner had he finished than he pulled out and dropped my legs to the floor unceremoniously. Yep, I had him pegged, I felt sorry for whatever girlfriend he might have someday. I had a bad feeling he was going to be in the newspapers someday for being an abusive husband.

5. Halftime With Larry

Wow, what a wild afternoon it had turned out to be and it was still the first half of the ballgame! Frankly, I was exhausted and Larry still hadn't fucked me. If he pushed it I am sure I would have found the strength to let him do me but in a real show of class, he came over and took me by the hand and helped me to my feet.

"Hey babe, you look like you could use a few minutes," he whispered to me in my ear.

I smiled gratefully up at him and headed off to the restroom. My cami was damp with sweat so I pulled it off and hung it over the shower head to dry. Lord knows where my skirt and panties had gone to. My feet were killing me so I unbuckled my heels and I slipped them off as well. Someone knocked and I knew it had to be Larry. God knows, his friends weren't the type to knock!

"Here," he said as he reached in with a shirt of his in his hand, "I thought you might want to wear this."

My heart swelled at the sweet gesture. Frankly, although Larry had treated me courteously and as a lady since the first time we met, this was the moist intimate thing he had ever done for me. I pulled his hand so he would come in and then closed the door behind him. Without a word I reached up and kissed him on the mouth, reaching up and putting my arms around his neck.

I saw his eyes widen at the unexpected move on my part but he didn't pull away. We shared our first kiss then, just the two of us in the bathroom. I felt so close to him at that moment, even though my pussy was still throbbing from the fucking his friends had given to me.

The longer we kissed the more I never wanted it to stop. His arms around me felt so secure and in a way, I felt like I hadn't felt since the last time my dad had held me and kissed me. My body cried out for him and all I wanted at that moment was to let him fuck me. Not the way his friends had, where I may as well have been a latex doll. No, I wanted him to treat me like a lady and fuck me like he cared for me.

"Fuck me Larry," I whispered to me, finally breaking our embrace. "I want you to fuck me good."

Larry took a deep breath and sighed. He nodded towards the living room and rolled his eyes and I knew what he was trying to say. So long as Gary and Bill were here, we needed to get out there with them. I had a feeling his intention was to finish off the game and then when they left, fuck my brains out. Me, on the other hand... well I had other ideas which he was soon to find out about.

I didn't bother buttoning the shirt, it wasn't like I was trying to hide anything from the guys. It DID feel more comfortable to have it on though. Just something about having a LITTLE protection made me feel better than being nude. Even at home I rarely ran around the house nude. I would wear at least a T-shirt or one of my dad's shirts if nothing else.

6. The Second Half

When we got back to the living room the two guys looked at me and smiled, apparently quite satisfied with themselves. I could only imagine how much better their fucking got the more they told the story to their friends later! Most likely I would be cumming over and over and begging them for their dicks. Oh well, it didn't matter to me, they could have their fantasies.

Larry took a spot at the end of the other couch and I laid down the length of it with my head in his lap. He had changed into a pair of sweats somewhere along the line and as I laid there I let my hand rest on his crotch over his dick. It was just TOO tempting to leave completely alone. Apparently, he liked it because I could feel him swelling up against the soft cloth of his pants. One thing I liked about these sweats was that unlike many pair, these had a crotch opening. Someone must have been thinking ahead!

After I had been gently caressing his dick through his sweats, he seemed hard enough that a next step was appropriate so I reached inside of his pants and down until I had his dick in my hand. At first I just held it, like it was some sort of security blanket or something. We watched the game and Larry was joking and debating the plays with Gary and Bill as if nothing was happening in his crotch. Well, from the stiffness of his dick, he knew full well what was happening!

Reaching through the opening in his sweats, I tugged on his cock until it was clear and then moved my head over until his dick was touching my face. At first I just let it rest against my cheek, moving it slightly around the softness of my face with my hand. God I loved the way his smooth head felt as it caressed my sensitive skin.

Another time or place I might have just remained like this for the rest of the afternoon. There's something comforting about having your head in a man's lap while he caresses your body with his hands and runs his fingers through your hair. Holding his cock and feeling it against your face just lent an extra element of intimacy.

Today, however, was definitely NOT one of those days. My pussy was still pulsing and wet from the fucking the other guys had given me and looking across the room, I saw they were still keeping an eye on us even though the game seemed to draw most of their attention.

Not only was I considering putting on a better show for his friends, Larry's patience seemed to be dwindling as well. His hand reached down and covered mine, directing his dick to my mouth. It didn't take much to figure out what he wanted, that's for sure! I have never met a guy who did not like having his cock sucked but Larry LOVED it even more intensely than the norm. I think I could hold his cock in my mouth all day and he wouldn't get enough of it. Sometimes I had to wonder if he liked it more than fucking me!

This time I started out slow, just teasing the tip of his dick with my tongue as I kept my head down on his lap. My lips gently caressed the head of his dick, just touching it as softly as I could, like I was kissing someone more so than giving a BJ. Holding the head in my mouth, I moved my hand down under his crotch and held his hairy balls in my hand. Frankly, a guy's balls didn't do all that much for me but I knew most guys liked them to be played with - gently that is! I moved them in my hands like I was shuffling poker chips, rolling them slowly between my fingers and running my fingers through his pubic hair that surrounded them.

"Suck it Kelly," he whispered to me, barely audible over the TV noise.

I smiled as I knew that his patience had indeed been pushed to the limit. Mmmmmmm, he wanted me to suck his cock and at this very moment, there was nothing more in the world that I wanted to do. Between the feel of the firm hardness of his head that was barely in my mouth, the feel of his balls in my hand, and the thick musky odor of his crotch that reeked of sex, I couldn't wait to give him what he wanted - a Kelly BJ. The fact his friends were seeing him getting such a great BJ didn't hurt the ego either!

"C'mon, suck my dick!" he whispered a little more urgently as he broke me from my reverie.

Don't think too badly of me for saying this, but I love it when a guy begs me to suck his cock, when he is so horny and driven by lust that he will do literally anything just for me to take him in my mouth. God, the things guys have done just to get a BJ from me!

As slowly as I could, I turned my head downwards which caused his dick to move further and further into my mouth. Finally I was facing directly down to his crotch and his dick was against the back of my throat. At first I just stayed in that position, my tongue running over his shaft inside of my mouth while my lips sucked slowly on the bottom portion of his hard shaft. It was sort of like having a popsicle in your mouth, sucking on it to keep it from dripping out of your mouth. The difference was that THIS popsicle was warm and smooth, with a bushy base of curly pubic hair, and best of all, was attached to Larry's crotch.

"Damn, that feels so fucking good," Larry moaned, as much to himself, I think, as to me.

It was a little hard to breath in this position so I let about half his dick out of my mouth and then just laid there, sucking on his cock like a baby on a mother's breast. I wasn't in any hurry so I just relaxed and enjoyed the feel of his stiff dick in my mouth. Now and then I would let it out completely and lick up and down the shaft, kissing it all over and then taking it back in my mouth again.

As much as Larry loved a good BJ, there were practical limits all guys seemed to have as to how long they can go without wanting to fuck the girl. Growing up on a date, this was where it got tricky sometimes because for me, there is a hell of a difference between merely sucking a penis and allowing that same dick to penetrate my pussy.

For me, blowjobs aren't any different than kissing a guy. Frankly, I've been out with more than a few guys who I preferred to bury my head between their legs than look them in the face and kiss them. If anything, kissing seemed more intimate to me than sucking a guy. Cocksucking was for fun and pleasure, kissing seemed to imply that there was something more personal between the two of you.

Fucking, though, was NOT something I allowed every guy to do to me, not by a long short. I have probably sucked off three times as many guys as I've fucked, and that is a conservative estimate. I mean, letting a guy put his dick in you and then cum inside of you IS a little personal, you know?

With Larry, it wasn't a problem as I wanted him to fuck me probably more than he did. Even though I had been going out with him for a week now, I still felt like I was in need of it after going so long without getting any. As much as I was enjoying the slow BJ, my pussy was craving another dick. If I could have talked to it, I would have asked how it could possibly want more after the abuse it had taken already this afternoon, but it was like talking to a deaf and mute person where all I had to go by were the signals it was giving me. Trust me, those signals were like flares shooting into the sky – there was no doubt what my naughty pussy was craving!

I sat up on the couch and snuggled up to Larry. His dick was still poking out from his sweats and I held it gently in my hand as I reached up to whisper in his ear.

"I want you to fuck me Larry... I want you to cum in me."

As much as the game seemed to be interesting, nobody had ever turned me down when I made that offer and Larry wasn't about to be the first. He held me and pushed me down on the couch until we were spooning. In the process he had dropped his sweats to the floor and I could feel his hard dick poking me in my lower back through the shirt I was still wearing.

His strong hand lifted my upper leg up in the air and he put his own leg between mine, positioning his cock at the opening to my pussy. The guys were watching us now, as even the game wasn't enough to draw their attention from seeing a white girl being fucked by a black man.

"Mmmmmmm, so you want me in you?" Larry murmured in my ear, shifting his weight to put just a little pressure behind his dick so it pushed just slightly against my wet pussy hole.

"Oh my god yes... fuck me."

Larry pushed a little harder; not enough to penetrate me but enough to tease me with the possibility.

"Put it in me Larry, I want it in me."

"Then beg for it, you little bitch."

"PLEASE Larry, just do it, stop teasing me... PLEASE fuck me NOW!"

It wasn't just a game for me by now. No, I really WAS begging him. Riding Gary's cock before wasn't like this. He had treated me like some whore, some plastic doll that was there just to get him off. Larry was being gentle with me, fucking me the way a guy should fuck his girlfriend. Even though he was teasing me terribly, I knew he meant well. He was a guy, after all, and guys loved to have a girl beg for it and I didn't mind doing it.

A quick thrust of his hips against my ass and his cock pushed open my pussy and I looked down to watch as head disappeared inside of me as simultaneously my pussy all but screamed out with delight. This was one of those moments I simply loved, the moment when I watched a man first violate me as I felt myself being split open and violated. Of course, after the other guys I wasn't exactly to virgin standards of tightness, but that didn't take away from the emotional high I got when I saw and felt a dick disappearing inside of me.

It was Larry's turn to reciprocate for the BJ I had given him. Rather than just humping me madly until he came, which was essentially what his friends had done, he slowly moved in and out of me, sometimes pausing for a as much as a minute or two when he was either totally in me or sometimes when his was just barely between my pussy lips. It was his cock's way of treating my pussy the way my mouth had earlier treated him.

Larry's arm wrapped around me and he pulled me in close to him, his hand caressing my boob through the shirt. Other than what I had done to myself, this was actually the first real attention my boobs had gotten today. As I noted earlier, these guys were definitely not tit men! Now and then I would feel his lips against my neck and his tongue would caress the side of my neck and ear.

At one point Larry just held himself in me and we just laid that way for the longest time. I closed my eyes and just concentrated on the feel of his pulsing dick inside of me. My pussy would involuntarily spasm now and then, gripping him tightly and then releasing him again.

After what seemed to be an hour, but was probably just a few minutes, I reached down and gently started to play with my clit while Larry just remained still inside of me. My entire body seemed to light up with a blaze of lust and passion as my clit sent out wave after wave of the most incredible sensations a girl can feel. Finally, it was time... time for me to cum and I rubbed myself faster to bring myself to a climax.

My body stiffened and my pussy gripped his dick tightly as my orgasm washed over me like a tsunami striking the beach. In this case the wave didn't bring destruction but instead a surge of lust ran through me as my pussy held onto the invader within it, as if it didn't want it to ever leave.

My mind tuned out everything around me - the TV, the other guys, even the sound of Larry's groans as his dick was squeezed tightly by my raging cunt. At that moment all that existed in my world was my pussy and his dick, coming together to drive me all but insane with pleasure. Later Larry would tell me I was moaning so loud the guys had to turn up the TV to hear the game but I wasn't sure I believed him - how could they pay attention to the game when a girl like me was having the most incredible orgasm right in front of them?

Gradually, at first so slowly as to not hardly even be noticed, my orgasm diminished until finally my pussy released his dick and the world returned to focus.

"Mmmmmmm, that's my baby," Larry whispered to me, "You really came hard, didn't you."

I couldn't even begin to speak at that moment but I looked back at him and grinned. My face must have been beet red as it felt incredibly hot and flushed. There was no hiding the fact I was feeling wonderful. Now all that remained was to get him off, to complete the pact between us, to allow him to mate me. I just laid there, letting him fuck me anyway he wanted.

Larry pumped his shaft in and out of me like a mechanical piston, faster and faster as he rose to his own orgasm. Finally I heard him groan and his cock swelled imperceptibly and I knew he had reached the point of no return. I loved it when a man was in this state, when I knew he was about to burst and flood me with his sperm and there was nothing in the world that could stop him. At this moment I had no control over the situation, no choice remained. He was going to cum in me now whether I wanted him to or not. Of course, there was no doubt in my mind as to what I wanted.

"Oh my god!" he groaned as he squeezed me with his arm around me as I felt him push up against my ass, driving himself in me.

His first load was released deep inside of me and I felt like it was in the pit of my stomach. Then he started to pull out until his head was all that remained in me. The rest of his cum was left just inside my pussy and I could even feel some of it dribble down my pussy and onto my leg and ass. He had quite a load for me and I loved every drop he gave me. When he had finished, he sat up and lifted my leg higher, as if to display his handiwork.

"What do you say guys, nice cream pie?"

So that was what he was doing - cumming at the entrance to my cunt so the sperm would dribble out and make a nice display for his friends to see. Sort of like showing off a prize buck to friends after a hunting trip. Well, it wasn't like they hadn't a piece of me earlier.

The game was ending by then and Gary and Bill got dressed although I think they both would have liked to fuck me again if they had been given a chance. Pardon me for saying so, but who could blame them!

As for me, I probably should have been heading back home. After all, I'd been fucked now by three guys in the past couple of hours, one of which had the most amazing big dick. For most girls, that would have been enough to call it a day. Well, this girl had gone months without getting laid and I was going to get all I could while I had the chance. Looking at the hard-on Larry still was sporting, I didn't think he would mind.

(Nov 21) Chapter 103: First Time With My Junior Roomie

Story codes: F-solo FF oral
Me (20)
Jen - junior roomie (20)

Jen was my Junior year roomie and cute as a button. She had a boyfriend with whom she is definitely no prude but had never been with a girl. From the day we met I dreamed we could be closer but never actually dared to hope that our relationship would get as close as it did!

1. My College Roomies

It was the start of my third year of college and I was now a junior! Finally I was not going to be in a dorm but instead an apartment. No more RAs breathing down my neck to keep the room clean and police what I do all the time. It was an on-campus apartment which meant the rules were still pretty strict - no boys at ANY time for instance, but I was used to that.

In the past I had to wonder about what my one roomie would be like. Well, this year I had FIVE. The apartment had three bedrooms so I would only be sleeping with one and sharing a bathroom with four more. The bedrooms were all larger than my previous dorms rooms so I wasn't expecting any issues.

Although I was curious about all five of them, one in particular was on my mind - Jen. I had gotten her bio and introductory e-mail once the room assignments were made and we'd chatted a few times so I knew a bit about her. You never knew what a person was really like until you actually met them and the introduction letters were so sterile it was impossible to know how they would be when you actually met. Take my previous roomies for example...

My freshman year roomie was Brenda. Brenda lives in a nearby town about ten miles or so away. Her parents thought it would be a good idea for her to spend her freshman year on campus to help acclimate to college life. It worked out well for her even though she still went home most weekends. Sometimes she would let me come along which made for a nice getaway from the dorm room.

When I first left home for college I had a steady boyfriend with whom I had thought I would maintain a long-stance relationship and see whenever I got back. He went to a local college and we had been dating for a few months and I was starting to think maybe he even loved me.

Brenda took me home with her one weekend shortly after school started and we had fun taking pictures of me for my boyfriend. The photo session got pretty hot and eventually led to my first lesbian experience (OK, technically I have been having sex with my mom and her younger sister since I was sixteen but that is completely different from doing with a girl not related to me).

I was about to send them off to my boyfriend when an e-mail arrived from him telling me he was seeing another girl and just wanted us to be friends. Naturally I wrote the bastard back telling him what he could do with that proposal AND he certainly didn't get the pictures I had made up for him. I felt more hurt than I had ever been in my life. How could I have been so blind not to realize that he was just like all the other teenage boy that dated me just for sex?

Brenda was fantastic, though, and she helped me through those times, helping me forget my ex-boyfriend in a number of ways which including us sleeping together. We continued that for the rest of the school year and to this day I still consider her one of my closest friends. Unfortunately her parents weren't about to pay for another year in the dorms which meant I had a new roomie my sophomore year - Karen.

Karen was a multitude of conflicts. She was one of the sweetest girls you could ask for - and one of the most naturally sexy ones as well. On the one hand she was a confirmed virgin who was so up-tight about sex she wouldn't even masturbate, but on the other she had a figure I would have killed for and loved to dress in sexy clothes and skimpy bikinis. She was wonderful to be around and loved by everyone but was quite demanding as a roomie.

Things had to be Karen's way, though, which meant me sleeping with something on instead of nude as I have been since I was twelve. It was crazy in a way. People talk about their college years as the times they did wild things and here I was actually being less open about myself than I had ever been. Needless to say Karen never knew much about my sex life although I think she suspected I was not everything I portrayed myself as at school. She certainly never had a clue why I was so happy to spend a weekend at Brenda's! At the end of the year we parted as close friends but she transferred to a school closer to home so I never saw her again and we didn't stay in touch.

From what little I knew of my latest roomie, I expected Jen to be in between the two extremes I had experienced to date. She was smart and had skipped a year of grade school when she was younger so she would be a full year younger than me. She had also been a cheerleader in high school and I immediately had memories of the little bitches at my high school that made up the cheerleading squad. I certainly hoped she had put that behind her but she still seemed quite the perky one when we had talked on the phone.

From her pics she had sent me I could see that she was quite pretty and even if she had not told me she had been a cheerleader I would have guessed. She just had THAT look - little miss perky with the brilliant smile and glowing eyes that had every guy in school drooling over her. Hopefully that meant she wasn't the prude that Karen had been but I realized that being so lucky as I had been with Brenda would take a small miracle.

It was move-in day and for the first time I drove myself to school in my "new" car. I should say it was my first car as it was mom's old Avalon that she gave up to get her new BMW. It had over a hundred thousand miles on it but still ran well and was comfortable to drive. My gear was packed in the trunk and back seat so I pulled up on the curb outside the apartment. It was easy to find - right across the street practically from my old dorm.

I looked at the girls moving into the dorms and smiled to myself. I should have rightfully been out of there last year but there was room in the apartments for only about two-thirds of the sophomore class so a lottery was held and wouldn't you know it but I lost. Better late than never though and I started carrying my stuff in and in the process met my new roomies.

Jen hadn't arrived yet so I got to pick out which bed and closet I wanted. I had everything in and was chatting with my other roomies when Jen and her parents showed up. They had driven in from Wisconsin where they lived in some town by a lake so it had taken them longer to get here than I did. I greeted Jen and in the process did a quick assessment. She was actually shorter than even I was at barely 5'2" and couldn't have weighed more than 95 pounds. She was indeed the bouncy perky type but in a pleasant way. She had a great figure and a smile never seemed to leave her face.

Jen's parents were wonderful and I noticed that the first piece of personal stuff she put in the room was a picture of her boyfriend. Later after she had moved in and said goodbye to her parents we sat down and got to know one another. Over the course of the next few weeks we grew closer and told each other more personal things during which I learned more about Jen and her boyfriend.

First of all, Jen was at least no virgin. This was actually more than just a minor confession for any girl to make at our school where sex was outright forbidden and premarital sex considered all but a mortal sin. We were both relieved to find that the other was actively having sex at home although we were totally different in that regard.

Jen had not lost her virginity until the summer after her freshman year of college and since then had only had sex with a total of three boys, two of them only once. Her most recent boyfriend, Alex, was the first and only boy she had given a blowjob to.

Needless to say I didn't tell her I had had one-to-one sex with dozens of guys by then and a total more than 100 if you counted the faceless guys at various parties I had gone to. It was a bit funny in a way in that while I played down my sexual history it seemed she was trying to impress me with hers. Apparently once she found Mr. Right the barriers came down and they had been fucking like rabbits all summer. It should go without saying that she missed Alex - a lot, and it wasn't his glowing smile she was missing already!

2. Jen Misses Her Boyfriend

As the weeks went by I could tell Jen was missing Alex more and more as it seemed she was getting hornier with each passing day. This worked in my favor as gradually we opened up to each other more and more in terms of discussing sex. I love to sleep nude and I can still vividly remember the shock on Karen's face the first (and last as it turned out) time she saw me slip under the sheets with nothing on.

Jen's eyes widened a little bit the first night but she didn't say anything and in fact the next night I noticed that she was sleeping nude as well. I smiled at her as she dropped her robe, revealing her petite nude body before quickly covering herself under her blanket. Her face reddened as she held the covers up to her chin and told me that sleeping naked was something she always wanted to do but her parents would have had a fit! After that night we didn't say anything more about it but it was the last time either of us wore anything to bed.

I loved to chat with people on-line about sex at night and while I could never get Jen into it (none of my friends do either unfortunately) at least she didn't interfere with me. Although she knew I was chatting a lot she never really knew about what and certainly never knew that at times I was discussing my incestual relationships!

Sometimes she would get on the phone with her boyfriend as I was chatting and it was at those times when I could tell she was missing him a LOT, and in more ways than one judging by the way she squirmed when they talked. Sometimes she would get up and take her phone to the bathroom. I would just sigh, wishing she wouldn't feel she had to hide when she played with herself while she talked to Alex. I would have loved to have heard what she was saying to him as well!

The real breakthrough came after about a month or so of us being together. Although I tend to be a night owl, mornings have always been my peak sexual time. I seem to always wake up horny as hell, my pussy wet from whatever nasty dreams I must have been having. At home my dad stops by my room before he goes to work which helps me out but usually he doesn't have a lot of time and I still will often masturbate even after he has fucked me. At school I am left to take care of myself - literally.

At first I just fingered myself quietly under the covers, trying not to wake Jen. Apparently I wasn't totally successful because one morning when I thought she was sound asleep I must have been a little louder than I should have been when I came. Jen was on her side turned away from me but to my complete surprise I could tell from the way she was moving that she was doing herself!

When she had finished she turned over and we both looked at each other and then broke out into laughter. Apparently we were both horny in the morning and each of us had been trying not to let the other know. Well, from then on we didn't try to hide it when we played with ourselves and as we grew more comfortable with each other we got more open about it. It wasn't like we were putting on a show for the each other but at the same time we didn't hide it either.

For me it was almost like being home where masturbation was nothing to be ashamed of and I felt free to do whatever I wanted at any time. For Jen, though it was an entirely new experience. Her mother had always told her masturbation was something "bad girls" did and so she had always been shamed when she did it but at the same time couldn't stop herself no matter how hard she had tried. She had never masturbated, or even touched herself for that matter, in front of anyone, not even Alex and certainly never another girl.

I asked Jen if she hadn't done it together with any of her friends during a sleepover or anything like I had when I was in high school. Jen looked shocked when I asked as if she couldn't believe a bunch of girls would ever even consider doing anything like that. Well, I guess they raised them pretty conservative in mid-Wisconsin!

Although Jen had never been with a girl and so far had really showed no interest in it, I have to admit that during many of our masturbation sessions while she was dreaming of Alex I was imagining being closer to her. Once we started playing in front of each other in the morning she started being more open about her feelings when she had phone sex with Alex, something that seemed to get more frequent and naughty as time went by and she got hornier for him.

While she was fingering herself telling Alex how much she wanted him in her pussy I would be sitting in bed alone with my laptop, chatting with people on Yahoo! and fingering myself. I am sure she thought I did it because of the conversations I was having with my on-line friends but in reality I was imagining what it would be like to help her get herself off as she masturbated while she talked to Alex.

3. Getting Closer To Jen

For the next month or so we grew more and more comfortable with each other. At first we would wake up and masturbate under the covers, each knowing what the other was doing but not really showing anything. Over time we became less inhibited. First the covers dropped to reveal our boobs and slowly moved downward with each passing day until I could see her hand between her legs while she played with her pussy.

Finally one day I had my knees up and I let the covers slip over my knees to reveal my open pussy for her to see. She looked over and saw my hand in my pussy and at first she quickly looked away, as if having seen something she shouldn't have. Her curiosity and lust soon overcame her trepidations and she kept stealing glances back until finally she just watched. I spread my legs apart to make it easier for her to see and I was rewarded with the sight of her playing with herself even more vigorously than usual. It took a few days of this for her to follow suit but finally she allowed to see her entire nude body as she played with her clit and pussy.

I love watching other people masturbate - boys and girls, and it makes me even hotter to see them bring themselves to an orgasm, especially when I know it is me that is helping them get there. Knowing that I was the first to see Jen masturbate made it even more special for me and when she would cum, lifting her hips high off the bed as her back arched and her eyes were tightly shut. It made me want to just reach over and hold her tightly to me.

The two of us continued to masturbate regularly but thus far that was as far as we ever went. Although I noticed she seemed to enjoy watching me, there was never even the slightest hint that she wanted to do anything more. If anything, it seemed she just talked about fucking Alex even more once we started doing it together. Sometimes I would talk about a boyfriend or two that I had fun with back home but I never even hinted at the "special" relationships I had with my family.

4. Crossing the Line With Jen

So it went until it was the week of Thanksgiving break. It was a short week and everyone was waiting impatiently to go home Wednesday afternoon. Jen had tickets to fly home and from her most recent phone calls with Alex, I had a feeling Alex had better be ready for some serious sex when she got there! She was as horny as I had ever seen a girl be and was masturbating two and three times a day - at least so far as I knew. I figured if there was ever going to be a time to try to make that next step with her, this was it!

Monday morning arrived and we were both up early going at it in our respective beds. The covers were thrown back and we both were on our backs with our knees bent and spread apart to let the other see as best as possible. Neither of us had an early class on Mondays so usually on this day we would get off and then hit the bed for another hour or so of sleep to let ourselves wind down. I climaxed first as I dreamed of what I was about to do with Jen if only I could work up the courage.

Jen was fingering herself with one hand while she cupped one of her small boobs with the other. I could smell the distinctive odor of her wet pussy as she stroked two fingers in and out of her. Taking in a deep breath, I released it slowly as I got out of bed, went over to hers and sat down next to her. She opened her eyes as the weight of my body tilted the mattress under her but then just closed them again as she continued without another moment of hesitation. At first I just sat there, my heart pounding as I looked at her pussy from as close a view as I had ever had.

Her fingers were wet as she put one of them in her pretty pussy and then used the others to spread the wetness over her pussy lips and clit. I couldn't help but lick my lips in anticipation as her finger moved over her swollen clit making her body convulse as the pleasure it created spread out through her.

I put my hand between my legs and felt my own wet pussy, the bare skin around it slippery from my pussy juices and moaned softly as I touch my clit and felt a shiver go up and down my spine. For the next few minutes I masturbated with her on her bed, the two of us next to each other but other than the feel of her bare hips against me as I sat there, still not touching one another.

I knew that if I didn't do something soon I would lose my courage so with my heart beating so fast I was sure she could hear it, I took my left hand and gently placed it on her upper leg, letting my fingers lightly touch her inner thigh and then slowly dragging my fingertips over her skin which was as soft and warm as I had imagined it would be. Now THAT got her attention and she opened her eyes and stopped her masturbating. I took note that she didn't take her hand off her pussy though which was hopefully it was a good sign.

"Um, Kelly... what are you doing?" she asked softly, a sly grin coming to her face.

"Shhhhhh, " I replied softly as I lifted my hand off of her, "Nothing, don't Worry... don't let me stop you." She closed her eyes again and soon started to finger herself again so I put my hand back on her leg again and this time she didn't' do anything to stop me. Encouraged, I let my hand move quicker over her silky smooth thighs, going from leg to leg but passing north of her pussy and over her belly as I did. Jen opened her eyes and looked at me as if seeing me for the first time.

"Kelly.. I mean really, what are you doing?" she asked but not stopping her masturbating this time. I didn't say a word but just let my fingertips continue to lightly trace little circles as I moved my hands over her lower body. "Kelly, you know I have never done anything with a girl before," she said, this time in a bit louder voice. "I'm not a lesbian!"

"Mmmmmmm, don't worry Jen," I said, trying to reassure her, "I'm not one either so don't worry. I love boys but it can be fun with a girl sometimes." Her body seemed to loosen a bit and she giggled when my fingers passed over her side just above her hips.

"That tickles!" she giggled.

I slowly moved to her stomach and made little circle around her belly button. She giggled again and twisted just a bit as she said laughingly, "Kelly! Stop tickling me!"

I grinned at her and slowly worked my hand down to the top of the short line of pubic hair she kept when she shaved her pussy. "C'mon Jen, just close your eyes and imagine it's Alex touching you."

Fortunately her incredible lust for Alex won out over any concerns about me and she did indeed close her eyes and resumed her masturbating. Oh my god she looked so hot! She was so small yet had such a beautiful petite figure. Her pussy scent was so much stronger this close up and I licked my dry lips in anticipation of tasting it for the first time. I knew that I still had my work cut out for myself if I was going to make THAT part of my dream come true!

I continued to slowly trace my fingers all over her body, moving from her legs to her hips (where I she was still incredibly ticklish!) over her tight little stomach and then at first just around her boobs which were so petite like the rest of her naked body. My fingertips moved in ever reduced spirals around her boobs until they were touching her pointed nipples.

Jen gasped as I pinched them softly between my fingers, pulling on them gently. I put my finger in my mouth to get it wet and then used it to rub her nipples, the moisture lubricating her hard nipple under my fingertip.

"Ohhhhhhhhh yes," she moaned softly, "That feels soooooo good."

Emboldened by her response, I worked my way back to her stomach and then just touched the top of her hairline of her close-trimmed pussy hair. Jen trimmed her pubic hair but didn't shave it off the way I did. Apparently Alex liked to play with it and so she made sure there was some for him to have fun with.

I gently lifted her hand off her pussy and place it on her breast. Her wet fingers immediately started to knead her boobs while mine went back to her now empty crotch. She was soaking wet from masturbating for the past hour and probably cumming at least once or twice in that time. My finger easily slid over her clit and I felt her tense up as I started to play with it.

"Oh I don't know about this Kelly... I just don't know," she whispered in a hoarse voice.

I noticed her hips were starting to move under my fingers so whatever uneasiness she was trying to vocalize, her body was betraying her true intent.

"Just imagine Alex's big cock forcing its way into you," I said as I began to push one of my fingers just inside her swollen pussy.

Even though she must have been expecting it, her hand immediately flew to her crotch on top of mine. My finger was into her pussy up to the first joint and I held it there to see what she was going to do. After a few seconds she pulled her hand back and went back to massaging her boob. She opened her eyes and looked at me, her face a mixture of emotions, lust, embarrassment and confusion all in one!

"Oh god Kelly I really don't know what to do... I want it so bad but it's not right," she cried out as tears actually started to flow from her eyes, "I just don't understand this, how can something so bad feel so good?"

I tried to calm her but she kept babbling on saying, "I know it's wrong to do it with a girl but yet I want you to touch me! ...Oh Kelly I just don't know what to do!"

I pushed my finger deeper into her and then started to stroke it in and out of her as if it was Alex fucking her. I leaned over and took her free nipple into my mouth and sucked on it tightly. Licking her nipple with my tongue, I whispered to in a voice husky with lust, "Tell me what you want Jen... Tell me what you want me to do... Please tell me."

I went back to sucking her boob as she moaned loudly. Thank God the walls were pretty soundproof as I wouldn't want our roomies next door to hear any of this!

Jen lifted her hips up under my hand and in a throaty voice said, "Oh god Kelly, I want it, oh yes I want it! ...Oh god Kelly don't stop, do anything you want to me."

She opened her eyes then and we looked directly at each other.

"Anything," she repeated softly and distinctly.

I knew she probably wasn't yet to the point where she could verbalize exactly what she wanted but I knew from the away she said it what she meant. I felt a twinge in my pussy as I knew I had succeeded in my quest - Jen was mine now and all I had to do was take her. It felt so incredible I almost didn't want to go further and spoil the sense of lust and anticipation. I wondered if this was how my boyfriend felt when I gave myself to him as a virgin, when I told him it was OK to fuck me and I submitted myself to him completely? Is this how he felt when he realized that a virgin teenager was giving herself to him and letting him do anything he wanted to her?

All I knew was that seeing Jen lay there, waiting for me to do whatever it was I wanted to do to her, wanting me to have my way with her, was one of the most sensuous and erotic feelings in the world!

I got up and spread her legs wide apart with my hands. She watched me intently, licking her lips and breathing heavily. I climbed onto the bed with her and kneeled between her open legs, gazing at her open wet pussy that she now was presenting to me without hesitation or shame. Leaning down, I placed my hands on the sides of her hips and reached under to hold up her tight little ass. Then, without breaking eye contact so as to maintain the spell between us, I lowered my head between her legs until I drew in a deep breath to savor the musky scent of her pussy.

Finally I worked up the nerve to plunge my face into her crotch and my tongue searched out her clit and ran circles around it as she gasped and arched her back. God she tasted so good! I had been wanted to taste her for so long it seemed almost like a dream that my face was finally pressed against her pussy for real, that the wetness I felt was her actual pussy juice and not my vivid imagination as I masturbated. I pushed my tongue between her pussy lips and into her pussy hole as far as I could. She tasted so sweet and strong.

"Oh Kelly," Jen moaned, "That feels soooooo good. Please don't stop. No matter what I say or do, don't stop!"

I pushed one finger into her pussy and went back to work on her clit with my tongue. She was bucking against me now and gibbering like a baby, telling me how good it felt and how much she loved it. I inserted a second finger into her and got it good and wet and then took it out. Then I did something I had never done to anyone before except myself, I pressed it against her asshole and started to push it in.

"Oh no!" she yelled at me, "Don't touch me there... I can't take it, please Kelly, no!"

Well, she was the one who said don't listen to her say NO so I didn't. I pushed my finger further inside of her until it was to my second knuckle. It was weird, I had never felt anyone else's asshole before and even my own was not something I touched very often. I had always thought the feeling would disgust me but with Jen it was anything but that. I could feel my fingers together, one in her pussy and one in her asshole, rubbing each other through her. My mouth was still sucking her clit when she was ready to cum.

"Cumming!" was all she could get out but man did she ever!

Her pussy cum flowed over me and I felt her asshole pinch down on my finger as it violated her. Her pussy cum was delicious and I lapped it up eagerly with my tongue. God she tasted soooooo good! She finally collapsed as her orgasm died down, exhausted from my efforts on her.

I moved up and laid next to her on my side, my breast pressed against her side and one leg draped over hers. I ran my fingers up and down her body, letting just my fingernails once again trace themselves over her lightly. I let two fingers run over her breast and nipples and she gasped as her eyes were closed and she just laid there not moving a muscle. She didn't even have the energy to close her legs back together again.

I would have loved to have had her lick me in return but for now this was wonderful enough. I knew this would not be the last time we did this and I was sure she would be returning me the favor.

Postlude

It took a while to get this story to print and since then events have occurred which might be of interest so I thought I would add this before publishing the story. Somehow we made it to class that day but as soon as we were back Jen was hungry for more and yes indeed, she did return the favor.

As it turned out, Thanksgiving break was soon upon us and Jen went home where she fucked her boyfriend's brains out. Returning to school, she wasn't nearly as horny as she had been that week just before break and actually seemed embarrassed to even discuss it so we held off doing anything more than masturbating for a few days. Finally I sat her down and we discussed it. That lead to us being back in bed together and we have been there regularly since.

I doubt we will ever be able to recreate that intensity of our first time together but I'm happy with the way things turned out!

mom more than me! Guess it must be some "older woman" fantasy or something for him.

Needless to say, my dad was just as happy as I was to see me home again from college for Fall Break. At least, he hadn't wasted any time showing me how much he missed me. Let's just say the erection poking through his shorts when I walked in the door was a clued. There was one thing I could count on from my dad when I was home – my morning wakeup call. There was no alarm clock involved, but rather an alarm COCK. A long time ago we had started our little "tradition" to now where it seemed if I didn't get fucked first thing in the morning I walked around wanting it for the rest of the day!

2. Thanksgiving Morning Masturbation

Given the marvelous consistency of which my dad kept up his side of our tradition, you can imagine my surprise when I woke up Thanksgiving morning and realized something was missing – my dad! I rubbed my eyes and as my bedroom slowly came into focus, I verified that I was indeed all alone. Hmmm, what could had happened that was more important to my dad than his own daughter, especially on Thanksgiving morning when not even he went to work?

As I sat up in bed, I started to scratch an itch on my cheek when my fingers felt something a bit sticky. Looking down at my boobs, which were also itching a little, I grinned as I realized what had already happened this morning. My dad must have come in earlier and as exhausted as I was from the past week, I must have been hard to wake up so he let me sleep. As horny as he probably was by then, he must have jerked off looking at my nude body and then cum all over me.

Normally, I get more than a little perturbed when guy makes a mess on me. Guys, the porn movies don't show what happens AFTER the whore gets covered in cum. Trust me, cleaning cum off of you is not the easiest thing in the world, especially when it's in your hair or dried on your skin. Of course, in my father's case I was ready to make an exception. God, what I would have given for a video of him jerking off over me, looking at me, wanting to fuck me. It thrilled me to know he found me desirable in this way, that he could fulfill his lust and needs just by looking down at me as I slept without even touching me.

The more I thought about it the hornier I got until my pussy suddenly turned on like a light switch had been thrown. I an instant, I simply HAD to touch it and so my hand slipped down between my legs and at first I just cupped my shaved pussy in my hand, pressing up against my crotch like a bikini bottom pulling up against me. Damn, it felt like I was on fire down there! Even without pressing my fingers inside if me, I could already feel the wetness as I imagined my dad brushing the head of his stiff cock over my face as I slept.

Slowly, ever so slowly, I traced the tip of my finger in little circles around my clit. Now and then I would drop down and pull some more wetness up from my pussy hole to keep it slippery. It was like I was teasing myself, playing with my clit just enough to make me feel good but not enough to drive me to an orgasm. In my mind, it wasn't my finger on my pussy but my dad's tongue, licking me up and down my pussy slit and rubbing it up against my clit.

"Yes daddy, lick me," I whispered to myself, wishing he was there to hear me.

Finally I couldn't take it anymore and I put two fingers just outside my pussy hole.

"Fuck me daddy," I whispered to my imaginary father.

"He" responded by pushing his cock into me and my two fingers worked their way in as I pretended that it was his dick that was violating my tight pussy. While I fucked myself with one hand, the other was fondling my boobs, just as he would be doing if he was drilling me.

"Make me cum... oh god make me cum daddy," I cried out, a bit louder this time but there was nobody upstairs to hear me anyway. With both hand on my pussy now, I used the one to push its fingers into me while the other worked full time on my clit. God it felt so good!

"OH MY GOD! FUCK ME DADDY" I cried out to the empty room as my orgasm struck me. like a sudden summer storm. My hips rose up off the bed as my back arched and it felt like every inch of my skin was sweating fire. All I could think about was his hard cock in me, his wonderful erect dick that he would give me when I was a good girl, that he rewarded me with when I had earned it. Mmmmmmm, if only he could see me now, his young daughter making herself cum on her bed thinking of nothing else but her desire to have her father fuck her.

My pussy was gushing cum and I knew my bed must be getting soaked under me but it didn't matter to me a bit. They say practice makes perfect and when it comes to masturbation, I had tons of practice! I knew just how to keep myself on the sharp edge of an orgasm, to twiddle my clit just right that I didn't go so far to where

I had to quit because it overwhelmed me, but just enough to keep me peaking, to keep the incredible sensations alive in me.

I have no idea how long this went on as I tend to lose all track of time when this happens to me. Sometimes I get so exhausted I simply am forced to quit but when I catch my breath, it's back to the races and to that mountain peak once again. Poor guys, it's like a few quick shots and its over but I could keep myself going like this forever.

3. Morning Routines

Who knows how long I might have gone on this way when my mom appeared at the door to my room. Really, I had no idea how long she had been watching me but when she spoke I couldn't mistake her presence.

"Hey lazybones, how about you stop playing with yourself for once and get down here and help me?"

On the one hand, I knew she wanted me to help her but I also knew she was teasing me a bit too. When I was younger and first starting to learn about my body, I use to constantly touch myself - and I mean constantly. Well, I mean, can you blame me? Sometimes I would forget about where I was and Mom would poke me in church or wherever and hiss at me to "stop it". More than once, she threatened me that my clit would "fall off" if I played with it too much! Even now that I'm older she still likes to tease me about how often I masturbate, even though I knew she does it a lot herself. On average, I probably do it two or three times a day, not a record I am sure by any means.

Throwing on a tank top, I hurried downstairs to help her with the chores of getting ready for dinner. As I stood there in the kitchen, I couldn't keep still as my pussy was still acting up something fierce and even just walking was enough to stimulate it.

"Wow, you're certainly horny this morning," my mom teased me, "What's the story anyway?"

I explained to her what dad had done to me earlier and she just shook her head and smiled.

"Yeah, I can see him doing that. My guess is that it's because you let him do it. Frankly, I'm not waking up to a bunch of dried cum all over me - and he knows better than to try!"

I just laughed at her and she poked me playfully. As we worked in the kitchen, the conversation turned to the day's events and eventually to my favorite uncle and cousin (well, my only male cousin for that matter).

"You know, just because you've started screwing your uncle and Rick, it doesn't mean you have to do it TODAY you know," she warned me.

"Oh Mommmmmm!" I whined.

"Don't 'oh mom' me young lady," my mom chastised me, a little more seriously now. "The last thing we need around here is for your bitchy aunt to get any clever ideas. You know she thinks you're a slut as it is – and not in the cute way your father refers to you."

I just hung my head sullenly. What was the fun of fucking your uncle and cousin if you couldn't do it when it was naughty? Especially my Uncle Jim. It's not like he was the greatest guy ever to screw me. In fact, if he hadn't been my uncle, there would certainly have never been a second time. What really made it hot was that my Aunt Shari had no idea of how much of a slut I REALLY was. God, if she complained about my bikini and shorts (or lack of them), just imagine what she would say if she knew her husband and son were doing me behind her back!

We didn't talk about it anymore and when I was finished I headed back upstairs to get dressed. As a rule, we didn't dress up for Thanksgiving so I just wore a tight pair of jeans and a school sweatshirt. The jeans were a pain to get on and I could barely sit down in them. As hot as they looked on me, they were pretty much overshadowed by the baggy oversized sweatshirt. It was so big you couldn't even tell I wasn't wearing a bra underneath. Heck, for that matter you could barely tell I had boobs!

Actually, the outfit was a compromise between my mom and me. As usual, I knew she was right to be concerned about my aunts, both of whom I am sure thought my mother let me get away with murder and that it was outrageous how she allowed me to dress most of the time. Still, that didn't stop me from wanting to push their buttons a little bit.

My dad had been waiting the TV in the basement all this time and he turned it off as my mom and I came down the stairs carrying the food. He looked at me and shook his head.

"Wow, being a little conservative today, aren't we?"

I just rolled my eyes as my mom glared at him. I figure she must have been thinking that he last thing she needed was him egging me on today. Mom was sort to the basement. It was completely finished and didn't have that "basement" smell or feel to it.

Hurrying down the hallway, trying not to pee on myself, I grabbed the doorknob and wouldn't you know it, someone was in there! God, was there no mercy on me? Dancing from foot to foot, I knocked and to my surprise, the door opened and who was there but my cousin Rick!

"What's the matter, gotta pee?" he teased me, standing in my way.

I just glared at him and roughly pushed him out of the way, expecting him to leave and close the door behind him like any normal person would have done. Instead, the jerk closed the door alright, but with him still in there with me.

"Ummmmm, do you mind?" I said, now just one step away from peeing in my jeans.

"I want to watch."

"What? Are you some pervert or what?"

"No really, I've never seen a real girl pee."

Another time and I would have questioned what he meant by "real girl" but at that point I just didn't care anymore. I quickly pulled my stubborn jeans down and planted myself on the toilet. No sooner than my bare butt hit the seat than I released a flood of pee. God, it was almost as good a feeling as getting laid!

"C'mon, let me see!" Rick insisted as he moved over next to me.

"Go away, I'm not putting on a show for you, you pervert!"

By now I had finished and I wiped with some toilet paper and was about to get up when he pushed me down with his hand on my shoulder. He was standing right next to me and I couldn't help but notice the ever-increasing bulge between his legs.

"Hey, let me up, I need to get back upstairs," I protested.

"That can wait. I've got something you need right here, he said in a husky voice. I could tell just from the tone he was horny as hell, and the raging hard-on he was still hiding only emphasized it. He was so close now I could even smell the muskiness of his crotch.

"Well, what makes you so sure I need it, eh? Why don't you show me what it is?" I said, trying to go with the flow. I mean, what the hell, I was horny myself and the thought of going all day with this testosterone around and NOT getting laid was disheartening at best.

Rick undid his belt and pants and pulled down his zipper. He was wearing jockey shorts but they weren't able to contain his massive erection as the tip of his dick was peeking out the top of the elastic waist band. I just sat there as he dropped his pants and underwear to the floor in a heap around his ankles.

"Well, what do you think?"

As much as I would have liked to tease him and string him along more, I was so horny by now I simply couldn't resist and so I reached up to grab his hard dick in my hand. He was sticking straight up in the air like a rocket ready for launch and stiff as a board.

"Yeah, I knew needed it," he whispered to me as I stroked his cock gently with my hand. Then he laughed softly and said, "You know, I think I know you pretty good by now. Shit, - you just can't get enough dick, can you?"

Well, I was definitely guilty as charged. I will freely admit that I LOVE cocks in every way. I love to look at them, to hold them, to suck them and to feel them fuck me. What I REALLY love about them is the way they get hard because of me and then cum, spraying their sperm inside my pussy, in my mouth or sometimes all over me. It really didn't matter to me what the rest of the guy was like so long as he wasn't totally gross. With many a guy, it was just his dick I was interested in so whether he was fat or bald or older didn't make any difference to me so long as he could get hard and cum (although in a few cases it took the help of modern medicine - AKA Viagra).

"Rick, why don't you just shut up and let me suck your dick?" I said, my last words as I leaned forward and bent his dick down for me to take into my waiting mouth.

My tongue reached for the tip of his cock and I played it slowly around and then ran it up and down his hard shaft. God he was so hard and hot! Taking his dick in my mouth, I sucked the head first, pleased to hear him groan as my lips sealed around his shaft and my cheeks drew in as I drew a suction on his dick. He must not have showered this morning as his crotch odor was really thick and strong. It wasn't bad, though, and if anything, I loved the pungent musky odor that permeated it. Then, without warning, I plunged my head down on him, taking his entire cock in my mouth until his dick pressed against the back of my throat. There was still maybe an inch to go which would have to wait for the next time down.

Drawing my head up slowly, I let my tongue drag on his shaft as I let his dick flop from my mouth with an exaggerated lip smacking sound. This time I took a deep breath and moved back down on him again. This time when I encountered the back of my throat, I relaxed and let him push his way down into it. My initial reaction was to gag but over time I've learned to control that reflex and the final inch or so moved down into my throat.

"Oh fuck, that feels incredible!" he moaned.

I looked up at him until our eyes met with my mouth tight against the base of his hairy crotch. I wanted to smile at him but with a mouthful of rigid cock that's pretty much impossible.

Running out of breath, I lifted my head again and then for the next few minutes just pumped about half of his cock in and out of my mouth. My hands reached around him and I grabbed his firm ass in my small hands, squeezing his solid butt in my hands, pulling him even tighter into my face.

Rick reached down and I could feel his hand on my boobs through the thick sweatshirt. It was better than if I had a bra on but still not the best so I lifted up my sweatshirt high enough for him to touch my bare breasts. His fingers pinched my nipples, sending little shocks through my boobs and chest.

"Stand up," he ordered me in a stern voice.

I was several years older but he still viewed himself as the guy and thus "in charge". The reality was he would do anything I told him to do but for now, if it made him feel better to think he was dominating me, that was OK. After all, who had their most tender organ between my teeth!

Dropping his cock, I stood up and wiped the spit from my mouth, grinning at him like the cat who just got the canary.

"Something you want, cousin?" I teased him, holding his warm cock in my hand as I faced him. It was sort of odd in that both of us were standing with our jeans down around our ankles. My sweatshirt fell down and covered my chest again and he still had on his flannel shirt.

"Yeah, like you don't want it too!" he said, grabbing me by the waist and spinning me around to face away from him. I almost tripped on my jeans and we both laughed for a moment before getting serious again.

"Bend over," he said, again with the strength of his mistaken authority. Dutifully I bent over in response. No matter what he might think, though, it wasn't because he told me to but rather because I wanted to.

"God, what an ass!" he moaned as I felt his dick pressing up against my bare butt. His hands roamed over my smooth bottom and he squeezed my firm ass cheeks in his large hands.

"Fuck me Rick," I said softly, not wanting anyone waiting outside the door to hear me. "Hurry up and put it in me."

Well, what would you have expected me to say? I really DID want to be fucked and with a seventeen year-old boy lined up behind me with a cock that was so hard it could bend steel, how could anyone blame me for begging for it?

As it was, Rick really didn't need any encouragement. At seventeen he had enough hormones raging that I doubt I could have stopped him from fucking me at this point even if I for some reason wanted him to. Face it, he was a LOT bigger than me and if really he wanted to fuck me, there wasn't much I was going to do about it. Fortunately, stopping him was about the last thing on my agenda.

Just then there was a rapid knocking on the door and I heard someone call out, "Hey, anyone in there?" Damn, it sounded like Kate! Shit, just what we needed, little miss sanctimonious listening in.

"Dammit, go away Kate, I told you never to bother me when I'm in here," Rick called out over his shoulder to her.

"You better hurry up Rick," she threatened, "or I'm going to tell mom you're doing it again."

I couldn't help but grin at that last one from Kate. I had a good idea about what she was referring to. Something told me that Kate had caught Rick jerking off before! Oh well, so long as she thought it was just him stroking his cock, that was fine with me.

"Hurry up," I hissed at him over my shoulder, pressing my ass back against his dick.

"Oh just hold your horses," he retorted although I knew he was in just as much a hurry to get his dick in me as I was.

Despite all my willpower and preparation, I still couldn't help but moan softly when his dick pushed its way into me. The feeling of his cock head spreading me apart and then rubbing up against my inner pussy was incredible!

"I heard that! Rick, I know what you're doing in there and I'm telling mom!"

As much as I wanted to concentrate on how good his dick felt in me, I couldn't help but smile at the thought of the little brat running up to her mom, telling her that her big brother was jerking off again in the bathroom. Hopefully nobody would notice I was missing as well and start putting the pieces together, regardless of how unimaginable it might be.

My thoughts quickly returned to the task at hand as his crotch smacked into my ass, sounding almost as if he had slapped me. I was pushed forward just a bit as the weight of him pressed against my butt, driving his dick even deeper into me. I put my hands against the cool tile wall, using it for support to keep me from being pushed forward onto my face.

"Oh yeah... that's it Rick, fuck me... fuck me," I whispered as softly as I could.

Between him being so horny and the BJ I had already given him, it wasn't going to take much to get Rick off and I knew a few well-spoken words would hasten things along. As much as I would have loved to spend the entire afternoon with his dick inside of me, I knew we had to hurry before someone got suspicious. As he kept stroking himself in and out of my wet pussy, I kept whispering to him, telling him what a great cock he had, how good it felt in me, how much I wanted him to cum inside of me. Although I prefer to have a guy cum in my pussy any time, at this time it was doubly important as I didn't want to have to worry about what cum I had missed if he shot it all over me.

"Ohhhhhhhhhhhh," he groaned as I felt his cock push into me and then he held it still. I could tell he was trying to hold it back, to stop the flood of sperm and enjoy this moment of ecstasy as long as possible but after a few seconds he surrendered and suddenly he was cumming in me like a water hose. The feeling of warmth it created in me, coupled with the knowledge that his was his incestuous sperm being shot into me that was creating that sensation, was enough to make me almost cum.

"Oh shit that felt good," he sighed as he shot his last load and then promptly pulled out of me. Teen boys, they're all the same, slam-bam and then they're done. One second he was horny as a dog in heat, the next he was totally oblivious to my bare ass sticking out for him to play with!

5. Uncle Jim Gets His

"Hey, what's going on in there?"

The voice from outside sounded like my Uncle Jim's and from the look on Rick's face, I was sure of it.

"Just a sec dad, be right out!"

"No, open the door NOW," his dad demanded.

Well, it wasn't like what we were doing would be any surprise to his dad. I couldn't help but grin at the thought he was probably going to be more upset that it wasn't him that had just fucked me. Rick unlocked the door and opened it a crack. His dad promptly pushed it open enough for him to look in and see me struggling to pull up my jeans over my bare bottom. Rick's underwear and jeans were up to his waist be he hadn't time to zip or buckle anything. All in all, it was pretty obvious to just about anyone what had been going on.

"Don't sweat it, nobody's out here," he grumbled. "Shit, your mother is having a hissy fit thanks to Kate. You know how she feels about your 'private moments' in the bathroom. Jesus, couldn't you two have waited until later?"

Rick just stood there in silence, for once being smart enough to realize that saying nothing was probably a better option than opening his mouth and giving his dad more to gripe at him about.

"Now hurry up and get to your room before someone sees you," he ordered Rick. Rick didn't even bother to look back at me as he held up his jeans and rushed down the hall to dart into his bedroom.

"As for you, my cute little slut of a niece," Uncle Jim growled, trying to sound angry but the grin at the edges of his mouth couldn't be completely subdued. "Well, just let me say you have no idea how close you came to your aunt coming down here and seeing this. Get yourself together and we'll talk about it later."

At that his scowl turned into a nasty grin and he winked at me. There wasn't much doubt that his definition of "talking about it" didn't involve the need for a lot of words. From the way he was staring at my bare pussy, I think he would have fucked me right then and there had he not been so concerned about his wife. I was sure that my aunt was already wondering what was taking so long and it wouldn't do to find me like this!

Just when I thought he was out, his head popped back in and this time he WAS grinning.

"Yep, I knew it. No way did you have panties under those things!"

With that, Uncle Jim closed the door and I quickly locked it again. Taking a spare towel out of the closet, I used it to wipe the cum and pussy juices from around my pussy and down my legs where it had run after draining out of me. Looking in the mirror, I grimaced as my hair was a total wreck but some quick work with a brush and it as essentially back in place again. After some cursing and half killing myself in the confines of the bathroom, I was finally able to get my jeans back on. With jeans this small, it was a lot easier to pull them up laying on my bed than it was standing up in the bathroom. I guess I could have laid down but there was no way I was going to lay down on a bathroom floor where three teenagers reigned!

Peeking out the bathroom door, the coast was clear so I quickly stepped out and headed upstairs. About halfway up the stairs I met Kate, looking like a girl on a mission.

"Oh, there you are!" she exclaimed, "Your mom was wondering where you were but nobody seemed to know."

I just shrugged, figuring it was better to just ignore the little bitch. She was nothing but a tattle-tale and anything I said would go straight back to her mom. Back in the kitchen, everyone was working hard. My mom saw I'd returned and steered me over to the side of the room.

"For goodness sakes, where have you been? Everyone's been asking about you"

"Downstairs. I had to go to the bathroom"

"For over half an hour?" Then she looked me in the eyes and let out of loud breath of air. "Oh god, don't tell me. I mean, you didn't... not already?"

Really, what was the point in going through the motions? She knew darn well with the absence of Rick and me at the same time what that meant. For whatever reason it seemed to make her feel better to ask me and have me confirm it.

"Well, you'd better behave yourself the rest of the day," she warned me. I just nodded but a little grin managed to work its way out as I thought that my definition of "behaving" was probably not the same as hers.

"You know what I mean!" she added in, catching me in the act. How is it that mothers never seem to miss anything? Well, I guess that doesn't include my Aunt Shari. God, her son had just fucked me almost right under her feet and the woman was clueless! Actually, it was probably more that such a thing would never even be something she could imagine in her wildest nightmares.

Another half-hour or so and dinner was ready so the men were called in off from their couches and chairs where they had been watching TV. We all sat down, my Uncle Paul gave the blessing, and for the next hour or so we had a wonderful family time of eating and sharing. I was seated next to Laura, who kept asking me about school and other girl stuff. Kristi was seated on the other side of me and she kept rubbing her hand on my leg under table, teasing me more than anything.

After dinner it was back to standard American family tradition - the men went off to watch football and fall asleep while the women cleaned up after them. I really didn't care about the game so it was just as well. When everything was finally cleaned off and put away, the women sat down in the dining room and the gossip session began. Well, I shouldn't say gossip. As my mom says, my Aunt Shari doesn't gossip, she "shares"; and when the gossip is really juicy, she "shares in love". She heard that from some comic one day and thought it was hilarious and I had to say, it fit my aunt perfectly.

Listening to some of the stuff about people they knew, I found myself looking at my mother and Aunt Linda and winking at them. What would my other aunts say if they knew some of the goings on in our own family? There were times like this when I wanted to blurt it out, just to see the look on their faces. Fortunately, common sense always won out and so I never said anything stupid. But the thoughts of it still roamed through my head.

I was getting bored so I went in the living room to see what was going on there. Sure enough, my dad and Uncle Paul were fast asleep in their chairs, thankfully not snoring too loud. Uncle Jim and Rick were watching the game along with Laura and Ginny's husbands. I had to say one thing, they married well. Both of them were pretty good looking and I was imagining how it would be to join them in a threesome when Uncle Jim asked me if I would get him another beer. Rick chimed in, saying he wouldn't mind one as well but his dad just gave him a look that got the message across. Something about your dad's eyes that told you all you needed to know sometimes!

I went back to the kitchen and retrieved my uncle's beer along with a couple more for the other guys. When I handed his to him, my uncle gave me that "look" and just as Rick had known what his dad was thinking a few moments before, I knew exactly what he was thinking now about me. Checking quickly on the other guys and seeing them riveted to the TV, I winked at my uncle and licked my lips a little seductively for him before leaving the room again.

Taking a seat next to my mom in the dining room, I started to daydream and thoughts of my uncle came to mind. Frankly, the primary reason I let him fuck me is to please my dad. I mean, sure I would have let him do me once, no different than I would with most any other married guy. With my Aunt Shari being such a prude, it made it hot for me when he fucked me knowing how totally outraged she would be if she knew he even harbored such thoughts about me, let alone acted on them. The problem for me was that my uncle was the type that was dominating and sometimes forceful in sex, not at all like my dad. Sure there were moments, like when Uncle Jim Turning to my mom, I whispered to her that I would be back in a little bit. She looked at me with a question mark in her eyes and I just smiled. She cocked her head and rolled her eyes at me and then turned away before making a scene of it. My mom knew better than to try to talk me out of anything when I was in this sort of mood. Most likely she figured I was just going off to take care of myself or else she probably would have had more to say to me.

Walking back to the living room, I really had no idea what I was going to do. The only thing I was confident of was that if Uncle Jim knew he had half a chance to screw me, he would figure something out. It was as if time had stood still in the room since I left. Everyone was in the same position and the only indicator they had been alive in the interim were the empty beer bottles that I had brought in before.

At first I just stood there, trying to think of how I could get his attention without being TOO obvious about it. There was a time when I could have jumped in my uncle's lap and teased him but now that I was twenty that might have raised some eyebrows so I had to be a little more subtle. Turning to my uncle, I pretended to be confused about something.

"Hey Uncle Jim, where did you put our coats? I think I left my cell phone in the pocket."

"They're all on the bed in the back bedroom," he responded almost absentmindedly, his attention more on the TV than me.

"Thanks. You know, I really NEED it."

Well, maybe he wasn't being as inattentive as I had thought as he picked up on my tone of voice. It looked like he got my message in that what I needed wasn't my cell phone!

"Well, do you need any help finding it?"

I grinned as my confidence in my Uncle Jim was not misplaced. Now it was him that was helping things to move along.

"Would you mind Uncle Jim? That would be so cool."

As he got up out of the chair, it was if the two older guys never even hear a word as they argues over some silly play from the game. Rick, on the other hand, knew full well what my intentions were.

"Need any help dad?" he offered, not so innocently.

Uncle Jim just waved him back, again with a look that spoke volumes. The message was clear - she's mine this time. I thought it was pretty cool to see this father-son struggle over who got to fuck me. Was I to be the fantasy cousin or the naughty niece? Well, this time it looked like I was going to be the niece.

I followed my uncle down the hall to the bedroom. Fortunately, it was in the opposite direction from the dining room where everyone else was. Nobody should have been aware that my uncle and I were doing anything at all, let alone heading to his bedroom for something half the people here would be aghast to know about.

Once in their bedroom, my uncle looked down the hall and seeing that it was empty, quickly shut the door. Unfortunately, there wasn't a lock but I doubted that with it closed that anyone would come in. The bathroom has an entrance from the hallway so even if someone needed to use it, they didn't need to go through the bedroom.

With the door shut, he turned and what I would have given for a photo of the look on his face. The way his eyes stared at me, the slight opening of his mouth, his tongue on his lips, the flaring of his nostrils, everything was a classic portrait of a man consumed with lust. It was a look every girl learns about from the day she begins to change into a woman and the men around her start looking at her in a whole new way. It's a look I love to see in men when I "dress for success" where "success" is defined as getting laid. Even my dad looks at me this way some days when he is really horny. I mean, he IS a guy you know. Now, behind closed doors and having all but told him what I wanted, seeing that look I knew there was only one way I would walk out that door again. Where his cum would be was the only question - pussy, mouth, or over me?

"So, I take it Rick wasn't enough for you?" my uncle started out, a slight smirk to his tone of voice. "Yeah, I think you need a real man's cock to satisfy you, not some teenager's."

I stood on one foot and twisted my other on the floor. My eyes were cast downward as if I was uncertain what to say. My uncle stepped closer to me.

"C'mon, I know you Kelly, you're just a cock-hungry little slut, aren't you. Can't ever get enough, can you?"

I quickly debated how to play this out. What he said was essentially true. Really, how could I deny it? I DID love cock and I never DID seem to get enough of it. Yet, somehow I don't think he was looking for me to be some typical slut. After all, I WAS his niece and even though many men tell me they fantasize about their nieces (even though some of them can be quite young sometimes!), all of them seem to look at them differently than they would just any girl. It's like some protective instinct or maybe a cultural thing, but they all seem to want their niece to be naive and innocent (even when they dream of fucking them).

"Uncle Jim!" I pretended to protest, "How can you say that about your own niece?"

"Oh don't pretend to be so innocent. I mean, it's not like you were playing cards with my son in the bathroom earlier."

That was my cue in our little play. Time for Act 2 - transition from little girl to slut. I moved up close to him until I was right up against him. My hand lowered until it was lightly pushing against his crotch. My pussy gave a twinge as I felt the stiffness of his throbbing cock through his pants.

"Did that turn you on Uncle Jim?" I whispered to him in a husky voice, dripping with sexuality, "Did it make you hard thinking of your son's hard dick in my wet pussy?"

I could tell from this breathing he was getting more and more turned on. His hands grabbed my shoulders and he pulled me into him.

"Fucking right it did," he whispered hoarsely, "Shit, all I could think of today was getting a piece of your little ass."

Well, it wasn't exactly the most romantic compliment but as they say, it's the thought that counts.

"You wanna fuck me Uncle Jim?"

"Hell yes!"

"You want me to suck your dick?"

"Oh you know it!"

"Tell me Uncle Jim, I want you to say it."

"Crap Kelly, you know I want to fuck you dammit. God, I want you to blow me so fucking bad."

"Mmmmmmm, you want me more than Aunt Shari?"

"Screw her, I want to fuck you."

We could have dragged this little play out longer but there WERE other people in the house and so we didn't have all day. As for me, I heard what I wanted. Listening to a man tell me how bad he wants me, especially when it's more than his own wife, is about as erotic a thing that can happen to me. Of course I KNEW he wanted me but it made it so much better when he came out and actually put it into words.

He started to unbuckle his belt and unzip his pants while I "assumed the position" - kneeling in front of him, waiting for his cock to appear. It only took a few seconds as his pants and boxer shorts dropped to his feet. He wasn't wearing shoes so he just stepped out of them, kicking the pile to the side. He left his socks on which was sort of weird but I wasn't concerned about his feet. No, what had my attention was now at eye level and standing out from his crotch.

Uncle Jim put both hands on the back of my head and pulled me into him. It was clear what he wanted and frankly, I was more than agreeable to it. As I said before, in a situation where my only interest was in getting a cock, it really doesn't matter who it's attached to. I mean, all I typically want is to suck it and be fucked by it, not marry the guy. This was the case now. Uncle Jim definitely wasn't the kind of guy I would date. In fact, Sometimes I couldn't imagine he was really my dad's brother they were so different. But hey, he DID have a decent cock and when I'm as horny as I was now, I wasn't being picky.

His dick was about two inches in front of me and I could smell the rich odor of his crotch. Most of it was just the normal sweat that built up between showers but there was a hint of sexual musk or whatever you called it that came out when a man gets horny. My dad is pretty hairy but my uncle is like a bear, covered in thick black hair and his crotch was a virtual forest of stiff curly pubic hair. His dick emerged from it like the stem of a weed shooting out from a lawn except it was no thin stem that faced me. It wasn't the biggest cock in the world but at this close range it looked plenty big enough. It was pointing straight out from his crotch, the tip of it staring me in the face like some fleshy eye.

No matter how many dicks I suck, like snowflakes it seems no two are the same. I quickly learned as a teen that how a man looks when he is soft is not a sure indicator of what the end result is when he gets erect. Some men are quite large, even when flaccid, but then all that seems to happen when they get an erection is it gets hard without a lot of growth. Then there are the guys who look like wimps when they are soft, their dick barely poking out from their pubic hair. But when they grow, it's like Jack in the Beanstalk and it increase several times over in size. The vast majority of guys are relatively short when soft and then grow modestly to maybe five or six inches and perhaps double in thickness. This is why I hate it when guys send me cock shots but as always they are these huge dicks and frankly, I just haven't found such oddities to be the norm!

Besides the differences in size and the change when they become erect, the other distinction I find is how they stand out from the guy's body. When a guy masturbates for me on his cam, I always ask him to stand up and let his cock hang hands-free. Some of them curve upwards such that they point skyward, like a rocket ready for blast-off. Most stand out at some angle like my Uncle whose dick stuck out like a nasty spear ready to be thrust into me. Surprisingly, some of the biggest ones have the least stiffness. They get hard enough to fuck me but feel more like a thick sausage rather than a stiff pole.

So anyway, all I had to do in the current situation was open my mouth and my uncle took care of the rest. Holding my head still with his hands, he thrust his hips forward, driving his dick into my mouth. I was careful to keep my teeth off of him as at first he just put in the first couple of inches or so. It wasn't really a BJ, it was more like he as fucking my mouth, stroking himself in and out of me. As time went on he kept pushing a little more into my mouth until his pubic hair began to rub up against my lips and cheeks. I had this sudden urge to itch as it tickled me but I was holding onto his legs for support to keep from tipping over backwards He was holding my head but it was more to manage his dick in my mouth than giving me any support for balance.

"God I love seeing my cock in your mouth," he gasped between his thrusts. "You know, you're even better than your mom and THAT'S saying something."

Thankfully my mom didn't hear him say that as although she has never been jealous of me having sex with my dad, she IS pretty protective over her reputation. So far as my mom is concerned, NOBODY gives my dad a BJ as good as hers. She likes to tell me, "I taught you everything you know, but not everything I know." Well, I've had a LOT of experience since my mom first taught me about sucking cock and even my dad has secretly told me that my BJs are the best but he would never dare tell my mom. Privately, I have to admit that it made me feel good to hear my uncle compliment me that way as having seen my mom in action, she IS pretty damn good!

"Mmmmmmm," was all I could get out with a mouthful of cock.

By now I had enough of my mouth being his little fuck toy so I reached up and grabbed the base of his dick and started to give him a real BJ. My mouth had been getting tired from holding it open for him to fuck so it actually felt good to be able to close down on it and grasp it with my lips. I twisted my head around his dick, running my tongue around the head of it in side of my mouth. Rather than just bobbing on his dick like I was at a party trying to get an apple out of a tank of water, I savored his cock, sucking on it like a popsicle and running my tongue around it like it was a melting ice cream cone and I didn't want it to drip on the ground.

"Oh yeah, sweet Jesus you can suck dick!"

I looked up at him and saw he was watching me. Our eyes met and he grinned as I managed to keep his dick in my mouth even with my head turned upward. I keep sucking him, taking my hands off of his shaft and just letting my lips do the work on him. My hands reached around and I held his butt. Unlike Rick, who had a nice firm ass, Uncle Jim's was more flabby and covered with thick hair but he seemed to like it from the way he groaned as I ran my hands over it.

We had been at it for a while now and despite everything I was doing I couldn't help but wonder what would happen if suddenly the door opened and my Aunt Shari made an appearance. God, I could just imagine her reaction to seeing her nice kneeling in front of her husband with his cock deep in her mouth! She would probably just faint dead away but afterwards I have no doubt there would be serious repercussions. No doubt the element of danger was a turn-on for my uncle and even for me it added a bit spice. Even so, the longer we went on the more it went from being naughty to something truly dangerous.

Apparently, he must have been thinking the same thing, or maybe he was just motivated by something more basic, but in any case it was apparently time for the next act. Grabbing my hair, he pulled my head back from his cock and I let his dick slip from my mouth. It was as hard as ever, staring straight at me.

"Sorry, didn't mean to be so rough much as I love your mouth, I HAVE to fuck you."

I got a bit of a kick out of his so-called apology. Like I was going to argue or complain about getting laid? True, most guys whose dick I sucked didn't get to fuck me (by my choice, not theirs), but I can't remember a time when there was a guy who I truly wanted to fuck me who didn't, given there was the right opportunity. As I once heard said, a man is only as faithful to his wife as his options. Boy, I can second that one!

I stood up and wiped my mouth off when he grabbed me by the waist and steered me backwards to the bed. When I got to the edge he just kept pushing me, causing me to drop backwards onto the pile of coats piled there. I could say one thing, it was quite comfy!

"Show me your tits," he demanded as he fumbled with my jeans.

I wasn't wearing a belt but he was still having a bit of a hassle getting the tops undone. Well, that was his problem so I lifted up my sweatshirt, exposing my bare breasts to him. My nipples were hard, sticking out like bullets. I couldn't help but grimace to myself whenever he called them "tits". To me, they are my boobs. When I am trying to be more formal, then "breasts". If I was goofing around or what not, maybe "the girls" or something like that, but never "tits". I really don't know why it turns me off so badly; just sounds demeaning to me I guess.

In any case, he stared at my boobs as he finally undid my jeans and unzipped them. I held my boobs, one in each hand, as he struggled to pull my jeans off. Yes, they WERE damn tight. If he was having so much trouble getting them OFF, imagine what I went through to get them ON! He persevered, just as I knew he would. After all, there was no way a pair of tight jeans was going to keep my uncle from fucking me.

With my jeans off and my sweatshirt pulled up to my neck, I was left lying nude on the bed with nothing else on but my white anklets. I debated pulling off the sweatshirt altogether but it seemed like a reasonable precaution in case someone came in. Looking back, it was pretty silly of me to even think that way as what difference was a sweatshirt going to make if we were caught fucking? But at the time it made me feel more secure and that's what counted.

I could feel the coats under my ass and I wondered whose winter coat was rubbing against me. In my head I made a mental note to check before this was all over. It would be cool to see them wearing it, knowing my bare ass had been all over it not too long before.

"Damn!" was all my Uncle Jim could get out as he stood there staring at my all but nude body. His dick was practically quivering he wanted to fuck me so bad and I wondered why he didn't just get to it.

"You like my pussy Uncle Jim?" I said in my little girl voice. Guys always seemed to like it when I spoke that way, as if somehow I was ten years old or something.

"God, you have such a sweet cunt!"

"Well, it's waiting for you," I said softly, as if I was a little girl taking it for the first time. My right hand reached down between my legs and I pulled it up as it caressed my pussy on the way. My middle finger ran between my pussy lips, showing him how wet and ready I was for him.

"See, it's all wet and ready."

"Spread your legs apart more."

"You mean... like this?" I asked innocently, widening my legs apart which gave him a complete view of my cute ass and pussy. I don't think calling it cute makes me superficial or whatever. All through my teen years guys have told me that my ass is my best attribute so what the heck, why not call it cute?

"Spread your pussy apart for me," he demanded as he started stroking his cock. Crap, there was no need for him to stroke himself when my pussy was ready and willing to accommodate him! In any case, I did as he asked, using both hands to spread me wide open.

My pussy was practically aching as it waited for his dick. You would never know it had been fucked not long ago by Rick but it was insatiable, always demanding more. Most of the time I like to think I control my pussy, not the other way around. There are those times, though, like now, when my pussy wants it so bad it takes control and I'll do most anything to satisfy it. Case in point - my brief but brilliant career as an escort which was a response to my pussy when I wasn't getting any in college.

Uncle Jim moved up between my legs, not even holding his cock as he prepared to fuck me "no hands". With the way his cock stuck out like an arrow heading for its target, all he had to do was line it up with me and push it in.

"Ohhhhhhhhhhhh," I groaned, almost too loudly as his dick spread my pussy part and his cock head pushed its way into me.

At this instant it didn't matter he wasn't that good looking, or that he was overweight, or even that he was covered with body hair. The only thing about him I cared about at this moment was the appendage sticking out from his crotch, or more precisely, that part of him that was now inside of me. Nothing else makes my pussy feel this way, the way it feels when a real dick is forcing its way inside of it. Dildos just don't cut it for me because in the back of my mind, I know that it's just a hard piece of plastic in me. My own fingers feel good, but their MY fingers, not someone's dick. Tongues and whatever else someone may use on me canal be enjoyable, but NOTHING even comes close to comparing the incredible sensations I feel throughout every inch of my body when I feel a real hard cock violating me.

"Yeah, this is what you really wanted, isn't it you nasty slut," he gloated, as he kept pushing himself into me, one bit at a time.

"Oh yes Uncle Jim, fuck me... oh please fuck me," I cried out to him in as low a voice as I could control. If someone had their ear on the door then it would be all over with but the burning at the stake! Frankly, I just didn't give a damn anymore. I wanted to be fucked, to be laid, screwed, drilled, you name it. As long as it meant putting his dick in me, I didn't care what it was called.

"Damn, you really need to talk to your aunt," he teased, still pressing himself ever so slowly into me, "teach her to enjoy my cock like you do."

That almost made me lose it as I fought back a giggle. Oh sure, I could just imagine me teaching my Aunt Shari how to let herself go when her husband fucked her. Instead, I used what he said and twisted it around to suit me.

"You like fucking me more than her, don't you Uncle Jim?"

He had pushed himself all the way in me by now and was on the way out as slowly as he had entered. As horny as I knew he was, it was quite a display of willpower on his part not to just start fucking me hard and cumming.

"Shit, she just lays there," he complained.

"Do you think of me then?"

He was now stroking himself in and out of my pussy fairly quickly as he replied, "Hell yes, that is, when we ever do it."

That was a turn on to me. I could imagine him in bed with my aunt, getting hard thinking of me and then fucking her. She would think he was turned on by her when all the while it was actually my nude body that he was fantasizing about fucking. When he came in her, I bet he was dreaming of his dick in my tight pussy, not in her loose hairy cunt.

He fucked me like that for a few minutes. Actually, with the time limits we had, I didn't really expect anything more than that but he was going for it, one way or another.

"Turn over bitch," he demanded after suddenly pulling out of me.

I knew it was better not to question him once he got in this frame of mind so I flipped over and laid on top of the coats. The soft fur lining of someone's jacket (I think it belonged to my cousin Ginny) pressed against my boobs and the fur felt good against my boobs. I was far enough on the bed that my legs hung out straight and so he grabbed me by the ankles and pulled me back towards the edge until my pussy was right on the edge and he was holding up my legs by grabbing them under the thighs.

"Fuck, you have the sweetest ass," he groaned as I felt his cock moving up against my ass. He put the cock head against my asshole and I flinched. Turning my head around my shoulder, I scolded him.

"Now you know better than that, Uncle Jim."

"Oh come on, you'll like it once you get started," he protested.

"NO!" I said, loud enough that anyone in the hall probably would have heard.

"OK, OK, I get the message," he said in a more humble tone.

Figuring things were going to be uncomfortable this way, I rolled to my side and gathered in several coats under my stomach, so that when I rolled back over onto my stomach again, it raised me up and my pussy was more at an angle for him, making it easier for him to fuck me without having to lean over or bend down.

"Good idea," he complimented me and before I could answer, he had slipped himself back into me again. After being stretched out by his first fucking of me, and given how incredibly wet I was, his dick slid into me like it was a greased pig.

"Oh yeah, that's better," I moaned softly, once again feeling the pleasure of having his cock inside of me.

I was actually on my knees and elbows now, the coats pushed under my stomach to help support me. Now that he didn't have to hold my legs up, he used the opportunity to play with my ass, squeezing it and rubbing his hands all over my butt.

"Oh my god, did I tell you what a great ass you have?" he groaned.

Of course he had but it didn't matter, he could tell me a hundred times and I wouldn't mind. Really, what girl in the world would get mad because a guy complimented her ass too many times?

Being on my knees like this, I was able to rock in time with his strokes which helped to drive him deeper into me when he pushed in. On the way out it took a little more dexterity as too much by either of us and he would slip out of me. Even when that happened, it was only a matter of seconds before he had himself back where he belonged.

"God damn it, I'm cumming, turn around," he groaned as he pulled out of me.

This was NOT on my agenda but there wasn't time to argue, just to do as he said. I flipped over and literally slid off the bed onto my knees in front of him as he stroked his cock the final few times he needed to get off.

"Open your mouth dammit!" he hissed as he put his cock in front of my face. It wasn't like I didn't want him to cum in my mouth. Heck, if anything I wished ALL of his cum would end up in my mouth but that was just wishful thinking on my part as it turned out.

"Arghhhh!" he groaned as his hips jerked and his cock jerked as well in front of my face. God only knows where that first shot went but it was "just a little outside" as the movie goes. All I knew was he missed my face entirely and it flew past to the left of me. The next shot was right on target, hitting my mouth and landing on my outstretched tongue. It seemed especially bitter today, maybe because of the beer he had been drinking.

The rest of his cum went everywhere. Some I could feel on my cheeks, some in my mouth, and the rest was simply a mystery for now. When he finished shooting I took his dick back in my mouth, sucking out the last of his cum that I could from his rapidly dwindling cock. He shuddered when I first took his cock in my mouth, as if it was ultra-sensitive. I imagined it was like my clit after an orgasm. Heck, all I needed was a pair of tight jeans after I came and it was off to the races again for me.

"God that felt so good," he moaned.

Then suddenly, he was all business, just like his son had been earlier. It didn't really surprise me to see the Dr. Jeckle and Mr. Hyde routine again. After all, most men acted this way after they had cum with me. Super horny and hot one second, back to work the next.

"C'mon, get dressed before someone comes in here!"

Funny, a few seconds ago the entire family could have walked in and I doubt it would have fazed him but now that he had been satisfied, it was all he worried about. He was actually right in pushing me to get going as had it been up to me, I might have laid back down on those coats again and masturbated until I came.

I stood up and pulled my sweatshirt down. If someone came in now they would see I didn't have any jeans on but at least that's all they would see. How I would have possibly explained the disappearance of my pants never crossed my mind at the time but it made me feel better at the time for some reason. Reaching down, I grabbed my jeans. The easiest way to get on a pair of tight jeans is to lay back on your bed and work them up so I laid back on the coats once again and managed to eventually get them back up and buttoned. By that time my uncle was dressed and ready to go. When I stood up he looked at me and grinned.

"What's so funny?" I inquired.

"Well, maybe you had just better look in the mirror."

There was a large mirror over the dresser and I instantly say what he was referring to. Damn, he had sprayed cum all over my sweatshirt! Crap, now what was I gonna do? I wasn't wearing anything underneath, not even a bra, so taking it off wasn't an option. Then I looked closer and saw that my face still had some cum on it and there was one especially large blob at the hairline over my forehead. Damn, this was going to be a pain!

"You go back, I have to clean up," I said to him.

"Well, you're a great fuck Kelly," he said, his hand on the doorknob. "My brother's a VERY lucky guy!"

With that he left, leaving the door opened. I quickly made my way to the bathroom which thankfully had a lock on the door as no sooner was I in there than someone knocked on the door and tried to enter.

"You in there Kelly?"

Whew, it was my mother! I took in a breath and opened the door to see her standing out there alone.

"You OK hun? You've been gone for quite a while."

I opened the door fully to let her in and she saw my predicament.

"Oh for crying out loud Kelly, why didn't you take it off?" she scolded me. So typical of my mom. It wasn't the fucking that she was worried about, it was always about being responsible.

"I was afraid someone might come in," I replied, the answer sounding even more lame when I said it out loud.

"Oh right, like THAT would've made a difference," my mom laughed, easing the tension a bit. "Here girl, let's get you cleaned up."

She helped wash off the cum from my face and hair, even finding some on my neck I had missed. As for my sweatshirt, we decided it best just to let it soak in and claim I had spilled some water without really explaining how it managed to strike me in such drops. For whatever reason, we left the bathroom through the bedroom door which turned out to be fortunate. As we walked through, she looked at the coats still piled up from when I was being fucked.

"Oh Kelly, do I have to do EVERYTHING for you?" she whined. "God, you would think you were fifteen again or something."

She was printing at the coats and it was then I realized where that first large shot of cum had gone that I hadn't accounted for. It was all over one of the coats.

"You're pretty damn lucky, you know it don't you?"

I nodded because I recognized the coat - it was my mom's.

"You owe me for a dry cleaning now girl," she teased me as she folded the coat so nobody would see the cum stains.

Looking down the hall before we left, she turned to me with a motherly smile.

"Well, I can't say I approve of you deserting everyone in the middle of Thanksgiving but did you at least enjoy it?"

I nodded and grinned and she hugged me and kissed me. It was a good thing that nobody was in the hall as it wasn't just a peck on the cheeks either!

"OK, that will have to do for now, let's get back," she said. "Hopefully getting it twice is enough for you until we get home!"

I looked at her and just grinned. It was great having a mom who was so understanding and supportive. I thought of my Aunt Shari and how differently my life would have been had she been my mom. Well, I wouldn't trade my mom for her in a million years, not for any price!

(Dec 10) Chapter 105: My Dad's Office Christmas Party

Story codes: MF Mf FF Ff exhib oral inc father daughter
Me (20)
John - my dad (41)
Mike (45)
Sandy (16)
Candice (18)

It was time for Dad's annual office party. My dad bought me a sexy "elf" outfit and after I thanked him in my special way it was time to party. In short, by the time it was over I added another married guy to my sexual history chart. I also met two sisters who I hope will be good friends in the future after having a great time with them and five guys in their hotel room playing a game of strip poker!

1. Life at Home

It was Christmas Break time and I had only just gotten home the day before from school after an exhausting week of finals. Although it had only been a couple of weeks since I was home for Thanksgiving, I was still thrilled to be back.

As a college junior I was now dealing with the separations from home better than I had in my first two years but there's no place like home! My dad and I go things started off right the night I got back and the next morning I was thrilled when he continued his traditional "wakeup call" for me. Like most Saturday's, he had to go to work so once he left I had breakfast with mom and then drove over to my Aunt's to visit with her and my cousin Kristen who was also back home for her first winter break (as they called it at her public college). I couldn't stay long because my dad's officer Christmas party was that night and I had to get home to get ready.

My dad is a corporate lawyer - the boring kind, not like the guys on Boston Legal - a show he absolutely abhors by the way! It may be boring to me but people pay him a lot of money for what he does which means I get to go to an expensive

To me, incest is just a way of expressing our love and respect for one another. It is nothing at all like the type of sex I have with other people outside my family where I'm looking more for my own physical gratification. I think it's such a shame that incest has gotten such a bad rap due to the perverts out there that have used it as an excuse to abuse their children and rape family members. Such people should be shot in my opinion but that doesn't mean incest in and of itself is wrong, jus that it requires a deep sense of love and respect.

2. Mom Buys Me a Christmas Outfit

Tonight was my dad's office party and as usual, I found myself debating what I should wear. I was pretty well known at his office but as you might imagine, it had nothing to do with my typing skills! I like to visit my dad's office periodically and I make it point to tease and flirt as much as possible. Sometimes it has gone a bit farther and in fact my first experience with a cheating husband was one of the lawyers that worked for my dad. I have done a few of them since then.

The only thing I don't like about his office is the head secretary or whatever she is called. This prudish church lady apparently thinks he lets me get away with murder. She has even called me a slut when my dad wasn't around but I just laugh since after all, what can she do about it? I had not been at one of his office party for years since it was usually held before I get home for break so it would be interesting to see how things went now that I was a little older.

My mom came in my room and saw me standing in front of my closet, stark naked with my hands on my hips as I argued with myself over what to wear. "What's the matter Kelly?" she asked, "Can't decide what to wear? Well, you can't go THAT way you know!"

I rolled my eyes at my mom's usual pathetic attempt at humor and then explained my dilemma as she stood there and just smiled at me.

Finally she motioned for me to shush and said, "Hmmm, so let me guess. You can't decide whether to go as a good little daddy's girl or the office slut?"

We both laughed as she knew all about my past history at the office. She smiled at me and said, "Well, even though none of them know just how much of a daddy's girl you really are, none of them are going to be fooled into thinking you are some naive little schoolgirl."

I looked at her sharply and she chuckled softly, "Oh come on girl, your dad says attendance is always the highest whenever they know you're coming in that day and I KNOW it's not just because of your bubbling personality!"

I was about to make some smart comment back when she reached around the door and pulled out a plain white shopping bag. She kissed me on the cheek and said, "Your dad and I figured you might have this dilemma so we went out last week and bought you this. Hope it fits; you know, you look like you've been visiting the speed line at the cafeteria a few too many times girl. Hmmm, have your boobs been growing?"

"Mom!" I protested.

I knew she was just teasing. Sure, I HAD filled out a little more in recent months but it just meant I wasn't as skinny as I was. Of course I don't stuff myself with pizza and chips every night the way some of the porky girls do who then complain they don't know why they are overweight. But I didn't starve myself either the way some of the waifs did on campus who couldn't seem to get any skinnier if they quit eating completely!

On the other hand, even at twenty my boobs were still not finished it seemed. Well, better late than never. After spending my entire teen years wishing for bigger boobs, I was finally in a C cup! Yes, there is a God!

I opened the bag and saw that there was some sort of outfit or costume inside. I was intrigued and pulled it out and then laid it out on my bed. I couldn't help but giggle when I recognized what it was - my parents had bought me a Santa's elf outfit! It started with long pointed red shoes with tips that curled back over the toes. Next were sheer green tights followed by a red dress with white fur trim. The skirt portion looked like something you would see in an ice skating competition long enough to qualify as a skirt but too short to function as much of anything. It was obvious everyone was going to see a LOT of my green tights.

The upper portion of the dress was strapless with white fur trim. It looked pretty low cut and the back dipped down as well. I was certainly thankful I wasn't a real elf and had to wear this thing out in the cold! There were a set of white gloves and a red elf hat with a white tassel at the end. The whole thing looked positively sexy and I turned and hugged my mom.

"Mmmmmmm, thanks Mom!" I said. "You're the greatest parents in the whole world!"

My mom hugged me back saying, "Well, you can guess who picked it out. I had my eyes on this pretty Mrs. Santa Claus outfit but your dad insisted on this one. Now get going and get ready; we have to leave in an hour!"

My mom left and I stood there admiring my new outfit. I bet I was going to be turning some heads tonight in this one! I could only imagine the stares I would get from the guys I had already fucked. A few of them were married and I wondered if their wives would have any idea why their husbands were staring at me with such a knowing look in their eyes?

3. My Dad Appreciates My New Outfit

I was about to head to the bathroom when heard the shower start running. My mom was in her bedroom so it could only be my dad. I hadn't even realized he was home. He must have left the office early to get ready for the party. I went in and saw him through the glass door just starting to soap up so I slide the door back open just enough to peek in. He had heard me come in of course and I was sure it was no surprise to see me.

"Hey baby, mom give you your new outfit?" he asked.

I smiled and replied, "Oh daddy! It's fantastic, the perfect choice for tonight. I bet you can't wait to see them looking at me, can you?"

He was rubbing the soap around his cock and lathering up his pubic hair. Mmmmmmm, he looked inviting and I wanted to thank him for the outfit in my special way so here was the perfect opportunity. I slid the door back some more and stepped into the shower behind him. Reaching around I took his wet and soapy cock in my hand and started to stroke him slowly. I pressed up against his butt and felt my boobs push against his back.

"I wanted to thank you for the outfit," I whispered softly to him, barely audible above the sound of the shower.

His cock hardened quickly as my hand slid easily over him thanks to the slippery coating of soap that covered it. I used my other hand to cradle his balls and gently roll them between my fingers. The water plastered his pubic hair flat against his crotch, exposing his cock to the fullest as if he was shaved.

I kept stroking his cock a the shower stream rinsed away the soap until he was just wet with water. He turned around to face me and I kneeled down in the tub to take him in my mouth. He still tasted a little of soap but it wasn't too bad as I was more interested in the feel of his hard cock in my mouth.

My hair was soaked as the shower beat down on his back as he protected me from the majority of the shower stream while I suck his firm cock. His hand pushed my head down onto him until I felt the tip of his cock press against the back of my throat. It wasn't quite enough to get him all in so I pushed down further, forcing his cock down my throat. The automatic gag reflex almost won but I fought it back and took him further down my throat until my face was buried tight in his crotch.

I twisted my head around his cock and my heart skipped a beat as I heard my dad groan with pleasure. I loved doing this for him, making my father feel good until he couldn't hold back anymore and his cum would burst from his cock into his loving daughter's waiting mouth or pussy. Usually he came in my pussy but today I just planned to suck him off until he came in my mouth. I loved it the most when he came in my pussy because it was like he was mating me, leaving a part of his love inside of me. Letting him cum in my mouth was more of an act of submission for me, a demonstration of my willingness to give myself completely to him for his pleasure, to show him that he could have me in any way he wanted.

Today I wanted to thank him for being such a wonderful father so what better way than to take his cock in my mouth and let him fill it with his cum? I knew he loved it and I knew I was damn good at it as well. Well, practice DOES make perfect as they say! I kept sucking him and stroking him in and out of my mouth, licking him with my tongues up and down his shaft and around the base of his head. He was groaning more now and louder as well. The shower stall echoed his groans making them seem ever deeper and louder than they probably were. He grabbed my head with both hands and pulled me into his groin.

"Oh god I'm cumming," he moaned, "Take it Kelly, take my cum. Be you daddy's little slut"

Well, as I always say, anything for my dad! After all, it wasn't like he wanted me to do something I didn't want to do anyway. His cock was almost completely in my mouth when I felt it convulse and the first shot of cum cam bursting forth from it and struck the back if my throat. He gave me another load and then several quick ones after that until my mouth was filled with his cum to where it was leaking out past my lips that I had locked around his quivering shaft. I felt it dribble down my chin and then wash away as the shower stream poured over my head. Finally I thought he was done and when I moved my mouth on him he pulsed one last time and then was actually finished.

"Damn baby, you are one HELL of a cocksucker," he said, "God I love you. What more could father ask of his daughter than what you do for me!"

I let his cock drop from my mouth and I opened my mouth so he could see the cum in it before I swallowed it down. I felt so happy and proud at that moment, happy that I could please him and proud that I was so good at it. There were guys who told me they had never cum from just a girl sucking their cock and they had to finish off with their hand. Well, all I can say is whoever is sucking their cock needs to learn what they're doing wrong because I had never had a guy fail to cum when I made a determined effort to suck his cock. The door slide open just then and my mom's face appeared.

"Just what I figured. Come on your two sex maniacs, we have to get going to set up for the party. Kelly - wash that cum off your chin and get going. I can't believe you let your hair get soaked this late! What am I going to do with you?"

She shut the door hard and I knew she was a bit miffed at the two of us. I rinsed my face off and then stepped out to dry myself off. I now had just enough time to dry my hair and get dressed before we had to go but I was thrilled that I had a chance to thank my dad before we did.

Once my hair was ready I slipped into my new outfit. I debated whether to wear anything under the tights but as sheer as they were I figured anything I wore would be more visible than what I had underneath. My bare butt would certainly look better than panties or G-string showing through the thin material and with my shaved pussy, it wasn't like anyone would be seeing some dark triangle. I decided to go with just the tights and pulled them up. The dress was a bit on the tight side and my now C sized boobs were almost too big. I certainly hoped they didn't come spilling out in the middle of the party! The tiny skirt barely covered my ass standing up and I knew if I bent over the least bit or even sat down that I would be showing off my butt every time I did. Well, nothing wrong with that!

I slipped on the silly shoes and put on the hat and gloves to complete the outfit. Looking in the mirror, I laughed as I imagined myself as one of Santa's naughty elves. I could certainly make a few guys happy for Christmas in this outfit! I went next door to my parents' room where they were putting on their own finishing touches. My dad had his tuxedo on and my mom was wearing a beautiful red gown that said Merry Christmas in a way only she could in that outfit. My dad gave out a long wolf whistle as I paraded in front of them, twirling around to show off from every angle.

"Damn, you're going to be the apple of every guy's eye and draw the scorn of every married woman there tonight in that outfit," he exclaimed.

My mom nodded approvingly saying, "It really doesn't show a thing but god it's suggestive! Good pick John!"

4. Teasing Mike

We grabbed out coats and headed for the car where we piled in my Dad's SUV to head downtown. After parking in the hotel garage, we went to the room where the party was being held. Several of my dad's partners were already there with their wives and I saw the meal was being set up as well as the mandatory open bar. Part of the party package included a room for everyone and it was heavily encouraged that people make use of them if they planned to drink. After all, it WAS a party of lawyers and who better to know the ramifications of someone driving home drunk?

We took off our coats and my dad collected my mom's and mine to take to the coat check. As I removed mine I saw every eye in the room turn as they realized what I was wearing. My dad noticed as well and laughed at them all.

"Hey, like the elf I brought with tonight? Now be careful, she's Santa's special elf so don't mess with her!"

Everyone laughed but I saw that my dad's prediction was already coming true. The guy's eyes all lingered on me for what was just long enough to be considered indecent and their wives saw the same thing and each gave me a look that would have killed if they could. Mmmmmmm, this was promising to be a fun evening indeed

I noticed that Mike, one of the partners responsible for international customers, was there as well. Since he had joined my dad's firm about six years ago I had only met him a few times as he seemed to be traveling every time I was in the office. He was married but his kids had all left home years ago. His wife had been at past parties but they never seemed to be together much and my dad had told me once that Mike had a reputation in the office for fooling around on business trips. I didn't see her around tonight but she might have been around somewhere.

I went over to the reception table and started to spread out the name tags in alphabetical order. Mike came over and moved behind me to see what I was doing – or so I thought. Next thing I knew I felt a hand on my butt! From the firmness and length of the contact it certainly wasn't a casual brush or mistake. Unbelievable as it seemed to me Mike was grabbing my ass right there behind the table!

I could see the others in the room and didn't want to make a scene so I pretended not to notice although of course it would have been impossible for me to not to know what was going on. I expected him to just get a feel and move on but he didn't let go and actually started to massage my butt. Realizing this was not just a dirty old man copping a feel, I turned my head to look at him.

"So tell me, does my ass feel good?" I asked him coyly.

Mike grinned at me devilishly. "Damn right it does - and don't tell me you don't like it." My grin gave him the answer he was looking for and he reached down a little lower to cup my butt more in his hand. "Damn you have a nice one! So tell me, is it true what they say about you?"

I gave him a little girl look as if I had absolutely no idea what he was talking about.

"Oh come on, don't play games with me," he said. "You know exactly what I'm talking about. I don't have to spell it out."

His hand had not left my ass the whole time and if anything was moving down more and one of his fingers was starting to grope between my legs! My tights prevented him from actually touching me but they weren't stopping me from feeling the pressure of his finger against me. This was crazy; we were in a ballroom with everyone around and just a table to hide his hand.

Then I saw that his wife over on the other side of the room but I doubted that she had any idea what her lecherous husband was up to. I nodded towards her and said, "Isn't that your wife over there? What would she say if she knew where your hand was right now?"

Mike chuckled and pressed his finger up into my crotch against my tights, pushing my tights up into me slightly. "Oh she would probably kill us both where we stand but look at her - she is literally twice the woman I married. Mmmmmmm, I wish Santa would bring me you for Christmas, that's for sure!"

I looked over to where my dad was talking to a group of people. "Well, Santa's right over there. Why don't you ask him?"

Mike chuckled a bit, "Well, you certainly are the tease, aren't you? Does daddy know his little girl has been fucking half the firm?"

I ignored that and wiggled my ass against his exploring hand. "Well, are you just going to feel me up or what?"

From the look in his face I quickly surmised that up until now he had just been playing around and that he really hadn't expected anything to come of it. He probably had gotten more than he'd expected in the first place and was waiting for me to slap him or at least pull away. But instead I had called his bluff and now he found himself having to decide whether to fold or go all in.

Frankly, I didn't think he had the nerve which is what made me be so bold with him so I was surprised when he said, "Fine, enough of the teasing. If you're really the slut I've heard you are, meet me in the empty conference room next door in five minutes."

His hand released my ass and he walked over to where his wife was and started saying something I couldn't make out. Well, he had better not put his hand anywhere near her nose! I thought about his proposition for a few seconds and smiled to myself. The party hadn't even started yet and here I was contemplating whether to get fucked already! Well, why not?
